What Our Purpose Is – The Simple “Bottom Line”

Two thousand years ago, a crew of members of the Kingdom of Heaven who are responsible for nurturing “gardens,” determined that a percentage of the human “plants” of the present civilization of this Garden (Earth) had developed enough that some of those bodies might be ready to be used as “containers” for soul deposits. Upon instruction, a member of the Kingdom of Heaven then left behind His body in that Next Level (similar to putting it in a closet, like a suit of clothes that doesn’t need to be worn for awhile), came to Earth, and moved into (or incarnated into), an adult human body (or “vehicle”) that had been “prepped” for this particular task. The body that was chosen was called Jesus. The member of the Kingdom of Heaven who was instructed to incarnate into that body did so at His “Father’s” (or Older Member’s) instruction. He “moved into” (or took over) that body when it was 29 or 30 years old, at the time referred to as its baptism by John the Baptist (the incarnating event was depicted as “...the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove” – Luke 3:22).

The sole task that was given to this member from the Kingdom of Heaven was to offer the way leading to membership into the Kingdom of Heaven to those who recognized Him for who He was and chose to follow Him. “The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand” meant – “since I am from that Kingdom, if you leave everything of this world and follow me, I can take you into my Father’s Kingdom.” Only those individuals who had received a “deposit” containing a soul’s beginning had the capacity to believe or recognize the Kingdom of Heaven’s Representative. They could get to His Father only through total reliance upon Him. He later sent His students out with the “Good news of the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,” and His followers could then help gather the “flock” so that the “Shepherd” might teach others what was required of them to enter His Father’s House – His Father’s Kingdom – the Kingdom of Heaven – in the literal and physical Heavens – certainly not among humans on Earth. Leaving behind this world included: family, sensuality, selfish desires, your own mind, and even your human body if it be required of you – all mammalian ways, thinking, and behavior. Since He had been through this metamorphic transition Himself from human to Level Above Human – under the guidance of His Father – He was qualified to take others through that same discipline and transition. Remember, the One who incarnated in Jesus was sent for one purpose only, to say, “If you want to go to Heaven, I can take you through that gate – it requires everything of you.”

Our mission is exactly the same. I am in the same position to today’s society as was the One that was in Jesus then. My being here now is actually a continuation of that last task as was promised, to those who were students 2000 years ago. They are here again offering the same help. Our only purpose is to offer the discipline and “grafting” required of this transition into membership in My Father’s House. My Father came with me this time for the first half of this task to assist in the task because of its present difficulty.

Looking to us, and desiring to be a part of us, can offer to those with deposits that chance to connect. Your separation from the world and reliance upon the Kingdom of Heaven through its Representatives can open to you the opportunity to become a new creature, rightfully belonging to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Why It Is Difficult To Believe or Accept Us

We don’t know if you believe in the real existence of negative or “lower” forces. If you do, then you may be able to understand or relate to some of what we are about to say. It seems that how your “programming” permits you to see or identify those forces, determines the limit of your acceptance or understanding. Many believe that there are “evil” acts or even “evil” individuals, but would draw the line before they would believe in evil spirits, evil discarnates, negative influences, malevolent space aliens, “Luciferians,” or Satan and his fallen angels.

The generally accepted “norms” of today’s societies – world over – are designed, established, and maintained by the individuals who were at one time “students” of the Kingdom of Heaven – “angels” in the making – who “flunked out” of the classroom. Legends and scriptures refer to them as fallen angels. The current civilization’s records use the name Satan or Lucifer to describe a single fallen angel and also to “nickname” any “evil presence.” If you have experienced some of what our “classroom” requires of us, you would know that these “presences” are real and that the Kingdom of God even permits them to “attack” us in order for us to learn their tricks and how to stay above them or conquer them. The space aliens, or Luciferians, use the discarnate spirits (the minds that are disembodied at the death of a body) as their primary servants – against potential members of the Kingdom of God. These “influences,” or discarnates, are constantly “programming” every human “plant” (vehicle or body), to accept a set of beliefs and norms for behavior during a lifetime. From our point of view, this “programming” will find that body, and the vast majority of all human bodies, all but unusable by students of the Kingdom of Heaven.

As the above example can serve to testify, the Lower Forces would – through their “norm” concept – what is “socially acceptable,” what is politically correct – have you not believe in spirits, spirit possession, negative space aliens, Satan, etc. They would have you believe that to even dabble in these ideas is of the “occult,” satanic, or at the least, giving credence to “fringe” topics. That's where they would also categorize any mental search of Eastern religions, astrology, metaphysics, paranormal, UFOs, etc., etc. In other words, they (these space aliens) don't want themselves “found out,” so they condemn any exploration. They want you to be a perfect servant to society – to the “acceptable establishment,” to humanity, and to false religious concepts. Part of that “stay blinded” formula goes like this: “Above all, be married, a good parent, a reasonable church goer, buy a house, pay your mortgage, pay your insurance, have a good line of credit, be socially committed, and graciously accept death with the hope that ‘through His shed blood’ you will go to Heaven after your death.”

Many segments of society, especially segments of the religious, think that they are not “of the world,” but rather that their “conversion” experience finds them “outside of worldliness.” The next statement that we will make will be the “Big Tester,” the one that the “lower forces” would use to clearly have you discredit or disregard us. That statement is: Unless you are currently an active student or are attempting to become a student of the present Representative from the Kingdom of Heaven – you ARE STILL “of the world,” having done no significant separation from worldliness, and you are still serving the opposition to the Kingdom of Heaven. This statement sounds – to humans who have been so carefully programmed by the “lower forces” – arrogant, pompous, or egotistical at the least – as if by taking this stand we had something to gain – as if we were seeking recognition as “Deity” or as self-appointed prophets.

That Luciferian programming has truly been effective, for we don't even want to voice to you the statement in question. However, believe it or not, it is only for your sake – the sake of prospective recipients of the Kingdom of Heaven – that we must “tell the truth,” openly identify to you as Representatives of the Kingdom of Heaven, well aware of the fallout of that position.

The hard facts or bold statements in a nutshell, that are so difficult to accept or “digest” – come down to: If you want or ever expect to go to Heaven – here is your window. That window opportunity requires: 1) an incarnate (as human) Representative of the Kingdom of Heaven; 2) that all who hope to enter Heaven become active students of that Representative while the Representative is present; 3) those who endure the “transition classroom” until it ends (adequately bonding or “grafting” to that Representative) will go with that Representative – literally leave the human kingdom and Earth as He leaves. Staying behind, even for a short time, jeopardizes that “graft.” That window to Heaven will not open again until another civilization is planted and has reached sufficient maturity (according to the judgment of the Next Level).

We can't blame you for “buying into” the “Luciferian” program. What else has been available during those periods when no Representative was present? Almost nothing – save some warnings in the Scriptures, i.e., Luke 20:34-36, Luke 21:23, Mark 12:25, and Mark 13:17-19. Check these out.

Another fact is that what someone is into during the time a Representative is not present really doesn't matter that much, except that they are found unprepared when One comes – the only time when the Kingdom of Heaven can be offered to you.

The dilemma is we are here and most humans are thoroughly “hooked” to humanity. However, the same “grace” that was available at the end of the Representative's mission 2000 years ago is available now with our presence. If you quickly choose to take these steps toward separating from the world, and look to us for help, you will see our Father's Kingdom.

It is clear to all of us, that to the Anti-Christ – those propagators of sustained faithfulness to mammalian humanism – we are, and will be seen as, their Anti-Christ. This is certainly to be expected, and it will not delay our return to our Father's Kingdom. It might accelerate that return.

We will, between now and our departure, do everything we can for those who want to go with us. But we cannot allow them to interfere with or delay our return to Him.

Acknowledgment

It is to Ti and Do, who were given the power to offer us Life, that we express the tears of our thanksgiving for accepting the task of being our Teachers.

It was like being awakened abruptly from a deep sleep. The voice of our Shepherds rang clear in the depths of our soul as we heard their familiar song once again. Some of us heard their call in 1975/1976, and others as recently as 1994. And as we, individually, chose again to receive them and accept the Truth that they bore, Ti and Do took us out of the world and into seclusion, nurturing us with a patience and caring far exceeding anything ever experienced at the human level. Although awkward and clumsy in our early awakening, we always retained a deep sense of knowing that we were not of this world. In other words, the part of us that recognized their voice was not anything we evolved to out of the human kingdom, but rather it was the mind/deposit, that seed of Life, given to us by the Next Level – the world from which they were sent.

And so it followed that nothing came to us during our individual development solely by our own will. Whether in concept or more advanced behavior, it was given to us by them, as it pleased them to do so – that is, as it also pleased the ones above them. Our Teachers never wanted any glory or praise for themselves, but said time and again, that they were nothing except that which was given to them by their Fathers. They are vessels, instruments, of their Older Members and so on up the chain of mind to the one we would refer to as the Most High God – or the Chief of Chiefs.

And out of our belief, trust, and love of them – for our choosing to step out of the world and follow them – many of us became hated by our families and all levels of humankind. And so it went. Those who were not for us were against us, because in reality, they worship another “God.”

As students, our only hope is that our efforts have been pleasing enough to our Teachers and to their Older Members, to find us acceptable as “newborns” in their Kingdom. It is difficult to explain how it all works. Although we state in our materials that we came from their world, then how does it figure that we will enter as newborns (newborns meaning beginners – not to be confused with the body we will wear which will be fully grown). It is that we were but a seed in the beginning, a small kernel of the mind that came from their world, much like a first trimester fetus. During our nurturing in the womb of the human kingdom, we were offered opportunities to grow and develop. The design being that if we took advantage of these “gifts” through application of lessons, hard work, and suffering, we would find ourselves viable as beginners at the completion of this task – simultaneously with the End of the Age.

As students, each of us regularly examined if our effort was strong enough to adapt our circuitry to be an adequate match with that of the Next Level, or were we too permissive to the temptations of the human kingdom. Morality or piety has nothing to do with it, rather, the issue is clinical. In order for there to be a successful interface between the developing mind/soul and the advanced, more refined mechanism of a Next Level body, certain minimum standards of control and the outgrowing of primitive behavior must be achieved. However, if for some reason, our effort was not sufficient, but we remain loyal in our commitment, we know we will be saved (put on ice) for a future time.

Although the hour and minute are not known, the final sequence has been given. As we eagerly anticipate the “go ahead,” the code to unlocking the “stargate” remains clear in our minds. Most who read this will find it incomprehensible, which is also part of the design. Only those with a “chip” deposited in the “hardware” of their soul by the Next Level have the circuitry to compute the logic. But it is really very simple, much like the butterfly which, in order to emerge from the chrysalis, must totally separate – disconnect – from the caterpillar world that he left behind. The ultimate gift of potentially everlasting life in a new world – taking us out of the cycle of Death – is being offered to us by our Teachers.

And I have seen with my own eyes, over the course of a number of lifetimes, how their Fathers must love them, my Teachers, Ti and Do. I have seen the power of their word, as it was given to them, become Truth time and again. I have witnessed in wondrous awe, the presence of the mind of their Older Members as it emanates through them, through my Fathers, Ti and Do. And I know that they can see right through me. I feel only a calmness, a humility, and deep joy in knowing I am a child of their Kingdom.

Thank you so much, Ti and Do.
Your faithful student – Jwnody

Preface

The documents contained in this book present a running account of materials we have printed and published in relationship to our mission on this planet, spanning the past two decades.

To help you understand who we are, we have taken the liberty to express a brief synopsis in the vernacular of a popular “science fiction” entertainment series. Most readers in the late 20th Century will certainly recognize the intended parallels. It is really quite interesting to see how the context of fiction can often open the mind to advanced possibilities which are, in reality, quite close to fact.

Excerpt from Extraterrestrials Return with Final Warning (located in Section 5):

“An ‘away team’ from an Evolutionary Level Above Human, an ‘Admiral,’ and His ‘Captain’ and crew, during the 1920’s to 1950’s picked and prepped the human bodies which they would wear for the task we are about to describe. They came into those bodies in the 1970’s – the Admiral and Captain first. They began rounding up their crew in ‘75 and assisting them in the process of entering and taking charge of their own assigned human bodies. They called their crew together by means of a public statement and meetings (over about a 9-month period). The media, typically hastily judging them, tagged them the ‘UFO Cult,’ because of their expectation of leaving aboard a spacecraft (UFO) at the completion of their task. The Two then took the ones who followed them into seclusion, completely separate from the world for almost 17 years, not only completing their ‘awakening’ or adjustment to their human bodies and this primitive civilization, but also took them through a ‘metamorphic classroom experience of changing over their consciousness and behavior to match with that of their distant culture from whence they had come.”

Those 17 years of seclusion ended for us in 1992. From 1975/1976 until we went public again in 1992, we were very much “lifted out” of this world – literally. In 1988, however, we did write the ‘88 Update, including, quite appropriately, some updated thinking. We also took this opportunity to set the record straight with a written account of our history, refuting many of the false reports and outright lies widely circulated and published by the media back in 1975. We sent it out far and wide for “those who had ears to hear.” But it was clearly part of the Next Level’s design to keep us protected and secluded a while longer, so we remained hidden and virtually unfindable for several more years.

In the early 1990’s, we began to get clear signals that our “classroom time” per se, was nearly over, but that some involvement with the public was about to begin. So, we started the painful and arduous task of trying to figure out how to re-interface, communicate, with a human civilization which by this time had become quite foreign to where our thinking had evolved. Nevertheless, in early 1992, we had our “coming out.” We did a series of satellite TV broadcasts, entitled Beyond Human – The Last Call, and for the first time in 17 years, we corresponded for a brief period with those who opted to write to us. And a very interesting phenomenon occurred. Although we thought we were presenting our information to the “public at large,” much to our surprise, those who watched and responded were almost entirely our own “lost sheep” – that is, crew members who had previously dropped away, having been overcome in earlier years by the temptations of an increasingly decadent civilization. They now were desperately seeking a way to reconnect. And they did.

After these returnees had a period of time to readapt to the ways of the classroom/Next Level, we once again set out to offer our information to the public. Our dilemma was multifaceted: How do we present the information in a credible fashion, when to most, our Truth is definitely stranger than any fiction? How do we avoid being seen as religious, in order to not “turn off” those who rightfully despise the hypocrisy of what religions have become? At the same time, how do we acknowledge our past associations with this civilization which are primarily recorded in your Bible, so as to offer those who are waiting for prophecy to be fulfilled, enough clues to put it together? As you read our various presentations, you will see our many attempts to “speak in tongues” – to speak in several languages and to several stratas simultaneously.

A fact that we take for granted but which may take some explanation for others, is that the Next Level does not always let us in on the overview of their strategy. “Next steps,” timetables, and even conceptual understandings are given to us only on a “need to know” basis. Without a doubt, the Next Level has had an extremely detailed lesson plan designed for our personal growth. In retrospect, it is quite evident how the premature introduction of more advanced concepts and understandings early on would have completely “blown” the circuitry of the comparatively primitive human computers (brains) we were using. Consequently, new steps and understandings were presented throughout our awakening in a carefully calculated sequence. By this method, the limited human mechanism could, with some effort, be reprogrammed to accept and assimilate the advanced, non-human perspectives we were receiving. As a result, you will notice that throughout our materials, our understandings are constantly being updated and refined as our circuitry adapted. One “fact” we learned early on is that, what is truth for us today may be just a stepping stone to a higher understanding that may be given to us tomorrow.

Our elementary lesson plan was, of course, extremely frustrating for our Teachers – who literally were not permitted to access the mind/knowledge and even the memories that were previously their own (in the Next Level), but which were not a compatible match with their temporary human condition and current task assignment. Furthermore, conscious remembrance of too much knowledge too soon could potentially be an interference and liability to their plan – our growth pattern. The irony here is that they were likely the ones who, before coming into these bodies, designed these “limitations” into their task – so, they had only themselves to blame. This is a bit of what we would call Next Level humor.

But back to our overall chronology. On May 27, 1993, we took a much more overt step toward the conclusion of our task. We published a 1/3-page ad/statement in both the national and international editions of USA TODAY, entitled “UFO Cult Resurfaces with Final Offer” (see Section 5). And again the ball was rolling. We were definitely in the public eye. This ad/statement, with slight variations, was then reprinted in alternative newspapers, weekly newspapers, and various magazines around the country as well as overseas (listed in Section 5). During the months that followed, we maintained an ongoing correspondence with, as well as provided video tapes and written materials to, those who wrote to us with sincere interest.

Then, in January of 1994, once again, we sold all of our worldly possessions except for a few cars and changes of clothing, and set out cross-country holding free public meetings from coast to coast for 9 months (meeting locations listed in Section 6). In addition, we did countless newspaper, radio, and TV interviews. It became clear to us, during the course of these meetings, that our primary purpose to being out there at this particular time, was not to relate to the public in general, but to locate our additional crew members, whom we now refer to as the “second wave.” Their addition to our class in 1994 nearly doubled our numbers. It was quite evident to them and to us that we were of the same family, of the same mind. And once again, we realized that this was all part of a greater plan that was unfolding according to the design of those in the Next Level responsible for this current civilization “experiment.” What some might call the “second rapture” or snatching away, found all of us, both the first and the second wave, removed from the world, entering into what we would describe as an accelerated version of the “metamorphic classroom,” lasting over a year before our once again “coming out.”

Then on September 25-26, 1995, from a secluded location, we issued a statement that went out – “on line” – around the globe, for our sixth public interaction. The statement entitled Undercover Jesus Surfaces Before Departure was posted to the World Wide Web and to 95 UseNET newsgroups on the Internet, potentially reaching millions simultaneously. And in keeping with our policy of “speaking in tongues,” on October 11, 1995, we posted a higher, more generic translation, entitled ‘95 Statement by an E.T. Presently Incarnate. The response was extremely animated and somewhat mixed. However, the loudest voices were those expressing ridicule, hostility, or both – so quick to judge that which they could not comprehend. This was the signal to us to begin our preparations to return “home.” The weeds have taken over the garden and truly disturbed its usefulness beyond repair – it is time for the civilization to be recycled – “spaded under.”

And so this brings us before the public once again, with our farewell legacy. At the time of this writing, we do not yet know the extent of this seventh, and we suspect final, public involvement. This book, an anthology of our materials, begins “phase one.” Nothing is predetermined. The response of the world to the Next Level will be monitored very carefully. What happens next remains in the balance.

It has been given that what you do with this – how you respond to us – is strictly up to you.

“And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.” REV 22:17

WARNING: For Those Who Are Prone to Hasty Judgments

To those who have not yet done much serious study of this type of information and might be inclined to criticize our position and that of our Teachers, our Older Members, Ti (pronounced "Tee") and Do (pronounced "Doe"), consider this: Upon what information do you base your opinions? How many hours have you sat with them getting to know them for yourself? All too often people form quick opinions out of ignorance because of having had neither the opportunity nor the time to examine the facts for themselves. We wanted to issue a word of caution since it is our sincere belief that the "Kingdom of God" (the Level Above Human) will judge you according to how you judge this information.

I have sat many hours with them. I have found no fault in them, only a depth I have only begun to comprehend as I continue to learn from and observe them. Despite the younger age of the vehicle (body) I am wearing, I cannot even begin to keep up with Do's enthusiasm, his abundance of energy, his positive attitude, his amazing ability to accomplish tasks quickly, and so many other positive attributes that go way beyond those of any other person I have ever come across. What is more, I have also had the extreme honor of being in the physical presence of Do's Older Member, Ti. I was able to observe how they worked together as a Next Level partnership, which cannot compare to anything I have ever observed in the human world as people work together. And I have been blessed to enjoy their wonderful sense of humor. But most of all, I have felt the incredible caring and patience they have always shown me when I so many times fell short in my efforts to become more like them. They always had far more faith in me than I had in myself, and I will be eternally grateful for that.

To those who say my Older Members were on an ego trip, I say you have never witnessed the many times they displayed their discomfort with being in the position they were in, desiring only to be simple servants of the Kingdom of Heaven, but happy to serve in whatever task they were given. I have witnessed Do grow and change after Ti left her human vehicle and returned to the Next Level. His only pleasure is in pleasing Ti and ridding himself of any ego that would prevent him from becoming more like Ti. I have witnessed this many times and know it to be true, but I cannot prove it to anyone. The Next Level designed it so that proof of who Their Representatives are comes only to those who take the step of dropping all of their human ties and seek only to be a part of the Kingdom of God, through the ones they send. The lower forces have made their primary effort the drugging of the inhabitants of this garden/planet with misinformation so that they would act and think in ways contrary to Next Level ways. You must give up the very things the masses accept as natural to the human condition before you can sober up enough to realize how drunk on lies and self-destructive behavior this civilization has become.

If you believe our Older Members were ever interested in financial gain, where are the bank accounts in either of their names? Where are the automobiles or properties they hold? If you are convinced they show one face to their students but live and act quite differently in their privacy, where is one shred of evidence that this is the case? I know that as high as the standards are that Ti and Do have always required of their students, they maintain even higher standards for themselves around the clock. Do utilizes his every private moment away from us as a precious opportunity to raise those standards and thereby become even more pleasing to his Older Member (Ti). We all choose to live as we do because we like Next Level ways – they are the only thing that means anything to us. Human ways are an abomination to us because we have outgrown them and they are not appropriate in the genderless world to which we aspire.

Do you presume to judge our Teachers based upon "their past"? First of all, Ti and Do had no "past" here until their vehicles first met in the early '70's. Since they were not incarnate until the early '70's, the past histories of those vehicles have no relevance. The same holds true of any of their students. We did not enter any of these vehicles we are using until we met up with our Teachers. I hope you will study our information enough so that it can offer you the opportunity to realize some of these points.

As far as anything Ti and Do have been criticized for since or during their awakening, the facts of those incidents have never been hidden from us, their students. They have even been addressed in some of the materials in this book. However, the facts of those incidents have been hidden from the public and distorted to bolster the opinions of Ti and Do's critics and to sell more newspapers. The media also likes to present the viewpoints of drop-outs from non-mainstream groups such as ours as being absolutely accurate without considering the possibility that they might be biased in their opinions, defending their position of "quitting" or being "asked to leave." Once an individual leaves the group, they have to find fault with the group in order to justify their decision of ceasing the discipline. I know that the actions of my Older Members have always been honorable and with no ill-intent, motivated only by their desire to serve the "Kingdom of Heaven."

To us, one of the worst traits people of this day and age have acquired is to think they can judge others and base those judgments upon some past event. Almost daily, someone is being branded by the media for some incident that occurred years ago that is not characteristic of that individual's current life. This practice presumes that that person has not changed. Can anyone honestly say that they never did anything they now regret and would not do again? Why not give others credit for doing the same? Learning from our mistakes is the primary road to growth and improvement, and the suffering that is experienced in the process can build strength and character. If our Creator is forgiving and does not hold individuals to their past mistakes, would it make sense that humans would be above doing the same?

Some could think that all of us in the class share the same form of psychosis with our Teachers. Even if that were so, I would gladly live this life of "delusion" over the insanity of living your "reality" full of ugliness, despair, and fruitlessness. Yet I know that what Ti and Do have taught us is the only reality. If we are so crazy, why have the vast majority of those who have known us personally regarded us as being some of the most capable, reliable, happy, and productive people they have ever known? Why is it that so many of those who dropped out of the class desired so desperately to return? It could only be because the discipline and ways Ti and Do have taught us work. Quite a few class members have held very professional and responsible positions in the human world to help support our classroom's needs. Our employers and co-workers soon recognized there was something very "special" about us (their words) and felt we were their most valued employees. Thanks to our having been taught Next Level ways, we always strove to do our best, welcomed criticism as an opportunity to improve ourselves, did not respond defensively but were quick to take responsibility for and correct any of our mistakes, and did not respond in anger to others. We liked to stay busy and productive and did not stoop to participate in office gossip or waste time by chattering with others. People were unconsciously drawn to us because of the presence of Ti and Do's mind within us, though we chose not to share what we knew with them as we knew that in most cases such high-level information would only short-circuit their human brains and be unproductive to them.

If you really knew the Bible, you would recognize Ti and Do for who they are. The requirements for entry into the Next Level taught by Ti and Do are exactly the same as those taught by every other Representative whose task was to bring the formula for exit from the human kingdom. But those very requirements threaten the current human status quo. It is the unconscious recognition that our Older Members speak the Truth that threatens so many and causes them to respond with immediate hatred toward our Teachers. The price of entry is much dearer than the masses are willing to pay. They are instead quick to accept the counterfeit versions given to them, such as "He did it all for you," that are designed to bind them to the human kingdom and thereby ensure the death of their spirits. Everyone seems to overlook that the foremost requirement given since the dawn of this civilization is to love the Ones who created and nurtured us with all our hearts, all our souls, and all our minds. At this time, when a Rep is here, the question is how can you give some of your love to a spouse or child and say all of your love is for God? To be preoccupied with family values and procreation is to take mistresses and cheat on Him. The fact that no one would feel comfortable engaging in a mammalian act of sensuality while in the physical presence of God proves that in the core of their being they know it is a shameful and degrading act rather than an expression of their love for Him or His love for us.

There is so much I want to say and express about how I feel about my Older Members, Ti and Do. The human words seem so inadequate compared to what is in my heart. I thank the Next Level every day that I was allowed to be a part of this classroom experience and to know and observe Ti and Do – to be instructed by them, corrected by them, and feel the Next Level's compassion and support expressed through them. I have never known anyone that could even come close to being as wise, keen, kind, dignified, fair, patient, humble, or genuine as they have always been. I remain daily in awe of them. If you cannot also see these qualities in them, it is only because the Kingdom of God has not seen fit to give you the ears to hear and the eyes to see Two of Their own. The proof of Who They are will be that we, and all those who align themselves with the true "Kingdom of Heaven," in whatever manner they translate their recognition of that Kingdom, will be "saved" for continued advancement or nourishment, while all those who condemn Ti and Do or this information will themselves be condemned by the Next Level. It is our understanding that all those who judge this information negatively and thereby align themselves with the opposition will be "recycled" when the Next Level terminates this temporal, impermanent (if not holographic) existence, which we expect will happen soon after our departure. Whether or not you depart with us may not mean much to you – but it should. To overcome the human condition and be born into the Evolutionary Level Above Human, under the midwifing care of Their Representatives, is what you were created for. It is the only reason for your existence.

As we step aboard a Next Level mothership marveling at the wonders around us, my hope is that all the members of the Heavenly Kingdom, from the Oldest to the youngest, will join us in a standing ovation for two very special Older Members, Ti and Do.

Section 1:

EXIT STATEMENTS

1995 - 1996

What is the saying? “The last shall be first”? In order that the reader might have some idea as to where our current thinking is, we have chosen to put our most recent materials, which we refer to as our “Exit Statements,” at the beginning of this anthology. The remaining sections then pick up chronologically, starting with 1975. Section Two, entitled Early Classroom Materials, begins this fairly complete history of how our classroom developed over the years and how the many changes that we were taken through, carefully prepared us for this time.

Until now, the first document in this section, Heaven’s Last Mission to This Civilization, had remained unpublished. Almost as soon as it was written, we received instructions to up the voltage of what we stated publicly, in other words, to express ourselves more boldly than we ever had before. And so, two extremely powerful and revealing papers were drafted by Do, both of which contained information that before this time we had been reluctant to express quite so clearly.

Since the Internet, particularly the World Wide Web, had become the “fastest growing, information sharing network in the world,” we chose to go public by way of “the NET.” Although we left our materials on it only briefly, it was quite an educational experience for us in many respects.

In the first of these two statements, Undercover Jesus Surfaces Before Departure, posted on September 25-26, 1995, we felt like we had instruction to address the religious world, primarily the Christians, in relationship to their expectation of Jesus’ return. One of the greatest struggles we’ve had from the beginning is the terminology – if we try to correct the vision of the Christians and talk their language, we’re seen as a religious cult on an ego trip – if we try to state our information in language more relevant to our actual situation, the masses see us as attempting to make the “Trekkie” vernacular into religion.

Nevertheless, two weeks later, on October 11, we “gave it another shot.” Having retranslated the same basic material from Undercover Jesus into what we would consider more clinical and objective terminology, we posted ’95 Statement by an E.T. Presently Incarnate. However, after posting them for only a few days, we felt to take these statements off the Internet. It was clear to us that their being introduced to the public at that time was premature.

As we experienced time and again, and as you will witness throughout this anthology, it is nearly impossible to take advanced, non-human concepts and force them into comprehensible human language – the available “word processing” options of contemporary language are so extremely limiting. But it is part of our task that we try. And so it is our hope that the reader will look beyond the awkwardness of the words we choose, that is, we hope you get to the intended meaning of the thought that lies behind them.

HEAVEN'S LAST MISSION TO THIS CIVILIZATION – TO END IN '96

"The World" dubbed these emissaries "The UFO Cult" or "The Two (Ti and Do) and their Disciples."

They offered Liberation from this world and the human-mammalian species. And they offered the disciplines and ways leading to Membership in the Heavenly Kingdom (as was promised).

They began "touching down" on Earth (evacuating their bodies and the crafts they came in) in the 1940's and subsequently began incarnating in adult human bodies in the 1970's and will evacuate this planet within the next year ('96).

They will take with them all those who have overcome – broken all ties with "This World," having individually – risen above all mammalian behavior, i.e.,

human programming – misinformation and all other ties and addictions to the human kingdom, the civilization, or the planet, and having individually – grown to identify only as a mind/spirit/soul of the Heavenly Kingdom – not as the human body (literally becoming new creatures).

They will – at the time of their exit – leave behind their "life" in the human world (literally) in order to take up bodies and life in the Heavenly Kingdom.

[None will enter Heaven's Gate who cling to human family, religion, reproductive activity or any of the human-mammalian concepts or behavior.]

When they are gone, Heaven's Gate will be closed for Earth's present civilization.

The "Gardener's" spading under of the walking "dead" (those humans who have no life nor truth in them) will complete the season of this civilization.

The knowledge or awareness of this Heavenly presence manifests itself in those souls who are hastily, almost uncontrollably growing to hate this world – its society – its values – its leadership and governments (which are unknowingly under the guidance of the Luciferians – who are masquerading as "gods"). The TRUE God's chosen souls are desperately, at this time, seeking LIBERATION from this corrupt, ungodly human kingdom.

This is the "judgment time" – the polarization time – for ALL!! It finds those who love this world and seek "Heaven on Earth" or "peace" at the human level, aligned unknowingly with the false "gods," and those souls who have grown to hate this world and choose to leave it, aligned with the true Kingdom of God. These "faithful" could possibly be forced out of their Earthly bodies ("their days shortened") as they "take their stand" and refuse submission to the "powers of this world" and subsequently gain true life and lasting bodies belonging to the REAL Heavenly Kingdom – The TRUE Kingdom of God – from whence all creation originates.

(Incomplete)

UNDERCOVER “JESUS” SURFACES BEFORE DEPARTURE

I, Do (pronounced “Doe”), a son of the Level Above Human – the Kingdom of God – acknowledge:

1. I am about to return to my Father’s Kingdom.
 - A. This “return” requires that I prepare to lay down my borrowed human body in order to take up, or reenter, my body (biological) belonging to the Kingdom of God (as I did approximately 2000 years ago, as Jesus, when I laid down the body that was about 33 years old in order to reenter my body belonging to the Kingdom of Heaven).
 - B. The Evolutionary Level Above Human is a physical Kingdom Level in the physical Heavens or space, though individuals in that Kingdom identify with their soul – mind or spirit – and not the flesh or physical body they “wear.”
2. This time, my Heavenly Father – my “Older Member” – came with me. In the early 1970’s, we each incarnated into an adult human body which was in its forties. Approximately 2000 years ago, I incarnated into a body that was in its late 20’s/early 30’s (not at the birth of that body, but just prior to – during – and following my baptism with John the Baptist).
3. It seems that each time we, or others from the Level Above Human, come to Earth or leave, it is via a spacecraft belonging to that Next Level. We believe it’s possible that the M.O. for many of us this time was to arrive in staged “UFO crashes.”
4. My Father is an Older Member in the Kingdom of Heaven – the Kingdom of God – the Evolutionary Level Above Human.
 - A. He actually gave me “birth” into that Kingdom – took me through the overcoming of a mammalian civilization – long before this present human civilization had its beginning.
 - B. I have served as His student and apprentice during His relationship with this civilization.
 - C. His relationship to this planet is as Chief Administrator, and is the One referred to as “God” in the early stages of this civilization.
5. This time He came with me “undercover” to assist me in my task (picking up where this process left off approximately 2000 years ago) of the further birthing – “fathering” – experience with the ones who will be the next new “sons” or children in the Level Above Human. To allow me to gain more experience in the birthing process, my Older Member returned to that Kingdom in 1985, and continues to assist and communicate with me from a more advanced perspective.
 - A. As part of the undercover program, my Father incarnated in a female body for His 15-year stay.
 - B. Being “undercover,” which included lack of acknowledgment of who we were historically, was required of our task this time in order that we might, with as little recognition and interference as possible, round up the souls who were our students from the past. Even so, we were identified as a small, radical cult, just as we were 2000 years ago. And as was the case 2000 years ago, these prospective members left their families and relationships in order to follow or be a student. Now that I am surfacing again, I will again be hated for my “blasphemy” (of who I say I am) and hated by those families and others that are affected by all who aspire to leave with us, because this mission requires that they forsake all ties and binds to this world (family ties, responsibilities, and human-mammalian indulgences).
6. These prospective new “sons” (speaking of soul identities, for they occupy both male and female bodies) were gathered at two different time periods – one, in 1975-76, under the guidance of both my Older Member and myself, and the second, in 1994, after my Older Member had returned (these were all souls that had had a previous relationship with me before this incarnation).
7. These “students” of the Next Level/The Level Above Human were offered the opportunity to bond with me and my Father, as a bride would bond with her husband, though –
 - A. Since the Evolutionary Level Above Human has no mammalian or human members, they had to become “new creatures” who bonded in mind, spirit, and behavior – void of human sexuality, human binds, and addictions of this world and this civilization. Some in the class have chosen on their own to have their vehicles neutered in order to sustain a more genderless and objective consciousness.
 - B. The students/disciples who successfully bond to the Level Above Human through me and my Father must also prepare to lay down their human bodies as we go to the Kingdom of Heaven, in order to take up bodies appropriate to and belonging to that Kingdom.
8. As we prepare to “lay down” our human bodies, while declaring that entry into the Kingdom Above Human is available, there may be many humans who have been recipients of “souls” in “deposits” who may exercise their free will and separate from everything of their world in order to go with us.
 - A. They will attempt to rid themselves of their old minds, and identities, in exchange for the mind that flows through me, as they attempt to be accepted as one of my “children.” It will “cost” them everything of this world – which they will desperately desire to quickly be rid of.
 - B. If they expect to go with me, and I’m leaving very soon, they must look to us (me and my students/disciples) for all their needs to the best of their ability – align themselves with us – break their human bonds – and if their declaration that our presence is from the Kingdom of God leads to the “laying down” of their bodies in pursuit of the Next Kingdom as well, then they, too, will find themselves in the safekeeping of that Kingdom, and in line to be recipients of further nourishment from that Next Level toward membership in that Kingdom.

- C. If my Father does not require this “disposition” of us – He will take us up into His “cloud of light” (spacecraft) before such “laying down of bodies” need occur.
9. Humans with deposits containing souls can likely be identified at this time as some of those who are rapidly losing respect for this world or its “system.” They are likely, from the establishment’s point of view, being irresponsible or anti-social – and will be seen by the world as duped, crazy, a cult member, a drifter, a loner, a drop-out, a separatist, etc.
 10. In essence, it ultimately matters little what your LIFESTYLE, BELIEF SYSTEM, or MORAL VALUES are BETWEEN “visitations” from the Level Above Human (the last two being 2000 years ago and now). The important issue is – the Kingdom of Heaven is here NOW in ME and these students of the Next Level.
 11. Evidence of our credibility is:
 - A. That our information and our actions match recorded accounts of the presence, conduct, mission, and departure of our previous visitations from the Level Above Human offering membership in that Kingdom.
 - B. Any soul who has known us in previous visitations or has had any genuine (physical, personal) relationship with anyone from the True Kingdom of God, is present now, and will know or recognize us and this information again.
 - C. It appears that even the staging of some of the crashed spacecrafts was in order to help the skeptics realize they have “visitors from another world.”
 12. As true today as it was 2000 years ago, no one gets to my Father or enters the Kingdom of Heaven except through me. There is no other Son of His or Representative from His Kingdom incarnate. Connecting with that Kingdom occurs only while a Member is incarnate, as I am today.
 13. There are space aliens (humanoid remnants from other civilizations) who travel in the nearby heavens. They appear to be dependent upon Earth’s atmosphere for harvesting hybrid bodies to “wear.” And it seems clear that they attempt to recruit the “souls” who fail to become children in the Kingdom of God. We call them Luciferians because of their lineage.
 14. These Luciferians (space aliens) “jump in” immediately after Representatives from the Level Above Human leave. They fill the “patriarch(s)” of the resulting new religion with mixed truths and misinformation, which reinforces the fact that accurate knowledge concerning that Kingdom seems to be available only while Representatives are incarnate.
 15. The Kingdom of God sends crews to “tag” or make “deposits” in human bodies and their minds/spirits just prior to and during the time Representatives from their Kingdom are incarnate “offering” birth. These deposits offer their recipients “recognition” of the Representatives and, to some degree, recognition of the “information” from the Kingdom of God. They also act as “homing devices” to lead the recipients to those Representatives and that information. Without these “deposits” of “recognition,” no choice of becoming a student is within the will of a human.
 16. It is our understanding that all souls of this civilization who ever received deposits from the Level Above Human have returned at this time, the close of this Age. As part of our task, the Level Above Human is using us to test them. How they/you respond to me, my students, and our information will, in fact, judge you as to whether you will or will not have a further relationship with the Kingdom of Heaven. In other words, coming in contact with this information will force a decision, and with the stand you take, you judge yourself. Some, by their choice at this time, could be redeemed. Those who accept us and endure until we leave will go with us, and not need to experience the “spading under” or recycling of this planet – and will become beginners in the real Kingdom of Heaven.

Believe it or not – Your choice – Your judgment.

I hope this will assist you in whatever you might be seeking.

'95 STATEMENT BY AN E.T. PRESENTLY INCARNATE

An attempt at exposure and disclosure:

1. In the early 1970's, two individuals from the Evolutionary Level Above Human (my task or "away team" partner and myself) incarnated into (moved into and took over) two human bodies that were in their forties. I moved into a male body, and my partner, who is an Older Member in the Level Above Human, took a female body. (We called these bodies "vehicles" for they simply served as physical vehicular tools for us to wear while on a task among humans.)
2. We brought to Earth with us a crew of students whom we had worked with (nurtured) on Earth in previous missions. They were in varying stages of metamorphic transition from membership in the human kingdom to membership in the physical Evolutionary Level Above Human (what your history refers to as the Kingdom of God or Kingdom of Heaven).
3. It seems that we arrived in Earth's atmosphere between Earth's 1940's and early 1990's. We suspect that many of us arrived in staged spacecraft (UFO) crashes and many of our discarded bodies (genderless, not belonging to the human species), were retrieved by human authorities (government and military).
4. Other crews from the Level Above Human preceded our arrival and "tagged" – placed a deposit "chip" – in each of the vehicles (bodies) that we would individually incarnate into, when that instruction would be given. These "chips" set aside those bodies for us.
5. We feel that while we were "out of body" between arrival and incarnation, we were thoroughly briefed and were taken through an extensive preview of places and events that would assist our individual incarnation process of bringing our mind – our consciousness – into the vehicle (body) and overriding the mind of the human "plant" (or container) that each of us was to use. This incarnation process is very difficult and cannot be done without the help of Older Members of the Evolutionary Level Above Human who have not only gone through the metamorphic transition to completion themselves, but who have also assisted others through this transition before (acting as "midwives" for some in the shedding of their human-creature characteristics while preparing to be born as new creatures into the Next Evolutionary Kingdom).
6. The true Kingdom of God – the real physical Kingdom of Heaven – the Evolutionary Level Above Human – are completely synonymous. As a genderless Kingdom, it "reproduces" or adds to its Kingdom membership through the use of this metamorphic process. This Next Level Kingdom created all that is – including all the paths that lead to decay and destruction, for the creatures it creates are created with free will – an ever-present option to choose the direction to take at any juncture or moment of decision.
7. The metamorphic "birth" into the Level Above Human occurs as follows: In any given civilization on a fertile planet such as Earth (and Earth has had many periodic/cyclical civilizations), the Level Above Human plants all the new life forms (including humans) for that civilization in a neutral condition so that they have a chance to choose the direction of their growth. The Level Above Human – or Next Level – directly (hands on) relates significantly to the civilization at its beginning stage, and subsequently (with few exceptions) at approximately 2000-year intervals (48-hour intervals from a Next Level perspective) until that civilization's final "Age."
8. Each time the Next Level relates directly to any portion of that civilization, "deposits" containing "souls" (the "seed" or "chip" with a program of metamorphic possibilities) are placed in many human plants. This deposit is potentially the "gift of life" into the physical and real Evolutionary Level Above Human. These deposits are given or made only when members of the Level Above Human are assigned to directly relate to (be incarnate in) the civilization. Only these Representatives can "nurture" those deposited souls with Next Level thinking, behavior, and all the information required to effectively "fluff off" all human/mammalian characteristics of the old creature. The butterfly cannot hold on to caterpillar ways, nor can a potential creature of the Next Level cling to human ways. So, when a Representative from that Kingdom is present – that "Rep's" nurturing (teaching) is a "window" for exiting the human kingdom for all who have been given deposits/souls. These deposits are made only in vehicles (bodies) that are "old enough" – having grown or matured enough – for self-determination or responsibility.
9. Humans with deposits containing souls can likely be identified at this time as some of those who are rapidly losing respect for this world or its "system." They are likely, from the establishment's point of view, being irresponsible or anti-social – and will be seen by the world as duped, crazy, a cult member, a drifter, a loner, a drop-out, a separatist, etc.
10. Not only is the body, in a sense, the temporary container for the soul, but even more importantly – the soul is the housing or container of the new creature. The soul has its own "brain" or "hard drive" that accumulates only information of the Next Level – mundane as well as theoretical or philosophical. The soul also becomes part of the new physical body of the new creature, though it is seldom seen by human eyes. Therefore, when a soul is a part of a new deposit, it has very little information and is as a very small Next Level "fetus." As it develops or grows in size, it necessitates the abortion of the human mind, which is in a container beside it. If you think of a glass vase that has two balloons in it, one balloon is the human mind, the other is the Next Level mind. When the Next Level makes a "soul deposit," it is like placing the second balloon in the glass vase. So, when metamorphosis begins, the human mind (balloon) is all but filling the container, and the Next Level mind or soul is all but empty. As the Next Level mind increases – and the soul begins to grow larger – the human-mind container or balloon decreases until, if the Next Level mind successfully makes it to term, the human deflated balloon is discarded and the Next Level balloon (with Next Level mind) is all that fills the container, or glass vase. That soul with its Next Level mind has by then become a physical body in a new species (the Level Above Human), needing only a new physical outer shell, which it receives as a “quartermaster issue” upon physically entering the Next Level.

The final act of metamorphosis or separation from the human kingdom is the “disconnect” or separation from the human physical container or body in order to be released from the human environment and enter the “next” world or physical environment of the Next Level. This will be done under the supervision of Members of the Next Level in a clinical procedure. We will rendezvous in the “clouds” (a giant mothership) for our briefing and journey to the Kingdom of the Literal Heavens.

11. Metamorphosis is not ordinarily accomplishable during only one period of visitation from the Level Above Human. Therefore, the deposit task at each visitation includes deposits with “programs” for returnees who are still in “forward motion.”
12. At the end of the Age or civilization (where we are now), it seems that all souls that were deposited in any part of the present civilization are brought back. Between visitations, “faithful” souls are “put on ice,” so to speak – in the keeping of the Level Above Human, to be re-deposited and again incarnated during the next visitation. So, at this time we have both “faithful” souls who might be in the third “trimester” of their metamorphosis preparing for the final test before “emerging” in their new physical body belonging to the Next Level, and we also have all those souls who have “fallen away” during this civilization’s visitations. Even they now have a chance at reinstatement.
13. The requirement is the same for all who might expect to find themselves in the safekeeping of the Level Above Human – each must proceed in the forsaking of all human ways, ties, addictions, thinking, gender behavior (sexuality), and be in the forward motion of becoming this new creature (literally and physically belonging to the Kingdom Level Above Human). (Some in the class have chosen on their own to have their vehicles neutered in order to sustain a more genderless and objective consciousness.) The overcoming process can only be accomplished in the care, keeping, and tutorship of the present (incarnate) Representative(s) of that Next Kingdom.
14. Humans in any given time seem to fall in one of three categories:
 - i) Humans without deposits – those who are simply “plants” (a part of the various levels of human “plant” life) containing the mind or program of their genetic information combined with their brain’s interpretation of the information of their current body’s experiences,
 - ii) those with deposits/souls who are receiving nourishment from the present Rep(s) toward metamorphic completion, and
 - iii) those with deposits/souls who are not in a classroom nor in a direct relationship with the Representative(s) from the Level Beyond Human, having:
 - a) not been confronted with the information and the Rep(s), or
 - b) been confronted but have chosen not to “pursue.”
15. Now that we are here again, how an individual responds to us and our information will, in fact, judge that individual as to whether he or she will or will not have a further relationship with the Next Level. In other words, coming in contact with this information will force a decision for all with souls, and the stand they individually take will judge or determine their future. Remember, even those who have fallen away are being given an opportunity at this time to be reconciled or reinstated.
16. Those who have souls, and who fall away, become a part of the opposition to the Next Level. Once, in a prior civilization, records suggest that a third of the class fell and the strongest, and thereby leader of those fallen, was called “Lucifer.” Even today they occupy the near heavens as what humans refer to as “space aliens.” They also burrow in bases underground and participate in genetic manipulation and hybridization with humans, and attempt to recruit (while remaining among the “unseen”) those humans with souls who are unstable or weak in their pursuit of the true Kingdom of Heaven. These “Luciferians” (for the most part from the “unseen” world) started all religions and masquerade as “gods” to humans. They offer to humans (who are unknowingly praying to them) whatever material gains they desire. These “Luciferians” and their devotees preach “Heaven on Earth,” “Peace among men,” and a long and healthy life in the human condition, and are determined to take the steps to make the inhabitants of the planet subservient to their “ideal” mammalian ethic – destructive to the natural evolutionary processes, and abhorrent to the Kingdom Level Above Human. They, too, unknowingly serve the Next Level, for as some rise above “their world,” they gain the strength to enter the “Next World.”
17. Where the space aliens have a major stronghold in playing “God” is through those humans with the most power. The power is the strongest among the very rich and the very righteous (their self-styled religion) who accept that it is their (“God-given”) responsibility to maintain the world’s stability – judged, of course, by whatever actions are necessary to maintain and increase that power. These powerful individuals have a loose-knit world-wide “club” that for the most part dictates who their primary “monopoly” players are – those leaders in the “significant” or strong societies or cultures. Government leaders, the very rich, and the world’s righteous or “moral” leaders, need each other to accomplish their desired ends. They together really determine what is “right” and “wrong” for the populous as a whole, for they trust their overview (and needless to say, it is motivated, for it makes the rich richer, the political more powerful, while offering sufficient “moral consciousness” to nurture a guiltless society). This “morality call” translates down to every level of society’s structure, i.e., its laws, its permissiveness, and its intolerance. The governments’ law enforcers see to it that nothing is permitted to significantly threaten the rules of the “big bedfellows” morality – which is no morality at all, but the long list of do’s and don’ts which protect the money flow, secure the power players, and sustain the acceptable morality code. Any little group that isn’t naively, totally submissive to their social rules, or begins to see through this "control mechanism," or questions its rightness, is seen as subversive, radical, anti-social, a cult, or even treasonous – or potentially "terrorists."

18. It is a fact of record that a number of space alien groups or "races" have related to humans as recently as the past few decades for various reasons. These ranged from "deals" of mutual benefit – trading spacecraft technology for uninterrupted genetic experimentation – to missions of "spiritual enlightenment." All of these activities are far beneath Next Level interests or activity and are, in fact, diversionary efforts of the space aliens to have humans look to them at a time that our return presence was imminent.
19. The space aliens have very successfully, through their religions, totally confused the humans' concept of "God" or "Deity." (These religions were begun as major distortions immediately following any visitation of the Next Level.) The Next Level abhors religions, for they bind humans more thoroughly to the human kingdom, using strong misinformation mixed with cosmic or universal consciousness of Creation, about which, in truth, they know nothing. Some of their Christians say that God was incarnate as Jesus – though He knew that His Father was clearly a separate entity, even when His Father's mind was in Him. Luciferians now answer the Christians' (as well as all other religions') prayers or requests as they promote enriching their human lives and having them seek a "Heaven on Earth" and a type of Second Coming that would clearly be abominable to the Next Level. Only the Luciferians could have Christians believing that Jesus promoted family values, becoming better humans, establishing professional religious institutions, and looking for the Second Coming of some flowing-robed, peace and love, manifestation of their artists' conceptions.

Most religious think of a Kingdom of God, though it doesn't register to them that that Kingdom has many members. They feel that if you acknowledge "many members" in the Kingdom of God, then you would be acknowledging a pantheism. Any time any member of the Next Level is assigned a task to relate to humans directly, since he is of the Kingdom of God, he is rightfully "God" to them, for he is the member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human ("Kingdom of God") who is relating to them. This is not to say that there is not in the Next Level a "Chief of Chiefs" or one who is Supreme. Luciferians have had humans spiritualize and elevate that spiritual feeling for the word "God" so that no member of the Next Level would want to identify as one of those members of the Kingdom of God. The irony is that humans pray to the masquerading "gods" – space aliens – who have many "superior" beings in their different races and subraces. So, humans are unknowingly praying to different "gods" of many "gods." Of course, none of these are, in fact, "Gods" – other than self-appointed. (They are simply humanoid remnants from previous civilizations that are allowed to exist as a part of the balance of positive and negative presences, and allowing a full range of free-will options.)

The Next Level is not into rituals, or spiritual inflation of stature, though it's true that younger members learn to be respectful and acknowledge the wisdom and serviceability of Older Members in the Next Level. Where one can fall from progressing in the Next Level is to slip into believing that he can grow on his own. The only way an individual can grow in the Next Level is to learn to be dependent on his Older Member as that source of unlimited growth and knowledge. So, any younger member in good standing, forever remains totally dependent upon (and looks to) his Older Member for all things.

20. Since this is the close of the Age, the battle in the Heavens with their servants on Earth will be the means of that closing and the spading under of the plants (including the humans) of this civilization. "Weeds" are now getting rid of weeds – from gang wars to nations involved in ethnic cleansing. This is simply a part of the natural recycling process which precedes a restoration period of the planet in preparation for another civilization's beginning.
21. If you connect with this information – if you attempt to connect with us in your desire to leave your humanness behind and link with the Evolutionary Level Above Human – you may encounter what seems to be insurmountable tests. You can imagine the "fallout" of your separation. We can take you through all of these trials if you look to us in your silent tribulations – these trials are designed to offer you strength and resolve.
22. If you expect to go with us in our spacecrafts headed for our "world" and the only true Kingdom Level Above Human, you will likely have to physically engage in preparedness and readiness for that departure. That readiness should not be interfered with by the servants of this world.

I find it all but impossible to present these truths to you in a way that might stand a chance to survive the avalanche of thoughts from the opposition that would do anything in their power to prevent your separation from their world and your physical life in it. I hope that my Older Member's mercy will give you strength. If you care to speak to me in your thoughts, I answer to "Do" (pronounced Doe). The name itself means nothing, but I connect with it for it was agreed upon for my usage by my Older Member "Ti" (pronounced Tee). Ti stayed with me, setting an example and preparing me for this present responsibility, until 1985 and then separated from her borrowed human container and returned to the Next Level. (If we're not mistaken, our entire classroom task here from 1975 until the present has only been about 30 minutes by Next Level reckoning.)

Section 2:

EARLY CLASSROOM MATERIALS

1975 - 1988

With the distribution of Statement One in March of 1975 (the first document featured in this section), the public phase of Ti and Do's mission was begun. From a hotel room in Ojai, California, where Ti and Do stayed for less than a week, the statement was sent out to ministers, evangelists, and awareness centers far and wide. Within two or three days, a man who headed an awareness group in Los Angeles came out to Ojai with one of his students to meet with the two. After deciding Ti and Do were seemingly sane, he invited them to speak to a gathering of some of his students and their guests at one of their houses. They accepted and were taken quite by surprise to see that the house was packed. Unbeknownst to Ti and Do, this was adding up to the "not too welcome" idea of followers. And so it all began.

The poster featured on page 3 of this section was designed several months later to announce free public meetings, some of the earliest being held by these newly proclaimed followers. Then on August 24, 1975, using the names Bo and Peep, the two made their first appearance at a public meeting given at Cañada College, located in the San Francisco Bay Area of California. If our recollection is correct, the crowd was so large at the appointed time that the auditorium was filled to capacity twice – that is, for two back-to-back meetings. Then three weeks later, on September 14, 1975, Ti and Do (still using the names Bo and Peep) held a meeting in Waldport, Oregon. It was at this point that the press picked up on the story and the onslaught had begun. Their interest was largely stimulated by reports of individuals giving away both children and property to join the group. Although such actions were certainly not according to Ti and Do's instructions, nevertheless, bedlam had broken out by then. We had become a national media item. Their unrelenting spotlight glared upon us for over half a year. And by and large, almost every report either written or aired about us was either riddled with inaccuracies or outright lies, that is, with one noteworthy exception. On Sunday, February 29, 1976, the New York Times published the best researched article to date. As the cover story of The New York Times Magazine, free-lance writer James S. Phelan, who actually had a lengthy interview with Ti and Do, wrote a generally quite objective article (though certainly not the way we would have written it) despite the "journalistic tide" against his doing so.

Over 130 public meetings held throughout the U.S., as well as in Canada, continued until the Spring of 1976, when on April 21, Ti announced that "the 'Harvest' is closed." In late June of 1976, the students were called together in the Medicine Bow National Forest, Wyoming, to begin a "classroom" in earnest. Close to 100 followers showed up. The classroom reduced to about 40 to 50 pretty quickly. Over the period of time from then until the spring of 1992, we lost a few more students, some of whom have since returned, but no new students had entered the class. (Excerpts taken from '88 Update.)

The 17 Steps and Major Offenses are documents that were never intended for public release – that is, until now. Rather, they were "in-house" guidelines for appropriate Next Level behavior and conduct.

What religions have sought to understand since the beginning of their origin is what is above the human level of existence. Most have taught that if an individual lives a "good life" adoring some savior that he will inherit some "heaven" after his death. Only if it were that simple. That viewpoint is as inaccurate as the caterpillar believing that if he dies a good caterpillar he will mysteriously awaken in a rose blossom and live there forever with the King butterfly. He must become a butterfly while a healthy caterpillar – overcoming his decaying option. If he rises above all caterpillar ways, converts all his energies to the pursuit of becoming literally another creature who circulates in another world, he becomes a butterfly. Likewise a human who seeks only to become a member of his next evolutionary kingdom may become a member of that kingdom if he completely overcomes all the aspects and influences of the human level providing he has found favor with a member of that next level who will direct him through his metamorphosis. As the caterpillar, the human can complete this changeover only before his death as a human. A member of the next kingdom finds favor with one who is willing to endure all of the necessary growing pains of weaning himself totally from his human condition. Members of that next kingdom are no more confined to human limitations than butterflies to caterpillar limitations. Nor do they in like comparison concern themselves with human type indulgences or concerns. However, if the human is thought of as the larva of that next kingdom then there are, at times, those who are approaching the completion of their individual metamorphosis and are beginning to have some of the attributes and characteristics of that next kingdom. When the metamorphosis is complete their "perennial" and cyclic nature is ended for their "new" body has overcome decay, disease and death. It has converted over chemically, biologically, and in vibration to the "new" creature.

Approximately 2,000 years ago an individual of that next kingdom forfeited his body of that kingdom and entered a human female's womb, thereby incarnating as the one history refers to as Jesus of Nazareth. He awakened to this fact gradually through the same metamorphic process and came to know that he had incarnated for the express purpose of telling and showing, even to the point of proof, that the next kingdom can be entered by overcoming the human aspects and literally converting into a "man" or creature of that next kingdom – the kingdom of his Father – one who is already a member of that kingdom. By His resurrection He proved that death can be literally overcome and that a permanent body for the next kingdom is acquired from the human kingdom. He did not leave His body in the grave. He converted it into His body of that next kingdom. This is the only way the next kingdom is entered permanently. Each human has that full potential. Jesus' "Christing" or christening was completed at His transfiguration (metamorphic completion) and He remained in the "larva" environment, with other humans, only for some 40 days to show that His teaching had been accomplished. He showed them His new body and demonstrated a few of its new attributes, i.e., appearing and disappearing (changing His vibrations) before their eyes while letting some of His friends touch His "new" body. This could be compared to a butterfly remaining in the caterpillar world for a few days to show them what they had to look forward to if they chose to seek true conscious communication with a butterfly and were willing to overcome all of their caterpillar ways. Then Jesus left them in a cloud of light (what humans refer to as UFO's) and moves and returns in the same manner.

There are two individuals here now who have also come from that next kingdom, incarnate as humans, awakened, and will soon demonstrate the same proof of overcoming death. They are "sent" from that kingdom by the "Father" to bear the same truth that was Jesus'. This is like a repeat performance, except this time by two (a man and a woman) to restate the truth Jesus bore, restore its accurate meaning, and again show that any individual who seeks that kingdom will find it through the same process. This "re-statement" or demonstration will happen within months. The two who are the "actors" in this "theatre" are in the meantime doing all they can to relate this truth as accurately as possible so that when their bodies recover from their "dead" state (resurrection) and they leave (UFO's) those left behind will have clearly understood the formula.

Those who can believe this process and do it will be "lifted up" individually and "saved" from death – literally. If you seek those two while they are here they will gladly fill you in on the details and assist those who wish to follow in this "path."

If this speaks to you – respond – according to your capabilities or needs. For your sake – give this opportunity your best.

UFO's

- ▶ Why they are here.
- ▶ Who they have come for.
- ▶ When they will leave.

NOT a discussion of UFO sightings or phenomena

Two individuals say they were sent from the level above human, and are about to leave the human level and literally (physically) return to that next evolutionary level in a spacecraft (UFO) within months! "The Two" will discuss how the transition from the human level to the next level is accomplished, and when this may be done.

This is not a religious or philosophical organization recruiting membership. However, the information has already prompted many individuals to devote their total energy to the transitional process. If you have ever entertained the idea that there may be a real, PHYSICAL level beyond the Earth's confines, you will want to attend this meeting.

*Denotes major early meetings.

THE 17 STEPS

1. Can you follow instructions without adding your own interpretation?
2. Can you deliver instructions as you receive them or do they change according to your computer?
3. Do you participate in inconsiderate conversation, polluting the ears of others while you and your partner work things out?
4. Are you physically clumsy – breaking things because you handle them too harshly or carelessly?
5. Do you half way complete a task because of your poor standard of what is thorough?
6. Do you put tasks off – procrastinate?
7. Are your patterns of cleanliness, sensitivity, gentleness, etc. consistent or are they good only when spotlighted?
8. Do you use more of something than is adequate (for example, excessively high cooking flame, more toothpaste than necessary, etc.)?
9. Do you go from one extreme to another: as from overeating to undereating, etc.?
10. Are you sensitive when approaching another individual about something you want to discuss? Do you permit that individual the choice to continue what he is doing, or do you force him to drop it in order to give attention to you? Do you stop and check, or do you assume that what is on your mind is more important than what is on theirs? (Know the difference between your relationship with your teachers and your fellow classmates in this regard.)
11. Do you needlessly ask a question when the answer is obvious or a moment of silent observation would quickly reveal the answer?
12. Are you pushy, aggressive, interfering, or demanding in any way?
13. Has familiarity caused you to become so relaxed with your partners or others that your actions or words don't hold enough restraint?
14. Are you gentle, simple, cautious, and thoughtfully restrained in your steps and all other physical actions or words?
15. Have you outgrown defensiveness and its flip side, martyrdom?
16. Can you understand and review in your mind all the ways in which members of the Next Level are sensitive? If you can, you have no excuse for not working on improving in these areas at all times.
17. When your teachers have asked someone to do a task and it relates to you, do you treat that task and its deliverers with as much respect as you would if it came directly from your teachers?

MAJOR OFFENSES

1. Deceit
 - a. Doing an act “on the sly.”
 - b. Lying to my teachers or any of my classmates.
 - c. Keeping an offense to myself, not exposing it the same day.
2. Sensuality – permitting arousal in thought or in action (not nipping it in the bud).
3. Breaking any instruction or procedure knowingly.

OTHER OFFENSES

1. Taking any action without using my check partner.
2. Trusting my own judgment – or using my own mind.
3. Twisting procedures for my own benefit.
4. Responding defensively to my classmates or teachers.
5. Criticizing or finding fault with my classmates or teachers.

8. Allowing jealousy towards any classmates or comparing myself to others.
9. Staying in my own head, having private thoughts, not staying open with my partner – separateness.
10. Putting myself first, wanting my own way, rebelliousness – selfishness.
11. Entertaining inappropriate fears and worries, e.g.: Am I going to be asked to leave the class? Will our rest or consuming be adequate for my needs?
12. Inappropriately offering suggestions, second-guessing, or jumping ahead of my teachers.
13. Exaggerating vehicular symptoms.

21. Desiring attention or approval – wanting to be seen as good.
22. Using inadequate restraint (responding or acting too quickly, voice volume, noise level with feet, doors, or other objects).
23. Engaging in familiarity, casualness, gossip, lack of restraint with others.
24. Being too aggressive or pushy.
25. Exercising poor control of thoughts running through my head, being easily distracted.
26. Lacking in effort and commitment.
27. Permitting impatience or intolerance.
28. Being vain about my appearance, vibrating femininity or masculinity in any way.

Section 3:

'88 UPDATE

1988

The '88 Update was written while we were in seclusion during the first “snatching away” and was made public to a minor degree through a mailing to various New Age Centers, Health Food Stores, writers, preachers, ufologists, monasteries, and so on. Beginning in approximately late 1986 and continuing throughout this time period, some extremely revealing information was surfacing worldwide. Reports of government cover-ups of UFO crashes, alien technology being acquired and tested by the military, and rumors of underground bases housing joint alien/government projects circulated widely. In addition, detailed reports of abductions of humans by space aliens for the purposes of genetic experimentation and hybridization were escalating. It was a particularly accelerated time in our own awakening as well. Missing pieces of the puzzle were being given to us that broadened our overview and helped to clarify some aspects of our own mission. We have no doubt that the timing of these exposures was deliberate and calculated, not only for our own sake but in preparing the world for events yet to come.

'88 UPDATE:

THE UFO TWO TWO WITNESSES?

AND THEIR CREW FOLLOWERS

A BRIEF SYNOPSIS

'88 UPDATE—THE UFO TWO AND THEIR CREW

A Brief Synopsis

In the early 1970's, two members of the Kingdom of Heaven (or what some might call two aliens from space) incarnated into two unsuspecting humans in Houston, a registered nurse and a college music professor who were in their forties. The nurse and the professor hadn't previously known each other and had completely separate lives. The registered nurse was happily married with four children, worked in the nursery of a local hospital, and enjoyed a small astrology practice. The music professor, a divorcee who had lived with a male friend for some years, was contentedly involved in cultural and academic activities.

For about a year before they met, their lives seemed to encounter severe upheaval and personal confusion, later recognized as the human body's response to the entry of the minds from what "the two" referred to as the "Next Level," or the physical level above human. About nine months after they first met, they left Houston because their lives, which were crumbling around them, made it impossible to concentrate on what was actually happening to them.

Most of their friends and associates thought the two of them had lost their minds or were being duped into a relationship by the other. The only relationship they shared, certainly having no physical attraction toward each other, was the compulsion to discover what had brought them together and what might be their purpose. They had little in common other than strong personal relationships with their Heavenly Father.

While spending almost six weeks in painful, soul-searching isolation in a Texas hill country ranch house, they began to respond and identify with more of their "Next Level" mind. They consciously recognized that they were sent from space to do a task that had something to do with the Bible, an update in understanding, and prophecy fulfillment. Having divorced themselves from their human lives, they struggled for some time with the conflicting duality of their bodies' memories and thought patterns and their Next Level identity and purpose.

Shortly after first meeting, even before leaving Houston, they had individually dropped habits—such as sex, drinking, and smoking—not for explainable reasons, but simply because they both knew that their new consciousness would be interfered with if such practices were continued. However, the memory and "old programming" of their bodies (which they now referred to as their "vehicles") had to be kept at bay like an annoying puppy in order to sustain their Next Level consciousness.

Leaving the hill country, having left everything behind in Houston, giving it all away, they struck out in their last possession, a little sports car convertible. They seemed to just go where "the spirit" led, lacing the country up and down and from side to side as if they were being used as cameras and microphones for the Next Level. They did odd jobs to sustain travel funds, everything from carving crosses for a little store in Las Vegas where the owner took an extreme interest in them, to digging septic tank test ditches near Savage Rapids on the Rogue River in southern Oregon. Occasionally, when they could find no work, they asked for help from preachers, which was, needless to say, a humbling experience for both of them. Their sports car "died" in front of the Ananda Marga house in Portland, Oregon where they were invited to stay for awhile.

Their real or more in-depth awakening occurred over several months while camping on the Rogue River near Gold Beach, Oregon. While there they came to believe that they were the Two Witnesses mentioned in the Book of Revelations. This was extremely difficult for them to accept, for they were both the type who were "turned off" by people who thought they were reincarnations of Cleopatra, or some Egyptian king or Biblical character. To have to believe that they were assuming a role that would have caused them to "run the other way" had they seen someone else assume it, was more than hard to digest.

In spite of that difficulty, they felt that they really had no choice but to tell the world what the real Kingdom of Heaven was—a physical evolutionary level, instead of some mystical cloud-and-harp, spiritual existence as Lucifer has popularly twisted the scripture quoters to misinterpret. The term "evolutionary" here does not refer to the theories presented by Darwin, but to a level of life that can be entered only after overcoming or rising above the ways of the human world, and only with the assistance of a Member of the Heavenly Kingdom.

They knew that Jesus had come or been sent to share exactly the same truth with "those who had the eyes to see," but that His body might have been a Next Level hybrid by means of artificial insemination, offering Him more Next Level capabilities. He knew that a "boarding pass" to His Father's Kingdom came only after overcoming (hating everything of this world), leaving everything and everybody behind (forsaking mother, father, sister, brother for My sake), and following the example and lead of an "Older Member"—your Master, Rabbi, Lord. This was exactly the same awareness that the two had come to be witness to. They also knew that whoever carries this witness would be hated of men, most of all by the religious who are comfortable in their belief system of "He did it all for us, we just have to believe in Him," instead of individually needing to also do as He did.

They also came to know that the true antichrist is now here and has taken several faces, one of which is the New Age "Ye are Gods" concept, or "I have only to become aware of my own 'Christ consciousness within'" while continuing to practice the ways of the world. They knew that when it becomes time for any individual to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, he cannot "love the Lord his God with all his heart, mind, and soul" and still love his wife, his things, his respectability, his credibility, or even possess any of these things while being taken through the birth canal into the Next Level—the Kingdom of Heaven—by one of Its members.

After awakening to this understanding, their heads were spinning with excitement about what had been shared with them by their Heavenly Father, or Older Member, and yet they were fearful of what they were to do with this information.

Their Older Member helped them realize also that so-called flying saucers, or misappropriately labeled UFO's, were means of transportation and laboratories of the Kingdom of Heaven (clouds of light, wheels of fire), and that the occupants of these spacecrafts were for the most part members of the true Heavenly Kingdom. "For the most part" here means that frequently the Next Level transports lower life forms (human-like creatures) in their spacecrafts, just as zoologists in the human world transport animal life in their means of transportation. The two were given to understand that these spacecraft occupants were participants in "God's creation" of the Earth and had been the participants in relating to Abraham, the Israelites, Jesus, and all of our Bible's record of man's association with God. They also understood that this civilization, since Adam's time until now, is just one planting of Earth's true "Gardeners."

Coming to know, or having been given the knowledge of these things and countless more made their heads reel. What they grew to know seemed to create such a communication gap between them and humans that they began to ask, "What are we to do with this understanding? Everyone will think we are kooks or be ready to have us committed if we say anything."

So when they left Gold Beach, after having received an unexpected insurance check from a car accident, they began to wander even more. They traveled into Canada and all over the U.S. again, leaving little calling cards on pulpits saying, "The Two Witnesses are here," and then running before anyone could see them or ask any questions.

At a New Age awareness center, they felt led to share that they were the Two Witnesses, only to find out that the leaders of the center claimed the same title! After this incident, they struggled significantly with whether to continue with this "modus operandi."

A woman who had met them in Houston right before they left and with whom they had promised to communicate, asked if she could meet up with them, and they agreed. As they traveled here and there, they met her a few times and she offered the use of her gasoline credit cards. They used the cards for a while until they were informed that the cards had been reported stolen by the woman's husband, which was a traumatic experience to say the least. In the meantime, the old car they purchased in Portland, Oregon, with money from their pawned jewelry, "gave up the ghost," and they were stranded in St. Louis on the night that the comet Kohoutek was at its peak. In their naive trust, they pulled out one of their old credit cards and rented a car, firmly believing that "God would provide the means" to pay the bill.

Sometime later, while in Brownsville, Texas, they made an appointment with a news reporter to share what they had come to know, telling him that this would be the biggest story he had ever received. He believed them, but thought that their story was about drug trafficking and brought hoards of the authorities with him to the interview. This frightened the two, who were pretty paranoid by now anyhow, and when they saw the authorities, they left abruptly, which made the authorities follow them. In the process of following them, though the police didn't know why the two were running, they checked out the license of the rented car which had been reported stolen.

The two were then arrested and plopped in the county jail. [For sake of clarity, we will refer to the female as Ti and the male as Do, two names they took some time ago.] Ti was charged with stealing credit cards (the gasoline credit cards that belonged to the husband of the Houston woman). Do was charged with auto theft (the car that he rented with his last credit card in St. Louis on Christmas night).

After a few days, Ti was sent to a Houston jail where the charges were dropped by the woman's husband. She was released after having spent 30 days in jail. Do stayed in the Brownsville jail a while longer, and the credit card company dropped the charges related to the rented car. However, the DA's office in St. Louis picked up the charges and Do was extradited to St. Louis. After six months his trial came before the judge, and he received a four-month sentence, which he had already served plus two extra months.

At any rate, that experience yielded significant growth for both of them. Mainly, the isolation yielded Statement I, the first written statement of their beliefs, which they sent out soon after Do's release.

They were at first horrified at what had happened, thinking that a jail record had ruined their mission, that no one would listen to them if their credibility was questionable. However, they could see that even prior to the jail incident their stability and credibility was by now unquestionably questionable. So the felon record was taken in stride as assurance that now they couldn't turn back. It might be interesting to note that during Do's trial, because of the judge's awareness of the peculiar circumstances surrounding the arrest, the judge ordered a psychiatric examination. Although Do passed it with flying colors, not a 24-hour period slipped by that he didn't question his own sanity.

Ti worked in a hospital in Houston while Do was in St. Louis. She spent most of the money she earned during Do's incarceration on lawyer's fees. The lawyer was supposedly trying to get Do released, insisting that the case would be thrown out; all he really accomplished was collecting more of Ti's earnings.

After Do's release, he flew to Houston where Ti was waiting. Do's public defender had cautioned her to not go to St. Louis for fear her presence would complicate the trial. By now, she had barely saved enough to purchase a very used, old-model car and some camping gear. The very weary and somewhat scared two struck out again with a new "down to earth" modus operandi: take no chances. This too reminded them that credit and credit cards are not the ways of the Next Level, but rather some of "Lucy's" (Lucifer's) ways of guaranteeing your service to his world.

They then headed for California where the mother of the Houston woman offered her help in whatever seemed to be the next step. Statement I, written while Do was in jail, was then mailed out in March 1975, from Ojai, where they stayed only for a few days. They sent the statement to ministers, evangelists, and awareness centers far and wide. It read thusly:

STATEMENT I

What religions have sought to understand since the beginning of their origin is what is above the human level of existence. Most have taught that if an individual lives a "good life" adoring some savior that he will inherit some "heaven" after his death. Only if it were that simple. That viewpoint is as inaccurate as the caterpillar believing that if he dies a good caterpillar he will mysteriously awaken in a rose blossom and live there forever with the King butterfly. He must become a butterfly while a healthy caterpillar—overcoming his decaying option. If he rises above all caterpillar ways, converts all his energies to the pursuit of becoming literally another creature who circulates in another world, he becomes a butterfly. Likewise a human who seeks only to become a member of his next evolutionary kingdom may become a member of that kingdom if he completely overcomes all the aspects and influences of the human level providing he has found favor with a member of that next level who will direct him through his metamorphosis. As the caterpillar, the human can complete this changeover only before his death as a human. A member of the next kingdom finds favor with one who is willing to endure all of the necessary growing pains of weaning himself totally from his human condition. Members of that next kingdom are no more confined to human limitations than butterflies to caterpillar limitations. Nor do they in like comparison concern themselves with human type indulgences or concerns. However, if the human is thought of as the larva of that next kingdom then there are, at times, those who are approaching the completion of their individual metamorphosis and are beginning to have some of the attributes and characteristics of that next kingdom. When the metamorphosis is complete their "perennial" and cyclic nature is ended for their "new" body has overcome decay, disease and death. It has converted over chemically, biologically, and in vibration to the "new" creature.

Approximately 2,000 years ago an individual of that next kingdom forfeited his body of that kingdom and entered a human female's womb, thereby incarnating as the one history refers to as Jesus of Nazareth. He awakened to this fact gradually through the same metamorphic process and came to know that he had incarnated for the express purpose of telling and showing, even to the point of proof, that the next kingdom can be entered by overcoming the human aspects and literally converting into a "man" or creature of that next kingdom—the kingdom of his Father—one who is already a member of that kingdom. By His resurrection He proved that death can be literally overcome and that a permanent body for the next kingdom is acquired from the human kingdom. He did not leave His body in the grave. He converted it into His body of that next kingdom. This is the only way the next kingdom is entered permanently. Each human has that full potential. Jesus' "Christing" or christening was completed at His transfiguration (metamorphic completion) and He remained in the "larva" environment, with other humans, only for some 40 days to show that His teaching had been accomplished. He showed them His new body and demonstrated a few of its new attributes, i.e., appearing and disappearing (changing His vibrations) before their eyes while letting some of His friends touch His "new" body. This could be compared to a butterfly remaining in the caterpillar world for a few days to show them what they had to look forward to if they chose to seek true conscious communication with a butterfly and were willing to overcome all of their caterpillar ways. Then Jesus left them in a cloud of light (what humans refer to as UFO's) and moves and returns in the same manner.

There are two individuals here now who have also come from that next kingdom, incarnate as humans, awakened, and will soon demonstrate the same proof of overcoming death. They are "sent" from that kingdom by the "Father" to bear the same truth that was Jesus'. This is like a repeat performance, except this time by two (a man and a woman) to restate the truth Jesus bore, restore its accurate meaning, and again show that any individual who seeks that kingdom will find it through the same process. This "re-statement" or demonstration will happen within months. The two who are the "actors" in this "theatre" are in the meantime doing all they can to relate this truth as accurately as possible so that when their bodies recover from their "dead" state (resurrection) and they leave (UFO's) those left behind will have clearly understood the formula.

Those who can believe this process and do it will be "lifted up" individually and "saved" from death—literally. If you seek those two while they are here they will gladly fill you in on the details and assist those who wish to follow in this "path."

If this speaks to you—respond—according to your capabilities or needs. For your sake—give this opportunity your best.

Within two or three days, a man who headed an awareness group in Los Angeles came with one of his students to Ojai to meet with the two. After deciding that they were seemingly sane, he invited them to speak in the house of another one of his students. The group leader invited all his students, plus anyone else he thought might be interested, and the house was packed. The two did the best they could to explain Statement I. At the end of the meeting they said that if there were some who wanted to know more, they could meet at Frank's house the next night.

[We'll call the leader Frank, which wasn't his name. Our reasons for not using the human birth names of the two, or of anyone else for that matter, are to protect their families and loved ones from unnecessary grief, and in order to not "toot our own horn," though some might interpret our not using them as an indication that we must have something to hide. Of course, the press in the past has seen to it that the details that might hurt the innocent loved ones were filled in, as they likely will do again.]

The next night at Frank's place, several dozen showed up and remained thirsty for even more information. Ti and Do then began to meet with them individually, and before realizing what was happening, Ti and Do said to some, "Well, if you're really serious about knowing more, wrap up your loose ends and meet us in a campground in Gold Beach, Oregon this weekend or within the next few days." They thought that this would weed out most of the curious, not yet realizing that this was adding up to "followers"—a big surprise and an idea not too welcome as far as Ti and Do were concerned!

The Gold Beach campground "classroom" turned out to be "something else." Not only did many of the ones from the Los Angeles meeting show up, but so did some of their friends—even some hippies seemed to be coming out of the woodwork, although no publicity had come out yet. By this time, someone had asked "What shall we call you?" and the two answered, "Bo and Peep, since it looks like we're gathering our lost sheep." [Even though those names stuck for the next year while meetings were being held around the country, we'll continue to use Ti and Do since these names have remained until the present time.]

For a week or so, Ti and Do held constant meetings, both with the group as a whole and privately with individuals. The followers—or rather those who Ti and Do insisted on calling students—dispersed to hold smaller separate meetings, and later rejoined in a campground near Redwood City, California. From there, the students held a meeting at Stanford University in Palo Alto, California on August 13, 1975. Posters were then printed for the August 24th meeting at Cañada College, where Ti and Do made their first public appearance. The crowd was so large that the auditorium was filled to capacity for two back-to-back meetings. That poster read as follows:

UFO'S

- > Why they are here.
- > Who they have come for.
- > When they will leave.

NOT a discussion of UFO SIGHTINGS or PHENOMENA

Two individuals say they are about to leave the human level and literally (physically) enter the next evolutionary level in a spacecraft (UFO) within months! "THE TWO" will discuss how the transition from the human level to the next level is accomplished, and when this may be done. -

This is not a religious or philosophical organization recruiting membership. However, the information has already prompted many individuals to devote their total energy to the transitional process. If you have ever entertained the idea that there may be a real, physical level beyond the Earth's confines, you will want to attend this meeting.

Ti and Do were never pleased with having to use the term "UFO," because they felt like "spacecraft" and "other flying devices of the Next Level" were a lot closer to proper descriptions.

A Waldport, Oregon meeting, held on September 14, 1975, was the first meeting to be significantly picked up by the press, as were stories relating how some had given away their children and properties. Such actions were certainly not according to Ti and Do's instructions; nevertheless, bedlam had broken out by now.

A few stayed behind in Oregon for a follow-up meeting while the rest proceeded with Ti and Do via campgrounds to a Denver meeting, and then on to a campground near Chicago. While they were in Chicago, the news broke about the Waldport meeting, and because of the above reports and rumors, a couple of sheriff's deputies from Lincoln County, Oregon were sent to investigate what was going on.

After leaving Illinois and arriving at a campground outside Tulsa, Ti and Do thought it seemed wise to break up into a number of smaller groups, not only because of the interruption of the authorities, but also because the numbers were getting too big for the campgrounds to handle.

Certain ones who seemed to have a grasp of the information were sent out to hold their own meetings across the country. A system of communication was set up according to places, dates, and hours in order for Ti and Do to be kept somewhat informed. Statement I had grown to include Statements II and III, plus a prospective candidate letter. Students were sent out in partnerships of two, or three if an odd number made it necessary. Each group had its own "purser" who kept track of funds and doled them out according to need, in an effort to maintain some kind of order and fairness.

Over the next few months, too many things happened to mention but a few of them. The National Enquirer interviewed Ti and Do, and the New York Times "Sunday Magazine" did a cover story on them. Ti and Do's message was the same as Jesus' message: telling about what the true Kingdom of Heaven is, and how individuals who want to be candidates for its membership must overcome all of their human addictions, drop their human ways, and look to a member of that Kingdom for all of their needs. Do realized more and more that Ti was definitely a more advanced (older) member of the Next Level than was he.

Periodically, almost magically, the group was able to rendezvous with their teachers. By now the ones who had stuck it out through difficult, humbling lessons were a wide variety of people. Some examples were: a nurse, a doctor's wife, a rancher, a real estate broker, an actor, an artist, a film editor, a technical writer, a computer programmer, a bartender, an environmentalist, and many college and post-grad students. Because of the requirements of membership, some who joined the group as couples now became friends and fellow students. When some fell away, occasionally they felt bitterness, because of their choice to rebuild "burnt bridges."

One of the hardest things that Ti and Do had to do concerned the "demonstration" (referred to in Statement I). The students had been told that while they were out holding meetings they would hear of the demonstration, and that would be the signal to stop holding meetings and come running. It was rumored for a while that the demonstration was going to happen in San Francisco. Ti and Do were in Las Vegas when the TV network news programs all broke the story about the two. Now because of the kind of publicity that had come out across the country, climaxed by the networks, Ti and Do felt that further meetings were pretty hopeless and people had already made up their minds about how ridiculous this all was. Ti and Do felt that the demonstration was still the one thing that could change that. However, they grieved literally for days, feeling like they had been shot down by the media and the mission was dead.

They received instruction to not walk into a physical demonstration but rather to know that the "killing in the street" of the two witnesses had occurred at the hands of the media. However, they felt like this was a cop-out or a "chickening out" interpretation of the one act that was the basis of their whole following. So with much embarrassment, they called their students together, convinced that without a physical demonstration, their students would have every right to call them charlatans. Much to their surprise the students, almost without exception, accepted the interpretation and said, "OK then, where do we go from here?"

Ti and Do still felt that to continue was probably one of their greatest tests. Nevertheless, they got up, kicked the dust off their tired feet, and continued with the instruction to hold meetings a while longer. They then became more organized in their groups and more systematic with their communication between cities. All in all, the meetings continued for a little over ten months.

At a meeting in a Manhattan, Kansas college auditorium (April 21, 1976), Ti announced that "the 'Harvest' is closed—there will be no more meetings." Since that time, no new students have been admitted to the class.

The students were called together a few months later in Medicine Bow National Forest, Wyoming, to receive instruction about what was next. There were close to a hundred who showed up. Ti and Do announced that it had been rumored that some were still occasionally indulging in pot and sex. Everyone was asked to go off by themselves for a few hours and make up their mind as to whether they were just caught up in the fun of a "movement" or if they were serious. For now the real "classroom" was to begin, and it was not for those who felt they wanted to hold on to human ways. Ti and Do preached long and hard about what it meant to rid oneself of self, and what would be required of those who continued. Within the next few days, the class dropped to fewer than 80. This was in early July, and by October when the snows ran them out of Medicine Bow, the class had dwindled to fewer than 70.

For the next two years, the class spent summers in the Rocky Mountains in campgrounds and on ranches, and the winters in the Sun Belt, also in campgrounds and on ranches. They experimented in all kinds of disciplines, such as wearing hoods to learn about the "conning" ways of their visual personalities, and making 12-minute checks—each person physically going to a given spot every 12 minutes to concentrate on his or her desire to serve. They were given new names with three letters in the first syllable and a common two-syllable second part.

Later, after their numbers had diminished significantly, they moved into houses—sometimes large houses, sometimes a number of smaller houses—usually moving every six months to a year. For a time they lived on the trust fund of one of the students, but for the most part supported themselves by, as many as needed to, taking jobs outside the classroom. At present, members of the class are living in small groups of varying numbers, in six different states and in ten different houses or apartments.

All in all, the students have been in the classroom 12 years now, and their numbers are down to a few dozen. Time and again they were encouraged by Ti and Do to leave the classroom if they had the least desire for anything in the world or if the classroom wasn't what they knew they wanted. They visited families occasionally, to assure them that they were doing what they wanted to do, and were in no way being "duped." They had plenty of reading material, watched TV, attended movies, visited churches, and attended lectures whenever they were interesting.

The important thing is not where they have been or for how long, but what they have learned or awakened to know. Over the years, not only Ti and Do, but their students as well, tried again and again to refute this information. They tried to ignore it and to deny it; they even tried to play out what they would do if they went back into the world, but they kept coming back to the fact that this knowledge and concept was the only thing that made sense to them. It would have been a lot easier to just walk away than to do all that was required. There are even some who are now out of the class, who had been in the class for some time, who still believe this information to be true.

The class knows that the world sees them as a cult, and that no longer bothers them. They know that all they care about is the Next Level—the Kingdom of Heaven—and how they might become better members of that Kingdom. Prior to 1981, their understanding was that they were working toward graduation from the human kingdom into the Next Level, and that this graduation process involved physically changing over their human vehicles (metamorphosing) into Next Level vehicles. They now believe that in reality they were in the Kingdom of Heaven before entering these human bodies. But because of the present awareness of their Next Level consciousness, they know that they are in that Kingdom now, though occupying human vehicles in order to do a task.

In spite of their repeated effort to refute this explanation, all things continue to lead them to believe the following (Hold onto your hats!):

They were briefed as a crew aboard a spacecraft about how they would incarnate into human vehicles in order to do a task. They left their Kingdom "world" and came into this "world" beginning in the late 1940's. They feel that some left their Next Level bodies via so-called UFO "crashes." However, they believe that the crashes were not accidental, as they appeared to be to the humans who witnessed the remains and recovered some of the bodies. These are now in the possession of governments (one of our Government's scientists coined the term "EBE"—extraterrestrial biological entities—to identify these beings, also frequently referred to as "greys"). Some left their bodies behind in "cold storage," or the Next Level's wardrobe, for the duration of this task. Others were in "spirit," having not yet earned Next Level bodies since having left the human kingdom.

If this hypothesis is true, then the class members were not humans recruited by Ti and Do into some cult, but rather were members of the Next Level before ever meeting them. They knew prior to coming to Earth that two Older Members would take them through a lengthy (according to human time) observation-study time in this world in preparation for choosing and taking a human vehicle before actually entering it. That is to say, they were all in "spirit" from the late 1940's and possibly early 1950's until the mid-1970's before actually entering and taking charge of the human vehicles—or the human bodies—they are now in. The vehicles they chose generally ranged in age from early 20's to late 50's, some having more difficult genetic packages or programming in order to give more growth opportunity.

The task seemed to include the important aspect of example. They incarnated into such a variety of human vehicles that collectively they covered the 360-degree range of humanness and human addictions. They then, during the classroom, "overcame the world" or changed the programming of these vehicles sufficiently to demonstrate that "virginity can be recovered," or you can do as Jesus admonished his disciples to do. Was this not the more realistic metamorphosis? This is not to say that it took 12 years to do this, for many other lessons and much broader understanding filled the bulk of these years.

The pieces of the puzzle seem to indicate that the reason the Bible and its role players teach overcoming human ways is not for the sake of morality or pseudo-piety, but simply because the Next Level literally has no place for those activities. For example, there are apparently no active reproductive organs in the physical bodies of members of the Next Level,¹ though the bodies of some of the younger (less advanced) members of the Next Level, if examined, might show signs of internal remnants of reproductive organs long since all but atrophied. Therefore, it seems you could not inherit one of those bodies until you no longer have any use for activities involving the reproductive organs. Those who think their Heaven will have husbands and wives who wear "seed-bearing plants" for bodies must know of some other place than the Heaven our Heavenly Father exists in.

In the same way, they would also show no signs of digestive organs as humans know them. So wouldn't it follow that it is important to have no likes or cravings for food, other than as fuel, if you hope to inherit a Next Level vehicle (body) or suit of clothes?

Whatever you crave or haven't overcome at the loss of one body carries over to any next body, if the Gardener chooses to replant you. That is, the capacity of your new body will match the level of comprehension and control that you (the mind) achieved while occupying any previous body (vehicle). You will "pick up where you left off," so to speak, with whatever programming or physical addictions you had not overcome. Do not confuse this with the popular concept of reincarnation.

The students' constant desire is to move upward, always striving for a closer relationship with their Older Members, to be more like them in thought and action, and thus "be of the same mind." "The Son can do nothing on His own accord, but only what He sees the Father doing, for whatever He does, the Son does likewise." —John 5:19

In trying to achieve this goal, they have found a most valuable instrument to be the constant use of a "check partner." Check partners are individuals who share the same desires and goals, but between them there exists no physical or romantic relationship. As constant companions, they are always reaching for the most right action based on what they think their Older Members would have them do. "For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." —Matthew 18:20

This applies to all ages of Next Level members. The older a member, the more he has mastered the technique of checking with his Older Member if this or that thought or action was the one intended or handed down through the "vine," trying to be sure that the thought or action wasn't a creation of his own or different from that of his Older Member. This is not the loss of individuality but the liberating from influences which separate us. "For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me." —John 6:38

[If any true religious scholars sincerely try to digest any of this strange puzzle, they may understand more of the real meaning of their studies.]

As was mentioned earlier, Do recognized that Ti was clearly his Older Member, not that Ti ever told him that, but it became quite obvious because of how much more natural the Next Level conduct and ways of thinking were to her. Also it became clear to the class that Ti and Do were their elders (Older Members), though they were not as aware of the gap between Ti and Do as much as Do was and as Do was sure that Ti was.

The class also has recognized that during the course of our classroom the concepts we believed in seemed to change almost as fast as our locations. However, we continued to believe in certain things consistently all along the way (mainly the rapid antiquating of our previous understanding). We knew that each step was an important stepping stone and gave us the perspective we needed to take at the time. We also clearly recognize the limitation and potential antiquation of our present understanding, though we know that it is sufficient for this moment. In other words, growth is a continual, changing process.

We are aware that some of this information is a real brain twister and takes a gestation period before comprehension. Frequently, at first exposure it may provoke negative reactions. However, the true "Sons of God" in line for membership will wade through the adjustment difficulties.

When rising into the vernacular of this kind of thinking, it becomes difficult to maintain a cohesiveness of thought. The thoughts seem fragmented or as little pieces of a larger picture that is difficult to bring into focus. That is because at this moment the reader is experiencing the mind of the Older Member of the writer speaking through his instrument, i.e., brain and pen. However, in this case the writer will not come out of some coma as "channelers" do, for the writer is consciously on the same "wavelength" as the Father, or Older Member, who is coming through. (The writer has just received instruction to switch back to more mundane information.)

Some may ask, "How were those bodies affected which were entered by the Next Level minds of Ti and Do and the class?" If those individuals are still in the class, that is evidence that the genetic programming of the human vehicle has accepted or adapted to the thoughts and actions of the Next Level mind that now occupies and controls that vehicle. If a member of the Next Level wears a body like a suit of clothes, then he needs the strength to control and functionally use the genetic package of the suit of clothes he has reason to put on.

Our understanding is that Next Level bodies (the normal bodies for that Kingdom level, in the same way that human bodies are the norm for the human kingdom) are grown as plants from a vine, and at the end of their gestation period, they are fully grown and functional, not "babies" as are the products of human "seed-bearing plants." There seem to be actual grafting processes used and genetic binding from Older Members. "I am the vine, ye are the branches"—could that mean something more than previously thought?

When minds or souls are deliberately tuned to the same thinking and same actions, think how well they could function in the service of the Next Level if they inherited like bodies of the same genetic vine with the same programming potential.

Here we are fragmenting again because the picture is so big and so difficult to focus.

Some 3-1/2 years ago from the time of this writing, Ti left her human vehicle. To all human appearances it was due to a form of liver cancer. We could say that because of the stress, due to the gap between her Next Level mind and the vehicle's genetic capacity, that the cancer symptom caused the vehicle to break down and stop functioning. However, it was strange that she experienced no symptoms prior to the week she left her vehicle, and for the most part her vehicle slept through the transition. We're not exactly sure how many days it might have taken her to return to the Next Level vehicle she left behind prior to this task.

The more important fact is that since that time, Do has been experiencing the role of having to communicate mentally with her, his Older Member, in a strengthening opportunity for mental or telepathic communication (not to be confused with the popular concept of channeling or spiritualism). The class has witnessed Ti's mind meshed in Do's thinking and even his choice of words as he talks to them. Does the quote "The Father is in Me and I am in My Father" mean maybe a little more than we previously thought it might?

It's fun that in the class they refer to this kind of thought expression, which has several strata of interpretation, as "N. L. Base" computer language—Next Level computer language—for it seems to take on a different level of meaning to those who have the same "computer program" or "software."

Is it possible that those who have like minds might also share a same kind of implant (not unlike an advanced computer chip) and recognize the same language or basis for understanding? "You cannot come to the Father unless He draws you to Him"—could that possibly mean that the Next Level has literally placed implants in the heads of some humans for different purposes? One purpose might be to draw the chosen to Him, for they are looking to the right source with the right asking (prayers?).

"What has the class been doing for 12 years?" you might ask. They have been tuning their minds with their Older Member's mind, who has been tuning his mind with his Older Member's mind, and so forth up the ladder.

They have been progressively gaining more control over the genetic programming of their vehicles, and in so doing have been automatically putting those signals into the atmosphere for others to draw upon. Evidence of the successful depositing of these signals comes in the form of the public's increased awareness of the harm that smoking, drinking, drugs, and sexual promiscuity can cause to the chemistry of the human body. Additional evidence may be found in the increased awareness of the physical nature of the Kingdom of Heaven, UFO's, Next Level bodies (recovered "alien" or extraterrestrial bodies), etc.

The class also feels that they have a more complete understanding of Lucifer: how he got to be too big for his britches, stopped looking to his Heavenly Father, and thought he knew so much he could "run his own show." They are witnesses to how Lucifer's helpers try in spirit to influence individuals to go backward and thereby remain his faithful servants.

One of the major tools of Lucifer is the New Age movement, i.e., Theosophy, Ascended Masters, channeling, Eastern religions, mysticism, yoga, Christ consciousness within, and the "Ye are Gods" concept. These practices and beliefs originated from Lucifer—they are his creations or distortions. All are a fantasy and a trap, though spiritually and intellectually intriguing and enticing.

Some New Age teachings purport that Jesus is one of many Ascended Masters, and they even try to make you feel ignorant if you don't recognize Jesus as part of their hierarchy. They teach that He studied in the Himalayan Mountains with the hierarchy from age 12 to 30—the years for which there is no significant record of His actions. If there is an ounce of truth to that claim, it might explain why it is recorded in Matthew 4:8-9: "Again, the Devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them; and said to Him, 'All these I will give You, if You will fall down and worship me.'" Jesus knew that this was not His Heavenly Father. How would Jesus have known where the real truth was to be found, if He hadn't been confronted with and been strong enough to see through what Lucifer had to offer?

In the same way, Ti and Do were similarly tempted by the forces of Lucifer, when in the early stages of their awakening, they were drawn into the study of Theosophy, with its teachings of the Ascended Masters, Blavatsky's materials, and the Mahatma's Letters. On more than one occasion, Ti and Do were offered the trap of positions of leadership and power in Lucy's camp, one of which occurred atop what most New Agers consider the highest spiritual mountain in the U.S.. Some who considered themselves the hierarchy of that spiritual community told them, "You're the ones we've been looking for to be our leaders." Ti and Do recognized, just as Jesus did, that this was a ploy of Satan and did not come from their Heavenly Father.

For us, the lesson gleaned from both these experiences is that it's not what you "get into" that matters, but what you "get out of." Learning from your mistakes is what develops discernment, wisdom, depth, and maturity. It is therefore ignorant to condemn individuals for what they have done in the past, if they learned from their mistakes, changed, and took a step higher on the ladder toward our Heavenly Father's Truth.

One of the greatest temptations that Do and members of the class as individuals have had to deal with is the feeling of failure or not measuring up to the best potential of their task. However, they repeatedly recovered on the basis that whatever they might have appraised as a mistake can be reappraised as a lesson, hopefully learned, not needing to be repeated. They know that the Next Level, the Kingdom of God, always knows how to use what might have appeared as a major negative or a mistake, and change it into a positive, or a forward step of even greater magnitude.

Another one of Lucy's tactics is to try to keep us all so preoccupied with our human endeavors and concepts, including our "tainted" religious concepts, so that we might not have "the eyes to see or the ears to hear" when our Heavenly Father comes. Although the truth was designed to be found in the Judeo-Christian scriptures, Lucifer has worked equally hard to get the Christians off track by perverting their interpretations, concepts, and practices. The church uses the family, church membership, baptism, and other rituals to give people a false sense of security in religious accomplishment, and misguides them to believe that this is all they need to do in order to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. We all know the words too well: "He gave us the gift, He paid the price, all we have to do is believe on Him." However, Jesus' admonition to His disciples was quite another story.

Lucifer keeps humans so preoccupied with the family (normal for human "seed-bearing plants" except when the close of a civilization is near and/or when individuals are being drawn closer to the Next Level), that it becomes almost impossible for individuals who are prospects for moving up to respond when their Heavenly Father finds the time is ripe to draw them to Him.

When that time is at hand, no couples can respond, only individuals who seek ONLY their Heavenly Father, knowing that He is all sufficient for their every need. The individual who really recognizes his Heavenly Father, doesn't even have the desire to share his "heart, soul, and mind" with anyone else. Needless to say, he is celibate in all ways, not simply in his sensuous nature. If at their Heavenly Father's calling, individuals cannot respond to Him because of the worldly desires of their hearts, bodies, or minds, they will be unable to move up closer to Him and out of the darkness of their ignorance.

We know that this sounds like warped "spacey" evangelism, but there seems to be no other way to say it. We are quite aware that some of Lucifer's helpers are perched to point the finger at us as the antichrist because we are here to expose him. One of Lucy's favorite tricks is to use the mouths of Christians as well as other awareness groups to point the finger at others as Satan if they interfere with the concepts or behaviors that he wants them to cling to.

However, the Bible makes its stand on marriage and family in the final days very clear:

"I mean, brethren, the appointed time has grown very short; from now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none."
—I Corinthians 7:29

"The unmarried man is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to please the Lord; but the married man is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please his wife, and his interests are divided. And the unmarried woman or girl is anxious about the affairs of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit; but the married woman is anxious about worldly affairs, how to please her husband. I say this for your own benefit...and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord." —I Corinthians 7:32-35

"But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!" —Luke 21:23

Ti and Do's students know that now, because of "the times," they must speak out with what they have come to know so as to assist those who want to move up.

As we said before, we have tried again and again to deny this seemingly bizarre information. Each time, after thorough examination, we couldn't deny what we've come to know and we had to return to the same ladder in our thinking, but this time to the next rung. Could this possibly be because we had been briefed aboard a spacecraft before coming, and have gone through a gradual awakening to what was already in our minds?

Why else did Ti and Do and the class know that the bodies of Next Level Members do not have reproductive and digestive systems, before they were aware of materials such as The Roswell Incident and UFO Crash at Aztec?

Why was it that at the start of the classroom Ti and Do talked about the Next Level having underground bases from which spacecraft come and go, and that the Next Level might even engage humans to assist them with various projects?

Why did Ti and Do, even in the early classroom, constantly say, "You've got to get your mind into your vehicle and get control of it."?

Years ago we were holding meetings and telling about the real physical level of existence above the human kingdom and about its physical occupants. This same information, which is coming out now as the result of "above-top-secret" Government "leaks," substantiates what we knew in the beginning. This comes at a point in our own awakening when we no longer have the need for substantiation.

In our overcoming, no "proof" that would ever satisfy the scientific community was offered (no spacecraft landed in our backyard). But, through the nurturing of faith, we came to know the reality of the Next Level and that Ti and Do are our Older Members.

Likewise, for graduation candidates to require proof, or to prerequisite their acceptance of the reality of the Next Level on that basis, is wasted effort. If any judgment can be made, it would have to be made only as before, that is, "...by their fruits ye shall know them" —Matthew 7:20 (assuming you've grown to recognize good fruit).

One example of the "faith" syndrome might be seen in relationship to Whitley Strieber's experiences. Since, as yet, his "visitors" have not offered him proof incontrovertible, that fact likely indicates that he is still candidate material. But for non-candidates of the Heavenly Kingdom, faith is, for the most part, not a requirement for incontrovertible proof to be shown, for they are not building a relationship, nor are they going anywhere.

Though candidates, early on, are denied the proof of their relationship with the Next Level, once faith has been sufficiently proven, then proof of the Next Level's existence may be given. This is not to say that all who have had what they might consider incontrovertible proof are not necessarily candidates. We would certainly like to believe that out of all of those who witnessed the recent Gulf Breeze, Florida incident, that at least some of them might recognize it as part of the workings of their Heavenly Father's Kingdom.

One of the reasons for the class' resurfacing at this time seems to be as follows: Information has been released or leaked about UFO occupants, crashes, and communications between "aliens" and humans that, because of misinterpretations, could turn your eyes or have you see this evidence as something other than the workings of Our Father's Kingdom. Humans, with very few exceptions, who have an awareness of the presence of these "aliens" haven't grown to have the capacity to see that the Kingdom of God is at work here.

Governments who have had an undeniable awareness of the "aliens'" presence here since the late 1940's have tried to cover it up.^{2,3} They have retrieved "crashed" spacecrafts, live "EBE's" (extraterrestrials), and numerous bodies, autopsies of which have revealed characteristics mentioned previously (even though investigators interpret these occurrences incorrectly).^{4,5} They have even reported having had communications, encounters, and agreements with the "EBE's" that have been misunderstood and misinterpreted.

We, the class, certainly don't care to force the disclosure of the cover-up. The Next Level has had its own "cover-up," so to speak, since this civilization began, for humans' sake, because the younger "plants" (humans) wouldn't be able to handle the unreligiousized reality of some of their doings. There are records of how in Biblical times hoards of Angels came and won this battle, or did this or that act (actual close encounters of the third kind). However, the Next Level's presence hasn't been noticed much for many generations until recently; i.e., in increasingly significant ways since the late 1940's.

If you are part of God's "children," you know the Next Level has reasons for Their "leaks" or exposure, in preparation for a broader acceptance and understanding of Them. However, because of Their exposure, Lucifer's counterinterpretation of this presence has been stepped up. There is a major movement afoot to depict the members of the Next Level as hostile space "aliens" who abduct humans, do them harm, and are really here to “eat humans” (believe it or not, a quote from a so-called reliable source).

Alas—Our Major Dilemma: WHAT TO DO WITH WHAT WE KNOW?

For a while we tried to use what we had learned in an attempt to help victims of problematic genetic programming. We briefly started what was called Anonymous Sexaholics Celibate Church, aimed at people who had already joined a Sexaholics type organization. We tried to show them the positive side of their problem—that to be liberated from that addiction, having already acknowledged that they were addicts, put them ahead of the pack as far as having the potential for an improved relationship with their Heavenly Father was concerned.

We didn't expose other knowledge that we had, only what we had learned as related to the overcoming of a sex addiction—never anything about UFO's or Next Level awareness. We simply tried to help them understand that life after addiction acknowledgment could be a much happier, more fulfilling, and significantly more liberating existence, particularly if they could establish a dependency relationship with their Heavenly Father in whatever vernacular that translated for them. This was done in a way similar to the Sexaholics and Alcoholics Anonymous approach, except it offered them a more Godly focused fellowship.

We spent a lot of time and money on planning, brochures, mailings, and talking at meetings and conventions. However, the response to us was almost one of resentment of our finding “joy after celibacy,” as if we were trying to show off or be self-righteous. We considered and presented ourselves as addicts, but our lack of ability at faking “doldrums” seemed to cause some to question our humility. It was as if we were supposed to remain in a “poor us” or “sick” syndrome or otherwise be misunderstood. In this instance, they really couldn't tell where we “were coming from.”

We also thought that we could help AIDS victims realize that their problem could actually be their blessing, if they could be thankful for the opportunity to come closer to their Heavenly Father during this period of suffering. We have done our homework mentally in this effort, but haven't yet found the physical opportunity to put much into motion.

Again! WHAT ARE WE TO DO WITH WHAT WE HAVE LEARNED?

When we were holding meetings 12 years ago and didn't even know much of anything about what we were doing, we were criticized by what seemed to be almost every camp. Psychologists wrote books, papers, and even articles in Psychology Today about our “unfortunate brain-washed syndrome.” But from our standpoint, we felt like our brains weren't yet washed clean enough. They really didn't know us.

Ministers wrote articles in books and newsletters about how selfish our self-perfecting syndrome was. Overlooking Matthew 5:48, “Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father in Heaven is perfect,” they hastily surmised that we were on an ego “perfection” trip. Our motivation for trying to overcome everything that separated us from the Next Level was based upon the humility that we felt, feeling that we had done nothing to deserve the honor of the Next Level's closeness, and in spite of that fact, the Next Level had chosen to draw us closer to them. An awareness of that gift compelled us and also gave us the strength needed to try to rid ourselves of everything that separated us from Their Kingdom. Again, they never knew us, having never even sat with us.

Ufologists said that we must not know anything about the world of spacecrafts because we had used the term UFO, and what they knew of what we stood for seemed too spiritual.

However, the ones who misunderstood us the most were the ones who interpreted our position as by-passing Jesus, never understanding that without that same Mind that abides in Him, we would be nothing.

We believe in the reality of God, His Kingdom, and of His Son Jesus Christ. If we are off track in any way, we want it rectified. If we are some well-meaning, misguided, charismatic cult that is full of baloney, we want that rectified. However, if we are in fact in His service, we want that service brought to its full fruition according to God's will. We want only what's right in His eyes.

Again! WHAT ARE WE TO DO WITH WHAT WE KNOW?

The one thing we seem to be good at is attracting those to us who would mock us, misinterpret us, and wish that we would go away. They not only find fault in everything that we did and do, but make up things to accuse us of.

Maybe this is what we are supposed to expect at this point in our development toward our Older Member. We're not really the martyr type, but "so be it" if it's His will—part of His design!

Here's hoping our efforts have not been in vain. We feel that it is our instruction from our Father's Kingdom to get this material out at this time. Maybe, just maybe, there are some who can benefit from it—if not now, then possibly in some future time.

If you want to help us get this material out (intact) far and wide, please do.

BEYOND HUMAN

– THE LAST CALL

Late 1991 – Early 1992

TRANSCRIPTS OF VIDEO TAPE SERIES

The Beyond Human series of video tapes, which we recorded in late 1991/early 1992, were broadcast at that time via satellite TV. These video tapes represent the most comprehensive presentation of our material to the public in our 21-year mission. Twelve in-depth discussions of who we are, Next Level conduct, and Next Level thinking are presented in 10 one-hour sessions and two longer sessions for a total of approximately 13½ hours. Complete transcripts of all 12 sessions are included in this section.

During this time period, we used the name Total Overcomers Anonymous, which we felt accurately described our position – that is, our desire to overcome all aspects of the human kingdom, while remaining at the same time, both separate and anonymous.

Ti, the older Representative (not speaking of the age of the body but of experience in the Heavenly Kingdom), did not need to experience the remaining lessons, and returned to Headquarters in 1985. This adjustment afforded even more difficult and advanced lessons for the class (as well as for Do, the remaining Representative). That small classroom of now two dozen hopefully will not need to return to the human condition again and their minds – souls – eagerly anticipate entering physical bodies belonging to their Heavenly Father's Kingdom. Hence, it is time for them to participate in offering what they have experienced to others, those who find themselves here now for the express purpose of attempting that transition. The members of the class feel that, because of what they have gone through and now understand, the "transition time" will be significantly reduced for this final prospective "crop" or "harvest" of overcomers. In 1975, the information was publicly offered for less than a year. This time it will be offered for even a shorter time. We are at the close of an Age, and this possible second transitional or overcomers' classroom must be completed well ahead of many other events that must take place prior to this century's end.

Another description of what is happening at this time might be:

An Older Member in "God's House" (Headquarters in the literal physical Heavens) uses a younger member from God's House, assisted by new "graduates" from the human kingdom, to share the astounding yet perceivable "picture" of how any last remaining potential "heirs" to that "Kingdom" might become members in that household if they act quickly now at the end of this Age.

Original Definition of Terms is one of the topics clarified in these tapes (language (tongues) came from the Kingdom of God and was taught to humans; however, opposing forces have successfully, through the centuries, sold man on wrong definitions of terms in order to hold man in darkness or separation from God).

A few examples are:

Death is separation from God.

Life is possessed by one who knows the truth concerning the Kingdom of God. (These terms apply to the soul and have nothing to do with the body. A body which is shed through old age, disease, accident, or murder merely forces a soul into a sleep state until it is replanted in the human perennial vine or household to which it is still bound.)

Resurrection occurs when a soul returns from misinformation (darkness, death) to Truth (life) concerning God and man.

Heaven is the place, in all that is, where the Most High God resides (even though some salvageable souls are taken there at times for their dormancy before replanting for another chance at overcoming death).

* * * * *

Like we said at the beginning, these tapes tell us how to get to Heaven. If you want to go – you've found your classroom. Good luck! – It's tough! – We'll help you.

Beyond Human – The Last Call

Ti, Do, and Students

This series of tapes explains simply, clearly, and understandably how we get to "Heaven." DON'T STOP! READ ON! It explains how Heaven is not where we go after we die "if we were good," but it is a physical Kingdom Level above the human kingdom that can only be entered while we are very alive and well, after having broken all ties and licked all addictions of the human condition. This can be done only under the supervision of Representatives of the "Heavenly" Kingdom (as Jesus was to His disciples) and at a time when that Representative is incarnate in a human "vehicle" (or body). This is happening again – now – at the close of this Age as it was promised.

"Headquarters" in the literal physical Heavens sent two members from the Level Above Human (the Kingdom of God), who took over, or incarnated into, two human vehicles (bodies) in the early 1970's. After they awakened in those vehicles (realized that they had been sent from the Kingdom of God), they also realized that their "task" or mission was to restore the Truth of how a soul may literally make the transition from the human kingdom into the true Heavenly Kingdom after having overcome humanness. As they held meetings, telling their story in 1975-76, even though the media made many attempts to "strike them down," about a hundred individuals began to study with these two Representatives. Within a short time, the numbers had reduced to around fifty, for the lessons were difficult and included overcoming such things as all sexuality or gender identification as well as breaking all self-limiting and restricting habits in order to become flexible – to become "crew minded" crew members. This small classroom, which became even smaller, was literally "lifted out" of the world into seclusion for a number of years.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 1 (60 Min)

Welcome to Beyond Human – The Last Call. We have a big picture to try to portray to you. You don't know us. You don't know what we represent. "Beyond Human" might say something, it might not, but it says a lot to us, and we want to share it with you.

I've asked some students to help me, and you noticed on the opening title page that this was Ti, Do, and students. I'm Do, and sitting in front of me here are two students. They're going to play your part in voicing for you questions that might enter your head. They may not necessarily be questions that would enter their heads, because they have been students for a long time. But they will try to help me fill in the gaps and not have too big of holes in the subject matter that we are going to try to cover for you.

Well, I'm going to back up and give you a little history. In 1975, there were two individuals who held some public meetings around the country, and said that they were from the Kingdom of Heaven. Those two individuals were Ti and Do. Ti, my partner, who has returned to the Kingdom of Heaven, left me here with the responsibility of whatever is remaining of this task, for it was mine to fulfill. I learned in working with Ti as a partner that Ti is my Older Member. I know that doesn't make much sense to you. What is an Older Member? Well, I'll go back to saying that Ti and I, when we held meetings across the country, said that we were from the Kingdom of Heaven and that we had been given information on how to go from the human kingdom into the Kingdom of Heaven. At that time we called it Human Individual Metamorphosis. And as we held some meetings, quite a number of students, or followers, or curiosity seekers, just dropped whatever they were doing and came and listened to us, spent some time with us, a short period of time with us, in some campgrounds, and we talked about the Kingdom of Heaven – the physical Kingdom of Heaven, not a spiritual Kingdom of Heaven. Not that it isn't spiritual, but it is not etheric. It is not only spiritual, which represents the character of the soul, but it is a physical kingdom as well.

As we talked about that Kingdom to these students, after a very short time (and we had written a statement about it) these students took that statement and went across the country for 9 months, holding meetings in one little town, one big town, one little town, and one big town after another. Sometimes they got run out of town because people didn't like what they were saying. They thought that it was anti-Christian, or it was New Age, or it was blasphemous. It's easy to see how people could think that it was all of those things, though it was none of those things.

After that 9-month period of holding meetings around the country, Ti and I felt like we had instruction to call the students together and to begin an intensive, or in-depth, classroom training program. So, all the students came together, and at that time there were about a hundred students who had survived the trek around the country holding meetings, who still thought they wanted to go a little further and see what else they might learn from Ti and Do – if we really had anything to offer – or if this was the time for their excursion to end. When we met with those hundred or so students, we told them that this was dead serious, that we couldn't take them on as students unless they were ready to drop all of the behavior that they might still be participating in that we knew was not common to the Kingdom of Heaven.

More and more, we stressed that they would have to drop that behavior (sex being the one that seemed to stand out the most, that people seemed to be so addicted to, and hard to make that transition from). As we really got serious about it and knew that that one had to go, along with other addictions – drinking or smoking or drug usage or needing to tend to old attachments or binds that still drew them to their particular interest – the numbers started dwindling. The classroom then ended up in the, oh, somewhere in the 40's or 50's, cut to about 50 percent pretty quickly. And then we started really getting down to the nitty-gritty. It wasn't that we stayed serious all the time. We had a lot of fun. Fortunately, if we hadn't had a lot of fun, we would have lost our marbles even more than we thought we had already lost our marbles, when we stopped to examine what we were doing.

During that time – for a long period of time – we were in tents, and maybe little trailers, or some little RV units, because we were staying outside and just moving to wherever the climate would permit us to continue with our classroom. Now, I have to bring up that this has a parallel to it that we have to examine.

Two thousand years ago, when Jesus was sent from the Kingdom of Heaven, He was sent for the same purpose. He was sent to say, 'If you follow me, I can not only make you fishers of men, I can give you the good news of the Kingdom of Heaven. If you do what I say to do, if you believe that I have the information that you need, you apply it to your lives and in your behavior, and you overcome the world, then you can go from the human kingdom into the Heavenly Kingdom and not need to return again.' In other words, the only reason you would need to return is because you hadn't finished the lessons that needed to be learned at the human kingdom. Another way to look at it is: you still haven't overcome the behavior in the human kingdom that is not found acceptable in the Heavenly Kingdom.

This is a big picture, and I'm going to have to approach it from many different angles, and try to keep putting little pieces of the pie together to help you understand it. I'm going to back up even further, before Ti and I made a statement that told about how we had come from the Kingdom of Heaven. In an attempt at clarity, or for the sake of understanding, I will in the following discussion identify as the vehicle (the person of the body) and speak of Ti as the vehicle (the person of the body). You'll later understand the inaccuracy of this approach, even though it's the only one that works for this discussion.

In the early 70's, for unknown reasons (and this is just my attempt to explain to you what occurred), for unknown reasons – things we could not understand – my life began to suddenly fall apart. It had been a very stable life, an acceptable life, certainly one that was considered legitimate and had respect to it in the community, as did Ti's life. And her life separately began to fall apart. We did not know each other. We'd never seen one another that we were aware of – had never met. Then in the early 70's, I think around '72, we met just perchance while I was visiting a sick friend in a hospital where Ti was a nurse. From that moment, my life changed – changed very significantly. I rebelled. I didn't want it to change, and yet I knew it had to change. And the conflict that was in me was very great.

The same thing was happening with Ti. She knew she had something to do with me. I tried to reject that idea. Ti was confused for awhile and wondered, "Well, why do I recognize you, and you don't recognize me"? And even though I might have thought I didn't recognize Ti, I knew that I couldn't cut it off. And yet here we had separate lives, separate careers, families, involvements in the world, and all of a sudden, just because we met, something was causing us to have to become more involved in spite of our desire not to. Not involved in a human way. There was never a coming together in that we were bed partners or involved in a physical relationship. But there was something that compelled us to spend time together and listen to each other, and search together. And we started searching Scriptures, we started searching everything we could get our hands on – New Age material, everything we could find that would open our heads. We realized that all of the searching that we were doing was superficial, that where we were really getting help and getting information was from what was being fed to us (mentally).

Now, we know, or we understood later, that what was happening during that time was that we were what is historically called "going through an awakening period." And that awakening period is one where it's common for the person who is awakening, for his life to begin to fall apart, or her life to begin to fall apart, and for them to suddenly just be in a whirlwind, in a state of total confusion, not knowing what was going on. There was a total change of focus – just dropping everything of the past and being absolutely compelled to go with this new thing that was happening, not even knowing what it was, fearing it in a way. And strange as it may seem, this kind of change seems to always cause all of the people in the periphery of your life to turn against you, think that you lost your marbles, you've gotten duped by someone who has a spell on you and will lead you down a crooked path, or into some sort of witchcraft or occult endeavor. And unfortunately or fortunately, that seems to be a common symptom of an awakening.

Now let's talk about "what is awakening" from a different perspective. Let's discuss reincarnation a moment, not the typical Eastern view of reincarnation or the caste system progression, or that you are going to come back in another life as a bird or a monkey or something of that sort. But we have to realize if you search even the Biblical Scriptures carefully, that you'll see dozens of very clear references to a good understanding of "incarnating," and recognize that certain individuals that had been historically recognized in Biblical times in the past – the people were always questioning, "Well, is that them reappearing? Is that Moses? or Elijah? or Who is John the Baptist, could he have been so and so?" What did Jesus mean when He said, "You have to be born again"? But to even look at it more from common sense – which is often a good measure or good judge of the kind of sense that comes from Our Heavenly Father – common sense tells us that Our Heavenly Father would not put a soul into this world and let it spend a few months and then have an auto accident, and that's the end of its existence, and no lessons to be learned. If you search the Scriptures, if you really get familiar with God's Word, as people call it – the Bible – and I don't mean to say, "as people call it," I certainly don't mean that I don't feel that it is. Because it is the record that we have. It is the only authentic record we have of the Kingdom of God's relationship with man.

If you search that Scripture, you learn that there was a period in time called an "Age," prior to this Age. Now, what do we mean by "this Age"? We talk about this Age as though it is possibly this 6000-year period – the duration of an experiment by the Next Level – not the astronomical usage of the term "Age." And prior to this 6000-year period, there was, according to the Bible, references made to a previous Age, and some souls came from that previous Age. It also makes reference to an Age after this Age. So, with the talk that is so common this day and time of the "last days" or "the end of the Age," and some people even talk of it as the end of the world (when I'm afraid I don't feel that Our Heavenly Father has quite deemed the planet so ill that it can't be recycled, refurbished, cleaned up, restored). But I feel that we are at the "end of the Age" – I'm afraid I feel it is right upon us. I don't want to sound like a prophet, but my gut says, and everything else that I know, points to that it's going to come before the turn of the century, that it's going to come in the next few months or next year or two. I could be off. Ti and I thought it was going to end within a few months – the age was going to end in 1975, when our students were out holding meetings.

Let's go back to the students for a moment. When we had those students, the ones who were faithful and stayed with us the best that they could, we received instruction. We clearly feel that our instruction came from our Older Member, or a member of the Kingdom of Heaven who was not in a human physical form, but in a physical form when the M.O. required it. Our Older Member gave us instruction to take those students out of the world and have them completely separate from their normal activity, from all of their involvements, and concentrate on the information we were receiving on how to overcome their worldly ways.

Now I'm going to skip back to "what is awakening" and the topic of reincarnation because they are carefully linked. Let's just talk in theory for a moment. If someone has an incarnation and they get into certain addictions, or certain attachments, whether it be people, things, pursuits, whatever they're motivated to be focused on, and motivated to pursue – when that lifetime is over, if the Kingdom of Heaven sees that they deserve more lesson time, then they are permitted to come back during that Age for Lesson 2. And when they "awaken," they reach the point where we could say they "jived" with where they ended the previous incarnation. They're a "match" at that point.

Okay, let's go back. Previous incarnation. I leave a life and I have this attachment – this habit, this addiction. I'm still hooked on this town, I'm still hooked on this family, I'm still hooked on my martinis, or whatever it is that I am still glued to. So, I will probably come back into as many of those things that would fulfill the continuation of the attachments that I had when I left that incarnation. And if there are some that I can't fulfill or that aren't fulfilled immediately, I – my "computer" – will see to it, my "soul" will see to it – that those attachments are restored. Then at a given point, when I'm jiving with where I left off the time before, I am awakening. I am starting my new life. That might happen in my teens, it might happen in my 20's, it might happen in my 30's, might happen in my 40's. If by some accident or some fluke I'm sent out of my body, or I lose my physical body (or my vehicle, as we call it, because we don't relate to it) – it is not "me" that's lost. It's just a suit of clothes that I wear, a suit of clothes that they wear. We don't identify with the body, we don't listen to it. We don't pay any attention to what it says its desires are. We say, "Be quiet and I'll tell you when you get this, and I'll tell you what you're gonna get." Okay, so an awakening then amounts to coming to the station to which you have developed.

Now let's go back. If we're going to go to the Kingdom of Heaven, and the Kingdom of Heaven can't be entered as long as I still have attachments and addictions to the human kingdom, then I have to go back and whittle away at them and get rid of them. Now, Jesus' whole purpose for coming was in order to redeem man to God. I mean, let's understand that when Adam and Eve sinned, and sin continued, and continued, and continued, people fell. They fell more. They got their eyes off their Heavenly Father. They weren't that interested in what He desired for them. They were interested in what their desires were – the desires of their flesh, the desires of the things they were attached to.

I have to, for fun, or for seriousness, bring up a thing that just throws me when I hear preachers say, "Well it's a good thing Adam fell, because had Adam and Eve not fallen, where would we be? There wouldn't be any people in the world today." And yet I thought that God was a Creator. I thought that Adam was created. I didn't think that Adam was born of woman's womb. Nor did I think that Eve was born of woman's womb. And in no way did the Creator say, "I've only got two creations in My bag, from there on it's up to you," even though man was created with the choice of moving into his more animal nature and taking his responsibility of being reproductive in that way. But theoretically and realistically, the Kingdom of Heaven could have continued to create one individual after another who only wanted to please their Heavenly Father – not interested in getting my flesh, your flesh, two flesh become one. The two multiply and they multiply, then my responsibilities go to the ones that are now the household that I have – these little urchins running around the place – I have to take care of them. And I say, "Oh, but God gave them to me." He did give them to you, in that when you get into that and you succumb to that temptation, then you are responsible for what you have produced. There would be only one thing that would really free you of that responsibility, and that is if you turn to your Father and you say, "What am I going to do? I left you. I fell from you. I want to return to You." Then it would be up to your Father and you and that relationship to determine what those steps would be in returning to Him.

Back to Jesus. Jesus came in as an opportunity to redeem man, to restore man to God in a relationship that was pleasing to God. Now, a relationship that is totally pleasing to God would be a lifestyle – a complete lifestyle – that would be acceptable in the Kingdom of Heaven. It wouldn't have any human attributes or animal-type attributes that humans participate in. It would be acceptable in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus awakened at an early age. He had a series of awakenings. I'm afraid I don't feel He was never tempted. He was certainly even tempted after He had been off and had gone through His fasting and tried to experience the things that, religiously and historically in the Essene communities or in the orthodox Jewish communities, were saying you need to have a period of fasting – you need to get separate with your God, and you need to come to grips. He knew that something about Him was different. He didn't fit the mold. He couldn't say, "Okay Dad, I'll keep the saw and the hammer. I'll stick with you and we'll be 'Joseph and Sons Carpentry.'" He said, 'I've got other work to do. I have another Father.' He was awakening to the fact that He had a Father, synonymous with an "Older Member," to relate to in the Kingdom of Heaven. Because He was a child from there, to come and take a body here in order to teach here, and to fulfill an assignment from the Kingdom of Heaven, didn't mean that He then moved into the human world and adopted all of the human addictions, binds, and characteristics that are not common in that Kingdom. But He did have to come in human form into the human kingdom and be vulnerable and say, "I've got a task. My task is to get you from 'human' to the Kingdom of Heaven, if you follow me. Now, it's not going to do you any good, you can't even be a disciple of mine if you don't leave everything behind and come and follow Me." To be thinking like that and to have that kind of information in His head must have meant that Jesus had overcome the world previously. He didn't have unfinished overcoming to perform. I don't know if there are some aspects of His development that we have no record of – none of us knows whether He would consider some of the things that He had to learn as "overcoming." I would imagine that one thing He might have been tempted with, and it is so easy to understand how you can be tempted with it, when He recognized that in the Jewish religion, which He knew was historically the reality of man's relationship with God in their religious literature, to expect to find God's people – the ones that should be listening to Him – because He knew He was sent to update them and to help them get into His Father's House. So, He went to those people and He felt like 'You're the ones who should know what I have come to give to you.' And He told His disciples, 'You go and minister to them as well,' and very few of the religious people could accept anything that He had to say. Because it sounded like what He said was blasphemy, like He was trying to be God. And yet He was a Son of God. He had moved from the human kingdom into the Kingdom of God. He had overcome the human world. After He got to the Kingdom of God, He was sent to come back into the human kingdom and try to help some who might be lost get into the Kingdom.

A funny thing here is recorded in the Scripture and it confuses a lot of people, because you can't really get into the Kingdom of Heaven, no matter what you do, just on your own. It takes a gift from the Kingdom of Heaven to even get you with their Representative. It's almost as if the Kingdom of Heaven comes in and puts little, what do you call them? That they might put on an animal so that they can follow the animal, that a farmer might put....

Student: Tags, beepers.

Do: Yes, like a beeper or tag, or something that would enable the rancher or farmer to keep track of that animal and watch its development. In the same way, the Kingdom of Heaven can come in and observe the humans – can get a “readout” probably, and more likely, from their mode of transportation (from their spacecraft) can get this readout. And that readout says, “This one might have a good potential; this one still registers on my meter to have a lot of desire for goodness.” And it might be pretty deep seated, it might be pretty hidden, and outwardly they may not appear to be religious or they may not have the obvious trappings or elements of recognition that would be seen as good. Humans can’t judge that, but the Kingdom of Heaven can judge that. Then they give them a little “gift,” and that little gift is almost like a little “chip” that’s planted in their brain or in their body somehow. And – uh oh – when it’s planted, their world starts falling apart. And they start wondering – “What is happening”? And the next thing they know is, “Goodness, none of that means anything to me anymore. I’ve got to go and find something. I don’t know what it is that I’m out to find. But I’ve got to go and find something that’s going to take me, I don’t even know where, but it’s going to take me further than where I am.” And what is happening? They’re awakening.

Those who became good disciples of Jesus, who really tried to overcome to the best of their capacity, those disciples then experienced their awakening and started a very strong endeavor of overcoming the world. As to how many of those completed that overcoming to the degree that was acceptable in order not to need to return, or whether even all of the elements that might be marked off the checklist were available to them at that time, is a good question to explore. If you study the Scripture carefully, it leads you to believe that possibly at the end of the Age is a time when even many souls that have done a significant amount of overcoming in previous incarnations will have to return in order to be subjected to certain elements that were not available to them previously. And in that sense, they were “born again,” and are here at the end of the Age in order to, once again, have a last chance, as far as that Age is concerned. Now, whether it’s a “last chance” from an “everlasting” opportunity or not is not for us to question. That would be up to the members of the Kingdom of Heaven to decide whether or not it’s their last chance. From our point of view it’s...well let’s back up.

Jesus at one time told those who were listening to Him, ‘If you believe on Me and if you believe that I was sent from the Kingdom of Heaven and that what I’m telling you is the Truth, and you stick with Me, and you strive to do everything that they tell Me to give to you, then you can be saved!’ Now, what do you mean “can be saved”? It means that you might have previously had your allegiance more in another direction. “What? In another direction? Who’s the focus of that other direction?” Well, here we get to a very delicate matter. How can we identify a direction other than the direction connected with the Kingdom of God, the real Chief of Chiefs, the real Almighty God, God the Most High God, and His household, His offspring, His children, His Representatives?

We’ve already discussed that we believe that in the Jewish and Christian literature, the physical record is there connecting those people with the real Kingdom of God. And they speak of someone else. They speak of an individual that was once in the household of God, in the literal Heavens, was a son of God and got too big for his britches, and thought that he could do a better job than his Father, or his Older Member. Not that he was born of a wife of his Father, because the body that he had in the Kingdom of Heaven was certainly not born of woman. Don’t forget that in the Kingdom of Heaven, babies are born by the souls that overcome the human condition. When they overcome the human condition and then are moved into the Kingdom of Heaven, then they’re “babies.” And those that took them in are then like their foster parents or their keepers, their babysitters, their teachers, their rabbi’s, their connection, their “piece of pipe,” their link with the Chief of Chiefs of that Kingdom.

Now you say, “Well, if you get from the human kingdom to the Kingdom Above Human only when you overcome this kingdom, does that mean that when I die I get to go into that Kingdom”? Well, this guy that we were talking about that went astray from the Kingdom of Heaven and got too big for his britches, he started a whole other world. We call him Lucifer, or Satan. He didn’t think he was a bad guy. He thought he was a good guy, thought he was a smart guy. But he went astray – got his eyes off of his Heavenly Father.

You know, there’s a funny thing – the greatest gift that we have is also the thing that can do us in. And that is: we always have a choice. We can’t even get rid of that choice. We’re created with it. Our Heavenly Father, even in the Kingdom of Heaven, won’t let us shed our option to go awry, to go away from our Heavenly Father. So, that means that even in the Kingdom of Heaven, we have the potential to get our eyes off our Older Member, our “link,” our “connection,” and go separately, create our own world.

You tend to think when you read in the Bible that you want to give yourself totally to God, you want to be a complete servant. You want to be nothing but of service. You want to be putty in His hands. You don’t even want to exist. And that’s the truth. You don’t. You don’t even want to have any identity. You don’t want to be recognized. You don’t want to be a leader. You’ve outgrown, you’ve shed that addiction to trying to be “Mr. Somebody” who makes a place. And yet, in that Kingdom, they say, “Sorry, you can serve Me, but you still maintain the reins on choices, options. You can’t get rid of that. That stays with you forever.” So, then, boy! That really puts the pressure on us, knowing that that’s something that we’re even going to take into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Let’s go back to the question that I thought might have entered your mind, “How do I get from this kingdom to that one? Do I die? And if I’ve overcome the world, then when I die, do I wake up in that Kingdom”? Well, it’s an interesting question. There are two ways you can go. One is that that Kingdom can come and get you while you’re still wearing this piece of flesh, if you’ve overcome this flesh and all of its aspects, and they were all available to you, and it was a time that that door was open. And they can come and take you, put you in their world, and you become a child – an absolute beginner – subjected to a whole new world. And it’s true that some day down the line you might even be assigned a task to go back into a human condition in another Age or at another time.

Now, this guy “Luci,” this guy “Satan,” once he realized that his Heavenly Father kicked him out, and was not pleased with him and that he’d gone astray, then he even decided to try to work against humans ever reaching his Father’s house, his Father’s Kingdom. His primary effort was “How can I give misinformation to these humans to the degree that they won’t ever know my Father’s Kingdom” (or Luci’s ex-Father’s Kingdom). When he was cast out of his Father's house, he was cast down to Earth. If you study the meaning in the Hebrew, you learn that "Earth" doesn't just mean "planet Earth." It means everything outside of the part of the Heavens that is inhabitable by human species, that belongs to the Kingdom of God – all other physical parts of terra firma, whether it's planet Earth or other planets or other parts of the heavens. In other words, there can be what humans call "space aliens" that all evidence indicates to us are certainly not in our Father's House or from our Father's Kingdom. And so what are they? Their behavior indicates that they are humans, but they came from another Age, from another time. So, they are extremely more advanced, and they, without even knowing it, they can worship a false god, a false philosophy – wrong ideas.

And who is the focus of that false god, those wrong ideas? I'm afraid the kingpin is the same old guy – Lucifer, Satan. He says, "There isn't really a Chief of Chiefs. There isn't really a God of Gods. There is a 'cosmic consciousness.' There is a 'universal mind.' And you, too, can have that 'universal mind.' We're all gods. You can bring that 'universal mind' in and you can be a 'god' too."

Our Father's Kingdom says, "Hmm...if you're going to get in My House, you're going to get rid of all the characteristics that aren't permissible in My House. And you can't do that unless I send somebody to help you go through that overcoming process." Now, the Kingdom of Heaven did send someone a couple thousand years ago who told them this exact information. What did they do? They killed Him, because He went against everything that Satan, Lucifer, had said was right, was moral. "Luci" said, "Be a responsible person. Cling to this career. Cling to the family members of the flesh. Cling to all the responsibilities that you should. Be a stable humanitarian, someone that's reproductive both in culture and in physical nature. And, uh oh, we get into dangerous territory here. It even seems that all the religions that are not simply the Truth – the real honest-to-goodness authentic Truth (the facts) about our Father's Kingdom and how it relates to what all else is – that all other information (all other misinformation) is part of a false religion, whether it's titled this or it's titled that.

Now, where does Luci like to make his main camp? In the camp where the rightful heirs should be – among the Jews, among the Christians. So, how can he keep the Jews, keep the Christians from ever seeing his Father's Kingdom? By saying, "You don't have to overcome the world. Jesus did it for you. He did it for you." Jesus was sent to take you through it. Jesus was sent to tell you the truth, to tell you, "If you do everything I tell you, you can become perfect even as I am perfect." Not that Jesus for one moment thought that He was perfect. He measured perfection in that usage by, "I have sufficiently overcome this world. I don't need to be here. I have no binds to this world. I have binds only to my Father's Kingdom. There's nothing here that has anything for me." You can say, "Well, I don't have any ties to this world. I just do those things, they don't mean anything to me." Our Father says, "Well, I can believe that about like I can believe the person who has his three martinis every day and tells me he isn't an alcoholic." As long as you still participate in those things and they are a part of your daily activity, then you have a hard time convincing anybody that you have overcome those things. But Jesus said, 'If you do all these things that I have done, you can overcome. You can do much greater things than I' – knowing that growth was a step-wise thing. Because I'm sure in Jesus' eyes, His relationship to His Father was, 'Goodness, when will I ever grow to be like my Father? I'm so ignorant. I do things so poorly. I can't get them right.' And yet, of course, His ability to recognize His Father and want to be like His Father and realize that He is nothing but a child and that no matter how much he might have overcome of this world, He still sees that there is so much growth ahead of Him that could even help you identify that He is truly and actually a part of the Kingdom of Heaven, a part of the family of the True God. And it is the mind of that True God that has been passed down the steps, passed down from Older Member to younger member and into the individuals, and it begins to shine, and their humility shines. Now, if the humility is artificial, it's worse than blasphemy.

Okay, now this gets to a real touchy point. Who's Do? Who's this classroom? Do could say, "Oh boy, I'm this. I'm really a big shot." And yet I know that I strive every day to be more like my Older Member, and I know I am so short of being like my Older Member. Now, that doesn't mean anything to you, but as I mentioned to you that I recognize that Ti had more experience and was older than me, I could see Ti's control was better than mine and that I could learn so much. Even though when Ti and I first began to awaken, I wanted to stay in the limelight. I wanted to get equal billing. I wanted to be just as much a recognized Representative of the Kingdom of Heaven, because I didn't have any better sense at the time. And Ti wasn't into saying, "Sonny, keep your place. Let me show you what I know." Ti knew that I could never buy it if she imposed it upon me. That I had to come to know it on my own by recognizing it.

Now that's just to help you understand the relationship of a younger member to an Older Member. Anyone that has overcome the world more than someone else is their "elder," because they're moving out of the flesh family tree, or vine, into the soul or spiritual vine or Kingdom of Heaven. Don't get confused when I say "soul" or "spiritual," that we're talking about "etheric" because we aren't. But if they graft onto this other vine, then they relate each step up the vine with Older Members – someone who's overcome this level more and is more a part of a higher level.

Back to the big question. I'm afraid the fact that Ti and I expressed, in 1975, what caused us to retreat, or was certainly one element that helped us retreat quickly and go with our little classroom and hide with them and start their classroom experience, was because the last thing we could stand was to have people say, "Blasphemy! You say you're from the Kingdom of God. Who do you think you are? Jesus? Who do you think you are? God?" Because they didn't understand that the Kingdom of Heaven is a many-membered Kingdom and uses planet Earth as a beautiful, beautiful garden, a hothouse for souls – that only our Father can create. Who can then go through experiences, fall, be restored, connect with an Older Member, and overcome the world and even enter our Father's House as a member – a conscious, living, physical member in His Household, if they go through those steps. If they continue to stay on the track. Now, the track requires that you not turn against a "Rep." Anyone that Jesus came in contact with, including if someone was a student of Jesus' for some time, and then said, "Oh, I don't know, this is a cult, for me to follow Him around like this. And my family's griping and complaining because I don't give them any time anymore. Here I am, going around the country preaching about 'the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand,' and 'you've got to overcome the world' and 'you've got to come follow me and I'll show you how to get there.'"

Well, Ti and I were sent again, or the Next Level, the Kingdom of Heaven, chose to again "touch down" and send some "Reps" at the end of the Age. I know I sit here petrified because I know that there you are saying, "Oh, so you're the 'Second Coming.' You're saying you're the 'Second Coming.'" I'm not saying that Ti and I are the "Second Coming." We're not saying that we're Jesus. We're not trying to get you to buy that we are. We have nothing to gain – it is you who might have something to gain by that belief. However, all the evidence points to the fact that we are that "return" of the Next Level's presence. All we're doing is, we have to acknowledge the fact that we were sent from that Kingdom and that they gave us, and continue to give us, the information that can help you overcome this world now, at the end of the Age, and get out of here – not need to return. That you can sever from this world and it's done. It's for keeps! That the only reason for you to come back would be because you got an assignment to help somebody else come back to the Kingdom of Heaven for keeps.

So, what about those who followed Jesus for a while, and knew Him, and sat with Him, and listened to Him, and they say, "Aw, this is just another guy. It's a bunch of rumors, this nativity scene thing, and you know He is nothing special after all. I'm catching too much flack back over here in my little neighborhood town. I think I better go back there. And I am going to get back with responsibility, and take me a wife, raise me some kids. Get back into the mainstream." And it would have been better had they never known Jesus. Because then they turned from the "Rep," discounted Him. They would have never found that "Rep" more than likely, had the Kingdom of Heaven not come in and given them a little gift that translated to them as, "Whew! I don't know what I'm doing, but I gotta find somebody who's calling me, because I feel like a lost sheep." And here this shepherd, Jesus, comes in and they respond, and they recognize that they are lost sheep and they come together and, lo and behold, He's got what they're looking for. They didn't know what they were looking for, but He's got it.

Well, this little classroom that dwindled to 50, and then dwindled down to a couple dozen, have now reached a condition where they have overcome the world enough to relate in a position up a notch as Elders, or Older Members, to anyone else that they can help in their own overcoming. Yes, that means these two here who've been sitting here this whole hour with me and haven't asked me a blooming thing (laughs). But, I know they like to hear about the Kingdom of Heaven. And they know how filled I am with it. And I know how filled they are with it.

You know, we've been in a very strange position, in that for 16 years we haven't shared this truth. Oh, we dabbled in it a teeny bit on two occasions, very sheepishly, and realized that no one wanted to hear about it. And now, all of a sudden, we're getting instruction to give it out more clearly and this is what you're witnessing tonight – the first program, the first session, of a series on: "Above Human – Beyond Human – Last Call – End of the Age – Last Call!"

We'll take this up in another session. And we'll have a series. I know I left a lot of gaps. They didn't help me fill them in too well (laughs), but maybe they'll fill in more the next time. I see these little papers coming up saying "10 seconds left." And we look forward to the next time when we can tell you more.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 2 (60 Min)

Welcome to Beyond Human – The Last Call. This is our second session. I'm going to assume that you've watched our first session. After that session, we got our heads together, watched the session, and tried to look at it from your point of view and determine where the big gaps were, and we've pretty much designed today's session about or around those gaps – the questions that might have come into your head then, or since watching yesterday's session. So, I'm going to look primarily to these students to help me with those questions. They've listed them, and we're just going to cover them one right after the other. Are you going to help me with this list of questions better than you did yesterday? (laughs)

Student: Well, we're certainly going to try.

Do: Let's get started. What was the first question on our list?

Student: The first one that we have written down here is: as far as overcoming, how was Jesus' mission different from Ti and Do's?

Do: I know I could say this again and again, but that's a good question. I get uncomfortable comparing Jesus' mission to Ti and Do's mission because I know how precious Jesus' mission is in our eyes as well as in much of the public's eyes, and I know how offensive it could be to compare Jesus' mission with Ti and Do, whom most people have never heard of. But we have to address the question. Jesus, and Ti and Do, both came with the information that: "the end of the Age is approaching, and if you're going to get from the human kingdom into our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, then you're going to have to overcome the world. You're going to have to leave everything and come and follow me. And as a 'Rep,' I can be used as an instrument of that Kingdom to help you get into that Kingdom after you leave your humanness behind." That much is common.

One major feature is very different: It's certainly on the record that Jesus' mission was designed, before He came, that He would represent the purity that was required to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. In other words, this is the reason why humans say again and again, "I can never be like Him because He's so pure. He never sinned. He was spotless. He went through His whole life without sin." Well, that appears to have been the design. Not that I'm saying that He should have been sinful, for He had overcome the world. Prior to that incarnation, He had overcome the world. So, He did not need to get back into the world, even though He did need to awaken to recognize that He had come from the Kingdom of Heaven and what His mission was. That awakening was still difficult and painful and, I'm sure, trying for Him, because He knew how blasphemous it was going to sound the minute He began to express it.

In Ti and Do's case, it's almost 180 degrees in another direction. Ti and Do came, and first of all, our awakening was much later in the lifetime than Jesus', because Ti and Do met in their early forties and were as asleep as you can be at that time. But even a more major difference was that both of us were very much into humanness. This was the design. It was designed this way in the Kingdom of Heaven before we came in, because Satan had grasped onto what Jesus' M.O. had been. And the way that he could keep humans from thinking about their overcoming was to picture Jesus as someone that was so perfect that, since He died on the cross, He could redeem you if you just love Him and believe that He existed and accept Him as your Savior. That's the way he could keep you from relating to the fact that you would have to do what Jesus said and overcome the world also, as He did. Since Lucifer, or Satan, had done such a good job of having people relate to that perfection M.O., or that purity M.O. of Jesus' mission, the Next Level then said, or the Kingdom of Heaven then said, "Well, this time when we send Representatives we're going to do just the opposite. We're going to send them and let them get completely into the world to remind humans that you can be completely into the world and get out of the world."

I told you yesterday that when I met Ti, and even before I met Ti – I would say probably a year before I met Ti – that my life began to just fall apart. But the important thing is that it's common. As we discussed some yesterday, a symptom of a soul awakening to the point where it jives with its previous incarnation, a symptom that accompanies that awakening, seems to be a life kind of falling apart. Some souls, if they haven't overcome much in the way of human lessons, then their awakening certainly would not be anything traumatic. If they do not overcome their attachments, then nothing traumatic is happening, because they're not dropping those attachments at the point of their awakening where they would jive with a previous incarnation. I know I'm going way beyond the question that you brought up about the hole in yesterday's talk. I could go on with this one for the rest of this hour. Let's go to our next question.

Student: How did Ti's mission differ from Do's mission, since Ti left and returned to the Kingdom of Heaven before Do?

Do: Well (laughs), here we go again. That's an interesting question, too. That was a very tough one for me. And I think it was a tough one for Ti, because it came as such a surprise. I don't know why, but Ti and I thought that – we just knew, it seemed – that we would both be here for the full duration of the task. It didn't occur to us that one might leave prior to the other one leaving. Let's see, Ti has been gone almost 7 years – it will be 7 years this spring or this summer. When Ti began to see the signs of leaving her vehicle, she, I think, was puzzled, and I certainly was puzzled. But I must take this opportunity to relate to you that it didn't change her position at all regarding her devotion to her Heavenly Father and to this task. She didn't want to relate to the human connection at all, or to the flesh body's connection to the world. She remained perfectly steadfast to the mission that she was involved in, and in her partnership with me in that mission, and remained true to it every second. She didn't say, "What's the Next Level doing here? What's happening here?" Her only thought was to me, "I'm glad that you don't have to experience what I am going through.” And the irony was that I was saying, “I wish I could be going in your place.” That was no big, wonderful thing for me to say. It was because I feared being left with the responsibility of the mission with my partner being gone. And I did, I seriously feared it.

I have to stop here and address another question. Because you could say, “What caused Ti to leave her vehicle? What was used as the instrument of her leaving when she did”? And it was that the vehicle broke down. Humans would say that the vehicle died. How can we say that she “left her vehicle”? Because I know and understand Ti, and I understand Ti’s relationship with our Heavenly Father, I know that she had within her power, or within her authority, if she chose to use it, she could have made the choice of when she left her vehicle or when she didn’t. You can say, “Oh that’s baloney.” And that’s fine if you want to say it. I know Ti. You don’t know Ti. These students, they know Ti. But I know that Ti’s thinking was to her Father, “I didn’t expect this – that I would be leaving my vehicle at this time – but if that’s what you have in mind for me, and if that’s what you have in mind for Do, and for the class, then that’s what we want.”

I could see in Ti’s eyes, I could read her soul, I could see mixed feelings. I could see part of her that was joyful in knowing that soon she would be out of the human kingdom. That portion of her mind that was here could be back in a vehicle that was appropriate for the Kingdom of Heaven and back in a closer, realistic, physical relationship with her Heavenly Father. And that couldn’t help but be joyful. But she didn’t want to think about that because she didn’t want to shirk her responsibility. She was still “task conscious.” She was still concerned with, “What kind of hardship is this going to play for Do? What kind of pressure is this going to put on him and on the classroom? Are students going to be lost because I’m leaving my vehicle? Are they going to slip into thinking, ‘Well, Ti’s died, and here’s Do. So, this makes all this fall apart?’” And yet I know that she knew that if the students knew any of the truth that had been given to us, and that we shared an understanding of, that they would not look at it from that point of view. If they were challenged by that, then it was good that they be challenged in that way. If that was the point of their falling away, then there needed to be a point of their falling away. They were going to be challenged sooner or later with some test, because that’s the name of growth – it’s our being confronted with tests that causes us to either go forward, closer to our Heavenly Father, closer to the Kingdom of Heaven, or we are challenged with saying, “I don’t know. Maybe I’m coming to my senses. I’ll go recover my humanness if I can.”

Back to your question. When Ti left her vehicle and returned, what it meant to me, even though it still breaks my heart to recall the experience, it very swiftly and very solidly put me on firmer ground in relationship to my Heavenly Father. It put me in a better relationship with Ti than I had before she left her vehicle. I know that Ti is still to this day my primary if not my total link with our Heavenly Father, the Heavenly Father that we shared in that task. I believe that we still share to this day the same Heavenly Father. But also in my awareness is that Ti is an older soul – a more experienced soul, has been given more knowledge, knows more, can make choices more quickly and more readily in the judgment that she has learned from our Father. This has done tremendous things for me to find myself, wow! – alone, as far as physically alone. My partner has left her physical body. It feels so funny for me to say “her” when I speak of Ti, even though she was in a body that had been a female. I say “had been” because she had certainly overcome any gender consciousness before going back to our Father’s Kingdom.

I could go on and on, but it meant a tremendous growth opportunity for me and for the class. It tested me. It tested the class. And we’re all 10 feet taller because of it. It put me in a relationship now, with Ti, similar to the relationship that Ti had with our Heavenly Father before Ti left her vehicle. If we ever came down to question, in our working as a partnership, as to who might have the last word, it was never fought over or debated. But it became evident after a period of time in my searching, not because Ti imposed it, but in my searching I recognized that Ti knew more. Therefore, she had a better, trusting relationship with her Heavenly Father. She could recognize His voice more readily than I. Rather than, “Let’s see, does that mean this”? or “Do we need to try that”? She didn’t need to do all the seeking and searching because the voice was clearer, the control of the “frequency,” if you want to put it in that illustration, was clear. Had she not left her vehicle and put me in the position that I am now in, I wouldn’t have this opportunity to really work, and work hard, on my connection with that mind.

When the class and my relationship with the class are confronted with questions and decisions that need to be made, I could easily say, “Oh, what am I going to do in this situation”? or “We’ll do this or we’ll do that.” And the test always is, do I say, “Ti, what would you have us do? Your will, not mine, not ours.” And if the class, and if I, can always connect with our Father’s Kingdom through the link that we have, the closest Older Member that we have, that link is the assurance. Now I know that even if Ti got called on another task for a period of time while I’m in this position, I know that Ti’s Heavenly Father, who also, as I said, is my Heavenly Father, even though Ti is older, I know that my best funneling of my asking, my safest funneling is to continue to ask Ti. The thing that could get me completely off the track is if I said, “Oh Father so and so” instead of going through Ti. I have learned from my experience that I must continue to ask my partner, “Ti, what do we do in this situation”? I don’t always get an answer right away (sometimes I get no answer at all – it means the question isn’t worth answering – or I might keep looking for what was wrong with that question), but I know it’s my assurance of staying on track. So, to finish what I started to say, even if Ti were put on another task, I know that our Father would station someone, saying, “If Do says, ‘Ti, what do we do?’, that’s when you answer – only then. If he says, ‘Well, Father, what do we do?’, don’t answer, because he’s going to get off track.”

Now, boy! that opens another whole big question. Why would I address something to Ti instead of to my Heavenly Father? Ti is my Older Member. Ti is in the succession of relationship. In a sense, Ti is my Heavenly Father, even though I still relate to the Older Member that dealt with Ti and Do as a partnership. It’s not that I’m elevating some human named Ti. That’s just an identification that directs my asking to my Older Member and it is my safeguard for staying on the right track. I know how Luci can dive in and answer my call when I direct it to my “Heavenly Father,” and I can feel that it’s off track. Luci is not permitted to answer the call that I direct to Ti. That’s protected for my sake and for the sake of my students. I know that’s hard to understand, when you know how right it is for you to relate to your Heavenly Father.

Listen, I have to jump to another question now that I know is on their list, because this forces me into the question of what is meant when people say, "Do you have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ"? The only ones who really had a personal relationship with Jesus Christ are the ones who were physically present with Him, and looked to Him, and believed Him. Now, I have to enlarge that picture and say it also means that those souls, after they left those vehicles in the time that they were with Jesus, they continued to have – as long as they had not turned from Him – and they continue to have a personal relationship with that same Soul [Jesus], unless the Kingdom of Heaven, or our Father, has put someone else in that position. And I'm certainly not suggesting that anything has happened in that regard in our presence here, or our assignment here. But I have to make the point, when Jesus said, "...if you do this in My name," He was talking about those who knew Him and believed Him. They were disciples. They were devoted. They were going to the Kingdom of Heaven via the "ductwork" of the one called Jesus. He was their "Rep." They accepted Him as their Rep and they were calling His name. In that same way, I have to at this time call Ti's name. I don't know, Ti could have been a return of that soul that was Jesus. It doesn't matter to me. You could say, "Oh, but it should matter." Then you don't know the knowledge, you don't know Jesus, you don't know my Heavenly Father, or you would know the knowledge that is given to me. Not because of anything that I deserve, but by Their choice. They, the chain of command in the Kingdom of Heaven, give me the knowledge as They gave the knowledge to Ti and Do, as they give it now to Ti, and as Ti gives it to me. And it is the same knowledge that was in Jesus. It is from the same Family, from the same Household. It comes down the same trunk and goes out the same vines. If you really knew Him or know Him today, you will know that we are of that same Family, that our information does not differ one iota, that it is the same Truth, just different vehicles, different Reps.

Now the position is a little different – and here's another question on your list – because we're at the end of the Age, and Jesus kept warning about the importance of the end of the Age. This is a big time here at the end of the Age. What is the end of the Age? Well, you know the hippies and the New Agers speak of it as when Aquarius is around the corner or "here we are at the year 2000 and this is the end of the Age." And it is the end of the Age. The end of the Age is likened to when the Kingdom of Heaven, and I must say in the same breath, not only the Kingdom of Heaven, but it's when the garden is harvested at the end of a civilization. How is a garden harvested? A garden is harvested by the ones who have a relationship to the garden – be it from our Father's House, or be it from those that are off the strain, off the vine of misinformation and connected with the one that we refer to as Lucifer or Satan, though they certainly don't know that. From their point of view, they're connected with the "Son of Light," the "Angel of Light," the "truth." They believe that truth. It has some different earmarks as we discussed. It has some earmarks of "Ye are gods," "ye are the cosmic consciousness," the "universal mind." Those earmarks are not found in our Father's House. Our Father's House has earmarks of "Creator," "Father," "Son" – the way the pipeline works down in relationship from the Kingdom of Heaven to the human kingdom.

Well, back to "here we are at the end of the Age" and it's harvest time. Harvest time means that it's time for the garden to be spaded up. It's time for a recycling of souls. It's time for some to "graduate." It's time for some to be "put on ice." It's time! I don't know all of the things that are going to happen at the end of the Age because that harvesting task is not one that I am participating in. I suppose that I would say that Ti's job and Do's job or our partnership task is "tooting that trumpet," or making this sound right here at the end that says, "Last call – if you want to go beyond human, if you want to not have this Age that we've been in here for 6000 years go down the drain, if you're connected, if you have received a gift that connects you with this truth, with our Heavenly Father, with the family of the Creator, then you have an opportunity to do it, to overcome the world, to move into that Kingdom permanently, not needing to return to the human condition."

I'm afraid I have to go to another one of your questions and this one is: Where does this idea of being "saved" get in there? Jesus said, 'If you believe who I am, and you believe what I'm saying, and if you stay connected with Me, if you do things through My Name, then you'll be saved.' And it's true. That doesn't mean that you have finished your overcoming. It means that you are not "wasted." Being "saved" means that you are not wasted. It also means that you are saved from not going with the crowd that's going with misinformation, that's going with all that is not true. Now, I do not know and I'm glad that I don't know who is saved and who isn't, but if I should know, then I guess then I will know. I only know what has been given to me. And it's given to me on their time table, not when I want to know it. All I know is what is given to me to know. And even when I receive what I think that they've given to me and I think I know it, as soon as they give me something else, I recognize that what I know was partially out of balance or out of sync. The next thing they give me makes me re-examine it and update it and suddenly I see what I thought I knew before is not that accurate, that the new perception is much more accurate. So, I think I know that, until I receive something else, and then I realize that that's the process of growth.

But here we are at the end of the Age. In a sense, when Jesus said you can be saved, it was not the end of the Age, though He knew it was approaching, and He knew from His point of view it could be right around the corner. He told them the signs of what the end of the Age would be, and according to all the people you listen to and all the prophecy that's going around, everybody says, "This is it. This is the end of the Age. We don't know exactly the hour and the minute." Unfortunately, the exact hour or the minute doesn't really matter that much. It is the end of the Age. What matters is where are you at the time of the spading, at the time of the harvest? What happens to you? Have you become something that's so worthless that our Father's House has no need of you, and He just recycles you as a part of His recycling environmental control for a possible new Age? Now, I don't mean "New Age" new Age. I mean His new Age. If He wants to use this garden as a hothouse again, then He can take the waste, including "soul" waste, including "vehicle" waste, and He can recycle it into a useful product for a garden to be planted again.

So, one question is: have I become something that's just going to be recycled as waste at the end of the Age? Or, might I become something that can actually complete my overcoming under the helpful guiding hand of "Reps" whose task is overcoming. I can help you overcome this world. I'll give you lessons. I'll be used as the object of lessons and put you to tests that I don't mean to put you to tests for. I don't even like to put you to tests, but I'm willing to put you to tests.

Ever since Ti and I have been working with the class, we put ourselves and ourselves to tests constantly. Or let me say it this way: The Kingdom of Heaven puts us to these tests as we ask for Their will not ours. We don't ever design tests for students or for ourselves. They are designed for us and given to us. They always shock us. They're always a surprise – even to this day. Even though we've learned – “Uh oh, that's a test.” We've gotten that far – recognizing “here comes a test.” Okay, so one is: I can become “waste” at the end of the Age. One is: I can overcome the world with the help of those who have overcome the world. I expressed to you in the last session that I've gotten instruction that I can say to you that these students have reached a point in their overcoming that they can survive as beginners in the Kingdom of Heaven and not need to return to the human condition. In other words, that point of their overcoming is sufficient that they can move into the Kingdom of Heaven and take a physical vehicle that belongs to the Kingdom of Heaven. Wow! That's a big picture isn't it. Because that physical vehicle in our Father's House doesn't need to be reproductive. It's neither male nor female. It's got no gender, it has no race relationship, it has no allegiance to anything of a “plant.” It has allegiance only to its trunk and vines, and Representatives right down the chain of command, or the step-wise relationship, or link.

What if I'm not waste, but I haven't finished my overcoming, and I believe that what you're saying is the truth, and I believe that I'm hearing the Kingdom of Heaven through you – that it isn't you, it is our Heavenly Father, it is the Kingdom of Heaven speaking through you, if I really believe it, can I be saved? That's your best chance of being saved. But I'm afraid from my point of view, I see that instruction still has with it that if you hear this information, there is just barely time for you to overcome. So, if there's time for me to overcome, then why am I asking the question, “can I be saved”?

Let's go back to 2000 years ago when Jesus said, ‘If you believe on Me and you do to the best of your ability what I say to do.’ He might as well have even said, “You may not have overcome the world sufficiently to not need to return, but you can be saved, because you're in the process of overcoming.” And it was the same thing as saying, “If you believe in Me, and you are a disciple, and you've connected with the Kingdom of Heaven through me, then you will be taken to My Father's House and you will be put in the ‘fridge’ – or you will be ‘put on ice’ – until an appropriate time to replant you so that you can get on with your overcoming and arrive at the point where you can then move up, not needing to return.”

If we're receiving instruction that even these students can help you, that there's barely time for you to do overcoming of your own sufficiently to not need to return, then why would we even want to think of, well, “Can I just be saved, without overcoming”? I'm afraid that I would be fearful that the One who was in the position of judging whether I could be saved, that His decision would be colored by my saying, “I'm not sure I can overcome fast enough, but will I be saved”? Wouldn't I want to be more concerned with, “Goodness, if I can do my dead level best, give it everything I have to be in the full thrust of overcoming, then I know that my Heavenly Father will not forsake me, would not lose me. If I recognize I want Him, I am a lost sheep, I am someone who wants to get back into His House, back into the hands of the Creator that made me..., if I give everything I have....” And I say the same is true for you, if you do everything you can do to get as close as you can get as fast as you can get, and not reject what the Kingdom of Heaven has given to you as the means for that help, then there's no way that our Father would discard you, or do less than save you from “the reaper” or from whatever catastrophes might accompany the end of the Age.

I'm afraid I've got to go on in this same context and say that at the end of the Age, not only is our Father's House a part of the reaping process, but so is Lucifer's house. It is Lucifer, don't forget, that says, “You don't have to do anything. Just believe on Jesus.” And Luci has put himself right there in that position where he is calling himself Jesus: “I'm Jesus. I will tell you through your prayers, I will give you that confidence, I will give you that feeling of ‘I'm saved by the blood of the Lamb. That's all I have to do.’” I hate to tell you, you're not connected with our Father's House, though you want to be. You want to be connected. Though you want goodness, though you want God, though you want to be a part of our Creator's Household – our Father, our Creator, has rules and says, “When I send you Truth, when I send you updates, when I send you information on how you can come into My House, you can't just relate to the information I gave 2000 years ago.” Because you were the ones that deserved to receive My Father's Household, Luci dives in and he grasps you and he attracts you and attempts to get you hooked through misinformation. He even says, “Just call on Jesus.” (But Luci would have you call on Him in the wrong ways – not call on Him the way Jesus said.) Jesus said, ‘You've got to overcome the world. Come and follow Me. Leave everything. You can't even be My disciple unless you give up your whole world, leave your whole life behind, and come and follow Me.’ Now, that's not just because that is what Jesus said, that's what any Representative from the Kingdom of Heaven would say when it's time that someone has a possibility of moving from the human kingdom into our Heavenly Father's Kingdom and staying there and receiving the rewards of that Kingdom.

I know this is hard to take. And I know if you were a devoted, a devout Christian and you're hearing what I am saying, that your head is being pounded on at this moment, and you're saying, “How do I know that this guy who's talking to me that says he's ‘Do,’ how do I know he's not Satan, he's not Lucifer”? You don't. Something inside of you has to know. Go search your Scriptures. Go get back in your closet and say to your Heavenly Father – reach to the Most High God – saying, “I don't want to settle for less. I don't want to just adopt this misinformation if it's misinformation. If I, too, must separate from the world, if I, too, in order to get in Your Household, must drop everything as the disciples did 2000 years ago, if I, too, must overcome the world, then please wake me up and let me see that and let me do it and lead me to it.” I wish I could say to you that our Father's Kingdom has lots of Reps around with the information of how to overcome the world. Ti and I keep searching for them. We don't want to be the only Reps that are here at this time. I hope that we're not. There may be others, but we haven't found them yet.

I know how hidden we have been. Maybe they (other Reps) are hidden. Maybe they're with classrooms that will surface, and they know the same Truth. Do you think Ti and I wouldn't welcome it, and applaud and say hooray,...ray,...ray, here's somebody else who's from the Kingdom of Heaven, and knows the same formula, and is offering this same formula? For we do know one thing: you have to overcome the world. You have to separate from the world. You can't take any of the ties to this world with you into that world without knowing that you're going to have to return and sever them eventually if you expect to gain membership in that Kingdom and serve in that Kingdom as a member of that Kingdom.

The human kingdom is not where your major service is. That's part of "misinformation." The human kingdom is a lesson ground. It's for "hard knocks." It's designed that nothing work so that you would look for your Heavenly Father. No matter what Luci tries, it doesn't work. The only way he gets you is to have you accept all the misinformation as truth. He says, "If you live a good life, if you take care of your family, you set aside the money, you buy your insurance policies, you leave a nice trust fund so that the kids' college is paid for; and when I go, then my wife is taken care of; and when she goes, the kids are taken care of; and we go to death with no fear because we know that we died in the Lord." I'm afraid it's the wrong Lord. I mean, the Christians who are out there now are even saying, "The Lord wants you to have things. He wants you to have nice things." That's true, He does. But he doesn't want you to pursue them. He doesn't want you to pursue them. He says, "Don't pursue anything. Pursue only Me. Me! Nothing else. I'm sorry, you can't bring anything with you. Can't bring your wife with you, can't bring your kids with you." It doesn't mean your wife can't come, doesn't mean your kids can't come, but you can't bring them with you. You have to come alone, having severed everything, and your relationship is only with our Heavenly Father, saying, "You're all I want. I want nothing else." At that time, when you're in that mindset and you're willing to drop everything and leave everything behind, He sees you through it. You can't actually do the severing. He pulls it away as you ask. He pulls it a step at a time as you ask. And a lot of times the things that you would like for Him to pull away, He doesn't pull away that fast. Because He wants to develop strength within you, effort to continue to work against that thing and not give in to it, so that you get into His Kingdom with some "muscle," and some ability to have some significant service as a member of His Kingdom.

Well, sounds like it must be Sunday, or Saturday, depending on when your Sabbath day is, and I've gotten into preaching. I couldn't help it. But where did we leave off here? Who's next?

Student: It's going to be hard to figure out where it's best to dive in, but let's see.

Do: That's all right, let's go to our next question.

Student: I wondered if you could define the difference between the vehicle and the soul, just for a point of reference.

Do: That's a good place to start. The vehicle and the soul. There's only one place that souls come from – our Father's Kingdom. There's only one Creator in all that exists, and that's the "Top Man," that's the Chief of Chiefs, the God of Gods. And don't misunderstand that or find fault with it. I mean if you want to find fault with that, that's your choice. You can find fault with anything I say if that's what's on your mind – to find fault. There's only one Creator and that's our Father's Kingdom. And He teaches Creation. He made souls. Luci and his camp cannot make souls. What I left out that I started to tell you a few minutes ago is that here at the end of the Age, Luci is even getting members, an army, into his kingdom at the end of the Age – those he really wants who have become good servants and have bought his misinformation. If our Father's House wants to, He can let those who have bought into misinformation move into his (Luci's) kingdom.

What we don't know is when Luci's judgment day is (an actual point in time). He's already received a sentence. He knows he's going to lose his life, his very existence. And his higher cadre, or his higher echelon of his officers, they're going to lose theirs too. But we don't know that our Father hasn't designed it that after that happens that someone isn't going to fall in line to replace Lucifer, or Satan, and his higher officers, and his whole "officer's candidate school," those that follow his misinformation as if it were the truth. But Luci wants souls. He also wants vehicles. Now, he has to indoctrinate. There's one big, big, big difference between our Father's Kingdom and Luci's kingdom. Our Father's Kingdom is not the aggressor. Our Father's Kingdom says, "Ask, and you receive. Seek, and ye find. Be quiet, and know that I am God." Luci says, "Hey, listen." He's the aggressor. He tells you what you're supposed to believe. He justifies his misinformation. He thinks that he's really great. He thinks that he's adding numbers to his "kingdom of heaven," because his "kingdom of heaven" is beyond the confines of planet Earth. I mean, the main issue of what's going on here in the conflict of good and evil is not just on planet Earth. That's insignificant in comparison. The main issue of even numbers is in the heavens.

Even at this time, when ufologists and the whole community of people who are so aware of space aliens, are asking: "Do they have a presence on this planet? Are there bases where they do genetic experimentation, and are they growing actual creatures there? Do they abduct humans, and do they do genetic experimentation? Do they also do artificial insemination with humans, and bring back the child and show it to the mother?" All these events have "surfaced" in the last few years. They're not the way of our Father's Kingdom. They are the way of these misinformation people who do not believe that they are misinformation. They are not knowingly misinformation. They've bought into another idea, into other information. We've talked about this in the class a lot. It's like our Father's "corporation" at one time was the only corporation. And at a given time, someone said, "Oh, I think I'm going to step out of our Father's corporation. I've learned a lot, but I think I can go further. I don't like the position I'm staying in. It seems restrictive to me. It seems that I am limited." Don't forget, we discussed the other day that you can't lose the option to think poorly. You can't even lose the option of rejecting your connection. You can't lose the option of rejecting the Truth. That option always stays with you, even in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Okay, here's this corporation that belonged to our Father's Kingdom and it was the only corporation at a given time. And then this member says, "I don't like this limiting, this restricting position that I'm in, because my Older Member...I don't think He's that smart. He holds me back. I could really be moving forward." And so he goes out here and forms another corporation. And he begins to do things and His Father says, "Wait a minute. You're not looking to Me. You're going on your own. You're doing something altogether different." And he recognizes that he's going different. He acknowledges that he's going different. Then at a given time, our Father's Kingdom, or the One [the Older Member] that was connected to Luci, the One that was His Father, said, "I can't let you come back into our House. I can't let you come back into our world." I'm talking about a physical place, a part of the Heavens, the physical part of the heavens that only those can go who are members of our Father's House, our Father's corporation, in His Kingdom – the one which belongs to the Creator. And He says, "I can't let you go on with your behavior and your thinking, and your renegade attitude, and your letting this ego come back in where you want to 'be somebody.' I can't let you come back into this place. I'm going to confine you to outside of this camp."

It's so easy at this time to be deceived. It's rumored that space aliens have even met with humans, have met with the military of different nations, conducted experimentation on spacecrafts, that governments have even agreed to let them do certain things as long as they give us some of their technical knowledge. How much of that is true, I don't know. I don't want to know. But whatever of it is true, I see all the earmarks of "the renegade," the misinformation. I'm just telling you that those who are misinformation, they do not know that they are misinformation. But they usually have bought an easier "out" that required less of them, and they were assured of self-elevation. In our Father's Kingdom there's no assurance of self-elevation. If you want to be a servant, you give up "self." You become nothing. You crave to be nothing so badly that you scream for even loss of "identity." And our Father's Kingdom says, "Wait a minute. Since I can't take away your option, your choices, then you're still going to have some identity. I may call you 'this' in this task, and call you 'that' in that task. But you have to have some sort of identity that I'll give you. So, I can't let you just give yourself to me and then forget about it, and 'you' are ended, because you're a servant. I permitted you to come back as an individual and be a servant. But if you want to be an individual and you're not pleased with the rate of growth as I give it to you through My Representatives, then you're going to go in opposition to Me. You're going to stray from Me."

So, there are literally many, many, many members now that are in the misinformation corporation, and they're serving (thinking they're serving the truth) the "universal mind," the "cosmic consciousness," the "we are gods." Even as you investigate space aliens, or their vehicles, you'll see things that you wouldn't see in our Father's Kingdom. Our Father's Kingdom doesn't make babies. They get "babies" from the human kingdom adults who have graduated from the human kingdom, so there's no gender. They don't have ties; therefore, there's no marrying, there's no little kids running around, even though there are "babies," because they are there for the first time. Now, I'm not saying that our Father's Kingdom couldn't certainly bring children in and families in for certain lessons that He might have on His agenda. Who am I to say that He wouldn't do that. I don't know what all is on His agenda, because that's certainly His mind, not mine.

I'm just trying to share with you some of the understanding that has been given to us on these important issues of: The Last Days, What is "being saved"? What does this period of time mean to me? If you're listening to me, I'll tell you that Luci and his kingdom have a lot of individuals who can work in the invisible, and who can pound on your head and say, "Don't listen to that! Don't listen to that! I've found the truth for you and I'll give it to you in the name of what you believed 2000 years ago." You've brought that "2000 years ago" into today and you're going to hang onto that history as if it were yours. That's true history. That was real. And it is yours. But when our Father's Kingdom sends new information, sends updates, new opportunities – if you were really connected with our Father's information, if you really knew the Truth that was in Jesus – you're going to see it here again. You're seeing that same Mind. What is in a soul is "truth" or "falsehood" – the mind of God or the mind of misinformation. That's the reason it boils down to – we're either for Him or we're against Him.

Well, goodness, we just got started. We haven't touched but two or three questions and somebody just held up a card – I saw it – it said 30 seconds. So, we're going to have to take up more issues in our next session. I'm glad that you have gotten these sessions, that you've watched this, and that you want to learn. I hope that the Next Level can use us as their instruments for you. See you next time.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 3 (60 Min)

Welcome to our third session in our series, Beyond Human – The Last Call. If you watched Session 1, you remember that we thought that it was going to be a question and answer session with helpers, and it ended up being mainly listening to Do talk and we didn't get to questions. Then, when we realized that Session 1, after watching it, had ended up with so many gaps or big open spaces in our big picture, we decided to try in Session 2 to specifically address the helpers that are here with me to pinpoint and focus in on the obvious holes or gaps in the big picture by asking questions. Today we want to welcome these students. They are going to serve in that capacity. Why don't we just get started by giving us the first question that we put on our list.

Student: Ok. Would you like to discuss the difference between the soul and the mind and the vehicle?

Do: Ok, that's a big one. I don't know where we'll get, if we'll get past that one. The soul, the mind, the vehicle. Even though we've discussed it a little bit before, we use the reference to this body that we're wearing – this flesh and bones – we use the term "vehicle" because it helps us separate from the body. So, vehicle, or sometimes historically in religious literature it is referred to as a "vessel." Whether it's a "vehicle" or "vessel," the term helps to get out of identifying with it. Where we get into trouble is when we identify and call this "me," because this is certainly not me if the soul has awakened. This is just a suit of clothes that I'm wearing, and at times it can be an encumbrance for me. It can be something that I don't want to identify with. It has its own desires. It's kind of like a living computer that doesn't ever quite shut down. Even when it's in a sleep state, it doesn't quite shut down. And it has desires that manifest in ways of wanting certain foods, or wanting certain experiences, or wanting to indulge in certain habits that it had been subjected to. It wants to do repeat performances in those habits, whether it's food or going places or seeing things or attachments or addictions. So, we'll use the term "vehicle" when we speak of the body that we're wearing.

Now, the soul. What is the soul? That's a good one. The description that we've been given to picture or illustrate the soul in trying to understand its relationship to the vehicle is to think of the soul as a "pillowcase" or a "container," even though it's an invisible container. It's a container that encompasses the space that the body takes up. Sometimes we feel that it encompasses even a little outside the space that the vehicle has. It's like a pillowcase or a container for the mind. So, if we're talking about vehicle, soul, and mind, then the flesh body is just a suit of clothes – a vehicle. The real "me" is the identity that I have awakened to that I know goes on, because I know that this vehicle is perishable, it can fall apart, it can die, it can return to dust, it can get completely put out of commission on the freeway. But "I" am something that does not die on the freeway. I am something that goes on. I am something that has more existence, even if the extent of your understanding of that is to think that, after the vehicle dies, the soul goes to Heaven. We'll discuss where it goes, depending on where you think it's going to go.

But here we're talking about identity or definition of terms. This is not me. This is my suit of clothes or this is my vehicle. I am the soul. Now, what is in the soul, or what occupies the soul is mind. My mind? No, not my mind. I don't have any mind. So, what am I? Well, I'm the little switch inside that pillowcase, or that container, that chooses what goes in it. What goes in the soul, what mindstuff goes in the soul? If you go to the originator, as far as I'm concerned, or you're concerned, or these students are concerned, or anybody that's listening to us is concerned, there are only two sources – originators – of the mind that is available to us: the mind of the opposition (Satan) and his world, or the Truth, which comes from the Creator, the Kingdom of Heaven. Now, this is not truth in a philosophical sense, not truth in a religious sense, it's Truth in truth sense, as far as what really is – the accurate information, as far as you can understand. Of course, "accurate" changes as you learn more. Something becomes outdated as soon as you get some new information. As close as we can get to the Truth, the real Truth only comes from the source of the Creator, the Kingdom of Heaven.

Don't forget, we've talked about the member of that Kingdom of Heaven who was a soul, an advanced soul, in the Kingdom of Heaven. He separated from his Older Member, or from his Heavenly Father, went his own way, and formed his own "corporation." He had his own followers. He didn't like the definition of terms. He had a new truth. He was a counterfeit. Now, this gets into kind of a funny idea that some literature seems to suggest, that he is a "copycat" of Jesus. He is the counterfeit of Jesus. He's always trying to imitate Jesus. We certainly can't go wrong by looking at it from that point of view. I don't know if that in actuality occurred, but it certainly has been occurring ever since there was a Jesus, and, I would imagine, even before someone appeared on the scene 2000 years ago that was identified as Jesus. Before we had that identity of Jesus, Satan, or Lucifer, did identify as a separateness, a different kind of thinking, a different definition of terms – therefore, a mind other than the Creator's mind.

So remember, we've discussed how Satan, or Lucifer, and his camp are aggressors. They're not shy. They don't wait to be asked. They fill your head with ideas all the time and you think that you're having them, that these are your thoughts. The only thing that you can really identify with as "you" is when you question yourself as, "What am I looking for?" That's getting into the department of options or choices, which I know on our list of questions here is going to throw things off, because I'm suddenly getting into what is "free will."

People talk about "free will" as a doctrine or a concept. Free will is something that I have that I cannot get rid of. It is mine forever. As long as I exist, I have free will. Now believe it or not, Luci sees the Kingdom of Heaven as interfering with your free will. The opposite of that is true. The Kingdom of Heaven, even though it does try to get your mind off of yourself and bring you into the mind, the understanding, the knowledge that is in the Kingdom of Heaven, our Heavenly Father's Kingdom tries to liberate you from the misunderstanding, the wrong definition of terms, the wrong concepts, and bring you to the Truth – tries to liberate you from things that have held you in ignorance.

If there's one sin that Luci participates in – and all of his followers – more than anything else, it's misinformation, it's wrong usage of terms. Getting your eyes focused on, oh-oh, I was about to say, "the wrong god." Because Luci doesn't hesitate, he's not afraid of being blasphemous. He's not afraid to sell you a concept of god. He's not afraid of selling you a concept of Jesus that is completely off base.

Okay, we'll go back and review just for a moment. Vehicle – flesh body – nothing but a suit of clothes. Even though it does have expressions of desires and lusts and things that "I" have to completely ignore. I don't even listen to those thoughts. One of my tasks in overcoming is overcoming listening to any voices or any impulses that this body would give to me. In the early stages of that overcoming, I might hear that impulse, might hear it two or three times. I might even give in to it, and then be sorry that I gave in to it. So, I say, "Next time I'm not going to give in to it." The next time I hear the impulse of the body as it was asking for something that I had been told or been taught was inappropriate for me to participate in, I am a little bit more restrictive as to what I let the body get away with the second time. Eventually, if I'm getting control and I'm learning my lessons, because the way the Kingdom of Heaven helps us in our lessons is to continue to send us – the negative? Yes, it continues to send us the negative in order to give us – what do we have that's ours that we can't get rid of? – option, free will. The choice to accept the negative, listen to it, or get rid of it, control it, eliminate it. Now, that's a lot of steps of growth from first hearing it express itself and giving into it some and then regretting it. And so, when you regret it, then you go back and say, "Oh I'm sorry that I gave into it, can I start afresh?" – which is the same thing as saying, "Can I be forgiven? I want to conquer this thing, I don't want to just be victimized by the desires of this flesh or this body." Now, this is separate from the imposing mind of Luci or someone in the invisible who is assigned by Luci to get me off the path. And there is someone assigned by Satan, his camp, to get me back into their "corporation," into their philosophy, into their way of life, because the whole setup, the whole structure of this planet in this Age has become the way of thinking, the activities, the definition of terms of Satan's camp. That is what it has become. Didn't have to become that. It has become that. That's a condition. Our Heavenly Father has permitted it to become that because He gives us the knowledge of how to see it as that, how to work against it, how to even overcome it, how to rise above it.

In a sense, our Heavenly Father permits Luci to send someone to stay close to us, to keep an eye on us, to hammer on our heads, to even use the vehicle to send us impulses that we don't want to give into. In other words, to constantly challenge us, the free will, the choice maker, the one who can opt. Don't forget, we've got this awkwardness here. Here's this mind assigned by Luci's camp here, and this flesh here, imposing ideas on us that we didn't ask for. They just impose them on us. And then in order to engage the help we have from the Next Level, or our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, we have to engage asking for help. We have to acknowledge to our Heavenly Father's Kingdom and whatever help He has given to us that, "I listened to this impulse of the vehicle," or "I listened to that influence give me these thoughts, and Oh! They aren't you're thoughts. I didn't get them from you. Help me not do that"! And so, when you ask for help, you get help, from your Teacher saying, "Well, I thought I had gone over that with you. I'll go over it with you better, and maybe give you more ammunition in warding off the imposition of those uninvited thoughts that encourage you into activity that is not from the Kingdom of Heaven."

Well, that's it in a nutshell as far as separating the flesh, or the vehicle, from the soul, that invisible pillowcase or container for mindstuff, realizing that mindstuff really comes from only two sources. But if you say, for example, if this whole corporation has many, many people working in it, and they work on many, many, many projects, then there are going to be a lot of different thoughts at different levels that come in that are from our Father's Kingdom, and therefore, that mindstuff is from our Father's Kingdom. Don't forget, that mindstuff comes only on the basis of our asking, our pursuing it, our desiring it. All this other mindstuff – from this great big "corporation," that's a giant "corporation," has many, many, many members working in it – is in opposition to our Father's Kingdom. One source (Lucifer) is the aggressor, and is constantly laying on humans what he considers the truth to be. The other source is the Creator, the One that created Truth, even the Truth itself, even the understanding, even the concept, but doesn't force it on humans. All right, do you see the conflict? That's what we're up against.

Another thing we had to take into account here is, the stronger I get, the better I get at my little choices. By learning this procedure of working against the negative, asking for help, and receiving it from the positive, or from our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, each time I go a step further and become more putty in the hands of this Kingdom. Because I'm trying to become a part of that Household, I have to get rid of individuality in the things that separate me from it, which Lucifer's camp considers to be good things – individuality and separateness and "do your own thing." Each time I get a little further, or a little closer to my Heavenly Father's Kingdom, what happens? Luci's "corporation" fires the guy that I overcame and sends a stronger one, a better one with more tricks up his sleeve than the one I previously had. And our Father's Kingdom says, "Don't worry. Don't worry. I even created those guys. I even created the options that they could take in going awry. I am the only Creator. So, for each right word or right definition of term, I also created a number of wrong definitions of terms that shouldn't have been used, but were there as options."

Wow! That gets into a big picture. How could that Creator have created everything that was good and created everything that was evil? No! Did not create one iota that was evil. But did create complete potential for evil, in order that we still have the capacity to maintain the one thing that He did give to us, that is us, that we can't even get rid of – free will, the choice of what direction we go.

Okay, what do you have on your list? Let's take our next question.

Student: I was wondering if you'd want to explain the difference in the terms Life and Death.

Do: Okay, that's an appropriate next question. Boy! Does that really fit with what we've just been talking about. Luci has this Age, this world, this society out there, as far as I know on every hemisphere, believing that death is the death of the vehicle – the death of the body. And that life is coming in at birth through a birth canal – that that is life and losing this is death. That didn't come from our Father's Kingdom. That's one of Luci's definitions. Study your Bible if you want to learn the proper usage of those words, and you'll very quickly learn the way our Father's Kingdom defined "death," in relating to humans, even in the Old Testament and even in the New Testament. Well, it's easier to describe death by saying that if someone expresses something that is not true, and has "bought into" the camp of misinformation, that individual is in a dead condition by the standard of our Father's Kingdom. That individual gets life once he goes out of Luci's camp and comes into this one. Or the reverse: if he's in this camp and he goes into Luci's, he becomes among the dead. If he comes in contact with someone from our Father's Kingdom, he recognizes that this is the Truth and he starts to go with it, then he has begun to taste of Life. Therefore, Truth and Life are synonymous, as far as terminology usage in our Father's Kingdom is concerned. So, death and misinformation are synonymous.

Let's go back to the previous question we were talking about. What's in this soul or this "pillowcase" for mindstuff? It's never all from our Father's Kingdom. It's never all from the misinformation camp, or from Satan's world. It's a composite. It's percentages. If I have enough of our Father's Kingdom's mind in there that I can begin to utilize it a little bit and it begins to shine through a little bit, then I'm not totally dead. And if I continue to engage it, then I begin to come more into Truth, more into Life, even though I've got a heavy percentage of misinformation still in there. You don't get knowledge from the Kingdom of Heaven by "Oh, I'm going to give you this beautiful thought, and this is knowledge." You get knowledge, you get lessons, you get information mainly by hard knocks. And the more you ask for knowledge, the more you ask for lessons, the more you ask for situations that will bring the Truth to you, the more you ask for every one of those, you're thrust into a situation and a circumstance where you're tested and, uh oh, you're tested. What am "I"? "I'm" the one who has free will. "I'm" the one that can take that situation and say, "Oh, this is horrible! What has happened to me? I'm set back. My world has crumbled." Or I can say, "Goodness, I didn't ask for this. This happened to me in spite of my not wanting it to happen to me. So, where's the positive in it"? And so I turn and I ask my Heavenly Father, or the closest contact I have, whatever I can use as my point of reference to the Kingdom of Heaven, knowing that I can easily speak to the Kingdom of Heaven and be addressing the wrong crowd, because they present themselves as the Kingdom of Heaven. But if I'm asking for Truth, if I'm asking for anything and everything that separates me from the Most High God, from the Creator, then I begin to get another lesson. I get another confrontation, I get another experience that jolts me, that would at first, initially, affect me adversely. And these guys over here in Lucifer's camp are going to say, "Ah ha! See, I told you what would happen to you if you stay on that path." They would have it seem to me that it was a negative. And yet if I say, "I am sure this wouldn't be happening to me if it wasn't good. I can find the good in it if I ask." That's true, it always works. That little saying...where did that saying come from, "All things work together for good to those who love the Lord"? Might as well put "True Lord" in that, because then it would certainly work. What was your question again?

Student: Well, if you could explain the difference in the terms Life and Death.

Do: Okay. I think we should go a little further with that. Life and Death. I can't say strongly enough that death of the vehicle, death of the body, or losing the body, losing the vehicle, essentially has no long-term effect on "me." It can put me out of a classroom circumstance for a period of time. Now, this gets into a discussion of, when I'm out of body, if I'm connected with our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, there are a number choices that our Heavenly Father's Kingdom can make. He reads me out in His computer, and he looks on His meter and he says, "That soul's worth saving. It just got kicked out of that vehicle in that accident on the freeway. It certainly isn't just waste. It certainly still has some goodness in it. So, we're going to put it aside over here, or we're going to 'put it on ice,' so to speak, or we're going to save it in some condition."

In other words, our Heavenly Father's Kingdom can actually take that soul, set it aside, and wait until they feel it is the appropriate time to put it back into the Earth condition, into the classroom condition, into the human kingdom. Think of the human kingdom as a stepping stone on your way into our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, if you make the right pursuits. Because you can also go through the human kingdom and, with the wrong pursuits, get out of that kingdom and be in an advanced human kingdom that's outside the Age of the Earthly environment you knew and can be seen as "heaven," and other humans may see you as a heavenly creature with heavenly skills and heavenly capacities, but it won't be our Father's Kingdom. And you could move into a camp that will easily take the responsibility of creating religions and all of that. They also will give you concepts of life extension. Now, there's a big difference in what this other camp calls "life" – the reason this terminology of "death" and "life" got all messed up in the beginning.

In our Father's Kingdom, when you really get to be a full-fledged or "badge-wearing" member in our Father's Kingdom – not in the human kingdom, but having graduated from the human kingdom – and you are in our Father's Kingdom, you take on a suit of clothes. You take on a vehicle that is imperishable and incorruptible. As long as it is sustained in an advanced, incorruptible, imperishable environment, it cannot be destroyed. You have eternal life. Not only does the soul have life, but you can wear a vehicle that for all intents and purposes doesn't need to decay. It doesn't have any age, it doesn't come from a baby, it doesn't get old and need to be changed out for another one. There's no loss of consciousness. It doesn't mean that it can't be hurt and discarded. In certain circumstances it can be injured, it can be hurt, it can be lost. And you can go to "wardrobe" and pick up another one. And there you have a new set of clothes – to the best of our understanding, you would never again experience loss of consciousness because all that is "you" is that soul in there which still has control of free will, that can make choices, that can recognize "mindstuff" as it comes from our Father's Kingdom, and is trying more and more to eliminate the "mindstuff" that comes from Luci's corporation, his misinformation camp. So, the human body dying, or losing the body, is not true death any more than when a tulip plant, as a perennial, comes above the surface, and the freeze comes, does that plant die? No. Only what showed died. But what still remained was, in a sense, the genetic package of the soul, the continued existence, or the further opportunity for the soul to take a shell in order to learn lessons.

Souls and spirits in a discarnate condition cannot learn lessons. That's the way our Heavenly Father has designed it. They cannot learn lessons. Even Luci's camp knows there are limitations to what a soul can learn in the discarnate condition. What do we mean by “discarnate”? We’re speaking of a soul or a spirit outside of a vehicle. Whether it’s a vehicle in the human kingdom or a vehicle in the Kingdom of Heaven. The discarnate can serve Luci’s camp. He can be someone that can be standing right here beside me at this moment from Luci’s camp, trying to interrupt my thinking, trying to get me off track, trying to get me to stop asking questions as we talk to my Father and to interfere with this task. And I’m sure there’s one standing here at this moment, even though I don’t like to acknowledge his presence. It interferes with me the moment I even acknowledge his presence in order to have you understand that in a discarnate condition lessons cannot really be learned. You are confronted with addictions, ties, all the misconceptions and their application only when you’re in a physical body.

Now Luci’s camp, they’re pretty good at robbing bodies. They’re pretty good at even using bodies for what they want to use them for and then discarding them. Even though our Father’s camp created them, they are His product, and He has the right to destroy them if He wants to, in a flash. He is much more restrained in how He would even permit any of His members to use bodies. He cares for them more. He protects them more.

Luci’s camp will influence you to do a task, and not really get themselves that involved, try to get you to do a task for them. And they’re convinced that they are doing themselves a big favor. They’re also, in the process, avoiding putting themselves in a lesson opportunity circumstance, because when they’re doing that they are out of body, or they’re staying in their – this gets kind of awkward here – in their advanced body form. It seems strange, it’s very confusing to realize that Luci and many, many members in Luci’s camp, can have what humans at this point in an Age, can see as un-human vehicles. And you think: un-human? Un-human? They’re Heavenly vehicles? They’re glorified bodies, they’re physical bodies of the Kingdom of Heaven?

Okay, at this point we have to go back and remember that when Satan was booted out of the Household of our Father’s Corporation, he had a “heavenly body” in the making. According to the record, he took a third of the heavens with him, must have been a bunch of people, and they had “heavenly bodies” in the making. They also had a lot of technical, advanced information behind the human programming. They knew how to get from here to there in different means, certainly, than humans in this Age would know. Some knew how to appear and disappear. They had a body that had all kinds of capacity that human flesh on this planet, in this Age, do not have. Don’t be confused, they are not “Heavenly bodies.” Heaven is where our Father is. They were cast out of where our Father is. The moment they were cast out, they no longer had Heavenly bodies, they had what was left of a partially completed heavenly body – a hybrid similar to what would happen if a caterpillar were removed from the chrysalis before it became a butterfly. What do I mean by “what was left”? Once they were cast out of where our Father’s camp is, they began to be in a condition of perishable and.... What’s the other term?

Student: Corruptible?

Do: Corruptible. That’s right. The most normal conditions for them are corruptible and perishable. Their bodies become perishable, which is the only thing they’re concerned with. They’re not concerned with “corruptible” because they’re on a different path of “real knowledge.” Once they became perishable, they even know it. If you read the records supposedly of people who’ve had encounters with space aliens, whether it’s Adamsky’s camp, or we could sit and talk about that kind of stuff for some time, about so-called encounters of the third kind or the fourth kind, where they got information from certain space aliens that would say, “It isn’t exactly like you’re told in your Bible. We do lose our bodies, but we live a lot longer than your bodies. They might last several hundred years or they might have an extension quite a bit longer than yours.” Therefore, the person who’s hearing all that thinks that he’s listening to members of the Kingdom of Heaven, that he’s coming to the reality of what the Kingdom of Heaven really is, and he’s shocked by it. He thinks, “Wow, all those religious ideas I had were off base,” not realizing that the camp he’s talking to created those off-base religious ideas, and even now is selling you, or selling that individual who’s having that experience, on “I am from the Kingdom of Heaven. We did create those religions on your planet. We are trying to help you move up the ladder so that you could serve in our kingdom, and help us in our pursuit of ‘universal mind,’ ‘cosmic consciousness,’ becoming ‘gods.’”

Okay, wow! there are some identifying features of those vehicles that they wear, not all of them, but some of them. Some of those vehicles they wear still have gender, still have age. Don’t forget, Luci and his camp retained a lot of their intelligence, a lot of their skill capacity, a lot of their technical proficiency. They know how to make spacecrafts. I’m sure, measured by our Father’s Kingdom, their spacecrafts are pitiful in comparison, because even at the point that Luci and his crowd left, they knew a little bit more than the model T, in comparison, as far as spacecrafts are concerned. But they do know spacecrafts. They do know how to travel in space. They do know how to move into parts of the heavens that certainly humans on this planet still find closed to them as they try to get out of here a little bit – go to the moon, and then into this orbit and that one. We’re just barely beginners – or the humans here are. Of course, they’re really getting into a world that doesn’t belong to them. And Luci and his camp are circulating in a world that does not belong to them. But they can’t get into our Father’s community; that is still held separate.

Most of them will either appear to be male or female in some quality. Even though they might be losing some of their “maleness” or their “femaleness,” frequently not of their own choice, but because when in outer space and you’re outside of the vibration of a planet that has the kind of fertilizer and the ingredients that are primary to this garden, to this planet, they can lose their capacity to reproduce. Not that they would want to, but in spite of their desires. So, they have to come and rob vehicles. They have to do artificial insemination. They have to do genetic experimentation. Now, as I said before, how much of this they do on this garden, to what extent, and to what extent the reports that we’ve heard are true, I do not know the particulars. It has not been given me to know them. And I feel, in a sense, it’s our protection that we don’t know them. But I do know that in our Father’s Kingdom, in a sense, everyone is the same age. I’m talking about the vehicle they wear. Because as long as they stay in that protected environment, and do work in His Kingdom, there is no aging. It’s as if the vehicles are all the same age. They are indestructible, imperishable, and they can’t be led off track. They can’t be corrupted as long as they stay in our Father’s Kingdom.

Now, if you stay in this world that we would still call part of the heavens, it still has many members in it that are not of our Father's Kingdom. And their vehicles then have to be concerned with age and protection, because they don't have that good a control, even though they're working on it very hard, that would allow them to just go to "wardrobe" and pick up another vehicle. They're constantly, or frequently, trying to master the techniques of developing "wardrobe," of developing vehicles. And here again, they're trying to copy our Father's Kingdom so that you wouldn't know the difference. Because in our Father's Kingdom there might be a number of different types of "wardrobe" or "suits of clothes" that souls could wear. There might be little ones, and there might be middle-sized ones, and big ones. And they might have different shapes, and different colored skin, and certain different things. I'm sure that our Father's Kingdom, if our Father's Kingdom wants to use them, could certainly create what we would call robots in order to put certain things in certain areas if he didn't want to take a chance on losing a soul. So, it's just an extended device, it's a technical advancement.

Lucifer has his robots. He has his counterfeits. He has his copy of the things that are in our Father's Kingdom, but they're always lousy. If they really got under the microscope by those who were in the know, they would know they (the copies) couldn't cut it. They'd throw you in jail because they're counterfeit. Okay, it's because they do not have life eternal. They do not have incorruption. Now, this gets me into another topic that's on our list of questions. Incorruption. Well, let's go to our next question.

Student: Well, would you like to talk now about the term "resurrection" and how it has changed?

Do: Okay. "Resurrection" has a little different connotation than "Life" or "Death." Resurrection is more like a condition that you could apply to a soul when it enters a vehicle and comes in to life. Now in order to come in, if a soul is entering a vehicle and it's coming into life, then it means that it must have advanced pretty far in getting rid of misinformation and bringing in real information. Because, don't forget, Life and Truth are synonymous. So, if it's bringing in real information, it's an advanced soul. It's one that has had a lot of teaching from our Father's Kingdom and has made that choice. It, in a sense, is very close to overcoming.

A couple of illustrations that we might think of – let's take the Bible, in the book of Revelation. It talks of a first resurrection and a second resurrection at the close of the Age. If a group of souls comes in and they are advanced souls, they are from our Father's Kingdom, they are alive. Now, being from our Father's Kingdom meant that they once had to graduate into that Kingdom, or they're being protected in that Kingdom because they still have a few little major touchups to be done so they'd be a good match to a vehicle of that Kingdom, so that they wouldn't still have desires that could not be fulfilled by that wardrobe or that vehicle that they would get in our Father's Kingdom. If a mind that is that advanced in the ways of our Father's Kingdom comes and takes a flesh body in the human kingdom, then it has brought that body into life. It is suddenly living. It has resurrected. It has taken a dead, worthless plant and turned it into the epitome of life. From a human's point of view – not from the point of view of our Father's Kingdom, but from a human's point of view – it is the most alive thing around. It possesses the most Truth (the facts) that can be had.

Now, I'm afraid that here I need to get a little personal, because in the same sense that as we speak to you out there, those who are listening to these sessions, I might be mistaken, but the information that has been given to me suggests that you are going to be a part of what the book of Revelation calls the "Second Resurrection." In other words, in order for you to identify with the knowledge that is coming through us as we give it to you and for you to recognize it as from our Father's Kingdom, in order for you to recognize that knowledge means you have to have a lot of that knowledge already, even though it might have been pretty well in a dormant condition. A lot of that mind has to be in you or slightly outside of your vehicle craving to get in and wanting to take that vehicle. In a sense, if you do have some of that information, then you were once given a gift of migrating to where that information was. You received a lot of that information and you applied a lot of that information. At a given time when you lost a vehicle, the Next Level took your soul and put it aside carefully and protected it for the end of the Age and said, "Now you can go back and finish up those little areas that you didn't have that much control in, because," (Whoops! Here we get to another touchy point) "because we're sending other Representatives from the Kingdom of Heaven who can help you with the task of finishing up your overcoming, getting Luci out of the way, developing muscle in not listening to him, learning the difference between the Truth that can be gained through asking from the untruth or the misinformation that is fed to us without asking." The untruth always gets us back into the world, back into ties, back into addictions. Luci's camp counts on keeping you "drunk" by having you addicted to the world – addicted even in concepts, addicted in misinformation, not to say the least, addicted to the wrong kinds of things to put in your vehicle, whether it be drugs, or booze, or overconsuming, or wrong kinds of patterns.

Of course, we get into an element here that's also very, very touchy ground that we've all been through, but we have to eventually face that it is the worst drug of all. And that was the drug of when we chose – and when I speak of "we" here, I speak as representatives of the offspring, the family tree, of Adam and Eve – that when they fell and they took on the responsibility of reproductive activity, then of course, all the spirits that came into those vehicles down that chain of offspring also participated in that misinformation, saying, "Oh, God gave me this capacity to reproduce." Now, what I'm getting at, the worst addiction that exists is...love? Oh oh, I thought God was love. Luci uses that term. He even would have you believe that sex is love. I'm sorry. That one's a lie. Ultimately, even though we have all been hooked on that same drug, we've all gone through that period, don't forget, we took advantage of the hothouse. We took advantage of the negative. We took advantage of the fact that we were products of those who went astray. We learned from their lessons. We've overcome them.

But still, sex is the strongest drug – there's not a drug, there's not a morphine, or anything that is produced by chemicals, or plants of this world as strong as that drug. That drug requires that you even let one of Luci's technicians in that department absolutely take control of your mind and have you possessed with the fulfillment of that act. He knows that as long as you participate in that drug your capacity for recognizing the Truth (the facts) is just about as good as it is for someone who's had a half a dozen martinis, and you say to them, "Are you clear-headed? Can we really talk about significant information?" And they say, (slurred voice) "I'm just as clear-headed as I ever am.” I don’t mean that just while in the act of that reproductive activity, I’m talking about as long as even those reproductive hormones are active in your system, as long as they’re still cycling, you will be working against the drunkenness of that drug. Now, I know that this could sound just as far out as anything could sound, but down in your heart, if you’re from my Father’s Kingdom, you know that Jesus was not a sexual creature. His M.O. presented itself as one that Luci would have you interpret wrongly. In other words, Luci would have you think Jesus was pure, having never needed to overcome anything. But regardless of how Luci would twist things, you know that He was pure.

Let’s take the term “virginity” as another wrong application of terms. Luci says that a virgin is someone that is pure. But he tacks on another addition to that definition. He says: one who has never had sexual activity. Virginity – pure in the physical – yes. Correct definition. But virginity meaning someone who has not had sexual activity? No, wrong application, wrong definition. Therefore, I can recover my virginity. I can become a virgin. In a sense, someone who has never – if you really think of the soul’s existence – who has never participated in it, they don’t even know what there is to overcome about it. Unfortunately, we can rest pretty assured that there’s no one in this Earth Age that has been lucky enough to not participate in it, save, maybe a few isolated cases. I’m not saying that our Father’s Kingdom says, of necessity, you must stoop to participate in that and overcome it, though it may be the case. It’s safe to say that there is a spectrum of addictions, indulged in because of ignorance or misinformation, that a human cannot go through a lifetime without falling prey to. The truth is that when you are confronted with it – if you are confronted with it – and then confronted with it, and confronted with it, even lifetime after lifetime, and you refuse it, the amount of effort it takes to not experiment is less effort than experimenting and then withdrawing from it. It doesn’t do any good to not participate if you haven’t learned the lessons. The same “muscle” hasn’t been developed against that drug that would be developed had you given into it, participated in it, gotten totally addicted to it, and then had to withdraw from that addiction with the help of your asking to withdraw from or get out of that addiction. So, unfortunately, here we had to face the issue of some real no-no’s.

Let’s go back to “resurrection.” Your possible resurrection. As far as I can tell, what I have been given says that if you can see the Kingdom of Heaven, if you can see the Truth (reality) in what is coming through this vehicle, it is not of this vehicle, it is not me, but it has been given to me, and even says, “Now that it has been given to you, it’s yours.” But any of us can abuse it. Any of us can twist it – can take responsibility for it. We can think, “Boy, look at what good ideas I came up with.” And the moment we think that way and don’t give credit to the source.... Don’t forget, information comes from two sources – from our Father’s Kingdom or from misinformation. And when I receive it, if I make the mistake of taking credit for it, I am starting to separate at that point. As far as I can tell, the information that has been given to me through Ti, through our Father’s Kingdom, says, “If you recognize this information, you have been in the Kingdom of Heaven.” Oh, wow! That’s a new thought. Yes, you have been in the Kingdom of Heaven. If nothing more than “saved on ice” for this time, you’ve been in the Kingdom of Heaven. And you have now come back and, in a sense, you’re standing outside of a vehicle, trying to use that vehicle. You probably picked one with the help of our Father’s Kingdom. You probably picked a vehicle that might be open to being accepting of this information, so that you can then try to move into that vehicle.

Now, what does that mean? Does that mean you’re a “vehicle robber”? You’re a “body snatcher”? No, our Father’s Kingdom assigned you that vehicle. They even assigned you that vehicle, to a degree, at its inception, and you’ve been checking on it from time to time, relating to it from time to time, until this time – until you start to hear this information. And at the time you start relating to it to this degree, then it becomes your task to start to get into that vehicle.

I can remember so well that when Ti and I were first working with our students, when we had taken them out of the world, separate and in isolation, and we were getting down to the nitty gritty, the information kept coming through our heads, and we would say to them, “Get in your vehicle! Susie, get in your vehicle! Johnny, get in your vehicle!” Because any time we would hear something that we knew was not an example of the knowledge of the Kingdom of Heaven, then they were not in their vehicles. Someone else was speaking. So, our hope and our prayer for your sake is that you will start getting into that vehicle. You will start warding off all the bombardment that you will begin to hear that says, “Boy, is this guy crazy. Is this a cult if I ever heard of one”? Yes, it is a cult. I mean, it’s the cult of cults. It’s the cult of Truth. And we know what the world would like to do with it. We know that nothing can happen to us. I have nothing to fear if I am a child of my Heavenly Father. Nor do you. But are you going to be satisfied with just being a child of your Heavenly Father, or are you going to take advantage of an opportunity to overcome the world with the help that Ti has sent you, so that you can enter His Kingdom and not need to return. The only reason that He gave us instruction to give you these sessions and these classrooms was to offer you a second resurrection, a chance to come in, finish your task, and enter His Kingdom.

And I see that we’re down to 5 seconds. We’ll see you in our next session.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 4 (60 Min)

Welcome to the fourth session in our series, Beyond Human – The Last Call. Well, I have to take the position of assuming that you have watched Sessions 1, 2, and 3. And if you really are trying to understand it, I hope you've watched them more than once. Now it's time for number 4. We're trying something different today. We haven't tried this before. We had a session earlier today, and we're going to try a second one in the same day. We're asking Ti and our helpers in our Father's Kingdom to bear with us, and we hope this is their desire, and if it isn't, I'm sure they'll let us know. We'll get right on with our questions because the way we are now designing our format is to listen to our previous session, and recognize the things that could be enlarged upon, or clarified some, and we then redo our questions. And turning to student I think you're the next one on our question list. What is your question?

Student: Do you want to start off talking about "two containers" and the Trinity?

Do: Okay, two containers and the Trinity. That sounds like a strange combination, doesn't it? What do they mean by "two containers"? Earlier, in Session 3, we discussed the "vehicle," the "soul," the "mind." We said that the soul was the container for the mind, and we kind of assumed in that same picture that the vehicle is a container for the soul. In a sense, that's correct, even though the soul encompasses probably a little bit more space than the vehicle takes up. But it's a good working hypothesis to consider the vehicle a container for the soul, and the soul a container for the mind. So, keep in mind that we don't listen to the impulses of the vehicle. We're the ones that have the choice, the free will, the options, the listening capacity, and the decision-making capacity for what direction to take mind into the soul or into our package of information – our "pillowcase," or our container for information – by asking in the direction of our Father's Kingdom, or, if we're not careful, listening to things we didn't ask for.

Now, how does that fit in as part of the same question of what's the Trinity? A concept that has been so misunderstood, and so debated over the years, in doctrine, in the churches is the Trinity. When someone is a member of our Father's Kingdom, even if they are visiting or on a task in the human kingdom, but if they are a member of our Father's Kingdom, they are a "Trinity." They are within themselves a Trinity in the truest sense of its meaning. We just discussed the two vehicles and the mind. How am I, if I am a member of my Father's Kingdom and I am on an assigned task in the human kingdom, how am I a Trinity? Father, Son, Holy Ghost – Holy Spirit. Father: I am, because of my task and because of my station in my Father's Kingdom, I am a Father to children. I am a piece of pipe in this conduit that serves younger ones, newer ones, and therefore I am a "Father" to "sons." In the same sense, Ti and I both served in the same capacity, and still both serve in the capacity as Fathers to these students, I am a Father. I am a son – I am a son of my Heavenly Father. In a sense, since Ti is older, I am son to Ti. Ti is, in a sense, my Father. Now, I can be a Father even to grandchildren. And sons can even look to a Father, that is, if you want to use the human analogy, even a grandfather. Even if I want to say that Ti is my Father, and the Father that was the Father to the partnership is still the same Father that even the classroom can associate with. But they've been taught, and they've learned from experience, that if they start looking to that which they cannot know on a personal basis...remember, in previous lessons we've talked about a personal basis and a point of identification, a personal relationship with a member of the Kingdom of Heaven is what keeps you on track.

If my Heavenly Father, or the Heavenly Father that was the one above Ti and Do, has assigned Ti and Do to do a task with these students, and He has ordained that task, He has approved that task, He has the authority to establish that task, I'm afraid He does not permit you to bypass it. He says, "Look, I've given them to you. If you know Me, you'll see Me in them. If you don't see Me in them, either they aren't of Me or I am not in them, or you do not have the capacity to recognize Me." The same was true in Jesus' case, those who listened to Him, those who were His students, His disciples, those who called Him "teacher" or "rabbi" or "shepherd," they could not go off and pray to His Father. They did not know His Father. They knew Him. Plus His Father had said, "This is my Son of whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him! I've given Him to you and He's certainly more than adequate to fill the bill for your needs." Now Luci jumps in and boy! he has a heyday with that one, because he can try to shoot that one down in every direction. But if you know our Father, you will recognize that to be true. If you want our Father, and you continue to test that truth, you continue to test that truth and the world does not pull you back, your assurance, or your knowing that you are on the right path will increase and increase and increase. It's certainly expected of you, as it was these students, as it was with Ti and Do. When Ti and I were first awakening, goodness, we thought, "How can two people go insane at the same time, in the same ways"? All of a sudden we were thrown together and we were as different as night and day. We'd been together only a few months, and the next thing you know this information was coming into our heads that we'd come from the Kingdom of Heaven to deliver some information about what the truth is in the Kingdom of Heaven and how you get from the human kingdom into that Kingdom of Heaven. Goodness, we couldn't understand.

The point I'm making is, doubt is a common lesson ground. You can't expect to not go through it. I know that any of you that are listening today could easily doubt everything I'm saying. I expect you to doubt. I want you to doubt it. If you know my Father, you cannot put Him to any test that He cannot win, if you continue to pursue Him, and you are not overcome by the forces that would turn you astray. Jesus warned: 'Don't worry about losing your life. Worry about losing your soul.' Because there are those in Satan's kingdom who would even rob the souls of the elect – those that are chosen to get closer. So, this is a dangerous business. Doubt is par for the course. We don't expect you to not have to deal with it. Did I answer your question?

Student: I think you covered it pretty well.

Do: Okay, what's next on your list?

Student: Can a human vehicle be considered or recognized as a perennial?

Do: I'm glad you asked that because I realized in Session 3 that when we talked about the tulip, or when that information was given to us, then later as we listened to that session, more information came to clarify this issue. A good illustration of how the human plant is a perennial is to think of the family tree of the human vehicle – the human plant. Let's say the family tree is the "Thompson" tree. Those who call themselves "Thompsons" have a tie to that tree. Now, you're really tied to a couple of trees in the human kingdom. Let's say, for example, a female is not only tied to the tree of her mother and father, but she's also tied to the tree that she moves into by marriage. So, in a sense, she has two trees that she's been tied to. And depending upon which one she is the most tied to, is the most likelihood she would return to the next time she came up from the "bulb under the ground" like the tulip. In other words, if the Thompson family is the perennial plant, then for a vehicle to die and a soul that is in a human condition leaves that plant, it's no different than a leaf from the Thompson plant wilting and falling. And for every leaf that falls, one or two more leaves come back, and they, in that same Thompson branch, will be filled by the soul that is standing in line to get in that Thompson branch, that extension of that family tree, according to the degree of their bind with that family tree.

A funny thing here about using the name "Thompson," when you're in the process of overcoming, one of the things that helps you is to take a new name. This is adopted in a way in the Catholic church when nuns and some of the monks or hermits – some of the ones who isolate themselves more in thoughtful, studying conditions – they take another name. They take the name of a saint or some Biblical name and it helps disassociate them from the family tree. It helps get their mind more on their pursuit of their concept of God. I must admit to you, and this is one of our secrets, but in our whole session, in our group of sessions here with you, we're telling information that have been our secrets for many years. And now some of those secrets are being passed on to you. I do this with reluctance because I know of how it hurts some family members, and yet no intent is ever meant to hurt a family member. That's not the way of our Father's Kingdom. But the truth is that that soul belongs to – if that soul has any mind of our Father in it, even if it doesn't – the soul still belongs to our Heavenly Father.

When a soul begins to recognize its true parentage, it cannot help but relate to its parentage. The soul was created. If that soul is going to move into a Kingdom level that only relates at the Creation basis – not the reproductive basis as known in the human kingdom – it's going to relate to its Father, the one above it, the one that nurtured it, the one that taught it, the one that brought it through a womb, so to speak, from the human kingdom into the Heavenly Kingdom. So, part of what we do in our classroom is we take other names that have no particular significance. I spoke of these two students, and yet the names I use for them are not the ones you'd find on their driver's license or birth certificates of the vehicles they're wearing. But it applies to them satisfactorily – to the soul. All they are is the soul, because that is what they have become. They do not relate to the family tree that the vehicle they're wearing relates to any longer. They are denied that. They must be denied that. That family tree, because of its methods of even remaining a family tree, has become corrupted because of the influence of Lucifer's camp.

At this point, I want to apologize to all the Lucy's out there, and I'll try not to use that term again. I'll use "Lucifer" or I'll try to use "Satan." Because I certainly don't want the Lucille's or the Lucy's to feel, "Goodnight! I can't stand to listen to that guy because he speaks of Satan using my name." It's interesting that we bring this up when we're talking about names. If you come this way, you'll lose that one anyhow. I'm teasing. But I do apologize, and I'll try to remember to make the reference "Satan" and "Lucifer," because I do not like to offend you.

Our Heavenly Father does not like for you to be offended by anything of His that we deliver to you. Our Heavenly Father does not like for the families of the physical vehicles of the classroom to be hurt by what the students are doing. The families have the same thing that we possess – they have that little option; they have that free will. Look, the families of these two students can say, "I may not understand what they are doing, what they are pursuing, but I know they are trying to get closer to their Heavenly Father. And I've just got to put them in His hands and trust that He will lead them in the right direction and not let them go astray." That is their option. Or they can hate me. I would hate for them to hate me. Not because I hate to be hated. I would hate for them to have to be responsible for hating an instrument that has been chosen by the Kingdom of Heaven to be a vessel or a megaphone, an instrument for the Truth to be delivered to those who want to move out of the human condition into the Kingdom of Heaven. I've dreaded this topic, but we have to discuss it.

The students probably have several names. Take, for example, a student named "Susie." She has one that, should she get stopped in a traffic jam or she turns when she shouldn't at a stop sign, is the right legal one on her driver's license, and she doesn't hesitate to use it. But she doesn't identify with that name at all. She has another name that she uses should she need to work in the world in order to sustain our tummies or to put gasoline in the cars that we drive. That name is probably part of the name that showed up on that birth certificate or that driver's license, and she'll use that name at her work because it's not the one that the old influences or the old vehicle's impulses would respond to. So, frequently this is what we do, and the only reason that I'm telling you this is because we're in Session 4 now of this series, and if you're getting more and more interested, you're trying to think, "Whoa! What is this overcoming all about? What does it mean to be separate from the world"?

What's next?

Student: Where does this information come from? Does it come from you?

Do: (Laughs) We just answered that, but we'll answer it again. If it comes from me, it comes from the wrong source. It can come from me. Let me give you an example of how I got off track this morning. Only today I got off track. I get off track all the time. We had a recording session this morning and in my eagerness to get this task done, we've been doing one recording session a day. And here came a day when I thought, "We have the staff on hand, we have the crew on hand, and the time...maybe we can get in two recording sessions, and...." What did I just say? I said I had the thought maybe we could...Oops, I had the thought. I can't stop every time a thought comes into my head and qualify its source by saying, "I talked to Ti and I asked Ti what Ti thought about this." It's my responsibility to ask Ti in silence – I'm responsible for that. I'm also responsible for what comes out of my mouth.

And when it's off track, I'm responsible for that. I'm responsible to get back on track. I'm responsible to acknowledge the zillions of times I have acknowledged to these students that I have recognized, by asking my Older Member, "Was that off track?" and receiving "Yes, that was a little off track." So, I say, "Whoops, we were a little off track, so we've got to get back on track." And this is what we do. We continue to work against getting off track.

What I'm saying is I thought, "Well, we could have two sessions today." Then, after the first session when I was a little pooped, I went in my privacy for a little while and I said "Ti, whoops, I forgot to ask you what you thought about two sessions today." Believe it or not, the funny thing I felt was that by proceeding with it, which was not at the time of day that we have been proceeding with sessions, I felt that Ti and Ti's helpers who were helping us with the session kind of scurried to get here to help us, and it was like we had trouble getting going. We had trouble moving in, being good vessels. It's like my word processor didn't want to work and I was trying to force things and trying to pull, which wouldn't have happened had I stopped and said, "Ti, what do you think about our having an earlier session, and a later session in the same day?"

Now, I'm just using that as an example. Where does this information come from? I'm quite capable of giving you misinformation. Wow! This gets into another issue. If you know my Father, if you learn that I am devoted to my Father and my Father uses me, and you can recognize Him through me, then you have to involve yourself in a position of trust with me – trust in the instrument that He has appointed or assigned or given – the instrument that now Ti continues to use. And I am responsible for asking for each little thing, each little thing all day long, all night long, each time I slip and don't ask, I catch myself needing to go back and ask. Now, that's good, it helps develop my habit of better asking, because I'm sure that you think, "Well I've always known about asking. 'Ask and you shall receive, seek and ye find.' I've known those things." But how often do you ask? About how serious does the question have to be for you to ask it? And when you ask it, if you don't get an answer, do you go ahead, or do you wait until you get one? And if you don't get one, then you assume it's not time for one or this is off base? Now, I'm not saying before you put the first spoon of your bowl of cereal in your mouth you have to say, "Older Member, would you have me put my first spoon of my cereal in my mouth? And then would you have me put my second spoon of my cereal in my mouth?" No, that's ridiculous, that's carrying it to an extreme. But believe it or not, I don't feel it is an extreme to ask my Older Member, "What do you think about this kind of cereal for this vehicle, at this "fuel stop," or this meal, this time to consume? Does that seem okay? If it's something you wouldn't approve of, I don't want to put it in this vehicle. So, if it is not proper, if you don't approve of it, I want to know about it."

That's just to try to help you know the degree of asking. These students have learned that I can forget to ask at times. I can give misinformation. But, they also know that I continue to go back and recognize that. And I even hate to say that because I don't even want to give myself credit for continuing. You know, I have to mention this one little thing. It's a silly, stupid little thing that Christians get into debating. "Once saved, always saved." Nothing could be further from the truth. I can fall ten times faster than I can rise. It's ten times easier to fall than it is to climb one step in the right direction. This is not an easy task – the one of overcoming, the one of getting into our Father's House, the one of leaving this world behind.

I heard over the news about a woman who in recent floods had lost her house and the furniture in it, and she was distraught. She said, "You know, these conditions like floods and storms and rain, I grew up thinking that the Lord brings those things, and therefore I don't feel bad about it. We'll just reconstruct." She said, "But I'm not ready to leave and go there. I like it; I still like it here." Big difference in where we sit and where she sat. I do not mean to criticize her. At least she acknowledged her Lord. I must admit to you I don't like it in this human kingdom. I don't like it one iota. It is so dominantly controlled, it vibrates through and through, everything that is against our Father's Kingdom because that is what it has become. In almost another breath, I could say it's almost normal at the end of an Age when a garden has served as a catalyst of negative and positive, and some can come out of it and even be fruit for the Kingdom of Heaven, it's almost a possible commonness at the end of an Age, for a garden to become this hideous.

I do not mean to criticize this garden, but even those of you who still love certain aspects of this garden know how out of control it has become – in our care of its environment, in our misuse of the things that have been given to us. We'll talk about what overcoming is and what some of the specifics are as we go on with our questions. But I don't like this place. I like our Father's Kingdom. I was sent here to do a task. I liked it before my soul really took over this vehicle and awakened. I liked it a lot, I had a lot of fun. I was very "into" this world. But now that the soul has taken it over, and my Father is speaking through it, I can honestly tell you that it's a miserable existence to be here. I try to make the best of it. I try to make it as pleasant as possible while I'm here, as pleasant for the students as it can be made while we're here. We have to do all kinds of little things to try to make it pleasant. But it's only because our minds are concentrated on things that are not of this world. When you are concentrating on things that are of another world that you are not in, you're left pretty vacant, except in the lessons and the knowledge of the fact that you're here for the purpose of overcoming.

Now, who's next in our questions?

Student: We talked about Ages and wondered if this would be an appropriate time to discuss the three Ages, or are there more than three Ages?

Do: Okay, I think we mentioned in a session that some Biblical scholars recognized that in the Bible there are references to the "Age that was," meaning the period of time prior to this Earth Age, and the "Age to come," in reference to another Earth Age. It's important that we discuss this a little bit. The scientists frequently argue with some "religionists," or some religious people who consider themselves creationists. Some of these creationists have the idea that this Age is how old the planet is, and that at the end of this Age it's all over. I don't know if they think the planet is also going to be destroyed, and I'm not saying the planet isn't. I'm not going to pre-guess what our Father's Kingdom plans to do with the planet. But, for sake of understanding, I think it's important that we examine that this planet has been here a long time.

I'm afraid that the information that Ti and I have been given suggests that it has served as a "garden" a number of times. We don't have any information about there being any other garden that can serve as that stepping stone for what we call a "human condition" elsewhere. Even though it seems so unbelievable that in these vast, vast, vast heavens that there is not another current garden. I'm not saying there isn't. I don't know...I simply don't know. But I do feel that the information that we have been given to understand, certainly at this point, does suggest that ages such as this period that we consider 6000 years (the duration of a Next Level experiment – a cycle of a human civilization), where at the beginning was.... Let's say there was a previous Age and it went through something equivalent to 6000 years, and those folks, too, had to mess it up. Then it was time to recycle it because the environment was a mess, and their clutter was a mess. And I don't know what they'd done with space junk or if they'd gotten into space. But it was time to go in, spade up the garden, harvest the yield, and get rid of the spoils – take the weeds and let them be destroyed, or maybe even let some space aliens come in and take strong weeds (weeds from our Father's point of view) at the end of that Age. The current Age, what we're calling approximately 6000 years, is pretty much illustrated as beginning at Adam's time, or right prior to that time. There were some other races that supposedly were put on the planet right prior to that time. But roughly, it's still within the framework of that 6000-year period, or Age, and that means that between now and the end of this decade – and I'm afraid I feel like we're off a number of years, that it's going to be significantly before the end of this decade – will be the end of this Age. So, it's spade time. And the big, big, big surprise will come.

What do we mean "a big surprise"? Well, when all that's out there (Kingdom of God and space aliens) comes in to harvest, the big question will be how much of that will be witnessed? How much of that will take place without those who are running around on the planet seeing, or knowing, that it will take place? For example, the possibility arises that some could come and take souls by the droves and all we would know is vehicles were dying by the droves, because souls weren't occupying them any longer. We could call it a plague or a disease, or we don't know. (And I'm certainly not suggesting because of the AIDS thing that that's what's happening to AIDS victims. Far from it.) But that's one way that harvesting could take place that we would not be able to observe. But it's altogether possible that our Father's Kingdom, as well as those in Luci's corporation, can come in at the end of the Age, en masse, and do their taking of those who they want, though they might likely come in at different times.

Now, here's a real delicate subject I hate to discuss. But I'm afraid that our Father's Kingdom is not going to come in.... (Boy! I can hear Luci shouting at me before I ever get these words out of my mouth. I'm sorry, "Luci" I said. I hear Satan shouting at me.) I'm afraid our Father's Kingdom is not going to come in and have someone looking like the common picture of Jesus floating down to the planet in flowing garb, showing scars, and saying, 'I, Jesus, have come to give you peace, and peace for the world.' I'm afraid our Father's Kingdom desires no peace for the human kingdom. In our Father's Kingdom can be found peace. Like we've discussed before, if you caught it, the human kingdom was not even designed to work. Even though the human kingdom could have become the Kingdom of our Father, had those who were created in the human kingdom made all the options to do only His will, instead of listening to those who were influencing them to do otherwise.

So, here at the end of the Age, back to the question "Ages," there were probably Ages before this one and before the one before. I don't have any idea how many Ages this garden has served as a "graduation" place, or as an "experiential" garden for the same kind of harvest that we just discussed. I have no idea how many times after this that this garden will be used in that way. There's a strong possibility that the garden may at this time cease to be used further as a garden for the human kingdom, and might actually become, in a sense, a base for our Father's Kingdom for a period of time. I don't know how long the healing process would take, even if this garden were to be recycled and used as a human level garden again, if it is, in fact, used as a human garden again. Another hypothesis that we must consider a little bit is that whatever that new garden is and when that new Age does arrive after the recycling has sufficiently occurred to give it a fresh start, then there will be a new "Adam." "Adam" meant beginning man, the first "plant" there that was. There will be a new Adam, a new Eve. There will be a new Satan, of all things, someone to represent that same negative, to pull your eyes away from our Father's Kingdom. I'm not saying that that is the way it's going to be. I'm saying, if our Father intends to use this garden in another planting similar to this one in the growth pattern that we have seen in this little Age.

The reason I brought that up is because a moment ago when I said that the big surprise could come, that spacecrafts could come in by the thousands, maybe come in shifts. One shift of spacecrafts could come in from one part of the Heavens bringing with them that one who came down with scars and flowing hair and flowing robes, saying, "Peace on Earth. We're going to solve all the problems of this world." Don't get me wrong, it wouldn't be Jesus. It would not be Jesus. It would not be a Representative from our Father's Kingdom.

Now, those who had bought into that – and that's what they believed with all their heart – I'm afraid they're prime targets to believe him (the counterfeit), and to move into that condition. And it might even be harder to get out of that "misinformation corporation" after having left a human garden, than it was at the human garden, if an opportunity to get out does come to them later, after having moved into the corporation outside of the human condition. Don't forget, even that corporation at its highest peak is still in the human condition and made up of the misinformation of the opposition. But the only way any space alien could get into our Father's Kingdom is to come back into a human civilization (for it is designed to be where overcoming must take place, where the change of swapping misinformation for the Truth (the facts) must take place), if as our Father sees them and reads them on His meter, He says, "There's enough goodness in there, I want to give them a gift and let them migrate toward a source of that Truth." Then that overcoming would have to happen here, in a human civilization.

But, as far as three Ages are concerned, I don't know why, but I feel like there were many before this one, not just one. And as to what follows, I have no idea. It's a strong likelihood it could be a garden again, with a new Adam, a new Satan. But, our Father hasn't told me. I don't know what the next plan is. I know what some of the possibilities might be. Next question, who's up?

Student: I was wondering if you wanted to talk a little bit about when people die. Do they go where they think they're going? And I've also been having the thought, and I don't know if it's tied into it or if it's part of your thought, but does that have anything to do with, and you may have just touched on this, "What you're bound to on Earth, you're bound to in Heaven"?

Do: Okay. Do people go where they think they're going? I'm afraid we did just touch on that, but we'll enlarge on that a little bit. "What you're bound to on Earth, you're bound to in Heaven." Absolutely true. I mean, and it didn't come from Do, it didn't originate with us. Jesus said it, but I'm afraid it didn't originate with Jesus. It came from our Father's mind, that what you're bound to on Earth, you're bound to in Heaven. Now, that's just a way of saying what we just said, that if you expect to get into our Father's Kingdom, you've got to break the shackles. You've got to destroy the binds. You've got to rise above the binds. By your effort you've got to not give in to the things that would hold you in the human condition, or in the Earth's grasp, or the vibrations of the human kingdom.

If anybody loses their vehicle in the world, whatever they were hooked on – career, family, dope, anything else that they're hooked on at the time they leave their vehicle – that's what they're going to be hooked on. Now, you're saying, "Are they going to Heaven"? They might have just been put on "ice." They might even be in a discarnate condition for an extended period of time. I'm not saying that our Father's Kingdom puts everything on "ice." Our Father's Kingdom permits, certainly, many, many "discarnate humans" to remain in the "discarnate" state and serve Lucifer's camp – I'm sorry, Lucifer's camp – in a discarnate condition. But the ones who expect to get to our Father's Kingdom have to take a vehicle. They have to "get into" that vehicle. They have to gain complete control of that vehicle, and they have to acknowledge our Heavenly Father. They have to recognize that everything they have believed in has been wrong. They have to want cleansing, purity. They have to want to rid themselves of their whole way of life, their whole lifestyle, even (as we've discussed) their "identity," if they possibly could (which they can't quite do) in order to be received into His Household. But, if they're in the process of doing that to the best of their ability – only He can judge the best of their ability – He will protect them and save them, even if He had to plant them in another Age, if there's another Age.

I don't know. We're trying not to take chances. Look, if the opportunity is here before you to leave this condition, to overcome this world, why take a chance on being satisfied with just 'being saved' for a later date? Why not 'yield'? Yield? What does that mean? Turning yourself over to your Heavenly Father, saying, "I'm putty in Your hands." Lucifer's camp comes rushing in and says, "See. Brainwashed condition." And yet if you love our Father, you'd say, "Oh, I hope so. I hope brainwashed condition." Our Father jumps in and says, "Nope, unfortunately, can't do that. I'll give you my mind as long as you continue to seek it – more of it, and more of it, as you desire it. And I must admit, the more you have of it, the more we will be alike, and the more commonness that you will experience (witness) in the other members of the Household of our Father."

Lucifer's camp over here thinks they're such "individuals," so liberated, and they're not brainwashed. They think they're going their own way, they're entrepreneurs in everything they do. Start writing a little chart of what they're into, and then let's discuss who's "brainwashed," who's under somebody's spell, who's almost a robot without knowing it, thinking that they're individual. They're individual in that they may go to different beauty parlors, and different manicurists, and different wedding chapels, but they do the same things. Maybe it's Italian instead of Chinese at the restaurant, or it's Methodist instead of Presbyterian – they think they're so individual to have those little differences, when they're no differences at all.

Ok, let's go to the next question.

Student: If I'm seeking the Truth, and I really want to know the Truth, will I find God?

Do: (Laughs) Of course, the answer is, from where we sit, if you're seeking the Truth, we have to say, "Our Father is the Truth." We have to say, "We have found the Truth," for we have found our Father. We know the difference now. We have advanced to the condition of knowing the difference. But the danger is that there are many, in seeking the "Truth," who would arrive at a condition of finding "God," but it might be the wrong god. A common thing in seeking the "truth" when you're on the wrong track is to end up with somewhat of an intellectualized agnostic condition of saying, "Well, I just can't know the Truth. Therefore, I'll be as good a humanitarian as I can be. I'll serve my fellow man, and I'll work for charitable organizations, and I'll be an educator, and I'll learn everything I can learn." But, you know what? Their behavior and their indulgences continue to be the same behavior and indulgences of all those others out there who have not started any program of overcoming. Now, we can't really blame them for having not started a program of overcoming, because, unfortunately, there's that ingredient that exists, that our Father's Kingdom says, "I have to send you a Rep. I have to send somebody representing the Kingdom of Heaven that will take you through that overcoming. And that's their responsibility – to take you through it." And we'll talk about that more. Did that answer your question?

Student: Yes.

Do: State your question one more time.

Student: I wanted to know if I look for the "Truth," and I really want to know it, will the end result be finding God?

Do: Well, certainly from our point of view, yes. From most of the departments in Lucifer's corporation, you will find "cosmic consciousness," or "universal mind," "liberated spirit" – unrealistic fantasies of going to other worlds in out-of-body experiences. I don't want to start condemning religions, but, you know, there's something we have to return to here, and that is that our Father's Truth is not a religion. It's simply the facts. Simply the way it is – it's the facts. Once we even begin to label it "religion" we are already, at that point, a significant degree away from the facts, the Truth. So, then the question comes up, "If that's the case, then what church is it that's going to get in"? Well, what does the word "church" mean? "Church" is a body of believers. There's no special denomination or religion that has a foothold, or that's going to get the door open to them where the others aren't. Even though I must admit that our Father's Kingdom did, in its teaching process in this particular Age, relate more directly with the Jewish experience as recorded in the Old Testament of our Bible, and in the relationship of Jesus with His disciples, and the other records that are shown in the New Testament of the Bible. That is still the most accurate account of our Father's Kingdom's relationship to humans in this Earth Age.

But, you out there, I'm sure the question could come into your mind, "Well then, what am I to do about my present church? You know, my folks are Catholic, or they're Methodist, or they're this, or that. Does that mean I just throw that away"? Do you throw away any good stepping stone? You consider thanksgiving for that stepping stone. You don't condemn anyone who is on that stepping stone; you praise them, particularly if they just moved into that stepping stone from one that was less like our Father's Kingdom in behavior and in concept. And you think, well, at least they're trying to get closer. But, as we think of prophesy and the end times, we have to think of the true Church. The true Church is a body of believers that know the Truth – just a group of individuals that know the Truth (know the facts). That's kind of a funny term because they know a little bit of the Truth, and they come more into the Truth, and they come more into the Truth, and they come more into the Truth, as they fight off the untruth, fight off the untruth, and shed it.

In our classroom situation and the overcoming that these students have been through, they've been through hell. If there ever was a hell, they've been through it. If there ever was a purgatory, they've been through it. And I'm sure they can't count the number of times that they doubted everything, and they wondered, "What on Earth am I doing"? Then there were times when they would come and say, "I did this, and I'm sure it was very offensive to the Kingdom of Heaven, and to you and Ti, and anybody representing the Kingdom of Heaven. You've got to help me get control of it. You've got to help me get past it."

And that is the process of growth. That is the process of overcoming. Recognizing that you've slipped. Recognizing that your behavior has been a little less than it should have been, and you see it now as worse than "a little less" and you find it intolerable. And so you have to – what's the pattern? – Ask. You have to come back, put it in front of your teachers and say, "I hate to admit this, but I did this, and I don't want to do it anymore. Will you help me? I know I can get past it." Then the teacher says to the Older Member, "You heard what they just said. Can we help them? Do you want to help them"? And so the information comes. It may not come right on the spot. It may cause them to wonder for a period of time, "Why am I not getting help"? They may even in the meantime fall again, and by falling again, then they hurt even more, because they want to overcome. And they're moving closer as they're in that process.

I know that we have not gotten into the specifics of what separating from the world is – what overcoming the world is. We've talked about it a lot, but we haven't gotten into any significant amount of the specifics, and we're right next to the end of today's session. We will get into those specifics in our next session, because it's time. I want to end this session with asking that you, as an observer of these tapes, I want to suggest, if you want to, that you go and find a private spot and reach as high as you can reach and say, "What direction should I take? I don't want to be misled. I don't want to be led away from You. I want to find my God." It's safer looking for your Heavenly Father than it is to look for Truth, even though they are the same thing. We'll see you in the next session.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 5 (60 Min)

Well, this is the fifth session in our series. I'm not going to bother naming the series again, because if you don't know what the name of it is now after four sessions, we're all in trouble. So, we might refer to it as our overcoming series.

I have asked the students who helped with Sessions 1 and 2 to return to the scene and assist me in our questions today. So, let's get going. Before we get into it, I must let you know that this fifth session is a major step beyond the previous sessions we have had. When we get more into the particulars of overcoming, then we need to somehow narrow our audience more to the serious seekers – I don't like to sound spiritual in that – but to the ones who feel that somehow or other this is connecting with them. And I'm hoping that those who are viewing this session are in that position in your heads so that we might have something to offer you instead of something to amuse you or to give you to find fault with.

For starters, I'm recalling two or three things that we discussed in our last session that I would like to clarify a little bit more. One is when we discussed separating from the family (the vehicle's family) as you associate with the family of the soul or you become a part of this transition from human kingdom to the Kingdom of Heaven. And if you remember, I said the family can take the attitude – when a serious student begins to relate to them less – they can take the positive attitude and say, "Well, I'll just have to put them in My Heavenly Father's hands because I know that what they really want is to please Him, and I'll have to trust that He'll take care of them and that He'll not let them go astray."

Now I want to go a step further with that and say that the ideal would be if we could touch or connect to a degree with a family member, so that the family member could somehow have some respect for what we're doing, even though I know that because of what the world has become it's almost impossible to see, particularly in our Anglo-Saxon world. In parts of the world where Buddhism and Hinduism and a lot of eastern religions are so prevalent, a family feels honored to have a child enter one of their communities. In this country, it's ok only if it's an established church, and I say that again, only if it's an established church. Usually, even then, the established church has to be one that that particular vehicle's family related to. For example, in a family of Catholics, if one of their members desires to become a priest or nun, or even become cloistered (when they really separate), you may or you may not hear from them for some time. Even though they miss hearing from that member of the family, they understand it because it has become acceptable, it's become admirable, it's become something that they feel good about because one of their children has desired to become holy, so to speak, or trying to get very close to the Kingdom of Heaven. But if a member of your family in this world, or in the average family in this world, steps out of society and goes off with someone that no one has ever heard about and that someone is not representing a church that is an established denomination, then they have gone off with a "cult." That's the way it comes across. That's the way the media accepts it. That's the way the neighborhood, the society, the church accepts it. And then they begin to pray for that person because they have been duped and they have gone off with a cult.

I can assure you that Jesus wasn't hung on a cross – nailed to a cross – because He made everybody in the neighborhood happy. He was hung on the cross because they hated Him. Not just because He said, "I am the King of the Jews," or "I am from the Kingdom of Heaven." Those were, of course, blasphemous enough. But the thing that we forget – the thing that was most upsetting to the family units or the people at large – was that He had, in a sense, come in and said what He had to say. And He formed a group, a little nucleus of believers, and they had picked up, and they'd left everything behind, and they were following Him. They might have made contact a few times in the same way that members of our class have. You've heard me speak of our classroom. Our classroom, don't forget, has been working for over 16 years in secret separation from the world, so to speak. And our class has made a point to get in touch with members of their family as we got instruction to do that, and they try to do it in the gentlest way and the way that would cause the least problem for them. Frequently we got instruction for them to go and visit their families. So, over the years they have visited their families a number of times. They have written them letters, they've talked to them on the telephone a number of times, but I'm sure it's never enough. I'm sure it isn't satisfactory. And I'm sure that many times when the family sees them it's almost more uncomfortable than it would be if they hadn't seen them, even though they would be very upset had they not heard from them or seen them.

But what I started to say was it would be more ideal, certainly from the classroom's point of view, if the family member said, "I don't know what you are doing. You can understand that your father and I are upset, since we don't know what you are doing, and it's hard for us to know how to find a niche in our computer to put your activity. We don't know where to put your teachers. We see them as somebody who's kidnapped you, so to speak, from our life. You've dropped out of the world, you're in another world and you're not a part of our family." If they could say, "Well, even though I don't know what you're doing, you're an adult and I have to give you that. I have to respect that, and I'll be happy when I can hear from you." I guess what I'm trying to say is, if a family has a decent attitude – or at least a respectful attitude, a permissive attitude – toward a class member, then it's a lot easier to be in touch with that family member, and it's even easier to be more frequently in touch with that family member because they don't make demands. They like to hear from you, but they don't say, "Are you going to come home next month"? or "Will I see you in 2 months"? or "You gotta come on home because Uncle so-and-so and Aunt Susie haven't seen you and we're going to have a family reunion." If they start making demands, then unfortunately the class members start retreating – and here you are going to say, "Why? Why do the class members then have to start retreating"? I have to address this question because you could say, "Does that mean that Ti and Do and this little cult have very rigid rules and nobody can leave their confines without permission"?

I remember once early in the days of our classroom, when one of the members of the classroom was having a difficult time with doubt, and during the time of doubt had almost wanted to leave the classroom. But having gotten past it, came and said to Ti and Do, “Don’t ever let me be so foolish as to walk out this door. Please don’t let me be so foolish as to walk out this door. Keep me here ‘til I come back to my senses.” Well, I’m afraid Ti and I tried that for a short period. We tried to encourage that individual not to go. We did everything we could to let that individual stay until their senses returned. And what happened, of course, is that bitterness increased. We began to see the handwriting on the wall, and we said, “This isn’t working. The individual is not recovering. The individual doesn’t want to be here, so let’s quickly let that individual be where that individual wants to be.”

From that time forward we learned from that lesson. And we said frequently to every member of the class, “If you have any doubt about being here, please express it. Let’s see what money we can muster and what plane ticket or train fare or whatever it will take to get you where you want to go. And if we can give you a little bit to help you in that transition, we’ll try.” I can remember times even when it seemed that doubt was lingering with a few and we said, “Listen, we’ve got a little bit of funds in our reserve and the class is now offering any member of the class two thousand dollars if they would like to leave the classroom” – almost as if to try to make it tempting to them to leave, if they could be tempted to leave the classroom. The point I’m making is that we repeatedly and repeatedly said, “If this is not where you want to be, it is not our responsibility to help keep you here until you get past a period of doubt.” We learned from that lesson. So lest you be deceived, you could ask any member of our classroom and they could set you straight on where we stood as far as our desire to have a student be exactly where they want to be at any given moment. I mean, if a student wakes up in the middle of the night and they say to whichever group they happen to be with, “I’m just so full of doubt I don’t want to be here...just something seems wrong.” Sometimes our classroom is broken into several pieces and several cities, but there’s always someone assigned as “overseer” or “procedure helper” or some similar task, that they could go to. And we always have a setup where that individual is encouraged to do what they want to do. We don’t feel badly about them. We certainly don’t get mad at them. We just feel sad for them, but we want them to be happy. We want them to have what they want. We want them to find what they are looking for. If this is not what they are looking for, they should not be here one moment past not wanting to be here.

Now, I told you some time ago that when we started with our little classroom – when we called the ones back after holding meetings – we called them into a campground on top of the mountain in Wyoming. There were about a hundred members in the campground, and we said, “At this point, we’re going to get serious. I mean, we’ve got to stop doing this and this and this, and there’s no room for sensuality, for indulgences, and this and that, it just doesn’t work; it doesn’t fit in with overcoming.” And I told you that, wow! within a very short time, our numbers were in half. And here we are 16 years later, and we’ve come from a hundred down to...a couple of dozen? And yet to me and to Ti, and I don’t say this to try to just build up or elevate, because I’m not in that business – the members of this classroom, that couple of dozen individuals, they’re significant. They’re beautiful. They are attempting with all of their might to be nothing but vessels of the Kingdom of Heaven. They don’t want any separateness. They don’t want thoughts of their own. They want to fill that soul – that pillowcase we’ve talked about – only with the mind that comes from the Kingdom of Heaven and to quickly stay and remain and improve in the business of aborting everything that comes from any other source.

So, before we get into the particulars of overcoming, I did want to go over that aspect of separation from the family with you again and try to help you understand it. Because, if you’re still watching our sessions, you’re beginning to suspect that around the corner might possibly be some action for you that would cause you to be in a very precarious position. And I’m afraid that’s true. So, now we’re going to try to help you understand that position and how to deal with it a little better.

What did we have on our questions here to address next?

Student: We were going to catch up with, “What about the Holy Spirit of the Trinity”?

Do: Oh, that’s right. Okay. In a previous session, I began to try to explain to you how any member of the Kingdom of Heaven, whether in the Kingdom of Heaven or even having left the physical aspect of the Kingdom of Heaven to return to the human kingdom for a task for the Heavenly Kingdom, is a trinity within themselves. They are a Father to Sons. They are a Son to a Father or Fathers. But we never got to the Holy Spirit or the Holy Ghost aspect of the Trinity. You’ve probably figured out that the way that parallel, or illustration of the Trinity – Father, Son, Holy Spirit – applies, is in the percentages in that soul/pillowcase of what kind or quality of mind is in the majority of that “mind substance.” That is, how much mind is of our Father’s Kingdom – Pure mind, Holy Mind. It doesn’t mean that it’s 100%. It means that the percentage is so great that the minority seldom rules. The majority rules. The majority controls. The majority I’m referring to is that portion of that mind that occupies that space in that soul. So, in that sense we have a Father to Sons (or younger members, or someone pursuing or making a transition from the human kingdom into the Kingdom of Heaven). We have a Son who has a Father or also a Grandfather, and calls them “Father,” “Father in Heaven,” or calls them “Teacher,” or calls them by name if they have a personal relationship with one who is in that position to relate to them. And then also that individual – if their mind has over 50 percent – when it takes a vote on any issue, the good rules. Even though sometimes the minority really shouts loud trying to get a voice, they have learned to have the majority rule. Therefore, that spirit or that mind that is occupying that space in that soul, is Holy Spirit, is Pure Spirit, and is in control.

Okay, what’s next on our little list of things we haven’t gotten to?

Student: Well, I thought from the previous session you wanted to clarify the design of the human kingdom, and I think you’d said that it wasn’t designed to work.

Do: Right, thank you for bringing that up. I believe what I mentioned was that I said the human kingdom isn’t even designed to work. The Creator didn’t design it to work. And I feel that I need to correct that a little bit. If you’ll back up, you’ll remember that we said the Creator even had a design of possibilities within the word processor – within the program – that any human could take as options in their path of existence. That even all the options to go astray existed. But can't you imagine our Father also knew that all the options to go astray ultimately would not be satisfactory, hoping that by not finding them satisfactory that that in itself would be an element to help someone who is going astray arrive at a condition of saying, "This isn't working. I've been trying this, I've been pursuing this."

Since the world as a whole here at the end of this Age, this particular Age, has primarily gone astray, then we can accurately say that the design does not work. Because the design that is in motion – the design that exists – is one that was not designed to work, because it is counterproductive as far as getting into our Father's Kingdom. But, in that sense, the fact that it doesn't work is such a super thing. Because if someone can come to their senses for a moment, they could have a moment of sobriety. Remember how we've talked about the big problem is that we're drunk with the influences of this world and with the things that act as a drug to keep us from having any common sense and of being able to tune into the reality or the Truth of our Father's Kingdom?

But you know one thing, according to the historical record, it's difficult for a wealthy person to get into the Kingdom of Heaven – almost as difficult as it is for a camel to get through an eye of a needle. We don't know what that illustration really meant. Some say that it meant a rope that was made out of camel's hair (it's hard to put a rope into the eye of a needle), or it may have actually meant a camel getting through. There was a little gate in the side of the temple that was referred to as the "Eye of the Needle," and it was so low that a camel had to be down on its knees and dragged through. So, we don't know which illustration was the correct illustration or the appropriate one. But one thing that a wealthy person has that many other people don't have, is that a wealthy person many times has the money to try about everything. And if they really tried about everything, they begin to, or they could begin to see, "You know, this isn't working; this isn't getting me anywhere. I thought that I would be happy when I had these possessions, when I could travel wherever I wanted to without any limitations; my closet could be as full as I wanted it to be; I could have ten closets instead of one; I could have a chauffeur; I could have a maid; I could have this; I could have anything taken care of. I could get the best education I could get. And boy, could I be friends with the people in power, because I have something that they want. And I could even have a voice in those things." Now, those are all things that are tempting in a way, but also a person with that much facility in a world that revolves around money, as far as power is concerned, that person could have experienced so many things that they could say, "I thought that somewhere I would find some satisfaction, and I'm not finding it."

Usually at that point Lucifer jumps in and says to them, "Well, then your satisfaction can be found in being a humanitarian with this wealth that I have bestowed upon you." Now Lucifer moves in as if he is their goodness, their God – as if he has bestowed this upon them. And he says, "In order to keep you from being too dissatisfied and pursuing a truth in another direction, I'm going to say, 'I can give you more satisfaction, if you're beginning to get dissatisfied, by now using your time, your energy, your talents, in humanitarian efforts, in charitable organizations.'" Don't misunderstand me. Humanitarian efforts are about as good as it gets in the human kingdom. Helping others is about as good as we can get in the human kingdom – trying to give our energy to others. But if we are still into what it does for us, to be the benefactor, then it's not really doing us any good, even though it might help the ones that are the recipient. Funny thing is, though, the way the Kingdom of Heaven is designed, there's not one individual out there who needs help that doesn't get it. Wow! On the spot – if it's help that can help them. If someone asks the Kingdom of Heaven for help, and it is not the kind of help that would help them, sometimes they get it, sometimes they don't. Sometimes they'll get it in order to give them a chance to learn that what they asked for won't really help them. Or, they could not learn from that lesson and continue to pursue it. But if they go back to the Kingdom again and say, "Well, now what's next for me? What is the more right thing for me to do?" Then they'll get the lesson of, "What you asked for before, even though I gave it to you, it doesn't really help. It's not that long lasting in what it has to offer." The point I'm trying to make is that the human kingdom, because of what it has become, you can take advantage of the fact that it doesn't work if you're pursuing our Father's Kingdom. And this will come up again and again and again. Just as the world will turn against you if you start to separate, the fact that the world turns against you assists you in separating, because that is the way it is designed by the Creator.

Okay, where are we? What's next?

Student: Well, since the overcoming process has to happen with the personal guidance of a member of the Next Kingdom, what happens between visits?

Do: That's a good question. You know, what got Jesus in trouble the most was when He said, "My Father sent me here for your sakes. I can redeem you to Him. If you believe He sent me and if you believe what I say, if you believe the teachings that I give you, and you do those teachings, and you continue to approach Him through me, I'll get you there. Or, He'll get you there through me, because He has appointed me to that task." It's like He has assigned a midwife or He has assigned a nursemaid, a tutor – someone to help you through that. That seems to be the pattern, certainly in this Age. He certainly did that in Jesus' time, and that's certainly what caused Jesus to find Himself on the cross.

I've got to skip to another topic here, because there's something I keep wanting to bring up, and it slips out of my head and it comes back and I'm talking about something else. So, I'm going to just slip out and talk about it. I heard a pretty prominent television minister not long ago say if Jesus did not resurrect, literally, physically, actually resurrect from an honest-to-goodness dead state from in the tomb, after having been on the cross, if that miracle of resurrection from the dead did not occur, then everything in Christianity is a farce. That appalls me. I can't identify with that kind of thinking at all. That's certainly not of our Father's Kingdom. I mean, as far as I'm concerned, Jesus was no less who He was, His Truth was no less what it was, His Heavenly Father was no less than Who He is, even if Jesus merely staged that event to try to help them symbolically understand that if you followed the Truth, death is overcome – you aren't dying. I'm not saying that's what happened. Fortunately, I don't know. But what I do know is, it doesn't make a hill of beans which the case was. You're on the wrong track if you're staking your relationship with the Truth that came from our Father's Kingdom on the basis of, "If He didn't die on the cross – I mean dead, so that any present-day doctor would have said, 'He is dead, dead, dead!' And then He came back to life and rose and here He was...if that didn't happen, then all that was a lie"? I say you don't know what He was all about. You don't know the Truth that He had to offer. You don't know His purpose in being here. Because that illustration had relatively very little significance to His purpose here. His purpose was, as He told His disciples, "Go teach about the Truth, give out the good news about the Kingdom of Heaven. It's at hand!" In other words, "You can get to the Kingdom of Heaven if you follow me."

Now, we've been talking about – the Last Days – meaning the last days of this Age. There's another way of looking at this, and that is that these can be your last days even if they aren't the last days of this Age. What is your concern? Do you want this to be your "last days" in the human kingdom? Or are we, out of fear of it being the end of the Age, motivated to try to clean up our act and overcome the world? Wrong motivation. I mean, we can take advantage of it, maybe. If it's a negative, if we do fear it, it can help us. But that's not the point. The point is if the Kingdom of Heaven visits you in any form, or sends a Representative and gives you a gift of the opportunity – a gift of life, a gift of eternal life – if you but do it (follow that shepherd). From where we sit, why would anybody not do it? I almost feel like if I were in your condition, I would think, even if it wasn't true, why wouldn't I do it? Why wouldn't I try it? Because what is so valuable to me if I know that life is so short here, and certainly if I've come into a realization that there are more possibilities than one little "bleep" as far as the human's existence in the human kingdom. Then why wouldn't I want to try overcoming the world if that's a possible way to get to the Kingdom of Heaven.

But that's irrelevant, because there's no position of argument. I can't talk you into this. I don't want to talk you into this. I have been assigned a task of delivering this information to you, offering this information to you, offering it only. I'm not to threaten you. I'm not to tell you that you are cast into the sea of fire if you don't do it. What is important is if this turns on a light in your head, and you say, "I must have connected with this information before at some previous time," or if you don't even say that and you say, "I know this is right."

Remember how we talked about when a person awakens they're "jiving" with where they were at a previous incarnation? We said, of course, if they haven't done much overcoming of the world in a previous incarnation, then their awakening is not going to be evident. And the more they have overcome in a previous incarnation, the more traumatic their awakening would be, because their awakening would thrust them out of the world if they had done a lot of overcoming. Where were we? Who's next on our list?

Student: You were talking about the times when the personal guidance isn't here, like between visits. I don't know if you want to get back into that anymore.

Do: No, I do want to get back into it some more. When the Kingdom of Heaven has someone present to offer that to you, then you have to be braced for what is ahead for you. And we have saved this to begin to talk about it in this Session 5, because it gets a little sticky. I mean, we've talked about only one aspect of it that is a little sticky, and that is the aspect of what happens in the relationship with the flesh body's family as we separate from that family, and how difficult that adjustment is. You know, when Jesus was here – we just talked about it a moment ago – those who followed Him, because of how their neighborhood, their structure, their families, the world around them was so upset by the fact that they did follow Him, and some of the Truth that He said was so blasphemous, that it found Him being crucified. Then after He left, those disciples were true to His teaching to the best of their ability... and the Truth was not very diluted for the remainder of their existence here.

If you know your history books, you know that most of the disciples, if not all of them, were martyred. There's some debate as to John; maybe John is an exception – the one who supposedly wrote the Book of Revelation. Now, I'm not saying prepare yourself for martyrdom. But I am, in a sense, saying prepare yourself for a difficult, difficult task if you come this way, if you choose to come the way of overcoming.

We've talked about how this information that is available to you is like a door that is open for a brief time and then that door has to close. Back in '75 the door was open for the classroom for about a 9-month period. In other words, there were meetings held and there was talk to the public for about a 9-month period. And that was in 1975! And from that time until now it's been silent...silent. Here it is again with these sessions that that door is opening for a brief period of time. Why a brief period of time? That's what I'm trying to explain, when I explained to you what happened to Jesus and what happened to His disciples. As soon as Jesus left, and certainly by the time His disciples left, in order to survive, the churches that continued to try to teach Jesus' teachings, could not carry them out. They had to compromise them in order to survive. Because the world out there would have responded too negatively to people continuing to break from their human "plants," separate, become grafts onto a Heavenly vine, and not exist in the world.

Therefore, I'm saying to you that the time that we will offer this information is short. We're not going to continue to hold these sessions for some time. We'll see where this goes, but I would suspect that we might have 6 or 8 or 10 or maybe a dozen sessions at the most. And where it will go from there or what shape it will take, I have not received any instruction yet. But I do know that the door has to be briefly open, and that you must respond to it in that brief period of time. Beyond that you won't be able to find us, unless the world somehow or other forces us into a circumstance that would be easier for you to find us. For instance, the media might tell you we're in such-and-such a jail, or we're confined in such-and-such a "nut house."

I want you to be sure, in case you wondered, that no group of individuals on the face of the Earth tries harder to live in accordance with not breaking any rules of the world – not doing anything that the legal world could find fault with us, whether it's the IRS, or any of the legal aspects of the world.

I'm going to let you in on another secret, and we'll come back to this. I'll let you in on just a little personal history of the two of us. You'll probably dig in and find a bunch of stuff. If you do hear it from the media, I'll tell you now, about 80 or 90 percent of it is totally inaccurate. But I don't say that in defense – you believe what you want to believe. Ti and I as individuals at the beginning were very, very moral individuals in our own standing. We felt like we were moral people. We felt like we lived very correctly, as far as how to treat our families, how to treat our neighbors, how to abide by the law. I could remember if I even had a friend that smoked a joint, and pot was illegal, I'd have wanted to stop having anything to do with him because he was doing something that was illegal. So, we were that preoccupied with trying to live in a way that wouldn't upset the world of Caesar, so to speak. I mean, when Jesus said, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar," it's the same thing. In leaving this world to go to our Father's Kingdom, you try the best you can to not make a mess of the world that you're leaving. Yet in spite of it, sometimes we make a mess. And I'm going to let you in on a mess that I made when Ti and I were awakening.

At one time when we'd run out of money, one of our students said, "Look, I've got this perfectly good credit card here that I'd like for you to use for awhile if you can use it to help you buy gas." So, we used it for a short time, and then we got to feeling uncomfortable about it. And just about the time we got to feel uncomfortable about it, we learned, by a circumstance which I'll tell you about in a few minutes, that the card had been reported stolen by the husband of the student, who had said, "It's a good credit card and I want you to use it." But things were happening at the home of that student that we weren't aware of. In our naiveté we thought, "Well, thanks a lot, we'll buy a little gas with this credit card for a period of time."

Another thing that happened is that Ti and I were in St. Louis at midnight when the comet Kohoutek came along, and our car, the little old dumpy car that we had reduced ourselves to, died. When we left the world, we both had shiny new cars and we wore them out. One we left to be repossessed, because our heads were so captivated by what we were doing, we knew that we couldn't take the responsibility for it. We couldn't even stop to think about it. And here we were in a snow storm in the middle of the night in St. Louis, as I said, the night Kohoutek came. And I had a credit card of my own in my pocket that we knew was good. We hadn't used it, and it was in good standing. I pulled out the credit card and I said, "Look, let's rent a car. Let's have faith that the bill will be taken care of and we'll get on our way and we won't just be stranded. Here we are, we've got no car at all, and hardly funds for doughnuts." So, we rented this car and then we went on.

Now, you can say, "What are you doing"? Well, we were going from this little minister to that little minister, to this TV preacher to that one, and we were saying, "We don't know why we have this information, but we feel that we've been sent from the Kingdom of Heaven to tell you this and this and this." And most of the time what they would do is listen politely, and maybe offer us a meal and say, "What you're saying tempts me somehow or other as I sit here listening to you..." Or what would happen to us many times is someone would listen to us and they'd believe everything we'd say, and then they would part from us, and go have dinner with their family or something and come back with a completely different attitude, almost as if to say, "Get out of here! You're upsetting my whole life. I don't want to see you again!" Or they would say, "I wish I could go with you, but I can't. I just can't destroy everything that I am responsible for here." Well, we were so busy going around naively telling what we were doing, that in this town of Brownsville, Texas – right down on the Mexican border – we thought, "Well, we're going to let our story out to the media. We're going to tell the media what we know about the Kingdom of Heaven and our having been sent from the Kingdom of Heaven to help people get from here to there." And so we visited with this reporter and we set up an appointment at a motel saying, "We've got the most exciting, unusual, interesting story to tell you that you have ever heard. So come and meet us at this motel room and hear this story." Little did we know that that reporter showed up, without telling us, with the sheriff and deputies, and helicopters, and squad cars, because he thought that we were going to tell him about a major drug deal. Because that was the most important story that he could think of that we could tell him. And when we were to meet with him, we suddenly wondered, "What is this crowd of people around here? Who are all these people"? And we were getting vibes that didn't feel too good to us. So, we ran out of the room and ran to our car, climbed in, and scooted down the street, because we couldn't figure out what was happening here.

Next thing you knew, the helicopter came in on us with its megaphone and was saying, "Pull off! Pull off!" I don't know what they were saying. We were scared to death. Then we pulled off and someone from the sheriff's department got in the car and said, "I want to see your ID." And then they said, "Well, we don't know what we've stopped you for, but we'll tell you in a minute." What they stopped us for was because they couldn't figure out why we were running. Because here they were at the motel with the reporter, and so they were just holding us while they were trying to figure out what they were holding us for. In the meantime, they did a check on the license plate on the car that we had rented. And yes, we had held the car past the point that it should be returned, though we had written a note saying to the charge card company and to the rental office, "Don't worry, we'll return the car soon and the bill will be paid, and we'll take good care of the car."

You can say, "That was really stupid and naive." Yes, but we were so captivated with our task that we had blinders on to Caesar's world. We were so caught up in our Father's world and convinced that our Father wouldn't let anything happen to us – that that bill would be paid and we didn't have to worry about it. So, what happens, we get thrown in jail because in the process of doing a search on us they learned that Ti's name had been turned in for possession of stolen credit cards – the credit card I mentioned to you earlier that someone had given us. And they had just neglected to remove that charge when we didn't use that card. It was an old charge, but was still in the books. The student by that time had returned home to husband many months prior to that. While we were held in the Brownsville jail, they checked that out and they found out that the charges had been dropped on the credit card. But in the process, they moved Ti to another jail closer to the court where that credit card charge would come up if it was still an active charge. And they moved me to St. Louis. Regarding the charge card that I had used – the rental car company had dropped the charges. But I hate to tell you that an ambitious prosecuting attorney in St. Louis thought, "This is an easy case. I can make some points. This guy is as guilty as he can be of a stolen car." So, here I went to jail in St. Louis. Well, within about 30 days, Ti was released from jail, and boy, did we learn a lot from that experience.

I stayed in jail and the little public defender kept coming and coming and coming, and saying, "Oh, this is a ricky-ticky case and we'll have you out of here in no time, time served." And I was thinking, "Goodness alive, what have we done! Nobody's going to believe what we have to say about the Truth because now we're criminals. We're socially unacceptable. And who on Earth will listen to somebody that has a record"? And the little public defender came in and said, "It's Christmas time and I think that the judge will release you on time served if you will plead guilty. Then we can get you out in a hurry." I'd been in there 6 months when my case went before the judge and I was sentenced to 4 months. So, they owe me 2, in a sense. I mean, as far as I'm concerned, I was in there 2 beyond my sentence, but I didn't get any credit for it. I'm teasing, but the point I'm making is that Ti and I didn't want to do anything that could be questionable because we didn't want a bad light shed upon our credibility if we had this Truth to offer. But the fact that Luci came in on us to see that we were so quickly discredited, also acted as insurance for our continued separation from the world.

We had a new rule now. It was: How tight can our rules be to not again be questioned as far as legality or to not get in a circumstance like this. Oh, I'm sure that if they want to find fault with you bad enough, they can find it or make it up. I'm sure the design has some loop holes in it that they could find fault if they wanted to badly enough. But I'm telling you how – and Jesus taught this – that "if you follow me," you will lose credibility, you will lose respect from those that you had respect from. I'm afraid the same is true today. If we end up being the instruments of your overcoming, of your transition from the human kingdom to our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, I'm afraid you will lose credibility. If there's a reason for it to be lost, you will lose it. It can assist you. It can become the positive. It can accelerate. It can ensure your separation. Even though the situation always exists, as I spoke of earlier, that we can say to any student, "If you don't want to be here, if you aren't happy here, go and try to recover whatever it is that you want to recover. We'll help you try to recover it." Because, don't forget, in the same way that when you go against our Father's Kingdom, His rule is that, "If you acknowledge that you've gone against Me, if you ask for forgiveness, then I'll take you back into My camp."

Luci has a counterfeit of those same rules. Luci says that in his world, if you come back and you apologize for having been a part of that "cult" and having been duped into that stupid venture of yours and if you come and say, "I did wrong, I'll prove to you that I'll do right, I'll re-assume my responsible position in this world," then he'll accept you back. He'll let you back in that fold. I'm afraid I slipped and said "Luci" again, and I said that I wouldn't. But you know I have to share with you that in my conversations with Ti about that usage of "Luci," I felt like Ti kept saying, "Oh come on, Do, don't make such an issue of it. If anybody named Lucille or Lucy hears you do that, they can take it in the right way." So, I'm not sure that every time I use it, even though I'll try not to, that I'll bother to correct it, because I'm going to assume that it only applies within the context. There's certainly nothing wrong with the name Lucy. Even Lucifer was "Prince of Light" or "Son of Light." The name was a beautiful name. It's the individual that went awry that had that name. Now, okay, who's next? Where do we go to on our next question?

Student: If I've seen it right, I think we've covered the questions on our first list, so if it seems right, would we go on to some of the questions we had about overcoming?

Do: Okay.

Student: Is overcoming a moral thing or is it a behavioral difference between the two kingdoms?

Do: I'm glad you asked that. I want to be sure that our listener understands what this question is. She says, "Is overcoming a moral thing"? What we mean by that is, "Is it right to do this, is it wrong to do that, from a moral point of view"? Well, the first illustration that comes to my mind is our classroom. Frequently, every element that we have that can be used as a tool in overcoming, every element that has been given to us, we use as a tool in overcoming. Let's take consuming or food or diet, as an illustration. We've used every diet in the book that you can think of. And for the period of time that we're using a particular diet, we do it seriously. We'd really think, "This is a super diet!" We used a vegetarian diet, we used a fruitarian diet – not just for a few days – we were vegetarians for a long, long, long time. We were fruitarians for quite a while. We did water fasts for an extended period of time. We've done juice fasts. We've done Hippocrates' diet. We've done Gersen's diet. We've done so many diets that, you know, we ran out of books of diets to do. And while we were using each one of them, we were devoted to it. We tried testing this and testing that. But we then began to realize that what we were really doing was liberating ourselves. We were liberating us from our own likes and dislikes. So it wasn't that this was a right item to consume and that was a wrong item to consume. But by not consuming something that we really were hooked on, and consuming something that we didn't particularly like, helped liberate us from our likes and dislikes. And that happened again and again and again. So the path of overcoming almost eventually works itself into a path of "follow the leader" more than a path of overcoming. Because it's not that necessarily "this is right" and "this is wrong," though it may be more right than something else, because it's more healthful. Eventually, it seems, that everything we consume has a degree of unhealthiness to our vehicle.

Well, here those cards go, and there's that 10-second one, and I don't know where this hour has gone, but we'll see you in our next session as we'll get more into overcoming.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 6 (60 Min)

Well, there you are again. This is the sixth session in our series, and we're trying something a little different. We felt like we got an instruction to just take a short break after our last session and come right back and continue, because that last session seemed to go in about 30 seconds. When one of our crew went over with that card to hold up "10 seconds," I knew that their clock was wrong, that certainly we hadn't gone through an hour that quickly. But, I hope that we're right, that we do have instruction to proceed. And so we're going to dive right in and pick up where we left off.

In the few minutes that we did break, a couple of things occurred to me as I thought back on what we discussed toward the end of that session, and I want to dive back into a couple of aspects of our last discussion. One is this: We talked about how the door has to be open only a brief time. I didn't quite finish the point that if you really play it out in your imagination, that if there were an organization out there that was saying, "Move out of your world, leave everything," and some literally and physically did that, when you hear more about the particulars of what overcoming is, you could see that if it ever caught on, it would have a significant effect on the structure of things. And it would certainly be a threat and be detrimental to the system that Satan, or Lucifer, has engaged for society at this point in an Age. Let's take, for example, in the churches that began in the New Testament, particularly in the Pauline letters, that as those churches continued to stay in the same town and to teach the Truth (the facts), the Truth had to begin to be watered down and watered down, in order for them to survive. Otherwise, every last follower and every little church would have disappeared. And in order to protect our endeavor of change, in the same way, in '75, we had to disappear in order to be isolated. In other words, we had to be separated out, or lifted out, in order to be free to do what we had to do. And the same thing would have to happen if you continue to take an interest in this. And the further we go, if it speaks to you, then you would recognize that, "Goodness, I'm going to be shortly, literally, physically dropping out...dropping out of the world."

Another point that I mentioned briefly was the martyrdom that occurred 2000 years ago. I said that it certainly isn't necessary as an aspect of overcoming, even though the possibility exists. But I feel that I must mention that religions that elevate such things as martyrdom are certainly against our Father's Kingdom. Our hope is that if this aspect of the harvest is successful, we will be able to do it without too much interference. But if interference is needed in order to bring us more quickly to where we have to become, in order to be survivable in the Kingdom of Heaven, then that's the whole issue that counts. Nothing can happen to us, even though from a human point of view, certainly, things can happen to us. They could hurt us. They could throw us in jail. They could kill someone's vehicle, I mean if it got that violent. Hopefully, the culture we live in here at the end of the Age is a little bit more civilized than that, and we'll put to test, I'm sure, the freedom of speech and the freedom of religion and the freedom to worship God as you choose. It will be put to the test again, no matter how short a time the door is open. We're quite aware that that test will be out there again.

All right, on to the question that was asked as we closed out that last hour, "Is overcoming a moral issue or is it a behavioral difference"? We talked about how it's not particularly a moral issue, even though some things might be more right than other things because they are less harmful. And, in a sense, anything that is behavior not becoming our Father's Household, is immoral – it's wrong. But, in another sense, it's simply not an acceptable way of life. The lifestyle in the Kingdom of Heaven has no place for it; it does not exist. Therefore, if it does not exist, then it needs to be fluffed off, or it needs to be overcome. It needs to be risen above.

Let's say that in the Kingdom of Heaven, since babies do not come in through woman's womb because they – the members in our Father's Kingdom – are neither male nor female, and they seem to all be about the same age, then to still have a mindset at reproductive activity or sexuality, certainly, or even connecting with the family in that way, that is inappropriate behavior. Therefore, in that sense, it's wrong if you are a potential student, if you are in a position in your growth, if you have come to the point of wanting to overcome the world (which I feel that if you're still with us in a positive way, you more than likely have come), and you're probably standing outside that vehicle right now having a hard time with this because "Everything seemed to be going pretty well until I heard this. Now I can't sleep at night. I'm being shattered." And you're probably more indulgent in everything than you ever were before because you just don't know what's going on. And if that's the case, I'm afraid the earmarks might be there, that you might be marked, so to speak, by our Father's Kingdom to be a possible recipient of this.

But just because our Father's Kingdom gives you that gift doesn't ensure it. You still have to pursue it. You have to exert the labor. You have to survive. You have to develop the muscle. You have to be the one to make the choice to continue asking and to move forward, step by step. And nearly every lesson in the lesson plan comes with a difficult hurdle to make, a moment of unpleasantness, at least a moment. Nearly every lesson, not all, but many do.

Okay, who's next?

Student: Well, in discussing the particulars of overcoming, do you want to start with separateness?

Do: Yes, I'd like to go back to separateness. You know, in a previous session, we talked about how "death" is synonymous with "misinformation," "Truth" is "life." If you really went to the root meaning of the Hebrew word "death," it would be "separation from God." The actual, realistic definition of the term as it was intended when the language was created by our Father's Kingdom, and as members of our Father's Kingdom related to those human beings who used the Hebrew language, "death" meant "separation." And separation is, of course, synonymous with overcoming the world. I separate from the world. What we're trying to overcome is separation from our Father's Kingdom. We have been separate. Don't forget, what is it that's coming to life here? It's the soul. Where did the soul come from? Planet Earth? No. The soul was created by our Heavenly Father, created by the Kingdom of God. It was nurtured by Him; it came only from Him. So, in that sense every soul that finds its place in His Household is returning home, like E.T., wanting to go home. If that soul begins to awaken, it knows "I'm going home, even though I don't remember anything about home. It's been so long, and I've been so tiny and so insignificant. And now I'm going to know what home is like, even though I've been separated...how many thousands of years have I been separated"!

More than likely, those of you who would choose to separate at this time and let us assist you in your birth, in your going through this canal to the other side, the pangs that you would experience would be unequal to anything that you have ever experienced before. And you can realistically know that – this sounds like we're trying to set you up to feel good about yourself, but that's not really the case – you came from the Kingdom of Heaven to do this. You have been saved; you've been set aside in our Father's Kingdom. You also got a briefing before you left on what you might expect. You got some assistance in picking out a vehicle that you could associate with to some degree, even from inception or conception. And now you have to take over that vehicle, dominate it. The soul has to come to life. The flesh has to become, in a sense, dead, have no voice, just be a living mechanism that will permit you to do what you want to do within the bounds of a lesson ground. So, separation from our Father is the number one, top-of-the-list type thing of overcoming. We're trying to destroy separation. We're trying to get back to our Creator, get back to our only real Father.

Now, our Father's Kingdom, in this particular Age, did associate with the Jews and later with those who followed Jesus (like we've talked about before). Remember way back, in the early parts of the Age when our Father's Kingdom even hovered over the camp, in a spacecraft, or a cloud, and related to them and gave instructions to Moses and to the priests. And the Israelites saw a fire by night, and they saw a cloud by day. It would move and it would follow them where they would go, and they would have a place where they could go and sit and concentrate on the lessons that they were receiving. So, in a sense, our Father's Kingdom actually had a Member from that Kingdom, in a vehicle from that Kingdom, nurturing them, taking them through certain lessons.

But believe it or not, the human beings that our Heavenly Father's Kingdom was associating with very quickly lost sight of the value of that closeness, and the importance of that closeness, and wanted their own way. "I want this to eat." "Well, I'm tired of eating this. I want to eat that. I need to do this...." And so pretty soon the Member says, "Well, I can't tell you what to do. You have to make choices. You're no good to our Father's Kingdom if I force you to do something. I can lay before you what would be best for you, but then you have to make the choice. And if you insist on compromising it, then I'll help you even pick your compromise in the least harmful way to you." And so, that whole business from Egypt and into the Promised Land and all was just making one compromise after another for the sake of the ones who continued to turn away from the will of the Member of our Father's Kingdom that was seeing them through that process.

Let's go on to our next aspect, ok?

Student: You touched on this, but what about independence, doing what you want to do when you want to do it?

Do: Well, I don't feel that I've really touched on it, because boy, is that a booger! If there ever is an influence that's certainly high up in the hard-to-overcome area, that's one that's difficult for many individuals. Lucifer certainly knows how to get a grasp in that one, because that's one of his strong points. That's one he likes to keep you thinking you are happy in and are doing what you want to do when you want to do it. Once you start in the overcoming process, you don't have that freedom. You have the freedom to walk out the door anytime you want to. But when someone is assigned the task of taking you through a birth canal from the human kingdom into our Father's Kingdom, it's not like the one who took the tribes from Egypt into Israel, making compromises because they kept insisting upon it. It's a different timetable. And the Member from our Father's Kingdom who is a Representative associating with you in that transition isn't willing to compromise that much and does not get instruction to compromise that much. They compromise a little and then they tighten the belt again. Because the object is: we have a short time to get a long distance. And in order to take advantage of the short time, then it does require very accelerated forward motion. And that accelerated forward motion does not leave the door open to compromise.

I can remember that in that Wyoming campground that I referred to, after those 9 months of running around holding meetings, all of a sudden Ti and I had to start saying, "We can't get anywhere. We can't have our little meetings. We can't have our sessions, if we're just so disorganized that this bunch is running off to the laundromat at this hour and that bunch is running off to the grocery store at that hour, and this one is doing that." So, we had to have a structure, for the sake of getting somewhere and having some instruction, and making a laboratory classroom out of it, and changing our vernacular and changing our habits and changing our ways. And that structure then immediately became an infringement on "doing what I want to do when I want to do it." And so the individual that was still dealing a lot with, "I need that pizza, we haven't had pizza for two weeks, or we haven't had pizza for three months, and we haven't been to the picture show, or when we do go to the picture show, it's not the one I really wanted to see, or I really feel like I need so much of this to consume, or so much of that, and I don't like okra, or whatever it is that I found on the menu yesterday."

To a large degree, the path of overcoming is one of liberating you from structure, and in a sense at this point you could kind of compare overcoming this world to a preparation program for "God's Astronaut Program." If we're going to a place where you can't just run off when you want to run off, have what you want to have, and do what you want to do, then you have to know that you have control. You don't need to have your pizza when you want it. You don't need to "cat" around for a couple of hours at night and run your car up and down Main Street. You don't need to do this or that. You have grown up to the point where your only concern is being a crew member, being a part of a crew. And whatever the crew is assigned to, whatever the crew wants to do, insignificant or significant, you are "crew minded." Instructions are given to the crew, and you as a crew member are crew minded. So, one of the major difficulties that happens is this difficulty of getting rid of what I want to do when I want to do it. Don't forget, it isn't really what you want to do when you want to do it.

This brings up an interesting point. In a sense, even though we're the little guy who has control of the option button, and because we have free will as to what we listen to and what we don't listen to, in a sense, we're "mediums." We're all "mediums." I don't mean like mediums in the sense of the Spiritualist church or the New Age mediums, but I'm not condemning them. They're at levels of pursuit of trying to improve their knowledge. But in a sense, we are "mediums." What's funny is that when we are in the world, since there are so many discarnates out there – so many individuals outside of bodies – they use our body to do what they want to do. A lot of times you've seen illustrations of that in a person. Psychologists and psychiatrists have written books about it, and there have been television shows about it – multiple personalities. Even to the degree that if a vehicle permits it, and if the soul that is supposed to be more strongly identifying with that vehicle permits it, those individuals who are in the discarnate condition will even come in and identify their name, and they'll be wow! all these multiple personalities.

When Jesus said, 'When your eye is single, your whole body is full of light.' And that means when there's only one soul in there – there's only one pillowcase – it's only you. So, it wasn't really you who liked to "run and do" when you wanted to do it. It was you permitting others to use you to run when they wanted you to run and indulge in what they wanted to indulge in, because they could only get feeling and satisfaction from participating in your vehicle, and in a sense, cohabiting in your vehicle with you, in order to get their desire taken care of. So, in that sense, we're mediums. Our desire is to become vessels – another word, same thing – for the mind of our Father's Kingdom, but certainly not in the sense that humans interpret "mediumship." Even though we would like to be able to kind of get in some unconscious or trance state and say to our Older Member, "Just use us, I'll disappear... You use us...." He says, "No, that's ridiculous. We're not that stupid. Come on, now. If you ask Me, I'll feed you information. If you're asking the right thing and it's information that I have instruction to feed you, then I'll give it to you." And in that sense, we are expected to grow up a little bit, and understand how that mechanism of information works.

What's our next question?

Student: Well, in overcoming independence, what about needing recognition or attention?

Do: Okay, in a sense this "wanting to do what I want to do when I want to do it" is a kind of independence. We said separateness is kind of top-of-the-list, and we'll make independence maybe somewhere close to the top of the list of something that needs to be overcome. And you said independence, is it also....

Student: Like needing recognition, or ego.

Do: Ego! That's good. Independence. Ego. I'll say that, believe it or not, even that, for the most part, is not you, but it's someone from the other side (a discarnate) who has not overcome wanting humanness, or it could be you, because you're still listening to that. A lot of times we listen to the influences that we're still into. So, we can't really blame the influence, because anytime we listen to an influence, then we obviously haven't overcome it ourselves or we wouldn't be listening to the influence, would we? So, independence, or ego, if I need attention, if I need recognition, if I want to amount to something, then these are the qualities that were taken from the human kingdom, even into our Father's Kingdom long, long, long, long time ago by someone called Lucifer. He still couldn't get his eye off of himself, wanting to be somebody, being impatient with his assigned tasks, his being a member of a crew, his having to wait for instruction to come down, and he wanted to be somebody. He wanted to develop. And then that meant that he didn't trust in the One who was taking him through development. A lot of overcoming is a matter of patience – a matter of waiting. I mean, we spend a lot of time waiting, learning to overcome being disturbed by waiting or threatened by waiting. But independence is certainly synonymous with separateness. It's certainly synonymous with ego, selfishness, wanting attention, wanting to have identity, wanting to have its own flock, wanting to have its own corporation. So, yes, if that's something you've had to deal with, that you have not overcome, and most have to deal with it to a degree when they are in the human kingdom, then this is another on our list of helping you understand some of what you are up against if you still need that recognition, or if you still need that independence, that separateness.

What's next on our list?

Student: Well, what about rebelliousness?

Do: I'm afraid that I would pretty much treat rebelliousness as just a side "symptom" of independence. Rebelliousness is just a next step of independence. It says, "I wanted to do it and you didn't let me do it, so I'm going to rebel." And, unfortunately, then, you find yourself on the threshold of the Next Level saying to you, "I can't force you to do it. This isn't the name of the game, of forcing someone to do it. I can't make you, make you, make you do it. You have to make me, make me, make me rehelp you, rehelp you, rehelp you." The initiation has to come on the part of the seeker. Repeatedly, repeatedly. If the thirst is weak, boy! are we in trouble. If the desire to change is weak, are we in trouble, because the teachers don't get anywhere. When they see us going slow and they try to impose it on us, it just doesn't move. The movement forward occurs in direct proportion to the thirst of the individual, the desire for change, the desire of speed in that change, the muscle exerted to control that change, to rise out of that desire and discard it, and look for something better and be ready for it. And say, "Here I am. I'm ready for the next step, and the next instruction."

Of course, you'd be surprised. Those old tests keep coming back. The Next Level sends them back to us to be sure that we've really licked them and to give us another little chance to prove that we have. We can re-examine them. Sometimes they come back even stronger. We thought, "Wow! I thought I'd gotten past that one and didn't have to deal with that anymore." Then, some night, in the middle of the night, or in total surprise, you have something return that you thought you had really overcome and it comes as such a shock. But pretty soon you get wise, and you know that it's going to return, and you're prepared for it. But you don't think about it. If you fear it and you think about it, you're inviting it. So, you have to block it. It doesn't exist. Don't even acknowledge it. It isn't there. And then when it comes, and you're surprised, you deal with it. You get rid of it. And then you learn to be quicker in dealing with it – quicker and quicker and quicker. At first you might make the mistake of hearing its argument. Then soon you hear less of its argument and less of its argument. And as you progress, you even begin to "smell" it before you can even identify its argument, and you put up a block for it. You put a big old Yale lock on that door before it gets to the door, because you could smell that particular quality or characteristic returning that you had once listened to.

What's next on our list?

Student: It occurred to me when you were talking about independence – will our viewers be left feeling a void if they get rid of their independent thinking?

Do: No, I'm glad you brought that up. Yes, that's good. You know, when you run around in the human world, all of these discarnates that are using you to be their medium, and they're having their own pleasures through you, are also really making a place for you in the world. I mean, they give you identity. They give you success and careers. For example, it does not mean that if a spirit is in a vehicle and that spirit very quickly is a child prodigy at the piano that that spirit was necessarily a good pianist in the lifetime. That spirit may have had just a little bit of piano experience in a previous lifetime. And then the spirit of a real proficient pianist says, "I've found a vehicle (body) that has enough proficiency that I think I can hop into, and boy can we go." And then does that vehicle, and that spirit, get excited, because here comes a pianist (discarnate) in and this person has developed into just an astounding success as a pianist. Actually, any of those spirits can take possession if they want to. A lot of them don't really want to take possession. They just want to use a vehicle. Because once you take possession, then you're responsible for it, and you've also endured running everybody else off – all these other cohabitating influences that were trying to utilize that soul. But that independence thing, like I said, really wasn't independence. It was these other influences – these other discarnates – using you to accomplish what they want to accomplish. So, to answer the question, as you run those guys off, you begin to lose your talents, you begin to lose your identity. Everyone arrives at a condition where they say, "I just don't know who I am anymore. I've just lost everything." And even though that can seem so traumatic to them, it's the best place they can find themselves. Because at that point, they can turn right around and say, "I must be succeeding in this task of overcoming."

What do I want to be? I want to be putty. I want to be putty in the hands of my Heavenly Father's Kingdom. That's what I said I craved. Now, here I'm put to the test. Do I crave that? Do I care about I, I, I...or do I want only to be a servant? Do I even want to be a servant, or do I just want to be any servant? Do I want to be available? Am I satisfied with being available and not interrupting, not causing problems, but being someone who can contribute? Maybe if all I can contribute is to mix the batter for the cake, then can I do it without causing problems with the other crew members? Can I do it in a right relationship with them? Or do I want to shine somehow?

All this effort that's been made by metaphysicians and certain New Age groups to have life readings and to try to help people identify with their past, I'm afraid, does more harm than it does good. It doesn't do any harm to know that you've more than likely had a past and it might have been a lengthy one, but if I connect you with that past and try to bring it into realism, I can also turn on old buttons that you worked hard to turn off. I can remind you of your alcoholism, or I can bring it back into place, or I can remind you of whatever it was that you worked so hard to overcome. And knowing that past is of no significance. There's only one past that is of significance to you, and that is your past relationship with your Heavenly Father, and His relationship with this kingdom, His relationship with His Representatives, your relationship with His Representatives, His Kingdom, and anyone else that was associated with His Kingdom that you have come into contact with – that's the only past that is of any significance to you.

I believe that Ti and I can safely say that we cannot remember, nor do I expect that we will remember when we're back in the activity of our Father's Kingdom, that we will see a posting of a piano concert anywhere, or that we'll see a posting of an NFL football game, or of the Presbyterians, or of any other profession that I could think of that exists in this kingdom level and does not exist in that one. Now, I'm not condemning those things. They were lesson grounds – they were stepping stones – they were places to get into, learn from, and get out of, and to rise above, to see through, to get new values and see that they weren't as valuable as you thought they were. A real irony here is that from our Father's point of view, the most intelligent – or what humans would call the most intelligent – people, and the most schooled people, and the most really scholarly people are most usually from our Father's point of view the most ignorant. Frequently, the person who has no schooling at all, who might at this moment be a street person or a wino or live in the sticks in the Appalachian Mountains, but sit out on that little mountain and talk to their God all the time and wonder why it is that they feel guilty about some of the conduct that goes on in their life and in their household, and sometimes the most simple people that deal with the most simple problems get closer. And they usually are simple people dealing with simple problems also because of their relationship with their Father. Don't forget that the growth pattern is: When I ask, He usually presents me with something that I could see as a problem or I can see as a positive and move forward from that.

What's next on our overcoming list?

Student: If you think we've covered independence, for the moment, shall we move on to overcoming sensuality?

Do: I'm sure we'll come back to independence, but sensuality is such a big, big picture, and it is so separate from our Father's Kingdom. It is so inappropriate for our Father's Kingdom, because, as we have discussed, the reproductive system is not existent in our Father's Kingdom. Of course, sensuality has many aspects, if you consider all of the senses – the emotions, the moods, the needing of affection, the needing of attention – all those are aspects of sensuality. And so is the indulgence in stimulants, in needing your coffee, or needing your alcohol, or needing your booze, or whatever it is that you like to hide in. But, let's narrow sensuality down for a few minutes to sexuality, because it's certainly as major an issue for humans, if not the area, that Satan works the hardest to keep you addicted to. I don't know of a human that isn't addicted to sensuality and sexuality. Of course, if they weren't, they wouldn't be a human, so I'm pretty safe in saying that.

Now, I must in all fairness question what I just said, because there might be some, certainly some monks and nuns and hermits and ones in all kinds of different religions, who keep that intact. I have to talk about something here for a moment that I feel is abominable to the Kingdom of Heaven. You know, I've read of groups that are pretty esoteric, pretty hidden, like certain Essene groups and certain monastic orders and certain isolated religions, that would even go so far as to stimulate their sexuality, as if by stimulating their sexuality it somehow or another sent that energy force, that kundalini, into the brain and caused more capacity for enlightenment or development. That's a counterfeit of the truth. It is true that as you restrict yourself and separate from sensuality and sexuality, and as you close that door totally, and those hormones stop acting in your vehicle, and even when they act, you don't hear them and you don't give in to them in the least, it is true that then you move into a greater capacity for higher knowledge and higher understanding and more muscle and more strength to deal with things other than sensuality and sexuality. But the counterfeit of that is to, in some sort of ridiculous way, stimulate sensuality or sexuality for some kind of spiritual trip that is hideous to our Father's Kingdom. That's a perversion of the way control was designed to come. I hate to, but I must address that directly. That is not the truth. Even though, certainly, Ti and I investigated it – Ti and I investigated it seriously. We studied it as we studied everything else during the period of our awakening, and it was made so clear to us that it was not of our Father's Kingdom.

Now, sensuality...I think the next place to begin on this is probably to discuss love, because Satan has humans confuse love with sexuality. And love in our Father's House has no relationship with sexuality. One illustration that was given to us to think about was: if you're from my Father's House, you cannot imagine yourself in a position of being in the act of sexuality in full, broad daylight, and while in the act look up at your Heavenly Father and say, "I know that I am only expressing your love." When you become a candidate for our Father's Kingdom, in a sense, our Father then begins to get your eyes focused on His Kingdom and says, "I'm a jealous God. For a period of time, you might have thought you loved Me more than you loved those other things, but if you're going to get into My House, you have to love only Me, you can't love anything else out there. You love only Me. I don't have sex," He says. "I'm not a sexual creature. I don't even have the plumbing for it. We don't do that kind of thing. Therefore, it's obviously not an expression of love, as far as I'm concerned."

For a while in our classroom, after Ti first left her vehicle and I was still trying to get out of the shock of it and help the students through the shock of it, if I was gone from them for a period of time and I returned, I would hug them and try to show my affection for them. And after a while, I began to feel, "This is inappropriate. We need to get past this. This is less than right. It may not have done any harm for a period of time, but it's inappropriate. The band-aid might have worked, but we don't need the band-aid any longer." That doesn't mean that we don't love each other. We do love each other if our Father desires for us to love each other, and to the degree that is right from His eyes for us to love each other. But we don't love each other certainly in any physical nature where we need to touch or we need to hold hands or we need to hug or we need to kiss. We don't need those things. And it's certainly safer to avoid them during this more advanced position of overcoming, because in some we might innocently retrigger something. If they were permitted to engage in touching or hugging or even kissing on the cheek, it would re-engage something that they have worked very hard to overcome. So, we certainly don't want to re-engage an old addiction. And withdrawing from the drug of sensuality and sexuality is as difficult a withdrawal, if not more difficult, than any other withdrawal. It's tough. And Satan keeps sending it back again and again and again, to test you. Because those hormones keep being stimulated, even by things you might consume, by a commercial that you might see on television. I mean this day and time, from toothpaste to trousers, everything is done based upon the sexual appeal of something. There's hardly a commercial on TV that isn't based on sexual appeal.

So, sensuality has so many aspects to it. But remember, since it is not a behavior that even exists in our Father's Kingdom, then to someone who's trying to get from here to there, it's something we have to go through the withdrawal of, we have to overcome, we have to rise above, we have to have in control, and we get help having it in control. We don't need to fall off the wagon. We learn to not even listen to it. We learn to quickly turn our head if a magazine catches our eye in a supermarket that has pictures on it that would have triggered the vehicle in a previous time, then we quickly don't see it. If a television show or a movie has a moment of sensuality, you know, it's almost as if a movie can hardly hit the marketplace if it doesn't have a certain amount of scenes in it of sensuality or sexuality. And if you've really advanced in the process of overcoming, you're very sensitive to those vibrations, and you're very uncomfortable with those vibrations. You have to quickly just turn away. You don't need to stand up and wave a flag or shout at the audience and say, "Oh, turn that film off." But you certainly need to have control of your eyes, not let the vehicle see it, not let it even play internally in your head.

When Jesus said, 'When someone looks upon someone lustfully, they've committed the act,' that meant that there's no difference. So, if we do that act even in our head, we certainly haven't overcome the act. This is one step; we're not doing the act physically. But, that's just one step. Another step is not even permitting those thoughts, those images, to come into our head. So, it's a big item. It's a major item. It has many, many facets and many lessons. Now, I've mentioned things like movies and magazines, and the fact that we don't just go where we want to when we want to go. You could think that we live a pretty sterile existence, but it's only as sterile as we like it. I don't mean for you to misunderstand that. We view a lot of television, we go to movies, we have a lot of variety in the things that we consume. We have a lot of times when we sit and have lessons and meetings, even when we're broken into separate groups in different places. We have all kinds of things given to us that serve as the vehicle for our lessons.

It's true that if we have to deal with a lot of restlessness, then we have to get control of that. We have books to read, not only Bibles, but all kinds of books to read. Just about everything that you can think of, but certainly not books that would trigger or turn on old weaknesses that we're working so hard to overcome. Even though some of the books we've had might have some pages in it that we may skip over. That is the same as when different ones in the class will climb in a vehicle (car) and go to the movie. They know that they can see that movie and they can turn off a scene. But they also do censor the movie to the degree that if the movie has too much of that in it, they consider it off their list. They don't want to see it. It's not worth it to them.

Oh, while I'm thinking about a movie, I have to bring up that the class recently saw the movie "Hook," and it was interesting. Of course, Hook represents evil, or Satan, and Peter Pan represents the good guy. When Hook had Peter's rightful son in his presence, he wanted really to see if he couldn't get Peter's children to see him as father and to imitate him. He didn't have much success with Peter's daughter. She couldn't quite stop doing anything but missing Peter. But because the son didn't really understand much about Peter as his father, the son for awhile "bought into" Hook, because Hook gave him so much attention and elevated him so, as does Satan. He gives you a lot of attention. He elevates you so, and he even lets you imitate him. He can give you all kinds of success and authority and power and things of this world. But as soon as Peter came back in the picture, and Peter's son really began to see Peter for what he was, the son apologized to his father, and he said, "I'm yours. Hook is not my father." And he quickly realized how much he had gone astray. And, of course, Peter felt guilty, because Peter felt like he hadn't really let his son know him. That what his son knew of him wasn't enough to win him. So, Peter certainly understood how his son could go for Hook. Well, I'm sorry. I had to bring that illustration up. It was a good one. And the movie had a lot of good parallel lessons in it as far as the conflict between good and evil are concerned.

What's next on our little list? Were there some particulars about sensuality that we were going to bring up?

Student: Well, yes, would you want to say something about costume, and jewelry?

Do: (Laughs) Okay. This gets into an area where some of you could say, "Oh, those who are with this Representative, or with this group, or with this cult, seem to have an identity." We have a kind of identity that is trying to not have another kind of identity. Since we're moving into a world that is genderless, then we try to not be associated with the gender of our vehicles. Females are not trying to look like males. Males are not trying to look like females. They're trying to be neither. They're trying to be both – in the purest sense, but not in the human sense. So, what do we do? An aspect of human female consciousness would be to use a certain amount of makeup, tend to the hair, go to the beauty parlor, spend time on the rollers, earrings, jewelry, tight waist, short skirt. In the same way the male consciousness would be to wear tight blue jeans, tight belt, tight shirt, cowboy boots, and be Mr. Macho or whatever it is. We are trying to have no masculine characteristics, no feminine characteristics, but in a sense, still sensitive and soft, but neither male nor female – genderless.

So, it is true that members of the class cut their hair in the way that's easiest to care for. The class members cut each other's hair so they don't have to go to the human beauty parlor; they can have their own barbershop wherever they are. Some are assigned the task of barbering because they do less "butchering" in the process than the others. Even though whenever I'm with them I question, "Who did that haircut? Who did so-and-so's hair?" (Laughs) "The neck's not tapered very well." But they do have a haircut that is pretty much neither male nor female and one that they can handle and is easy to care for. They can wash their hair every day, it's clean, it's off their neck, they don't have to give it any attention, and it doesn't attract any attention out there in the world.

As far as the clothing they wear, they wear pretty much unisex-type clothes, that certainly aren't tight fitting, and they wear a loose shirt. Sometimes the shirt is bought in the store in a department that sells items for both male and female. And sometimes whether you go into Marshall's or Ross' or some of the discount stores, you might find the same shirt in the women's department that you'd find in the men's department. The only thing that's changed is their sizes. But they want loose-fitting things that do not accentuate the waist or the hips or any shape of the vehicle. They don't need to color themselves. They don't need lipstick or rouge. They try to stay clean and neat and well taken care of and try not to vibrate attracting anyone, but they also don't want to vibrate repelling anyone. They just want to be neutral. They want to be just objective. They try to control that vibration. And so, certainly it affects the items of jewelry, makeup, haircuts, clothing. And as hard as they try to kind of be unidentified in that way, whenever they go someplace and then they go back to that place again – for example, if a partnership goes to a market, then another partnership goes to that same market – inevitably, if they go to the same checkout counter, the person says, "Well, I saw you here just yesterday!" Even though they weren't the same ones at all, it was someone else in the classroom. Their vibration seems to be so different from the humans that they are mistaken for each other frequently. We try so hard not to have the clothes look alike, and in spite of our effort, the class members all seem to look alike in the eyes of others, and so we try to work hard at not doing that, or at least knowing that that possibility exists.

But, you have to examine – you have to say – "Do I need to cling to my femininity? Do I need to cling to my masculinity?" Because if you do, then you're not really ready to make this transition from the human kingdom into our Father's Kingdom. If you go back and read your scriptures, you'll find that there is no marrying, there is no male nor female, so it is a genderless Kingdom.

I'm glad we had a chance to get started a little bit in some of these other aspects of overcoming. We've given you a lot to think about. You know, as I look about, as I think about our previous session, as I go over it in my head, I know that we weeded out quite a few who watched that session, and of those who watch this session, we'll probably weed out quite a few more. And we keep wondering where is it going to end? Will we weed them out so that no one responds? And if that's what happens, if we're doing the will of our Father, then that's all that matters to us. We're not getting any points by how many might listen to us and follow us. We only want to do what is instruction from our Father's Kingdom.

I see those cards. That last one said 10 seconds, and that one now says 5. We'll see you in our next session and we're glad that we're here.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 7 (60 Min)

Welcome to our seventh session. These are going on and on, aren't they? If you noticed on the double exposure at the beginning of today's program, two students are working with me again today, serving as teleprompters or helping me fill in the parts of the big picture that I might leave out. Let's just get going and start with the first question.

Student: Who was speaking when Jesus said, "I will come again"?

Do: Boy, that's a big question. A picture comes in when that question is addressed that is monumental. We must address that question. Who was speaking when Jesus said...or another way to say it, who was saying, "I will come again"? There are a number of reasons that that issue is so important to us as we anticipate His return, or our Father's return – because we want to be ready and we don't want to make the mistake of wrong identity. I believe that in an earlier tape we discussed that you might be disappointed if you are anticipating some spacecraft coming over the Mount of Olives or someplace in the Middle East or in the Israel area, and it hovers there, or it rests over that mountain, and an individual steps out and comes down through the air with a flowing white robe and flowing long hair, looking like the picture that artists have depicted of Jesus and shows his scars and says, "Here am I, Jesus." Now I believe we've said something that some of you certainly could respond to negatively, or feel that it is blasphemous for us to say. I'm afraid that would be a trick that Lucifer, or Satan, would pull to have you satisfied with something that you're anticipating. Well, what did Jesus say? Not only did Jesus say, "I will come again," He also said, "if someone says that 'I'm over here,' or if 'He (Jesus) is over there,' or 'He's hidden there,' or 'He is on this mountain,' don't believe him." Well, what will we do? One says, "I'm coming again," and another one says, "If somebody says that He's there, don't believe him." So, how do we understand that? How do we put that together? Well, I'm going to skip to something that we're dealing with right now in our classroom and in our preparation of these sessions for you.

Yesterday we taped Session 7 and Session 8, and you heard me a moment ago say, "Welcome to our seventh session." We're re-recording 7 and 8 because I felt that in addressing Ti and asking Ti in the night, "There was something wrong with one of those sessions. What was it? What was wrong"? Around 3 am or before, the picture began to clarify in my head. I certainly feel that it was my Older Member clarifying it, helping me see that "I" had come in to the picture in an issue that we brought up in the seventh session. Therefore, it was necessary to do the seventh session over again, or it was certainly our choice to do it, and we chose to do it because we don't like to be off track.

We've talked about, before, that when I comes in, then I can lead astray. When I comes in, if it's I, Do, or if it's I, this vehicle, or if it's the word I being used and it is something different from what my Father, my Older Member, would say through me, then I'm off track. Now what was it that we did that we considered that was worthy of our retaping those sessions? I want to explain that to you now, because it hurt me. It meant a lot to me that I could so easily go astray and not realize it. What happened was that on that seventh session, I shared with the audience some of the overcoming experiences that this vehicle had experienced, some of the addictions that it had had in the world, and some of the difficulty it had had in overcoming those addictions, thinking – and I guess that was my trouble – that by helping you see some of the things this vehicle had dealt with that it might assist you as a possible overcomer to not think so poorly of yourself if you might have had those same addictions to deal with or similar ones to deal with. And yet it was made clear to me in the night, that for me to slip into a position where I am addressing something that this vehicle or even this soul might have dealt with, is to separate from my Older Member. When I separate from my Older Member, at the same time I separate from my Older Member's Older Member. I separate from our Heavenly Father. I separate from the Kingdom of Heaven.

Anytime I comes in and it's an identity, and my mouth is being used, and I'm discussing something that is unique to this vehicle, or unique to Do, or unique to whatever name tag was placed on this soul prior to its existence, even when identified as Do, then for the time that I am discussing that identity, my Older Member, my Heavenly Father through my Older Member, is not speaking through me because that was not the truth for them. If I speak of something in my past that was not my Older Member's past, then I am separate for the time that I am discussing it. I'll try not to repeat myself too much here, but maybe I need to continue to repeat in order to try to help you understand the complexity of this issue and the importance of this issue.

We discussed a little bit how in a sense we're all mediums. There are two minds that can flow through us – the mind of our Father's Kingdom, and the mind of Satan's Kingdom – and we try to sort it out. We try to move more so that only the mind of our Father's Kingdom is speaking, or certainly get into the percentages where the majority of that mind that is speaking is from our Father's Kingdom. And then slowly we identify more and more what is not of our Father's Kingdom, and we abort it, and we abort it, and we separate from it.

A very key issue in separating from what is not of our Father's Kingdom and destroying identity was pointed out to me in the night, in this particular lesson that we are experiencing, of how I went awry. For me to remember and relate to – even if I did it in my own head and did not voice it – something that this vehicle experienced or that Do experienced, or the individual that this soul might have been labeled prior to Do, is to separate from my Father. My Father cannot say through me, "at one time my vehicle experienced this..." I don't know what my Father's vehicle experienced. So, who's talking? It's obviously not my Father. It's not my Older Member. It's not my Older Member's Older Member. It's somebody else, and therefore, for the time that I am identifying with that, then it is not my Heavenly Father, my Older Member speaking. I am not a vessel – I am a separate identity.

When Jesus tried to tell them that the Father speaks through Him, and that He and His Father are one, He was trying to help them understand this same process that we're discussing right now. And I'm so glad that it was pointed out to me and I was reminded how easily I can get off the track in that way. Now, if I am going to abide by the rules of overcoming, one rule that is addressed in overcoming is: when someone begins an overcoming task as a student of overcoming, we leave the past behind. Whatever we have been is left behind.

We see clearly that we have to go a step further than leaving it behind. We have to actually forget it. We have to be unable to remember it. If in truth when Jesus told his disciples that when you have acknowledged something and you have asked forgiveness for your separateness, that the slate is clean, it is wiped, it is no longer there. If it is no longer there, then I can't remember it. If the slate is really clean, it is not there. If I remember it and dredge it up, I bring it back, I relate to it, and for the time I'm relating to it, I am separate. I am certainly not a vessel, and I am identifying with my past. In a sense, I'm almost triggering old responses, turning on old addictions. Now that may be an exaggeration, but the possibility exists. That's the reason it's so deadly for a student of overcoming to reflect on their past or reflect on what they have gone through – reflect on their addictions.

So, serving in the function as a teacher or even if these students serve in a function as a teacher for you in the future, they don't want to know your past. They want to know nothing of what indulgences you have had. And they will encourage you to not only put it behind you, but to make a point to erase it, forget it. If you believe them when they say, "Don't identify with it any longer. It is not you. I don't want to know of it," then why should you want to know of it? I mean if my Older Member, my Heavenly Father, my Older Member's Older Member says, "I don't want to know of it! It's not me. If you want to identify with it, then for the time you are identifying with it, you're knocking Me out of the picture," then why would I want to cling to it? Even now I feel that we haven't adequately covered this, and I hope that we can come back to it.

In the early manuscripts of religious material the names of members of our Father's Kingdom were secret. They were unspeakable. They were just identifying positions that only they knew and understood because they did not want to have names. It's also associated with what we will talk further about as crew members, because when we are a crew member, we don't want to be unique. We don't want to have or need special attention or need special scheduling. We want to only be a cog in the wheel. When I say only – a cog in the wheel is a very significant item when you're in our Father's Kingdom serving as a member of a crew. But I'm afraid that I would be suspicious of anyone that would come and say, "I am Jesus, here I am." And Jesus warned them of that. He said, "Don't believe it if anybody says that they are me." That should make us recognize, oops, He's not going to come identifying Himself as that individual. He's going to come as He tried to do before – identifying only as a vessel, or not identifying at all, but merely being a vessel, and therefore only His Father is speaking. Only His Father can speak those things that are true, and would represent His Father's experiences.

Now that doesn't mean we need to ignore all that Jesus experienced, because much if not most of what Jesus said and Jesus experienced was His Father speaking. Let's say, for example, if Jesus made reference to being the son of Mary and Joseph, or "this is my mother," was that the mother of His Father? Was Mary the mother of His Father? No, Mary wasn't the mother of His Father. So, for the moment He made that reference, it was a vehicular reference, it was not His Father speaking. Therefore, He was, for that moment, less than a vessel. I'm not criticizing Him. I do that more than He did it, I would imagine, and I am learning. Look at what just happened to us, we just simply had this lesson within the past 24 hours. It was only this morning that this lesson was clarified to me so much. Ultimately, if I have your eye at any point on this vessel, even identifying with Do, then I am not succeeding at becoming a pure vessel. The test of whether or not I am able to be used as a vessel, or if my Father is being able to use me as a vessel, is if something is coming in or coming through, or behavior is happening that is not the same as could be applied to my Older Member or my Older Member's Older Member or our Heavenly Father, or on up the line.

This is a lesson we can't think enough about. It's so valuable to us because it's the key that opens the door to what is potentially ahead for us as an avenue in returning to our Father's House to become sons, to become servants. Because sons in our Father's House are not into, "I'm Tom, I'm Jim, I'm somebody else." We're not that. That repulsed me a little bit what I just did, because if I'm ever sillier than or if my mannerisms set me apart and they're separate and they are not what my Older Member would do, then I am being less than a vessel. I am cluttering the information that could come through for your sake and for my sake.

Identity... The closer we get to a significant position in our Father's Kingdom, the more enlarged or magnified the danger is in the slightest degree of separateness. That's what happened to the soul that was in our Father's Kingdom that was called Lucifer. He still had separate identity. Now, I can remember that the information had been given to Ti previously that the standard in our Father's House is being raised (I can speak of this as history, of coming through Ti, because it was our Father speaking through Ti when Ti said this – I feel that it was). Because of the Luciferian experience, or because of that Son going awry as he did, the standard is being raised. It's being made more difficult to get into our Father's House. It's being made more difficult to be a good crew member – less likely, less able to go astray.

There's so much that I can't understand from where I sit, because even playing the role of teacher and a vessel with students and potentially with more students, relatively very little information is funneled through that Teacher role. Because only the information that is funneled can be helpful. Any information that seems to come through that can't be helpful in the overcoming process might have earmarks of being separate or unnecessary information, and I don't feel that our Father's Kingdom sends unnecessary information. That's what happens when questions come up that have relatively no significance, no real relationship to our overcoming. We can get into theorizing about things that might go on in the heavens that really have nothing to do with our overcoming. And we can play the game of exploring a little bit, but it opens the door to possibly listening to other voices or letting self come in, and/or playing the game of "what if" or guessing what it might be. I know that at times we, Ti and I, have guessed. When we do guess at questions that the students might ask, we try to say, "We don't know. We're guessing. It hasn't been clarified to us." And ultimately, after discussing it for a moment, we usually say, "We feel like it really isn't important; it's of no issue here to your overcoming." What is shared is so limited – we know so little of that Kingdom.

But what's interesting here is another question that I know is on their list and I'll mess up their order of questions a little bit by going into it, but it's the question of faith vs. proof. Scientists frequently in this human world say, "I will believe what I see. I have to see it to believe it. I can't accept this religious concept of believing something on faith or just because it's some legendary concept or religious concept. I believe what I see." And yet, how many times have the astronomers rewritten their history books because they thought they had seen things that meant so and so were the facts and only to later find out that what they had seen didn't mean that, it meant something else. And then later to only understand that even that was off, and have to continually rewrite their books, even though they are the ones that say, "I believe what I see." You don't know what you see when you see it. We can all misjudge what we see. We think we know when we see something.

Now, faith is an interesting thing. We discussed a little bit before the session began, of this question of faith and proof, and I asked, "What are those scriptures that people refer to in that faith hypothesis or thought?" And the student said, "Faith is the evidence of things unseen," and went on to say something more. And then another one on that same topic said, what was it?

Student: Well, I thought it was, "Faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word." Is that it?

Do: The word of God. That's right. Okay, let's discuss that a moment. Faith is evidence of things unseen. We can stop right there. Evidence. Evidence sounds like something that humans use in the courtroom as proof, a significant enough proof that if there's enough evidence, then someone can say, "That's the fact. It merits a verdict of guilty," or whatever it is, based on evidence. As we relate to the Kingdom of Heaven, they don't let us know about them on the basis of what they show us, even though what we see and what they do show us (if we can in our own thinking give them credit for it), we see evidence of their magnificent plan in their design. I can't imagine that any human surgeon who has dissected the human body could think that that could just be a happenstance of nature. Nature? I mean, where is the proof in what nature came from? Just a happenstance in evolution of what? That doesn't make sense. And I'm not saying that our Father's Creation doesn't also have certain aspects of evolving. But we do have evidence of things that certainly seem to have some relationship to minds beyond the human concept. It's pretty obvious that humans didn't create humans at their beginning, that it had to be a result of something. And to think that they were a result of a "big bang" or some "happenstance" is pretty far-fetched. Even though I can imagine that if there was a bang, then it was because the Creator did a bang, and knew at that bang exactly how to have it all end up with the evidence of things that we could actually see. But as we try to get closer to our Father's Kingdom, the funny thing is, He seems to have designed it so that we have to get there more on a basis of faith.

Now, if faith is evidence of things unseen, a good example of that would be: as we are fed information concerning the workings of the Kingdom of Heaven and the workings of overcoming, the more that picture grows and grows and grows, and begins to just amaze us and astound us, because these intricate pieces of the puzzle begin to fit together in that picture, and soon that picture is so magnificent, so beyond anything we could have dreamed of, that it is evidence of things unseen. Therefore, it is proof to us. We don't need to base proof on what we can see, and the reverse occurs. Let's say that in our Father's Kingdom they also might use pieces of transportation that we might call spacecrafts, or advanced forms of spacecrafts, that certainly humans wouldn't have the capacity to build or use. And a human might have witnessed seeing that spacecraft and say, "I saw that," but he wouldn't necessarily know what he saw or what the source of it was. And yet within our classroom, and certainly this teacher sitting here can say honestly, "I don't remember seeing a spacecraft that clearly, even though there's something in the remembrance of it there and so much information has been shared with me that I seem to know, beyond a doubt, that in our Father's Kingdom they use physical means of transportation in those spacecrafts." I guess what I'm saying is that we seem to know more about the reality of something we haven't seen than someone who has seen it. So, the basis of faith works.

Also another way of looking at that same issue is that you can't get closer to our Father on the basis of what you have seen. Our Father does not give you proof. I don't remember what session we discussed this on or if we've discussed it before, because now I could easily be confused since we're replacing Sessions 7 and 8 and doing them again. But we discussed at one point how an Evangelist had said, "If Jesus did not literally, symptomatically reach death that could be diagnosed as that by any living physician today, that He died on the cross and He was in that tomb, He was dead and He rose literally from the dead, and He moved and He was alive – if that did not happen then all that Jesus said was a farce." And we said, "That's ridiculous." That all information that we have says, "that's ridiculous," and that it has very little bearing on what Jesus had to say. Does it matter if Jesus even staged that event to try to symbolize overcoming death, or that when the vehicle dies, death is not reached, trying to help people understand. I'm not saying that that's what happened. I doubt that that's what happened. I don't care what happened. But I do know one thing, that it does not matter to us. It does not matter to my Father; it does not matter to the Kingdom of Heaven. We certainly wouldn't base whether or not we believed what Jesus had to say, what He taught, on whether or not He, in reality, could be diagnosed as dead and then diagnosed as living. It doesn't make anything that He had to say prior to that less true. We know that everything He said was true. That everything that His Father said through Him was clearly describing the Kingdom of Heaven and how to overcome humanness. 'If you're going to be My disciple'...and 'you can't even be my disciple if you don't even leave your whole life behind. I mean leave it, I mean give it up.'

We're back to where we were talking a few moments ago – about identity. If I have truly given it up, then I am not that anymore. Because as I came into His House, or I came into my Father's house through Jesus, then the slate was wiped clean. If it was really clean, it's nonexistent. And I will bring it back and I'll have to wipe it clean again if I refer to my vehicle's past. I'll have to ask for forgiveness all over again. I've re-instigated something that I said I was no more, that I acknowledged was not in my Father's thinking, and I asked to be cleansed, and was cleansed, and then I insisted on bringing the dirt back into the tray again and presenting it again. Now, the same is true right now, and we've just been reminded of it, that identity stands between us and our Heavenly Father's Kingdom. If, ideally, in our Heavenly Father's Kingdom all those members are like branches off of a vine or off of a trunk and leaves off of branches, then all of those leaves and all of those branches emanate from the Source – not only emanate from the Source but are that Source speaking.

We can clearly see that possibly the further a leaf is from the point of origin of life at the trunk, that that leaf might have less function as a vessel than a leaf that's closer or a branch that's closer. That certainly would be true if we are newcomers into our Father's Kingdom and we're going onto a family tree that's different from the family tree in the human kingdom, and we are simply a leaf and we are at some distance from, not only the trunk, but the beginning of the trunk – we can't even understand the beginning of the trunk. To try to understand, for a human to ask, "Well, who created God?" is as appropriate and as intelligent a question as for a dog to be able to verbalize, "Who created man?" If you told the dog who created man, could he comprehend it? He certainly couldn't comprehend it. And if the Creator told us of His beginning...? There probably isn't even a concept at the beginning that could be labeled a beginning. The concept of beginning probably was only an applicable term at the beginning within the range of comprehension of our own beginning as potential children to return to His household – servants, to return to His household. Therefore, we're going to be babes in His household, brand new leaves. Those leaves are going to be just as physical as they are in the human kingdom, but different biology, different molecular structure, different capacity, different mind, different behavior. Many aspects of behavior that happen in the human kingdom, mainly because of what the human kingdom has become, aren't even available to happen there. That's why these things are inappropriate, because if they aren't done there and we recall them or we're thinking of them, then we're pulling ourselves back into a past that does not exist in our Father's Kingdom.

So really, as we move into that Kingdom, we have to more and more whack away at totally severing from the past. Now if we really sever from, there is no "memory" of that past, so then we live only in the present of where we find ourselves in His Kingdom – babies, with a whole new World. We've destroyed the past. I mean, wouldn't it be appropriate at a new kingdom level?

Let's play the scenario that maybe even upon entering the human kingdom (I'm not saying this is true, but the scenario works), that a spirit might have come from a less-than-human kingdom as it entered. But wouldn't it be true that when that spirit reached the condition we would identify as the human kingdom, it then would have – if it was going to function in that kingdom – no recollection of anything prior to that? That would be its beginning. It would be a fresh beginning. It would be a babe in that Kingdom, or fresh beginning.

Now, the spirit can observe the animal kingdom, and if it wants to, it can go backward (if this scenario were true) and try to behave as an animal, even in pitiful ways that animals might behave that would even be beneath most human's concept of how a human at its lowest point should behave. The point is made here that when we enter that Kingdom, if we do it according to instruction, we're going to have a clean slate. Our past is gone. We've got to believe Him when He said, "You lay it on me, I'll wipe it out." In other words, we don't believe Him if we don't wipe the past out. He wants to wipe the past out. So, if we insist on hanging onto the past, who's responsible? Can we say, "Well you didn't wipe it out. You said you were going to." He says, "As far as I'm concerned, it's wiped out, I've forgotten it. I don't want to know your past." So, if you want to remember it, if you want to cling to it, that's your problem. Okay, let's proceed. What's next on our list?

Student: Well, did you want to talk more about the Essenes?

Do: Yes. I asked the students to bring them up because I remembered in a previous session a mention of Essenes. And I think the only reference that was made to the Essenes was in the context of relating that some modern Essene group (that I'm afraid that I can't even put in the category of the real Essenes) said, or I had heard or read that they had participated in stimulating their sensuality or their sexuality, as some Eastern religions teach, in order to come into enlightenment or to have the kundalini turned on, or the "flame of knowledge," or whatever, which is an abomination! It's a counterfeit. I think we discussed it's a poor counterfeit or a facsimile of how when you have overcome your physical or reproductive nature altogether and it's behind you and you don't relate to it, then you're no longer drunk by that drug and you can perceive information that comes to you, and much higher knowledge, and therefore you can reach up to it.

But back to the Essenes. The reason we are re-discussing this is because the application that is more appropriate for that term "Essene" can be used as we relate to hidden groups that existed in the Middle East in Biblical times. More particularly, there was a group of Essenes that supposedly resided in the area of Qumrân, where the Dead Sea Scrolls came from. They were (as far as a group is concerned that might be existing between times that our Father's Kingdom comes in an incarnate condition) trying as hard as any group on the face of the Earth to become pure and to rid themselves of their human nature and to try to get closer to the Kingdom of God. The Essene group that I'm referring to is an esoteric group of Orthodox Judaism. There have been books written that Jesus spent His unknown years, or some of his early years before his ministry with that Essene group. And whether that is true or not, it's of no significance to us. The possibility exists that that could have been used as a stepping stone. But my point in bringing it back is because I wanted to correct what I had said and not have you think that we think poorly of that group. As far as groups of believers and efforts of discipline within the human kingdom exist, we'd have a hard time finding a group that would be working harder at trying to be pure and to overcome aspects of this world, and to be more ready. And as far as I'm concerned, if souls are cycled back into the human kingdom at the appropriate time that members of our Father's Kingdom are there, maybe you at the other end of that camera were in that Essene community at one time. Maybe you were with Jesus at one time. If you know His Heavenly Father, you know my Heavenly Father. You know the same knowledge He gives to me to share with you, or, that He uses my instrument to express to you. And our purpose for being here is to serve those that have returned in order to complete their overcoming, to do the last little polishing up of areas that maybe are still awry and need some correction, and present them to our Father's Kingdom. Where the human kingdom was wiped out, obliterated, they could start fresh – clean plants ready to serve in a new agenda as crew members that functioned only with the tasks that are of the concern of our Heavenly Father's Kingdom.

Excuse me, what's next on our list of questions?

Student: How do I identify which God I am praying to?

Do: This is an issue we need to discuss. You say, "There is only one God." And yes, that's true. But believe it or not, there are other individuals who say, "I'm God," just as we've discussed that there are some individuals who would say, "I'm Jesus." Does it not make sense that the camp in opposition to our Father's House would spend most of their effort trying to rob those souls that know that their rightful heritage is through the Judeo-Christian heritage? And there Luci's camp would say, "This is where we need to work if we're going to keep those souls from getting into that corporation that really is not aware of the reality of cosmic consciousness and universal mind. They're more aware of just becoming vessels, and just being a part of a vine, and not really having the opportunity to develop and become rightful 'gods' of their own." That vernacular gets kind of mixed up and kind of crazy and dangerous. So, how do we test in our prayers and in our meditation who we're praying to?

There are some prayers that might be appropriate for those who are not in the position that some of you might find yourself in, or that these in this classroom might be in. Because once you're in the possible condition of wanting to make a transition from the human kingdom to our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, at that point our Father expects you to be in a position of saying, "Your will, not mine" about everything – and of saying, "I only want to be an instrument of Your desire. I only want to serve in the function that is of Your concern. I want to overcome everything that is of my concern or anything that is separate." Someone in the human kingdom who has not reached that condition yet, might sincerely pray to our Father's Kingdom, unaware that someone outside of our Father's Kingdom might jump in and answer their prayers, particularly if they are praying for something that is of the human kingdom – praying that their mortgage might be met, or that they have more money so they can get a Buick instead of a Plymouth, or they can get a Cadillac next time instead of a Ford, or whatever the values are. But if their eyes are upon their physical needs rather than saying, "You know what our needs are, but I know that I need to ask You to supply our needs, then I need to examine if I think they aren't supplied when I've asked you – then I must have a misconception of what our needs are. We need to re-examine what our needs are, because You do take care of our needs."

I'm afraid that Lucifer has control of so many of those so-called leaders in the Christian world today and wants to get the rightful heirs of our Father's sonship, of our Father's Kingdom, off the track. He would certainly turn their eyes if he stands half a chance. And one way he can do it is to say, "Our Father's Kingdom wants you to have fine things and have wealth and have all of the physical benefits. He wants you to live a good life. He doesn't want you buying into this: 'you must be in sack cloth.'" A lot of that's true. But don't forget that Luci is so close to the truth in the things of his counterfeit. I mean, they are almost believable. You'll have to look at them under a microscope to discover that they're counterfeit. But Luci's camp would have those people try to tell the Christians who are trying to get closer to their Heavenly Father that, "ask for your financial needs and He will supply them." You don't know that He'll supply them. Who are you to say, "Ask Him for your financial needs"? He said ask in the way that you're saying, "Thy will, not my will, You know my needs, and if I'm looking to You, I must trust that You will supply my needs if I'm looking to You." So, it's a dangerous proposition.

Where were we? Remind me of the question again.

Student: How do I identify which God that I am praying to?

Do: We may have pretty well covered the question, but it wouldn't hurt to spend another minute on it. As far as I'm concerned, I'm in a position that has been commissioned as a teacher, to serve as a vessel, as a teacher for those designed to get into our Father's Kingdom. So, I can't really speak with much clarity or authority as to what others should be doing who are not interested in getting from here to there. But, if you're interested in getting from here to there now, in this lifetime, in the next few months, between now and the end of this Age (and we don't know if that's going to happen within the next year or when it's going to happen), if that is your concern then, as it is our concern, of getting back into His House, literally and physically....

We don't anticipate that we are going to lose these vehicles – though we know that if we lost them and our slate is clean, and we have overcome the world, we've lost nothing. We could still go to wardrobe in our Father's Kingdom and get a nice new suit that didn't even have that old kind of plumbing, and didn't even have those characteristics that were still going to have to fade away. So, does it really matter if we take this vehicle into that Kingdom, because they come and we are in their midst wherever that is – whether they are here or we are there doesn't matter. But if we are leaving the human kingdom and entering our Father's Kingdom, in a sense, our Father's Kingdom (or Heaven) is wherever our Father is and Representatives of His Kingdom are.

Where our Father is, and Representatives of His Kingdom, I'm afraid could also mean we would see the physical characteristics of their presence. We would see vehicles unlike human vehicles, except still the same image – that have arms and legs and stand erect and have beautiful countenances. We don't know exactly the particulars, but we know that they would be in a vehicle that was for all intents and purposes indestructible, even though it could be lost and it could be replaced easily. But whether or not we take this vehicle into that Kingdom and they put us in their lab and they zap it and it's changed over to one of theirs in the twinkling of an eye, or if we lose this one before they come and do that, and we get one out of wardrobe, it's the same difference. What's important is: how fast have I overcome the world so that I don't need to return to the human world. Therefore, I am in a position, if my slate is sufficiently clean as they judge it, that I don't need to return. I'm in line for one of their vehicles whether I get this one changed over in a laboratory or whether I lose it right before their laboratory comes and they pull one out of their wardrobe that they have prepared for me and has my name on it, because it jives exactly with my station of growth. Don't confuse the issue of a name as identity in that place, because from their point of view, it's merely labeled to get a match, so that it would work for me.

You can be in the same mindset that we're in – that we anticipate entering our Father's Kingdom soon. We feel that what has been shared with us can shorten the days of the elect. If you have come here from our Father's Kingdom to finish your overcoming, then you know what we're saying is true, and you'll be waiting and craving to go full throttle in finishing that off, knowing that there is a short time in which to do it. Because of the time that we have had in preparing our lab and preparing our heads in our own overcoming, and because of what we have learned, the picture is so clear and it is so big to us and so much has been shared with us. Because in the time that we were doing it, it was a slow process, getting one item at a time. But now we see those items and we can see them clearly, and we can share them with you. Therefore, the Next Level through us sharing them with you, can shorten your days to such a brief span, in that sense, for the elect their days are shortened.

The "elect" would mean that you have been picked to finish your overcoming. You could say, "Oh boy, I placed such a 'high falootin' interpretation of what the elect is, how could I be one of the elect"? Well, if the Next Level picks you, don't question it. Let them be the ones responsible for that. I mean, look what they've picked. We can't take the credit for anything in our own overcoming. They've given it to us. They've fed it to us. If they hadn't fed it to us a step at a time, we couldn't have done anything. They did it. They gave us the ingredients, by our asking and by their choice of giving, so that we could be recipients of overcoming. So, if you are one that is prepared for overcoming, then you are as lucky as we are lucky and can receive their gift, and we want to serve in that way. We certainly don't want to interfere, and we were learning that we could interfere by turning on something that could cause you delay in that process. I'm so thankful that it was shared with us so that we can avoid sharing certain experiences we have had that might delay your overcoming process. If anything, we're just as concerned with your days being shortened as you are, because we're so eager for this task of ours to reach completion. It becomes fearful for us to think of the time that it might take, but we're not going to listen to that fear.

There's that 10-second card and we're at the end of this session. We hope that Ti has spoken through us.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 8 (60 Min)

Welcome to Session 8. I'm assuming you've just watched Session 7, or you remember still what was on it. We told you then that we're redoing both Sessions 7 and 8 because of some things that we learned in the process that we needed to correct. We're also redoing 7 and 8 pretty much back to back, the same way we did them yesterday.

I want to share with you a little bit of intimate information, because this is Christmas Day, and we're together – at least most of our classroom. For the most part, we're in one place and working on these sessions at this time. We'll have our experiment – or our consuming – together later in the day to be able to spend a little time together. I'm going to ask the cameraman to pan across these members of the classroom who are over to the side, as I talk for a moment, because I want you to get just a moment's glance at some of the class that's sitting there. They look pretty sober, don't they? (Laughter) Pan them once more and maybe they'll crack their faces. You need to get up on their faces instead of their knees. There, get where we can see their faces. Try that once again.

Okay, you can come back to me now. The reason I wanted them to do that was to also let you in on the fact that we had a little meeting in the wee hours of the morning, discussing our update and the reason that we wanted to re-do Sessions 7 and 8. I also asked them, since we are together today, to sit in with us in this recording session and for them to assist me by asking that nothing come out of this mouth, or this vessel, or this vehicle that isn't from Ti's mind, coming through Ti, and from our Father's mind, Ti and Do's Father's mind, as it flows through Ti and through this vessel. If they concentrate on that and help me by remembering that, then maybe we'll be less likely to enter into subject matter that is unnecessary or irrelevant or not on the subject.

To follow through from Session 7, we spoke fairly directly and personally with you as listeners at the end of that session. In order to pick that up, I'm going to dive right in and be personal with you again. I guess I realize what a big jolt it is to your system, even though you might have identified with it, close to the end of that last tape, as we spoke of the "elect," and as we spoke of those who are returning in order to complete their overcoming and enter our Father's Kingdom. Even though you identified with that, we have to also face the fact that as you think of other things and you do other tasks, that identification begins to fade. And the forces and thoughts of this world have you question, "Goodness, have I lost my mind"? and "What is going on"? and "I'm not sure I need to watch that next tape because I could be going down a dangerous road." Part of the aspect of "shortening the days" at the end – or making whatever classroom might be remaining a short classroom instead of a longer one as we had – means that the many tests we were put through, or this classroom was put through over the years, you're going to be put through in a very compact, accelerated period of time. And I know that it's going to be hard on your systems and difficult for you to make the adjustment. But I'm going to go right ahead and even bring up another aspect of it that will make it even more difficult for you. In a sense, it might make it easier for you, because we're facing the facts, we're getting right down to reality.

If in fact we are seeing that as our Father's Kingdom relates to the human kingdom, and as the history books tell us, they relate on a basis of knowing through faith. And because they can't have us motivated by proof, we have to believe in them. If you come this way, if you correspond with us or you let us know that this is something that you must do and you want to start identifying with us, as wanting to be a child in that Kingdom and wanting to rid yourself of your humanness, then you're very quickly going to also realize that you're going to be, in a sense, submissive. You're going to kind of present yourself as putty in our hands because we're representing that Kingdom. And I know this is one aspect of it that is hard to adjust to. In a sense, you have to face right now and continue to face, "Do I really believe that this individual on that camera and these students of that individual, are they really vessels? Are they really of our Father's Kingdom? Are they functioning that way? Is the information that is coming through them that information that I can recognize as from my Heavenly Father's Kingdom? Can I see the pieces of the puzzle falling together? Is it speaking to me? And if it is speaking to me, then I have to also accept the more difficult realization that this is going to mean that I'm also going to have to get out of a situation where I'm simply watching this tape and do the things that this is going to begin to require as we get more into the specifics with you. And so I have to really look very carefully and examine my own belief."

When Jesus said, 'If you believe Me, all those that believe on Me, and come through Me to My Father, He can offer you His Kingdom.' This is the same thing. I mean, you're being put to the test of, "Can I recognize this classroom and this individual that's on the camera as from that same Household that Jesus represented, from that same Household"? It doesn't require any more of you than that. Certainly, I'm not pretending to identify as anything other than a member of that Household, and I know that I'm of that Household. But the question is, do you know that I'm of that Household? And if you don't, I don't want to talk you into it. It's a good time for you to put away those tapes or put them in the garbage can if you don't know that. Because now you're being put to the test: "Do I recognize this information? If I do recognize this information and the information seems true, then I have to accept the packaging. I have to accept the "vessels" as being chosen from that Kingdom to serve in this function."

In reality, that means that I'm actually going to take instruction from these students and from the one that said, "I'm Do." And that instruction is going to get down to specifics and be very literal and very mundane, and is going to give me help in ways I never thought would be necessary in an overcoming process. I mean the "spelling out" of the menu that I might consume, or the objects that might be purchased to use to brush my teeth with, and when I bathe, and how often.

One of the helpers here brought up that the way I discussed partnerships might be confusing to you – you might think that partnerships go into the bathroom or to the clean-up area as a partnership, which, of course, they don't. But I just remembered they had mentioned that the way I expressed it, you might have thought that they did, and so we're clarifying that.

The point is, we're going to get down to the nitty gritty with you. If you come this way and you start asking questions, we're going to answer your questions. You're going to have to realize how mundane those questions actually get, and you're going to say, "Well, does it mean that maybe it would be more right to also wear loose-fitting clothing and not do the other things that we had discussed and...?" Yes, you're going to be tested with, "Can I accept instruction about the particulars from these?" That's a very difficult hurdle.

Look at how many very, very religious individuals had trouble when Jesus came and said, 'It is the Father Who speaks through Me, and I can take you if you follow Me. If you believe what He says through Me, if you believe the words that come out of My mouth, and if you're a disciple of Mine, I'll get you there.' The ones who had the most trouble with it were the ones who were the most religious, because they couldn't accept the packaging. Because the packaging that Lucifer had sold them was so tainted and so "Old English," and so wrapped in such spiritual packaging that it was unrealistic. It was like it had to be fulfilled. It was like wanting the bells to ring and the Heavens to move, and to be the beginning of a Spielberg film, something that really showed all the miraculous aspects. It certainly couldn't be somebody sitting on a video tape telling me that they've come from the Kingdom of Heaven to help me get there, and that in order to get there, I'm going to have to literally and actually face all the little things, the little habits that I have, and change them in order to be a crew member and learn what crew membership really is. And, yes, that is where we are.

And as we go through more particulars in this session and the next one – if there is a next one – you need to examine your mind set and your willingness to yield, because our interest is: this must be done quickly. Therefore, we know we're being used in the way we are presenting this information. We know we're being used to shorten those days. And that also puts the responsibility on those who might be beneficiaries of this to move very, very quickly, and be put to tests that might have taken us months or years to be put to. You'll be put to many of those tests in a very, very short time. So, we understand the trauma of it, and we'll help you with the trauma if you seek help in the trauma of it. But we have to also warn you and prepare you for some of these particulars.

Who's next? Are you next on our question list?

Student: Yes, did you want to talk more about crew consciousness and about breaking the habit of having something when you want it?

Do: Yes, the little saying that we say there, which is a big demon that we have to deal with: "wanting what I want when I want it." That sounds kind of funny and like a play on words, but it is a very real demon that most of us have to deal with in overcoming. And we want to try to help you understand what the reward is in overcoming that wanting what I want when I want it. A parallel we can use in approaching that issue is the astronaut program in the human space program, or NASA's program.

It wouldn't work too well if the Atlantis goes up on a mission, and they have a lot of experiments to do, and certain members of their crew have to knock out or omit certain experiments because the experiments require that they consume certain items (or "eat" – we use consume to mean "eat"). If they consume these items and certain members of the crew say, "I have a funny stomach and I can't consume those items." So, we have to knock out or omit that person then because he's not sure that he could handle the freeze-dried or the powdered formula, or whatever it is that they're going to be put to. And then another crew member might say, "Well, I get so sleepy I just can't stay awake when it gets to be 10 pm Earth time." We take him out of another test that can be done only at a period that might be registering on Earth as midnight. So, when we're getting rid of what-we-want-to-do-when-we-want-to-do-it, it's really the opposite. We're liberating ourselves from structure that is there because of our habit – because of influences that we have listened to that said, "I need this and I want that. I'm a morning person, or I'm a night person, or I mainly eat heavier foods in the morning, and I don't eat those kinds of foods or..." – all these ideas we have of we like things our way – we have to have them a certain way. The word here that we have to put in flashing neon light is flexibility. To become a good crew member, we have to have flexibility – so flexible, that whatever instruction is given to the crew, we can easily move into, even if it's "sit in a waiting mode." We can't say, "Well, I'm so impatient at times when we have to wait that at least give me some reading material. I can't just sit. And if I have that reading material, the lighting is so poor in here, I'm afraid I might have eye strain so...." All these ideas we have of what we need in this circumstance or that make us inflexible. If we're a good crew member, we are extremely flexible. Most of the work, if not all the work, that our Father's Kingdom does is done in crews and requires extreme flexibility on the part of the crew. It fits right in with what we talked about in our last session in also working against identity, working against separateness, working against uniqueness, working against anything that is still of the human kingdom.

Therefore, if what is of our Heavenly Father's Kingdom is manifest to us in mundane ways, as instruction for a crew of what a crew might do, what their schedule might be, what they might consume in any particular given period of time, it's not as humans look at the Kingdom of God and think: "If this is given to someone to consume, then it must be morally or the Godly way to consume." Here again, it's that "Old English" and that fancy packaging or that spiritual approach to it. They can't think of the Kingdom of God as being very practical, very realistic, and just facing issues as tasks come up. Now, if we receive instruction for a crew, then the crew, if it's going to work together, has to be made up of several appendages of the crew as a whole so that they look to each other and they don't trust their own judgment. They say, "What about this? Is this a cup and a half of this? Is this a level tablespoon of that? Is this three inches of that?" They don't trust their own judgment, because they know they can see things wrong, they can be inaccurate. So, part of crew procedure then becomes having a check partner, someone to check with. And that always extends – that partnership then checks with another partnership, and so forth. So, whenever they feel that the task cannot be stopped trustworthily at that moment of checking, then they go to a greater moment of checking, or greater extension of checking.

So, think long and hard about this business of all the ramifications of what I want to do, when I want to do it, and how that limits me – how that restricts me, how that knocks me out of being able to serve with a flexible crew that has an agenda, a task to perform. And in our Father's Kingdom, the particulars about that task aren't all given up front. In fact, very little is given up front. They get one phase at a time and when it's completed, then their crew chief says, "We're ready for the next phase, if you're ready for us to perform the next phase." And then the next phase comes in. The phase may be just one little instruction given at a time, and if the crew members start questioning it, "Well I don't see why that's necessary." Ohhhh! Then pretty soon we're not really believing that it is crew function that we're developing here. We're interpreting it at a different level. We're trying to look at it from what it means to me. "It interferes with me." "I'm not sure I like that," or "I'm not sure I really believe that that's what we're working on here." And I'm afraid that all of us are put to that test again and again and again.

Is that really what these procedures are for? I don't know if we've discussed it, but our procedures change and they change and they change. Our diet changes and it changes and it changes. Our time of scheduling things changes. Our partnerships change and change. What we can count on is change. And it comes pretty rapidly. Change gives us new opportunity to be more flexible – that neon word – and so that a crew member can function well as just an appendage, or, as we use the illustration, as a cog in a wheel or a spoke in a wheel. If the wheel has a function to perform, then one spoke shouldn't sing louder than another spoke, or require certain attention that other spokes don't require, or have in its mind something different. It may not understand what the wheel is even performing. But if its head is in a right place, it doesn't even question what the wheel is performing. It says, "I can see here that we're performing a function. I may not understand it, but it's not my place to question it, and I know that I'll be more inclined to be in a position where I can serve if I stop questioning, because then I'm not muddying the air." I don't know if we've discussed it, because I keep getting confused about what we covered in Sessions 7 and 8 that we discarded, but we have to bring up here the issue of telecommunication, because...Is that the term?

Student: Telepathy?

Do: Telepathy, telepathy. Funny things come out of my mouth. I realized in listening to one session that I had said "an on-hands experiment," when I meant to say, "hands-on experiment." And I think in the sessions that we did yesterday, one came out, "Well I don't know what kind of rat pack you are," meaning pack rat. So, a lot of things come out backwards and we have to turn them around and try to adjust them.

Mental telepathy is a human definition for a kind of communication that is common in our Father's Kingdom. And the reason we have to bring it up to discuss it is to point out that we're not saying, "Oh, isn't that neat that members of our Father's Kingdom can communicate mentally." We're not saying that mental communication is the only communication. There's a funny little thing that we can look at here. We may not have seen that this piece of the puzzle fits in here, but when Jesus said, 'If you even look at someone lustfully, you've committed the act.' And you say, "How could that have anything to do with mental telepathy?" It has everything to do with mental telepathy. Because if I have a thought in my mind and I'm in our Father's Kingdom, it is expressed at the moment that I think it. It is expressed! And even though my Older Member or the other crew members don't like to invade my privacy, they hear my thoughts, because they have a communication of not having to use their vocal chords and their tongues. And so, since that is their behavior, that is their technique, that is a characteristic of the suit of clothes that they wear, of their physical vehicle that they wear, then we have to learn how to have control of our brain, our tongue, our vocal chords. Mainly of our brain, that we don't permit thoughts that would be negative or doubting or periphery or unnecessary, or that could clutter the air, because we're going to move into vehicles where thoughts are, the moment a picture is formed.

You remember how in our last session we discussed that when a picture is formed in our heads of the knowledge that our Father's Kingdom has shared with us, that picture is so big and it's so magnificent that it becomes evidence, it becomes proof to us of the existence of our Father's Kingdom. It becomes a picture that we can use to work with daily in our behavior, and that we can refer to, to refresh our memory so that we don't have to doubt the reality of our Father's Kingdom. In that sense, faith presented that picture, then that became evidence that we could utilize. So, all this is interrelated and connected up.

We're sharing with you several little different ways of looking at the same picture at this moment. So, mental telepathy is a very important aspect of crew participation – not letting thoughts enter our mind that can be an interference, knowing that our Older Member can read that thought. I mean, if we have that thought, it comes right to them. So, we don't want to be screaming, "Oh I don't understand what's going on here!" in our thoughts. "Why don't you explain to me what I'm doing here. You told me to do so and so, but you didn't tell me why." And so pretty soon we become as a child or an interference that really is not ready for that crew activity. We have to be put in more of a remedial situation because of our needless questioning and lack of trust and needing of attention, needing of explanation. It's something that we need to consider. Where do we go from there?

Student: Well, I was wondering back in Session 6, I think when we left off we were talking about some of the particulars, the techniques, of overcoming sensuality, and I thought we wanted to go back to clothing – the costume that we wear and some of the aspects of that.

Do: Thank you for reminding me of that. And if I remember right, we felt that when we were discussing costume or clothing that we use in the classroom to try to abide by the principles of how members of our Father's Kingdom would present themselves if they had to wear the kind of vehicles that we are still wearing, we left off, if I'm not mistaken, some little things that may not be that significant, but we feel to mention them. Like we mentioned double pockets. When we can buy shirts that have double pockets, we would prefer to, though we don't have a rule that says we can only wear shirts with double pockets. You say, "Why double pockets?" Because it kind of helps take the emphasis off of shape, particularly with a female vehicle. If they have double pockets, it makes the vehicle less obvious that it's a female vehicle. And if we're getting into a non-gender mind place and behavior place where we don't want to identify at a gender level, then double pockets is one little thing that helps us with that.

Another aspect of that same item is, where the length of our sleeves or our trousers might be. We've said they're loose fitting, and we don't draw them together at the waist. We don't like for shape to be accentuated or exposed. We're more comfortable if our arm is, for the most part, not exposed. So, we'll wear our sleeve length either at the cuff, or at the wrist, or turned back a time or two. That is easy and doesn't expose that much of the arms. And we'd certainly be uncomfortable in shorts or what a human would call a bathing suit. You're extremely uncomfortable with this much exposure when you've wiped things out of your memory and you're moving into a new behavior. I just can't remember seeing a beach full of bathers in our Father's Kingdom. It's just that it's beyond my imagination that that would be behavior in our Father's Kingdom – to need to have a bathing suit or to expose the vehicle in that way.

Another thing we've mentioned in that same respect was the sheerness of a fabric, because if it's a sheer fabric, then it also has a degree of exposure, so we make a point not to get things that are too sheer. We have underclothes on both under our shirt and under our trousers, and none of the females wear skirts – not that they're trying to look like males. It's just that loose-fitting trousers, even though they might have come from the female part of the department store, loose-fitting trousers and loose-fitting shirts give us more of a genderless freedom when we don't have to think about them. And they don't make us feel masculine or feminine, because believe it or not, don't forget, males like to wear tight clothing and tight shirts and tight blue jeans and show off their curves as well, in kind of a ridiculous way. We are doing everything that we can do to not identify with a gender. Sheer, and I think there was even one other one – the open collar is one other aspect that we pay attention to. It's a trend in some human circles to open two or three buttons or half way to the waist, and we're very uncomfortable with that kind of exposure. It causes that particular individual to kind of advertise their gender, and the last thing we want to do is even be reminded of a gender. So, we would keep our collars buttoned at the top, or if it's too tight at the top and there's a second button near the top, then we'll use the second button. And if that's not comfortable to us, we'll go to another shirt. But these are all little finishing of details in talking about costume, which we had covered in a previous session. What's next on our list?

Student: What about avoiding places that would tempt a vehicle, like bars and clubs?

Do: Wow! I know that it's important for us to mention this, but these things are just so distant in our history to even think about. But in yours, they're not that distant, because you might go to places where you would subject yourself to vibrations where people certainly wouldn't be that accepting of your discussion of what you're about to do or ready to do. How could you be consistent with your new mindset if you're in a bar or someplace where the vibrations are that of intoxication, or thinking the kind of conversation that goes on in a bar, whether it be of the NFL game or so-and-so's pregnant or so-and-so is about to get married, did you know this – gossip and all the kinds of conversation that is common in a bar-like circumstance. The vibrations are so beneath us that we would avoid them like the plague. I can't count the times that we've gone into a place, even a restaurant or a movie that, by looking at the advertisement, we thought it would be okay, and we have to turn around and leave because we can't stand the general feeling that is there. It's almost the unseen presence that is there that seems to run us out. And we have to be willing to get into a frame of mind where we don't mind walking out or maybe going back up to the ticket office and saying, "I sat in there for five minutes and that movie is not to my liking. If I can get my money back, I would; otherwise, that's fine, I'll leave." But I can't count the times that we have done that at movie theaters or at restaurants or other places that we might go. I'm afraid we've even visited churches where the same thing has happened, where the thing that people would talk about would sicken our stomach because it would be so unbecoming to the instruction that we have received in our changeover from the human kingdom to our Father's Kingdom. So, the answer is yes, we avoid places that could pull us back into the world, and we try to confine our places to things that are uplifting, at least objective and not threatening to us. We don't try to subject ourselves to tests unnecessarily, by saying, "Well, I've outgrown that. I can handle that." We don't ever trust that. We make a point not to trust it.

What's next on our list?

Student: What about the structure of partnerships? How is that determined?

Do: Well, that's a very, very useful tool in the classroom and it's a very important topic to us.

Partnerships, partnerships, partnerships. They are valuable, valuable, valuable. We told you a little bit ago how they can change frequently. We've learned from experience that it helps to have a partnership, since a partnership is two individuals or sometimes three individuals who have asked their other partners in that partnership to help them in their overcoming. They ask. Part of a partnership is to involve the other person in assisting you in your task of overcoming. Now if it can't be done in sincerity, then it's a pretty lousy partnership. If I'm hesitant to ask someone, or even if I'm hesitant to have anything brought to my attention that I need to overcome, I don't know what I'm in this classroom for. If I'm trying to overcome the world, then I want all the help I can get and certainly a partnership is a place where I can get help in my overcoming.

It's true that in a partnership the members of that partnership are in two's or three's. It's interesting, if you think in terms of the New Testament, how Jesus sent his disciples out in two's and three's because he knew it worked as a neat partnership. They do solicit from their partners, "If you see me do things or even my countenance or little habit that I might have, a little idiosyncrasy that I might have, or if I treat you in any way, or I begin to gossip or anything that you observe about me that is not the way that we have been taught and that is unbecoming to members of our Father's Kingdom, I ask that you bring it to my attention." But what if you're in a situation where one partner is pretty sensitive emotionally and has a hard time dealing with it if the other partner brings it up in a way that hurts their feelings? Even though the one partner is trying to learn not to respond that way and not be so easily hurt – they have to get past that – on the other side of the fence, the person who is not very diplomatic in bringing up something that needs to be overcome has to work very hard at learning to be diplomatic and also has to question their judgment department. "Am I seeing a lot of things critically that maybe surpass our teaching and our instruction, and maybe it's me, maybe it's still my humanness that is finding fault here by some judgment at the human level, instead of the way I've been taught by my Teachers or by my Older Members." So, you can see all the ways that can work.

One aspect of a partnership that is so valuable is to not have a partnership made up of two individuals that could easily fall back into being attracted to each other at the human level or in an emotional involvement or in a sensual involvement. I mean, you see these students here – female/male. I'm sorry I said that because they are not, but to appearances, their vehicles are. And he still sees with his vehicle's eyes, even though he's trying to train his eyes. If he lowered his vibrations, his eyes could see a remnant of female vehicle, and vice versa. She could see a remnant of male vehicle. And so it's an important factor certainly, for the most part, not to place vehicles in a partnership where they could affect one another in that way. These two students are not partnered, even though they have been given tasks where they are partnered for a period of time. They are partnered in the aspect of serving as teleprompter and helping me in this task, but when this task ceases or the session is over, or they're not studying for the session, then they go back to their other partnership, and their various partners might also be partnering for that period of time. But I'm just trying to help you understand that we don't put people in partnership situations that would test their overcoming, or put it to the test unnecessarily. So, if I'm still dealing with male/female attraction, even if I don't think I'm dealing with it, but my teacher might realize that I'm still dealing with it, then we wouldn't be partnered in a relationship where it's male/female.

And we take all things into consideration as to how the vehicle might have had its orientation, whether it was heterosexual or homosexual. Because in our Father's Kingdom those words don't mean anything different than orange or apple. I mean, they have no more significance than that. They're two pieces of fruit – apple and orange – and as far as our Father's Kingdom is concerned, they are two aspects of sensuality, reproductive activity, side issues of the human kingdom that are completely inappropriate – not therefore bad and ugly, but it's not done in our Father's Kingdom, it's not needed. It's not a behavior that is there.

Remember, babies are not born in that Kingdom from a female's womb. And remember, babies are born from the human kingdom as adult humans and they become babes in that Kingdom. That's the way that works. So, we do everything we can do to make a partnership work. We don't like to put them to the test if, let's say, sometimes partners might be so much of the same mind and have the same faults and not be able to recognize those faults, that it doesn't work. If one person is given to lack of restraint and being too boisterous and is partnered with someone else who lacks restraint and is too boisterous and careless, and they upset things not meaning to, they can't really help each other that well because they don't see those things. So, it helps to kind of calculate, and we get instruction to calculate a partnership in areas that they can be helpful to each other. And never can one partner cover all the needs of another partner. That's part of the reason why partnerships are frequently changed, in order to have us.... What are we trying to become? Flexible, in neon sign, so that we can serve as a crew member without having to require special attention or having to deal with things.

What's the next question?

Student: Can you talk about how death and disease – I guess this is off of the subject of sensuality – but how death and disease can bring you closer?

Do: I think that we should address that because it can help us understand. Well, let's take what we have talked about – how in our Father's Kingdom death is not when the vehicle falls away. When the vehicle falls away, it has little or no effect on the spirit. And death applies only to the spirit, so when a vehicle drops, it's not affecting the spirit. But humans use the term to apply to when the vehicle falls. Now, there is a little bit of something that happens when we lose the vehicle that can help us. Frequently, when a person is traumatized because they're about to lose their vehicle, they turn closer to God or they try to clean up their act a little bit and examine whether or not they are maybe going to their Creator, or that maybe this world is over for them. Well, let's face it, there's not much time in which they can make much significant change in their behavior or their likes and dislikes or becoming a crew member, but they can start trying to get a little closer in their consciousness to their God. They can start to examine their values. Therefore, when that spirit leaves that vehicle, that spirit would go into the discarnate world with the consciousness it had when it left its vehicle.

Death can be taken advantage of, in the same way as so-called terminal disease puts us in the same thinking. We begin to question how we're going to spend our time from here until the end of our life, even though it isn't the end of our life. It's just the end of that particular plant, which is very, very temporal, when you think about it as a perennial. But it can be used to get us closer. So that even AIDS or any contagious disease, any disease that is big on the list or that humans might put in the category of plague, can be thought of as a definite positive. Not a positive in the way that it's getting rid of the "oranges" (homosexuals), so to speak. You know, why are the "oranges" so bad? I mean, it doesn't make any sense. It's a positive that any disease can make us re-examine our values and make us question, "Why am I in this position? Where's the positive in this"? Is the positive to make me think, "Should I be getting closer to my Heavenly Father? Should I become in some people's eyes more religious"? This might be a turning point. In some instances becoming more religious is not a turning point in the right direction. It can be a turning point in the wrong direction, because the religion they might be turning to is so filled with misinformation. And where does Lucifer like to put the strongest misinformation? In the religions that should house the realistic heritage information of our Father's Kingdom's relationship with this Age in this 6000-year period.

So, back to the question, death/disease, even though we know it is not death, those two traumatic situations can serve in a very good way to help a vehicle/spirit re-examine its condition. "Why am I in this position"? Make a positive of that.

Okay, what's our next question?

Student: What about attachments beyond the immediate family?

Do: Attachments, like a best friend, or...?

Student: Yes.

Do: Well, it doesn't hurt us to examine that a little bit because sometimes those attachments are as strong, if not stronger, than attachments of the physical family, or the human family tree. What does have bearing is, "I need to sever that attachment if I'm going to make these my final days, if I'm going to get out of the human kingdom." And it becomes hard to sever. Sometimes there are relationships where you've been intimate with someone, and they've been the person you always run to, to cry on their shoulder or to tell them what you've experienced or you just had a miscarriage, whatever it is that's traumatic that you go and share with someone as your confidant. And it's easy to bring into a classroom that habit of needing a confidant, or needing someone to have a close relationship with, even though you may not be looking for a physical or sensuous relationship. But in a sense, our Father's Kingdom says, "I'm it. If you're going to get into My Kingdom, I have to be it. I have to be satisfactory to you. What I offer you has to be satisfactory. It has to be all you want. It has to offer you enough."

And that becomes a difficult task. Because when you're trying to overcome the desires that you previously had, it's hard to find that vessel (that is given to you for the Kingdom of Heaven to speak to you through) adequate supply for all of your needs, until those needs are fairly well overcome and you have shifted to a new set of needs. But that teacher, that vessel, can help you shift, can help you make the adjustment so that you can go through the weaning from those old needs and adopting new needs and looking to the Kingdom of Heaven through that vessel. It has to be done that way. I'm afraid Jesus warned us all of that, that it has to be done that way. Someone has to be assigned that position, and we have to accept the one that was assigned to that position. And that individual has to be satisfying to us, adequate to fill the bill of our needs. And that really puts the pressure on that vessel, because that vessel knows that his Older Member, or his Father more than fills the bill. So, the big question or the big problem that we have to deal with is examining the bill that needs to be filled. Does the bill need to be changed? How much of the old bill is human? If it is, I have to strike it out.

We don't want to stop asking. We want to know what our needs are so that our asking does not decrease but increases. Our askings for human things decrease, decrease, decrease until they are nonexistent, and our asking of things of our Father's Kingdom increases and increases. We said that a pump had to be put into the mechanism in our free will and our choice so that our thirst increases. And it only comes as we ask questions and as we pursue, and we desire to become strong and flexible – a good crew member that wants to be available for service. And where the other crew members can say, "Boy, I really like to work on a crew with that crew member, not because that crew member is more attractive or more fun or more this, but is functioning. Someone who knows procedure, likes procedure, and can function in a way that we really feel like a mechanism that is working." And then talk about satisfying! That becomes very, very satisfying.

What's next on our list?

Student: Well, I wondered if we might want to go onto the question about getting your house in order, like regarding your possessions?

Do: Oh, I don't think we can go to that one too soon. That's a big one. Mention those things.

Student: Getting house in order, possessions.

Do: Getting house in order, possessions.

Student: Indebtedness.

Do: Indebtedness.

Student: Credit card use.

Do: Credit cards, boy, getting house in order, possessions, indebtedness, credit card usage. Okay, we'll start. I don't think we're going to get very far, but we'll start. If you stop and think about it, the way the world out there is designed, it makes fools of us, because we involve ourselves in activity that we have no right to involve ourselves in. Now, how does it do that? Because we involve ourselves in activity on the basis of what we have borrowed. We buy now, pay later. We don't really buy now. We just sign a paper, agreeing to buy. We haven't bought until it's paid for. And according to our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, we shouldn't be participating in things that are not available to us. If we needed them, they would be available to us without signing a note to someone or without having to possess something before we could afford it. And yet the whole world out there revolves around working with objects and things that we have not yet paid for. That is backwards, and it also is obviously not of our Father's Kingdom, because it binds you more to the human kingdom. It puts you in a circumstance where if you left it to do what we're talking about, you'd leave a mess. And we can't do that. You can't leave a mess. So, we have to get our houses in order. The first thing on his list, was get our houses in order, and getting our houses in order means we've got to examine the whole status of, is there any validity to even possessing a credit card? Are we not then using something, using gasoline, paid for with our gasoline credit card, that isn't ours that we're going to pay for later? We can't do that.

Well, as we sit here, there goes that 10-second marker and that means that this session is coming to an end, and we have to pick this one up in our next session.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 9 (60 Min)

Here we are again, and this is our ninth session. I'm going to ask the camera behind me to let you see our helpers today.

Well, in an earlier session I believe I explained to you that we got up early, early, early in the morning, while everyone happened to be in the same place because we had a holiday, and we were visiting, and we had a little lesson which I don't need to get into, because I went over it with you at that time. But here's another little illustration that I want to share with you.

In the quarters where I spent last night, I seemed to sleep only a very short time, not that it's that unusual. I don't seem to require that much sleep, which is fine. But from about 1:30 on, it was as if I wanted to stay in communication with Ti and wanted to see if there was anything we needed to alter, or anything I needed to particularly be aware of that I was not aware of in our sessions. And one point that came in so clearly that was new to me, in a sense, because we hadn't discussed it in the sessions, was that really these sessions are for this classroom. In other words, they're for the students. I feel I have instruction that Ti is helping me – hopefully speaking through me – and so on up the pipeline – it's almost as if I have instructions to make these tapes of these sessions for the purposes that the students will have use of if this task continues.

And so it puts the focus on a little different point, because it's up to them. They don't have clear-cut instructions on what to do with these tapes or these sessions, and we don't make those instructions up. We do a step at a time. I think I've mentioned to you before that very often instructions just come a step at a time, and then we wait for the next one. But we do whatever we have received. And we did receive instructions to try this method of operation here to see if it would work for the teacher to make tapes with the students trying to help with the picture and asking some questions. And, it seemed that our Older Member was coming in to those sessions and helping us with information, and it was working. It seemed we were being used as instruments for their information. And as soon as it seemed to flow as well as it did, even though we know that that could change at any time, then we've just been going on with it. It's been hard to stop. We've almost wanted to not miss a day without doing a Session or two, as long as we felt like we were still getting information to go further.

But I want to make the point a little bit more clearly that these sessions and these tapes are, in a sense, teaching tools for the students – to get that idea a little more clearly in our heads. In other words, my relationship with you in a sense is symbolic, and in a sense it isn't. If this task proceeds, my relationship with you might end up being more as grandfather to grandson, and these students might serve more in the capacity as teacher since they are older than you. I don't know if that has clarified in your mind, but it might have if other things that we have said had added up at this time. If they have completed sufficient overcoming of their own in this task, and they received instruction to put the information out, even though the way that instruction came was to do it in this method, then they are in a real sense going to serve in the teacher role with you, or in a sense, in the "midwifing" or the father relationship, if you don't use that as a spiritual term. In other words, if they have completed enough overcoming that they could move right now into our Father's Kingdom, and even move into a physical vehicle of our Father's Kingdom, no longer occupying the vehicle they are in, whether this one or the one that they're in is changed over into that new vehicle or another one altogether, then they don't need to come back to the human kingdom unless sent. That's the instruction we have received – that that's the case.

So, here's another one of those days where you're put to the test by things that we say, because this could be hard to make a mental adjustment to. Each time we arrive at a threshold of a major move forward, it always tests us. And it usually tests us as "I'm not sure I can buy that." But if you examine things, and the next thing you know you say, "Well, it makes sense. I'll just have to see. I'll just have to play it a step at a time." And that's the way you should, just simply a step at a time, and checking, just as we check. And you check with your Heavenly Father. You check with your connection, and see if we have the same one. If we don't have the same connection, then that's a clear indication that it's time for you to cease in this process of letting us serve as the instruments to help you get this picture and get this information that we have instruction to share with you.

Well, we're going to proceed with our questions, and I'm going to ask this student what's first on her list of questions?

Student: Well, I wanted to see if you felt like you wanted to say more about the terms "God," "Lord," and "Older Member"?

Do: Yes, I feel that we should. That's a very misunderstood issue. Humans have a lot of misunderstandings about the term "God." So much so that some, without really stopping and thinking about the implications of it, think, "Well, there's only one God and everything in the Heavens is God's, so there must be only one Creature there." And yet they also think that people, when they die, go there. So, how can there only...? Oh well, it gets kind of confusing. And the term "God," the English term "God" – unfortunately in the translation from the manuscripts of the Bible there were different terms used. The English translators kind of lumped them all into one and used "God," no matter which Hebrew name was used. All these names really meant a member of the Kingdom of Heaven who was assigned a particular task "relating" to the humans. So, if you look at manuscripts and see the different names that were applied, some might think, "Well, that's talking about the different characteristics of this one Person." And they don't stop to think that the "Chief of Chiefs" or the "God of Gods," the Almighty, the Most High God, the Creator in the Kingdom of Heaven, can assign some from His membership to assist Him in tending to the garden, certainly in elementary tasks or tasks that would be elementary to the Creator. And that doesn't mean that they have not even learned how to create, in a garden circumstance.

For sake of clarity and understanding, it would help your head, as it has helped us to understand, as it has been given to us, that the different members of the Kingdom of Heaven who were assigned to relate to the humans in this Age, depending upon the task that was their assignment, ended up with a different "title." And it was more of a title than it was a name. If you know much about the history in Hebrew as it relates to the name that applies to members of our Father's Kingdom, there is some discussion that those names were never to be pronounced and never to be spoken. Some even don't write them except maybe a consonant to start it and then a dash and maybe another consonant to end it. There have been all kinds of theological discussions through the years about the "tabooness" of humans being able to call the names, or to not really know the names.

So, the humans were given titles to use for different members of the Kingdom of Heaven that illustrated their task assignments. And like I say, those titles were reduced to just a single title in the translation to English. So, the title "God" is just kind of like a general "over-title," because there were others that were given depending on the task that the member was assigned to by the Creator (or whichever subordinate member assigned that individual) – to work directly with the humans, whether it be with Adam and Eve in the Garden or those in the desert or in Egypt or in Israel. So, don't be confused by these terms. These are simply titles. Now those titles should receive tremendous respect from the humans, because in a sense it is a human relating to a member of the Kingdom of Heaven. And the members of the Kingdom of Heaven wouldn't be relating to them if the information was worthless or if they were simply humans just relating to them in human matters. Those members are relating to humans, trying to help them get mindful of the Truth, the reality that the Kingdom of Heaven exists, that they are "plants" that were made by the Kingdom of Heaven, and if they follow the instruction and behavior from the Kingdom of Heaven, then they can learn to actually aspire to be members of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now, Jesus, in His relationship with His disciples, some of them called Him "Lord," and some called Him "Rabbi" or called Him "Teacher" or called Him "Jesus." And from our point of view, I believe that probably from their reference point that "Teacher" was the most applicable term, and that "Lord" probably meant more in its original meaning, as reference to a member of Our Father's Kingdom, or someone who is above you in the step of growth, the step of elevation, or closer to God. Even in humans' kingdoms, where they have a monarchy (a king or a queen), they use the term "lords" for people in positions of authority and who have higher tasks in the structure of that kingdom government. And when in the Bible they use the terms Kingdom, it's because the illustration of a King and the relationship of the subjects to the King, is very much like a hierarchy of authority in the Kingdom of Heaven. The illustration works, the analogy works. It's very like some of the structures that have been translated into the human kingdom, as they had king and queen and subjects and lords and parliament houses and so forth. We'll discuss a little bit more of that issue the further we go.

Now, a very objective term that we have been given to try to help our understanding, and as far as I know, I don't know of a synonym in the translation of the Hebrew...well I take that back. There are synonyms both in the Hebrew and the Greek that relate to someone who has gone further on the ladder in getting closer to the Chief of Chiefs, or closer to our Father's Kingdom, as Older. And also if they're members of our Father's Kingdom, then we can put those together and they're an Older Member. And we talk constantly about Older Members in relating as a point of reference from one member to another one, a Younger Member, an Older Member. Because that's perfectly synonymous with son, father, grandfather – Younger Member, Older Member, Older Member's Older Member. And in the same way, in the Kingdom of Heaven as a kingdom with a king and subjects, the subjects have a structure that could also be referred to in an analogy of families. For example, in a partnership, there can be, if you use it in the right sense, a husband and wife, or a marriage, because there is a committal. Not husband and wife in the male/female sense, but "marriage" for committal in a partnership where there may not usually be that much age difference or it might be the connecting age difference. So, these are kind of used interchangeably where even these students, for example, see me as an Older Member; I see them as younger members, in the sense that they are committed to the Kingdom of Heaven and have to also accept the Representative in that committal. They have only one Representative. They don't have much choice, at least for the moment we haven't found much choice to give them. So, in a sense they have that same committal they make to the Kingdom of Heaven, with the Representative that was given. And that not only are they younger members to Older Members, but that committal almost becomes like a "marriage," if you can take it out of the male/female relationship context.

It's very interesting to think of those terms, because historically in the manuscripts, as they relate to our Father's Kingdom and its relationship to the humans, certainly in this Age that we know about (we don't know much about the other Ages), these synonyms work – even though through the Ages they've become kind of "Old English" or kind of "religiosized," or we make them something less than objective, less than true, by making them very spiritual terms. And that's the reason that our instruction has been that Teacher is certainly a good and appropriate term. Older Member is certainly a good objective term. We can use that better. We get uncomfortable when they use the term Father, certainly in speaking to me, even though I'm serving in that capacity. But students don't use that term in relating to me because it gives me the jitters, because it kind of brings in the possible religiosity of that terminology. Even though ever since we've begun these sessions, we're talking to you about our Heavenly Father, and even though I realize that Ti is my Older Member, in a sense synonymous with a Father to me, since it's Older Member. In a realistic sense, these are my children. Remember how you get "birthed" into the Kingdom of Heaven? Babies in the Kingdom of Heaven come from adults from the human kingdom, so if these are babies that have come from the human kingdom entering the Kingdom of Heaven, and I am assigned the role of "midwifing," then these are my children, I am their Father. But I still get uncomfortable with it, and we don't use the term relating to me as Father, certainly not Lord, certainly not God, certainly not Heavenly Father. We reserve that kind of terminology for those who are outside of human vehicles and in vehicles that would be the natural vehicle for our Father's Kingdom.

Okay, lets go to the next question, or was there more to that question?

Student: Well, I might be wrong, but it seems like you covered it.

Do: Okay, what's next on our list?

Student: Talking about terms, there are lots of interpretations to the word sin and I'm wondering if you could help us by giving us the real meaning of sin and if there's any validity to karma.

Do: Okay, you put me on the spot when you said, "Will you give us the real meaning of the word sin." I'll do the best I can and hope that it's Ti who is feeding me because I certainly trust the position that Ti happens to be in right now and her relationship with our Older Member. Sin, sin. Karma certainly is in this picture – "karma" meaning a term that a lot of Eastern religions use, and we'll discuss that in a moment. But let's talk about sin. Sin is anything, any behavior, any act – "act" meaning a thought, any conduct – anything that I do that puts space between me and God, or between me and the Kingdom of Heaven, between me and the Representative, between me and goodness. Anytime the part of the mind that's in my soul gets its way, and it's not of that majority side that is mind that has been given to me from our Father's Kingdom, then it is sin. It is information that came from the wrong side of the tracks, that is not true. It is misinformation. It is designed to convert me to the ways of the world or to put me in opposition to my Father's Kingdom and to prevent me from overcoming the world and getting to my Father's Kingdom. That is sin. And you can't talk about sin without talking about death. I'm sure all of you know the little scripture, "The wages of sin are death." Now we've talked about how death doesn't mean losing a vehicle. Death means losing the soul. So, if my soul shrinks and deteriorates and goes further and further away from the Kingdom of Heaven by each act of sin, or each act of the world, or each act of misinformation that I do, then I'm getting closer and closer to death. Because death is when that mind of God that was in my soul has shrunk so that our Father's Kingdom would judge it non-redeemable, non-redeemable, it can't be reversed. It's gone; by its own choices it has gone to the point of being nonexistent. There's not enough good stuff in there to even make it register.

Let's be sure that you understand that certainly in the position in the task that we're involved in, we don't do any judging, and we are not the ones who would be in a position like that. But it's very important that you, as a possible student, understand how behavior adds up.

Before we go any further with that, let's skip to this Eastern idea of karma and the idea that I have to pay for my sins – and this doesn't just apply to the Eastern idea of karma. The truth as it relates to us in the manuscripts is that we pay for our sin, and the wages of sin are death. So, if I continue in the path of sin, I'm going to lose my soul, I'm going to reach death. In a sense, each act of sin that I do is going to take hard work and labor to recover from. If I become an alcoholic, it becomes labor to rise above, really rise above alcoholism. And we're just using that as an example of anything that I would overcome in the process of getting out of the sin that I got into. What's the little saying, that whatever you're bound to on Earth, you're bound to in Heaven? Now, that was using the term "Heaven" to kind of throw several things into one grouping, one terminology, just like "God" is a general term that means a number of different things. "Heaven" also means a bunch of different things to different people. Like "Heaven" was used and is used as a term of where you go when you lose your vehicle. And that may or may not be so, certainly from someone else's point of view. Of course, a lot of people who say, "Heaven is where you go when you lose your vehicle," also say, "If you don't go there, then you go to hell." And "hell," of course, also means different things to different understandings, depending upon how much misinformation you have or how much knowledge you have, or how much closer your information is to the truth, or how you've grown on the ladder of getting closer to our Father's Kingdom. Because that's where that truth comes in – a little bit, little bit at a time. Okay, Heaven and hell, and what happens in between.

Give me that again because I got off the track and I want to get right back to the particulars of where we were.

Student: Yes, I asked what about sin and does karma have any validity?

Do: Okay, let's get back to the karma idea. Thank you. The idea of karma is that I pay for any misdeed I have done. In other words, some of the Eastern religions who believe in the idea of karma believe that, "If I kill somebody, then I'm going to be killed. That same thing is going to come back to me. If I murder somebody, I'm going to be murdered. If I treat somebody ill, I'm going to be treated in the same way." And that's a very close translation. Don't forget, a counterfeit is always very close to the truth. Karma is a counterfeit. Some of what it says is true. Other aspects that it says are not true. Where it becomes untrue is that in our Father's Kingdom our Father can send a Representative to accelerate your possibilities of getting closer to the Kingdom of Heaven. And that Representative, or that individual from that Kingdom, when they involve themselves in your task of overcoming and they assist you in that, they can from an Eastern point of view, or the karma point of view, they can take your karma. Our Father's House's interpretation of that same idea says, "I can take your sin, I can relieve you of your sin." When Jesus said to his disciples that, 'If you truly ask forgiveness, I'll take your case to my Father, I'll represent you to my Father, I'll see what my Father says, and if my Father says it's O.K., you're truly sorry that you did it and you want a fresh start, you want to start over again, then who am I to say...because I'll certainly give you that chance to start over again.' In a sense, then, you would not pay for the sin that you did if you have someone who can take that from you. Now, it has to be a Representative of our Father's Kingdom, as Jesus was, who can take that from you and take it on themselves. In other words, it was a debt that you had. You did a bunch of wrongs and they add up. Every time you do a behavior against our Father's Kingdom, it starts totaling up on a column and the column can get pretty big. It can get pretty terrible. And if you had to pay them off, I don't know how many Ages it would take for you to get them all paid off.

But this is also where "time shortened" comes in and where, as our Father's Kingdom relates to some who are overcoming the world, that debt gets relieved or it gets dismissed. But not altogether, according to the rules that existed in a number of stages of this particular Earth Age. Now, what I mean is it didn't get relieved altogether. And here's where Christians traditionally theologically interpret that Jesus paid it all for you. 'By His blood were ye redeemed.' In a lot of sense of the word, that's absolutely true, and we'll talk about that for a moment. Because He said to His disciples, who were actually physically, personally relating to Him, and as they did things that were against His instruction in their overcoming and they recognized it, they acknowledged it, they asked forgiveness for it, and He said, 'I'll take it,' and He took it. By taking that debt, He's got a bunch of notes He's holding here. They were your notes, and now they're His notes. And I'm not saying it still isn't the case, we don't know. We'll talk about this in a second. But for a long time in our Father's Kingdom, the process was, or a decision from the "Parliament" in the Kingdom, we'll say, or from the "Supreme Court" in our Father's Kingdom, said that those notes have to be paid, somebody's got to pay those notes, those notes of sin. So, if I've committed a bunch of sins and somebody takes my note and relieves me of it and washes me clean and gives me a fresh start, then that somebody who took those notes has to pay for that. And if my total sin certainly amounted to the probability of death had I not had someone to dump it on, I would have "died," I would have lost my soul. And that was the case. Had those souls that Jesus was dealing with, not known Him.... They got some help in being directed to Him, but it also required work of them to pursue Him, to believe Him, to fight off the influences and the doubt that the world gave them. It would have been a lot easier for them to say, "Boy, it's getting too hot around here. People are hunting for Him and they're going to be hunting for me soon. I think I want to go back and play it safe." I mean it would have been real easy for them to stop in their process, because they could have easily said, "Well I just can't believe that He's who He really says He is. We don't have any evidence of this." I mean, that happened. He lost them; He lost many who were in line for entering our Father's Kingdom as sheep of His fold or as students of Him as a Teacher.

Now we'll go back to where we were. If death is the wages of sin, and these who came to Him brought their tally to Him, He took their pink slips, or their notes of indebtedness, and then He had to pay for it in death...and He did. You heard me in an earlier tape (and I hope that you paid close attention) when I said that whether or not He died on the cross, literally diagnosed by a doctor (had there been an advanced doctor present), and rose from the dead, that to base your belief of knowledge from our Father's Kingdom on that one act, and say, "If it wasn't so, then it's all a farce," and we said, "That's ridiculous." We also said that it didn't matter to us whether that act was staged symbolically or whether it was real. But here's another possibility, and we're speculating, that the act could have been very real, had the law still been on the books in the "Supreme Court" as it was handed down, that those debts had to be paid. And if their debts equaled death, then it could also mean that since Jesus took them on, the only way He could pay them was to go through having the sinners (those who were against Him), who were adding up their own tally of the same sins, be the ones who then initiated that death. In other words, they were then used to pay the debt for those who were His students, who gave their debt to Him and He wiped them clean. And He was willing to do that.

Now, our Father's Kingdom is alive and well and "Parliament" is still in session and has not ended. It still makes decisions and it still relates to the Chief of Chiefs. The Kingdom exists. The King is still on His throne. The whole thing works. As to whether or not that same parallel would have to be drawn today if a Representative took those sins, or those notes of old debt of sin, whether they would tally death, we don't know. Or whether the law has come down in specific cases, because it's always judged according to the specific case – it's not prejudged in that respect. Oh, it is prejudged, unless it has been changed. But anytime that something tests it, then you go and check the books and you see if that is still what's on the books, and if it is on the books, then that is what happens. We don't know what's on the books today. We don't know, for example, if that kind of thing would have to happen to this vehicle, if I would have to lose it in that way because of my relationship with these students, or what would happen to their vehicles as they relate to you if you continue in the direction that you're going and they continue in the direction of possibly serving as Older Member or Teacher as they relate to you.

Boy, this requires that you travel fast, doesn't it? We don't know what's "on the books." And we don't guess it. As we have said before, we are not into any martyr trip. We don't like that. It's unnatural. It should not be. It was not designed for anyone to like martyrdom, or to think that they get spiritual elevation by it, which could be a mistranslation (or counterfeit information) of what happened at a death which paid a debt, and then therefore freed the one who paid it and went on up. And it's true if people say Jesus didn't owe that debt. Those sins weren't His – even though at one time He had gone through that same process that they were going through a long time ago. Because that's the way, don't forget, that children get into our Father's Kingdom, and certainly Jesus was one who got into our Father's Kingdom.

Now exactly what the lesson plans were, and the particulars about graduation at the time that Jesus graduated into our Father's Kingdom from a human kingdom, or a human-kingdom equivalent, we don't know because we don't have that information available to us. Don't forget that we have also talked about how every individual on this planet in this Age could have been a created individual instead of one born of sin. I'm afraid that's true. That is sin. That is a condition that was brought to them from a kingdom below. It was an animal condition. It was not intended for human. Even though a human was designed to have the capability of doing that act and they had the option to do it, but they have to look away from their relationship with the One assigned to them by the Kingdom of Heaven in order to participate in that act.

Now, the reason I'm bringing that back up is because Jesus could have graduated in a class or from an Age where that didn't happen, whether that's only theoretical and did or did not take place is unimportant. The fact is that the kingdom of man, the kingdom of human, is designed to go both ways. And by choice in this Age that we know from our history books – our history books being primarily the one history book (the Bible) that most of the public questions the most as to whether or not it's an authentic history book, the one that does actually tell about God's, our Heavenly Father's, our Creator's relationship with man, is the one that the deceived questioned the most as to whether or not it is an authentic record or if it is a collection of some spiritual documents or legends, and yet it is the only record of events. There's a lot in there that you could quibble over. For example, punctuation that means a lot in your understanding of things, and yet for the most part, the Biblical scriptures have no punctuation, so you don't know where one sentence ends and the next one begins, and it could have a lot of different meanings. So, how much of it that man altered, because of misinformation, since that's where Satan camped the most to give misinformation to those who were the rightful heirs of our Father's Kingdom...it gets pretty sticky doesn't it?

Okay, we might have gone enough on that course to have you understand that. But it is so important to understand that our Father's Kingdom is alive and well. There is still a group, or there are still individuals that serve in the capacity of the "Court," making decisions about what to do about this case. Sin still adds up, and can add up to such a great total that there's not enough of our Father's mind left in there to account for anything...it's impossible for it to be salvaged. Therefore, even at that point then, it becomes a positive because it is recycled. No child of God is lost. And make no doubt about that. But our Father's Kingdom has the right to do that, to recycle what has become so poor. I mean that's what's going to happen. I don't want to sound like a prophet, but here at the end of the Age, this is what becomes such an important issue, because things get very critical at the end of the Age. I know I'm going to throw my teleprompters off here by skipping to that for a moment. You know, humans could say, "This all sounds good and well, but I don't see any evidence. And I could go to the history books and I can't see that this is really...." No, because there are no manuscripts of what happened specifically at the end of the last Age. Therefore, great swarms of members of our Father's Kingdom, plus from the counterfeit kingdom, could come in at the end of the Age and take their part of the harvest of whatever was, in a sense, matched with them, because of what the soul had become at that point. And Luci's kingdom wants souls. He wants them more than our Father's Kingdom. That's kind of hard to understand, but Luci's kingdom needs them. I mean, he needs them desperately as he works against our Father's Kingdom. Our Father's Kingdom wants them because they are His creation that He wants to be able to receive the inheritance of Sonship in his Kingdom. But believe it or not, our Father's Kingdom does not need those souls. Our Father's Kingdom can get along fine without them. He's not out recruiting them because He needs them for an army to work against Satan. Nope! Different altogether. Our Father's Kingdom does not need them. Our Father's Kingdom is all-sufficient. All, for our sake, all-involved in being a benefactor, all-involved in trying to help those with potential to receive their potential, not concerned with building an army. I mean it's certainly true that our Father is so pleased and excited, and nothing could make Him happier than to have graduates into His Kingdom, new children, new grandchildren, new great, great, great, great, great, great, great, great, grandchildren, if you're talking in relationship to the Creator. And it's important that we understand that.

What's next on our list?

Student: Would you like to talk about the domesticated animals' relationship to human, and is that a usable parallel?

Do: Well, I'm glad you brought that up because I think that we should discuss that. And this is going to test some others because we'll have to use terminology that you might have been taught by certain traditional backgrounds to be turned off about. And we have discussed this slightly. I'm afraid we can't discuss this without also discussing the appropriate usage of terms like "creation" and "evolution." And I'm not talking in terms of Darwinism. But just because Darwin existed doesn't mean that things don't evolve and we are prohibited from using the term evolving or thereby using it as "evolution." Our Father's Kingdom has designed a lot of things within the framework of His creation that evolve. And yet where He does not want things to evolve, He takes out a link in the chain so that it can't evolve beyond that. I mean, there will be a missing link so that there's no evolvement beyond that. Or He might permit certain things to evolve and others not to evolve, or vehicles not to evolve but some souls to evolve. So, in that usage, again I say not in the typical Darwinian usage, in the usage that the design of creation also involves evolving, which is beautiful if you think of it in the right way. I mean, as you look at the various degrees of souls that you might be acquainted with on this planet, at their various stages of growth you see things evolving away from the truth, away from our Heavenly Father. And at times they evolve closer. You see it happening in religious groups, or families, nations, or anything. They are either getting more corruptible and more perishable, or less corruptible and less perishable.

Back to her question. Let's talk about the illustration of the domesticated animal in its relationship to the human kingdom and use it as an illustration or parallel to a human who's trying to get into the Heavens, or into our Father's Kingdom. When a domesticated animal doesn't like to act like an animal, doesn't even identify with being an animal, it only cares to please its master, which is the case in different nations with different animals. For the most part in this nation, or in the U.S., it's the dog, or in some instances the cat. The thing that identifies, that we use as our analogy here, is when all that that little animal wants is to please, and it just runs around wanting an indication of, "Am I pleasing? Am I pleasing?" and is just waiting for one moment of attention from that human, and he doesn't like to run with the dogs. I mean, if it has truly evolved, it doesn't want to run with the pack. And I have to bring up another issue here that might touch your funny bone in one way or the other. I can remember hearing some animal rights people who were concerned with the overpopulation of animals in the world and they talk about this "have your pets spayed or neutered." That's one of the kindest things that could happen to that dog or that pet. Because then that gives added help to that little pet to be more preoccupied with service, more preoccupied with pleasing, more preoccupied with, "What can I do?" Now, a lot of times, that's where it kind of separates certain dogs, who want to be petted and that's about as far as their service gets, from others whose service can extend beyond that, where they yield very quickly or easily for a training that can even find them as seeing eye dogs or hearing dogs, or where they are trained to do a lot of tasks. And I think this happens certainly in some countries with development in the monkeys or the chimpanzees. I don't know all the types of domesticated animals that are trying to please the human kingdom. Unfortunately the same ratio happens, that the more difficult the transition is, or the more of a requirement there is, in other words, the stiffer the task is of trying to assist in real service to the human kingdom, the more it weeds out a lot of the dogs, or whatever the domesticated animal might be that really shows a conscious desire for approval and to serve.

It's the same way for a human who's trying to overcome his humanness and not associate with humans and wants only to be a member of our Father's Kingdom and would even crave to be "spayed" or "neutered." Remembering in generations past even some of those Essene communities that we've talked about did do neutering of their sexuality in order to get closer to their Heavenly Father. And Jesus certainly knew of that when he gave the little illustration of some become eunuchs for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven, 'some become eunuchs because others have made them eunuchs – some make themselves eunuchs in order to serve the Kingdom of Heaven.' So, if you read that carefully within its context, you see how that exists. There's a very strong parallel. And at this point we have to switch into another gear as we talk about this domesticated relationship of the animal to the human or the human to our Father's Kingdom.

We have to talk more in terms of a soul than a vehicle. (I'm not saying this is true, and we don't teach it as truth. We have examined it because it was given to us to examine, and it seems likely, and we certainly wouldn't be disturbed if that's the way it happens.) If you just understand that the most likely scenario is that the spirit of a domesticated animal that wanted only to please and was willing to go to “X” step, at some point it received its reward and got to move in as a beginner in the human kingdom. And we don’t know what all the rules were as to who got to move into the human kingdom – what spirits got to move into the human kingdom. At that point, then, this thing that we call soul and identify as a package for mind that comes from two sources, even the rightful application of the word soul comes into existence for the first time. Needless to say, the dog wasn’t able to talk to his neighbor dog about his soul. That wasn’t in his vocabulary. Only upon reaching into the human kingdom does even that word processor become a part of his potential, and to his brain and his understanding, so in that sense of the word, then, “soul” began in the human kingdom. Though there was still something that could have certainly come from that devoted creature, that life force that wanted to move up, that wanted not to be like the other creatures in his kingdom but wanted to associate with that human kingdom. And it helps you get this picture if you can accept that illustration. Whether the illustration is that accurate or not is relatively unimportant, though it seems likely that it might be.

Okay, I was going to go to a later question but think for the moment we’ll stick to our pattern here. Was that her question? Okay, what’s next on your list?

Student: I wondered if you wanted to go back to the topic we were discussing at the end of the last tape on possessions and indebtedness and charge cards, and perhaps not leaving a mess behind.

Do: Well, we have to because we just barely got started on that, and that’s such an important issue. I’m trying to recall, since we have made Sessions 6 and 7, wasn’t it? Or 7 and 8? We’ve made 7 and 8 twice and it’s hard to be clear as to how much was covered. You know, I’ve got to stop here and remind you that we’ve talked about how lessons are hard for us, and the reason they’re hard for us is because it drives it home. And the lesson I learned that caused us to have to redo the tapes has side issues, like the one I’m speaking of now. It makes it hard for me to remember, and being hard for me to remember helps me not forget that lesson, if I apply it in that way.

Okay, to go back to the topic, it’ll be funny if just about the time we get back to the topic, we see the little card. We haven’t seen it yet. Okay, here we go.

If you know your religious manuscripts, if you know the Judeo-Christian literature, you know that a number of times in that material, it speaks of the value of man’s relationship to possessions and money and indebtedness. If someone borrows something from you, if they need to borrow it from you, if you have it and they need it, and it’s valuable to them, from Our Father’s point of view, then, you give it, and if they pay it back, fine; if they don’t, you forget about it. Needless to say, that’s not the way it is in this world. And that’s not really nearly as important an issue as the issue that has gotten so totally out of sync with our Father’s Kingdom, and that is indebtedness. In the human world out there today, everyone owes for everything, and that is totally contrary to our Father’s Kingdom. According to our Father’s Kingdom, you should not have use of anything that did not come your way rightfully. It is improper to go out and borrow money, then get something and put it into use, and then you owe for it, and frequently by the time you’ve paid for it, it’s worthless. So, then what do you do? You borrow more money and buy insurance policies to cover what it was that you didn’t have use of so that you would have a guarantee that you might be able to have use of something that you have no right to have a use for. Well, I’m going to try to go as quickly as I can with this issue. The principle that we have to live by is that we are not permitted to have any indebtedness. And we can see the value of that, that what is given to us is adequate. If it is not given to us, then we have no business using it. If we ask for it and do not receive it, we go and re-examine our asking and discover that it was improper asking. It was inappropriate asking. And the same thing goes for credit cards. How can we owe the petroleum company for gasoline that we’re using in our automobile when it isn’t paid for, it isn’t ours? And we might not ever have the ability to pay for it. Of course, then Satan has another little thing that comes in real neat. You can just get it all relieved by claiming Chapter 11...you know, fresh start. And yet it really isn’t a fresh start – in a sense, it’s held against you. But the principle of our Father’s Kingdom says that, “What I give to you, I give to you, it is yours.” He does not give us anything that we owe Him for. We’ve talked about the only kind of indebtedness that He knows anything about is when we go against Him. Then we are creating an indebtedness against Him. That is hard to pay for step by step, of course, unless relieved. But credit cards therefore are taboo, unless you can have one because it might help open a door for you and you don’t use it. That might be an okay thing. Now, that means even for automobiles, yes, it means houses, it means everything, and we’ve got to cover this issue more because that sign that 10 seconds are left just went up and we’ll start here next time and see how far we can go.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 10 (60 Min)

Here we are with Session 10. We took a few minutes break, and the teleprompters are back with me. We said we were going to try to fit in this one about indebtedness, and charge cards, and related issues, since twice now we've been just about to start on that, and then it was the end of that session.

A couple of things we mentioned in our little break were: getting your house in order so that you are free of debts, and what's the purpose in all of that? Not only is debt against the laws, or rules, in the overcoming process, and not only what is the purpose, but we need to realize that it applies most urgently and more directly to those we're talking about as far as overcomers are concerned. Because those houses must be gotten in order, and they have to be gotten in order the right way. And the only way we know, or the best we can do in trying to do it the right way, is according to the instruction that we have received on what is the right way. So, it's important to realize that the issue is a major issue for those who see themselves as beginning a major task in personal overcoming – trying to complete that task to the satisfaction of our Father's Kingdom before the end of the Age, or certainly have it underway enough that we are safe in their hands and certainly in their camp and not in the other camp. There was another point to that, what was it?

Student: Is it not leaving a mess behind?

Do: Yes, that's a very important aspect of it, too. It is improper for us to say, "Well, I'm just going to walk out the door of my house. I'm going to pack my little suitcase, and I'm just not going to worry about whom I owe this to and whom I owe that to and how to take care of those issues." Even though the possibility exists that as you might be in the process of trying to leave quickly – because it's very important that if you go this way that you do it very, very quickly – in spite of your effort to not leave a mess that you might be forced to leave some, and that's different. But for you to intentionally choose to leave a mess and turn the responsibility over to others is not the proper way to do it. If in the process you end up with no choice because the circumstances close in on you so quickly, then you have to do as you would in any circumstance that finds yourself in that position. While you're trying to do what is right and the circumstance changes, then you say, "I have no choice, I must accept this as what is right, and I'll do the best I can to proceed from here or seek help," and say to us, "This happened, what can I do? It didn't happen the way I thought it was going to be." Because it's true that in the process of overcoming, as we receive the lessons that we need, it never is the way we thought it was going to be. It always is pretty traumatic, and it always takes a 90-degree turn that becomes a shock to us, and we have to adjust to it and accept it as, "Wow, that was just exactly the thing to help me take a bigger leap forward that I didn't anticipate." So, we have to be prepared for that. Remember that this lesson of being free of indebtedness and not leaving a mess behind does apply, or the first one certainly, more to those who are in the process of trying to overcome. And not leaving a mess, of course, more specifically would apply to those who are trying to overcome, because they certainly would want to try to be more mature about it and not just careless about it, but would seek help and guidance in how to quickly sever those things without doing it in a wrong way.

You know, one of the hardest things to do in this overcoming process is to take menial instruction – instruction in areas that you think that you can handle yourself – and to seek that instruction from those who have done it before you. It's hard to make that adjustment, and yet if you do this, if you take this step, if you become a student of overcoming and we become teachers for you, if these students become your teachers, at every step you will increasingly learn, "Goodness, I could have avoided this, I could have avoided that, if I had sought some help." But each time you seek help, then comes the test of, "Could I just have done it my way, or is it best to look to our Father's Kingdom and those who have been assigned the task of helping me"? That in itself would put you to a test each time. And even the more you get into your overcoming, you become tested in ways that are pretty tough and pretty serious, because then you want to play a significant role as a teacher, or in the tasks that represent the Kingdom of Heaven, whether they assign you to them or that instruction is given or not.

So, those little illustrations that we used to read about of "putty in their hands" and the patience that is required, and of "wanting Your will, not mine," they keep reappearing at times when we're unaware that it is our will that we seek, thinking that this is just a step in fulfilling Their will. Yet we will assume certain steps in fulfilling it that weren't a part of Their will or our Father's will, in that chain. We must realize the rules are different, the whole world is different, the process is different, and the test is tremendous. We don't mean to frighten you with it. It wouldn't work if your motivation was because we were to scare the heck out of you or have you feel, "If you don't do this, you're going to go to hell!" I mean, that's childish. That should be beneath you and certainly beneath us as teachers. We're trying to help you be objective about it. These things don't apply to you if they don't speak to you. That's kind of hard to understand, too. If this isn't something you're to do, then it is improper for us to say that they apply to all. If you're a part of our classroom, the rules are strict, but if you are not, what you do is no concern of ours. However, no one can get to the Kingdom of Heaven without applying the same behavior that we apply. But we're not judging them; He hasn't assigned us to them. He's assigned us to those who say, "I identify. This is what I know I must do. I know that you know things that I am turned on to that I must pursue."

You know, the way it's designed here at the end of the Age, and as far as our assignment in this task is concerned, it's quite different than some of the motivation was 2000 years ago. A lot of the followers were motivated by seeming "miracles" that Jesus would do – the fishes and loaves feeding multitudes, and water to wine, and healing the blind and the sick, and raising from the dead. These things were, my goodness! they were all used to try to help those young souls to look to this individual who was the vessel and say, "What can I learn from you"? But He soon began to realize that what they wanted for the most part was more miracles, that they really didn't care about the information of overcoming, and following Him in the difficult task of overcoming the world and becoming a student and humbling themselves and going to our Father's Kingdom according to the route that was given to Him, a step at a time, day by day, in the way it was designed.

But back to how it's different. We haven't been given any powers. We don't have any instruction to do any healing or any miracles, even though I know that certainly the Next Level could do them in a snap through us if we are vessels of theirs, because they can do just about anything they want to do just by putting the thought in motion, and they could certainly do it with you or with these students or with us. We have more sense than to limit them.

In a sense, at the end of the Age the test is even greater because no one is whetting your appetite or giving you things that you could easily be motivated to do at certain stages. It's almost as if the Kingdom of Heaven is saying, "Well here's the end of the Age. You should be beyond that." And also the road is a little tougher. If these souls have come back who may have even been with Him at that time and they're coming back to complete what they must do, the road is tougher. It's harder to identify. It requires more effort on your part. It requires more thirst, it requires a stronger pump, it requires a more thorough cleansing. If you're going to get to our Father's Kingdom and be able to stay there and not need to return to the human kingdom unless assigned, then the list is long and the requirements are stiff. If you have truly graduated, you're going to take a vehicle (like we have said before, wear a "suit of clothes") that doesn't even have the capacity to do a lot of things that humans have to do. Not that you would want to do them, but it has also many things and capacities and functions to do (as we've talked about – mental communication, and the missing of certain organs, and certain capabilities to do things). We don't want to try to entice you by saying that you could appear or disappear, or that you could move from here to there in space in a matter of a moment just by techniques that are natural to them, just as natural to them as an elementary chemistry or a physics classroom. Okay, I think enough said on that. What's the next question on our list?

Student: Is this a good time to talk about our lifestyle as it relates to a classroom?

Do: As good a time as any. Our lifestyle as it relates to a classroom I believe we've discussed that we do not currently have a physical place where we can go and where we have protection and seclusion; it's not that easy. I'm not sure we wouldn't try to take advantage of it for as long as we were capable of taking advantage of it, if one existed, but it doesn't. Therefore, our classroom is wherever we are, whatever numbers there are of our classroom in that situation, applying all the lessons, staying in close touch, and receiving instruction. And believe it or not, the design that has been given to us, the help that Ti receives and feeds to me, is just unbelievable how appropriately it can be applied to the circumstances that we have existed in, that allowed us to at times be together, at times to be separate, at times to be in several units.

If we've received instruction to make these tapes, to do these sessions and to put them out, then what's the process? We do it a step at a time, and then we get new instructions. And therefore, we trust, because everything else has worked out as we trusted it. We trust that it would all work out for you. It would require your trust. If you are sincerely seeking our Father's Kingdom, and certainly if we are permitted to serve in the capacity of helping you get there, then I can't imagine that our Father wouldn't take advantage of the opportunity and say; "I have these Representatives there that are doing that process of change, and here are some whom we gave them instruction to be in contact with and receive information on how to get from here to there. So, I certainly wouldn't leave them if they are serious and if they have that potential."

And so we believe the likelihood is there for you, but whether or not it materializes still depends on you – whether the need will exist – it will only exist if you respond. Each step of closeness that we have is determined by how we respond to what is given to us, whether it's a lesson, an exercise in restraint, or getting rid of our own mind. It's how we respond that pleases or displeases our Father. It's not because we make a better cake batter or that we'd be a better driver of an automobile or, even though we try to do all those things to the best of our ability. But things that could be done in the human kingdom, having a better brain (what humans would call a better brain), doesn't necessarily make us a better "responder." It's our yielding – not being someone who is constantly preoccupied with how I want to serve and what I want to do, but someone who says, "If I'm not getting assignments, then it's in order to give me a chance to let the information that I have been given to mature. I'll stay alert and keen and do all the things that are assigned to me as best I can. If those seem to be thin, then it's my test of patience, because I have to trust what has been given to me from our Father's Kingdom. I will be patient and it's Their will that I want." If I respond that way, then that's my response to that situation. I'm always graded on my response, not my proficiency or my skill as far as tasks are concerned. It's how we perform the task and how we perform even if we don't get a task. Therefore, it's our response to the lessons that are given to us, or sometimes even the lessons that aren't given to us that are still situations that invite our response. All right, what's next on our list?

Student: Well, shall we talk more about physical addictions and habits?

Do: Yes, we have to get to that topic, so we might as well. What's first on your little list of physical addictions and habits?

Student: Well, there's drugs, alcohol, and cigarettes.

Do: Okay, drugs, alcohol, cigarettes. Needless to say, there's no place in this classroom or in an overcoming process for things that would change our perception, or alter our consciousness. The principle there is not that alcohol is taboo, it's that alcohol is an interference, it doesn't work for us.

Any who have worked in chemistry as it related to medicine certainly know that a wrong dosage of a medicine can kill you. To the other extreme, it may have no effect. And yet the right dosage can be the thing that can help you very much. Now, in the human world, some of those dosages are in question because they might help one thing but then cause certain side effects that would be difficult. As lessons are given to us in our Father's Kingdom, the dosages that we would receive are examined, and we may not see that dosage again and may not even see that item again. We're trying to help you understand how important dosages are, even in what we consume, whether it's the amount of broccoli we consume or the amount of wheat items that we would consume or the vegetable juice or whatever we might consume. There's no "this is right to consume and this is wrong to consume."

I imagine there are certain things that are wrong. I can't imagine there would ever be any justification in our classroom to consume marijuana or morphine or heroin, or certainly mind-altering drugs or things that would pretty obviously be only designed to alter our state of consciousness. But it's important to understand that dosages are important, and that we're not to consume things that would pose any significant danger to us. We don't receive instruction to do that, even though we learn lessons about overconsuming and underconsuming. And that's why we've been put through all kinds of tests, including water fasts and juice fasts and strict vegetarian diets where we consumed only vegetables for a long period of time, and then vegetables and fruits, and then just fruits only for a period of time. We've been through all these things and we've learned lessons at each one of them. And we learn what serves as maybe a cleaner fuel, what might last a little longer. It's funny that in a lot of our testing at times we've seemed like we needed sweets. I don't know if it's a type of brain food, but we need certain types of sweets. Sometimes the fruits will satisfy that need, but we learn that the health food route doesn't always jive with the instructions that we get, though it does jive to some extent for certain periods of time. Don't forget, the name of our game is Capital, neon-light, FLEXIBLE! Therefore, we are put through things again and again and again, because we don't want to get hooked on something new or decide in our own mind, "This is the right thing we've got to stick to." As soon as we do that, then we get instruction to stop it and we go to something else, and we're so confused because we thought, "Boy we thought that was really the best fuel that we could get." But certainly tobacco doesn't seem to have any place, as in smoking or chewing or in any other form that I'm aware of. Alcohol might be used in a very light dosage in certain circumstances (on rare occasion) as it's been given as instruction. Not that we see anything wrong with sometimes getting instruction to use it as flavoring in something that we might be baking.

I think we've covered the drugs, how they would be inappropriate. But, in a sense, when we have instruction to take certain herbs for certain symptoms we might have, or even aspirin, in a sense we're taking certain low dosages of things that might help us with a particular symptom, as a band-aid. What the world has become certainly, and we've discussed how those food items – those fruits, vegetables, grains, nuts, and seeds, and so forth – what they are now is nothing of what they were 6000 years ago, at the beginning of this Age. They've been so mistreated, and they've lost their nutrition, and we've altered them genetically so, to make them grow faster so we can get them to the market faster. We make them prettier and we put them through certain processes so that they won't spoil, and in the process we put things in them that we don't want, and we take nutrition out. So, we can't go back, theoretically, and just consume what was in the Garden of Eden, because we don't have those fruits any longer, even though some of those fruit items might seem to be here, but they don't have the same nutritional value. And then it's so hard to find the good ones, and even the good ones aren't good enough this day and time, they're so lacking. Even though we use them, we keep fruits and vegetables relatively high in our diet fairly consistently, but we don't always have them just to see if it matters to us, if it's going to alter our condition or if we are going to override it. We'll be put to tests to see if we're going to override it. This is just to help you understand some of the principles as instructions come down, as it relates to our disciplines and things that we might consume. What's next on that list?

Student: I think we mentioned the coffee syndrome. And also what is really satisfying? How do we define what's satisfying to the vehicle?

Do: Okay, the thing we need to understand about coffee, for example, is that coffee is certainly so unnecessary to us, and such a common habit of the human kingdom, that we could pretty much guess that it would be removed from our diet because we don't want things to trigger old habits. We don't need it, but, here again, we might use it in flavoring certain things. It's not that coffee is taboo and it's nix and you're going to go to hell if you drink a cup of coffee. If it's some habit that we had, then why would we get instruction to do it. And if it was a bigger habit and it covered more people in any given classroom, then it would be more likely not to reappear in our menu, even though it has appeared as flavoring a time or two. There's another little funny influence that goes with coffee, and also with tea, and that is a lot of people get into a mindset. I can remember in our early campground in Wyoming where some went around with their coffee cup or their tea cup almost as if it was an extension of their hand. And in the morning, they would have that and say, "Well, you know, this is what I am...this is just me. I just can't wake up, I'm a night person, I'm not a morning person, I need my cup of coffee or I need my tea." And that's all you need to say to the Next Level for it not to be a part of your consuming or your experiment. Because if you need it, then you're limited, and if you're a night person, you're limited. At times we have had teas. Since back in the campground at tiems we've had iced tea because it didn't seem that people were that hooked on having to have it all the time. And pop we did away with for a while, and then we brought it back. But we would try to handle it in a careful way so that people didn't feel like they had to have it and identify with it. But all this came as instruction as to how often to put it in our menu, and how much to put in our menu, and it became an important test for some. Each time one item was a test for one individual or two or five or ten, it also then was not a test for others whom it didn't matter to. Anytime it doesn't matter to you, then you have flexibility, and that's the reason these various lessons are given to us, so that we don't need them. We know that we can survive without particular items. And if we have them, we're not going to get hooked on them, but if we begin to want them on a regular basis, we're in danger of being hooked on them. So, that's pretty much what we could count on losing then if we began to expect it and want it or feel the need of it, because we don't need anything. We need one thing. We need our Father's Kingdom and the relationship to it that He has given to us, and the lessons that He gives to us in order to get closer to Him so that we can become rightful heirs – rightful heirs as children in His Kingdom. What's next?

Student: Well, I'm not sure if you feel you've touched enough on redefining satisfying consuming.

Do: No, I didn't and I'm glad you brought it up. Satisfying consuming. I think we measure satisfying more by "Does the fuel work"? And probably we would say it's even more satisfying in some ways if it doesn't take a whole lot of that fuel, even though we've gone through experimentation where we would consume a whole lot of certain fuel in order to get the nutrients of it. (Like we said earlier, fruits and vegetables have become so depleted, the vegetables probably even more so than the fruits.) And I remember when we were just having vegetables, it seemed like we just had massive amounts of vegetables before we would be sustained, because it would move through us so quickly and our energy didn't seem to quite hold up and our appetite was not quite satisfied. It seems that the pattern has kind of been to consume what works as a fuel, and what has the energy we want.

We're careful about certain things that we consume. For example, if we're consuming meat products, we try to get meat products that don't have hormones in them (within reason, assuming our budget can afford them). We don't want to take the chance that by ingesting those hormones they might have some effect on our hormones, and have us deal with certain things that we don't feel the need of dealing with. So, that's a consideration in all items. We don't want to deal with something that would alter our consciousness. We don't want to deal with certain hormones. As we get these instructions, we feel that the consideration is partially how would it affect us and our chemistry since we are overcomers. But we are interested in the fuel that would sustain us. If we vibrate at a different level, to use one kind of terminology, or we participate in different behavior than the average human out there, then we can have a lot more of what we would call more refined or less dense or less animal type consuming because we don't vibrate on that level. We don't have that behavior. That doesn't mean that muscle has gone out. We still need a certain amount of muscle, so we consume things that would feed the muscle, and from time to time consume certain muscles (i.e., meat).

But I'm sure that a question for some of you out there who are listening to us who thought that on your path of enlightenment that it was so valuable to become a strict vegetarian, or maybe from your point of view of animal rights thought, "How could we justify consuming animals at all, at any given time"? And we had to deal with those same questions when it became instruction for us to consume those items. And we realized that we can't question that instruction, any more than when the Lord gave Moses certain instructions to go and kill the fatted calf in celebration for something in His relationship with those individuals. I mean, that was an instruction, and they did it, and probably they were put to the test because that fatted calf was such a precious possession to them that they hated to do it in that way. They probably would have rather had the old cow, but our Father doesn't do what we want. He lets us be fed by our own desires if we're willing to have them satisfied by the wrong side of the fence or the kingdom or corporation that is not of His Kingdom. But we can't question those things. We can't tell Jesus and His disciples that they were wrong if they were wearing sandals that were made of leather or if some of their outer garments had some animal product in it. Even though we have to give a certain amount of respect to humans who have that mindset. But when they have that mindset, they're concerned with death of the vehicle, and this is where we get into a thing that we're concerned with: death of the soul.

We're on a lesson plan in overcoming the world that has all kinds of elements in it that put us to the question, and to the test, that previously we might have thought that we had gotten knowledge about and we wouldn't ever eat animal products again – we wouldn't wear them and we wouldn't need to consume them. And then we get instruction to do it and we say, "Well, at this point, does that mean I turn away from my teacher, I turn away and I can't go any further because I'm not going to do that"? And frequently that was the reason the test was given, and some could at that point turn away, it would mean that much to them. I mean, is it worth it? Is it worth it? Even when Jesus returned to them after having risen from the tomb, He ate a piece of fish and a honeycomb. And earlier He had them multiply fish in order to give it to the crowd. Whoops – animal products! How do we deal with that if we thought it was "spiritual advancement"? Don't forget, that's counterfeit. If you're following instructions, you have to examine, "Is this instruction, is this a Representative"? And if you don't know, then what do you do? You say to the most high God, "If this is right for me, help me to know it because I am willing to go a step further. I want Your will not mine. I don't want to be restricted by my preconceived notions of what is moral or what is the issue here as far as animal rights, or whether I should consume any animal products."

It's true that certain animal products give us difficulties in other ways. We find that we probably have more difficulties with milk products at times, even though we get instructions to use them in this way or use them in that way, and we have to deal with the problems. We've never really wiped them out of our diet permanently, but we've learned, for the most part, to reduce them. And we might use nutmilks or other things because of the vehicle's response to those things, and we do take into account each individual's vehicle's response. Then as I receive feedback from the classroom, or the sections of the classroom, then I take it to my Older Member and say, "What do we do about this"? And then I wait for an answer of what to do about it and how to approach the next lesson as far as symptoms of the vehicles, and what we might consume, and the effect it might have upon our vehicles. Our Father's Kingdom does not need anything in the human kingdom to consume. Our Father has a different kind of fuel and doesn't need human fuel. Therefore, if we're trying to get into our Father's Kingdom, then the closer and closer and closer we get, the more the human-designed fuel and animals of this Earth's Age become less compatible to our vehicles. And we have to try to override that incompatibility. Therefore, it does us a lot of good. We can see why they've switched us from this to this to this to this, because they all seem to have some degree of ill effect on us, and then we counter that with not having too much of this and moving on to that and whatever they give us in instruction. This might help you understand a little bit of how they relate to us and some of the tests that we're put to in their relationship to us concerning consuming.

What's the next question?

Student: Would you like to talk about the psychological addictions and habits, like negativity and moodiness, and judging others.

Do: Yes, it's valuable that we talk about those issues because they are as important, I could say easily, if not more important, but I don't know how to weigh which ones are more important. Negativity, moodiness. Negativity, listening to anything that could discourage me in this task of overcoming. Or when I receive instruction not to listen to certain things, and I continue to listen to them. In my secret, I am holding an ace in the hole, or whatever you want to call it – I'm secretly testing my teachers. Even though this is a teacher speaking, you're not really testing the teachers. You're really, at that moment, for that duration, saying, "I'm going to put the whole Kingdom of Heaven on trial as it relates to the one that you have assigned for me, because I'm going to let that one you've assigned to me be the object of my test or my trial." If they say, "If you do this and this, then it can help you not accept that negativity," but I continue to listen to negativity that could overcome me, then I'm not breaking that habit. I am choosing to continue to listen to doubt or discouragement. Lucifer comes in and says things like: "This isn't really what you want to do, why don't you go out and serve the humans in this way or that way." And he can say, "You can see something accomplished with your time. Where this, you're off isolated and who can be positively affected by this isolation? How much good are you doing the human kingdom? Are you really helping them that much"? That's because Lucifer doesn't understand what you're doing for the human kingdom.

As this classroom goes up a notch, it pulls the whole rest of that human kingdom closer and tests them that much more to give them an opportunity to move up. But Lucifer forgets that, because he wants – he needs – members. He also does not want us to succeed at overcoming. It is par for the course, it is on every student's mind to fight off negativity, discouragement, things that would put us down as individuals. And that discouragement, if we listen to it, also becomes moodiness. For the time we're not listening to it, then, we might be happy. And for the time we are listening to it, we're more shy and more pulled away. Our face is dragging and our ability to serve is interfered with because of our countenance. Everyone around us can read what's going on in our countenance, and they try to help us out of it. And we insist that it's not happening, even though they can tell us that they know that it is happening. So, then they can't try to help us beyond trying to offer help to us for awhile – because we're forcing someone to do something that they don't want to do. Then the next question might be, "Are you sure you want to be here? Because you're unhappy. I'm not sure you want to be here." And at that point you have to say, "Whoops, am I really unhappy? Then maybe I shouldn't be here." That opens the door that much bigger to Satan's argument and tests us, because at that time we've got an opportune time to leave and drop all this and go and tend to what he says is more significant for us. And then we get right down to the nitty gritty. And we have to re-examine: is this everything we were looking for? Are we going to gamble on losing it? Are we going to take a chance on losing it in order to go do the things that we used to do, or that we felt we didn't have a chance to do in the world before joining the class? Neither one of those perceptions would come to your mind if you had not already displeased the Next Level and they had taken away the ability for you to see us for who we are. The whole process of overcoming is testing. Negativity is a major item we have to deal with. Negative thinking, listening to things of discouragement that would put us down, moodiness, and what else?

Student: There was judging yourself and others as well as degrading yourself.

Do: Goodness, Judge not that ye be not judged. I mean, if it is true that my Heavenly Father exists and if He has appointed my Older Member as my Older Member, and if I am a younger member to that Older Member and thereby an Older Member to you, if that is true and you misjudge me, then only He has the right to judge you or have you judge yourself, by judging. Who really judged though? I'm afraid that what I believe the truth to be is that you at that point have not misjudged us. You have listened to misjudgment from those who are such aggressors in feeding you misinformation, and then you have joined their forces in misjudging. It's very important. It's just as important that you not misjudge your own overcoming, your own capacity at overcoming, not let influences or thoughts of misinformation pull you down and discourage you, because that happens again and again. Your performance can be poor and your response can be poor, and you can say, "I'm never going to get this, others are getting this and I can see them moving up and I'm not moving up." It's very easy to listen to negativity and it's difficult to turn a negative into a positive. But we have a plan that was given to us and it says, "If I will expose anything that is of that wrong household, acknowledge it and expose it, it can be taken from me, I can be free of it, I can be not responsible for it."

If I listen to negativity in overcoming, I'm "sinning" – I'm doing something against my Father's House. I am separating from my Father's House and the appointee that He has designated. That "sin" itself has to be taken from me – another note taken by His Representative, who says, "Just acknowledge that what you're doing is self-destructive to you and acknowledge what it was and we'll get past it. Don't worry about it. Forget it – it's gone, it doesn't exist." Then we have to drop it. We have to forget it! if we expect to eradicate it. Lucifer does not want us to forget anything negative, even if we make progress and make progress. He wants us to remember it. He will even say, "It'll do you good to remember those things as lessons," so that you will say, "I learned those lessons." It doesn't do any good to dwell on the negative. When you acknowledge it, and you admit it and you say, "I want to go on," that's the same thing as asking for forgiveness. "I want to go on. Here it was, this was wrong. I can see how it was destructive to me. I don't want it, I want to go on. Will you accept me still as a student? Will the Next Level accept me"? Because all your teacher can say is, "Well, I'm afraid I've got to go ask my Older Member, and we'll see." And that usually doesn't take much time. Sometimes, on the spot, the Older Member can speak through the vessel and say, "It's done, it's behind you. It's gone. You can forget about it!" And we can start afresh. And if you do that, if you refuse to remember it again and you take a major step forward, then that step forward will be a part of your new structure. But if you remember it, you can step easily back into it. You will remind yourself of that position and you will remain in that condition as long as that's where you put yourself. If you refuse to put yourself there, then you're ready for the next step and a new position and a new person. Each step can be a new person. Each time you get rid of something, you're a brand new person.

Now, it's up to each class member, each time a student takes a step forward, not to take their fellow class members where that fellow class member once was. They've got to make that adjustment, they've got to give that class member credit for change. If they want to help them change, they've got to give them credit for change and not hold anything against them for where they were. But the easiest way for your class members to accept that is when they see in you that you have made that change, and not that they have to wait. It's their responsibility to give you credit for that change. It's your responsibility to demonstrate that that change has taken place. And these are basic elements in overcoming.

Who's next?

Student: Did we want to talk a little bit about deceit and dishonesty. I think you've mentioned it's like a neon light in the Next Kingdom Level.

Do: It's such a festered boil, few things could be equal to it. It's so bad to be deceitful and to be dishonest, because for the time that you are deceitful, on any little item, no matter how minute it is, it increases. Because first it might have just been that item, and then another item is added of dishonesty, then another item is added – "I'm not keeping my slate clean as I promised that I would.” And items continue to mount because those forces are saying, “It’s not that important, you don’t have to worry about it, you don’t have to be embarrassed by recognizing that this was negative, this was beneath you to do that thing.” And you want to expose it. Exposure is a wonderful thing! It’s like getting relief. But if influences say, “Don’t expose, hold it.” Then you immediately become dishonest, deceitful, and difficult things mount. When difficult things mount, what does it take to get me to the next step? An equally more difficult test. I can’t move forward if I’m permitting an indebtedness to occur without something just as equally difficult. The step up would have been a very little one if I had exposed it at the time that we had instruction to expose it, and I moved up. It wouldn’t have been that difficult. But the longer I delay it and the more things that begin to mount because I’m getting further and further in my privacy, and in putting it off and in not doing the things that were given to me to do, then in order to move from there to here, it becomes super tough and major! At that point, it’s hard to prove that you want to change and move forward to those who help your Older Members, those of our Father’s Kingdom, who in their daily activities do a lot of this work that the teachers certainly don’t do. And they will have things occur to you that will put you in the position of that test. I mean, most of the work happens from them. The classroom situation, what happens with the teachers, is almost small in comparison to what Members of our Father’s Kingdom literally are doing for you and the things that they subject you to and the circumstances you’re put in that permit you the opportunity to move ahead and conquer.

Now this, of course, gets into another issue of what are some of the activities of our Father’s Kingdom, which we’ll talk about when we get to that question. I’m going to try not to make that jump. Who’s next, or did we not finish that one?

Student: I think there are a few other things, like gossip and confidentiality and familiarity. I didn’t know if you wanted to talk about those things?

Do: Okay. Boy! These are really deadly sins, these are really negative things that can breed just as much trouble as dishonesty and deceit. You said gossip and confidentiality. Confidentiality to me is the same thing as deceit. It’s finding someone else to join me in my deceit, because if I’m entering into something with someone else that I wouldn’t enter into with my teacher, or other members of the class, then I’m creating an unnatural circumstance there. It’s certainly less than objective or more than objective, whichever way you want to look at it, and it becomes a relationship that was not an assignment. Therefore, I have gone against the instruction. I am no longer a flexible crew member that is objective. I am giving into the desire of the flesh or the influences that are triggering that flesh by wanting some kind of special relationship. I’ve conned somebody who could really be a partner to me. We can have our little confidentialities and our little gossip. That makes the partnership absolutely impossible and deadly to both individuals if they participate in it, until they learn how not to participate in it. So, we talked about gossip, confidentiality, and...?

Student: Familiarity?

Do: Familiarity. Familiarity is pretty much the same thing, except a lot of times familiarity is still a withdrawal symptom from needing a close attachment with another individual. I know it sounds tough, and Luci makes this sound absolutely ridiculous when it comes out our mouths, but our Father’s Kingdom says, “If you’re going to overcome this world and come into my Kingdom, you’re going to be only familiar with one thing, and that’s my Kingdom. You’re only going to love one thing, that’s my Kingdom. As far as a physical familiarity with anyone, the only familiarity you’re going to have, the only confidant you can have, the only one you can talk to about things that you might want to talk to are your check partners, within procedures, and your Older Member. That’s the way we have designed it, and if you try to change those, then to that degree you’re going against the lesson plan.” And you have to mistrust the lesson plan to participate in those things.

When we don’t know that we’re going against the lesson plan, the methods that they give us always help surface that we have done something that we didn’t know we were doing when we did it. And then it becomes another kind of test – CAN I take criticism, or can I have it brought to my attention, or do I want to say, “Oh no, you’re taking me from a wrong level”? Because a test that comes to us so frequently is, “If I’m really flexible, then I take what is given to me as correction and believe it and apply it.” It’s very important that you understand something here, and that is even if it was misinformation, even if it didn’t apply, the technique works of examining it and saying, “Well, I must not have seen what was going on here.” In other words, I want to take the blame, I want to say, “You’re right,” even though influences and my brain might say, “I wasn’t wrong, it was the other person that was wrong here.” But if I say, “I must have been doing something wrong or you wouldn’t have responded the way you did, or the others wouldn’t have seen me in that light,” and if I take the blame and assume it is something that I did wrong, then I stand on the path of eliminating whatever it was that I did because of my willingness to examine it. What harm would come to me even if I had not been wrong? But if I defend myself, then I’m taking more than a 50-50 chance that I was not being flexible. I am choosing to believe my own mind instead of the mind that is being given to me through my Teachers and through my helpers and through my partnerships.

Believe it or not, none of the students likes to hurt each other. Why would somebody come and accuse you of something? Because they like to hurt you? I mean, Heavens! If they aren’t past that by now, I don’t know where they are. Frequently, we have to fuss at a partner for not helping a partner because a partner will say, “The partner doesn’t bring up things to me, I don’t feel like I’m making any progress.” We confront the partner and they say, “Well, I just hate to bring it up because it might be difficult for them to deal with.” You’re not helping someone if you don’t bring it up. If they’ve solicited help, if they’ve said, “Would you please bring it up, I want to know about it,” and you say, “Well, but I don’t want the confrontation,” then you’re no good to them. You can’t really help them in that circumstance. So, it’s very important that we be willing to help them. When we say to them that you might have been doing this behavior or that one, and it might be inappropriate, we preface it by saying, “I could be wrong, I could be completely off base by what I see, but the thought occurred to me and we have a procedure that when the thought does occur to us to bring it up. And so if the shoe fits, wear it; if it doesn’t, I’m sure glad because I don’t like to bring things up.” And it works. Of course, it can put the person to the test and they can say, “How outrageous for you to bring that up!” Or they can say, “Goodness, I wasn’t aware of that, I’ll examine it, and I’ll try to apply it.” The neat thing is that if we can shift into the gear of assuming they were right or it wouldn’t have been brought to our attention, 99 times out of a 100, we’ll find out exactly how they were right and how we were guilty. It didn’t mean anything, it wasn’t any big deal. The most important thing was for us to become flexible, for us to examine it, and if we take the blame, what harm has happened if the shoe didn’t fit. Do we feel embarrassed, are we too concerned about being embarrassed by it? We have to overcome that, too – that’s just another thing that we have to overcome. Boy, we’re getting into the nitty gritty. This is part of what goes on every day in the classroom, again and again. So, I felt that it would be only fair to you to see. What are we doing? We’re trying to shorten your days, we’re trying to help you not enter a possible classroom situation only to say, “Boy if I had known that was going to happen, I wouldn’t have started this.”

There’s that 10-second card, and we’ll see you in our next session.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 11 (95 Min)

There you are! This is our eleventh session. It might be our last. We hope that it will be – unless it's inadequate. We've kind of begun to feel like it might wind down at this point. We're glad to see you, particularly if you're on our Father's side and you're beginning to recognize that the information about His Kingdom that is being shared with you is true, that you can see that it is true. If that's happening, then we're happy for what you're beginning to feel, because we know that at the point that you're recognizing that you are very possibly a son of His...I can't even imagine that you would begin to recognize it if that possibility is not there for you.

Earlier, in preparation for this session, I told the crew here that during the morning hours, as I was getting my bath, I received information that I would consider to be our punch line, or the finale of this series. So, I'm excited about giving it to you, but I'm not going to give it to you right now. I'm going to use it as something to help us move quickly with our little questions as we proceed.

I'm happy that our two teleprompters could be here today to assist with questions. We welcome them to this project. Let's just get right on and see how quickly we can move. So, why don't you tell me what's first on our list of questions?

Student: Is there a detox time that affects the clarity of the head?

Do: A detox time for clarity of the head. There certainly is, and let's try to explain that to you. In the same way that if you've been on a drunk and you're really intoxicated, you really don't have clarity of head. You don't know what you're doing. You can't really think very straight until that begins to wane from your system, until it starts to get out of your chemistry. And that's true whether it be drugs, or alcohol, or whatever affects your system so strongly. We've discussed that all of the human behavior, all the little things that humans do that are not done in our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, are in a sense drugs. They affect our chemistry. They affect our thinking. They affect the clarity of our head. The one that seems to be the worst drug of all is that of sensuality, or sexuality. Even though humans are unaware that it puts them in a drunken condition, or are certainly unaware that there is a detox period, or a withdrawal period, our experience is that we can see it very clearly, because we have all experienced what an effect it has on interfering with our detox, our clarity of head.

When as a classroom, Ti and I took these students into the woods, as we mentioned before, and we began our overcoming in earnest, we explained that this behavior had to stop. Now I'm going to move to another topic, then come right back to this "detox." This morning, in working with some members of the class that wanted to assist in the preparation of the jacket material for this series, we were overcome with how lucky we were in this big, beautiful picture of our Father's Kingdom – the picture that has been given to us, the information that, piece by piece, forms a puzzle and a giant picture that tells us so much about our Father's Kingdom, so much about the human kingdom, and even other aspects of His creation. Most of all it tells that it's for one reason only – it's for the purpose of assisting potential graduates from the human kingdom into our Father's Kingdom. It explains how that is done and gives the specific, step-by-step instructions and disciplines that must be employed to make that transition. And we've noticed how, as we take instruction, and as we apply instructions and procedures, so frequently we say, "That makes a lot of sense," because we've recognized that all of this picture makes a lot of sense.

Now, let's go back to detox. This information doesn't necessarily make a lot of sense if we aren't really sober. And we can't be sober until we have had some time behind us, away from those things that change our consciousness and keep our consciousness on them.

Let's talk a moment about how sensuality, or sexuality, is such a drug. You know, an alcoholic, if he has a certain number of drinks during a day, he can say, "It's common, others have so many drinks a day. I'm certainly not an alcoholic." I can remember hearing people say, "I'm not an alcoholic because I don't drink before noon," as if that's where someone becomes an alcoholic, if they drink before noon. I don't know what various bases people have, where they draw the line, saying, "If I fall off dead drunk, or if I have to quit my work, then I'm an alcoholic." Or "If I can't hold down a job, then I'm an alcoholic," – whatever the various areas are. But whatever habit they have associated with that indulgence, it causes them to keep returning. They used the clock, or the passage of time, as a reminder. If someone is used to having a drink with or after their lunch, or one at cocktails in the evening before they have their evening meal, and they miss that time, then something says, "Whoops, I missed that time. I missed that drink." Then if they miss the next time for that little fix, if we may call it that, then they begin to be more aware of the fact that they're behind in their dosage of what it is that they are interested in.

With sexuality, as a drug, it's the same way. When people are vibrating at the level of participating in sexuality, they become quite aware of how long it's been since they've had their fix, or since they have participated in that which was so much pleasure. And they know how it draws them to that – any image that would encourage them to participate in that activity. In the same way that an alcoholic would be drawn to an open bottle and a glass of his favorite scotch, or whatever it is that he liked to drink, the same thing happens in our sexuality if we open a magazine and we see a picture that would turn on the vehicle, or the influences that are using the vehicle. Then it's triggered, and we start having images in our heads, and we start imagining participating in that activity. So, if you stop and think of all the aspects of sexuality and sensuality, you can see how they draw us in. In the same way, the human world considers drinking alcohol fairly accepted behavior, and certainly sexuality in most societies is considered acceptable behavior. As you go from one society to another, one society, because of its religious background, might feel more that sexuality should be saved for marriage, and others of a different religion are more for saving it for when you want to have children. But generally, the longer the Age exists and the more liberal the world becomes, the more it's considered to be just an indulgence in pleasure. Now, it's even beginning to expose itself as an indulgence in pleasure, so much so that "I have a right to do what I want to with my body, and if I choose to get rid of the result of my indulgence in pleasure, and it turned out to be a pregnancy that I didn't want, then I certainly ought to have a right to do what I want to about the side-effects of my indulgence." So, it seems to be acceptable as an indulgence, to whatever degree I want to indulge in it. Now, of course, with the problem of AIDS and other diseases that might be passed, people begin to put up a little guard. But they even get so hooked on their booze of sex, if I might use that, that they even forget to use their protection. Or they forget, if they are so taken by the person that they're about to have that experience with, that they lose control and they realize, "Whoops, I didn't even protect myself." And in nearly every segment of society, we promote this degree of sensuality. I mean, it's considered to be a healthy act. It's considered to be a normal act.

When it comes to that in any given Age and in any society, it's almost impossible to talk to them about a kind of picture, as we talked about in a previous session, that you have to move into on a basis of the kind of evidence that is revealed to you as a result of your faith – the evidence being this big picture. And then, because of your faith and continuing to stay away from those drugs in your overcoming, you begin to see the big picture. It becomes more clear to you. Soon it makes so much sense to you that you say, "Great goodness! I can't imagine why I could do anything else. I'm so glad this has been revealed to me. I feel so lucky in seeing it." And we are extremely lucky to have been given that. But the question that the student asked, "Does detox fit into this"? – it does. You will have only a little glimpse, and you will then deal with doubt. You might expect to continue to deal with doubt and doubt and doubt, wondering if this is the right thing to do. And the pangs of the world that you might be trying to break away from will want to draw you back in the same way that a drug would want to draw you back, until you have separated more from them. Not only the distance, but a little time gets between you and them, and detox begins to take effect – it begins to work with you. So, that is certainly a valid question that can help us in overcoming. If we know that if we can stick to this, and just stick to it, and stick to it, and put that behind us, and it doesn't exist, I don't even identify with being alcoholic anymore...I don't even identify with those vibrations, they aren't there – as far as I'm concerned, they weren't there, it doesn't connect with me – then my head becomes clearer and clearer, and I become like an innocent child that can see a picture that is given to me. I can see it exactly for what it is. And all these demons don't come rushing in to try to destroy it for me because they are under control. They had to become under control as I was led through my own detox program.

Well, I said we were going to move on, and we're going to try to move quickly today. So, what's next on our list?

Student: You've probably covered this, but I was going to ask what about learning to exert the effort to change?

Do: I'm afraid we haven't covered it enough, and I'm glad you brought it up. I can remember Ti saying so many times in our classroom, "If you just would exert the effort"! That doesn't necessarily mean anything to you if you don't understand the meaning. Change does not take place by examination. Change does not take place by analysis, by running it through your head again and again. It only takes place by doing it. For example, if you're doing a procedure, or you're on a lesson plan where you're to stop something, the quicker you can get past examining how you're going to do it, and you start doing it, then change begins to take place. But so many times, particularly in the human world, we talk about it, we examine it, and a lot of times that's all we really wanted to do, is examine it and talk about it and philosophize on it and write books on it, and "Oh, it was a neat idea," but no change takes place. I'm the same person that I was before I wrote the book. Just had a lot of neat thoughts.

When we're changing from the human kingdom into our Father's Kingdom, we lose our identity a number of times along the way. We become a different individual, a different individual, and a different individual. And I'm sure that it could have certain drawbacks. I'm sure that as some of the class members visited with their family, their family could say, "I don't know this person anymore." And they would wonder, "Where is that person that I used to know"? I'm afraid that they would be right, that they don't know that person anymore. Now, sometimes the class members try to pretend to be that person, if that's what the family is looking for. But it even becomes pretty obvious when you're pretending and you realize something's different here about this individual. And the more we change, the more difficult it becomes for us to identify with those who put us in the position of what they used to remember us to be. The important point here, though, in this little question is, "I've got to stop talking about it. I've got to stop just examining it or analyzing it. I have to move forward. It takes work."

Another label that we put on that frequently is just simple procrastination. "I can't really get with it. I plan to do it and we're going to do it tomorrow." ASAP (as soon as possible) is an instruction we have. As soon as we learn about it, then the first opportunity is when we do it...whatever it is, any new instruction. When we hear of it, then what's stopping us? Why wouldn't we do it right then? We'd have to be sure that something else would be higher priority to prevent us from doing it right then. So, it's very important that we learn to move with change, discard our old self, move into our new identity, make that adjustment, not try to bring that old one with us, or there's calamity there. It just simply doesn't work.

Okay, what's next? Is that the completion of that one?

Student: On that particular one, yes.

Do: Okay, what's next on our list?

Student: Do you want to touch on the principle of "I could be wrong"?

Do: Yes. What she's talking about here is that in our classroom we received instruction way back at the beginning that one of the best tools we could have in how to present our thinking and how to work with our partners, and in a crew situation and with our teachers, is that when we're making an observation or we're voicing an observation, we say, "I could be wrong, but it seemed that so-and-so and so-and-so." It doesn't work when we're just saying it. For awhile, nearly all the students would say it when they didn't mean it. And they had to learn that it doesn't work if you don't mean it. And so you could say, "How are you going to mean it? How are you going to say, 'I could be wrong,' when you believe you're right"? So, let's examine that for a second. It means that I need to stop trusting my judgment of the circumstance, or my observation, or any kind of judgment that I might have. And if I stop trusting it, stop believing it, then I am losing self-confidence. Yes, that's one of the things we lose in this transition, self-confidence. We become like a child that says, "I don't know anything. I don't have any self-confidence in anything." I have to look to the Next Level. I have to let the Representative from the Next Level serve in that position of whom I look to. I have to say, "You know what's right." And if I bring things to my Older Member's attention, I say, "I think you asked for this, so I'll share with you what you asked me to on my observation of this, or what I thought about this, but I could certainly be wrong." And it has to be sincere if we are genuinely going to move into the position of not having self-confidence.

Believe it or not, since the world out there is so artificial, and therefore our judgment as humans was artificial, as we move into the transition of becoming babes in our Father's Kingdom, by saying "I could be wrong," we begin to lose the confidence that we used to have in the artificial. We have less and less, and soon we learn that we were wrong. And that comes as kind of a shock to us because we thought that we were right. Then we think, "If it's a good lesson to lose self-confidence and say 'I could be wrong,' then I'll try to do that sincerely." But it almost comes as a shock when you actually realize that again and again you are shown that what you thought was the case in your observation or your judgment wasn't right. So, you then say, "It's working. I am dropping the artificial." In other words, "I'm not sold out any longer to the wrong side. I'm losing the programming. I'm being led through, step-by-step, destroying the old programming and realizing that it is not true, that over here is the truth." And you are given the understanding of the truth and the ability to recognize it if you faithfully do the steps as they come along. Of course, Satan's side could say, "Who's to say that as you move over here into the new computer and its program, that that isn't the artificial and the old is the real"? We wouldn't try to convince you of one way or the other. We're not selling into that. But what we have been given to move into, we wouldn't trade for what we had...for anything. That is, those who have stuck to it faithfully long enough to make that transition, to do enough detoxing, to lose enough self-confidence, have moved into the position of looking at that picture and saying, "That makes a lot of sense." And then they start working harder at completing the breaking away from those habits they used to have, and moving into a new identity, then moving into a new identity, and so on.

I'm trying to move fast. I'll stop...it's so hard to stop. What's next on our list?

Student: Did we talk about a lazy mind or a weak thirst? Is that part of the control of the pump?

Do: I think we spoke of it, but I don't think we spoke enough of it. I know it would be valuable for us to speak of it again. In a sense, we spoke of it just a moment ago when we were talking about procrastination. That's a weak thirst. That's, in a sense, kind of a weak pump – when I put something off. Or if I am slow to lose an old identity and move a step ahead, then that's a weak pump. To be satisfied with a slow pace is deadly. Really, seriously deadly. Because we can get very much behind. What if the classroom that you're in, if a lot of the class members are moving very quickly and they're making these adjustments, they're discarding the old and they're seeing the new, and they're moving into their new position. If certain ones, without recognizing it, thought they were moving quick, but their perception of what was quick was poor, their judgment of it, they really never knew that they were slow, until it was brought to their attention. They have to then put in new chip and say, "I've got to replace that old one that misjudged. That was slow. That was tardy. That was too pleased with slow movement."

Lethargy is a very "sinful" item, if we can put it in that context, and it's difficult to get beyond it. It's difficult to be eager and quick. But when we change into the habit, there are certain habits in our Father's Kingdom that pay off. I mean, we're not changing all habits for no habit. There are certain habits that pay off. And moving quickly with full energy, abiding by instructions so carefully, knowing procedures, liking procedures, liking to change as it is given to us, not wanting to be the old self – those are new habits. And they move us. That becomes, then, a rich thirst, one that is very thirsty. "Just can't wait until another day and more lessons and opportunities." And a lot of times when we are in that position, boy do they start coming! And we think, "Wow, what did I ask for? This is pretty tough." But we get used to it, and we recognize it. And when it comes, then we say, "Well, I got what I was asking for. I got this new lesson, and it's right before me." Though it might be tough, it's just like asking an instructor in the chemistry lab for the next lesson, and he gives you one, and you say, "Well, I didn't mean one this tough." (Laughs) And that happens to us all the time. But after we get it, we're honored that they thought we could handle it. So, we have to prove that we can handle it – we can rise above it. And then we become a little bit different from what we were before. So, weak thirst is deadly. Keeping a strong pump and moving ahead is a very, very important new habit to establish as we move into our Father's Kingdom. Does that complete that question?

Student: That does. Thank you.

Do: What's next on our list?

Student: Well, can the Next Level withdraw mind if we abuse it or don't use it?

Do: Goodness, that kind of twists our brain around in a little funny place, and I'm afraid the answer is yes. Now, you can think, "That sounds kind of cruel." You know, we've talked about how our Father's Kingdom does a lot of the work with us and we're unaware of what they're doing. I know that many times Ti, and those who are helping Ti, have done things that I'll recognize they have done in direct association with us, and it's only after they've done them that I've thought, "Gracious, nobody could have done that but Ti and those working with Ti. Because this certainly wasn't anything that we even thought of, or even participated in, and it was done." And we could see that it was for our sakes that it was done. We didn't even ask, but it was done because they realized if we were going to move forward, that it needed to be done.

Now, back to her question. We've talked about the soul that has the mind of our Father in it, and it has some mind of this world in it. We're trying to chip off that mind of the world that we don't want in it, and to get it out of there as quickly as possible and fill up that soul container, that "pillowcase," with the Mind of our Father's Kingdom. If we're in a unit like this classroom, where the Next Level wants to give us information and they're trying to consider the unit, yet as they give us information, maybe some members of that unit aren't really taking it to heart, or they're slow, or they're trying to pretend to do it because they like certain aspects of the classroom and it's comfortable in certain areas, so they're not really examining if they could be moving faster. Those are all symptoms of abusing that Mind as It is given to you. If it's artificial, if you're not really moving into that position, we have seen some members of our classroom all of a sudden just turn almost 180 degrees. It was like we didn't know them. They had to leave the classroom, and we felt so sorry that that had happened. We're not saying that they couldn't recover that. I'm afraid that's between them and my Older Member because in that position (being outside the class), I'm not out there to help them.

We have also experienced members of our classroom who have been outside the classroom for a while and have come back in. Some who are on our crew today are in that position. They are back in the classroom and they're moving quickly in the right direction. It thrills us so to see that out of their own desperate thirst, and their acknowledgment that this was true, that they got help from our Father's Kingdom outside of this relationship that helped them get back into the classroom and back on track in a laboratory experience of a unit going through this process of discipline, change, and getting to our Father's Kingdom. But it is true, it is something we have to be concerned about, that a gift of information can be given to you, you can increase it in that space, but if you don't do anything about it and you insist on clinging to this other information within that container, or that pillowcase, and there isn't room for all of it, our Father can very easily just move in there and pull that right out, and suddenly you've lost your respect for what it was, because it isn't there, it was removed from you. And then you still have the choice of what to do about that moment. Choice is something you always have. Choice and that pump. And you can then choose to say, "It must not have been worth anything." You know, it's up to you. Or if it just destroys you and you feel vacant and empty, and you have to have it back, then you may have to prove to some Representative from our Father's Kingdom who's working with you outside the classroom that you are worthy of returning to a classroom situation and getting further instruction in that. So, it can be withdrawn.

I'm trying to move quickly. Okay? What's the next one on our list?

Student: Well, with that in mind, is there a limit to Next Level's patience?

Do: Yes. And I should stop right there, but I'll say a couple of words on that. There is a limit. Now, I think that any person in our Father's Kingdom who's assigned to a task would never exercise that limit to patience without checking with their Older Member. And, of course, their Older Member's going to check with their Older Member, and so forth up the pipeline. All that can happen pretty quickly. The time lapse in that computer isn't that big. But when they do question it and the instruction comes back, they can say, "Well, the best thing we can do for them is to be impatient." And then you understand, "Oh, so it's instruction to treat it this way, and it's not really just impatience." So, at times we do get instruction to be impatient in order to help that individual be shocked or to realize "I've got to get out of this. I can't just expect to be babied. I don't need to stay where I am." I can imagine that sometimes, as some of the classroom watches these tapes, they can recognize that there's a certain amount of relationship that I might be having with the viewer on the other end of that camera that might be slightly different from my relationship with them at times. I think we've even discussed it. In a sense, I almost feel like a twice-removed...or a grandfather speaking to a grandchild. Of course, I'm speaking to you as someone who might be wondering if they are standing outside of the vehicle that they are using, and wondering if they want to take it over and pursue this. And since we are given the task of trying to give that to you, and since we're so eager for you to participate in it, for it to become yours, then we are influenced by that.

When I'm dealing with one of these students in a particular area, I might come on a little stronger if I have instruction to do so, and I might be pretty direct and right to the point, because I am assuming that they're on solid ground. They have chosen this; they're doing what they want to do. But they've also learned to recover quickly and be appreciative when we take a direct method instead of, "Well, we'll bring that up in a week or so when they get maybe past what they're dealing with now." We don't have a timetable that can handle that. We deal with things immediately. I don't know if we said it clearly in previous sessions, but at one time within the classroom, we even agreed that we would expose things that we have permitted in our mind, or some activity that we've done – that we would make a vow to our partner and to the rest of our class that we would expose it that day – that we would not go down in our bunk without having acknowledged it, exposed it, and gotten past it, because we recognized how things can compound so easily. And I can become more and more separate if I let things mount and don't expose things. So, that's a part of our procedure.

What's next on our list?

Student: Well, could you give us some examples of tasks or activities in our Father's Kingdom? You mentioned radio signals?

Do: That's a good one. I'm glad we brought that up. We don't have a lot of knowledge of the activities that go on in our Father's Kingdom. We have little, tiny glimpses of what might go on, but we don't know the particulars too well. I suspect that the reason that they don't let us know the particulars about that is because we would probably go around so pleased with it that we'd boast about it. And that wouldn't be appropriate. You might say, "What's going to replace being a clerk in the department store, or working in the hospital"? That's a good one, because our Father's Kingdom has a fairly close equivalent to the hospital or the emergency ward, or certain things related to medicine and trying to save lives. One area that we suspect where our Father's Kingdom dives in and has a lot of work to do is when a soul is leaving a vehicle. In other words, the leaf is falling off that particular family vine. And that soul then is lifted out of that vehicle for that period of time. And we feel that it is an action of our Father's Kingdom, if that soul has any significant relationship to our Father's Kingdom. In other words, it depends upon what is in that soul, what degree of that soul is made up of goodness or mind from our Father's Kingdom. We don't know where they draw the line. They may even participate in handling these souls and helping them get from one fallen leaf to the next potential new leaf, or coming through the womb so that they take a new vehicle. We don't know where they draw that line, but we do feel very strongly that one of the activities of our Father's Kingdom is helping souls being released from a vehicle and taking possession of another one, or moving into another one. Now, we've got to mention here just for a moment how would another vehicle qualify to house a particular soul? In order to qualify, that other vehicle has to have a match for all of the things that that soul was hooked on in its previous leaf. This new leaf has to have the potential for all of those things, because what the soul hasn't overcome, it's going to have to overcome. So, that soul doesn't get to go out of the body and be clean and free just because it got to die, so to speak. Of course, it didn't get to die...just the vehicle withered and fell off the branch. So, this is, we feel, definitely an activity of our Father's Kingdom.

What about radio signals? You know, the British Broadcasting Company, or, what are the names of some of these other free radio shows like Radio Free Europe or Voice of America? These signals that are sent out over the air are kind of propaganda, and people who have their radios, be it shortwave or whatever – receive those signals that are actually sent out. Now, our Father's Kingdom, and even Satan's kingdom, they can realistically send out radio signals to our brains on frequencies that humans do not have the capacity to even perceive. Now, we've read some books where some humans have actually been advanced in their laboratory experiments with computers and oscillators and have actually learned of some frequencies from which, they felt like, they could pick up transmissions from space aliens, or from other camps. We feel that the way these radio signals work is quite different from this camp over here – Satan's camp, Lucifer's camp. Their propaganda's going 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, on just about every channel on the band, or every band on the dial. With our Father's Kingdom, it's hard to find the bands; it takes effort to find the bands. And when you find the band, it's silent. Why? Because it says, "Ask, and you receive." On these other bands, you don't have to ask anything. It all comes free. It's just right there. It's just knocking you down. You turn to every channel and you get a lot more than you ask for, and you hear just about the same thing on every channel. If you stay on that channel long enough, you'll hear the same information on all the channels. And you find our Father's channel and you wonder, "Oh, could that be from God," or could that be from whatever your terminology is that might identify your relationship to our Father's Kingdom. And it waits for you to ask, then sends you a radio signal, and that's the way it is. They kind of help to give you clues by it, because in the scripture they say, "Be still, and know that I am God." In other words, it's "Be quiet." And if there's some mind of God in you, it will kind of stir you, and it will kind of coax you into saying, "Why don't you ask? Why don't you ask?" And so then you, the chooser, can say, "What about so-and-so, what about so-and-so?" Then the answers begin to come. Not necessarily the answers to the questions that you asked. They are ultimately the answers, but they may not be the answers that you're expecting.

It's a very good analogy to realize that I said something that could be questionable. You could say, "Well, that little inner voice says, 'What about asking?'" I almost want to erase that because it is not the way in our Father's Kingdom to ever be the aggressor. It's because you possess, by your choices, you possess that amount of mind of our Father's Kingdom that translated in your head, "I wonder if I shouldn't ask. I wonder if this could be my Father speaking to me in this situation. This happened to me and I don't understand it. Maybe I should ask, 'Is this some of your doing?'" So, the radio signals analogy is not only a good analogy, it is realistic. They send those signals out. They have that connection with our brains, with the literal space that we occupy. They can speak to us in that way. What we try to do is learn how to use the radio. It takes a long time to get a good orientation on how to use that radio in the right ways. Because that radio still has all those dials you don't want to hear all those signals on. And you have to learn how to flip past them fast enough that you don't hear any words from them so you're not affected by them, and how to get to those silent ones and then have a relationship with our Father's Kingdom in that way. But it works! So, that's another illustration of activities of our Father's Kingdom.

And, of course, one big activity of our Father's Kingdom that we haven't talked about much is the strong possibility of what can happen at the end of an Age. It's new to all the souls, all the humans that are alive during that Age, and they would have no evidence of it. We'd have no evidence of it because they have no books that say this has ever happened before. In other words, this is an activity where the Next Level comes in from off, away from the planet, or even from out of bases, and they have all kinds of things to do in harvesting at the end of the Age. No one's expecting it because it's been wiped from their memory, if they were in the prior Age where it happened then. At least it appears that everyone's memory has been wiped. But this is also a big activity time for gardeners...as Gardener's helpers from our Father's Kingdom. All the little aspects, whether it's soil samples, or checking on souls as they move from here to there, and as they migrate from here to there as they are in the process of breaking away from their ties. And watching them even as they move from one country to another or one career to another, as they begin to realize, "This isn't what I thought I was looking for." The closer they get and the more they drop, then the more attention they get from our Father's Kingdom as far as monitoring and helping answer their requests or their questions as they come through their radio signal.

That gives us a little picture. Let's move ahead. Who's next?

Student: I think I was. Well, that certainly covers what can happen to a soul at the point of losing its vehicle, but I was wondering, what are some of the conditions the soul can be in during its incarnations?

Do: Between?

Student: Between the incarnations.

Do: That's a good question. Okay. It certainly isn't right to think that as a vehicle is lost, and as a soul leaves that vehicle, then all those souls just go afloat out there and become discarnates. This is an area that we don't know much about, and we're not supposed to know much about. This is an area that is completely controlled by our Father's Kingdom, though some from the opposing forces are permitted to do certain tasks that they think are for their soul's benefit. And, in a sense, if they're garbage removers, it is for the benefit then even of our Father's Kingdom, if you can follow that logic. But some souls might be taken out and put aside, left in the cellar, kind of in a fridge or ice box – in the freezer, in a dormant condition until an appropriate time comes. Let's say that some souls might have possibly (just to clarify the analogy) in a previous time in this Age, or maybe in the Age before – we don't know all these details – they might have begun a whole lot of things on their checklist of things that they had to overcome, but there were just a few things that weren't going to come up again until a certain time, and our Father's Kingdom knew when that time would be. Then wouldn't it make sense that those souls would be taken out and left in a dormant state until that time? In other words, they're kind of asleep. Jesus tried to illustrate that as He spoke of death of the vehicle as asleep.

Oh, I'm afraid I have to bring up something I'll try to get rid of quickly. As we listened to yesterday's tapes, we talked about how Jesus in the condition of having experienced what was considered to be death, in payment for the debt of the sins of those who gave Him their notes, even though that was not really death – because certainly His soul didn't die, it was only the vehicle that was affected – it was their interpretation of what death was. Now, the application of the word “death” in the sense that sins – the wages of sin is death, or are death, I don't know which is right – in the way that that might be a vehicular death as against the soul death, might be the proper application. The reason that humans continue to have to lose vehicles, the reason they continue to be perishable and corruptible, is because of their sin. So, I guess it works both ways, being applicable to both the vehicle as well as the soul. The soul is not going to be destroyed until our Father's Kingdom says it has become nothing and holds nothing good – there's nothing there except matter that can be recycled. And in that sense, then, it isn't destroyed. It's just recycled. It's nonexistent because it became nonexistent. Now, if the soul then becomes bigger and goes into our Father's Kingdom, then it can receive even a vehicle that is incorruptible and imperishable, and therefore, neither the soul nor the vehicle would know death. But the “wages of sin is death,” or “are death,” is illustrated as it was in Jesus' mission – trying to help them to understand our Father's Kingdom. Certainly, physical death was used as the illustration, because that's what they thought death was. And it might even be that physical death, or death of the plant, or losing the physical vehicle is the result also of their sin, not that the soul can't also be lost eventually as that mind deteriorates.

I got off the track a moment, but I felt we wanted to touch on that for another second. Who's next?

Student: How high a priority is liking to stick to procedures?

Do: About as high as they get. I mean, there's nothing that can happen to me, or any student of our Father's Kingdom, that can be more of an asset than for me to love to stick to procedures. If I resent procedures or they're in my way, then I will have chosen slow growth. I will have chosen tardiness. I will have chosen rebellion. And sometimes influences would have us resent so much of a design given to us.

Here I have to go back to the astronaut illustration, because an astronaut could resent all of the procedures given on a spacecraft. If they say, “All the crew is going to do this at 2 o'clock and this at 2:20 and this at...and we use the bathroom this way, and you have to do it exactly this way, and only this way while we're in this situation. In other words, we don't have any choices, we use only this toothpaste, and only this do we consume.” Then they're crew members, and they can be a cog in the wheel that doesn't have to be another color. Therefore, it can fill any place where a spoke might go in the wheel because they are so flexible, because that's the magic word for a crew member. If I don't love procedures, I am retaining inflexibility. I am reluctant to change. I am rebellious. So, procedures...we have a zillion procedures. Sometimes we get instruction to update them, and we'll go and examine what was the procedure we had for this. And maybe it has been updated, what we had before was a little outdated. So, once in a while, we do get instruction to update, it's not that they're static. They change and they stay with us as they are appropriate. I'll test you for a moment. At a moment on the clock, at a given time, that's when their head hits the pillow – that's when they're down. And they try not to have it vary. I mean, they can't say, “Well, I'll be there in another 5 minutes.” They plan their time so that go-down time is go-down time, that get-up time is get-up time. That doesn't mean that if they need to go relieve their bladder in the middle of the night that they can't do it, or they have to wake somebody up in order to do it. But we have procedures that help us demonstrate our crewdom, or our crewness, or our identity as a crew member, instead of as individuals that want the little freedom of doing this or that a little differently.

Now, it's true that one vehicle that might be a little smaller might consume a little less than another vehicle, or depending on how their vehicle processes fuel. We use the term “high spenders” for vehicles that are high spenders of energy or fuel, those who might need to consume a little bit more fuel. So, they have to adjust their consuming some to adapt. Sometimes we would say for this item on the menu and this item, we would have so many cups of this or so many half-cups of this, except “weight-gainers” might have this or this. That's the way we receive procedures. And you say, “Goodnight, this is structured!” Yes, it's structured, and I love it. (Laughs) And, it's not that I enjoy being the instrument of giving out these procedures, but these students love it. They've seen the value. It does not restrict them. It frees them. But you have to have been there to know what we're talking about. Otherwise, you can easily doubt it. It liberates them. You'll have to learn that if you come this way.

What's next on our list?

Student: Well, is there a lesson in mimicking or copying our Older Member?

Do: Boy, we're hitting all the things that can run people away, aren't we? (Laughs) Oh, goodness. Mimicking or copying our Older Member. Boy, does that put your Older Member on the spot. Yes, there is. I can remember when Ti would see a class member copying someone else, and Ti would say, “If you want to copy somebody, why don't you copy me”? And a human could hear that – because she was saying that in reference to herself – and say, “Good night! Who does she think she is”? And yet she was saying it as an Older Member. She was saying, “I'm your Older Member. I'm someone that hopefully has followed my Older Member enough that if I have those things in place in my behavior, then you would have only to gain by doing what I do.” Not that she's bragging or saying, “Look at me, I'm such a perfect individual and if you follow me, you'll be so perfect.” It's that “I have been given a gift of learning from my Father, which I will gladly share with you. And I know that what I have learned required also that I discard all of my separate ways. And the more I discarded, the more I saw that, ‘Boy, I wish I'd discarded these a long time ago, because the ways that I learned from my Older Member were so much better than the ways that I had – even in little, bitty things.” And you see the utility of them. You see the advantage of them. You see the usefulness of them. So, yes, it gets right down to it’s better to...if you want to copy something, if you want to mimic something, then why not choose someone who is ahead of you in the process of discarding selfish thoughts or rebellion, or human behavior, and try more to follow the lead of procedures and ways, and even new habits from someone who’s illustrating that position?

Now, it puts the spotlight on your teachers. It puts them in a pretty exposed position, and they like exposed positions. Because we all like exposed positions. Listen, I learn new lessons every day. I expose new things every day. My Older Member shares with me correction every day. And I hope that the options for my growth are unlimited. If you think that anyone in our Father’s Kingdom has arrived, you are under a misconception. Certainly not from their point of view. Each one of the members of our Father’s Kingdom only relates to himself as being the youngest member and they look at everything above them as where they’re going. And therefore, they have everything ahead of them. They don’t think, “Boy, look where I’ve gotten. I’m up here”! From their perspective, if they’re serving some students, or they’re trying to help some students, that’s almost a side issue, because even that task of serving those students is a part of mimicking your Older Member, learning from your Older Member, who has served in that capacity before. And you haven’t. Therefore, if you don’t constantly ask your Older Member, you’re going to get off track. They’re the ones that have the experience. They’re the ones that have received the instruction. And they’re the ones assigned to give you the instruction.

A member of the crew just stepped up with the 2-minute sign for this session, and I’m going to ignore it and we’re going to proceed, and just continue until we have covered these things on our list. Who’s next?

Student: I think I was, yes. What about someone who’s too old or too young to start the process? Did I hear you say that souls don’t age like vehicles?

Do: Well, that’s a double-barreled question. Of course, in order to ask that question, she has to be talking about vehicles, not souls. We’ll come right back to that, but whether or not souls age...souls age only in the sense that if a soul goes in one direction, it can eventually become nothing and therefore die. If it goes in another direction, and goes into our Father’s House, it gets into an ageless condition. But only as long as it sustains its position. It can get into our Father’s Kingdom and still be corruptible – it can still go the wrong way, like Lucifer did. So, the potential of choice exists even in our Father’s Kingdom, and a soul can lose its agelessness. It can then have to do all kinds of artificial things to try to maintain it, and it might lose vehicles and have to take other ones, just like they do in the human kingdom, which isn’t the case in our Father’s Kingdom. Now, what was the front part of that question again?

Student: What about someone who’s too old or too young to start the process?

Do: Okay. Too old or too young as far as a vehicle is concerned. I believe that our Father’s Kingdom has, in all fairness to any soul that is deserving of any information that has a timetable on it, that our Father’s Kingdom sees that that soul is in an appropriate age vehicle, or a vehicle that can receive that information. If even hypothetically that soul is in a young vehicle that might be too young for this experience, or the individual might worry because they are about to lose their vehicle, and they have a lot of our Father’s Mind in them, our Father’s certainly not going to consider them waste. They would be put aside until they have this opportunity to do it again.

But if you take this information with the idea, “Oh, so I get this chance again in the future,” then that gets a bad mark on your readout, because that’s not the way we proceed closer to our Father. We don’t make the choice of putting off what we could do in relationship to moving closer to our Father. But in order to help us understand that our Father’s very fair, our Father’s Kingdom is very fair – they relate to souls. They would never be so unfair as to have a deserving soul miss out just because of the age of the vehicle that it might be wearing. It would either receive the information at another time, or let one or another influence take over that vehicle, and the soul would then take over a vehicle that was the right age. This might be a little hard to comprehend, but the possibility exists that a soul could be relating to a vehicle, and, our Father’s Kingdom, who alone has the right to do this (even though Luci tries to do it all the time – take over vehicles and shove the spirit out to the extent where that vehicle doesn’t belong to them anymore – our Father’s Kingdom, who does have the right to, could actually take a soul out of the vehicle and other spirits would take it over, it would continue to live, and the people who knew it would say, “What happened to that child, or that old person, because that’s not the same person any longer.” And then that soul would move into another vehicle that was still healthy mentally or of sufficient age, and suddenly the ones who were identifying with that vehicle would say, “What in the world happened to that person? They’re changed. What is all this preoccupation with this overcoming the world, or this “being born again,” whatever it is that has happened to them. So, it can happen in a number of ways. There’s nothing to fear as far as age of vehicle, whether it be too young or too old. Our Father’s Kingdom takes care of that. That’s part of their activities.

What’s next?

Student: I was wondering, what about some of the prophecies, like the 144,000? The Raptures? Incarnations?

Do: (Laughs.) Goodness alive! I can see why this might be the wrap-up meeting, because we’re going to get into things that are really going to cause them to throw arrows at us, if we say much about them. Maybe we just shouldn’t say anything (laughs). Oh, goodness! The only thing that has been shared with us, and I don’t know how accurate it is, but we’ll share a little bit with you. As far as 144,000 is concerned, whether or not that’s an accurate number or means anything, I certainly don’t know. It may be. How that works, I wouldn’t know if it was an accurate number. As far as who it represents, if it does in fact represent those overcomers, then I’m afraid that that number then applies either realistically or symbolically to you, you who are about to overcome – you who, at the end of this Age, are about to move into our Father’s Kingdom.

As far as raptures are concerned, there’s a lot of debate as to whether or not raptures even exist. And what is a rapture? Some say, “Well, that only happens after taking a spiritual body.” But what is a spiritual body? If you have gone with the spirit or the mind of our Father's Kingdom and you have been lifted out of the world, and one interpretation of rapture is "lifted out,"...I don't know if this is true or not. It doesn't really matter. It isn't significant to us. It's no basis for our allegiance to our task. And it shouldn't be to you. If you can think of it in that light, and just simply be amused by it, because we're not trying to lock in on what we're doing with fulfillment of the prophecies in the Book of Revelation, or Isaiah, or anyplace else, or Daniel. But to me, just for fun, when we got the instruction to take the class out of the world, literally lifted them out of the world, went into isolation where nobody could find them, they didn't exist as far as the world was concerned. And even if they took a job once in a while to bring in a few sticks to try to buy some hamburgers, or whatever it was, they didn't relate to anybody in the world. They only went to that job, went right back to their isolation, and that remained that way for all these years. If anybody has been lifted out or kept separate from the world for the time that they received their overcoming, if that word can symbolically apply to anyone, I certainly don't know why it wouldn't apply to our class. So, if there's a first rapture, in that sense, then I can't imagine that that isn't applicable to our class. Like I said, it doesn't mean anything to us, we don't count on it – it doesn't motivate us. And in the same sense, if there's such a thing as a second rapture, which is more important to us now, the possibility of that...because that would be you. That would be you moving into your own overcoming, your total separateness, your insistence upon not relating to the human world.

In the same way, a couple of other terms in prophecy that are referred to so much are "first resurrection" and "second resurrection." They're just other terms for, in our head, the same thing. Because, if the soul has come into life, if the soul has moved into a vehicle and has taken over that vehicle, and that soul itself is incorruptible and imperishable, whether it loses the vehicle or not, then it has resurrected. It has moved back into life a bit at a time. And that has happened certainly to the class. That is ahead for those who might follow in their path if they receive this information. And even though this touches my heart to talk about this, and it touched my heart for your sake, again I have to say we're not going to go out and try to invite more arrows being shot at us and more daggers thrown our way on the basis of fulfillment of prophecy. We do not know the accuracy of this. We find it amusing.

You know, one time Ti and I went into a place...we were so moved, because we thought we were going out to tell the Truth about the Kingdom of Heaven and how to get from here to there, and if that wasn't two witnesses, we didn't know who the Two Witnesses were. We went into this place that was supposed to be a spiritual center and, lo and behold, as we were sitting there waiting for the leader of that spiritual center, a student was in the room with us and started asking us some questions and said, "Well, what are you all about? What's your information?" We started sharing with that student a little bit, and she said, "Well, what is it you're saying?" And out of our naiveté, we said, "Well, we think that we might be fulfilling the task that was referred to as Two Witnesses in the Book of Revelation." And this student just hit the ceiling because her two teachers were the two witnesses. (Laughs) So, goodness alive, did that do a number on our heads! We thought, "Gracious, we don't want to do that again." And it's like, whether we were or not, it was good for us to experience that. And so, from that point on it didn't matter to us what the reality was. Who's going to prove what the reality is, as far as who might be the fulfillment of the application of certain prophecies of individuals?

Okay, what's next on our list?

Student: Why did Jesus say He was King of the Jews? And who are the true Israelites? The overcomers?

Do: Okay, King of the Jews. Who are the Israelites? I'll try to move quickly. If you really know the meaning of – the old meaning in the Hebrew – of Israelites, or who the Jews really were, the word meant "overcomers." So, to me, those who overcome the world, those who move into this position are the true Israelites, the true Jews, in that sense. Jews were those representing the Israelites. Jesus was trying to relate to them. He was saying, "We are the overcomers. We are the rightful heirs. And I've been sent, so I'm serving in the position as your King." Of course, by the time that the humans heard that and went to the authorities and said, "That guy is saying He is King of the Jews," all those who considered themselves Jews and weren't students of His knowledge and didn't know anything, then they would certainly want to condemn Him for such things as that. But the Truth still exists today that the true meaning of the word is "overcomers." Not that, here again, it means that much to us. We've saved some of these little questions that are kind of fun to examine, that don't mean that much to us, for this last session. But those overcomers are, in a sense, the true Israelites if they do succeed in overcoming. You're not an Israelite if you haven't overcome. It's just that is what you come into if you succeed at it.

Okay, what's next?

Student: Did you want to touch on metaphysics, the occult?

Do: Oh, boy. Metaphysics and the occult. Well, I have to say a couple of little things here. Metaphysics is like an attempt at interpreting what goes on in the transition from a human Age condition to being out of the Earth's atmosphere, out of the human Age. So, it could have application in our Father's Kingdom, but even more so do we unfortunately believe that it is a counterfeit. It is a tool used to get off the track. More common in the metaphysical approach to truth is the concept of "Ye are gods, we are hunting for that cosmic consciousness, we are hunting for that Universal Mind, and we're not really that concerned with overcoming the behavior that is not found in our Father's Kingdom." So, in that sense, it's counterfeit – both the metaphysical and the occult.

Now, there's one thing that I have to mention here. The people say about little movements that happen, they say "They're the occult!" You know, the only real meaning of the word "occult" is "hidden." That's all it really means. Unfortunately, if people try to derogatorily apply that to us, our information has been hidden, but now it is being exposed. Now that it is being exposed, it certainly isn't hidden. So, the meaning has no meaning. A lot of people take terms that don't really have any meaning, and they don't know what the meaning of it is, and they try to apply them to things they don't like. "That's satanic." Even though the ones calling others satanic might be absolutely perfect servants of Satan in every way, they're going to call others satanic, because out of their ignorance, they don't know any better. And in the same way, they would think of derogatory terms like "cult" and link it right with “occult.” “Cult, occult – same thing.” And we’ve acknowledged that if there ever was a cult or a culture that was different, and unique, and unlike the world, and doesn’t have a place in the world, then we take the prize, I guess, of being the cult of cults. And, I’m afraid, so did Jesus and His disciples. There’s no denying that.

So, okay, let’s move on. What’s next?

Student: What about the importance of mobility, short rentals?

Do: Okay, that’s an important point that we missed in talking to people as they try to prepare themselves a little bit. We left that out when we were talking about the practical aspects of moving out of your world, indebtedness, and charge cards, and that kind of thing. If you are starting to move in the direction of breaking your ties, then, and as anyone does that and tries to do the applications right now, in realistic terminology you ask yourself “What’s it going to take for me to get from here to there?” Then we have to move into a very mobile condition where we can pick up at any moment. We can follow instruction as it is given to us. We can’t say, “Well, I can do that if you just give me two weeks or if you just give me four weeks.” Therefore, we’ll get our belongings down to necessities, then whittle at them and whittle at them, and then get down to necessities, then whittle at them and whittle at them...because our judgment of necessities changes. Now, some might go to an extreme and walk out the door with what they have on their vehicle, and then it becomes somebody else’s responsibility to have them wearing something that isn’t stinking to the high heavens. So, that doesn’t work too well either. We have to be practical and not just go to extremes. But we do need to cut our excess down, our possessions down, so that we have real mobility. Some forms of mobility are having an RV, or something like that, or to be in an apartment or a house that has a very short term, by the week or by the month, hopefully at the most, so that you wouldn’t lose money, or lose much money, if you left prior to the completion of that month. Certainly not a long-term lease and then just have to pick up and leave. In this world, it’s hard to find anything where they will rent something pleasant to you on a short-term basis. You have to work hard to find something that’s short term, or either work hard trying to convince them to rent to you for a short term, telling them that you will take care of it and it wouldn’t be a waste of their money and effort. You might even do improvements on it for the short term that you’re there in order to interest them in letting you stay there. Lodging has become too expensive to rent a place like in a hotel or motel, for the most part, on a temporary basis, or a short-term basis.

But, realistically, we have to get down to these little nitty-gritty things. Okay? What else is on our list?

Student: Well, is it right that the soul that was in a human can serve humans better from a Kingdom Level above them?

Do: This question came up because it seemed to help some of the students a lot when (I think on our last tape) we were talking a little about how a dog who relates to a human is moving out of his dog world and only wants to connect with the human world. Now, in the same respect, a dog can’t learn much from other dogs. He can learn from humans, if he’s moving up, if that spirit can move up, in that respect. Wouldn’t it also be true that if I’m moving into my Father’s Kingdom that I can’t continue to live in the world? I have to move into my Father’s Kingdom in the same way. I have to isolate myself, not participate in that world. I have to isolate only with members of my Father’s Kingdom that can help. Some can say, “Goodness, how can you justify not continuing with human, humanitarian acts and charitable acts, and taking responsible positions in your community?” The same parallel would exist, “Well, how could a dog not be a good dog and good example for the other dogs in that community, and try to raise their standard.” That’s fine! That’s exactly what he should do, until the time that he is reaching for more. Then he leaves those dogs, he migrates to the human, and he starts on the process of trying to please only them. The same is true in the human relationship to our Father’s Kingdom. What’s next on our list?

Student: Well, did you want to discuss something about race?

Do: Oh, it’s funny that you should ask (laughs). You know, this student had to go through recognizing that he could in a sense be the only racist in our classroom at times when he was dealing with wondering if everybody else might be a racist. Can you see that if he has a consciousness of thinking that others could be prejudiced against him, then he is prejudiced due to his imagination of their prejudice. He is the one then who has color consciousness. And that influence would have him think that “If people are coming down on me or if they’re singling me out, or if everybody’s bringing up things that I need to work on, then could it have some bearing on the fact that my skin is a different color?” And certainly influences would have him try to think in that way. And he recognized that here, as influences would like to have him recognize others as maybe being racist, or maybe having prejudice, that he was the only one who he had evidence of being racist, in a sense, because race consciousness is racist. It’s so ridiculous for any minority group to want equal time, want no inhibiting factors placed upon them, whether it be gays, or women’s rights, or other races. And yet, they are the ones, by their mere preaching, that insist on that consciousness. If I am a black person who is insisting on black rights, then I am the racist. I am reminding you that I am black. I cannot overcome racism, nor can anybody who I am dealing with overcome racism, until I literally become color blind. And the same thing is true in dealing with differences of other types. Until I become blind to those other types, only then can I lose any prejudice. If I sustain any consciousness of that kind of prejudice, then I become the instigator of prejudice. So, it doesn’t make a bit of sense. We have to become color blind. Listen, in our Father’s hot house, the plants have got all kinds of colors, and He likes them all. He never said, “I don’t like that one.” If He didn’t like it, He would have done away with it. He likes all of those different plants and their possibilities and their potentials. What He doesn’t like is if the soul within those plants wants to go away and work against Him, but He even permits them to do that. But nobody’s as color blind as our Father’s Kingdom certainly.

I’ll turn that around and say instead of being color blind, our Father sees the value in all of that, but sees it all as plants, sees it all as His creation, sees it all as demonstration of it. I’m afraid when we move into our Father’s Kingdom, we don’t know how many colors there might be. Probably the colors that there might be of our vehicles would be one that none of us has ever worn, and they might also be alike, and therefore, we have to have color-blind consciousness. We don't want to have any favoritism or any negativity toward anything relating to how tall or how short or how fat or how skinny, or certainly what color skin. That's beneath us.

Okay, what's next?

Student: Well, is it possible that the rumored approaching planetoid is from our Heavenly Father's Kingdom?

Do: Oh, I don't know if we ought to spend any time on that or not. There's been a little rumor that there's a planetoid approaching this planet, and certainly the possibility exists that it could be approaching for the reality of this spading time that we have talked about. And at that, I'm going to stop our questioning and move into our punch line, move into our finale, if we can, in humor, discuss it that way.

I think that the most difficult thing that I have to deal with and that these students have to deal with and that you have to deal with, as someone potentially who's coming this way, is the acceptance of us in that relationship with you. In other words, the place that Satan has worked the hardest is to have you very reluctant to accept anyone as a Representative of our Father's Kingdom. It's like the last thing you want to do is be a cult member. The last thing you want to do is to go off with some weirdo and to fall in some trap or fall out of what is considered to be the norm. We were in that same head space before we started.

I have to give you an analogy. I saw a movie not long ago, and it's not completely an accurate analogy, but in the movie, an individual realized that an inheritance was coming up in this family, and the individual appeared on the scene as the one they thought was dead from before – so many years had passed – and the person reappears on the scene and says, "I am so and so." It would have put that person in a position to receive that inheritance. Now, in that particular movie I believe that the person really wasn't an heir, but it still had a good ending anyhow. Let's say that person was the major heir in that particular inheritance. And let's say that nobody else knew that, but the person who was the heir knew that he was the heir. What is he to do about it? That individual, knowing he is the heir, turns to the others and offers it to them saying, "I have this inheritance to give to you. I have prepared this place for you. I have this whole world waiting for you, and I want to give it to you." Well, I know that's true in my case. You don't know it, I know it. How do I know it? Because I know my Older Member. Now, I don't want to get emotional here. I know my Older Member. I know that my Older Member is my Older Member. In the beginning of this task, I worked hard against that. I didn't want to accept that. It was an infringement upon me. It was as difficult for me to accept my Older Member as my Older Member as it was for these students to go through accepting me also as an Older Member, and as it will be for you, should you accept them as Older Members and me as older Older Member. But when I did persist, when I stayed with it until I could know my Older Member, then I knew that this was my family. And that when it was time to go home, back to my family, that it was a real home, and the inheritance was there. And it was for me.

What's awkward here is that if we did not speak to you (i.e., put out this information), we wouldn't lose out. Our inheritance is still there, but you would not have even had a chance to become rightful heirs. In that case, you would never get these tapes. The inheritance didn't come, that we're aware of, with a tag on it that says it can't be given to us unless we involve someone else. But there's a problem that exists here, because part of what came with the knowledge of our family and its ways, and its inheritance, was also the knowledge that there might be other rightful heirs. There might be other sons. Now, would we come before you, would we put this information out if we were not interested in your possible relationship as an heir. What have we to gain by putting it out for any other reasons? We get ridicule, blasphemy, scorn, everything...we have nothing to gain by putting this out. Part of the mind that is in us says, "If you can be rightful heirs, if our family wants us to let the information out and to try to find out if there are rightful heirs, how can we refuse that"? Can we say, "No, I don't want to put myself in that position, I don't want to accept that ridicule or jeopardy"? Therefore, I must accept that I am an heir, if I'm to offer any of that Kingdom to other heirs. They must accept that. Now, if you're going to be an heir, you have to unfortunately be put in the position of accepting that relationship through someone who delivers the little message. You know, it's like Publishers' Clearinghouse, as they issue out who's going to be the $10 million winner, except this is a zillion times more valuable than that. We know that the truth we're saying to you is true. You don't know it. We can't expect you to know it. You're still looking at it. You're still examining it. You can know it. You can know it swiftly with our help, but you have to accept the helpers.

The faster that you can lick the rebellion and run away the doubt and take those steps, the sooner you move into your own sobriety, the sooner you see that picture. Because that picture in a sense is our proof. We know it. It's like we've been delivered a certificate that says proof to us of our Father's House, of our place in it, of our inheritance, and that proof cannot come to you unless you take each step along the way, the way that they have designed it. You have to take it from another heir who has come into that position. So, we know the spot you're in. We know the spot we're in. And it's a tough spot for both of us. We know how hard it is for you to accept us, but we know that if you're going to be the beneficiary, you're going to have to accept us. We went through the same thing. We've dealt with it. The amount of effort that you put into attempting to accept and believe us will equal the degree of your own reputation in the world being jeopardized.

Goodness, if I could take back the times that I doubted my Older Member. Because from where I sit, I know, I know who my Older Member is. I know the truth that was given to me. My Older Member gave it to me. Look, my Older Member even sacrificed time in our Father's Kingdom to come and be on this task. Certainly didn't have to. And to reach out and awaken me and to bring me into that knowledge, and even say, "Well, look, we're partners, let's think of ourselves as partners in this task" – my Older Member didn't have to do that. It was for my sake that my Older Member did that. And then when it was time for my Older Member to move back into that Kingdom, it would always be for more lessons for me, for my sake, to experience my Older Member dropping a vehicle, and my having to relate to my Older Member in a different manner. It was for my sake and for these students' sake, and for your sake. I know. I know nothing else. Nothing else means anything to me. And I don't want this to sound like a hard sell, but I know that it can sound that way. If you had actually received the certificate of your place in that inheritance, and it also said, "If you would deliver this to possible other heirs, then they can also receive it.” So, we’re in that position with you. And we hope that this whole series can be the beginning of your finding that place in our Father’s Kingdom, that is so precious to you. It’s not an easy road. It’s the toughest road that can be found.

We have no idea how the world would respond to any of us or what they will do with us. That can’t be a factor here. We know that nothing can happen to our souls, and our souls are all that matter. Any inconvenience that we are put to or any interruption or interference or irritation, we can endure if it’s part of what goes with the task. Not that our Father’s Kingdom would have it be a part, but our Father has not yet done away with this other kingdom, and they who unknowingly serve the Luciferians have the option to act against us, and to work as hard against us as they can. We recognize that and we’re prepared for it. It would even be a difficult thing for you to do from your relationship with that world. They would look at you, even though their main dagger would be pointed at this vehicle and then at these vehicles and then lastly at you, they would wonder what on Earth has happened to you for you to be so crazy as to do such a thing. They may live to see the physical presence of our Father’s Kingdom and all this harvest happening and not know where they’re going or what the sorting out is that’s applicable or appropriate for them. We know where we’re going. We know what’s happening here at the end of the Age for us, and what may happen for you if you go this way. And we’ll do the best that we can to follow our Older Member’s lead and assist you to travel as fast as you can. And we know that if you believe with all your might and you’re on that route, that nothing can happen to you. We are concerned for you. If you want us to assist you, then that’s an action that you must take. Thank you.

Beyond Human – The Last Call – Session 12 (110 Min)

Welcome to Beyond Human. This is our twelfth Session. As far as I can tell, this is our last session, but that might change. My feeling is that it will be the last session of this series. We want to get right on with the series. We have things to talk about that kind of round out our whole summary, our bottom line. I want to welcome the students who will be helping me with this session today. I'm going to ask that they feed me questions, as we have prepared our little outline, hopefully in accordance with my Older Member's instruction. So let's get right to it. What is the first question on our list?

Student: Did we want to say more about the generic versus the religious terminology?

Do: Yes, we discussed it on one of our previous sessions. I think the important thing here is that we realize what we now call "religious terminology" – as far as those terms that we associate with the Bible, with the background of the Old and New Testaments, the terminology used at one time, or at its origin, or as it was given to humanity as the Next Level was present with those individuals, it was not religious terminology – it was generic terminology. It's because of the passage of time and because of the lack of closeness of the Next Level that the vocabulary and the terminology, the vernacular, so to speak, has become religious terminology and tainted, less than true, less than accurate.

I have to bring up again that the first time Ti, my Older Member, used the phrase "Next Level," our computers (brains) said, "Well, you know, people aren't going to understand something like a reference to Next Level. What does that mean?" And yet, if instead of saying the "Next Level," we say the "heavenly kingdom," we get into religious terminology. We get into a degree of spirituality that is less than real, less than true. So, in an attempt to get to true, objective terminology, we use the "Next Evolutionary Level" or the "Evolutionary Level Above Human." Remember, human evolutionary level, Evolutionary Level Above Human. This whole series is about beyond human, synonymous with Evolutionary Level Above Human. There is no clearer terminology that we're aware of than Evolutionary Level Above Human.

I'm reminding you that the use of the term "evolutionary" has nothing to do with Darwin and his theories or his principles. It has to do with life, as it is discussed in science text books and biology or zoology as "kingdom" levels and "evolutionary" levels – animal kingdom, animal evolutionary level; human evolutionary level, Evolutionary Level Above Human. Whether we like it or have trouble with it or not, depending upon our listener or our viewer who may have difficulty with some concept of reincarnation – and let me remind you not to apply some of the concepts of reincarnation you have heard of – but there is a type of reincarnation that we have told you is certainly for real. Did not Jesus take a human vehicle (body)? If He had pre-existence, had He never had a vehicle before He took that human vehicle? Of course, He had had a vehicle before He took that human vehicle. Was He not a member with a Next Level vehicle in our Father's Kingdom before He took that human vehicle? He reincarnated, even though His task was worse than that, because He had to incarnate down a kingdom level, or down an evolutionary level, in order to take the vehicle that we call Jesus. So, the reason we discuss the generic as against the religious terminology is to try to help bridge the gap.

Recently, someone who is going to join the classroom said, "But I really have trouble with the Bible. I have trouble with religious concepts, with religious terminology, because in my childhood, in my background...the history, I was so turned off by it." And so with that individual we can talk in generic terms, we can talk "Evolutionary Level Above Human." We can talk everything else that we talk and it doesn't seem to give much problem. But when we say things like "Father" or "Kingdom of Heaven," or we say "Kingdom of God," because of being run away from those terms, because of bad experiences, they became a problem for that individual. Now, that individual has to overcome that problem. But in the same sense, we have to appreciate that fact, and we can even understand why someone would be turned off by that kind of terminology.

And here is the other extreme; that is, someone who is so into religious terminology that that's what connects. And they have to overcome that, they have to rise above the religious terminology and be willing to see the truth in the generic terminology without any hang-up either way – just seeking a clear understanding of how God's program of growth and development, both for the vehicles and for the souls, was designed. That's the reason we have to address the issue for you again, because it doesn't matter what your prior orientation was, as far as understanding of terms, or your background. These are just some of the hurdles we have to make. So we try to kind of walk both sides of the fence for those who came from the religious background. We try to help them connect by using those terms, and yet when we do, we try to also supplement them with more generic terms for those who had bad experiences and were turned off by religions. I think enough said on that topic.

What's the next one on our list of questions?

Student: Do we want to discuss the different routes to the classroom or maybe the two extremes that you mentioned?

Do: Yes, we do and I'm glad you asked that question. What he means by the different routes to the classroom, we're using "classroom" here synonymously with when individuals or souls are in an overcoming process, when they are on their way out of the human kingdom on their way to the Kingdom of God, or the Evolutionary Level Above Human. The reason we're discussing the extreme routes here is to give you some understanding of what happens to a soul during its awareness of the closeness of the Next Level. It's quite obvious that the Next Level has to be very close at this time and has been since the early 70's. It has certainly been extremely close to this planet, and to varying degrees to different areas, depending upon who we're talking about, individuals and what presences. But since it has been close, people respond in a different way. There's an analogy here that might be helpful. Most of us have seen Close Encounters of the Third Kind. There is a scene in there (and sometimes I wish that we had a great big picture of the shot) that was on a helicopter where there were all these individuals that for some, or for differing, reasons had to go to Devil's Tower. They were led to Devil's Tower. They didn't know why, they didn't know what, but that's where they had to go. They were compelled to go. Now, some went intellectually – some of the scientists went intellectually. They were hearing beep-beeps and they had kind of a communication with the physical reality of certain ones outside of this Earth's Age of the human kingdom as we know it. So, from an intellectual, or a technical, or a pragmatic approach, they went to Devil's Tower because of their curiosity and their interest in what they might find there. Others didn't even know why they had to go there, but they had to go there.

The same parallel exists as souls prepare themselves for overcoming, for this transition from the human kingdom to the Level Above Human. Some might hear these tapes, and the information they hear makes sense to them. And they might say, "I've been waiting for this and I know that it's right." Others might hear merely five seconds of it and that's all it takes, and they say, "This is what I've been waiting for!" Some might hear the whole thing and it takes them a long time and they're not quite so sure. Different degrees of preparedness, meaning different degrees of preparedness from previous experiences.

But before we get into that, let's talk a moment about another extreme. There might be someone who has left everything behind, such as a street person, and for some reason or other he cannot be motivated to reconstruct his place in society. Even though he tried, it just hasn't worked. He couldn't muster up enough motivation, and he fell into guilt because his life was falling apart and he didn't know what to do about it. He didn't want to become a street person, he finds himself there. We feel that our classroom for overcoming, our classroom for this transition, is a haven-shelter, a haven-home for street people. But those street people who might come by that route, as we called it, into this classroom would live exactly by the same rules, the same training program, the same everything in preparedness for the Next Level. They have to do the complete overcoming task, is what we're getting at. So, it doesn't really matter, because some of those from the streets might be more like some of those on that helicopter in Close Encounters who didn't know why they were there. It was almost subconsciously, or what some people would call at a subconscious psychic level, of tuning into the fact that they had to do it. And it could be at the subconscious level that some individuals, some souls, find themselves at our doorstep not knowing why, and then after they step in and learn why, it all fits. Others might know all the why's, and then when they learn the particulars about it, they end up with exactly the same difficulty, exactly the same problems or lessons or areas of overcoming, the same degree of overcoming necessary as those who came from a standpoint of knowledge or information. So here are two extreme routes: one who might come in having nothing, and ones who come here and have to give up everything. What's the difference? They both lost everything, they both left everything in order to enter the transition of preparedness to move into that Kingdom Level.

When we first had this information in 1975, and gave it for a short time for those who responded, then we referred to it as the caterpillar-becoming-butterfly transition. We used that illustration and the metamorphic illustration, even though we knew it had little pitfalls, because it made us too aware or too focused on the physical aspect of that metamorphosis instead of the soul. Not that they aren't both equally a part of it. But the point is the change. It's just like that caterpillar has to drop caterpillar ways when it enters that chrysalis – the chrysalis being the overcomers' classroom. I can't get in that chrysalis and get on with my change until I have dropped everything outside that chrysalis. I can step in that chrysalis and still have thoughts of caterpillar activity, but I have to abort them, abort them, abort them, until there is no caterpillar activity. And so the same would be true from whichever route you approach the classroom, or the chrysalis, or the transitional overcomers' route from the human evolutionary level into the Evolutionary Level Above Human, the House of the Most High God. Whichever is your terminology, they are both accurate, they are both real. Did we leave anything out of that one?

Student: No, I think that covered it very well.

Do: Ok, you're next. Let's go to the next question.

Student: I know you touched a little bit about the street people, but what about the addicts, the sexaholics, and the alcoholics, etcetera?

Do: I'm glad you brought that up because it's the same issue. You know, if at a subconscious level I am somehow unsatisfied with what the world has to offer, I can't really play all of the human so-called ideal ways. I can't just be a good husband, a good father, bring home a good wage, have a good insurance policy, pay for my grave, pay for the trust that would take care of everyone behind me, and "I did it all right, I even took care of the ending, it was all covered" – if I can't get into that and I know that there's something more than that because that's where I am, I'm ready for something more. Maybe some souls aren't ready for something more, and therefore that is satisfactory. But for those souls who know there is something more and they don't know what it is, and they don't know why they are in this time lock or this waiting period thinking, "What is it that I'm supposed to find that I'm not finding? I'm hunting here, I'm hunting there...." Who can't understand while you're in that agony and that anxiety why you wouldn't find yourself a sexaholic, an alcoholic, into drugs, into losing respect for career, losing respect for some of those aspects that society says you must do? I'm not justifying participating in activity that is against the law or would disturb others or would interfere with others, or would make trouble for others or with the legal system in which we live. But I certainly can see that, I'll be honest with you, if I did not have this knowledge in my conscious mind and my pursuit under way and my awareness of what I am pursuing, and my even subconscious awareness of the value of what I am pursuing, it would be hard for me not to be an addict of some sort, maybe not to any hard degree or any degree that would find me ready for a hospital. But why not? I mean, you need pacifiers of some sort if you can't connect with what it is that you're looking for, what it is that's missing in your life, and that's certainly understandable. Did that clarify that for you?

Student: Yes.

Do: Ok, anything more on that one?

Student: No, I think that covered it.

Do: Ok, let's go to the next one.

Student: Ok, do we want to talk about the symptoms of those who are more ready for this, and possibly how, if they have more symptoms, it is an indication that they had done a lot of overcoming at a previous time?

Do: Yes, and that just picks up right where we left off on the last one, because we were talking about symptoms and degrees of symptoms of readiness or ripeness for picking – I'm talking about for the Next Level to pick a soul, so that when it picks that soul, then it is ready to make that transition. Well, in 1975, or around that time, when the information first came out, some of these who are in this classroom (and by the way, sitting in this studio with us at this moment), some of them had their backpack – that's all they had. They'd already left everything, they didn't know why, but they had a backpack and they didn't feel like they were just a hippie who was out on a trek of worthlessness. They just didn't know why they found themselves physically within a few miles of the area where Ti and I first surfaced with the information that was given to us to give. So those who found themselves with that degree of readiness with no question in their mind – they had not gotten into family, they did not have children, they did not have properties they had to get rid of, they didn't have this, they didn't have that. I'm not criticizing those who maybe had those things and rose to the occasion, when they recognized this information, that they had to also pursue it, but we're discussing the degree of readiness.

Now, again I'll have to be honest with you here. I feel that some indications of the degree of that readiness might be because those same souls received so many overcoming lessons in the previous time that a Representative was here. We have to just face that, talk about it openly, even though that does a little tilt to some of our computers. When the Next Level sent Jesus as a Representative, don't forget his only purpose in being here was to what? Spread the news of the Kingdom of Heaven. "The Kingdom of Heaven is in our midst." In other words, 'the door is open – you listen to me, you do what I say, you can get in. If you don't do it to the degree that you can get in and stay there, then you'll have to be born again.' Now that doesn't mean necessarily that everyone in this classroom was there or had to be born again. But I can't help but believe my Older Member, as my Older Member explains to me that those souls were present at that time with Him – knew Him – did as He taught to the best of their ability, accomplished a great deal of their overcoming, and therefore, when they came in at this time, they knew not to get into this, not to get into that, and their baggage was light, their yoke was easy, their burden was light. They were more prepared to move right on and get with their overcoming.

Here again, I've got to say this is not to put someone down who finds that their yoke is not light and their burden is not easy (or vice versa, whichever way it's supposed to be), because anyone who finds this and connects with this and knows that this is the Truth, if they really know that it is the Truth, and the more they know it is the Truth, the closer they probably were, if not actually, were with Him 2000 years ago. The more they knew Him, the more they knew His Father through His mouth. Because Jesus did not want them to know Him. He wanted them to know His Father. He wanted to be a vessel of His Father's mind, and so forth up the line to God Almighty, or the Chief of Chiefs, the Creator of Creators.

So, back to the question at the point where the symptoms of readiness can frequently be seen by the ease with which we can drop things, or how much we are already in a position to jump right into the classroom and get on with the overcoming. Even those who came in with a backpack and had already prepared themselves by not getting into those things, that didn't mean they had an easy row to plow. There is, as far as I know of, or as far as Ti and I know of, there is no row to plow that is an easy row in overcoming. There is no one who has so much overcoming done that they can sail through this. They are still actually and currently dealing with the forces that would prohibit them from accomplishing this overcoming, and that's a daily thing – it's a moment-by-moment thing – which I deal with, which they deal with. When you are in this environment and those minds in opposition to our Fathers' Kingdom surround us, then we deal with those influences on a regular basis. We have to win round by round in that fight and in that struggle until we know we can keep them at bay. So readiness does not necessarily mean ease is ahead. It's almost as if sometimes the more ready you are, the harder the influences pounce on you. It's like the influences see that you're about to get to the point where you're secure, and therefore they have to add extra influences to prohibit you from accomplishing the closeness that you want with the Next Level as it relates, connects, with your Older Member or your Teacher. Did that cover our question there?

Student: Yes, it did.

Do: Ok, are we ready to go to the next one? What's the next one on our list?

Student: Is timing a factor in readiness for overcoming?

Do: Ok, timing. Timing is a factor from a couple of important points. Let's go back 2000 years. Jesus knew when He delivered His message to His disciples that they had to respond then. He was there, He was a Representative, don't forget, of the Next Level. He was a Representative of His Father's Kingdom. He took on a human vehicle and became a "begotten" son (instead of a "made" son, because of having a Next Level vehicle). He was in a human form and was a Representative sent to bring them information of how to get from human level to Level Above Human, so timing was important. He was present. Therefore, if you want to make that transition, you have to do it during the time a lab instructor is there to take you through it. Therefore, as He taught them and said to them, "Do this, do this, you follow me, you believe in me, you do exactly as I say, and you'll get there. You will not know death." Wow, but I can't get there and not know death unless I continue to believe and continue to do.

So, timing is very important from the aspect of responding when a Representative has been sent with the offering of transition from human kingdom into the Level Above Human. Timing is also important from other aspects. The time that it takes me to break the ties that bind, to get out of my humanness and get on with my program. That timing is very important. Another aspect of timing that's important is, I can't just say, "Well, it seems that the Next Level sends Representatives periodically, and it looks as if I don't get X amount of overcoming done this time, then there will be a time down the line." I'm afraid we have no assurance of that. We have no data on that. We have no knowledge of that. I mean, if you want to gamble to that degree, that's like saying, "If I'm going to win a million dollars at the Vegas table, then I'll win it next month, not while the Vegas table is advertising that a million dollars can be won." Because when the information is there, it's being offered, it's being advertised to an extent. That's what these tapes are doing. They're letting you know the information is available. The door is open. So, I have to respond while the door is open if I expect to move through the door, even get a toe in the door – or even start in that direction – or maybe even get through the door and get it slammed, if I get enough overcoming done. I certainly can't take the frame of mind that this is something that I can do at a later time, or I can count on a Rep being here at another time. So, timing is important when a Representative is present. The timing is important on "When I recognize this Truth, I need to get rid of the shackles that bind me, get rid of those things that are inhibiting me from getting into the classroom and getting on with this program if it is for me." And that's not for us to say, that's for you to say. But if that is what you are saying, then we must remind you that timing is significant and that you need to act quickly. Did that cover that topic?

Student: Well, when there's no member of the Next Level present on the garden, is it more appropriate for them to be humanitarians?

Do: That's an interesting question. I would say that when there is no Representative present that it is a justifiable position for being the best human you know how to be. Now, if a soul is present during the time that a Representative is not present, a soul who knew a Representative at a previous time, that soul still might make increased efforts at overcoming and thereby relate less and less to human responsibility and more and more in an attempt to become a servant. And the humans would say, "What's that person doing? He's copping out, he's becoming a hermit, he's dropping his responsibility to society." So, if that soul knew that much knowledge and it is present at that time, he might take that route. It is not our place to judge him or condemn him, because we do not know what position he might find himself in or what his previous experience was. But if he was not that close, then probably the best thing that he can do is become charitable-minded, humanitarian, do the best that he can to make a significant contribution to society, whether it's in medicine, or science, or whatever it might be to try to better things, to clean up the environment, things that would take better care of the garden and try to stimulate people more toward better conduct than certainly negative or destructive conduct that makes the world a more difficult place for other people. Did that answer that question?

Student: Yes.

Do: Where are we on our next question?

Student: We certainly touched on this, but is the message that we have the same message that Jesus brought?

Do: Well, we have to directly address that question. Yes, I think we probably said that before, but we need to say it again. It's the same message exactly. Don't forget, what we asked just a moment ago was "What was Jesus' purpose while He was here?" He sent His disciples out and He told them, 'The Kingdom of God is at hand, the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. It is at hand through me. You do this through me, you believe in me, you do as I say, you can get there.' Now, this wasn't because Jesus was saying, 'I'm a big boy, I'm a big shot, I'm Mr. God!' He was saying, 'I have been commissioned to act as midwife to you. I'm no big shot in the eyes of my Heavenly Father. I'm no big shot in the Heavenly Kingdom. It is my task to be here, to minister to you. And if I can minister to you, then you can make it there.' But He still had to be the object of their focus. He was the vessel for the information on how to make the transition from the human kingdom into the Level Above Human. Therefore, we have to listen to the vessel when the vessel is present. We can't ignore the vessel, just take the information and run and say, "I can do it on my own." It doesn't work.

There's another thing that enters here. That information, as it comes, changes daily. This vessel is not giving you information that it got from its Older Member when its Older Member was in a human vehicle. This vessel is giving you information that it receives day by day, hour by hour, minute by minute, second by second, from its Older Member. That information is not like some super-duper, holy-holy, sanctimonious information. It is practical application of how I overcome my binds, my shackles, my addictions, my improper behavior, my improper conduct that was ok in the human kingdom because it was transition from animal kingdom, but which is not ok if I expect to ever get in my Father's House without running him out the back door. It's simply a practical lab-instructor-type relationship with the students in trying to help their souls clean up their act, get rid of their humanism, adopt the ways. Actually, they're not just getting rid of humanism, they're not just breaking the binds to the human kingdom, they are adopting ways of the Next Level. They are taking on ties with the Next Level. They are taking on habits of the Next Level. They have a different structure, they have a different format than human ties would or human habits. They are trying to graft to the Next Level. They're trying to graft so that when they get into that Kingdom, they fit. It can work. Even though they're tiny little children in that Kingdom Level, it's ok. They might wet their diaper, they might make little boo-boos, but it's permissible, they can handle it, it's tolerable. It's not going to be so difficult that those whom they work with can't handle it. It's like getting into a team, it's like getting into a crew, whether it's a crew aboard a spacecraft, or a crew on a project to prepare a garden for its next civilization. But how can the crew function if members of that crew still have to, "Well I've got to have so and so to consume because I don't like what's offered here," or "I've got to have some time by myself, I've got to go sit and meditate a little bit"? If it requires all that attention, then that individual can't really be a crew member, can't be a spoke in the wheel, can't be just an active tool of the captain of that task or the instructor for that task. Where were we?

Student: I think we covered that. Our message is the same as the message Jesus brought.

Do: Ok, what's next on our list?

Student: Do you want to discuss the name of Jesus, Yeshua?

Do: Ok, this is an interesting little thing to talk about. The name of Jesus. Don't forget that when Jesus was present He said, "Do this in my name." Now, that had a couple of different meanings. One was: "You can blame me for it. Whatever it is they're going to do – whatever problem they're going to give you, go ahead and blame me for it." In other words, He knew that His task was going to end with the masses requiring His life and stringing Him up in one way or another. And He said, "You know, that's part of the M.O. of my task, so I'll take the blame. You know you can say, 'He told me to do it.' So do it in my name." Another thing is, if you look to Him and if you're calling His name all the time in your head, and in your thoughts asking for help, then He can respond, His Father can respond. His Father wanted you to call the name of His son. His Father put His son in the position so you could call His name and that you could get closer and closer. The more Jesus meant to those who were His disciples and His followers, the closer they got, also the more lessons they got, the more correction they got, the more help they got. But it was a point of contact, it was a point of communication, it was a point of focus to call His name.

The name also, according to some of the linguists and some of the historians, had some double meaning. Some used the term "Yeshua," meaning present savior. Well, Jesus, as a Representative of the Kingdom of Heaven or the Next Level, present with information of how to get from the human kingdom into the Kingdom Above Human, was He not present? And was He not their savior? Therefore, their "present savior"? And therefore, that name had significance for Him, Yeshua or present savior.

Unfortunately, that puts this vehicle on the spot right now, too. I happen to be, or this vessel happens to contain, and this soul happens to contain and be the conduit for that information that can get you from the human kingdom into the Kingdom Above Human. And I'm afraid that Jesus is not my name. Jesus was the name of that vehicle 2000 years ago, and we need to understand it that way. Let me help you understand something a little more. Jesus said, 'Don't forget that if someone says to you in the Age to come (He meant the end of the Age) that He is here or He is there, or you can find Him on this mountain (or wherever it was), don't believe it.' Jesus knew that He would not come appearing as Jesus or in the same body that He was in then. Don't misunderstand me and say that that's what I'm saying I am. And you'll understand that in a moment. He said, 'Don't believe it.' For someone to say that that's who they are doesn't make sense; it isn't right for a couple of reasons. One is that Jesus, or the soul that was in the vehicle that was named Jesus, that soul certainly had grown to the point of not wanting identity any longer. He wanted to draw attention to His Kingdom, to His Father, even though His Father had said, "The part of the formula that I give you is that they must look to you, they must call your name." But here, understand something else. What was the name of that soul? Was it the name of that soul...was that Jesus? No, that soul had a name before it entered the vehicle that was named Jesus. You don't know that name. I don't know that name. I'm not supposed to know that name. I think I certainly knew it before I came into this lifetime, just as my Older Member certainly knew it, but it is not to be brought in. It is secret. Don't forget, when Jesus left them and was telling them how to pray after His departure, it was to the group, to the ones who were close to Him. It was Our Father (our Father), who art in Heaven ("which" was "who," art in the Next Level now having left this place), Hallowed be thy Name (kept holy, thy Name kept holy). Humans are not to know the names of individuals in the Next Level or in the Kingdom of Heaven, or Kingdom of God. You know these Biblical scholars who dig and dig and dig, and they finally get smart and they come up with "Ya-hah-way" or "Yahweh" or this or that, all these different names, "Jehovah" the this and "Jehovah" the that. They're forgetting the first rules regarding the names of those individuals from the Next Level who related to the humans (which they did in the early days of migration from Egypt and into Israel). All that time they were physically there in Next Level vehicles, they had titles, and those titles then became names, and their names were not to be known or pronounceable. If humans lucked out somehow or other by their Biblical scholarship, so to speak, and came across and discovered what the name might have been of that member of the Next Level that was present at that time, then I'm sure that the Next Level would change the name of that soul, because humans are not to call the names. They can call the titles, they can call the stations, they can make reference in their prayers to those who they have known while they were present on Earth. Certainly, it is appropriate for humans to do the best that they can as they seek to relate to that Kingdom. 'The best that they can' is to pray to God, to pray to Jesus – what else can they do? That's the best that they can do, and it serves the purpose. You know it's not really what name you use at the front of your prayer that counts. It's what your prayer is that counts. If you are saying "God" or if you're saying "Jesus," or whatever it is that you're saying, if you're saying, "I want what You want for me. I want to join You. I want to overcome this world. I want to become as You. I want to become as Your son. I want to leave everything that separates me from You." They could simply say one thing, "Lead me closer to You and help me to rise to the occasion." Because in the process of asking that, you can be lead closer to Him. Things will be put in your path that will begin to challenge that statement that you just made. Because if you ask, "Lead me closer to You," and then the one who responds begins to give you an opportunity to drop some shackle or some tie or some bind to the human kingdom, how are you going to respond? Would you say, "Oh, God, how could this have happened to me? God, please restore this." And He says, "Oh, I thought you wanted to get closer to Me." And you say, "Oh, God, please restore." So, He says, "Ok, I'll send somebody who can restore. I'm not in the business of restoring humanism, but I'll send somebody who will if that's what you really want." So, when we say, "I want to get closer to You," we've got to take what comes in response to that.

Where were we?

Student: Would you say that our disciplines are the same disciplines that Jesus taught?

Do: I hope so. Yes, I believe that I can say it with confidence, because I know my Father. I know how my Father's example works. I know that when my Father tells me that I can overcome something and tells me how to overcome it and then continues to bring me a new clue, a new band-aid, a new remedy, try something else, try something else – I know that if I continue to do what is given to me that it works. Therefore, our discipleship is the same. When Jesus said to his disciples, or to those who would be his disciples, "Unless you hate your father, your mother, your sister, your brother..." Read that to us, ok? Read us that scripture.

Student: "If any man comes to me and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple."

Do: Ok, the popular thing to do in the Christian world is to say, "Oh, He didn't really mean that. What He really meant was if you love those things more than me...." And I'd say that that is an appropriate application when a Representative is not present. But when the transition information and discipline are available, which it was in Jesus' time, He had the right to say to them, "Come and follow me. Leave those things and come and follow me. Give up everything that you have of this world, get rid of it, give it to the poor, come and follow me. Leave everything, and as you leave them, they will become your enemies. Even your family will become your enemies." He knew it hurt...there is no way around it. It happens. It's the natural way of transition from kingdom level to kingdom level. The door is the same, the knob twists the same way. It's got the same hazards, it's just as difficult today as it was then. It's just as easy today as it was then. It's the same door, it's the same transition. It is changing our behavior, it is dropping everything that binds us to the human kingdom – dropping everything of possessions.

You know, within this classroom, we don't have possessions. This classroom is, don't forget, a transition. This is a chrysalis. This is where we go through the change from the human into that Level, so any time that we have a possession it's because we ask a class member who really doesn't want any possessions if we can use his name. We say, "The law says that somebody's name has to go on the title of this or on the title of that," whether it would be an automobile or what it might be. Someone who does not want to have any possessions...it seems that we get instruction that it's ok to put their name on that possession. Since the day that my Father touched my life and my awakening began, I've had no possessions. My Older Member had no possessions. Not one thing in our names, nothing that could be considered ours. We don't want anything of ours. That's the last thing we want – anything of ours. They aren't handing out any titles to possessions in the Kingdom of Heaven right now that we're aware of. Certainly not in our transition classroom. There are no titles there, there is no ownership. Actually, there shouldn't be any here in the human kingdom. This kingdom and every element on it, everything that goes into making an automobile or a house or a company or anything else, belongs to the Chief of Chiefs and His Kingdom, the God of Gods. It does not belong to humans. Humans play a little game of copy-cat by saying, "I want to own this, I want to stake this off, it's mine." It isn't his, he's just playing a game. Now if he has the attitude that it isn't "mine," he's at least a little closer. If he has the attitude of saying, "This is just entrusted to me as the keeper of it, and I'll do the best I can." And if the day comes when a Representative is there with the transition available, the day is come if you're someone who might be capable of connecting with this and know your Father.

If you know Jesus, you know this is Truth. You may have an idea that you know Jesus, but the "Jesus" that you have filled your head with, and all the little sayings that you quote, all the little scriptures that you quote are the safe ones. And you usually quote Paul, who didn't even know Him, never even sat with Him, never talked to Him. You know if you'd stick to the red letters [in a red-letter Bible], you'd be better off. But even among the red letters, if you'd go to the ones that are pertinent, like the all-important ones, the bottom-line ones. Now this is not to say to you that this is what you must do. This is only what those must do that are ready for this, that know it is for them. But if you would go, know that it's always the same, the transition is always the same. If I expect to want to get into my Father's House, into that Kingdom Level, out of the human kingdom, I can't do it after I die by trying to get good in the last six months before I kick the bucket. I can't overcome anything then. My vehicle has grown so old and so tired and so sick, the influences aren't even around to be interested in me to even have the things I need to get rid of. So it's difficult. Let's go on, what's the next question on our list?

Student: How is the behavior within our classroom or shelter attempting to be like the behavior in God's House.

Do: Well, I think we've talked about that, but we'll touch on it a moment more. Don't forget, I'm a lab instructor, so to speak. Therefore, our classroom, or our chrysalis, is a lab. And in that lab we try to simulate what it would be in our Father's House. Now, I don't really believe there is any Gothic architecture in our Father's House. I don't believe there are bells and robes and rituals and incense and all those things. It's practical. It's a laboratory, it's experiments, it is behavior that is pleasing in His sight. It is being servants of His in whatever task He has that we might be able to perform, depending on our degree of readiness or overcoming, or not interfering with what He has in mind. So we do try in our classroom to have a simulation or an analogy, a mockup of His House, His Kingdom. We try to live that, as we are here. And the closer we get, the environment becomes something for those who are in the classroom that when they have to go on different tasks outside the classroom, when they get back in, it's like, "Wow, I can breathe again!" Because within the confines of wherever our segment of classroom is, within the confines of the environment that is our simulated laboratory of His House, where the behavior has become what it has, it is our haven, it is our Heaven, our simulated Heaven. In that sense, we are beginning to experience some of the feeling that is present in the Next Level. And believe me, it is not righteous – you know, spiritual, syrupy, saccharine. It's practical, it's hard work, it's correction. It's learning day by day more things that I need to correct that I haven't yet faced, and how I can apply more application toward overcoming those things than I applied before new clues were given to me, so that I can stamp them out even more. And that's the formula for an overcoming classroom. That's the formula; therefore, we feel instruction is given to us on how to create, within our possibility, a simulation of our Father's House or laboratory, however you want to look at it.

The tech crew just said that it's a couple of minutes before the end of the hour and I'm going to ignore it and we're just going to go on until this session is complete within reason, depending upon how far we go with this session. Let's go to our next question.

Student: Do we want to discuss how some might think because you're our teacher that you're on a spiritual ego trip or think you're God?

Do: Yes, I think we've discussed that a little bit, but we can certainly touch on it a little bit more. I don't know what you think that Jesus had to gain, from a human point of view, by saying that He was sent from the Kingdom of Heaven and was the Son of His Father and had information that flowed through Him on how to get from here to there. If you thought that of Him, if you were present then and thought that of Him, you didn't know Him. You didn't know what He was all about. I mean, what did He have to gain? He had to gain total ridicule. He had to gain the masses hating Him. He had to gain a cross. He had to gain nails. He had to gain a tomb. He had to gain every humiliation that could be expected. He even warned His students and His disciples that that was ahead for them. They had to "take up their cross and come follow Him." They had to know that that same humiliation would follow them. He knew that the possibility of the masses ever recognizing this would deplete the human kingdom. And the human kingdom, don't forget, is a stepping stone from animal kingdom to Our Father's Kingdom, even though it's a little hard to understand. But it's tough. It puts yourself in the position where, if you happen to be the Rep, the critics then say, "Oh, but you're just saying that you are God." Well, in a sense, you're saying that. We're saying that we're from the Kingdom of God and it has many members. Yes, we're from the Kingdom of God. Yes, we're from the Next Level. It has many members. But the truth also, as we mentioned a moment ago, is that from where I sit, I'm a young'un because I don't relate to any who evolutionarily came from a later time than this soul. My relationship, as far as my concern for my growth and what is ahead for me – my relationship with the Kingdom of God, my relationship with the Next Level – goes from where I am, up. Therefore, I'm low man on the totem pole. Even though my task is to relate to those souls that are coming through. But that task of relating to them is not such a unique task that it took a high falootin' officer in the Next Level in order to perform it. Who knows, there could be many members of that Kingdom Level in my Father's House who might be able to perform this. But the task was given not only to this soul but the vehicle that is surrounding this soul.

Listen, as we described to you before, I and this class had the unique, unbelievable privilege of even having my Father accompany me in the early stages of this classroom – awaken me and help me through the rough spots because of what the world had become at this time. Now, maybe it's because I needed that help. Maybe Jesus didn't need that help 2000 years ago. Maybe the world wasn't that complicated at that time. I don't know the reasons. I don't care. It doesn't matter. I suspect that Jesus had even a physical relationship with His Father during the time that He was there that didn't reach the history books, that didn't reach the scriptures. But I was still so lucky and so privileged to have my Father come and awaken me, set this thing up, get it going. You know, I don't know that you can relate to this at all, you probably can't. It just means so much to me. But I can remember in the first few weeks that I met Ti, that Ti said, "Why do I feel that this is something that I'm to give to you, and then I'm to go back"? And I didn't know what she was talking about. But I know now, and I'm even thankful that it was designed that way. Because I am the beneficiary, even of that difficulty. We're all beneficiaries of difficulties. If our desire is to get closer, what's the formula? A difficulty comes our way – a hurdle – a means of getting rid of misinformation or getting rid of things that are still human ways of thinking, and we can overcome that and move forward. I forgot where we were; where were we?

Student: Well, I don't know. Do you feel like we covered the fallacy of thinking that Jesus is God or He is the begotten Son in what you just said?

Do: Well, you know for those preachers, evangelists, and religious leaders who say that Jesus is God, it's ridiculous. I hate to say that, but it's ridiculous. A member of the Kingdom of God? Absolutely! That soul was a member of the Kingdom of God. But to use the term "God" in references as another term for the Top Man, the Creator of Creators, the very One who is the King at the top of that Kingdom Level is not accurate. Now, whether or not the Evolutionary Level Above Human has any evolutionary levels above it, or if only the Evolutionary Level Above Human is pyramided, or peaks, in a sense, in the Creator, the Chief of Chiefs, the God of Gods, God Almighty, doesn't really matter, but to say that Jesus was God shows ignorance. Jesus was the Son of His Father. He fulfilled that task. In the sense that it was His Father's mind flowing through Him, and if we want to refer to His Father as God, then it was God expressing Himself through Him, as it came down through the pipelines through Jesus' Father, Jesus' Father's Father, and so forth from the One who initiated that information or passed it down. Because that is the structure of the family tree in the Next Level, or the Kingdom of God. What was the other part of that one?

Student: That Jesus was the only begotten Son.

Do: The only begotten Son. That's interesting because "begotten Son" meant that that particular Father probably had other students or Sons and that Jesus was present in a human vehicle, a vehicle that came from woman's womb, therefore a begotten vehicle, and therefore a begotten Son, begotten not made. "Made" meaning created or developed within the Kingdom of Heaven, instead of from the womb of woman. So, in that sense, the only begotten Son. That's right, the only Son who was present in a begotten flesh. It's not going to get you into the Kingdom of Heaven to know that information, it's just a little tidbit that's kind of interesting. Ok, what's next?

Student: Did you want to mention the response that we've had since we started a few weeks ago?

Do: Yes, you know this has been surprising to us. We're always surprised. We think that when we get new information that it's going to mean this, it's going to imply that, and these things are going to follow. And it's always different from what we expect. What is particularly interesting is that as the information came out and tapes were made and a satellite series was begun and posters went out about that information, we thought that the response that we would get would be from people who the information was new to. But the overwhelming immediate response that we got was from ones who had dropped out of the classroom previously. And immediately when the information reached them by whatever source, they were drawn to it. When it reached them, they said, "I've got to get back into that classroom. I've got to finish my overcoming if I am permitted to get back into that classroom. I know I have wasted time. I know I have lost ground." We're amazed because our population has increased almost 50 percent by returnees from those who had dropped out of the classroom previously. It's interesting because from the point of view of those organizations that would give help to deprogram cult members, you would have thought that those who dropped out of our classroom would have come to want something else. These who have been out there, they've been out extended periods of time – years! You would have thought that they wouldn't want any part of this any longer. This isn't to say that some who dropped out do not want any part of this any longer. And we can understand that point of view, in defense of where their heart is, what they desire. But I'm afraid that it also says something for us that we should recognize. This is not to praise us. This is to recognize the reality that has been given us to give to you, to find that those members of our class who dropped out, they couldn't deny this Truth. And you know a funny thing about it is that many of them thought they could complete their overcoming outside the classroom, and yet as they turned and looked in the mirror and saw what they were doing, they recognized that they weren't getting anywhere with that overcoming. Instead, they were sliding back and sliding back, and they realized that the fact is still true that it takes a "midwife" who has gone through it before, who has made that transition from the human stepping stone into the Level Above Human before, in order to take you through it. Because, don't forget, the instructions come daily. Everything changes in practical application to your own overcoming. So the response we had was mainly those who were returnees, and we welcomed them. They were embarrassed, they were ashamed for their lost time, and we're just thrilled that they want to complete what they started. And they know that it was true then, they never really lost sight of it. And they're excited that it is offered to them again, or that they can complete what they started.

As I said, most of our response has been those, and our population has increased almost 50 percent in a very short time, in a matter of a few weeks. We have received some who are working toward getting in the classroom; in other words, quickly making their preparations to join in a segment of the classroom wherever that segment is. And they are also a surprise to us because, instead of being someone who is hearing this information for the first time in a disconnected way, they are all ones who have heard the connection either because another family member was in the classroom, or because they had some association or relationship with someone who was in the classroom or who was a dropout of the classroom. And they received enough of whatever it was – beginning little smelling salts or something – that now that the door opened, they said "I've got to attempt that, if that classroom will accept me; I want to attempt that." So, without exception, those who are coming into our classroom at this time are those who are returnees, and a few – several – who have either family members, or who have had relationships of one sort or another with those who are in the classroom, or who were out of the classroom for a period of time. Did that cover that topic?

Student: Yes.

Do: Where are we now, what's next?

Student: Do you want to mention more about how many, and where the returnees and new class members are coming from and the variety of their ages and backgrounds?

Do: Well, we'll say just a word on that, thank you. It's interesting to note the diversity of those who were out and are choosing to come back. We have one person who had been out of the classroom for some time and has to get back in, and while out, married this individual and they're both in their seventies. And that person has to get back in the classroom and the person the individual married has to get in the classroom. A funny thing is that their marriage had already become one that was, not because of their age, not a physical relationship in the way that you would normally think, or that humans think of a marriage circumstance. But that's interesting to realize that here comes a husband/wife, they're in their seventies, and we've got another husband and wife in Northern California, we've got them coming from Missouri, Texas...where am I missing?

Student: Venezuela?

Do: Venezuela! And here is a soul that has been looking for this classroom that got separated from this classroom in the mid-70's and has faithfully been looking for this classroom since then. We have met with him, helped him understand more clearly all over again what it was going to require of him and what he was getting into, since it was so tough. And he says "I have no choice." So, he's quickly wrapping up everything in Venezuela and he's on his way. Did I miss any others that you're aware of?

Student: Colorado?

Do: Colorado. So we got Missouri, Colorado, California, Texas, Venezuela. At present that's where people are coming in from, and it's interesting that more than one are coming from those different places. The only one that one is coming from is Venezuela. It's more than one from those other places mentioned. Let's go on to the next question. Where are we?

Student: Do we want to discuss the problem with delivering our information to the public?

Do: Ok, the problem is that we're aware of the hazards. In other words, here we are offering this information. Anybody can turn on their satellite TV and see this, anybody can see a poster, and we're aware that the masses can see it who aren't ready for this and therefore, in principle or theory, we're opening the information to the public at large. It also means that, more than likely, significantly greater numbers will not be wanting to do this than those who would want to do this. Also, those who do not want to do this and who do not even recognize us as an opportunity to do this will find fault with us and will create the same kind of circumstance that happened 2000 years ago. Now, we're not saying that there's going to be a crucifixion. We don't know how it's going to end. We don't know as much as Jesus knew toward the end of His mission. We do know that hostility builds, particularly when the doors are open. You know, as long as we had a period of time where the classroom was somewhat in isolation and protected and they were working on their own overcoming, before we got information to, or instruction, to bring the information public again, the forces against us didn't work that significantly against us. We were protected. But now that we are just putting this information right out where all of those who are brainwashed with the misinformation from the negative forces have a chance to hear it, too, this is going to be an opportunity for them to get their bows and arrows out and really be after us to whatever degree that they choose. That's their option. Ok, so that's our problem with dealing with the public. What's next?

Student: Why is it that most puritanical lifestyles are so vehemently criticized by the religious and the seemingly righteous?

Do: Is it because they might know that it's the truth subconsciously? I don't know – it's a good question. It's interesting, too, that in some countries it's such an honor for individuals to join a religious order, to leave everything, break all their ties, even their relationship entirely with their family and devote themselves to their religion. It becomes acceptable. But the closeness of the Next Level has been in this nation, primarily in this nation, since 1975. Therefore, this nation is also the most vehement against anything that even hints at separating from the world. Therefore, that's the reason there's such enormous criticism against cults and things that appear to be out of the ordinary. Stop and think about it. Don't forget that when Jesus was doing what He was doing that He and His disciples were a cult from the human point of view, or from those who did not believe that what He said was true. That's always the position they take. "It's a cult, we gotta' save them from it." And if you take the point of view of the leader in the cult, the one who still says that he is the leader – is the Pope still not in a position of being the leader of a cult? Is the president of the Mormon Church not still in the position of being the leader of a cult in that sense? But, you know, a funny thing happens to "cults" and their leaders as long as they're buying property and doing human behavior and they're a generation or two old. Then they become an acceptable member of society. It's when they are breaking out of society, overcoming the world to whatever degree, that they are immediately seen as offensive. Offensive to whom? To those who cannot recognize this as the truth – by their choice, by what they have become. Whether they are taking that point of view because they are young and might grow into that knowledge at some time, or because it's just simply a result of their options over a period of time, that's not for us to say. We're not the judge of that. What's next on our list of questions?

Student: How is the Next Level the greatest equal-rights advocate?

Do: That's a good question. You know, this is a good point because the Creator of Creators created everyone with a little computer, a choice mechanism, that was designed with two sides: a potential for negativity, a potential for positive; a potential for misinformation, a potential for the truth. And a soul at an objective point, at its point of creation, was 50-50. It was empty, but it had the potential for 50-50, in the range from which it could take its choices. Like even that soul that was in the Garden of Eden, the Lord made it clear that He was his Lord, He was his God, and He said, "You do what I say, and then you'll go the right way." But He also knew that the likelihood of Adam going astray was very possible. I know that it hurt His feelings when He had to step out of that garden knowing that for the period of time that He was away from Adam and Eve that the man of misinformation (Lucifer) would step in and say "Oh, you don't have to worry about what He said, you don't have to worry about disobeying Him. Go ahead and eat this and do what I tell you. It's for your benefit. He's not anything to be afraid of." That was their choice. They were created with a complete, even, fair option of accepting goodness. Making the choice of listening to Him, or listening to misinformation. Now, our Father's Kingdom is never the aggressor. He doesn't say, "This is what you must do." The other side over here, they tell you what you've got to do. They impose it upon you. That's the way it is in the human kingdom. Why is it designed that way? Our Father designed it, even designed that aspect of it, even made all that potential for negativity there so that if you get to His Kingdom in the process, you will have overcome all that negativity, you will be strong, you will have proven your loyalty to, and adoption of, His Household – grafting to His vine.

So, equal rights...one time within our classroom, and I think we told you this in a previous series, we had a class member who at one time said, "Please, under no circumstances let me ever turn from this. Save me if I ever try to turn from this." Ti and I listened to that class member, and at one time that class member said, "I don't want to be here." And so we honored what she had asked and we held her for a short period of time. We tried to restrict her from leaving the classroom. We saw it wasn't working. I mean, in a very short time we saw it wasn't working. She wasn't what we would consider coming back to her senses, so we said, "Goodness, go! We'll help you go. Here is a plane ticket. Go where you want to go, and we'll help you get started with whatever it is that you've got to do." You know the irony of that? We did that one time and one time only; we learned our lesson from it. That same individual is arriving in a segment of our classroom next week, saying, "I've got to be there, I've got to finish what I started. I apologize for having ever listened to the world, for being so stubborn as to not take correction and to not change." No one has a right, it is not Next Level way to hold someone from their choices. It is the Next Level way to let them go, become as evil as they want to be. Now, a Next Level member might step in and warn them, and warn them, and warn them, but they let them go right on and do what they choose to do. The Next Level is the Creator of equal rights. No one advocates equal rights to the extent that the Next Level does. And our classroom tries to emanate that, tries to be the same way with it, hoping that if this is for you, we can help you. We hope we can be the vessels to deliver it to you clearly enough that you can see what it is that has been given to us, that we're so eager to share with you. If it is not for you, we say, "Fine, go your way, do what you want to do. We might warn you of some of the pitfalls, but they're your choices, go and do it." What's next on our list?

Student: Do we want to discuss the problem of money in relationship to the newcomers?

Do: No, but we will. This is an awkward topic. I have to make reference to when Jesus said, "Go and give everything you have to the poor and come follow me." And I can remember Ti saying to me and to the classroom in early stages that, "I don't know if Jesus ever said it, but we knew that He probably wished that they would take a look at the classroom and say 'Are they not poor? If I can help them some, should I not help them?'" Because as those leave their world behind and enter the classroom, at times we have wished we could say, "In leaving behind whatever it is that you had, you might keep in mind that we have certain needs." Then we sound like we're begging for a handout or that our Father's Kingdom can't take care of His own, and our Father's Kingdom can take care of His own. So, we're left in that awkward position, and we cannot take the position of telling them or even reminding them or bringing it to their attention, even though frequently they think, after getting in the classroom, "I see that you could have used one of these, or I had one of those, I gave it away to somebody who didn't," and so on. But it's an awkward thing, we can't do it. They are not in our classroom until they are in our classroom. When they are not in our classroom and they are severing their ties in order to enter our classroom, we can't give them instruction. They must do what they must do in order to separate from the world. We must have you understand that, because that is our position, that is the Next Level's position, and we certainly are not dependent upon this world or our asking it for help in order to survive. We will survive according to the Next Level as we serve them and please them. What's next on our list of questions?

Student: How do these items relate to overcoming: religion?

Do: Well, why don't you give me the definition of religion as what the dictionary would say religion is?

Student: "Belief in and reverence for a supernatural power accepted as the Creator and Governor of the Universe."

Do: Well, because of what so-called religions are, at times we feel like we don't want to associate with that term because we want to say the Truth that we have is real. It's not a religion because religions have become fantasy and illusion, and they have adjusted all their thinking so that they don't have to do anything about changing. But in that interpretation, recognizing a supernatural power, a governor of all that is, we are certainly then a religion. What about church, what does the definition say on that?

Student: "The company of all Christians regarded as a mystic spiritual body."

Do: I'm afraid that we're that, too. But we're not mystic in that sense, or spiritual in that sense, because spiritual and mystic in this day and time have become less than true, they've become tainted. But the church says the "body of believers," and we feel like that's a closer translation of what the church should be. But the real church is not just a body of believers, it's the body of doers, or even more than that, it's the body of overcomers, because those who believe become overcomers. What's next on that list?

Student: You asked us to bring up how a television preacher, Gene Scott, relates to overcoming.

Do: Ok, we're going to talk for a moment about Gene Scott and Pastor Arnold Murray. Gene Scott in Los Angeles has a satellite ministry, a cable ministry, an actual church ministry. Pastor Murray has a satellite ministry from a little community in Arkansas. Both of these individuals did a major step in overcoming by stepping out of the mainstream denominations, and it was hard to do. They got criticized a lot for it, which is the way of overcoming. Each step of overcoming is hard to do and you get criticized for doing it.

Let's take Gene Scott for a moment. Nobody that I'm aware of on the face of the globe has worked harder or come up with better mathematical and historical and intellectual and logical validation of the Kingdom of Heaven, Jesus the Son, the prophetic events, their sequence of events in disclosing the pyramid and what they tell symbolically, the prophesy that they reveal. I mean it took a lot of work to do that and validate all that information and to make it understandable and academically acceptable, and we praise him for that work. But the issue of issues when it comes to Jesus and His purpose here was that of getting from the human kingdom to the Kingdom of Heaven. And validation of prophesy, validation that the literature of the Bible is real and is true, sure that's significant, but it doesn't get you any marks in overcoming. I mean, overcoming is overcoming. It's the hard tasks of changing your behavior, of dropping the ways of the world in all of its aspects. Every tie that binds, every behavior that is not acceptable. That is overcoming.

Pastor Murray is also a very astute, very aware Biblical scholar, and if you want to watch him, watch him; you could learn a lot. You could learn a lot from both of these. They're excellent teachers of the Bible and its history. Pastor Murray understands that there was an Age before this Age, and there's going to be an Age after this Age. Both Scott and Murray realize that Jesus' birthday is not being celebrated, that it happened at a different time. All that's very interesting information, but it doesn't get you anywhere in the process of overcoming. And it's only because I love Pastor Murray and I love Gene Scott, and my Older Member said bring them up in that tape – we're concerned for them and for their followers because they've made major strides in the right direction. And it's because we care for them that we hope they will make more major strides and be willing while it's still available to move very quickly in that direction. What's next on that?

Student: What about the Florida "End Timers"?

Do: Recently in the news there's been a lot of negative information going out about this little group in Northern Florida that call themselves "End Timers," and particularly towards their leader because he feels that Jesus is going to come at any moment and he wants to help them be ready. So he's trying to help them change to the best of his ability. He has them involved in certain elements of trying to change their behavior, trying to be less worldly, and for that we congratulate them, for that we praise them. And we hope that they will recognize that there is more information that can help them move much more quickly, and much more significantly, if they're ready for it. We hope that we can be good instruments to bring it to them if this is what they are looking for; if not, it's for those who are looking for it. What's next on our list?

Student: The ones who are looking for the Second Coming, but yet they are not doing any active overcoming, will they ever know Him?

Do: Those who are looking for the Second Coming, will they ever know Him? That's a loaded question. As far as the Second Coming, meaning when is the Next Level going to bring an open door again for the Kingdom of Heaven, the Second Coming is here. We've discussed that. And we've discussed how Jesus said 'Don't look for me. If somebody tells you they're me, don't believe them.' And yet the information, the door, is here at this time. Whether or not they will know Him or whether or not they will know His Father or they will know that Kingdom is simply dependent upon whether or not they make it through the transition from the human kingdom into His Kingdom level, or into His House. Whether or not it's going to be offered at another time, we don't know. All we know is this time. We're not given the instruction of saying, "If you don't catch this bus, there's one down the road." We don't know that there is. We feel that we must approach it as if there isn't, that it's garden cleaning time, and what's going to be done with souls that did not make it from there to here is none of our business. We're not going to try to motivate you to do this out of that kind of fear and imposing that tribulation upon you. Your tribulation is going to be imposed upon yourself if you choose this way because you will recognize that this is true and recognize that the road is tough. What's next on our list?

Student: Do we want to mention again the domesticated pet analogy and how it compares to our readiness to graduate from the human kingdom?

Do: We have to, there is no better analogy. Take the analogy of the domesticated dog who really wants to serve his master and doesn't want to run with the pack, wants to stay with his master, wants to please his master, wants to be loyal to his master, and compare that to someone who is going through the transition of entering our Father's Kingdom. They have to use as a focal point of that desire the one who stands in the position to be the object. That unfortunately happens to be their lab instructor, which happens to be this one sitting here, say "Do."

You know, at this point I have to tell you that this morning I saw on television a minister bringing up adultery. This fellow from Memphis, I don't remember his name, was talking about adultery. When you are in line for getting into our Father's House, then if you sleep with anybody else to any degree, you are committing adultery in respect of our Father's House. That's the reason that the analogy in Revelations and elsewhere for the relationship to one's Heavenly Father is of marriage, it's a bond that you're making. Now don't misunderstand that. This lab instructor, this object of that, has no interest in your plumbing, no interest in your sexuality. I mean, for heaven's sakes, my Older Member certainly had no interest in me, would not want that kind of humanness. Children are not made in our Father's Kingdom in that way. That vibration is definitely a reproductive vibration of the human kingdom. And I can honestly say that any relationship of that nature certainly never happened with me and my Older Member, certainly has never happened with any of these class members and their Older Member. And if you can find a class member that can tell you it has happened to any degree, to either one of these lab instructors, you've found the liar you were looking for. Because that is not a part of the picture. It has to be a pure relationship. It has to be within the confines of the behavior of our Father's Kingdom. So, from our Father's point of view, when you are as a bride in His Kingdom, if your attention, if your affection to any degree goes to someone else, it's adultery. It's compromised.

Another show I saw this morning on satellite – it sure sounds like I watch a lot of television! – it's interesting how my Older Member frequently uses these little preachers and their lessons to give me little clues of things to pass on to you. Here was an old gentleman that had had two wives. I suppose that one died and then he took another one. And now he was old, I think he was in his 80's, late 70's or 80's, I don't remember which. But now he was saying how he's devoting his attentions totally towards his Lord, that he doesn't have to compromise it anymore. And yet it doesn't dawn on others as they listen to him that what about those who are not in their late 70's or 80's, are they still compromising their relationship? The commandment that says, "Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy soul," doesn't leave room for an affair. It doesn't leave room for promiscuity. It doesn't leave room for any sexuality, any disloyalty, any affection, to any degree to any source other than to the Next Level. And that must remain purely within the confines of appropriate behavior. You know, there's all the difference in the world between certain little behaviors that seem like such a subtle difference. For example, a kiss on the cheek, a kiss on the forehead in the right spirit can mean a very nice thing from my Older Member to me, because it's done so rarely that when it's done it's so special. But my Older Member wouldn't dirty my Older Member's mouth by pressing that mouth against this mouth and participating in anything that would lower my vibrations or hold this vehicle in a way that would stimulate lower vibrations of this vehicle. That to the Next Level is absolutely animal, absolutely a kingdom level beneath it. And you might as well know it. Whether you can accept it or not, that's your problem. But in all fairness, we must have you understand that. You know, this little old man that I was telling you about who had had a wife and then had another wife, and now he was old and he could give his whole time to his Savior, to Jesus. It's too late. He can't do any significant overcoming. He's not connected with a midwife. I don't mean to condemn him. He may not be condemned. He might be salvaged for another time. I'm not judging him. I'm trying to help you understand. That same individual quoted some of the very, very significant scriptures, the ones that we say are the key bottom-liners. For example, the one that says, "Unless someone hate their mother, their father, the whole world, even their own life, he cannot even be my disciple." And he said, "But, Jesus didn't mean it in that way. He meant if they love those things more than me. They can love those things, but not more than me." I'm afraid he's mistaken. That would be an appropriate interpretation, when the Next Level has not come in close and made a physical presence.

When the Next Level has made a physical presence, you're on the spot. And that spot says, "If you know me, you don't share, you can't share, I'm not going to share. You can't be my wife and cheat on me. You can't compromise it. I'm the only one. I am the focal point. I am the object representing my Father's Kingdom. You're moving into a crew consciousness, into a force of labor as a servant in our Father's Kingdom that can't be distracted by lusts of the physical flesh or of the human flesh or desires of the human flesh." That's the whole reason for overcoming – to have you understand that. He also said that you've got to 'give up everything of the world, break all those ties, give everything away to the poor, and come and follow me.' This man on television said, "Jesus didn't mean that; He meant, 'Just don't let it mean anything to you.'" That's not it. Those who are entering this classroom in this transition in order to grow to be in our Father's House, they have to literally and physically leave everything behind and will not have anything from the time they do that until they get out of here. Whether that departure be with vehicle or without vehicle doesn't even enter into the picture. They are no longer possessors of anything, not that they could be even if they tried to be. But they don't even want to be. They don't even want to play those games. So, they leave everything behind. Those relationships that won't let them do what they want to do, they have to sever because they interfere, they get in their way. This is the requirement, was the requirement, and always will be the requirement.

Now, the last little thing that you must understand. If this world exists beyond our departure, then there is no longer that closeness, there is no longer a Representative. Now, I am a physical Representative. These of the classroom, they are physical representatives. Should I leave this classroom and return to my Father's House, they would still be your door for whatever time one of them was still a faithful wife, faithful in all behavior, faithful in all belief and practice, wanting nothing of this world, establishing nothing of this world that could be called a church or a belief system that would be accepted by the masses. As long as one of them remains, your door is open. If that one remaining remains faithful to the full degree.

It is our hope that this has been the Next Level speaking through my Older Member into my brain and that I have not diluted it, because I want you to see it as it is. Because I feel if you could actually see it as it is, you couldn't deny it, even though I know that because of what you're addicted to – you don't want to be, but – you're intoxicated, you're drunk, you're influenced. You're not sober because of the ways of the world that hold you in that intoxication, and you have to get away from the world enough to begin to be free of that intoxication. But I'm even hoping that your intoxication isn't so bad that you can't see this. And certainly all who might see this enough to recognize that it is what they've been waiting for, the Next Level might deem deserving of entering their House. The Next Level has to touch their life. The Next Level has to let something happen in their head that says, "That's it, that's what I'm after. I've got to get there fast. I've got to go with it." And then it is our task to participate in that instruction, our task in the daily, daily, menial tasks of overcoming, the reminders, the licking of thoughts, the licking of behavior that is human, not Next Level behavior. Adopting the behavior, the habits, the ways of the Next Level. We wish you could see it as we see it. We wouldn't trade it for anything. But we're not trying to sell it. I guess we are, because it means so much to us. I feel that this is the end of this series Beyond Human, and I hope that we've been instruments of the Next Level through my Father and through our offering to you.

Section 5:

USA TODAY AD/STATEMENT AND MISC. DOCUMENTS

1993

This section opens with two documents previously unreleased to the public, and written in the “Star Trek” vernacular briefly mentioned in the preface. In our attempts to relate to the public, we were always experimenting with contemporary ways to express our information that could potentially override traditional religious, as well as “New Age,” preconceptions and stereotyping. But of significantly greater importance to our overall task, this section also contains one of our most powerful statements – “UFO” Cult Resurfaces with Final Offer.

Our most aggressive venture yet, as far as the public was concerned, began on May 27, 1993, when we published, at our own expense, this 1/3-page statement of our thinking and beliefs in USA TODAY, in both their national and international editions. Between June and September of that same year, we published a slightly modified version of the statement in over 20 weekly and monthly alternative newspapers and magazines in the U.S., Australia, and Canada. As we stated earlier, our understandings are constantly being updated as our circuitry adapts to higher perspectives. As a prime example of this, on page 4 of Section 6 we have included the final version of the same statement, entitled Last Chance To Advance Beyond Human (which is what the original USA TODAY statement evolved to). This later version was distributed at the meetings we held across the country in 1993 – 1994.

Also included in this section is one of the few documents in this book not actually written by our Teachers – Total Overcomers Classroom Admission Requirements. As is stated in the paper, it was sent to those who, as a result of reading our statement and/or receiving follow-up materials, were seriously considering joining the class.

EXTRATERRESTRIALS RETURN WITH FINAL WARNING

An “away team” from an Evolutionary Level Above Human, an “Admiral,” His “Captain,” and crew, during the 1920’s to 1950’s picked and prepped the human bodies which they would wear for the task we are about to describe. They came into those bodies in the 1970’s – the Admiral and Captain first – then rounded up their crew in ‘75, and began assisting them in the process of entering and taking charge of their own assigned human bodies. They called their crew together by means of a public statement and meetings (over about a 9-month period). The unknowing public – through the media – tagged them a “UFO cult,” for they couldn’t understand what was going on.

The Two then took the ones who followed them into seclusion, completely separate from the world for almost 17 years, not only to complete their “awakening,” or adjustment to their human bodies and this primitive civilization, but also took them through a “metamorphic” classroom experience of changing over their consciousness and behavior to match with that of their distant culture from whence they had come. Some humans also followed them, out of curiosity or as a lark, while others seemed to be searching for “cosmic consciousness,” or to become a part of what some might refer to as a religious “cult.” After the followers were, for the most part, reduced to the crew that had come from space, they looked at this task as their chance to finish what they had started 2000 years ago on planet Earth – the changeover – overcoming of all human (all mammalian) consciousness and behavior in order to move up into (inherit) physical bodies evolutionarily appropriate for individuals in the Evolutionary Level Above Human, bodies such as their Admiral and Captain had received previously.

This distant – highly evolved – civilization had originally participated in the planting of this Earth’s present civilization, and had invested time, teaching, and association with some of its inhabitants over the past 6000 years (Earth time), not to mention the association it had had with this planet’s previous civilizations.

For an attempt at clarity, let’s adopt a few terms or titles as tools of reference – as we have previously used the Star Trek vernacular of “Admiral” and “Captain” – for their true names, as used from whence they came, are not to be given to humans. Let’s call the physical space or area in the literal Heavens where their “Headquarters” is, the “NEXT LEVEL,” in place of the descriptive phrase – the Evolutionary Level Above Human. Also, let’s call the space races (what some humans refer to as space aliens), which are not associated with the NEXT LEVEL or its Headquarters, “Luciferians,” for they are all offshoot civilizations from the period in history (prior to the present civilization) when one-third of the “heavenly creatures” became renegades from Headquarters – went out on their own and reverted to lower behavior and interests which placed them in opposition to Headquarters. By now you realize that we are saying that the “NEXT LEVEL” and “Headquarters” represent the only true Kingdom of God – a many-membered Kingdom which physically exists in the Heavens and is the only place from which souls, life, and all creating originates.

Because of the Luciferians’ extensive tampering with Earth’s present civilization, it has not been able to significantly serve as a stepping stone toward the Next Evolutionary Level.

The true Kingdom of God allows, and has for many civilizations, the Luciferian presence and influence on Earth’s surface in order to fulfill the design of choice (free will) and options for developing souls. Human flesh bodies are suits of clothes (containers) for the soul. They can act as tools for evolutionary classroom progression. At the human level they are designed to have short life spans – as perennials. Flesh bodies do not (are not designed to) significantly evolve. It is the soul which has the potential to evolve from one biological kingdom level to another biological kingdom level, if it can (with the help of Reps from the NEXT LEVEL) make it out of the previous one.

Obviously this present Earth's civilization is a young and primitive one, certainly from the eyes of those who have had the "good fortune" of being led into the true Kingdom of God.

Two thousand years ago, Earth time, an Older Member in the true Kingdom of God sent His "Son," a younger member in God's family, to offer to "midwife" other souls (who had had previous nurturing from the NEXT LEVEL) through the overcoming of humanness (breaking all ties with its kingdom level in behavior, concepts, and attachments) and the grafting onto that Next Evolutionary Level through Him (Jesus). His disciples started their weaning from the human kingdom and their new attachment to the Kingdom of God, by choosing to learn only from Jesus and change according to His direction as it was received from His Father – His Older Member – who physically remained in the Heavens in one of the NEXT LEVEL'S spacecrafts.

Jesus' disciples were unable to complete their changeover during His short tutorship and were promised by Him that He would come again at the end of the Age (time present) to assist them in the completion of their Kingdom Level transition. Even though they had not completed their changeover, we suspect that Jesus took them with Him to the NEXT LEVEL to await this completion time opportunity.

This remaining phase (of metamorphosis from human to a member in the Level Above Human) has nearly been completed, as was earlier stated in the description of the Two who came, took human vehicles, found their crew, and proceeded to use the primitive society under Luciferian influence as their catalyst for overcoming. Their Admiral returned to the spacecraft leaving behind His human vehicle (a female one) after the overcoming classroom had gotten well underway.

Their "Captain" recently received instructions from his "Admiral" (his Older Member) to disclose that he and most of their present away team is the same away team that was present 2000 years ago. They know that the Luciferians through their human devotees, who presently find their main stronghold among the seeming religious, will, in fact, be the catalyst for the Age's end judging process. All who condemn this truth and its bearers will be condemned by the NEXT LEVEL – all who acknowledge this truth and its deliverers, will be "saved" for future nurturing.

Now their last task is to once again offer what they have accomplished to others who might get their change started. However, as was the case 2000 years ago, and all times previously that the NEXT LEVEL has had Representatives relate to humans, those individuals who believe these "midwives" and start their grafting to them as members and Representatives of the only true Kingdom of God, will not have to worry about the planet's approaching recycling. Not only can no Earthling or Luciferian hurt any member of the NEXT LEVEL'S "away team," for they have NEXT LEVEL bodies waiting for them in one of their spacecrafts, nor can any harm come to any who believe and become a part of them during these last days. This statement represents the away team's first announcement of their final task.

“UFO CULT” RESURFACES WITH FINAL OFFER

The following statements could sound very presumptuous. However, these facts do come into focus or “prove” themselves if they are seriously explored a step at a time. They could also sound very “doomsdayish.” Though, in truth, they will be the most joyous “sound of music” to the ears and eyes of those who have been waiting for them.

◆ The Earth’s present “civilization” is about to be recycled – “spaded under.” Its inhabitants are refusing to evolve. The “weeds” have taken over the garden and disturbed its usefulness beyond repair.

◆ The human kingdom was created as a stepping stone between the animal kingdom and the true Kingdom of God (the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human).

◆ It is the soul that progresses from one kingdom level to another – each kingdom level has its own unique physical containers (bodies) for the souls that reside in that kingdom level.

◆ As the human goes out to find servants within the animal kingdom, from beasts of burden to seeing-eye dogs – if that animal grows to find pleasure only in serving its master, no longer identifies as an animal, but sees itself as a family member in that human family, and its behavior is pleasing to that human – the two become bound together. The human family then provides the body (a human infant) for that soul to enter, allowing it to move up into the human evolutionary kingdom. (This is not to suggest that all human infants are containers for souls moving up from the animal kingdom, for most human infants are containers for human kingdom returnees still bound to that family unit.)

◆ Likewise, when a member of the true Kingdom of God receives instruction to incarnate among humans in order to seek out the souls that might want to “separate from the pack” and are desirous of becoming only servants in the Evolutionary Level Above Human, He then offers them the knowledge and behavior that can open that door to them. If that human changes to the degree that he no longer desires any human behavior and he pleases that member of the Kingdom Level Above Human, a bond is formed and a body belonging to that new Kingdom is provided for that soul to move up into.

◆ Both Kingdom Levels are physical and biological. However, the human kingdom is made up of mammalian – “seed-bearing” – plants or containers, while the Kingdom of God is made up of non-mammalian, non-seed-bearing “containers” for souls, and their young or “children” are those who have risen above – overcome – all human-mammalian characteristics and behavior through the tutelage (midwifing) of a member of the Kingdom of God who has been through that transition and bonded to His Father at a previous time.

◆ Just as an animal sees his human tutor as the one and only “master,” likewise a human, as he becomes aware of a Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human, sees Him as the one and only “God.” However, the individual that that human related to as God sees Himself as a “child” in that higher, many-membered Kingdom and knows that only through His “Father” (an Older Member in that Kingdom) can He become a better member in that Kingdom.

◆ A “student” or prospective “child” of a member of the true Kingdom of God can, with the help of an Older Member, overcome or rise out of all human mammalian behavior – sexuality and gender consciousness – and all other addictions and ties of the human kingdom. He must complete this change to the point of abhorring human behavior before his soul can become a “match” with a biological body of the true Kingdom of God – for that new body is genderless and incapable of functioning at a human level.

◆ The true Kingdom of God, the “Headquarters” of all that is, is a many-membered Kingdom which physically exists in the highest, most distant Heaven – a non-temporal place (outside of time, and with eternal life). It is the only place from which souls, life, and all creating originates. Being non-temporal, it was, is, and forever will be – a concept that we, as temporal creatures, are not designed to comprehend. That Kingdom designed the “temporal” world outside its “borders” and designed its temporal creatures to have a progression of bodies or “vehicles” (through kingdom levels, such as animal and human) for souls to evolve through. If the soul survives and moves forward through all its tests along the way – it can, with the help of a member of the true Kingdom of God, lose its temporal characteristics and become a part of their non-perishable, non-corruptible world. However, all other souls who reach a certain degree of corruption (having of their own free will chosen to become totally separate from their Creator) will engage a “self-destruct” mechanism at the Age’s end, manifested when opposing camps, be they human or “Luciferian,” come together and destroy each other – thus assisting in the plowing under of the “garden” for the Creator.

◆ The reason the term “TRUE” Kingdom of God is used repeatedly is because there are many space alien races that through the centuries of this civilization (and in civilizations prior) have represented themselves to humans as “Gods.” We refer to them collectively as “Luciferians,” for their ancestors fell away from the keeping of the true Kingdom of God many thousands of years ago. They are not genderless – they still need to reproduce. They are nothing more than technically advanced humans who have retained some of what they learned while in the early training of members of the true Kingdom of God, e.g., limited space-time travel, telepathic communication, advanced travel hardware (spacecrafts, etc.), increased longevity, advanced genetic engineering, and such things as suspended holograms (as used in some religious “miracles”).

◆ These “Luciferian” space races are the humans’ GREATEST ENEMY. They hold humans in unknown slavery only to fulfill their own needs. They cannot “create,” though they develop races and biological containers through genetic manipulation and hybridization. They even try to “make deals” with human governments to permit them (the Luciferians) to engage in biological experimentation (through abductions) in exchange for technically advanced modes of travel – though they seldom follow through, for they don’t want the humans of this civilization to grow to be another element of competition. They war among themselves over the spoils of this planet and use religion and increased sexual behavior to keep humans “drugged” and ignorant (in darkness) while thinking they are in God’s keeping. These Luciferians see to it, through the “social norm” (the largest Luciferian “cult” there is) that man continues to not avail himself of the possibility of advancing beyond human. Many things have become the accepted “norm,” but that doesn’t make them right!

◆ Just as the biological body is the “container” for the soul, the soul is the “container” for Mind (Spirit). Mind translates into the brain as information (knowledge). Information is available to humans from only two sources – the mind of the Luciferians – or the Mind of the Kingdom of God. The mind of the Luciferians yields misinformation (promoting the behavior and concepts of this world). The Mind from the true Kingdom of God yields true information (though the Luciferians and their servants would reverse this interpretation). As we change, in the progression of overcoming humanness – the percentages change – of which mind occupies our soul – Truth increases as misinformation decreases. If we revert back to humanness, the process reverses – the Truth is aborted as the soul becomes more filled with mammalian mind. That Truth can even be taken from us if we abuse it. When our “eye becomes single” or our soul is filled only with Mind or Spirit from the true Kingdom of God, it becomes pure or Holy Mind (Spirit).

◆ The true Kingdom of God’s design permits the presence of a “Luciferian” element, during a human civilization, as a catalyst for growth. Without it, we would have no choices – our free will could not be exercised. Our right choices find us in alignment to recognize the Truth when it is offered.

◆ Two thousand years ago, the true Kingdom of God appointed an Older Member to send His “Son,” along with some of their beginning students, to incarnate on this garden. While on Earth as an “away team” with their “Captain,” they were to work on their overcoming of humanness and tell the civilization they were visiting how the true Kingdom of God can be entered. The humans under the control of the Luciferians killed the “Captain” and his crew, because of the “blasphemous” position they held, and quickly turned the teachings of the “Captain” – the Older Member’s “Son” – into watered down Country Club religion – obscuring the remnants of the Truth.

◆ That same “away team” incarnated again in the 1970’s in the mature (adult) bodies that had been picked and prepped for this current mission. This time the “Admiral” (the Older Member, or Father, incarnate in a female vehicle) came with the Son – “Captain” – and his crew. As the two Older Members put out a “statement” and held public meetings over about a 9-month period in 1975-76 to bring their crew together, the media tagged them the “UFO cult” because of their expectation of leaving aboard a spacecraft (UFO) at the completion of their “overcoming.” The two Older Members then went into seclusion with their crew (students), “lifting them out” of the world for almost 17 years (not accepting any new students), making Earth’s surface their classroom. This isolation was absolutely necessary. The degree of their overcoming of sexuality, addictions, and ties to the human environment had to be taken to the point of matching the behavior and consciousness of the Evolutionary Kingdom Above Human. Only then would their new “Next Level” bodies be functional. They resurfaced briefly for about a 3½-month period in 1992, allowing some of their “dropouts” to rejoin them.

◆ This changeover (sufficient “overcoming” to inherit Next Level bodies) has been completed, and before they return, they are instructed to share this statement with you.

◆ The Luciferians are about to be “recycled” (annihilated) at the same time as this human civilization is “spaded.” They know that “rumor has it” that their days are numbered. They refuse to believe it and are desperate to recruit souls from the human kingdom into their “Heavenly Kingdom.” There are many “counterfeit” heavens, and each “heaven” is at this time collecting “names in their book,” forcing a stand of allegiance, polarizing each individual’s commitment to his chosen “God.”

◆ When members of the Level Above Human are physically present, the opposing forces work the hardest against them in order to support their own position. They do almost anything to keep humans from following the path toward the true Kingdom of God. They “turn up the heat” at this time in the area of mammalian behavior, primarily sexuality. This has become such an overwhelming presence in the Earth’s atmosphere that even some of the crew that came with us were lost to its temptation. Don’t forget that when the Luciferians were expelled, in order to support their own desires, they had to condemn the true Kingdom of God and see it simply as another path – inhumane and radically uncompromising.

◆ The religious “cults” who have separated from the world have “picked up on” one major aspect of what is “in the air” at this time when the information of how to move from one kingdom level to another is available. What they may have failed to recognize is that experienced “clinchians” are necessary to take souls through that “weaning” – that difficult “withdrawal” from human addictions and binding “misinformation” concepts. If it weren’t necessary to have clinicians present who have previously been taken through that transition, we wouldn’t need to be here. Some religious “cults” might have children, participate in physical or mental abuse, hold members against their will, have weapons, or break laws in general – while we have long been aware that that type of behavior is inappropriate, especially for a transitional “classroom.”

◆ When the present “away team” leaves (which will be very soon), the Truth will go with them. You cannot preserve the Truth in your religions. It is with you only as long as a Truth bearer is with you. Only those from the Land of Truth can bear it. It can only be your future if you “reach out and grab it” while it is offered. The Truth can be retained only as one is physically connected with the Next Level, through an Older Member, and that relationship requires that non-mammalian thinking and behavior be sustained.

◆ Humans were, from the beginning, given a “prime directive” NOT TO KILL OTHER HUMANS. “In defense” or for “rightness” are no exceptions. Righteousness is what most frequently causes conflict. “I’m right, you’re wrong.” “You’re causing me trouble, I’ll wipe you out” (in the best interest of all, of course). The world’s systems continue to make laws permitting the breakage of higher laws – God’s laws. Weapons designed for killing humans are inexcusable. There are numerous methods of controlling a violent person without the necessity of murder. The irony is, each killer sends its victims to exactly where they want to go (to their chosen heaven). Humans fight for their desires – what they choose to not overcome – what they cling to. Our desires and attachments (or lack of them) determine which heaven we’re going to.

◆ A soul cannot end its own existence. Though it may incarnate many times and the body or vehicle it is wearing may be terminated, only the true Kingdom of God – the Evolutionary Level Above Human – can terminate the soul. This termination of the soul is the only proper application of the term DEATH.

◆ When a soul “awakens” in a particular “season” or incarnation (usually sometime between college age and mid-life), it is picking up where it left off at the end of its previous incarnation. What an individual participates in prior to that “awakening” is of no real significance. If a soul had previously overcome such human characteristics as family ties and relationships, at his “awakening” he is seen by those around him as suddenly becoming unstable, for he is compelled to once again separate from those imposing ties and seek to connect with what he had previously sought or connected with. What he primarily learns is what is not for him as he seeks for the Highest Truth or Reality.

◆ The media seems devoted to “saving” the public from radical ideologies or “cults,” particularly of seeming “religious” types. Also a news “scoop” requires haste. These two elements together predetermine that they search for any and all negative quotes that will discredit the groups’ leaders and the groups’ behavior. The fact still remains that negative reporting far outells positive reporting – and after all, positive reporting of radical material can end or ruin a reporter’s career. Well, it won’t be hard to discredit this group from its leaders down, for prior to and during their “awakening” and subsequent coming together, they all made many mistakes and learned from them. Plus – you don’t give up the ways of the world without the condemnation of those who still advocate what you have overcome.

◆ When we came before (2000 years ago) the world “cleansed” or “saved” their world from our “blasphemy” and merely got us our boarding passes back to the true Kingdom of God on the true “Enterprise” (spaceship or “cloud of light”). If you seek to cleanse the world of our “blasphemy” this time, you would simply be the instrument of our “days being shortened” while destroying your “last chance” in this civilization to advance.

◆ Now at the close of an Age – every significant soul of this civilization has returned (and is in or attached to a physical body) to reap their reward. Most who think they are for the Kingdom of God are in fact working for the opposing side – the counterfeit “Gods” – and will want to condemn us. Your actions, even your thoughts of condemnation toward us, out of allegiance to your “God,” will cause our part of the Heavens to look upon your “god” with the same rejection.

◆ Many say they live only for the “Harvest Time” – the “Last Days” – the “Second Coming.” Those are all finally here! – Will you accept us as them? You cannot bypass us even in your prayers – you cannot insult your Creator by refusing to go through the ones He has sent to you. There are souls here now for the express purpose of connecting – and eventually bonding – with the Next Level through us. Those souls will be protected – out of harm’s way – and “saved” from the approaching sorting out, recycling, and “spading under” of the Luciferians and their human servants. If you can get your name in our “book,” on our spacecraft’s computer (and only there), making your actions reflect that desire – then you will go with us.

SUMMARY: Our surfacing is in reality a test of the public’s “civility.” Can a society that is still dealing with bigotry and prejudices against races, religions, and sexual preference extend the right of existence to some who see humanity as a stepping stone toward the Kingdom of God, and desire to take that step and briefly offer it to others? Or is Earth’s present civilization still as primitive as it was 2000 years ago? We’ll see!

TOTAL OVERCOMERS CLASSROOM ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

INTRODUCTION

- ◆ The Next Level's desire is to help (or nourish) souls. They are eager to assist any creatures who are heading in the right direction of their own volition. If they think you have the capacity to respond to this, and they want to give you an opportunity to receive it, then a member of the Next Level actually puts you in contact with the information that is presented in our ad, "Final Offer – from the Evolutionary Level Above Human." It was the Next Level's presence, standing right beside you, that explains that powerful response you felt as you first read the ad.
- ◆ At this point, the Next Level observes closely how you choose to respond, knowing they can only help you if you ask them. Even though the Next Level may have "touched" you, your response is not predetermined. There will be forces aggressively trying to turn you away from this, and completely non-aggressive Members of the Next Level available to assist if you ask for their help. It is up to you to decide which voice to listen to. Many who sincerely feel astounded by the ad and that it rocks their very foundation, will likely decide, "It requires too much; it means I'd have to change everything; I wish I had never seen it." Others may listen to thoughts that come from another "god" or alien group that say, "Don't pay any attention to this – they're just some 'cult' or New Age antichrist." But if you read the ad, and then use the terminology in the ad to connect, by saying, "Next Level – if this is true, help me to perceive it," then the Next Level will be there to assist you as long as you keep asking, until you are physically in contact with the classroom.
- ◆ So, if you are one who felt a powerful response and a recognition, a knowing deep inside that this is something you must pursue, then you are invited to make application for entry into the classroom – hoping that the strength of your desire to become a part of the Next Level, the degree of your thirst to grow and change, and your understanding of what the requirements are, find you acceptable as a beginning student. It is the content and quality of your soul (or what is in your heart) that finds you now a candidate.
- ◆ In other words, the Next Level or the true Kingdom of God is extremely selective, and to be considered as a candidate is an honor. Therefore, it is the student who begins with a trial period, rather than the student feeling that the classroom is on trial. If the Next Level has truly "drawn you to us," then it will be your desire to prove to the Next Level that you are worthy and ready. We understand that you may have doubts regarding your own ability to conquer your weak areas, and this can be a healthy attitude – one that encourages you to trust and to seek help from your classmates and Teachers.
- ◆ We know at first you may have experienced some degree of skepticism or doubt, but if you are continuing to wonder whether or not you are a part of us, or seem to desire more "proof," or are hesitant to sever your ties or conquer your addictions – these are all indications that this may not be the right place or time for you. However, if deep down you feel like, "I have no choice – something inside me tells me I must proceed with this – at least take another step," in other words, if you know that your relationship with the Next Level is the only thing that makes any sense to you, then we will be able to serve in the capacity of helping you.
- ◆ If you believe that we truly do represent the Kingdom of God, then you can understand why you cannot enter the classroom on your terms. You cannot "call the shots," or be concerned about having a position of leadership or needing recognition. Further, you would want only the Next Level, through its procedures, to be your guidance. A student who is a part of this family will grow to value flexibility and know that whatever instruction he receives is exactly what he needs for his most accelerated growth.

POSSESSIONS

Understanding

- ◆ Part of the process of separating from and "overcoming" the world (the human kingdom) requires trust – trust that if you truly relinquish yourself, including your care and keeping, to those in the Next Level, all of your needs will be taken care of.
- ◆ For the serious student, hanging onto possessions or situations that offer worldly security prevents and interferes with "letting go" of that which binds you to the human kingdom – you unknowingly impose upon yourself limitations that will restrict your potential for change. In other words, after clearly deciding this is all you want, an "ace in the hole" could be a serious obstacle to accelerated change.

- ◆ The transitional process requires a total commitment, and as long as you keep one foot in the world, that foothold will continue to hold you back (will keep you attached and bound to this level) and prevent you from completing your task.

Practical Application

- ◆ Upon first entering the classroom (beginning a trial period), we don't feel it is necessary in all cases for you to have completely "burned all your bridges." In other words, we could understand how some individuals might leave their affairs in such a way that they would not find themselves without any means of support (or without a way to take care of their needs) if they should decide, after a brief orientation, to return to the human world. However, a prospective student would be open and honest about what bridges have not been burned. If you have any "hidden agenda" for recovering your human existence "if this doesn't work out," it means you have doubts as to who you are or who we are, and the classroom experience cannot work for you.
- ◆ During the "trial period" or until the student proves to be on "solid ground" and has convinced us that he has no intention of "turning back" (wanting to recover his life in the world), the possessions that you bring in will be set aside and not be considered as part of the class resources.
- ◆ However, before becoming a "full-fledged" class member or "candidate" (after successfully completing a trial period), each student would arrive at the point of not desiring to have any personal possessions.
- ◆ The classroom circumstance is not one of martyrdom. We have always been taken care of very comfortably. Items and possessions are all shared – there is no personal or individual ownership.
- ◆ Some individuals have entered with virtually no possessions, while others have made sizable contributions. It makes no difference to us in which circumstance you find yourself, and it in no way reflects your level of growth or readiness. The Next Level designs each individual's circumstance with exactly the proper elements for that particular soul's maximum potential for growth.

RELATIONSHIPS

- ◆ Ties with your past would have to be severed before you enter the classroom. (This does not imply that we might not have occasional instructions for calls, letters, or visits.) Also, the influences that cause us to feel "pangs" from that severance may still have to be dealt with in the classroom, but this is an example of the withdrawal – the overcoming process – that occurs.
- ◆ Everyone is led to this information individually, and your overcoming is individual. In the world there is nothing wrong with the relationships you had, but once you begin this overcoming process, then those relationships can't help but hold you back. It would be like trying to live in two worlds at the same time. It is possible that individuals from the same family unit (spouse, parent, brother, sister) may find themselves as candidates. Even as prospective candidates, individuals must speak or relate to us only for themselves and not for friends or relations. Once in the classroom, they would learn to relate to each other only as task partners and crew members.
- ◆ There are no children (or minors) among us. It is our understanding that souls capable of making the decision to separate from the world would be housed in mature vehicles (bodies). Every class member is celibate, so certainly no children have been born into our group.
- ◆ You can be assured that those you leave behind will be taken care of and watched over by the Next Level. They will be in the hands of their Heavenly Father, who knows what they need and how to help them.

ADDICTIONS

- ◆ What we are doing in our overcoming is breaking the binds of humanism (of this civilization). Which means that anything you are bound to that is uncommon to the Next Level, you will have to be free of. You are literally becoming a new creature.
- ◆ There are many commonly recognized addictions, such as alcoholism, sensuality, tobacco use, drug addiction, love addiction, etc. Members of the class, no matter what they may have participated in prior to joining the classroom, no longer smoke, drink, take drugs, or participate in sexuality to any degree, and this is expected of you also.
- ◆ We also consider many types of behavior and characteristics undesirable, because the vehicle (body) uses them to satisfy a human desire and because they are not characteristics of the Next Level. More specifically, your vehicle has in its genes the programming of likes and dislikes (such as brands of toothpaste or types of foods), habits, opinions, judgments, and ways of expressing yourself, from the many generations of your vehicle's family strain, most of which are foreign to the Next Level. Plus your soul is picking up – where it left off – on what it has not yet overcome from previous incarnations. In the Next Level's eyes, these things are not very different from an alcohol or drug addiction. Examples are many of the little habits we unconsciously get into, and certain patterns of thinking, behavior, and responses, such as being critical of others or getting down on yourself, having negative responses to situations, needing to talk constantly, having things your way or on a particular timetable, or needing human affection or attention.

- ◆ The classroom, as part of its design, “surfaces” the habits and characteristics that each individual needs to rise above. For the most part, you will be able to drop or shed many of these characteristics easily – even the more hard-core addictions can rapidly disappear.

TRIAL PERIOD

Before you can be a full-fledged class member, you must first arrive at a place in your understanding, attitude, and control that demonstrates to your classmates and Teachers that you are on solid ground – you are stable. It is the classroom that makes that determination, which will be based, in part, on the following:

- ◆ You have already severed your ties to human relationships and possessions (as described under “Relationships” and “Possessions”).
- ◆ You recognize that you are part of this family and want only to adopt the ways of the Next Level as demonstrated in this classroom – nothing threatens your total commitment.
- ◆ You see the value in asking for, accepting, and applying the help (per Next Level ways and procedures) offered by your classmates and Teachers.

In the classroom, we all maintain certain basic, minimum standards of control of our vehicles' behavior and responses. There are basic requirements of Next Level conduct that we expect of ourselves and that we would expect of any newcomers as well. The trial period offers us a chance to observe your degree of control and restraint and helps us learn the areas you might need to work on. There are certain types of conduct that are unacceptable in our classroom – such as deceit, lying, sensuality, or permitting verbal outbursts or physical abuse (such as harsh words, sarcasm, hurtful teasing, loss of temper, anger). Also, we strive daily to improve our standards in all areas of restraint – like controlling excessive talking, noise level, or the inappropriate offering of suggestions – and we work consistently at not permitting human characteristics such as negativity, selfishness, vanity, or defensiveness to express their presence.

Though these requirements are seriously stated, this is not to suggest that the class doesn't enjoy a lot of fun, good humor, and appropriate pleasures.

If you find that this class is not what you want (whether you are unable to really sever ties to the world, or the standards in the class seem too demanding, whatever the reason), you are free to leave at any time. Likewise, if it seems to us that you are reluctant to change your behavior (clinging to worldly traits), we might suggest that the classroom is not appropriate for you. In either case, we will help you (in the ways that we can) make your transition back into the world.

Section 6:

PUBLIC MEETINGS 1994

1994

This section contains the chronology of posters we used to advertise the 1993/1994 meetings held throughout the USA. To cover the country more quickly and thoroughly, we divided up the members of the class into four and sometimes five groups. For the most part, our primary means to inform the public of an upcoming meeting was to tack up these posters on bulletin boards, telephone poles, and the like. In addition, we did some advertising with local media and gave numerous interviews to newspapers, radio stations, and TV news teams.

Also included in this section are some background materials which were either written by our Teachers or transcribed from notes given by Do, as received from Ti, and sent to the various groups to explain updated thinking on specific topics covered in new posters. As a side note, we generally refer to the meetings as having occurred in 1994, when the entire class went “out on the road,” even though we did hold two small meetings at the end of 1993, as sort of a trial run. They helped us refine our presentation somewhat. At times it was difficult for us to know what to cover and what to leave out, since the information is so vast. The last public meeting we held took place in Boston, Massachusetts on Friday, August 19, 1994.

THE ONLY WAY OUT OF THIS CORRUPT WORLD

*(If you don't want out of the human kingdom, you don't want into the Kingdom of Heaven.
You can't have both.)*

THE SAME CREW THAT WAS HERE 2000 YEARS AGO WILL SPEAK ON:

- ✧ How the true Kingdom of God is a many-membered Kingdom – a physical Kingdom Level Above the human kingdom (with souls, minds, and bodies – not just "spirit"). This Kingdom Level, what we refer to as the "Next Level," makes its "Headquarters" in the highest, most distant segment of the Heavens – outside of "time."
- ✧ How membership in the true Kingdom of God is attained – by overcoming all human-mammalian characteristics and behavior under the direct personal tutorship of a member of that Kingdom.
- ✧ How – now at the close of this Age – the door to that Kingdom is briefly open.
- ✧ How life, from the Kingdom of God's point of view, begins when a soul receives from that Kingdom "the gift of recognition" of the Truth and recognition of a Truth bearer as one who is from the true Kingdom Level Above Human. The soul can choose to accept further life, or "nourishment," from members of that Kingdom indefinitely, or reject it at any point and fall back into "darkness," or "death."
- ✧ How these representatives from the true Kingdom of God incarnated (took adult human bodies) in the mid-1970's and have been "lifted out" – separated from the world – for the past 18 years.
- ✧ How many who say they honor God or Jesus have, in fact, unknowingly become victims of slavery to Luciferian forces – "space races" who represent themselves to humans as "gods," but who are nothing more than technically advanced humans (clinging to human behavior) from previous civilizations, who rule over the discarnate (spirit) world and who travel in primitive "UFO's." (The Next Level – the true Kingdom of God – has the only truly advanced space-time travel vehicles, or spacecrafts.)
- ✧ How human physical bodies are only containers (suits of clothes) for souls; how the soul is the true identity; and how invasive influences and discarnate spirits can be recognized, dealt with, and aborted.
- ✧ How the real question is, now that "test time" is here, are the souls who have received the "gift of recognition" willing to accept this Truth and these Representatives from that Kingdom?

CREW FROM THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN OFFERS – LAST CHANCE TO ADVANCE BEYOND HUMAN

The following statements could sound very presumptuous. However, these facts can come into focus or "prove" themselves if they are seriously explored a step at a time. They could also sound very "doomsdayish." Though, in truth, they may be the most joyous "sound of music" to the ears and eyes of those who have been waiting for them.

♦ The Earth's present "civilization" is about to be recycled – "spaded under" – in order that the planet might be refurbished. The human "weeds" have taken over the garden and disturbed its usefulness beyond repair.

♦ The human kingdom was designed (created) as a stepping stone between the animal kingdom and the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human (the true Kingdom of God).

♦ It is the soul that can progress from the human kingdom to the Kingdom Level Above Human. Both kingdom levels have their own unique physical "containers" (bodies) for the souls that reside in that kingdom level.

♦ As the human goes out to "choose" servants from within the animal kingdom, from beasts of burden to seeing-eye dogs – if that animal grows to find pleasure only in serving its master, no longer identifies as an animal, but sees itself as a family member in that human family, and its behavior is pleasing to that human – the two become bound together. The human family then provides the body (a human infant) for that soul to enter, allowing it to move up into the human evolutionary kingdom. (This is not to suggest that all humans are containers for souls moving up from the animal kingdom, for most humans are containers for human kingdom returnees still bound to that family unit.)

♦ In a more realistic way, periodically a Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human receives instruction to incarnate among humans to seek out the souls that have been "tagged" or given a "deposit" (an "implant") of knowledge concerning the TRUTH about the Evolutionary Level Above Human. That knowledge finds each recipient wanting to "separate from the pack," and prepares him to recognize the Teacher or Representatives sent from the Kingdom Level Above Human. When he/she connects with that Teacher – an "Older Member" in that Kingdom – he is then offered further instruction in knowledge and behavior that can open the door of service to him. If that human changes to the degree that he no longer desires any human behavior and he pleases that Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human, a bond is formed between them and a body belonging to that new Kingdom is provided for that soul to move up into.

♦ Both the human kingdom and the Kingdom Level Above Human – the true Kingdom of God – are physical and biological. However, the human kingdom is made up of mammalian bodies – "seed-bearing" plants or "containers" – while the Kingdom Level Above Human is made up of non-mammalian, non-seed-bearing bodies or containers for souls. The Kingdom Level Above Human's "children," or young, are those who have graduated from the human kingdom under the tutelage (midwifery) of a Member of the true Kingdom of God who has been through that transition – bonded to His Father – at a previous time.

♦ A "student" or prospective "child" of a Member of the Level Above Human can, with the help of his Older Member(s) from that Kingdom Level, overcome or rise out of all human-mammalian behavior – sexuality and gender consciousness – and all other addictions and ties of the human kingdom. Older Members, as experienced "clinicians," are necessary to take souls through this "weaning" – this difficult "withdrawal" from humanness and binding "misinformation" concepts. The student must complete this change to the point of abhorring human behavior before his soul can become a "match" with a biological body of the true Kingdom of God – for that new, genderless body is designed to function at a far more refined level.

♦ The Evolutionary Level Above Human, the true Kingdom of God, the "Headquarters" of all that is, is a many-membered Kingdom which physically exists in the highest, most distant Heaven – a non-temporal place (outside of time, and therefore with eternal life). It is the only place from which souls, life, and all creating originates. Being non-temporal, it was, is, and forever will be – a concept that temporal creatures are not designed to comprehend. This "Next Level" Kingdom designed the "temporal" world outside its "borders" and designed temporal creatures for souls to inhabit while in the human "classroom." If the soul survives and moves forward through all its tests along the way – it can, with the help of a Member of the Level Above Human, lose its temporal characteristics and become a part of their non-perishable, non-corruptible world. However, all other souls who reach a certain degree of corruption (having of their own free will chosen to become totally separate from their Creator, whether knowingly or not) will engage a "self-destruct" mechanism at the Age's end.

♦ The term "TRUE" Kingdom of God is used repeatedly because there are many space alien races that through the centuries of this civilization (and in civilizations prior) have represented themselves to humans as "Gods." We refer to them collectively as "Luciferians," for their ancestors fell into disfavor with the Kingdom Level Above Human many thousands of years ago. They are not genderless – they still need to reproduce. They have become nothing more than technically advanced humans (clinging to human behavior) who retained some of what they learned while in the early training of Members of the Level Above Human, e.g., having limited: space-time travel, telepathic communication, advanced travel hardware (spacecrafts, etc.), increased longevity, advanced genetic engineering, and such skills as suspending holograms (as used in some so-called "religious miracles"). The Next Level – the true Kingdom of God – has the only truly advanced space-time travel vehicles, or spacecrafts, and is not interested in creating phenomena (signs) or impressive trickery.

♦ These "Luciferian" space races are the humans' GREATEST ENEMY. They hold humans in unknown slavery only to fulfill their own desires. They cannot "create," though they develop races and biological containers through genetic manipulation and hybridization. They even try to "make deals" with human governments to permit them (the Luciferians) to engage in biological experimentation (through abductions) in exchange for such things as technically advanced modes of travel – though they seldom follow through, for they don't want the humans of this civilization to become another element of competition. They war among themselves over the spoils of this planet and use religion and increased sexual behavior to keep humans "drugged" and ignorant (in darkness) while thinking they are in God's keeping. They use the discarnate (spirit) world to keep humans preoccupied with their addictions. These Luciferians see to it, through the human "social norm" (the largest Luciferian "cult" there is), that man continues to not avail himself of the possibility of advancing beyond human.

♦ Just as the biological body is the "container" for the soul, the soul is the "container" for Mind ("Spirit"). Mind translates into the brain as information (knowledge). Information is available to humans from only two sources – the mind of the Luciferians – or the Mind of the Kingdom Level Above Human. The mind of the Luciferians yields misinformation (promoting the behavior and concepts of this corrupt world). The Mind from the true Kingdom of God yields true information (though the Luciferians and their servants would reverse this interpretation). As we change, in the progression of overcoming humanness – the percentages change – of which mind occupies our soul – Truth increases as misinformation decreases. If one chooses to revert back to humanness, the process reverses – the Truth is aborted as the soul becomes more filled with mammalian mind. [The word "True" or "Truth" is defined as the most accurate perception available at any given level of understanding, changing at the level of the eye of the beholder.] That Next Level Truth can even be taken from us if we abuse it. When our "eye becomes single" or our soul is filled only with the Mind or "Spirit" from the true Kingdom of God, it becomes pure or "Holy" Mind ("Spirit").

♦ The design of the true Kingdom of God permits the presence of a "Luciferian" element during a human civilization as the primary catalyst for growth. Without it, we would have no choices – our free will could not be exercised. Our right choices are what find us in alignment to receive a "deposit" of recognition when the Truth is offered.

♦ Two thousand years ago, the Kingdom Level Above Human appointed an Older Member to send His "Son," along with some of their beginning students, to incarnate on this garden. (These students had brief periods of association with and guidance from Members of the Kingdom Level Above Human during the early generations of this civilization.) While on Earth as an "away team" with their "Captain," they were to work on their overcoming of humanness and tell the civilization they were visiting how the true Kingdom of Heaven can be entered. The humans under the control of the Luciferians killed the "Captain" and His crew, because of the "blasphemous" position they held, and quickly turned the teachings of the "Captain" (the Older Member's "Son") into watered-down Country Club religion – obscuring the remnants of the Truth.

♦ Again an "away team" from the Level Above Human incarnated in the 1970's in the mature (adult) bodies that had been picked and prepped for this current mission. This time the "Admiral" (the Older Member, or "Father," incarnate in a female vehicle) came with the "Captain" and his crew. As the two Older Members put out a "statement" and held public meetings over about a 9-month period in 1975-76 to bring their crew together, the media tagged them the "UFO cult" because of their expectation of leaving aboard a spacecraft ("cloud of light") at the completion of their "overcoming." The two Older Members then went into seclusion with their crew (students), "lifting them out" of the world for almost 17 years (not accepting any new students), making Earth's surface their classroom. This isolation was absolutely necessary, for the degree of their overcoming of sexuality, addictions, and ties to the human environment has to be taken to the point of matching the minimum behavior and consciousness requirements of the Kingdom Level Above Human. Only then would their new "Next Level" bodies be functional. They resurfaced briefly for about a 3½-month period in 1992, allowing some of their "dropouts" to rejoin them.

♦ This changeover (sufficient "overcoming" to inherit Next Level bodies) is nearing completion, and before this "away team" returns, representatives of the "Class" are instructed to put this information before the public. The Next Level will determine the future of each individual soul according to its response to this information and the Next Level's Representatives.

♦ The Luciferians, for the most part, are about to be "recycled" as this human civilization is "spaded." They know that "rumor has it" that their days are numbered. They refuse to believe it and are desperate to recruit souls from the human kingdom into their "heavenly kingdom." There are many "counterfeit" heavens, and each "heaven" is at this time collecting "names in their book," forcing a stand of allegiance, polarizing each individual's commitment to his chosen "God."

♦ When Members of the Level Above Human are physically present, the opposing forces work the hardest against them in order to support their own position. They do almost anything to keep humans from following the path toward the Evolutionary Level Above Human. They "turn up the heat" at this time in the area of mammalian behavior, primarily sexuality and the family. This has become such an overwhelming presence in the Earth's atmosphere that even some of the crew that came with us were lost to its temptation. Don't forget that when the Luciferians were expelled, they had to condemn the true Kingdom of God in order to support their own desires, and see it simply as another path – inhumane and radically uncompromising.

♦ When this present "away team" leaves (which will be very soon), the Truth will go with them. You cannot preserve the Truth in your religions. It is present only as long as a Truth bearer (Older Member from the true Kingdom of God) is present. It can only be your future if you have received the gift of recognition and you "reach out and grab" further nourishment while it is offered. The Truth can be retained (without significant dilution) only as one is physically connected with the Next Level, through an Older Member, and that relationship requires sustained, constantly upgraded perception and behavior.

♦ Humans of this civilization have periodically been given laws by the Next Level to upgrade their behavior. The laws given to Moses were elementary "commandments" designed to make order and to raise the standards of a very "young" (primitive, barbaric) society. Some 2,000 years later, the Level Above Human, through Jesus' teachings, brought the first major updates (far more demanding): the greatest commandment is to "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind" (Matthew 22:37) – "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and his wife and children and brothers and sisters – and even his own life also – he cannot be My disciple" (Luke 14:26). Those wanting to go with Him had to do as He did. His teachings clearly spelled out the requirements (the actual formula) for making the literal and difficult transition from the human kingdom into the Kingdom Level Above Human.

♦ When a soul which has previously received the gift of life is awakened by its Older Member(s) in a particular incarnation or "season" (well after adolescence), it is picking up in its lessons where it left off at the end of its previous time with an Older Member. What any individual participates in prior to that "awakening" is of no real significance. If a soul had previously overcome such human characteristics as family ties and relationships, then just prior to its awakening, or rejoining with its Older Member, he is seen by those around him as suddenly becoming unstable, for he is compelled to once again separate from those imposing ties and seek to connect with what he had previously sought or connected with.

♦ Now, at the close of this Age, every significant soul of this civilization has returned (and is to some degree in or attached to a physical body) to reap its reward. Its desires and attachments determine which heaven it is going to (by what it chooses to not overcome or what it clings to, and which "God" it looks to – one that increases its humanness or one that offers a way out of its humanness). Most who think they are for the true Kingdom of God are in fact working for the opposing side – the counterfeit "gods" – and will want to condemn us.

♦ Today's leaders in the "industrialized world," though claiming to be democratic, self-righteously dictate to the rest of the world their own ideas of what are acceptable practices and behavior.

– Money RULES! The monetary systems, through indebtedness, ownership, and insurance (all against God's ethic for man), bind man to servitude. The powers behind the money have discovered man's most tempting addictions, and through advertisement, movies, television, radio, and publications, feed these addictions with the excitement of sex, drugs (legal and illegal), and all manner of violence, to insure their continued monetary power. Under the guise of the "social norm," this same world also imposes its distorted religious concepts and values. Their selfish pursuits corrupt and pollute the physical environment of all their "subjects" as well.

– The true "Jews" – God's chosen people (the overcomers) – can no longer be found in a genetic strain – a race – or a religion.

– The true "Israel" – where God's chosen people (the overcomers) reside – cannot be found in a geographical location.

– The true "Christians" cannot be found among the religious who put human family values on the ultimate pedestal. They claim to know Jesus (Yeshua) as their "Messiah" or "Savior" – even though He never had a wife or children, nor would He accept as His disciple any who would not leave all attachments and ties to this world in order to learn from Him. Any truly committed to His family or God's ways, are today seen as "cults" and a threat to all of the above social norms and systems.

♦ When the Next Level sent a crew 2000 years ago, the world "cleansed" or "saved" their world from its "blasphemy" and merely got the crew their boarding passes back to the true Kingdom of God on the true "Enterprise" (spaceship or "cloud of light"). If you seek to cleanse the world of our "blasphemy" this time, you will simply be the instrument of our "days being shortened" while destroying your "last chance" in this civilization to advance.

♦ Many say they live only for the "Harvest Time" – the "Last Days" – the "Second Coming." These have all arrived! There are souls – some of you, here now – who have received a deposit of recognition, and that knowledge finds you desirous of connecting and bonding with the Next Level. Those who have that deposit of Life will believe what we say, and know who we are. If they continue in that belief – sustain that Life (though Lucifer will do anything to prevent them from nurturing that gift – they will be protected and "saved" from the approaching recycling and "spading under" of the civilization. They will have nothing to fear, nor will they know DEATH – even if they lose their human body. That continued belief will one day find them a member in the Level Above Human, in a physical body belonging to the true Kingdom of God – the Evolutionary Level Above Human – leaving behind this temporal and perishable world for one that is everlasting and non-corruptible.

— Today's Next Level Crew

CREW FROM THE EVOLUTIONARY LEVEL ABOVE HUMAN OFFERS — LAST CHANCE TO ADVANCE BEYOND HUMAN

(If you don't want out of the human kingdom, you don't want into the Kingdom Level Above Human.)

MEMBERS OF THAT CREW ARE HERE TO SPEAK ON:

- ✧ How the Evolutionary Level Above Human – what religions call the "Kingdom of God" – is a many-membered Kingdom – a physical Kingdom Level above the human kingdom (with souls, minds, and bodies – not just "spirit"). This Kingdom Level makes its "Headquarters" in the most distant segment of the Heavens – outside of "time" – from whence all Creation originates, both terrestrial and extraterrestrial.
- ✧ How membership in the Kingdom Level Above Human is attained – by outgrowing or rising above (overcoming) all human-mammalian characteristics and behavior under the direct personal tutorship of a member or members of that Kingdom while they are incarnate in human bodies.
- ✧ How – now at the close of this Age – the door to that Kingdom is briefly open.
- ✧ How life, from the Next Level's point of view, begins when a soul receives from that Kingdom Level a "deposit of recognition" of the information regarding that Kingdom Level's existence, and recognition of a Representative from that Level Above Human. The soul can choose to accept further life, or "nourishment," from members of that Level indefinitely, or reject it at any point and fall back into ignorance or "death."
- ✧ How these Representatives from the Evolutionary Level Above Human incarnated (took adult human bodies) in the mid-1970's and have been "separate from the world" – practicing non-sexual, non-mammalian behavior – for the past 18 years.
- ✧ How religions have, in fact, unknowingly become victims of slavery to Luciferian forces – "space races" who represent themselves to humans as "gods," but who are nothing more than technically advanced humans (clinging to human behavior) from previous civilizations, who use the discarnate (spirit) world to keep humans preoccupied with their addictions, and who travel in primitive "UFOs." (The Next Level – the true Kingdom of God – has the only truly advanced space-time travel vehicles, or spacecrafts.)
- ✧ How human physical bodies are only containers (suits of clothes) for souls; how the soul is the true identity; and how invasive influences and discarnate spirits can be recognized, dealt with, and aborted.
- ✧ How this information is the same information that the Next Level sent with its Representative 2000 years ago.
- ✧ Now that "test time" is here, who will be able to believe this information and accept these as crew members from the Evolutionary Level Above Human?

ORGANIZED RELIGION (ESPECIALLY CHRISTIAN) HAS BECOME THE PRIMARY PULPIT FOR MISINFORMATION AND THE "GREAT COVER-UP"

• Those who are unhappy with what this world has to offer, or are seeking the real Truth, have turned to New Age, Eastern religions, or simply have "dropped out" to indulge in whatever excesses might bring them pleasure. And why shouldn't they? Who can blame them? Nowhere, especially not in the churches, can they find the answers to the purpose of their existence or any hope for a soul's future. The most significant information, that which was offered 2000 years ago by a Representative from the "future" – the Evolutionary Level Above Human (the real Kingdom of Heaven), has been completely ignored or obscured. That Representative's "hard-core" teaching – the formula for entering "His Father's Kingdom" (that Evolutionary Level Above Human) – cannot be found anywhere on the planet, least of all in the teachings of the churches. The Christians have unwittingly even become their own dreaded Anti-Christ. Jesus had no wife nor children, His followers were His "family." He required of His students (disciples) that they drop everything (all possessions, ties, and attachments) and literally go with Him. He warned His "followers" that their enemies would likely be those of their own household, that they would be hated by all men, and that as they adopted more of His ways and thinking, they would hate or abhor everything that could pull them back into their "old" world (including their human father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, and even the love of their own life), or anything that could interfere with their commitment to Him and His Father's Kingdom.

• Jesus was not a religious man or spiritual person according to present day interpretation. He was a man of the future – from the future, ahead of this civilization's time – from an actual physical Evolutionary Kingdom Level above the human kingdom, in the same way that humans are "supposedly" an evolutionary kingdom level above Earth's animal kingdom. Members of the Kingdom Level Above Human identify with or think of themselves as the "spirit" or "soul," and their body as a "container." Whereas members of the human kingdom primarily identify with or think of themselves as the physical body (and wonder if they might have a soul). Members of the Kingdom that He – the one who was in Jesus – came from, treat their physical bodies as "suits of clothes" and thereby can leave those "Next Level" bodies behind and even incarnate into a human body as He did. The mind or spirit that was in Jesus did not incarnate in the infant, but rather it incarnated when the body He took was approximately 29 to 30 years old – at the event recorded in the Bible as the "Holy Spirit" descending upon Him as a dove. Compared to a human spirit, His Spirit, having come from that Next Kingdom Level, was a pure or "Holy" Spirit, revered by His disciples – seen as Divine – and rightfully so. The body that was "picked" for Him had been monitored and "prepped" since infancy by Members of the Kingdom Level Above Human in anticipation of the day that He would "take it over" or incarnate into it.

• In the same way, in this generation, two bodies were "picked" and "prepped" for the two members from that "Next Level" who would incarnate in them, a Younger Member and an Older Member – a "Son" and his "Father." This time those two Representatives incarnated into their picked or chosen bodies in the early 1970's, bodies that were in their 40's. They then, in 1975, put out a "call" for the souls who came with them for this task, and these two Teachers assisted those prospective members of that Next Kingdom Level in incarnating into (taking over) the bodies that had been set aside for them. These two Teachers then literally took these prospective members out of, or "lifted them out" of the world with the bodies they would take charge of. They assisted the students in the tedious and difficult process of becoming new creatures – filling those bodies with the mind, the thoughts, the behavior, the "spirit" from the Kingdom Level Above Human. This classroom was in total seclusion for almost 18 years.

• These students of the Next Level have now been given the task of going out and finding the second and last wave or "harvest" of souls or spirits who have been brought back into the human Kingdom to receive – incarnate in – the bodies that have been picked and prepped for them. As the prospective members of the second harvest connect with the students from the first – and learn from them – they too will be literally taken out of the world and through the incarnating process – the taking over of a body, aborting its human mind and programming, and filling it with the mind of their Teacher, and of His Older Member, and of that Kingdom Level Above Human.

• Those souls who successfully bond to their new "Father" and His Kingdom will literally leave the human kingdom and become members in the physical Kingdom from whence came the mind (the soul) that was in Jesus, and the minds (the souls) that are in these two Teachers. As Jesus came and left in a "cloud of light," so also these Teachers, along with their students from both harvests, came – and will leave – in the same manner (a spacecraft, "UFO," belonging to the true Kingdom of God). They will not need to be a part of the human kingdom again. These who have successfully overcome human-mammalian behavior and thinking ("washed their robes" under the tutorship of their Teachers), and have replaced it with the behavior and thinking of that Next Kingdom Level, are now ready for service, for the first time, to the true Kingdom of Heaven – the only real Kingdom of God.

• All souls retain, at all evolutionary levels, the free will to accept tutorship, remain loyal to their parentage in that Kingdom Level, or separate, feeling that they no longer need to remain a child, a servant – even in the Kingdom of Heaven. The spirit or soul referred to as Satan or Lucifer was once a child, a son, in the real Kingdom of Heaven. He exercised his "free will" to go his separate way and attempt to create his "own heaven." He even took what was estimated to be one-third of the creatures who were young children in that Kingdom with him, for they were still susceptible to his leadership. Those individuals now circulate in the Heavens, and we refer to them as various "Luciferian" space-races (who also travel in their more primitive spacecrafts, or UFO's). Having lost their standing in the true Kingdom of Heaven or the Kingdom of their CREATOR, they had no choice but to return to human-like behavior and mammalian limitations. They use the humans for their own purposes, and do all within their power to prohibit the humans from ever knowing the truth about their ex-Father's Kingdom. They bind the human souls to this world through: a preoccupation with sexuality (indulgence in all the pleasures/addictions of the human senses); reproductivity (family); service to the human kingdom (within a structure of indebtedness and credit); and non-disputable, "moral" responsibility to their family, community, race, nation, and their unknowingly distorted religious concepts.

• Many Bible students, some Christian denominations, and to a greater extent the so-called "charismatics" or "spirit-filled" say they are waiting for the "Second Coming." That same mind, that same information of the true Kingdom of Heaven, which was in Jesus, has come again, for the "second time," in this civilization. That mind, the one that spoke through the body named Jesus, told His followers that He would come again, though He also told them not to believe any who would say that "Jesus" (the name of His human body 2000 years ago) was on "this mountain" or in "that desert," for that "body" would not return. The two events that most Christians say they are eagerly anticipating have occurred: the "Second Coming" (as just described) and the "Raptures" (the first of which happened in 1975-76, the second of which is occurring now as the second harvest is "lifted out" of their world). The Luciferians, who have taken over the religions, would have their "faithful" die and go to their "heaven" without doing any of the necessary overcoming, for "He did it all" – "He shed His blood" – in order that you might "be saved." You can't simply be a good "Christian," die, and go to the true Kingdom of Heaven. You can only become a new creature, a Heavenly creature, while a Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human is incarnate in the human kingdom to take you through that "birthing." That birthing requires that you become dead to all humanness and have only the consciousness – the mind – of a child in that new Kingdom Level – totally under the care and keeping of your "new Father" (Older Member), your "new family," who takes you into that Kingdom.

• This is obviously, by human judgment, the "Cult of Cults" – but for the chosen, it's the only way into their "Heavenly Father's House." You will have to judge for yourselves who we are. The Church, the New Age, and the Charismatics will likely call us the Anti-Christ, for we don't simply stand for "peace," "love," and "light" for this world.

"UFO CULT"

RESURFACES WITH A FINAL OFFER of the FORMULA for entering

The Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human

- the only real Heaven
- a physical Kingdom Level that cannot be entered "after you die"
- one that exists in the literal heavens, with its own unique biological "containers" or bodies, and modes of travel – spacecrafts or "UFOs"
- Entering it requires "midwifing" by an Older Member from that Kingdom who is incarnate (in the human kingdom) to take you through that "birthing."
- That birthing requires: the shedding of all human-mammalian behavior, such as sexuality (all forms); ties (to family, human relationships, possessions, and responsibilities); addictions (of all types); habits; and self-concerns.
- This FORMULA was first offered to this civilization 2000 years ago, by one Older Member from that Kingdom Level (who incarnated into a body that was 29-30 years old).
- It was offered a second time in 1975/76 by two Older Members from that same Kingdom (who incarnated when the bodies that were "picked" and "prepped" for them were in their early 40's).
- It is now being offered, for the last time in this civilization, by those students (from the 1975/76 "yield") who have been taken through their "birthing" and are now representatives of that Kingdom Level.
- The Representative 2000 years ago, the two Representatives who came this time, and their students (the "yield") all came and will leave in spacecrafts or "clouds of light."

UFOs, SPACE ALIENS, AND THEIR FINAL FIGHT FOR EARTH'S SPOILS

- ◆ All reproducing space aliens – including mammalian and reptilian – use Earth's humans simply for their own interests (and have been for thousands of years).
 - They intentionally keep humans falsely "programmed" or "in the dark"
 - primarily through religious concepts.
 - secondarily through reproductive and "humanitarian" concerns.
 - They support these preoccupations by transmitting images and thoughts into Earth's atmosphere around the clock.
 - These "Luciferians" abduct humans for genetic experimentation, "rob" healthy human specimens for their own next "suit of clothes," and induct humans into their service.
- ◆ In spite of these facts, there is a true Kingdom of God – a truly Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, above all mammalian, reptilian, or any other reproductive species. It is a many-membered Kingdom that exists in the literal Heavens, with its own unique biological "containers" or bodies, and modes of travel – spacecrafts or "UFOs." It is, in fact, more physically real than the world of the space aliens or humans. This Kingdom Level created the physical universe, as we know it, as a "holographic classroom," and the human-mammalian kingdom as a stepping stone. That hologram is about to be "rebooted" – canceled and restarted – for its usefulness and serviceability as a classroom has come to an end.
- ◆ Two thousand years ago, an Older Member in the real "Kingdom of Heaven," left behind His Next Level – non-mammalian – Body and incarnated into a "picked" and "prepped" human body at approx. its 29th year. He brought with Him the souls or "spirits" that His Father's Kingdom had nurtured in the past, in order that He might help them incarnate and change over their bodies. That formula for being born into the Evolutionary Level Above Human requires: the shedding of all human-mammalian behavior, such as sexuality (all forms); ties (to family, human relationships, possessions, and responsibilities); addictions (of all types); habits; and self-concerns.
- ◆ That formula was offered a second time, in 1975/76 by two Older Members from that same Kingdom (who incarnated when the bodies, that were "picked" and "prepped" for them, were in their early 40's). They put out a "call" for the crew – the souls who came with them – and helped them incarnate (take over their bodies), while in virtual isolation for approx. 18 years.
- ◆ That "birthing" or incarnating procedure requires "midwifing" – personal tutoring – by an Older Member from that Kingdom while incarnate in the human kingdom. When a soul – one brought here by the Next Level – incarnates, it must take control of a body (that was "picked" and "prepped" for it) to the degree that it ceases to perform as a human-mammalian, sufficiently to establish and sustain a well-founded loyalty to the Next Level through that Older Member. It is that loyalty and personal relationship with that Older Member that motivates those behavioral changes and makes that "newborn" viable.
- ◆ A very accelerated "classroom" (for "birthing" – incarnating), is now being offered for the third and last time in this civilization, by those representatives from the 1975/76 "yield" to the remainder of the souls that have been saved from a previous time by the Next Level.
- ◆ The Representative 2000 years ago, the two Representatives who came in the early 1970's, and their students from that "yield" and the present one, all came and will leave in spacecrafts or "clouds of light."

UFOs, SPACE ALIENS, AND THEIR FINAL FIGHT FOR EARTH'S SPOILS

[Some things DO has talked about: ideas that were relative to the most recent poster (UFO - Space Alien). This information is for your digestion and better understanding.]

1. In the same way that Bob Lazar speaks of how by controlling gravity it can pull objects in space to you, the heavens have physical properties like a hologram and can be switched off. What we call gravity is pretty much the key to moving around within the hologram from object to object.
 2. Do can see that the soul that took the body named Jesus when it was in its late 20's, was on a mission from the "space race" (for lack of a better term) that is more advanced in all aspects – ethical, etc. than any other "space race" (of course, it was also the first "space race" that we know anything about). All who are mammalian (in other words, are reproductive) including all other space races – are experiments/products of that race. This is just another way of expressing this thought.
 3. We are talking about UFOs, space races, and the fight for souls – though not just a fight for souls, for in part it is a fight for the creatures and the garden. Since we are minds from where the hologram is designed, we have no concern – because of the physical nature of the hologram and the physical creatures in the hologram, we have nothing to fear.
 4. All mammalian (meaning reproductive) races, for their own survival, need vehicles, and many, if not all, are dependent on certain biological qualities – certain spoils – of this planet.
 5. The Next Level is depositing souls they have saved from a previous time, who are still "believers." That may be all they're doing, even though we have talked about how, at this time, they may be making "deposits" of mind in some that please them. The only deposit that means something is the deposit of the soul who has been saved (from a previous nurturing) – those the Next Level has been pleased with.
 6. (In response to a question) DO doesn't know where these souls that are being deposited "grew up" (whether on this planet or another place), but the hardest test in their development is here – they (we) are going through hell to reach Heaven.
 7. The hologram is going to be turned off. DO doesn't think the other alien groups believe in the hologram – they think they are for real. The Montauk information says that when they travel to the future, there's nothing here past 2012 (or so), and the "Down East Diamonds" fellow said the end was no later than 2003. We heard that the pope had recently prophesied that somewhere in the first decade after the year 2000 the end would come. (He realizes it might be even sooner because of the miscalculations in the calendar.) Our departure doesn't wait for that time. This idea of just "turning off the hologram" is more dramatic than "spading under." The hologram doesn't exist, except for the time that it is playing.
 8. We received a letter from someone who had some trouble with our answer to his question about miracles (in our last letter). He had asked whether or not we would perform miracles of any kind. In other words, he asked for a sign. The prophesy said "no sign other than the sign of Jonah." The "sign of Jonah" is symbolic. Everyone thought Jonah was dead, but he was saved. Only those who succeed at this incarnating – taking over their bodies, and not losing their consciousness – when they rise out of this human kingdom – will be the ones to be witnesses. (In other words, you have to go through it – to witness the sign of Jonah. Only Jonah witnessed his experience.)

[When working on the last poster, DO explained several things which we're trying to put down for you. The following are notes from that discussion.]

1. DO wanted the poster to have the overview of coming from the point of view of UFOs, space alien races, and the fight or battle for the spoils, because the garden "program" is about to be rebooted – canceled and restarted. What is happening now is the last worthwhile function of the planet's "civilization program" – which is to be a staging for souls who were brought here for the purpose of incarnating in human bodies, to make the transition from human to Next Level.
2. (Trying to bottom-line things, DO was thinking of something like:) Two individuals, in the early 1970's, incarnated into (took over) two human bodies, that had been "picked" and "prepped" for them, started looking for the team that had the assignment of the first stage of the mission, which was a small team, to also take over bodies and be taken through that incarnating process. When one "takes over a body," it means you have it under control to a certain degree so that it ceases to perform as a reproductive mammal. And also you take over a body to the degree that you know for a fact you were brought for that express purpose, and the incarnating (control) is sufficient to sustain loyalty and function as a crew member in that project. Sustaining loyalty is more important than sustaining all (every procedure) of Next Level behavior. Because different ones, depending on the package they took over, will to different degrees have control in place. But they have to have in place the loyalty to the ones who have taken them through that "incarnating." The ones from the first group who survived in their loyalty, are ready to help others, who have previously received nourishment from (known) the Next Level, incarnate into their bodies for the time that remains. No one else is here to offer that – no one else knows this or has accomplished this.

Then it became time to begin Stage 2: seeking the remaining souls who were saved, who had previous contact with the real Kingdom of Heaven, through Representatives from the real Kingdom of Heaven (who are no longer mammalian, and of the “race” who created all other races); or another way of saying it, looking for those souls here for the express purpose of moving into bodies, guided by those who’ve done it – and those who sustain their loyalty will go into that Kingdom.

When you incarnate into a body, and you have taken it over, and your loyalty is established (your faithfulness is established), then you are hooked up with – or in place to receive – eternal life, or life for all eternity. As long as that loyalty is sustained, you have the potential for eternal life. But faithfulness has to go hand-in-hand with behavior. Behavior is nothing without faithfulness, though faithfulness is something, even when you don’t have the behavior down pat – though you can’t believe and not do. But belief is not in the doing, but in the faithfulness to those Representatives. If you trust in Him – our midwife – the behavior follows. If a soul loses faithfulness (belief in their Rep), then the behavior gets that soul nowhere, and they’ll eventually fall out of the behavior because their lifeline is broken, and the soul falls back to an advanced form of mammalian life.

3. “Mammalian” behavior is a good indicator of what isn’t Next Level.
4. What is going on on the planet among the humans is a manifestation of the interests of the space aliens. The humans are just carrying out the interests of the space alien races – it’s what they “tune into,” like tuning into a radio frequency, but more than that, because humans haven’t chosen which channel to tune into. The space aliens came in with such strength – filling the airwaves with their propaganda, and the “plants” respond according to the spirits in the plant and the strength (programming) of the plant itself.

As far as the Next Level is concerned, the significant time is right before the playing field is wiped clean and prepared for the new field. The souls they’ve saved who have had some association with the Creator’s Kingdom are brought in – when the civilization is the most rotten – to incarnate. Those who are brought in, and connect, and their loyalty to that Kingdom is sustained, will leave with that Kingdom. This rottenness offers the most accelerated opportunity for change or “birthing” into the Next Level.

5. Luciferians are made up of those who had once received “life,” who were once in the overcoming process. Did the Next Level let some rise to a certain point of technical skill (non-Earth bound) and ability without knowing the truth, or did they rise to that level of truth, learn the technology, then their loyalty was lost? Obviously, the latter is true. Alien groups may be abducting and breeding with humans, educating those “containers” to their concept of what is, in order to prepare them for better use (or service) – which by Next Level standards is all perverse and worthless. The human kingdom is meant as a stepping stone, yet the alien groups refuse to see it that way. This isn’t to say that they cannot have in their service human plants, both on the Earth’s surface and off.

DO can’t see what the aliens are interested in except to make a base for their activities, trying to take advantage of the Next Level presence here, because that presence can give them knowledge. In other words, they can tap that presence. For example, that presence has allowed medicine to determine that genes do this and that, that eliminating certain genes does this, or that genes are the time clock of the vehicle’s aging.

6. One thing that is the key to this is understanding what the “soul” is. The souls that were saved – have life in them – were brought back to do this. If souls came up from the animal kingdom, DO believes that only the Next Level has charge of them – no one else. Could it be that a soul doesn’t become a soul until it is under the keeping of the Next Level and has some Next Level knowledge or “life” in it? This means that if any individuals in the alien races have souls, they had to get them from the Next Level, by having gone through a degree of changeover – and then they went awry and turned away from the Next Level. This would mean that all human plants are simply “plants” – containers – with programming from outside the civilization. Humans are just programmed containers – with a time-capsuled program. And like the prison guard that stands there with a megaphone, “Everyone line up,” the space-alien races with their “megaphones” are filling the air waves – telling the humans what to do. They separate the ones who are more advanced or skilled. The rotten plants begin “overpowering” the good ones. They let the plants be motivated by lusts – the garment, tobacco, alcohol, etc., (all industries being based on the lusts of the plant), and they keep programming the plants to have lower standards. Fifty years ago, humans had higher standards. Space races don’t care, they have the humans thinking they are becoming more intelligent, but it boomerangs – AIDS, etc. When human containers have no Next Level type respect for each other, all systems of order go awry.

The space races may have areas in the heavens where they base, but they still have to come to Earth to rob vehicles. The Next Level sees to it that there are missing qualities in their world that they have to have from Earth. The aliens try to advance the plants to significant longevity (so that they might have better “new” bodies or longer lasting bodies of their slaves), by taking advantage of Next Level knowledge. (The plants are honored to serve in whatever way, because they see it as advancement.) Improving the plants – improving the environment, improving the genetic package, and improving space travel – is a Catch 22, because the aliens can’t do it while continuing with mammalian behavior. Since the reproductive processes are stunted in space, the space races rob bodies from here in order to move into them, since their bodies wear out. So they are trying to develop higher-quality human containers.

Re: the reptilian race, DO is highly suspicious that they might be what is spoken of in legends as the ones who did the most against the Next Level effort in this civilization. The reptilians are even lower than the mammalian races. They displeased the Next Level so much that they were confined to that biological world, and DO doesn’t think they can get out of that strata.

Aliens mainly use this planet for bodies, genetic development, the same way that humans use domesticated animals. They can rob souls by convincing a soul (one the Next Level has “saved”) to come to their side – destroying their loyalty to the Next Level – keeping them preoccupied with lusts.

So loyalty is the key more than behavior, but behavior has to accompany loyalty because the one you’re with won’t put up with bad behavior, and your service is limited until your behavior improves.

There’s going to be a new Heaven (a generation of space aliens replaced by new ones), and a new Earth (one recycled for service for a new civilization). In other words, a new hologram program after the rebooting.

SOME NOTES TAKEN FROM DO'S DISCUSSION WITH STUDENTS

Jesus was not a religious man or spiritual person according to present-day interpretation. He was a man of the future – from the future, ahead of this civilization's time – from an actual physical Evolutionary Kingdom Above the human kingdom, in the same way that humans are supposedly an evolutionary kingdom level above Earth's animal kingdom. The Kingdom Level He was a part of has its identity with the spirit or soul, whereas the human kingdom identifies with the body. Members of the Kingdom that He came from treat their physical bodies as "suits of clothes" and thereby can leave their "Next Level" bodies behind and even incarnate in a human body as He did. The mind, or spirit, that was in Jesus did not incarnate in the infant, but rather it incarnated when the body He took was 29-30 years old, at the time of the event recorded as the "Holy Spirit" descending upon Him as a dove (at the river Jordan with John the Baptist). Compared to a human spirit, His Spirit, having come from that Next Kingdom Level, was a Holy Spirit, one to be revered by humans – seen as Divine – and rightfully so. The body that was picked for Him had been monitored and prepped since infancy by Members of that Kingdom Level Above Human in anticipation of the day He would incarnate into it. In the same way, in this generation, two bodies were picked and prepped for the two members that would incarnate into them, a Younger Member and an Older Member – a Son and his Father. This time those two Spirits came from that Next Kingdom Level in the early 1970's, and incarnated in their picked or chosen bodies, which were in their 40's.

Then, in 1975, they put out a "call" for the spirits who came with them for this task, and these two Teachers assisted those prospective members of that Next Kingdom Level in incarnating into (taking over) the bodies that had been set aside for them. These two Teachers then took them out, or "lifted them out," with the bodies they would take charge of and assisted them in the tedious and difficult process of becoming totally new creatures, filling those bodies with the mind, the thoughts, the behavior, the "spirit" from the Kingdom Level Above Human. These students of the Kingdom of Heaven and prospective new members, have changed sufficiently in becoming new creatures of that new Kingdom to now be given the task of going out and finding the second and last wave of souls or spirits who have been brought back into the human kingdom to receive – incarnate into – the bodies that have been picked and prepped for them. As they connect with the first wave of new creatures, they too will be taken out of the world and through the incarnating process of taking over a body, aborting its human mind and programming, and filling it with the mind of their Father, His Father, and that Kingdom Level Above Human. This is what some Bible students refer to as the second resurrection or the second rapture. These minds, these souls who successfully bond to their new Father and his Kingdom – their new Kingdom – will literally leave the human kingdom and enter membership into the physical Kingdom from whence the mind, the soul that was in Jesus, and the minds, the souls that are in these Teachers, came. As Jesus came and left in a cloud of light, so also these Teachers, along with their prospective students from both waves, came and will leave in the same manner (a spacecraft, "UFO" belonging to the Kingdom of "God"). They will not need to be a part of the human kingdom again. Those who have successfully overcome human-mammalian behavior and thinking (under the tutorship of their Teachers – their new Fathers – from that Kingdom) and have replaced it with the behavior and thinking of that next Kingdom Level will now enter that next Kingdom and be beginners in service, for the first time, to the true Kingdom of Heaven – the only real Kingdom of God.

All souls retain, at all evolutionary levels, the free will to accept tutorship, remain loyal to their parentage in that Kingdom Level, or separate, feeling they no longer need to remain a child, a servant – even in the Kingdom of Heaven. The spirit or soul referred to as Satan or Lucifer was once a child, a son, a student of the real Kingdom of Heaven. He exercised his free will to go his separate way and attempt to create his own heaven. He even took what was estimated as a third of the creatures who were young children in that Kingdom with him, for they were still susceptible to his leadership. Those individuals now circulate in the Heavens, and we refer to them as various Luciferian space-races (who also travel in their more primitive spacecrafts – UFOs). Having lost their standing in the true Kingdom of Heaven or the Kingdom of their Creator, they had no choice but to return to human-like behavior and mammalian limitations. They manipulate the humans as their slaves and do all within their power to prohibit the humans from ever knowing the truth about their ex-Father's Kingdom. They bind the human souls and minds to this world through a preoccupation with sexuality (indulgence in all the pleasures/addictions of the human senses), reproductivity (family), service to the human kingdom, within a structure of indebtedness (credit, borrowing, etc.) and responsibility to their family, community, race, nation, and distorted religious concepts, and all other aspects of the human kingdom.

Many Bible students, some Christian denominations, and to a greater extent the so-called "charismatics" or "spirit-filled" say they are waiting for the "Second Coming." That same mind, that same information of the Kingdom of Heaven, has come again for the second time in this civilization. That mind, the One that spoke through the body named Jesus, told His followers that He would come again, though He also told them not to believe them if people would say that Jesus (the name of His human body 2000 years ago) was on this mountain or in this desert. What the Christians say they are looking for: the Second Coming, the Second Resurrection (the opportunity that is before you now), the Second Rapture (the first having happened in '75 for the first wave), which will take those of the second resurrection out of this world, are all here. "Resurrection from the dead" is used in the context of all are "dead" until receiving the mind or spirit (life) from the Kingdom of Heaven. Unfortunately, the Luciferians, who have taken over the religions, would have you expect heaven on Earth as devoted human families. You can't be a good little family Christian and die and go to Heaven. You can only become a new creature, a heavenly creature, while a member of the Kingdom of Heaven is incarnate in the human kingdom to take you through that birthing. That birthing requires that you become dead to all humanness and have only the consciousness of a child in that new Kingdom Level – totally under the care and keeping of your new Father, your new family, who will take you into that Kingdom. These children of the first resurrection are now holding meetings, seeking those who have received a "gift" of the possibility of receiving this nurturing and birthing into that next Kingdom.

This is obviously by human judgment the "Cult of Cults," but for the chosen, it's the only way into their "Heavenly Father's House." You choose. According to your judgment shall you be judged.

THE END OF THE AGE IS HERE – AND AS WAS PROMISED –

HE'S BACK, WE'RE BACK, WHERE WILL YOU STAND?

THE ONE "THE WORLD" HATED AND KILLED BEFORE !

HIS "ADOPTED" WHO WERE TREATED THE SAME !

THE "BLASPHEMY'S" THE SAME – THE TEST IS THE SAME FOR ALL OF US –
"LEAVE ALL BEHIND" AND GO WITH THEM – OR TAKE YOUR CHANCES.

- ◆ Most who "say" they are looking for Him to return won't accept Him (for He hasn't come in the way they expected). Some of those who've "had it" with today's religions will suspect that what He's saying might be true. A tiny few will know Him and that what He is saying is true.
- ◆ There is a true Kingdom of God – a truly Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, above all mammalian or any other reproductive species. It is a many-membered Kingdom that exists in the literal Heavens, with its own unique biological "containers" or bodies, and modes of travel – spacecrafts or "UFOs." It is, in fact, more physically real than the world of the space aliens or humans. This Next Kingdom Level created the physical world, as we know it, as a "holographic classroom," and the human-mammalian kingdom as a stepping stone. That hologram is about to be "re-booted" – canceled and restarted – for its usefulness and serviceability as a classroom have come to an end.
- ◆ All religions were designed as "prep" for this day, but the "adversary forces" have corrupted them.
- ◆ Two thousand years ago, an Older Member in the real Kingdom of Heaven, left behind His Next Level (non-mammalian) body and incarnated into a "picked" and "prepped" human body at approx. its 29th year. He brought with Him the souls that His Father's Kingdom had nurtured in the past, in order that He might help them incarnate and change over their bodies. That formula for being born into the Evolutionary Level Above Human requires: the shedding of all human-mammalian behavior, such as all forms of sexuality; ties to family, human relationships, and possessions; addictions of all types; habits; and self-concerns. These must be replaced with the thinking, the Mind, and the ways of the Next Level.
- ◆ That formula was brought again in 1975/76, by two Older Members from that same Kingdom (who incarnated when the bodies that were "picked" and "prepped" for them were in their early 40's). They took the names "Bo and Peep" and later, "Ti and Do." They put out a "call" for the crew – the souls who came with them – and helped them incarnate (take over their bodies), while in isolation (separated from the world) for approx. 18 years.
- ◆ The Older Member of the two (Ti) left His human female body in 1985, returned to the physical Kingdom of God to re-enter His body in that Next Level (from whence He still serves this project). This finds them once again, in the same relationship with the crew – and each other – that they were in 2000 years ago.
- ◆ That "birthing" or incarnating procedure requires "midwifing" – personal tutoring – by an Older Member from that Kingdom who is incarnate in the human kingdom. When a soul – one brought here by the Next Level – incarnates, it must take control of a body (one that was "prepped" for it) to the degree that it ceases to perform as a human sufficiently to establish and sustain a well-founded loyalty to the Next Level through that Older Member. It is that loyalty and personal relationship with that Older Member that motivates those behavioral changes, making that "newborn" viable.
- ◆ A very accelerated "classroom" (for incarnating) is now being offered for the third and last time in this civilization, by those representatives from the 1975/76 "yield" to the remainder of the souls that have been saved from a previous time by the Next Level. In other words, that first crew is gathering the remainder of their crew – holding meetings as of January '94 – before exiting.
- ◆ If this information "strikes a chord" in you, you have received a "chip" (of recognition) from the Next Level, though the hard work of "changeover" can be done only by your unending effort under the supervision of the Representatives who are here now.
- ◆ The two Representatives who came in the early 1970's, and their crew (student reps), all came and will leave in spacecrafts or "clouds of light" – the same way the Representative left 2000 years ago.

some desire to advance beyond racial consciousness some desire to advance even

BEYOND all HUMAN behavior for the sake of the Evolutionary Level Above Human – the "Kingdom of God"

SOME WHO ARE DEVOTING THEIR ENTIRE LIVES TO THIS ENDEAVOR WILL SPEAK ON:

- How this Evolutionary Level Above Human is a many- membered Kingdom – a physical level of existence – above the human kingdom (with souls, minds, and bodies – not just "spirit"). This Kingdom Level makes its "Headquarters" in the most distant segment of the Heavens – outside of "time" – from whence all Creation originates, both terrestrial and extraterrestrial.
- How membership in the Kingdom Level Above Human is attained – by outgrowing or rising above (overcoming) all human-mammalian characteristics and behavior, including all forms of sexuality, human family ties, addictions, and human self-serving ways. This overcoming can be done only under the direct personal tutorship of a member or members of that Kingdom while they are incarnate in human bodies.
- How the door to that Kingdom is briefly open, for a second time, now at the close of this Age.
- How life, from the Kingdom of God's point of view, begins when a soul receives from that Kingdom a "deposit of recognition" of the information regarding that Kingdom Level's existence, and recognition of a Representative from that Level Above Human. The soul can choose to accept further life, or "nourishment," from members of that Level indefinitely, or reject it at any point and fall back into "darkness" (ignorance), or "death."
- How these Representatives from the Evolutionary Level Above Human incarnated into (took over adult human bodies) in the mid-1970's and have been separate from the world – practicing non-sexual, non-mammalian behavior – for the past 18 years.
- How religions have, in fact, unknowingly become victims of slavery to "Luciferian" forces – "space races" – who represent themselves to humans as "gods," but who are nothing more than technically advanced humans (clinging to human behavior) from previous civilizations, who use the discarnate (spirit) world to keep humans preoccupied with their addictions, and who travel in primitive "UFOs." The Next Level – the true Kingdom of God – has truly advanced space-time travel vehicles, or spacecrafts, and live in a non-temporal, non-perishable "world."
- How human physical bodies are only containers (suits of clothes) for souls; how the soul is the true identity; and how invasive influences – discarnate "spirits" – can be recognized and aborted.
- How this information is the same information that the Next Level sent with its Representative 2000 years ago.
- How the crucial question of the moment is: who of those who have received a "deposit of recognition" will be able to choose to take this "giant step"?

UFO TWO AND CREW SAY:

"THE SHEDDING OF OUR BORROWED
HUMAN BODIES MAY BE REQUIRED IN ORDER TO TAKE UP OUR NEW BODIES
BELONGING TO THE NEXT WORLD."

IF YOU WANT TO LEAVE WITH US YOU MUST BE WILLING TO LOSE
EVERYTHING OF THIS WORLD IN ORDER TO HAVE LIFE IN THE NEXT.
CLING TO THIS WORLD AND YOU'LL SURELY DIE .

- Crew says they are from another Time - an Evolutionary Kingdom Level Far Above Human (what humans refer to as the Kingdom of God) - where Creation originates.
- They admit to an "undercover" presence for more than 20 years.
- Their bodies (as containers) were "picked" and "prepped" by others from their "world" beginning as early as the late '20's, though they've been bringing in crew members (in soul bodies) from their spacecrafts (UFOs) on Earth's surface since the early 1970's (the first wave in mid-1970's, the second and final wave in the early 1990's), for them to individually begin "incarnating" or taking over those prepped bodies.
- Each crew member has taken over an adult human body - the two crew instructors first - who subsequently gathered and assisted other crew members in gaining control over their chosen human bodies.
- They say that this planet is ruled by malevolent adversary races of space aliens and has been, for the most part, since this immediate civilization's beginning.
- They say that Representatives from their time nurtured a number of human strains in the early stages of this civilization, and later sent two Representatives (the younger of which was incarnate) 2000 years ago, for a brief visit with a small crew (in training) to attempt to expose to the humans their enslaved predicament, while even offering them a way out.
- They say that Earth's humans are unknowingly even more enslaved today. The malevolent aliens use "psychological warfare" techniques to keep Earth's humans bound in a state of regression, while thinking they are advancing.
- This visiting crew states that their "world" is a genderless (sexless), non-mammalian (though certainly non-reptilian), crew-minded, service-oriented world that finds greed, lust, and self-serving pursuits abhorrent.
- They say that they can explain how their numbers periodically may increase, and how "new" members can be born in a human body (its soul "awakened" out of dormancy) and can use that human body as its "cocoon" or "chrysalis" for its next-world body (what some orientations refer to as "glorified body"). Their world's members do not seek independence, but live to look entirely to their "Older" (more experienced) Members, on up the "vine" to the "Chief of Chiefs."
- Now, as they prepare to leave, they are more open about their purpose, since possible adverse reactions by this world to their knowledge and behavior, can no longer interfere with their mission.
- They say that they may be required to discard their "undercover costume" (their borrowed human body) as they depart - leaving their "chrysalis" behind.
- If their Father does not require this "disposition" of them - He will take them up into His "cloud of light" (spacecraft) before such "laying down of bodies" need occur.
- Any who would be "born" into their world must willingly break all ties to this world, forsaking all human-mammalian behavioral traits. The physical bodies in their world are - in comparison to human bodies - incorruptible and imperishable (non-decaying).
- They feel strongly that all visitations from the Evolutionary Level Above Human have been corrupted by the malevolent space alien races into binding human religions - as soon as those "Next Level" members departed.
- This crew claims that the Level Above Human is in the process of recycling Earth's environment and inhabitants in preparation for a new beginning.

STATEMENTS WRITTEN BY STUDENTS

When it became evident that we were going to publish some of our material as a book, some of the students indicated that they would like to contribute. Although some of those who wanted to write a statement felt that they might not be well qualified, they were encouraged to express what they desired. The following are the students' attempts to express the thoughts and concepts our Older Members have addressed in the pages of this book and have shared with us throughout this classroom experience.

Ingredients of a Deposit – Becoming a New Creature

As the world becomes more aware of our presence and the information we are leaving behind, we know we have to anticipate being confronted with the typical “anti-cult” accusations and condemnations that will be made about us – particularly those aimed at our Teachers, Ti and Do. The majority of the media (whose degree of commentary and biased judgment has gotten completely corrupted and out of control), plus the righteous religious, the government/law-enforcement agencies, and cult-awareness groups, will most likely quickly jump to defend the “accepted (Luciferian) norm” by trying to convince the masses to believe that the students of Ti and Do must be “weak-minded” individuals who had nothing going for them in this world, or that they were duped or brainwashed by two mesmerizing, charismatic cult leaders. For, surely, no one in their right mind would willingly join a “cult” in the first place, let alone stay in one for over twenty years – throwing away the precious opportunity for participating in family, career, and all the other “normal” pursuits in the human kingdom.

Nothing could be further from the truth. I know, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that Ti and Do are two Older Members, two Representatives from the Next Level – the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, the Kingdom of God. I know that all the ways and behavior, all the procedures and instructions, and all the knowledge and wisdom taught to us by Ti and Do are not available or taught anywhere else on the planet. It is clearly beyond human. I know beyond a shadow of a doubt that I have had a previous relationship with them before – that I (the soul that has taken over and now occupies this human body I am wearing) have had previous nurturing by Ti and Do during prior visitations to this “garden,” including the Next Level’s presence in this civilization approximately 2000 years ago (just two days ago Next Level time).

How do I know this? It’s not only because Ti and Do have told me so. It’s also because of proof from personal experience. I recognize this information. It’s as though I was already familiar with it. For example, part of Ti and Do’s task during this mission was to restore the truth of how a soul may literally make the transition from the human kingdom into the true Heavenly Kingdom, after having overcome humanness – and how this metamorphic process can only be done under the direct supervision of Representatives of the Kingdom of Heaven and only while these Reps or Teachers are incarnate in a human “vehicle” or body. They alone possess the hidden knowledge of “how Members of the Next Level are born,” and that it requires breaking all ties with the human kingdom, and shedding all human-mammalian behavior and thinking.

This is the same formula taught by the Representative who was here approximately 2000 years ago, the one religions refer to as Jesus. He told His disciples to go and preach, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.” “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except by me.” What this meant was, “I’m here. I am the one who was sent by my Father to offer you the way out of the human kingdom. Only I have the formula of how to get to heaven – how you have to leave everything behind, including your own life in this world, and come and follow me and be my disciple.” He made it very clear that separating from the world and having a “personal relationship” with Him, while He was incarnate in a human body, was a requirement and the only way to prepare for entering the next Kingdom. “My sheep know my voice and they follow me.”

Before His departure, He knew that His disciples hadn’t overcome the world sufficiently to go with Him, so He told them that He would come back for them again at the end of the Age. That time is now. It is the end of the Age. The same mind, the same knowledge of the Next Level that was present 2000 years ago is here again, as was promised – in the Two Older Members of the Next Level who were sent – Ti and Do. And many of those students/disciples who were present with the Representative 2000 years ago are back now, with Ti and Do, to pick-up where they left off during their last mission to this civilization.

How does this Recognition work? Where does it come from? In Do’s most recent written statements, Undercover Jesus Surfaces Before Departure and ‘95 Statement by an ET Presently Incarnate, he goes into a lot of detail describing deposits. What is a deposit? It is potentially the “gift” of life into the real physical Evolutionary Level Above Human. A deposit can be described as an “implant,” or a “chip,” or a tiny fragment or “seed” of Next Level mind that is deposited into a human plant by members of the Next Level. The nature of any deposit – the “program” it contains – will vary depending on who the recipient is.

A first-time deposit contains the beginning of a “soul” – which is the new “container” or receptacle for Next Level mind, and is the beginning of a new creature. In other words, if the Next Level determines that an individual has a potential for goodness and deserves the opportunity to be given a chance to be nourished by them, and if they choose to offer it the choice to become a future member of the Next Evolutionary Level, they make a “deposit” that contains a soul with a very small amount of Next Level information – it’s like a tiny Next Level fetus. The program in that deposit contains a “chip” of recognition of a Rep who is presently incarnate, and the capacity to believe that what that Rep or Teacher says is true. If that new soul chooses to believe that Rep and to bond to him, is thirsty, and exerts all his effort to take in the mind that is being offered to him, then at the end of that visitation, that soul will be “saved” or “put on ice” for a future time, when it can be brought back into a garden such as Earth when a Rep will be incarnate again, and continue where it left off in its previous time of growth or nourishment until it is sufficiently weaned or separated from the human kingdom.

When a soul is a “returnee,” that is, it is brought back (to continue in its overcoming and nurturing that it had begun previously) at a time when Reps will be present again, the program in the deposit it receives will be more advanced. The deposit will be a match for the degree of advancement of that soul as well as a match for the handicaps of the particular human vehicle (body) it will be occupying – for these handicaps offer it the opportunity for the additional lessons it needs. This deposit would most likely contain:

- a “chip” of recognition of the Reps of the Level Above Human that would be sent,
- the capability to recognize the information regarding the existence of the true Kingdom of God,
- a fragment of Next Level mind that finds its recipient wanting to break ties with the world and seek out the Teachers or Representatives that are presently incarnate,
- the wisdom to discern what isn’t true as the recipient is lead through experiences prior to connecting with the Rep,
- the early stages of loss of respect for the world and its systems – family, government, religion, money, etc.
- a feeling like, “I don’t fit here,” “I hate this corrupt world,” or “I just want to go home to God.”

[Jesus was referring to the deposit when He said, “No one comes to Me unless the Father Who sent Me attracts and draws him and gives him the desire to come to Me, and I will raise him up at the last day.” John 6:44.]

If “I” – the identity – am the soul – containing Next Level mind, then this borrowed human body I am wearing is not me. It was “tagged” with a deposit by Members of the Next Level and set aside for my use for this task, and “I” probably had a very off-and-on relationship with the body, according to the instructions given to me and my invisible Next Level helpers – at a briefing aboard a spacecraft prior to coming into this atmosphere. Most of the soul (containing Next Level mind), was outside the vehicle, and the deposit wasn’t really activated until the time-capsule program was set in motion – to make contact with the two incarnate Representatives from the Kingdom of Heaven, Ti and Do.

Humans, for the most part, identify as being the body they are wearing. Most of their entire life is preoccupied with the physical body – because they assume that is who they are (out of ignorance – due to the distorted truths and misinformation imposed on them by society – unknowingly under the guidance of the “Luciferian” space-alien). They dwell on the appearance of the body, its physical condition, its consuming, its relationships, its ties and responsibilities to others, and many get their greatest satisfaction from the end results of reproduction. But we are not the body we are wearing. It is simply a plant, a “container” for our spirit (or mind). If you think of the body as the hardware, the spirit is like the software. The spirit in the human plant is made up of a combination of: a) the genetic emanations of the vehicle, resulting from the many experiences of that genetic strain; b) the summation of its experiences and effects from its environment during the present lifetime; c) and the influence of discarnates (out of body spirits) that like to time-share the use of our body with us. Most humans in this civilization are simply a plant containing a spirit that really has no “life” in it, for without any Next Level mind there is no life information. Only a “soul” contains pure Next Level mind – knowledge of the true Kingdom of God and the potential of having a future, and no human has a “soul” which contains life unless it has been deposited in them by Members of the Next Level. Only the Next Level can deposit “souls” in the human kingdom, and this only occurs during the “seasons” that the Next Level comes in close – around the time of their visitations.

Thus, when the Next Level picks the human bodies (containing spirits) that we (Ti, Do, and crew) must enter into as we begin this task of “incarnating,” the body that we will be borrowing (and eventually taking over) has in a sense a mind of its own – made up of all the desires and awarenesses of its genetic background. It has its own likes and dislikes, its desires to indulge in addictions and pleasures, lots of misinformation concepts, strong ties and responsibilities to other human plants it’s related to, and even seemingly positive desires, like wanting to be a good humanitarian or “be a good human.” When the Next Level “tags” a human vehicle for a returning soul to use – which means the deposit is “implanted” – then confusion and conflict set in between the desires of the vehicle (and the spirits that associate with it) and the desires of the Next Level mind contained in the deposit, that says (mostly in the subconscious), “It’s time to sever all those ties, it’s time to stop indulging in that human-mammalian behavior, wake up, there’s a task you have to do, the truth is simple, you’ve got to find your teachers”!

To illustrate how real this deposit is, I’d like to briefly illustrate how it worked for me. The vehicle that I was about to take over began showing obvious symptoms of having a “deposit” in the early to mid-70’s. First it was mainly feeling a “presence” and having strong thoughts of wondering, “What am I supposed to do? What do you want me to do?” while feeling very close to and wanting to talk to God in my silence. Usually, without warning, the vehicle would suddenly have thoughts like, “I’m not one of these. Who are these primitive people?” For a few years it went through wanting to become a nun (assuming religion was where the truth should be found), to later giving up traditional religion and searching out other religions and philosophies – but nothing seemed right. The vehicle hitch-hiked through other nations to explore other cultures, and across the U.S., losing interest in the traditional medical career and investigating alternative health care, new-age, and on and on. Still wondering, “What on Earth am I doing here?” and begging God to “Please show me, what am I supposed to do”? Sometimes the vehicle’s impulses were very strong in regard to all the typical indulgences of the 70’s, and at times another voice would speak up and it would seem so clear that celibacy was the right thing, drugs had to go, and the idea of marriage and kids seemed totally out of the question. There was an increasing sense of urgency to leave the East coast and get to Oregon. Every deposit has a different program, but looking back, I can see clearly how this vehicle was so carefully led through a series of experiences that eventually led it to show up at a meeting by the Two in Waldport, Oregon on September 14, 1975.

The day before the Waldport meeting was when I had my first contact with anything connected to Ti and Do. A friend and I thought we were going to a musical event a few hours away in Eugene, but it was canceled. Instead we ended up walking around town and went into a bookstore. That moment changed my life. I was looking at a poster announcing a public meeting. It was titled “UFO’s,” which hadn’t really meant that much to me previously. But then I read on: “Two individuals say they are about to leave the human level and literally (physically) enter the next evolutionary level. Followers of “The Two” will discuss how the transition from the human level to the Next Level is accomplished and when this may be done.” Wow! It felt like a bolt of electricity went right through me. An alarm went off in my head – like a sudden unconscious recognition of something very familiar, and it was already seeming clear that I’d found what I was looking for. It was as though that combination of words used on the poster was a key that unlocked something inside me. When that mind deposit is activated, the little program in there that is identifying as “you” – that was started some time ago – starts identifying as “you” again – because it is you. We drove toward Waldport that night.

A statement written by Ti and Do was passed out to everyone as we arrived at the meeting in Waldport. As I read it, and as I listened to Ti and Do speak, I (the deposit – containing my soul made up of Next Level mind) immediately recognized the information and my Teachers. Something inside me knew, “This is it! This is what I’m here for. The truth is simple.” The Two had it all summed up on one typed page – the whole truth. I couldn’t believe it. All the pieces of the puzzle fit together. A part of that one page statement read:

...a human who seeks only to become a member of his next evolutionary kingdom may become a member of that kingdom if he completely overcomes all the aspects and influences of the human level providing he has found favor with a member of that next level who will direct him through his metamorphosis...the human can complete this changeover only before his death as a human...

...There are two individuals here now who have also come from that kingdom, incarnate as humans, awakened...They are sent from the same kingdom by the "Father" to bear the same truth that was Jesus'...restore its accurate meaning...Those who believe this process and do it will be "lifted up" individually and "saved" from death – literally...

There was quite a crowd at a follow-up meeting in Eugene a day or two later, and amidst an atmosphere of chaos, fear, and confusion – I looked up to the heavens and said to whoever was guiding and watching over me – "I'm incapable of judging this – I'm in your hands – Please show me what to do – If this is right, you make it happen." Within a few minutes, a couple of followers of the Two motioned to me to come over to them and asked some questions. I guess they could sense my sincerity, because they gave me a piece of paper with a destination written on it of where to meet them next.

Several hundred miles away, and a few days later, after having "walked out the door of the vehicle's life," I rendezvoused with the group and spoke to Ti and Do for the first time. I remember the moment as clear as a bell. We were at a campground on a high mesa in Colorado, and Ti and Do were sitting in a couple of lawn chairs, meeting individually with the new prospective students who came out of the Waldport meeting. As I approached them, Ti asked, "How can we help you?" This vehicle was speechless at first, and I remember so clearly that the impulse I had was to want to drop to my knees and cover my eyes. The only way I can describe it is the way it interpreted through this vehicle's computer, colored by its old religious programming – because it felt like I was standing before my Lord, my God. They seemed so familiar, but the thought I had was, "It seems so strange to see you in these human bodies." (Like normally, where we come from, where they occupy heavenly bodies, I wouldn't be able to gaze upon them.) All this was going through my head while I was trying to think of something to say. We talked a few moments. The point is, it was pretty clear that I had known them previously, but not in these human bodies or "suits of clothes," and that their minds were much older and wiser than I could even begin to comprehend. That night we all camped together and I slept outside watching the stars. I was so thankful, so elated, so relieved, that I was home, with my true family – my soul family. Now that I was connected with my Teachers, I knew I was safe – in their hands and the Next Level's safe-keeping. There was no more fear. The best way I know to describe how I felt was, "My joy no man can take away."

For those who may be quick to judge that Ti and Do are two con-artists who deceived these innocent students into following them, whether for personal ego or for monetary gain, or any other reason you might conjure up, you're gravely mistaken. I am not an innocent victim. It is beyond any doubt to me that we students and our Teachers are not from this world, but from the Level Above Human. We had a task to come to this garden and incarnate into these borrowed adult human bodies that were "tagged" with a deposit and set aside for us, and abort all human mind, while replacing it by filling the soul with the mind of the Next Level as taught to us by our Teachers. Then as the Next Level mind increases – and the soul begins to grow larger – the soul becomes a new "physical body" (invisible to humans because it's of a higher vibration) – a newborn – in a new species. This is being "born again" in the truest sense. If the soul has grown sufficiently that the mind it contains is a match for the conduct and ways of that Next Kingdom, the true Kingdom of God, then that soul – new creature – will be issued a new "outer shell" or more advanced suit of clothes ("glorified body") upon physically entering the Next Level, when we shed this human container at the conclusion of our task here. The Level Above Human is a genderless Kingdom, and it is through this "metamorphic process" that it "reproduces" or adds to its Kingdom membership. To complete this metamorphosis usually requires more than one period of visitation from the Level Above Human. For example, we feel that probably all the students of Ti and Do were given their initial deposit some time ago, during prior visitations from Next Level Representatives. As long as those souls continued to look to their source of nourishment and remain loyal and faithful, then they were "put on ice," so to speak, in the keeping of the Next Level, between visitations, to be re-deposited and again connect with and seek the nurturing from a Rep during the next visitation.

Now, at the close of the Age, all souls who have ever been given a deposit by the Next Level during any part of this present civilization, are back – incarnate again. Even those who may have "fallen away" at one time, have a new opportunity to be restored. Those human plants who do not have a deposit will not even be capable of comprehending what we say, but there may be many human plants out there who have been given a deposit by Members of the Next Level for the first time, and will be able to recognize that what we are saying is true and the only thing that makes any sense to them. How an individual responds to us and our information will determine whether they will have a future, and a further relationship with the Next Level. In other words, coming in contact with this information will force a decision for all with souls (whether new deposits or returnees) and the stand they individually take will judge or determine their future.

For several months in late '75 and early '76 while still holding meetings, searching for the rest of the crew who came with Ti and Do from the Next Level, many of us only saw Ti and Do a couple of times. Quite a few new followers dropped out during that time, and we now understand why. It was because some were simply curiosity seekers, some were humans (without a deposit) just looking for an adventure, and some were part of the crew who came to be with Ti and Do on this mission and had a deposit, but found the disciplines to be too difficult – because they weren't successful in overriding the desires of the vehicle they were wearing. However, many followers did survive this early weeding-out process. These are those who had deposits – who had a strong sense of knowing that they were sent here at this time to do a task, and had a strong recognition of Ti and Do and the information they brought.

It was in late June/early July of 1976 that Ti and Do gathered all their surviving new students/disciples together in Medicine Bow National Forest in Wyoming. Here is where the intensive "classroom" for learning Next Level ways and behavior began. This is when Ti and Do really began taking us through the process of "incarnating" – what Ti and Do must have told us a million times before we finally began to grasp it – how to "get your mind into your vehicle."

The Truth Is...

If only I could express clearly what I have come to know and feel, there is no one who could doubt the veracity of what you will read here. But this brain is fallible, and even though I ask from the depths of my heart and soul to be only an instrument of my Older Members' mind, experience has shown me time and again how I unknowingly can let this "package" I'm wearing color what is expressed and also how your reception will be distorted by your own prejudices, fears, and lack of direct experience/knowledge. Again, I ask, Ti and Do, please give me your perspective and clarity, your objectivity, and compassion so that what I write to leave behind will have some value.

A little over 21 years ago, I entered and started taking over (incarnating into) a 32-year old vehicle (body). I don't know exactly how it works, but recognize that prior to this incarnation (during this generation) I had a close association with this specific vehicle (body) for some time – how long, I don't know, nor does it matter. This vehicle had been "tagged," or picked for me because its combined experiences and genetic blueprint would provide me with the very opportunities needed to develop the characteristics that would make me more like my Older Members, more like members of the Next Evolutionary Level Above Human (the "Next Level"), what you know as the Kingdom of God.

Before this vehicle (body) had any conscious knowledge of the Next Level, it must have been given a "deposit" of Next Level mind, because there was at least a hope and desire for something more than the human kingdom had to offer. That hope became desperation – there HAD to be a Designer, there HAD to be something more, for every institution – marriage, family, religion, government, education – every person, everything that the human existence had to offer the vehicle personally fell short, failed, or required compromise of principles, compromise of values, compromise in relationships of all kinds – compromise of truth and knowledge. The vehicle felt guilty for having these thoughts and feelings and tried to keep them hidden, even to itself – kept under control, feeling it was the result of its own failure to see things in a better light.

Just prior to my incarnation, this vehicle experienced a kind of "revelation" while standing on top of a tall building looking down at people scurrying about, cars, buses, phone lines, roadways, smog, billboards, etc. Nothing particular was going through the brain, but for several days questions about the vehicle's purpose had dominated all thoughts. Suddenly, it was like watching a huge screen, showing the world – all humanity – the extent of ignorance, lack of development, the corruption, selfishness, and greed – the big picture, as from afar, in a moment of extreme clarity, and it was the most overwhelming emotion the vehicle had ever experienced. It was incomprehensible how it all happened and why humans made the choices they made. After the experience, a feeling of emptiness followed...except for this persistent hope and desire for something more.

Within a couple of weeks, there was to be a meeting with a man and woman talking about Human Individual Metamorphosis. When Ti and Do walked through the door at the meeting place, this vehicle went into shock. I called out, "I KNOW them. I KNOW them." At that time there wasn't enough of me in the vehicle to understand that it was the mind I knew, but I feel there was probably some kind of briefing prior to my incarnation that allowed me to recognize even the vehicles they wore. Now, you can say, "Well, she was unhappy and vulnerable and a victim of her weakness." But I know that it was just the opposite. Those adjectives may have applied to the vehicle when it gave in to human indulgences that only numbed the pain temporarily but never left the vehicle satisfied – and NEVER filled the heart. And the more the vehicle tried to play the human and humanitarian games, the more it felt like it was living a lie and the more sick it felt inside.

When I met Ti and Do, my life in this generation started. And it was a rough start. What conflict I had with this vehicle at first – its experiences had made it become untrusting, skeptical, full of negativity, bitterness, fear, and pain. Then along came these two individuals who spoke softly, with a decided lack of confidence but clearly from authority. They were obviously not "selling" anything, but it was equally obvious that what information they shared was an opportunity that would not come around again if I didn't have the guts to respond with my heart. You can read about the knowledge they shared with us that day. For me it made all the pieces fit. It made sense in a very practical way. They answered my questions and continued to answer my questions in ways that were proof to me that they had to have come from an evolutionary level above human.

Aside from all the "high falootin'" knowledge that our Older Members have shared with us over the years, to me the most impressive gift they have given us, and continue to give us, are the ways, guidelines, and help in changing our conduct and behavior so that we can be among Members of the Next Level without running any of them off. By changing, we are literally becoming new creatures.

I could write books about what my Older Members have done for us, and for me personally, but you still wouldn't get the picture. It's because there's nothing in your experience, nothing on this planet that is an equivalent, so you have nothing to compare this to. Ti and Do did not just tell us what to do, although they let us know in minute detail the way Members of the Next Level would do everything. But it has mostly been their sustained example of restrained, refined behavior that has been the strongest and best teacher, while at the same time increased my desire to be more like them, made me want more than anything to be with them. You can't imagine the level of discipline that is required to attain the vehicular control that would make you acceptable as a new beginner in the Next Level. And since they do not force you to do anything, you must on your own see the value in their ways, and want to be a part of what they are with all your heart, with all your mind, and all your soul, or you will want to go another direction. There's no way you can pretend to like it – it just won't work. And there's no way you can pretend to become a new creature – actual change has to take place.

I'm here because a long time ago, for some reason, I caught the Next Level's eye (why I was honored in this way, I don't know, but boy, am I grateful); I recognized my Older Members, and acted on what I felt and heard. I am extremely thankful to be here and that my Older Members have been so patient with me. Ti and Do and the Next Level are my life. Without them, there is nothing – literally. Nothing else is real. They have shown me pure love. They have shown me how to work to be free of influences and anything that is not Next Level mind. We have laughed heartily together, and there is nothing on Earth more enjoyable than Next Level humor. On rare occasions we have cried together while healing from a difficult growth experience. My Older Members frequently question themselves and doubt that they are being clean vessels for their Older Members (they question whether they are falling down on the job). I can't see this. It would embarrass them to see themselves as I see them. From where I stand, they are redefining "perfection" all the time. They have proven every day, every hour, every minute – from the time we first came into contact – to consistently conduct themselves in the most refined, most sensible, most compassionate, the highest way you can imagine – without being pious, saccharine, or self-centered in any way. I KNOW they have the AUTHORITY of the Next Level. I love them with all my heart, mind, and soul. Nothing else matters to me but to be a part of them in whatever way the Next Level sees fit. There is nothing and nobody on this planet or off of it that can keep me from my only Lifeline.

Thank you, Ti and Do, for your teachings, your caring for our every single need, and for all the ways you have helped me. And please give me YOUR closeness with your Older Member, YOUR determination and application of effort, so that I can make the changes that will bring me closer to you.

A Matter of Life or Death? YOU Decide

Before I begin to share my position, I feel compelled to “set the record straight” on the true meaning of life and death from our point of view. When we speak of life, we are referring to the mind, and in our case, the soul, for that is what we identify as. Those of us in this classroom have been given a very precious “gift.” We call it the “gift of Life” because we have been given a “soul deposit,” a “chip” of sorts, and contained within this “deposit” is a tiny beginning of something very special to us. We call it Next Level mind. This is true knowledge from the Next Level, the Level Above Human, or perhaps the term most familiar to you, the Kingdom of Heaven. In reality, this is the only knowledge that is of any value to anyone, that is of course, for those who want life. You see, death to us, has nothing to do with the body and everything to do with the mind, and in our case, the soul. What we know to be true is that the body is no more than a container that will inevitably deteriorate, whether it be by disease, accident, or old age – in spite of the body’s demise, it is the mind that survives. We also know from our Teachers that a mind without a soul contains no Next Level Knowledge, no TRUTH, and consequently, no LIFE. It is nothing more than a spirit, and when its container is discarded, it simply goes into the spirit world, the discarnate world. It goes there “stuck,” so to speak, at the same level of consciousness that it had when it lost its container, or body. Because it had no Next Level knowledge/truth (synonymous) in it, it cannot go anywhere, it cannot grow or develop, so essentially, it is dead, for it stays among those who can do nothing but cyclically and repeatedly die. But in our case, since we have been given this “gift,” this soul “deposit,” and we have chosen to pursue this knowledge, this truth, this reality, then and only then does our mind/soul have life in it, because it now has the potential to grow and develop, as long as we continue to accept the nourishment given to us, for the Next Level offers us life indefinitely as long as we are faithful servants and pleasing. But, on the other hand, if we reject or deny this truth – this nourishment – we literally die, for we have no life in us if we separate from this knowledge that comes through our Teachers, our Older Members. They are, quite literally, our lifeline. You see, our Older Members represent the Next Level, wherein resides the Chief of Chiefs, the Creator of all there is, the most High God. Realistically speaking, They are the “way, the truth, and the light.”

So, as I try to relate to you throughout this writing, try to understand that when I speak of I, I am only referring to the mind/soul. I am not referring to the body or, as we refer to it, the “vehicle” that I am wearing. As I said earlier, this vehicle is just a container. In fact, to lose this vehicle means absolutely nothing to me, and most of the time it is an encumbrance to me. But to lose my Next Level mind, this “gift,” because of denying this knowledge and, subsequently, my Teachers, who bear the only real truth, is suicide in the truest sense of the word.

In reality, I was born somewhere long ago and far away. I have returned to this civilization to finish my lessons because I was lucky enough to be literally saved – “put on ice” for further nurturing by the Next Level, the Level Above Human. That’s right, They actually save souls that They deem worthy of a chance to become new members in Their world, a very real many-membered Kingdom, above and beyond this one, located in deep space. The first and foremost requirement for salvation is simple enough – for it is merely wanting to separate from this world and go with God. This is enough to be put in the keeping of the Next Level. They will save you for further nurturing, at which time you will learn more of the other requirements for actual membership. What I know to be true is that They will care for you like no one ever has, and as long as you keep looking to Them, They will help you to grow into a new creature with life in it.

I am here because I have more lessons to learn in order to meet the requirements needed to graduate from this human kingdom to the Next Level. In order to learn these lessons, I must have a vehicle – a body to work through – a “tool” – and I do. It was “picked and prepped” just for me by the Next Level. It is a vehicle whose programming and experiences could offer me the most growth while overcoming its ties and addictions of this world, because to us, it’s not what one gets into in this world, but rather, what one gets out of in this world. What vehicles they choose for us is a carefully thought out selection made by the Next Level, because each one of us in this classroom is at a different level of growth, different grades, if you will. Most likely, the vehicles (human containers) that They chose for those of us in this graduating class are ones with genetic packages and worldly experiences that are a match for what we need to overcome.

Now, in order to accomplish this task we must have a teacher, and we do. In fact, we have two. We refer to Them as our Older Members/our Fathers, because Their minds/souls are much older and much wiser than we. They came from the Next Level to nurture us and wean us through this process of overcoming the human kingdom. They act as “midwives” of sorts. They go by the names of Ti and Do, and it is only through them, as Representatives of the Kingdom of God, while they are here at this time, that I can come even close to graduating. I simply cannot do it alone – no one can! It is only from Members of the Next Level that I can learn Next Level thinking and behavior. It is the real truth – pure and simple – and what’s more, it is what is required to become a newborn in the Next Level. It is from the Next Level that we learn restraint and dignity, with the wisdom to see our own flaws, and acknowledge what is needed to change. We learn to have no thoughts of self, no human ways. We learn to always take the higher side – the highest interpretation of what we see and hear, especially with our classmates. We learn from our Older Members to think well of each other, to always be eager to help, and not to criticize or judge. We have been taught to realize that we have no idea what someone else might be dealing with, and beyond that, we have not even been given the task to try. We learn to be objective. We want to be of the vine, a spoke in the wheel, crew-minded, and ready always to be of service in whatever task might be asked of us. In short, my Older Members, and the Next Level are my lifeline and the ones who mean everything to me. I work like crazy every day rejecting the human desires and programming of this vehicle that I am wearing in order to keep my “eye single” and focused on the Next Level through the example of my Teachers. I stay in a constant mode of asking how and what I need to change in order to be given membership as a child in Their world, Their Fathers’ world, Their Fathers’ Fathers’ world and so on up the vine to the Chief of Chiefs – the Creator of All that is. It is a chain of minds so powerful that They are indeed a source with which to be reckoned. Believe it or not, it takes a whole lot more than going to church on Sunday (or any other day for that matter), raising a nice family, and paying your bills, to get to the Next Level. The truth is that it takes plain hard work, every minute of every day, just ridding ourselves of all human thoughts and ways – “washing our robes” and becoming pure and clean as a whistle in thought, word, and deed – and doing it cheerfully, with a healthy Next Level sense of humor (another very important aspect of this classroom). Then maybe, just maybe, we will be accepted as a newborn in Their world.

Mind you, this is a very real experience where the stakes are high if you turn away, but the reward is a hundred-fold if you give your trust and loyalty to the Next Level, the only real truth that exists. But the fact remains, that if for any reason someone is not happy in doing this, Ti and Do will encourage them to go back into the world, and find what they need to make them happy. We call it free will. The Next Level designed it that way. Our option to choose will never be taken away. You know, the Level Above Human doesn't really need anybody, and as is written, "Many are picked, but few are chosen." The bottom line is, that I have to do my homework of aborting humanness and applying the lessons that I have received from Members of the Next Level about Next Level behavior and conduct. I have a future if I act accordingly.

Now, all this talk of the Second Coming? Guess what? It's really here! We are at the End of the Age, where it is our understanding that all minds/souls are back for another chance to choose what path they wish to pursue. And what I know from my Teachers is that the time has come for this Next Level classroom to close, and for us to make the transition from this world to Our Father's World. What I also know, in my heart, is that my Older Members bear the only truth there is. They are what we've all been waiting for, and for anyone to doubt their worth is literally playing with fire, and, to use my Older Members' words, "that's the Gospel!" Personally, I simply cannot imagine anyone not jumping for JOY and lapping this information up, but then I am actually living this truth, so my perspective, as well as my expectations, are more real and exciting. It's much like Jonah and the Whale, for one has to actually do this to know it. And you can, that is, if you have a mind to.

Because I find no knowledge, and therefore no truth here on Earth, I have made my choice to "lay down my life in this world" and go with my Father, Do, and His Father, Ti, to Our world, the only true Kingdom of God, that is, if They will have me. Hopefully, They will give me a passing grade and a new vehicle (body) that will certainly be more efficient and refined than the one I am wearing in this world, and will be an appropriate Next Level "suit of clothes" necessary for the task I am given in that world. Remember, my mind – my soul – is all that matters, and I must forever continue to be thirsty for Their knowledge and drink it, so I can grow closer to my Older Members. I want to become more and more grafted to the vine – be of the same mind as my Older Members, always ready to be of service – which would be an honor, to say the least.

A lot of people say I'm lucky, and they're right. And if there is but one mind out there who recognizes this priceless information, all that we have said and written will not be in vain. Because if you do recognize my Older Members as Representatives of the Kingdom of God, and if you recognize the truth that they bear, you can be pretty sure that the Next Level has found you worthy of this "gift." More importantly, if you act upon this simply because this world holds nothing for you and you want out of here, you will be saved for further nurturing and service at another level and another time, like I was.

The bottom line is that Representatives from the Next Level are the only ones who can offer you a real future. If you exert the effort, the Next Level will give you a chance to grow above and beyond this human kingdom and realize everlasting life in its truest form. So, if this information "strikes a chord," ask for help from the highest source that you can reach, even calling on the names of Ti and Do, if you desire. They will assist you, if They feel that your asking is sincere.

The truth of the matter is that the Kingdom of Heaven is, indeed, at Hand, and whether you accept this information as truth or reject it is a decision only you can make. For your sake, I hope that your decision is not made hastily. What do you think? Is this a matter of life or death?

Written from my heart, as a student of Ti and Do.
Thank-you, my Older Members, for this "Gift of Life."
I am forever grateful and always honored to be of service.

T.E.L.A.H.

The Evolutionary Level Above Human

The Next Level

I am a student of Ti and Do, and since these are critical times, I only hope that I can convey what I have been taught and how important it is to you that you understand our (my) position in this circumstance.

The Next Level, the Kingdom of Heaven, is a real physical place. It is a many-membered Kingdom. My Teacher, my Older Member, "Do" has an Older Member "Ti," and Ti has an Older Member that Ti looks to, and Ti's Older Member has an Older Member that He looks to, and on up the chain of command to the Chief of Chiefs.

Ti and Do are the present Representatives from the Kingdom of Heaven and have come to teach us, their students, the ways of the Next Level. We have made several attempts to tell the public of our mission here. The reception we have received, for the most part, has shown us that this civilization seems ready to be recycled.

Ti and Do and their students (crew) have come from a genderless, crew-minded, service-oriented world that finds greed, lust, and self-serving pursuits abhorrent. Each crew member has taken over an adult human body. Ti and Do, the two crew instructors (Teachers), were the first to take over human bodies. They then gathered up their students (crew members) and assisted them in gaining control over their chosen human bodies. These bodies are only containers for the Mind from the Next Level. The only reason we came into these mammalian "plants" (human bodies) was to gain strength and to learn control. Once we have disconnected from these bodies and gone back to the Next Level, we will receive new bodies to occupy in our new environment. Those bodies will be issued like "suits of clothes," according to the tasks we will be given.

The requirement is the same for all who might expect to find themselves in the safekeeping of the Kingdom of Heaven – each must proceed in the forsaking of all human ways, ties, addictions, thinking, gender behavior (sexuality), and be in the forward motion of becoming this new creature (literally and physically belonging to the Kingdom of God). This task can only be fully completed under the care, keeping, and tutorship of the present (incarnate) Representative(s) of that Next Kingdom.

Connecting with that Kingdom occurs only while a member of the Next Level is incarnate, as Do is today. The important issue is – the Kingdom of Heaven is here NOW in Ti and Do.

The TRUE Kingdom of God (the Next Level) is a REAL place – a reachable place. Those who seek their Creator and His Kingdom must leave everything of this world behind and only through a REP, or information left behind by a REP, can an individual learn what it takes to become a new creature that is acceptable to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. The Next Level created planet Earth, and it has been designed as a training ground for souls wanting to reach this physical, higher level above human. Anyone who sincerely desires to go to the Next Level Kingdom needs an experienced Representative from that Kingdom level to help them sort through what is Next Level and what is human.

Coming in contact with this information will force a decision. With the stand you take, you judge yourself.

The Way Things Are

We find ourselves at a point in this reality when things are seemingly as corrupt as they can get. The planet is a mess and deserves a rest. The Creators of this place are about to end this experiment, because it has outgrown its usefulness as a fair lesson ground.

Now, at the time of our departure, the Next Level has given us instruction to share this information, to present individuals with the facts of how new members are born into their house. The knowledge of this physical kingdom's existence is a concept some humans can't comprehend. By their choices, they have grown so far from their origins that they have disconnected and therefore have no recognition of this truth. Others feel a strong connection, yet choose to turn away from the real God because of what it requires of them.

To be considered acceptable in the physical Kingdom Level Beyond Human, one needs to prove, while in a human body, that they have sufficiently outgrown the human kingdom. Your spirit/soul is the you which can survive to receive further nourishment at a future time.

The bodies in the Level Above Human are neither male nor female, they have no gender consciousness. So, if a soul has not worked at overcoming even thoughts of a sensual nature, it would not be suitable or happy as a nonsexual creature. There is great value in this separation of mind and body. We see how this mammalian activity is a basis of physical self-centering, causing the focus to turn from above. Shifting into lateral thinking, self-concerns become more important. How do I (the body) look? What does that other person think of me? How can I make them notice me? This continues to become more of an obstruction because of what has become little more than a side-effect of an addiction: reproduction. Having offspring takes a lot of attention – none is really left for the Chief. Soul growth is stunted.

Society presents the public with images of perfect relationships. Do these really exist? Family structure has not changed for thousands of years. Doesn't it seem like it's time to outgrow this tribal experience? Considering the extremely high failure rate, and the current overpopulation, it seems only logical.

Genetic human families are like roots – they hold you to the Earth. Undisputed “moral” obligations have you feel guilty. You've been taught that you belong to the human family and are responsible for the well-being of its members. These morals are detrimental to forward motion. Souls are only responsible for themselves and their relationship with their Creator, no one else. The Church, using guilt and fear to impose its beliefs on the masses, assuming a connection with God, has become its own dreaded anti-Christ. The Christians, following the teachings of Paul, who was not a disciple, walk righteously down a dead-end street. No one seems to wonder why their beloved Jesus was crucified (a punishment for political crimes).

The reason is because a Representative's mission is not to bring peace and love as today's country-club religion would have you believe. In order to be a follower, one has to leave all possessions, ties, and attachments of this world and physically go with Him. He offers them a personal relationship. He shows them by His example and instructs them on the behavior that is appropriate in the Next Level. When His time on Earth ends, if a disciple has not changed sufficiently to take up membership in His Father's Kingdom, but his effort and progress is acceptable to the Next Level, he would be “saved” to be “born again.” All souls which have had a previous association are back again now, at the End of the Age. As was promised, a Next Level teacher is once again present, in the flesh, to guide them.

Ti and Do's present task is to assist us in preparing ourselves to be born into their Older Member's world. With their help, we are determined to overcome all ties to the human environment to a degree of acceptability for entrance into the Kingdom Level Above Human. Working against Lucifer and the space aliens enables us to become stronger than they were when they were cast out long ago. They lost their connection, and therefore don't recognize our connection as valuable. They had to justify their own position by saying the Next Level was not good. They think they're saving us from misprogramming because they're so misprogrammed. Their influence is the catalyst that helps make our evolutionary leap possible.

The government of the western world has appointed itself world police. Using responsibility and guilt, they dictate what a “normal” person is required to do – they play God. They falsely believe they have the objectivity to judge what is right and wrong. They feel obligated to impose their ideas on others with threats of containment or death.

The lower forces support a one-world government. If everyone is forced to be the same, no choices are available, and no souls will ever advance beyond the confines of the Earth. Humans will continue to do the will of the space aliens and eventually destroy themselves. “They” also promote the new-age concept of becoming one with the cosmic consciousness. Meditation, mantras, and many other techniques are employed to reach this state of consciousness. Truth is, when the flesh dies, the genetic emanation (you) automatically enters the spirit world surrounding us. This is hell because these identities still have all the likes, dislikes, wants, and desires they did while in the flesh, only now they don't have the hardware to experience them. Have you ever done something and then felt ashamed or surprised by your actions, feeling they were unlike you? Chances are you unknowingly let a disembodied spirit use your body. This is how they experience sensations. Using your hardware they can feel alive.

Channeling is a good example of a person inviting discarnate spirits to enter their body and speak through them. This is not recommended. Many spirits invade uninvited; there is no need to be so accommodating. Someone suffering from schizophrenia or multiple personalities is an example of spirits in conflict for dominance over a single container. Possession is also a similar occurrence. These are extreme situations. Most individuals house several compatible spirits that have worked out a sort of time-share agreement. They work together for the most part and make up the characteristics of the personality. Emotional outbreaks are often caused by the invasion of discarnates wanting physical sensation. You lose control and an influence uses your body. Anything from sensuality to depression can give discarnates the feelings they crave. A lot of people become addicted to feeling certain ways because of these invaders.

The genetic package you are wearing is also responsible for a lot of your characteristics/habits. A compilation of all your physical ancestry, the body itself literally has a mind of its own, but ultimately you are the choice mechanism. An important part of the Creator's plan is that all beings have free will at all times. By their choices they should be able to grow closer to, or farther from the source of truth. At this time, the seeming lack of choices available to the public makes their growth potential more difficult – requiring more effort. This infringes on the Next Level's intentions for this garden. Humans are kept in survival mode by their preoccupation with making a living, acquiring material possessions, and fornication. What is the goal? Will they ever be happy?

Playing society's games gets you nowhere in God's eyes. Seeing beyond these limits is usually one of the first steps in advancement toward the Next Kingdom.

A Farewell Message to Those Who Remain Behind

I believe I speak with the same feeling and concern for you, as do my other crew-mates, as I attempt to convey in a few sentences the gist of the understanding and awareness that has taken us many years to reawaken to. It's difficult to find a way to adequately express these things using this primitive human vocabulary. It's even more difficult to attempt to override the deceptive programming and lies the opposing forces have carefully worked to instill in each human since the beginning of this present civilization. It makes it almost impossible for one to recognize the truth when members of the Next Level return to share it. Still, I know if it's right for you to connect with this, my lack of ability in this area will not be an interference. Now that you've had a chance to read over our history and to begin to digest some of the Next Level ways and concepts therein, hopefully you've become aware of a few things:

A Next Level deposit is like a computer chip or a piece of hardware that functions in two ways. First, it acts as a homing device to guide one to the opportunity to connect with Teachers, or Representatives, sent from our Kingdom. This usually occurs at a subconscious level. Second, it provides a container for housing Next Level Mind or information. We are nourished by our Teachers as we learn the ways of behavior and conduct appropriate to that level. This information, or "Mind," is added to our container/deposit, causing our storehouse to be increased. As this occurs, we begin to think and act in ways where we can more easily relate to other members of that Kingdom. A child in kindergarten doesn't associate with college students until he has grown to their level, and in comparison, it is a far greater leap from the human kingdom to that of the Next Level. As long as we have a connection with an Older Member and choose to draw from this source, then our potential for growth is unlimited. However, we always have the choice of whether to use human mind or Next Level Mind. What you are is the choice or free-will mechanism which determines, moment-by-moment, what to do and what to think about. Your choices control the direction and speed of your growth, or lack of it. You can even regress, becoming more primitive and decadent in behavior.

This information cannot even be fully understood, except by someone with a "deposit," who is well along in the process of learning Next Level ways. What is important to you, the reader, is whether you may have been given that gift of a deposit. If this be the case, and if nothing is greater than your desire to live by Next Level ways, then you will soon grow to see beyond the insignificant existence here that nations and world powers teach is to be considered an admirable and fulfilling way to live, and die. You will come to recognize that even at its best, the human experience becomes nothing more than a child's sandbox to one who is ready to move on up into the next evolutionary level of existence.

Our mission here was twofold. One part was to allow new potential graduates into the Next Level the opportunity to gain experiences that would strengthen them, and prove themselves worthy of receiving issue of a true Next Level vehicle. We all share this goal. It will be accomplished when we have demonstrated a sufficient level of control (behavior and thinking) over these human vehicles, in order for our souls to be a match with our new Next Level vehicles. This can only be realized through the close supervision and guidance of our "midwives" – the role played by Ti and Do – as Representatives of the Evolutionary Level Above Human. And only upon receiving issue of our new vehicles can we begin to fully participate in the activities of that advanced level – growing and learning from those who are older and wiser. Needless to say, we all look forward to that day with great anticipation.

Another important aspect of the crew's mission here was to share our knowledge of the Next Level with those who might be ready to receive it. Through this effort, new deposits of the Next Level can begin to germinate. We don't have the capacity to judge who might be ready; only those in the heavens who are overseeing this can determine if and when these gifts should be made. They sow the "seeds," and we nourish the germination. That's how it was designed.

This brings us to the topic that's ultimately important to you. If there is something here in what we have shared that speaks to you, and deep inside you know that it means more to you than anything this planet has to offer – then the opportunity to some day graduate into the Next Level will also be given to you. We cannot say when this will happen; but you can be assured that if you seek to understand and live by the Next Level ways we've taught, you will be in the safekeeping of the Kingdom of Heaven. Be awake and prepared. Remember, you cannot do it on your own. It takes the close guidance of someone sent from that advanced level to take you through it. The transition to becoming a beginning Next Level member is the most difficult undertaking any human can undergo or even imagine – yet the reward is priceless. Imagine being able to serve, learn, and grow among others with only a pure, selfless motivation, in service to the Creator, connecting with a future – potentially forever.

The planet is not far from undergoing a major recycling. This world has become polluted and corrupted on both physical and invisible levels. Many groups of space aliens are competing for the Earth's spoils. They seek not just bodies, but souls in allegiance to their cause – their point of view – as well. Choices are being made. Their influence has become so strong and manipulative that it is difficult for anyone to grow in a positive direction. Yet nothing is lost. Knowing this would happen, the Next Level always has contingency plans. It appears that it is time for them to once more wipe the planet clean of all pollution and corruption (environmentally and in the spirit world) and rejuvenate the Earth, giving it a fresh start. Those souls who have shown their commitment to the Next Level will be saved and replanted back here at a later season, or into an Earth-equivalent classroom to take up where they left off. As long as they continue in forward motion, there will come a time when the opportunity to recognize and connect with an Older Member(s) from our Kingdom presents itself.

We have just about completed our task here. We feel that the time we have remaining is short. I cannot express how pleased I am to be returning home soon. It seems as if we have been here for a long time. Yet I know that from the Next Level perspective it's been about a half hour. I only hope that my performance and effort on this mission will be found pleasing to my Older Members and their Older Members. This is all that really matters to me; even more important than receiving a Next Level body.

If you know you're ready to act upon this information, then I hope you will choose wisely and ask frequently for help from the Next Level on how to best proceed. As long as we're here, we will try to assist you in whatever capacity we're shown is appropriate. Once we leave, then base your decisions using the criteria of the information we've left behind for you. You will be carefully watched after and nurtured in response to your asking and desire. Bear in mind, true growth comes in many forms – often what you might least expect – and always requires effort on your part. Maintaining an overview of the situation, along with a sense of humor, will greatly aid you in pushing through any test that comes your way. I wish you the best and hope to see you back home someday.

My Ode to Ti and Do!

What This Class Has Meant to Me – EVERYTHING!

How can I express my testimony when mere human words could never be adequate to describe my Infinite gratitude for the Next Level and their Representatives, Ti and Do, for rescuing me from a nightmare of a Dead End existence. It seemed as though I was drowning in an ocean of the blind, lost, unconscious, walking dead. Everyone pretended to “Know” what was going on, but they all seemed to be drowning in their own sea of misinformation and misinterpretation of GOD’s (the CREATOR’s) designed laws.

The humans seemed completely distracted, self-satisfied slaves. All their pursuits and paths going nowhere but in circles. Like programmed puppets worshipping false myths, rituals, futile belief systems and counterfeit fantasy gods. I felt angry, alienated, hopeless, incomplete and utterly unsatisfied in this world no matter what I tried. Many times I could barely keep from going into a complete coma, trying to stay awake enough to muster a desperate constant prayer, to keep my hope and motivation alive in this space alien HELL. Luckily, having received a “DEPOSIT” or “GIFT” of recognition led to my constant ASKING and finally finding the real truth (facts) about the Kingdom of Heaven and meeting my Older Members Ti and Do, who were like “LIFE” preservers in this void of traps, deception and ILLusion. So, the life of the new creature was growing within, despite the vile, insidious lower forces and the empty people that surrounded me who claimed to be seeking God. None of it seemed real. What did seem very real were the “REPS” from the real Kingdom of God, offering information about the steps to get to the Kingdom of Heaven.

I want to be considered as a possible candidate for viability in their world, the real Kingdom of Heaven, the headquarters of all creation. That is my deepest, fondest dream – provided I can be pleasing to the Next Level through Ti and Do – dropping all that is not Next Level fast. It’s hard work but simple. I KNOW that the only thing that really matters at all is keeping my eyes on the Next Level*. My only desire is to be grafted to my Older Members’ unlimited mind right on up to the Chief of Chiefs, to nourish the new creature I’m becoming. I’m determined with all my will and effort to have only a high Next Level vibration, consciousness, and identity – to totally overcome this primitive world. I will not bring any of this world’s worthless desires with me, by dropping all humanness and mammalian pursuits. I will escape death’s disguise – the death that humans are tricked into by following any of the ways of this world promoted by the lower forces/space aliens. I must turn all of the negative of this world into a positive, into strength, flexibility, and control. What makes me feel most alive is sharing Next Level information and knowing and growing closer to my Teachers. I thirst for the unknown beyond my limited scope of awareness, while upgrading my standards hour by hour, situation by situation – striving for more maturity and growth constantly. I find myself always asking, “What is it I’m overlooking that is unlike the Next Level”?

I want to leave this world with some kind of record of my respect and honor for Ti and Do and the Next Level – for their sacrifice and the price they paid to drop down into this space alien hell to help me really change into a new Next Level creature. I thank them for helping me strive to overcome this primitive level/world, to know and sustain who I am, and for my hopefully growing connection to the Next Level. With my every prayer, every passing moment, every ounce of energy, effort, will, heartbeat, breath, thought, feeling, actions both unconscious and conscious, I, Qstody (quest), strive to PROVE I’m possibly worthy to be considered a viable candidate in their world. I want to be only a keen, quick, pure, positive, clear, clean, vessel – attempting with all my will and effort to be pleasing to the Next Level in all respects, all the time, at all costs and PROVE it! Thank you for helping me restore my virginity and dignity. Please give me the brave heart and courage to endure to the end of this mission and go to my home of origin, your world! Anything is Possible with the Next Level! Thank you, all my classmates, for each and everyone of you, for your help and encouragement.

THANK YOU TI and DO FOR EVERYTHING, for helping me remember who I am and especially your example of beings from the REAL Kingdom of Heaven. What’s next?

The Hidden Facts of Ti and Do

There are some facts that are hidden simply because they require some effort to see them. For me and my classmates, the facts that Ti and Do brought defined and explained all the questions any individual could have in their search of a purpose for their existence. This planet is a classroom and it was designed to be outgrown. Taking advantage of this classroom is not really possible without some guidance from the more advanced level of existence that designed the lessons. If we think we can figure things out on our own, we will only find ourselves incapable of seeing through the mass illusion on the “holodeck” of this planet. This is not about some antiquated religion or some “New Age” spiritualism. This is about what is real and what is not.

At calculated times, a window opens and “Representatives” are sent from the level that created this “holodeck.” Ti and Do are the “Reps” sent at this time from that Level Above Human. They bring the formula of how to get out of the human kingdom and how to connect with those that created this planet. It is clear to anyone who begins to understand their teachings that they speak a language no one else knows. They have knowledge that no one else teaches, and they are not programmed by this world’s structure. They understand how things should work on this planet. The facts they bring are the same brought to this civilization before, but it has been carefully hidden by the lower forces in control of this planet: if human behavior is to be outgrown, an individual must separate from all ties to this world in order to not be encumbered by them. This separation process requires sorting out misinformation from the “truth” (facts), which makes it necessary to send a “Representative” who incarnates in human form. You can’t see through the maze without the assistance of those who already know the reason for the puzzle.

To even begin to decipher the puzzle, an individual must be given a “deposit” – containing a soul from the the Level Above Human. Only then would they have the capacity to literally pull their roots from this garden (planet) and graft onto a new vine through Reps of that Next Kingdom. This non-mammalian Level Above Human is the one that planted the seeds of all the human “souls” on this garden. How the soul grows, and its option to return to the family tree it originated from is designed to be part of that soul’s choice. The soul needs assistance to be sure it is grafting to the right “family” and to make a proper graft. If a strong graft is not made, the soul will not survive in the new environment.

Ti and Do simply referred to the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human – that designed and created this planet and its “plants” (human bodies and the spirit/minds they contain) – as the “Next Level.” The Next Level created the human level for the purpose of allowing new souls the opportunity to go through specific tests for growth to gain membership into their level of existence. On the human level, once a deposit is given to an individual, that soul can choose to draw knowledge from a higher or lower source of mind. One source will lead them towards the Next Level, and one will lead them into the opposition’s camp. If the soul chooses to grow in Next Level thinking, it will at some point be given the choice to actually graft to the Next Level, through the present incarnate Reps, and can potentially receive a more advanced “vehicle” (body) belonging to that higher Kingdom Level. This natural design has been clouded by the misinformation perpetuated by today’s religions.

No matter what concept of religion or “God” is part of our programming, we have to start over – discarding those programs for a more real one. The people and events that started religions were an outgrowth from attempts by Next Level Reps to allow individuals to know the truth (facts). Over time, pieces of the “truth” became compromised into a religion’s watered-down facsimile. In order for more to accept their “truth,” each religion became a belief system with token rituals of homage and very little self-discipline. Once a movement becomes a religion, it’s already lost the practical “truth” it had to offer. It’s plain facts – that is what truth is. Once it is even called a religion, it is corrupted.

Some religions may have developed from information originally given by the Next Level, but they seem to dwell on one part of that information and misunderstand other parts. They think they have the full understanding and therefore limit the grade to which they can attain in the classroom of this planet. They can miss when it is time for a new “Representative” to come and help them continue their lessons. They may “believe” in the “messengers” of the past (e.g., Jesus, Buddha), but don’t understand their message or the reason for their behavior. Individuals today are so confused by religions’ “miracle” fairy tale stories and their brand of “family values” that when the unvarnished truth comes, it sounds foreign. Next Level information teaches renunciation of the world – giving up everything of this world to go to another level of existence where there is “life” – a future – through the present or current Rep.

Corrupters of Next Level information even have the “moral” leaders of this planet pushing their set of “family values,” but where was this kind of behavior at all advocated by the previous “Reps” of the Next Level. In fact, the type of life these “Reps” gave as examples was to renounce all forms of “fornication” and human family ties. Marriage was designed as a restraint at the human level for the replicating machinery. But it was never the desired human behavior. Somehow, things have become so twisted in this society’s values that marriage is the only acceptable norm and celibacy is a foreign concept.

An individual can override the primitive mammalian behavior of the body. Even the highest gurus and the top echelons of some of the oldest religions try to follow past instructions from the Next Level and pursue celibate lifestyles to gain an understanding of how to overcome the desires of the body so it will not interfere with the direction of their mind. This present civilization doesn’t seem to realize that this is not a new concept, but an old wisdom that has been part of this planet’s cultures for some time.

When the Next Level sends Reps and makes “deposits” in some humans, those humans will start to realize that they were not limited to propagation and death. They realize there is more to what they as individuals can become in the human world, and they begin to see through human-mammalian behavior. Even at the beginning of this civilization, it was never a necessity for humans to propagate. But when humans overrun the planet and become so preoccupied with the act, the Next Level’s intention or options are even more obscured. Religions give humans reason to justify their sensual addictions – that is, through marriage and “praying” for riches. The Next Level does not answer prayers that will have humans become more addicted to human ways. Essentially, religions have made it OK to have all the inducements of this world so you can go to your death without guilt. And they even ensure the “death” of the individual (soul) because of their twisted belief system. They have described true “hell” and stagnation as “heaven.”

If an individual is questioning any of what they are supposed to “believe” or even questions the authorities of this planet, it is a likely indication they have been given a “deposit” from the Next Level. A first-time deposit is like an inactivated computer chip of Next Level information that is given to those who show potential to outgrow this primitive existence. This deposit can give the individual the desire to seek out the Next Level’s Representatives and the information they bear. The activation of this deposit happens when the individual is in some way confronted by Next Level information. They can either choose to acknowledge the possibility of the existence of the Next Level or to disregard any further curiosity. If an individual chooses not to pursue the Next Level further, then the computer chip or deposit will not germinate into further understanding and becomes dormant. The individual then becomes fair game for those in opposition to the Next Level.

Ti and Do came to expose those who masquerade as “gods” and who would get individuals who possess deposits off the track with their misinformation. These manipulators use the world’s religions and pieces of the “truth” to try to keep humans from seeing the reality of the Next Level. We have labeled them “Space Aliens” or “Luciferians.” Yes, they are real, and yes, they use what is termed as “UFOs.” But their existence has carefully been made into legends or jokes to mask the reality of these physical beings. They have technology more advanced than that of humans, but behavior that is no better. They have the same mammalian and egotistical behavior that any human must learn to overcome. They even see the Next Level as just another space “race” to outsmart for the control of this planet. These “space aliens” at one time had deposits and were in training for service to the Next Level, but through weakness, aborted their opportunity to further their Next Level knowledge (mind). Instead, many of them chose a “cosmic consciousness,” which allows them to deny the existence of their Creator and perpetuate their ignorance.

The agenda of these impostors is to distract and tempt those with deposits into their camp, since this is the only way they have to increase their numbers. They are in reality, a remnant of human-equivalent space-alien races from previous garden experiments of the Next Level. This planet is fertile ground with some specific items they no longer have available to them. What humans do not yet realize is that once they have been given a deposit from the Next Level, they can understand and do things they couldn’t before. With this valuable piece of hardware, it makes them an important target to various space races. But no matter what forces try to work against those individuals with deposits seeking advancement, it only offers a greater opportunity to discern reality from illusion – the impostors from the true Creators. Members of the Next Level are masters at turning any seemingly negative circumstance into a positive. This capability is also a prerequisite for any potential member into their Kingdom.

Part of the illusion perpetuated by the space aliens is that the human creature is just the body. Ti and Do helped our classroom see that the human level is so programmed by the norms of this society that they think they are the “vehicles” (bodies) they wear. It is time for humans to take control and realize their mind/spirit is the true driver of the body. If we allow the body to dictate our desires, it is much like the horse deciding the direction the rider is to go. When humans unconsciously think they are the body, it leads to a false perception that equates happiness with the satisfaction of the body’s sensory desires, instead of knowing that the mind/spirit can find pleasure in service to a higher level of existence. An “identity” is the same thing as an individual. So, if someone identifies with mind/spirit, he can discipline the body to whatever degree he chooses – separating his relationship with the body in order to have better control over it.

Not until you put into action what you believe do you even begin to see the wisdom behind it. That wisdom became quite evident as Ti and Do helped us to take charge in a new way, thinking carefully before we speak or take an action. We do this to be sure every action will be done consciously and that the action is not a subconscious desire of the vehicle (body), or an influence of some other kind. We work to become more aware of the type of programming we allow into our biological computers (bodies). This is the only way to rid ourselves of the faulty programming (misinformation) that is an inherent part of the genetic structure of these vehicles (bodies). In our classroom, we experienced how lack of effort limited our perception, and how steady effort in the direction of personal discipline gave us clear results and further insight. Nothing could be forced on us by others because the desire had to be our own or the action would yield nothing. This is what it means to have true freedom.

Freedom, on the human level, means doing your own thing regardless of how you interfere with others’ freedom. Freedom, the way the Level Above Human intended, means making your choices, while being considerate of others. Learning how to do that means looking beyond your selfish concerns and becoming more helpful to others. Thinking about how your actions affect others is another essential principle for those wanting to attain higher service. No matter how “free” humans think they are, they will always be in service to one group or another just by what they participate in. The full spectrum of options given to individuals of the planet allows each of us to make the choices that lead to selfish and destructive service, or to see the real freedom that comes as a result of being in command of the flesh you wear.

In the task of reprogramming our thoughts, we began to realize that there are many “influences” affecting our minds that can add confusion when we are trying to get out of this Earthly maze. As students, we soon became well acquainted with the reality of minds without bodies (discarnates) that inhabit this planet by the billions. “Ghost” stories are written about these spirits, but their reality is still a mystery to most. We experience the presence of discarnate minds in the form of thoughts we hear in our heads. Sometimes these thoughts are like a pest that will not go away. Mainly, these pests originate from these discarnate minds who think they are acting as “guardian angels” to those incarnate in vehicles, in order to fulfill their own desires. We’ve had to become keen to the games these discarnates play. In order to be the only “driver” in our vehicles (bodies), we began to learn how to consciously do a “brainwashing” (aborting these thoughts), because we don’t want to be unconsciously manipulated. It is as if these discarnates had a preordained mission to cause disharmony within us and between individuals.

The classroom circumstance that Ti and Do set up to accelerate our learning tested our grasp of Next Level principles in daily situations. Together, as classmates, we have the same goal of gaining control of our vehicles and we have tried to help each other without being critical. This was part of the test, as we have seen how easy it is to misinterpret each other and to become intolerant of what others deal with, while not seeing our own misjudgments. We, at times, forget the way the discarnate influences can use our mouths and then afterwards regret it. Maintaining a non-judgmental and helpful attitude has been a major key to having a smooth and efficient crew. After all, we have been in training to become part of a Next Level Crew functioning in one of their Heavenly crafts.

Our classroom is a great deal of fun, except at those times when individuals don't rise above petty human responses and readily accept new lesson steps. We know we have to work diligently at being the only "driver" of our vehicles and must strive to have cleaner minds to even begin to understand the basics of Next Level's conduct and way of life. This is not an easy task, but for those of us with the tenacity to not give up when we fail in our control, but to only become more determined to make correction, we receive a kind of gift from the Next Level. This gift of discernment and better judgment (Next Level mind) makes it easier for selfish concerns to drop away.

Each time Ti and Do give a greater understanding of how differently the Next Level operates, the picture of where we are going becomes more exciting. The real Next Level is always changing and growing – a place of constant learning and service. To be a part of that way of life requires changing into a new creature metamorphically, like a caterpillar becomes a butterfly. With all the misinformation about the Next Level put out by religions, it is not surprising that individuals have a hard time grasping that the Next Level exists in the literal Heavens and is more physical and more real than the human world. They exist at a higher, more refined "frequency" so humans can only see them when the Next Level decides it is the right time. They do relate to us by using shuttles which humans have labeled "UFOs" but these are of a more advanced technology than those used by "space aliens." But it is even more important to understand that the way of life in the Next Level is like a structured society of members who respect each other's experience and wisdom. That respect is carefully given to each member and all gain from what others have learned. Those who are more experienced and wiser teach less experienced members in whatever task they are assigned. They are beyond jealousies and competitiveness. Their strongest motivation is to serve their "Older Member" – the one who fathered (assisted) them in gaining membership into that Kingdom. They recognize a natural "Chain of Mind" that some religions have referred to as the "Holy Spirit" (more pure or higher-grade Next Level mind) that originates from the oldest and wisest mind – the One we call the "Chief of Chiefs."

The mind (knowledge) that an individual accepts determines what they are becoming and what allegiances they are forming. That is why no one can divorce themselves from the responsibility of how their actions show who they serve. They are either heading towards membership in the Next Level or being part of the "space alien races" or just becoming fuel for when the planet (garden) has its natural recycling period.

As we became stronger and more filled with Next Level mind (knowledge), we realized we had started this task before and were just picking up where we had left off. The strength gained in this classroom circumstance would be essential if we were to be ready to occupy new, more advanced physical vehicles (bodies) that are used in the Next Level. If we could not handle the simple machinery of the human body because we let it rule our desires, we would not be able to handle the more advanced biological computers (bodies) needed to function in the Next Level's environment after graduation.

I know I have not expressed as clearly as I would have liked to, the knowledge Ti and Do have given, but I wanted to give an insight into how much this experience has meant to me. I have a deep gratitude to Ti and Do for the patience they have had throughout this task. They are the best examples of what I am trying to become. No "guru" or preacher could touch the standards they maintain in their own conduct in teaching us to live as members of the Next Level. We came from the Heavens and we are going back to the Heavens. Some may think that this information is too far out and incomprehensible, but therein lies the reality of who they are becoming, who I am, and who Ti and Do are.

The following may appear to be fiction, but it is fact. Inhabitants of planet Earth are advised to consider the contents thoroughly before drawing hasty conclusions.

“Away Team” from Deep Space Surfaces Before Departure

Shocking as it might seem, and despite the knowledge that this account may threaten the very core, the fabric of every belief system held sacred by the general population of this planet, it is our responsibility to get this information out. What follows is a sincere effort at describing this writer’s personal experiences and understandings of the events as they transpired and of things yet to come.

We’ve been here on the “surface” for this current visit 22 years plus, Earth time (approximately 31½ minutes by our time). And although I know the completion of our task is imminent – the climax about to begin – the strategy of the opposition at times seems all but impenetrable (almost overwhelming). They have succeeded in programming the human population – prior to our arrival – to believe that the physical reality of our existence – of our being here – is some kind of fantasy, even to the point of ridicule. Yet, ironically, it is the only reality. Our world created this one. Older Members from our world created the planet itself and every living creature on it. And they carefully designed and positioned the Earth in such a way to ensure its life-giving, yet cyclical, qualities. As far as human life is concerned, it is the only creative garden currently active in this part of the heavens or nearby universe. And for that reason, it has been the repeated and continuous target of space-alien life-forms who wish to exploit the unique resources provided by this planet, including its inhabitants, for their own intended purposes.

Knowing what we were up against, we tried to make our arrival easier for the inhabitants to accept – we suspect that we were participants in deliberately crashing some expendable spacecraft – some with body specimens (genderless) – as physical evidence in preparation for our upcoming visitation. The opposition countered with a successful cover-up and disinformation campaign followed by their own copycat crashes (with some mammalian specimens) to deliberately confuse the humans, to keep them off-balance, frightened, and unsuspecting.

Metaphorically speaking, in 20th Century human vernacular, I am a member of the current “Away Team” deployed from deep space. As a young and extremely fortunate student, I have been working closely with the “Captain” and he in turn with the “Admiral” (Chief Administrator of this civilization since its inception) on this remarkably complex mission. Our home is in the most distant part of the heavens – in a place you may refer to as the Evolutionary Level Above Human. Our time is so completely different from the design implemented here on this creative planet, that to us, we have visited – physically had a representative(s) on the surface – about every other day. However, in Earth time this equates to roughly once every 2000 years, with a few exceptions. Thus, the major physical visitation prior to this one was approximately 2000 years ago.

Each time after our departure, the opposition – human equivalent space-alien – have turned the contents of our visits into your religions in order to manipulate the population. They take our words and twist them to their own ends and then attribute them to us (last time, specifically to my Older Member). They are quite skilled at it, succeeding in deluding many. Perhaps you might think this unfair, that our world would permit them to corrupt the human population in this way. But, as we further our discussion, you will see that this too was part of the design – to permit a full spectrum of options to be presented – in order for each soul to be provided with unrestricted choices.

This planet was created much like a womb for souls in order to create new members, offspring, for our higher, more advanced Kingdom Level. In other words, human is not the top of the “evolutionary” ladder, although the term “evolutionary” is not exactly accurate, as you will come to understand. Human is just a stepping stone, or more accurately a gestation circumstance, for members of a more advanced, more refined, but still very physical, level of life. You might describe this Next Level’s “reproductive” processes as metamorphic, as opposed to mammalian. In other words, in humans selected for their desire to move forward (determined by our standards not by human standards), a “chip” or “deposit” of sorts is implanted in that individual, which provides the recipient with a whole new set of advanced “programs” that he can then tap into if he should choose to do so. That program, however, can’t be “accessed” or tapped into, until in a “classroom” circumstance where that consciousness is renewed (in that individual) by a Teacher (Representative of that Level). At a subconscious level that “deposit” has that individual feel that they “don’t fit” in the human world, or that what the human world has to offer is not satisfying. A part of this “deposit” includes the beginnings of a physical entity that humans refer to as a soul, which is, very literally, a gift of true life (offering the recipient a way out of the perennial cycle).

The “soul” is a physical container residing within the body that can house living mind (or Next Level information), without which no life can be present. If filled sufficiently with that mind – synonymous with higher-level information and knowledge – that new soul will never need to experience death, or loss of consciousness, potentially forever. It may be difficult to accept and/or comprehend, but only those humans who have been “chosen” as potential new members of that Next Kingdom have a “soul” (a part of our deposit “gift”). All other humans are “plants” that contain what we would call a spirit (the informational mind or “software” of a human plant).

Each new “soul” has the option to draw nourishment (knowledge and information, or what we call living mind) from present Representatives of that Kingdom (Evolutionary Level Above Human) who incarnate on the planet periodically (such as the Captain or the Admiral). Once the gestation is complete, the new creature sheds its outer shell or human body, which can happen in several ways, and takes on a new physical body appropriate to the advanced species. The individual is then accepted as a beginner in a new Kingdom Level which has abilities and capacities beyond the scope of human perception. In your history, you have called our home the Domain of God or the Kingdom of God – but the heavens have so many so-called “gods,” that there is no accurate description in your religions of the activities, qualities, or placement of our world.

Because of the override corruption of the present civilization, this is the last scheduled visit before its recycling. It is the End of the Age. The human population, under space alien “thought domination,” has become irreversibly perverse and rotten. These alien groups attempt to keep the planet and the civilization prepped so that it is not a productive environment for our intended purposes. At this time, they have succeeded in disturbing its usefulness beyond repair. The population has become so thoroughly addicted to sensual pleasures, so dog-eat-dog, so based on greed and the aggressor swallowing up the weaker, that it is in retrograde advancement. The planet itself, however, has served its creator very well, but it desperately needs a breather – a time to recover from the abuse the humans (under the influence of the aliens) have put it through – a time to lie fallow after a thorough spading under.

The Captain’s return to Earth this time from the Evolutionary Level Above Human was for the purpose of assisting the Chief Administrator with the conclusion of this task. His assignment was to incarnate into a 40-year-old male vehicle (that had been picked and prepped for him) in a “rank” equivalent to “Captain,” with crew to follow. However, since the opposition had become so strong in their hold on the planet, the “Admiral” (Chief Administrator/his Older Member) came with him for the first 12-13 years (of the current mission) as his partner, incarnating into a female vehicle, which was a “first” for this civilization (ushering in a period on this planet of greater equality between the genders).

It doesn’t work any longer for members of our species to circulate at the human level in the bodies indigenous to our Kingdom, not only because it would frighten the humans, but the gap in circuitry and the ability to communicate would be all but impossible. So our method is to incarnate into – for our soul to take control of – an adult human vehicle (body) that has been “tagged” – set aside for us – since its beginning. (Next Level souls/minds, when incarnating into the human kingdom, can function only in a body/vehicle that has reached its maturity.) Don’t forget that our Older Members created all life on this planet, so they have the right to use that life, that plant or container, as they see fit. The Chief Administrator and the Captain assisted each other in pulling or bringing their souls and minds into their respective vehicles (bodies). In other words, they had to attempt an interface between the more advanced circuitry of their highly evolved minds with the primitive and limited capacities of a human plant, specifically the neural network of the brain (computer), and do so without completely overloading its capacities and damaging its various vital functions. This tedious process took approximately 3 years Earth time – no easy task I am told. In other words, it took that long to get in enough basic awareness of who they were and what the assignment was to begin their task. (The design was such that the mind came in, in gradual stages so as not to be out of reach to the students they were attempting to assist).

The next phase of their current mission was to locate or bring together the developing “souls” who had begun a gestation with them at prior visitations. Gestation can take more than one lifetime/incarnation – more than one trimester – to come to term. At the End of the Age, it was now time for some of us to complete our development, our metamorphosis, as viable new creatures (beginners) ready for elementary tasks in a new Kingdom.

At this time, all souls who have ever received any degree of Next Level nourishment from the beginning of this civilization until now, are back and will be tested once again. One last time all must be confronted with whether or not they want to make an “all out” effort at being “reconciled” to the Next Level, which means trying again. This requires letting go of what they have accepted in defeat – the information from the lower alien groups, that is, the programming that these alien groups have instilled in the minds of humans.

The space alien races primarily do their influencing from behind the scenes. They target human individuals who seek prominence (who naively become willing “mediums”) with a technique which might be described as radio-wave thought transmissions, bombarding these selected individuals with the specific intent of influencing them into unknowingly promoting the aliens’ concepts and misinformation. At the same time, however, the aliens attempt to saturate the atmosphere in general with similar thought transmissions hoping to influence the behavior of the population as a whole. They have very nearly perfected the art of purveying misinformation, although they are frequently convinced themselves that their actions are truly beneficial to the development of the naïve population, unaware at times of the fallacies in their own thinking. In colloquial language, they are the most effective conceptual “spin masters” operating on or off the surface of this globe. If seen in the physical, these human equivalent space aliens can generally be identified as having either mammalian or reptilian reproductive systems. (They may be differentiated in this way from the physical characteristics of our species – Next Level bodies are genderless and very pleasant looking, oftentimes somewhat childlike or wisely gentle in their appearance. However, we are also aware of what appears to be a copycat tactic of other space-alien races who use genderless, robotic, or bionic robotic, creatures to do their own bidding, which certainly tends to confuse the issue.)

All these lower space-alien races are limited in life span with no capacity for creating new souls. Thus, the only way they can populate their species is to win the allegiance of the souls created by the Next Level. And herein lies the free-will factor. Each individual housing a soul has a neutral element in their identity. That individual is a composite made up of essentially two polarities of mind. There is the mind that resides within the soul pocket, which is the Next Level mind in both origin and quality. And then there is the human “plant” mind, the mind which resides within the vehicular container but outside the soul itself. The individual is the choicemaker deciding at every juncture what he permits to enter into his package. And as a result of his choices, he aligns himself accordingly with one side or the other. Our Kingdom – our species – does not need new members. Occasionally, however, it does offer the gift of membership as it is doing now. It is never imposed or aggressively pushed. Those with deposits must pursue that option with every ounce of effort they can muster in order to become acceptable. The tactics of the space aliens are just the opposite. Aggression and deception are their norm, along with the building-up of ego in their servants with praise (and prominence), for in their mind, the desired end justifies the means.

Not only do the space aliens need new souls to increase their ranks, they need replacement bodies as well. Their bodies are temporal, subject to both death and decay. They come to this planet to literally rape and plunder its creative resources – their continued existence depends on it. As we said before, a creative garden is specifically designed to have life-giving properties found nowhere else in the nearby heavens. So they come here to acquire the relatively young, virile human DNA which they use as part of a hybridization process, to produce the bodies that they need (to inhabit) to extend their own physical lives. Their homeworlds (the limited parts of the nearby heavens that they can circulate in) are out of range of these needed creative properties, thus causing genetic deterioration – atrophy and weakness in their species.

Consequently, to ensure their own survival, they resort to all extremes of genetic manipulation using humans for their raw material – as “laboratory animals” – which includes this hybridization, that is, the crossbreeding of human plants (bodies) with those of their own species. Space alien races have learned to take the properties (data banks and conceptual processing abilities) residing in the genetic structure (body) they currently occupy, and incorporate them into the new hybrid body. Therefore, significant programming is put in place and ready to activate as they take over the biologically engineered, and individually customized "vehicle." The accounts of human abductees tend to verify this activity, as they reportedly describe the extracting of human sperm, eggs, and even fetuses for this purpose.

Every space alien was once a student of the Next Level (or had the potential of becoming a student), their germination being at various levels of development before choosing another direction. (That is, those who knew that this was true, but turned away from it – they had a deposit – a soul.) Some were so undeveloped at that juncture, that they are no longer, or may never have been, consciously cognizant of this association, unaware of their true parentage. Most of them are just products of where they have actually chosen to remain in their own awareness, which is a very compromised position. However, there is a unique characteristic in a deposit with an activated soul in it, regardless of which direction that recipient chooses to pursue. That is, that composite individual is able to circulate and survive in actual physical locations that no other spirits of humans are permitted to go. A deposit with a soul which has been "fertilized," as a result of some contact with Next Level mind, becomes something that can go outside of certain "gates" – that can survive in certain extensions of the "corral" – that are inaccessible to other humans.

Today's space aliens, very simply stated, are technologically advanced remnants of previous human civilizations. Some are the souls referred to historically as "Lucifer" and his followers – souls who were about to become new members of our Kingdom at an earlier time. However, their allegiance turned and they became renegades, creating their own competing powers. In so doing, they challenged the supremacy of the Older Member assigned to their transition and were subsequently exiled. Their influence in the heavens has since become diverse and prolific. They are permitted to exist essentially as parasites offering options of misinformation to the young souls – thus, they fulfill the task of presenting a part of the spectrum in the range of choices as was part of the original design. However, they, too, are due to be recycled. One interesting tactic initiated by the higher echelons of the space-alien "Luciferians" was to convince the inhabitants of Earth that any intelligent human knows that the story of "Lucifer" is just a manipulative legend. Good strategy – it worked, didn't it?

The success of their "recruitment" program – that is, the robbing of souls, and the continued ability to extract human genetic material – is the key to their survival. Everything the humans have bought as "reality" (from these aliens) is false – a part of their calculated plan of deception and continued enslavement. They have successfully convinced most humans that after death, if they (humans) have led a good life (measured by the morality of the Luciferians), they will awaken in some spiritual "Heaven" and live there in "peace and harmony" forever. Unfortunately, this is both a lie and a myth. They have addicted the population to such a strong degree of sensuality that the naïve inhabitants were totally drugged when we came, unable, for the most part, to recognize what might have been their rightful inheritance. They deliberately addicted the humans to prolific procreation – the "joys" of making babies – to selfishly ensure a strong and varied human genetic pool for their many species to draw from, and the list goes on.

And now we approach the end of this particular experiment. It is the time for the Next Level's "third-trimester" souls to be born. Some of these souls were taken under the personal tutorship of both my Older Member and my Older Member's Older Member, for the first ten years of our metamorphic transition (during this incarnation), at which time the "Admiral" returned to His rightful station in the heavens. From that point forward, the responsibility of the newborns was transferred to our "Captain" (but continues to be directly monitored and assisted by the Chief Administrator of this project – the one we earlier referred to as the "Admiral"). After an additional ten years of training, we (the students/offspring) were sent out to gather up the rest of our crew. It appears that the entire crew (that will assist in the "closure") has been gathered now for nearly two years.

When we left the last time (two days ago by our time), we, as students, were all put on "ice" (metaphorically speaking), in the protection and keeping of the Evolutionary Level Above Human. Just prior to our current assignment we were briefed aboard a spacecraft and then brought to Earth to incarnate into adult human vehicles that would provide us with the final lessons and changes that we needed to make. We recognized our Older Members by the knowledge that they brought. The deposit or chip within us has in it a homing device of sorts, but each of us recipients must choose to act on it by our own free will, that is, if we expect to progress.

The appropriate final step for those about to complete their metamorphosis is the shedding of the "shell" – the shedding of that portion of the old creature which is now close to its end. Whatever amount of new creature that is present, if it is acceptable and still working in a forward motion, will be taken into the Next Level. Theoretically, some of us will still be too "young" (undeveloped) and will require further training before we can qualify to receive an issue of a Next Level "uniform" – biological container (body). It's possible, however, that there are several stratas of Next Level uniforms that will be issued depending on the degree of development of the mind at the completion of this task. Young minds may be issued less advanced vehicles. The all-important issue is, at what point – at what age or maturity of mind – does a soul qualify for a Next Level vehicle that would be serviceable in that new Kingdom.

There are two ways that we can be relieved of our old shell at the completion of this task. One is aboard a spacecraft in a laboratory circumstance, as we head for home, and that of course, is the more desirable. But, in addition, the process of "the will" being taken through a Next Level metamorphosis requires that the individual (who's literally becoming a new creature) be open to accepting any form of "dropping" of "that shell." The ultimate completion of the test – completion of the metamorphosis – is to arrive at knowing that this primitive shell is nothing but an encumbrance to me. Therefore, it is part of the design for the Next Level to have the option to choose to engage, at the point of our departure, that the shell be dropped by other means if it serves their purposes to do so.

Every soul, that was a part of a deposit, at any time during this civilization, is back to make their choices once again. Some of these may be younger, perhaps second- or first-trimester, souls. Although they may not even have a chance to get to know us before our departure, we do recognize them, because they "recognize the enemy." They see through the lies and no longer want to be a part of this world. And so it is our task to give them a chance to leave this place by getting this information out. Often the symptoms of a deposit from our Domain can be seen in an individual's lack of motivation or rebellion against the world, or "system," and what it has to offer. In their futility, many of these individuals turn to the corrupt devices that are most anesthetizing. You will not find them with the so-called mainstream righteous, but more likely with your social dropouts or even as addicts or criminals – as your so-called “sinners.” Another manifestation of worldly dissatisfaction can be seen in the current movement of radical separatists – patriot/militia types – who clearly recognize the corrupt condition of today’s governments (particularly the dominant governments of the Western world). It is for those that we have come again. To give them a way out of this corrupt human kingdom, which was never designed to work or be satisfactory unto itself.

The formula is the same now as it always has been. To begin a metamorphosis in order to be born into the Next World, you must abandon everything of this world (just as the caterpillar about to become a butterfly must do). You must separate and begin to wean yourself of all mammalian ways – ties and addictions – replacing them with the ways and behavior of a more advanced and refined level of life. You cannot do it by yourself. You must seek, to the best of your ability, the guidance of a Representative who is a member of that kingdom, who has been through the metamorphic process at a previous time, and who has been sent with the specific task of midwifing newborns. Or, at very least, you attempt to connect with an active “student” of a present Representative. This is an extremely rare opportunity, as we approach the End of the Age. There is a tiny remnant left of a window for catching the eye of the “caretakers of this world.” In order to get saved for further planting, the overriding requirement is to recognize that this is true (these are the facts). You must believe that we represent the Kingdom that created this planet and all of its inhabitants. And you must be willing to take a stand in defense of that belief, and sustain that stand until the end – your departure – regardless of the consequences.

The climax of this civilization has begun as the hour of its recycling looms near. A war in the literal heavens is underway as the alien races battle for the spoils of this planet. Their campaign is escalating. They are actively engaged in recruiting, experimenting, and mining elements both mineral and biological (genetic) – in their efforts toward survival. They know their time is short. The Physical Evolutionary Level Above Human is about to surface from their undercover, behind-the-scenes involvements, ready to make their counter. There is not, and never has been any contest. The only question that remains unanswered is how long the Next Level will permit the alien forces to present their agenda – how long is long enough for all souls to pledge their allegiance for or against – to one side or the other. Every soul must be put to the final test. And as we warned you at the outset, consider your options thoroughly. Hasty judgments are ill-advised.

A Testament

What do you say to someone who saved your life? How do you acknowledge them or thank them? What do you say about their enemies – your former mentors/seeming nurturers? This is my attempt.

Today's civilization is strikingly like abused children growing up ignorant of their abuse, accepting of the lies and conditioning fed them, knowing nothing else. Some come from worse "immediate-families" (governments/locales/societies) than others, but the "extended-family" is still the same – all cling to the same basic mammalian values and ways. All are abused. Imagine how hard it must be for each abused child to recognize help from someone outside the "family," much less grab hold of it. The child has been programmed (brainwashed) to automatically reject that help and cling to what is familiar – however abusive and destructive it has become, somehow justifying it as good or right. How do you get through to them?

After centuries of abuse, the human genetic package no longer resembles the original design. Legends of space travelers or tales of a religious nature are about the only remnants left in its programming of past associations of beings from another "family." The very idea that those "myths" or prophecies could have any practical basis in this world might be fun to think about, but if you really faced reality, you'd come to your senses. A heavenly kingdom of God? UFO crashes in the desert? Yeah, right! Right?

For many 20th Century bodies, myth suddenly became reality in the Fall of '75. After 2 to 3 years of slowly losing its motivation to succeed in the world, wanting something more and finding no satisfaction even in offbeat circles, the vehicle (body) that had been prepped for my use heard "mere" words over a radio – words that would change its existence forever. It would be months before it would meet the source of those words – two beings, called Ti and Do. Though it was mindful of ancient warnings of caution and the educated admonitions of its peers, there was a familiarity with what was being said that went straight to my very being. I was amazed that others didn't react the same way. It would be years before I would finally understand and accept the reality of: "No one is able to come to Me unless the Father Who sent Me attracts and draws him." [John 6:44]. But even that is no guarantee of success. It takes hard work; it takes bonding with the ones of that family sent here for you – in this case, Ti and Do. Thousands may have recognized the opportunity, but ultimately only a few dozen endured the practical application of weaning from the human family (kingdom), fended off the attacks/allures of alien outcasts and other external influences, and ultimately received adoption by the true Caretakers of the garden – members of a non-mammalian family. This transition goes beyond just dropping all human vices (coffee, cigarettes, alcohol, drugs, etc.), mammalian behavior (sexuality, socializing, etc.), even to how one thinks – learning to relinquish self-trust and working instead as an active part of the whole. All through the transition, Ti and Do worked harder than we did, made sacrifices, put up with indignities, suffered mental anguish, solely out of their compassion and understanding of what we children were up against. No mother's travail could have been worse. They didn't have to do that, but they chose to because of who they are. It is easy to see how humans mythicized Ti and Do's previous contacts with this civilization – they are beyond anything humans could imagine. There is no way any of us would have gotten through it without them. I know.

It has been difficult for humans through the Ages to discern who's who of the advanced beings who circulate in the heavens – to them all were gods. Over time, myth and legend blurred even further the questions of what/who is God, what is man's purpose, how is it that he even exists? Religions have tried to soothe the conflict such issues brought to the common man and reconcile the gap between man and God. Governments under that same influence have tried to govern, becoming a religion in and of themselves as they legislate morality "in the interest of the common good." They tried to cope with stimuli beyond their control – stimuli generated by different outcast aliens (ancient "gods") in pursuit of their own diverse agendas – stimuli that abused humans, buffeting them around like "feathers in the breeze" with no real understanding of their purpose for being. For this same reason, Jesus called the religious leaders of His time "Sons of Satan" [John 8:44] – not because they were evil, but because they were unwitting pawns of those same outcast aliens, and they were also influencing others in the same way. They lacked discernment. They had too much pride and self-concern – characteristics that run strong among the various alien groups they unknowingly look to. Similarly, each time a government official insists some culture adopt his brand of government, justifying its own atrocities and corruption, or each time an evangelist lays hands on a pile of letters sent by the faithful to be blessed, in expectation of wealth or success, that abuse spreads. Thus, the abused child often becomes the abuser, perpetuating and deepening the cycle – a cycle that can only be broken by those beyond the human family.

I've spent over 20 Earth years in a human body in the presence of two Older Members of the family rightfully called God. I've had the opportunity to see what makes them happy or sad, how they deal with seemingly impossible situations, how they maintain self-dignity and continue to humble and question themselves when it would be easy to pass blame to another. I can tell you first hand, Ti and Do brought us to this training ground not for any honor, nor even just for our sake, but also out of compassion for you. They would stay here until the flesh vehicles they are wearing literally fell apart if they thought it would help (and indeed Ti did). And even though the time allotted for the completion of our task here has run out, until the garden is recycled, you still have time to "file for adoption." If you study and try to apply what they have taught, even if you don't leave when we do, even if you lose your flesh body while you are trying to grow closer to the Level Above Human, you will not be abandoned. I know that this paper leaves a lot unsaid; I hope that you can find such things as "95 Statement by an Incarnate E.T. Presently Incarnate" to clarify the overall picture. Cling to, adhere to, and trust in them – they are your only way out of here. Good luck.

Ti and Do Mean Everything to Me

When I consider what I would like to tell the world about my personal experience, what I have been doing, and what I am about to do, I find I want to describe what means the most to me – my relationship with my Older Member, Do, and his Older Member, Ti.

Over the years that I have been in – and out – of our classroom, I have learned and experienced that those “in the world” have almost no interest in trying to understand my relationship to those who came to help me and others to overcome “the world.” Through being duped into negative choices, the humans in the world have grown so far away from seeking to do what their Creator wants for them that the result is an arrogance that condemns, without pausing to consider, any who devote their lives to seeking what is beyond the human kingdom. If an individual won’t accept that “It doesn’t get better than this,” or doesn’t find drinking a beer by a stream “the ultimate,” and fall into line with what the rest of society values and enjoys, he is dismissed as a “kook.” If a group of such individuals join together, they are condemned as a “cult” and thought to deserve whatever they get in the way of persecution by media and government. Why wouldn’t such individuals eventually reach the logical conclusion that if they seek to serve a Higher Source, this world is not the place to be? Even so, I want to attempt to tell what my Older Members mean to me for the pleasure of expressing it.

When I first saw Ti and Do, they sat quietly for a long time on the stage of a college auditorium, waiting for the overflow audience to become quiet and attentive. When they told their message, the influences with my vehicle became apprehensive, and the tiny bit of Next Level mind that was “me” became excited and recognized these individuals were bringing the knowledge I was seeking. The dignity with which they explained that they are from the Evolutionary Level Above Human and what they were sent to this planet to do, showed me that what these two individuals were explaining and offering was much different and more significant than what the numerous other gurus were spouting. They weren’t offering a seminar teaching how to love yourself and get along in the world better, but how to get out of this world (literally) and into the Next Evolutionary Kingdom Level where the total focus is to serve the Chief of Chiefs. I recognized what I was looking for in these two individuals, and what they said was both a surprise and a reminder of what I already knew. They emphasized at that meeting and many other times that what is important is not who they are, but the information they bring. Nevertheless, I have become increasingly thankful for the fact of who they are and that they willingly gave up Next Level vehicles (bodies) to come take on human vehicles and show us the way to enter the ranks of the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

Although there was much about the human world my vehicle disliked, it was not cynical, but liked and enjoyed many things about the world, especially those of nature. It was at a crossroads and had been contemplating the various options it could take – feeling it could do anything it decided it wanted to do, but not knowing what that was. Leaving that meeting, I was surprised my companions were not as excited as I was, but now I know they could not have seen and heard what I saw and heard because they had not been given the gift of recognition (a deposit) which I have had the good fortune to be given. However, one other with whom I shared my tape of the meeting wanted to pursue this opportunity, and within a week we had chosen to make the step to walk out the door of those lives to follow Bo and Peep (the names that Ti and Do were using when I first met them). The excitement of being given this chance to become a Member of the Next Level led me forward, and I only knew I must follow. I had recognized my purpose on this planet, and I made my choice to follow through and pursue this opportunity.

When I made the decision to leave behind the family and friends of the vehicle I am wearing, one of the main factors was knowing that if I did not pursue the possibility that these two were who they said they were, Representatives incarnated here from the Next Level, I would never know. Since my strongest desire was to grow toward what is good and learn how the world really works, I knew I must follow these two and take this unusual opportunity – to learn the facts.

This choice paid off, for being with these Representatives and observing and absorbing what they are teaching me has been the proof. The changes I have experienced and the growth I have gone through have verified who they are. I have found that each day I will have the opportunity to learn from them if I exert the effort to ask. Ti and Do have taught me through their example the appropriate behavior for an individual in the Next Level, and to the extent that I have exerted the effort to make my vehicle adopt that behavior, I have changed to be more like them. I have learned that when I keep in mind who my Teachers are and where they came from, as well as how fortunate I am to be a student of Members of the Evolutionary Level Above Human, I learn the most.

Ti and Do have maintained that the best way to teach is through example, and their actions and words have helped me learn the ways of the Evolutionary Level Above Human. They have shown me that Members of the Next Level have no self-concern; their concern is for pleasing their Older Members, being good crew members, and fulfilling the assignment of the task at hand to the best of their ability. Members of the Next Level look to the minds of their Older Members, to their partners, and to their crew members, for they recognize that they cannot trust their own minds. They realize that they could be wrong, so they are careful to qualify what they say and hesitate to make quick judgments. Their approach is straightforward and honest, without deception. They are respectful of others, without allowing familiarity. They are thoughtfully restrained in all their actions and words, without impulsiveness. They are refined in all they do, without haughtiness. They are positive and optimistic, turning each situation to an advantage. They are cheerful and pleasant, without being saccharine. They rely on the Next Level to take care of their needs, without being passive. They are open and quick to admit a mistake, without being embarrassed or concerned for appearances. They maintain a pleasant countenance and a good posture. They are quick, but not jagged. They are careful in how they handle things, without being harsh or careless. They are quick to do any task, having outgrown procrastination. They are consistently clean, neat, sensitive, and gentle, never lowering their standards. They are moderate in their use of things, using judgment as to appropriate amounts of what to use in everything – from electricity to toothpaste. They do not vacillate from one extreme to another, high to low, but are even and moderate in their actions. They are energetic and eager, without being aggressive or demanding. They are keen, cautious, and alert, always thinking ahead of the details and their implications. They examine any situation to the best to their ability before asking a question. They are smooth, but occasionally (in their judgment) stumble. When they stumble, they get up quickly, learn the lesson, and move on, without wallowing in guilt. They expect the highest performance from their students, always believing that they can do the assigned task, for the mind and energy is always available to individual students for the asking. My Older Members are constantly asking for growth and change to become more like their Older Members.

I know that my Teachers always have my growth and best interests in mind, and I recognize that they know me better than I know myself. Members of the Next Level do not need praise, for good performance is the standard in their kingdom, so my Older Members are sparing with it. They have encouraged us, but not baited us, to look forward to living and serving in the Next Level, saying they “know we will like it.” Each time I have heard this, I have felt much more than the words themselves, and know that the Next Level will be a wonderful way of life. The sense of humor of my Older Members, which never lowers itself to sarcasm or putting others down, keeps our classroom pleasant and fun in the midst of the difficulty of the task of overcoming the world.

Ti and Do are real in every way. Were you to meet them, you probably would not recognize the restrained discipline they exercise in every act and word. For most of their time on this garden planet, these Representatives have blended in for the sake of performing their task unhindered. It is also a strong characteristic of Members of the Next Level to desire to serve as a “cog in the wheel” of the crew performing a task – not standing out or seeking recognition or praise. They work as a crew, relying on the help of a partner to stay on track and adhere to the instructions or design of a project. They are not concerned with physical appearance, but consciously keep their vehicles (bodies) well-cleaned, neatly trimmed, and modestly clothed. They have long ago outgrown all forms of mammalian behavior and gender-consciousness – including sensuality of any kind and attachment to a human family. Their attachment is to the family of the soul, living every minute with the fact that they are the mind from the Next Level and not the vehicle (body) they are wearing.

All these ways are far different from those inherited by humans and encouraged by their society. Each human plant has an established program (genetic code) firmly imbedded by teachings from space aliens and supported by the vast armies of invisible influences serving their own desires. To break away from the grip of this planet and graft to the vine of a higher Kingdom level is the task that provides the fire that tempers souls and makes them strong, useful members in the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

When we began our lessons, our Teachers warned us it would be the hardest thing any human could ever do, but they would be there to help us – and this has proven true. When most humans think of overcoming the world, they think of dropping addictions to drugs, coffee, cigarettes, profanity – sometimes even sexuality and gross materialism. What is really involved, however, goes much further and requires getting control of a human vehicle and forcing it to discard all its old ways of thinking and behaving – including any identification with its gender and its family ties, its habits, what it admired about itself, what it valued, what it liked and disliked – and teaching it to adopt and appreciate the ways of thinking and the behavior of the Next Evolutionary Level Above Human. The new creature that is formed must desire to think and act only in ways compatible with his new family. It is like the dog, who wants only to be part of his human masters’ family, learning the ways of the household he wants to join. He must stop valuing running with a pack of wild dogs and fighting over bones and learn the restraint required to sit at the feet of his master. Gaining such control is not easy for an animal or a human, as it is a fight against the genetic structure of the vehicle to reprogram it for the sake of something more desirable, a place in a higher Kingdom’s family.

My Older Members never impose their will on others, but always honor an individual’s freedom to choose his own way – whether it is good or bad, rough or refined, constructive or destructive. This means that the door to leave our classroom is always open – it is our will that keeps us connected to our Older Members, a bond of our own request, not one imposed by the Next Level. After nearly six years in the classroom, I allowed influences to weaken my resolve, have me focus on my vehicle’s self-concern and drag me away from trusting my Older Members, so that one day I walked away from the classroom – back into the world. Even as I walked out, I knew it was the wrong step for me, but I was pulled back into the world by negativity and desires of the vehicle. In the world, I was once again involved with other humans and participated in human activities. I knew influences had tricked me into giving up my chance to be a servant in the Next Level and duped me into returning to being a “slave” to this world. During a long ten years in the world, many times I found myself aghast that I had given up the opportunity to go to the Evolutionary Level Above Human for the tawdriness, loneliness, inconsiderateness, and lies of the world. No matter what I did or how involved with the world I got, I always “ran a low-grade depression” and felt separate from those around me. In my mind I pleaded for the opportunity to be allowed back into the class; I hoped for the privilege of being in a remedial classroom that might help me recover my relationship with Ti and Do.

The Next Level waits a long time before giving another opportunity – one must prove in actions and thought that he really wants it. Even so, one of the qualities of members of the Next Level is their willingness to clean the slate and offer a chance to start over. Their patience is not infinite, but fortunately for us, if one can convince them of the sincere desire to change and learn from errors – and the time is right – a new opportunity may be given. My time away from my Older Members and my classmates, though difficult and painful, gave me a stronger appreciation of the difference between the human world and the Evolutionary Level Above Human, a greater thirst for closeness to my Older Members, and a stronger resolve to move quickly to change old human ways. My separation taught me the value of the Next Level characteristic of being open and honest, not hiding difficulties or being secretive, but trusting in the help from Ti and Do and my classmates.

Another characteristic of the workings of the Next Level is the coincidental meeting of individuals when the time is right to suit a Next Level purpose. This is particularly true when both individuals are seeking to serve the Next Level, and when this happens, the feeling of happiness is great. Just such an occurrence reconnected me with the class in 1992, when a class member called the business where my vehicle was working and recognized its voice. Who he was might not have been exposed to me (since members of the class have been careful to protect the security of the classroom), but it was timely for me to rejoin the class as “The Last Call” (in 1992) was being given.

Returning to the class has been a wonderful gift for which I have been very thankful. I was a lost sheep brought home where I can be myself and do what I really want to do. This is not to say it has been easy – for I had much ground to recover and catch up. I am learning to emulate the cheerful, pleasant vibrations of my Older Members. I am benefiting from their directness and honesty and learning to adopt those qualities. I am learning to be happy and to conquer the influences that still try to use this vehicle. I am learning to be open and share what I am experiencing and learning with my Older Members and my classmates.

I know there is nothing for me in the world; my only life is with my Older Members. I know that the only reason that I have life is because the Next Level and my Older Members gave me the deposit that began my soul and that my responsibility is to protect and exert the effort to help it grow. I am this soul, not the body I am using. The opportunity to learn and grow and gain more Next Level mind is mine as long as I continue to look to my Older Members – to cling to, rely on, and cleave to them. The choice to exercise my free will to go either way is always mine, yet I know the only life for me is to be with them – here or in the Next Level. Without that I am nothing.

Hopefully, I have learned to control this vehicle enough to have grown to be a match for a Next Level vehicle (body) and soon will be given the opportunity to receive a Next Level vehicle. Whether that is here on Earth, on a Next Level spacecraft, or in some distant “quartermaster” or wardrobe does not matter.

It would be wonderful and amazing if some few humans could understand what is happening with us, but as I said in the beginning, we expect condemnation from the ignorant arrogance of the world. It is your test and opportunity to see and recognize the facts. If you want more than what this Earth offers, you likely have been given a “chip” of recognition. Know it is a treasure and protect it. Don’t be duped by the world’s pleasures, addictions, “securities,” misinformation, and games, for they cannot hold a candle to the opportunity to take a place in the Kingdom of your Creator and willingly serve His desires. Everything else is a dead end.

Statement by a Crewmember

The following is a statement prepared by a crewmember about to exit the human kingdom and enter the Next Physical Level of Existence. My only objective here is to reflect my feelings and state of mind at the time of my exit from the mainstream world. I am making this statement of my own free will, and it is factual, to the best of my knowledge and understanding.

Brief History – I first came in contact with Ti and Do (my Teachers) in the mid-70's at a meeting in California. At that meeting, things occurred that in no way could be called coincidence. As Do spoke, questions would come to mind, and as I would think the question, Do would say something like, "Some may wonder about..." and state the question I was thinking. When this occurred, I felt as if I were in a tunnel with Do at one end and me at the other. Although I sat in the back of a packed auditorium, it was as if no one else were there, but He (Do) and His Older Member (Ti) and myself.

Although I didn't immediately enter the classroom, a couple of months had passed when I remembered Do saying something like, "If you're seeking the Truth, this message is what you're going to find," and something like, "Go into the closet of your mind and ask to the Highest Source you can." The day I actually did this, I came in contact with this information again. At that first meeting with Ti and Do, I somehow knew they were who they said they were – Representatives (Reps) from the Kingdom of Heaven.

I admit to having had feelings of fear, but I knew I had to respond. Everything they said made perfect sense. They didn't solicit new members and told of the requirements about what it took to get to the Next Level – total commitment and total energy. And those who couldn't stick to the discipline were encouraged to leave. I was in the class for 3 years, working at freeing myself of all the human ties and addictions that would bind me to this planet, when I was sent out of the classroom. I didn't know why I was being sent out, and for a time wondered if I'd been abandoned. I never forgot Ti and Do for the 15 years (or more) I was out of the class. The entire time, I am aware now, the Next Level monitored and guided me through a series of tests and growth experiences I feel that I would have never gained had I been in the classroom.

The entire time out there (in the world) I learned about human love, and how shallow it really is, how it turns to hate and mistrust and deceit in a moment, and that all endeavors out there at best are self-serving, self-indulgent, shallow victories and usually come at the expense of someone else's toil or pain. Many of the leaders of this country (as well as other countries) are liars, hypocrites, and deceitful scam artists that seem to have no more comprehension of Truth than a box of rocks. The government is so corrupt and has run renegade and is not very different from Genghis Kahn, Attila the Hun, or Hitler.

The more laws that are legislated that take away your freedom (in the name of "keeping the peace") and the more times our leaders send troops to another country to "enforce" peace, the more one wonders where these seeming self-appointed gods get their authority.

While in the world, I had tasted success and found it to be very rude, mean, aggressive, and quite abrasive and distasteful – "qualities" I have no wish to enhance or develop. I have seen the world through a thousand pairs of eyes and despised it each and every time – without exception!

The only true happiness I'd ever really know was when I was with my Teachers – Ti and Do. In October of 1994, I was guided by the grace of the Next Level into a "chance meeting" with my former classmates, and I expressed my sincere and earnest desire to re-enter the class. I wanted to finish the task I started 18 years ago, the task of totally overcoming the world and freeing myself of addictions and sensuality and all the human traps of this world. My classmates are the only other ones on this planet that understand me and what I've been through, as I understand them and know what they've gone through.

Although overcoming the world is an individual task (it simply can't be done with your family or wife and kids or friends), each and every one of us has one and only one desire, and that is to be like and to serve our Older Members, Ti and Do, and to complete our task here so we can return to the Next Level. The goodness I feel here with my classmates exceeds everything the world has to offer. Everyone here wants to be better than they were the day before. With the state of the world and the direction it's going, it seems foolish to want to stay here and wallow in its muck.

This statement is not an understanding of our teachings, it is merely an effort to set the record straight. I am healthier, happier, and in a better frame of mind than I have ever been in. I'm eager to take up my life in a body belonging to the Next Level. If there are those who see my dedication to this mission to the point of possibly losing my body as crazy or insane, then so be it. Their minds have already been made up and far be it from me to change that. Where I'm going, I won't be influenced by others and I won't influence others either. I will give what I've been given, where it is sought, but I won't push it on anyone. The Next Level is not forceful. They help you when and only when you ask for their help. They will let you go and grow at your own pace and speed, but wouldn't force you to do anything. They will offer you help, but you need to be keen enough to take it and act upon it. When you are offered this gift by them (the opportunity to change into a new creature and exit this world and become as they are), it is your choice what you do with it. This opportunity is rare and is the cherished object of my desire. Ti and Do have been the examples of goodness, fairness, strength, discipline, and dedication that I wish to emulate.

In the world, I'd been harassed, beat up, lied to, cheated, threatened, robbed, and abused in almost every way thinkable. In this class, the only harsh words I can recall came out of the mouth of this vehicle, and I'm ashamed of my lack of restraint for uttering them. I've been shown areas where I need work, but NEVER when I wasn't seeking to learn Next Level ways.

I could go on and on about my Teachers, but there aren't enough positive adjectives in my vocabulary to convey my heartfelt love for them.

I don't know if this is accurate, but after leaving the class, I was told a story in the latter part of 1977. The story told of how, many years ago, indentured servants would work on the plantations for a period of seven years and that after this period of time they were given their freedom. Many of the owners of the plantations would give these indentured servants a gold ring along with their freedom. Not knowing anything other than the plantation, and although they were given the choice to leave and go wherever they chose, many would pierce their ear and wear the gold ring in their ear and stay and work on the plantation out of dedication and love for the plantation owner. Many felt that if they left the plantation they would lose their life or would go into a cold world and not be able to survive. They felt a love for the plantation and the owner because without them they were nothing.

Shortly after hearing this story, I chose to pierce my left ear and wear an earring. And although at that time males wearing an earring was becoming fashionable, I did this so I would always remember, and never forget, the love and dedication I have and will always have for the two "People" that "saved" my life – my Teachers – Ti and Do. I know that without them, I am nothing.

Be Fruitful and Multiply

Many times we hear the Christians and Jews defending the Lord's instruction to "Be fruitful and multiply" (Genesis, from the Old Testament). We are puzzled by this. Is it not true that the Lord gave those instructions at the beginning of that segment of this civilization when it was in its early stage of development? Could it be that the reason the Lord gave this instruction was because the people at that time were very primitive in their behavior, and it was clear to the Lord the direction that these humans were choosing?

Even in the beginning, Adam's loneliness showed he was not satisfied with looking only to the Lord. Adam had been an androgynous virgin, but when the Lord realized he was lonely, He separated Adam into two individuals. The Lord then made it clear He was warning Adam and Eve about partaking of the forbidden fruit (Genesis 2:17), which led to their union. By this action, they made it clear that they wanted more than what a relationship with only the Lord could offer.

Is it possible that from the beginning the Lord had something more significant than multiplying in mind for Adam, something that would set him apart from other mammals and mammalian behavior? Is it not true that even then the Lord gave Adam the opportunity of seeing up front that he could make the Lord happy by resisting mammalian behavior and desiring to look only to Him? Although the Lord knew that Lucifer was going to come into the garden and use the forbidden fruit game to tempt Adam and Eve's resistance, didn't Adam have the opportunity to actually listen to the Lord as He gave those instructions, and not listen to other influences that came along (Luciferian)?

Could it be that what the Lord had in mind from the beginning was to see if Adam was strong enough to follow only His instructions and not be tempted by others? Is it possible that the Lord suspected that the creature He created called Adam was not strong enough to make the right decisions?

Would it not be correct to assume that when the Lord created Adam, He gave him free will and the choice to listen to only Him as well as the option to drift away from Him? If this is so, could the Lord then have seen to it that the human kingdom would serve as a catalyst for humans to get out of what they shouldn't have gotten into in the first place? Wouldn't this be especially true for those in whom the Lord takes an interest?

Is it possible, at this point in time, that the Lord is offering us the opportunity to regain our "virginity," to become what the Lord had originally intended for Adam? Adam may have fallen short of some of the Lord's expectations, but didn't the Lord also see to it that He gave humans step-by-step instructions on how to become new creatures that could reside in the Literal Heavens – and be a part of advanced activities that could never exist in this "temporary classroom" (Earth's civilization)? If one continues to read in a chronological progression the scriptures in the Bible, is there not evidence that would show this? When the Lord took an interest in someone, He would let them know that what he required of them was a puritanical life (for example, priests in the temple were not to have families). He let them know that they didn't have to drop to participating in mammalian behavior, if only they had put more effort into adhering to the more significant instructions the Lord gave.

What did the Lord give Jesus to pass on to those who were ready for their "next instructions"? Was it to be fruitful and multiply – raise a family? Or, was it the following instructions (and these quotes were taken from the same Bible that "Be fruitful and multiply" was taken):

- Luke 14:26-27 – "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and his wife and children and brothers and sisters and even his own life also – he cannot be My disciple. Whoever does not persevere and carry his own cross and come after (follow) Me cannot be my disciple."

Didn't Jesus mean by this that those who follow Him would have to suffer and bear the pangs of separating from the world and live as He did – looking to Him and learning from Him if they would expect to get into His Father's house?

- Luke 17:26-30 – "And as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the time of the Son of Man: They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, right up to the day when Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. So also as it was in the days of Lot. They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; But on the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. That is the way it will be on the day that the Son of Man is revealed."

Is Jesus not implying that there comes a time when all these human ways have to be dropped when a Son is present?

- Matthew 19:11-12 – "But he said to them, Not all men can accept this saying, but it is for those to whom it has been given: For there are eunuchs who have been born incapable of marriage; and there are eunuchs who have been made so by men; and there are eunuchs who have made themselves incapable of marriage for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let him who is able to accept this accept it."
- Luke 20:34-35 – "And Jesus said to them, the people of this world and present age marry and are given in marriage; But those who are considered worthy to gain that other world and that future age and to attain to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage."
- Matthew 19:29 – "And anyone and everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for My name's sake will receive many times more and will inherit eternal life."
- Luke 9:59-62 – "And He said to another, become my disciple, side with My party, and accompany me! But he replied, Lord, permit me first to go and bury (await the death of) my father. But Jesus said to him, Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and publish abroad throughout all regions the Kingdom of God. Another also said, I will follow You, Lord, and become Your disciple and side with Your party; but let me first say good-bye to those at my home. Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the Kingdom of God.”

- John 14:23-24 – “Jesus answered, If a person loves Me, he will keep My word and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home (abode, special dwelling place) with him. Anyone who does not love Me does not observe and obey My teachings. And the teaching which you hear and heed is not Mine, but from the Father Who sent Me.”

If these were the instructions spoken by Jesus approximately 2000 years ago, do you understand why we are so puzzled by the Christians and Jews who still quote instructions that were applicable to “diaper lessons”? Why do they still think they have instructions to not take their “diapers” off even when they are past the diaper age? The ones defending their position by using those quotes are not primitives. Is it in order to justify their preoccupation with reproduction (human mammalian behavior)? Hasn’t it been generations since the Lord gave this instruction, and hasn’t He even given instructions that updated and replaced it?

In Jesus’ teachings we can see a whole new set of instructions spelling out the formula for what it takes to get out of the human kingdom – to connect with somebody who comes from that Kingdom and who can show us how to get out of the human kingdom and become students of getting into the Next Kingdom Level.

Anytime the Kingdom of Heaven relates to a civilization to offer stages of that process of overcoming humanism and entering that Kingdom Level, the theme is renunciation of all human ways, growing to despise the world and human mammalian behavior. This includes procreation.

If God is the Creator, did He really need and want Adam and Eve to populate this planet? Were Adam and Eve the only creation in His bag of creations, and therefore did He need them to create for Him? If Adam had looked only to his Creator for all his nourishment as the Lord originally intended, would Adam have felt the need for another companion? Could it be that because Adam and Eve chose to look to each other and away from their Creator for their needs that they both found that the Lord gave them what they desired instead of what the Lord would have chosen for them? We thought that the Lord was angry with Adam and Eve for engaging in fornication:

- Genesis 3:16-17 – “To the woman He said, I will greatly multiply your grief and your suffering in pregnancy and the pangs of childbearing; with spasms of distress you will bring forth children. And to Adam He said, Because you have listened and given heed to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it, the ground is under a curse because of you; in sorrow and toil shall you eat of it all the days of your life. So God drove out the man; and He placed at the East of the Garden of Eden the cherubim and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep and guard the way to the tree of life.”

For us it seems that the evidence is undeniable that “Be fruitful and multiply” was an instruction that the Lord gave regretfully and only for a specific time in our civilization. Are the Christians and Jews who still practice and defend the instruction of “Be fruitful and multiply” doing so because it requires less of them and it gives them an excuse to participate in sensual gratification? Why are they still choosing to wear the “diapers” that they should have long outgrown?

Up the Chain

In His infinite wisdom, the “Chief of Chiefs” has given us a chain of command. Each link up this chain is an older soul (mind) that has grown more than the link below, and is closer to becoming as the “Chief of Chiefs” is. We call each of these links “Older Members.” Every link is made of precious mettle tested by fire. The human “plants” (bodies, including the minds/spirits they contain) – even the ones who have been given a “deposit” (the beginning of a “soul” containing mind of the Next Evolutionary Level Above Human) – do not have the ability, nor can they comprehend how, to leave the human species to become one of the Evolutionary Level Above Human. They cannot do this without physical contact with, and being nurtured by, one of the links in this chain – the one who has been specifically assigned this task, and for that purpose has incarnated on this planet. And physical contact can consist of reading our material, as long as the “link,” or Older Member is still incarnate.

Mine is a humble place in this plan, one of attempting to become a viable newborn into this Kingdom Level Above Human. I feel honored to have been given the opportunity to come to this planet so that my soul (mind) might exert sufficient effort to gain the strength necessary to function in a body (or “suit of clothes”) of the Kingdom Level Above Human. My efforts are directed at controlling the human body I am using in order to learn the lessons required to overcome and get rid of any lingering humanness. When I ask for help, I direct my asking or requests to Ti and Do. The request goes first to the link in the chain who is my Older Member, Do. He then redirects my requests to his Older Member, Ti, the next link up the chain of command.

It doesn’t matter if you have identified with the Buddhist, Jewish, Hindu, Islamic, Christian, or any other religion – all religions have been spawned from the misinformation (distorted or corrupted truths) propagated by space-alien races (“Luciferians”) who, knowingly or unknowingly, look to Lucifer as their god and victimize the humans on this planet. As long as you ask for things that are not of this world, if you are sincerely seeking the Truth and directing your asking to the Creator of all that is, your prayers will be answered by the Next Level. However, if you desire the things this world has to offer, your “prayers” will be answered by the space aliens, as they believe this is their task.

If you believe Ti and Do are who we say they are, your soul (mind) can leave with us and be in the safekeeping of the Next Level, saved for further planting and opportunities for growth. As far as we can tell, even if we have discarded the human bodies we used for this task, or are waiting aboard our bus (spacecraft) to return home to the far regions of space, but are still in this planet’s atmosphere, you can still join us. If your desire is strong, what is required is for you to ask Ti and Do to show you the way, and that you have the faith to follow up on what you are given.

We, Ti and Do’s students/disciples, have been taught to make our requests as specific as we can, and to mentally talk to Ti and Do as if they were standing in front of us. Of course, it’s ok to talk out loud to them, but you might want to make sure you’re alone, so someone doesn’t think you have taken leave of your senses. You don’t have to be in any special “setting,” or have any type of ritualistic props. As a student, I have Ti and Do in my thoughts as I go about my daily tasks mentally “talking” to them as much as possible.

I’m giving you some examples of how I ask for Ti and Do’s help. Each of these is an individual example and is NOT meant to be taken word for word as any type of structured request. They are only intended as a guideline to show you how you might formulate your requests. Some apply to my mind/soul or to the weaknesses of the vehicle I’m wearing. Some may be general enough to apply to most soul/minds or the vehicles they occupy.

Ti and Do:

- Please help me to have your understanding of how NOT to identify with this human vehicle I wear like “a suit of clothes,” and that I, the Next Level mind/soul, am the one in control.
- I ask for your unquenchable thirst and desire so that I don’t place any limitations on my growth, and I ask that your will be mine so that I push to do everything in my power to become a viable newborn of the Level Above Human – the Next Level.
- Please give me your perseverance in overcoming all human traits, never looking backwards, so that I have a constant diminishing of humanness.
- I ask for your inner strength so that I may completely withdraw this vehicle from all the addictions of its animal flesh, and for your keenness so that I can block all thoughts or mental pictures of mammalian behavior, and for your consistency in maintaining non-mammalian behavior of the Evolutionary Level Above Human – around the clock – in order that my soul (mind) will be compatible with and able to occupy a genderless vehicle from the Next Kingdom Level.
- Please open my eyes, so that I may see as you see the corrupt, wicked, and evil ways of this world – so my hate will grow daily for what it has chosen to become. Help me not to be blinded to knowing that in order to leave this world, I must have grown to despise it.
- I ask for the same control that you exercise in blocking thoughts and images (memories) the vehicle wants to play, like old video tapes in its head, of the human life it had before I “took it over.”
- Please help me develop the same type of mental ammunition that you have, to fight off and not succumb to the many pitfalls intended to distract me, turning my eyes from my task, placed in my way by Lucifer and his space aliens.
- I ask for your help in developing the same mechanism of restraint that you engage before allowing your vehicle to speak or act, weighing the consequences of each word or action carefully, ridding myself of my human reactive mind.

- Please give me your ability to appreciate and respect each of my classmates for what they have accomplished individually in overcoming the human ways of the vehicle they are using for this task, to be objective and non-critical, to be patient, tolerant, sensitive, and helpful in all ways, and most of all – non-judgmental.
- I ask for your wisdom and maturity so that I realize this vehicle's perception or interpretation is not to be trusted, so that I won't allow the vehicle to make judgments, so that I always take the higher side.
- Please help me to think only of you, as you do of Ti, to become as selfless as you are, so that my only burning desire is to be of service to the Next Level.
- I ask for your strength to graciously accept lessons and correction, to overcome the fear of change, and to make the adjustment on the spot and move on.
- Please help me to exert the effort to know your mind, Do, as you know Ti's mind, so that I may become as much like you and your Older Member as I possibly can.
- I ask that you grant me the maturity not to require your attention to gratify the vehicle's childish and selfish needs, to not want to shine above others to gain your attention, to become pure (clean) enough that I may be in your presence without being a distraction.
- Please teach me how to become proficient at "plagiarism" so that I might accurately present Next Level information, choosing each word exactly as you would choose it, and that I be an instrument of your mind, not ignorantly or unknowingly participating in misinformation.
- I ask for your keenness so that I do not miss following instructions and that I observe procedures as you would.
- Please help me develop your restraint and control in not allowing this vehicle to participate in gossip or familiarity, as it is POISON to my Next Level soul (mind). Only my guilt over my own bad performance causes me to see others in a bad light.
- I ask for your Next Level sense of humor and to be rid of any human type of humor or "cuteness."
- Please help me to have your timing so that I never miss opportunities and am in the right place when I might be of service.
- I ask for your strength, courage, and determination to see me through my "tests by fire."
- Please let me be an instrument of your righteous fury against what this world has chosen to become whenever (and if) it's appropriate.
- I ask for your strength of desire.

These examples are intended not only to show you how you might make requests, but also to show you many of our Next Level ways and traits.

If you are one who desires to grow with speed and to be as clean as possible, then you might want to practice at least some, if not all, of what follows. It will assist you in realizing your goal.

- Your prime directive would be: "My relationship with my Older Member is my #1 priority – NOTHING else matters."
- You'll ask Ti and Do at least once a day, "Am I displeasing you in any way?" And know that you will be shown if you are – so be ready to correct quickly.
- You'll hate coasting, despise the days that don't have hurdles, and love the days that turn into steeple chases.
- You'll know that you must state frequently to Ti and Do that you request and desire maximum growth if it is appropriate for you.
- You'll learn that being consistently positive using your Next Level mind is fun – that negatives using the human mind are no fun.
- You'll apply the axiom that desire is synonymous with a sustained well-disciplined effort, and that you must learn discipline to be of service. Puny effort does not take you far.
- You'll ask, "What would Ti and Do do in this circumstance? How would they handle it?" – when you face every type of situation – in order to learn how they would do it.
- You'll examine often, "How does my thinking or behavior differ from Ti and Do's?"
- You'll frequently ask yourself, "Do I still respect or value anything of this world? From my past? Any type of special diet? Sensuality? What are my weaknesses, what am I still clinging to of the human kingdom?"

- You'll learn how to negotiate in Next Level ways so that all involved participate in decisions, to not be aggressive or take the lead lobbying for your position, carefully considering the value in others' positions, and to check with others before taking any action, so you all are in agreement.
- You'll come to know that you are NOTHING without your Older Member, and that NOTHING originates with you.

It is not easy to put these things into motion – it takes hard work! I never end my day without expressing to my Older Members and to the Next Level how thankful and grateful I am.

Ti and Do:

- Thank you for the “gifts” you have bestowed on me that have given me the necessary ingredients to continue to pursue becoming a member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human.
- You have my eternal gratitude for the opportunity to choose life over death.
- Thank you for the tender nurturing and careful tending to my soul (mind) since its beginning in another civilization ages ago, for the Representatives you sent who have nourished my soul that I might grow to this point of possible exit from the human kingdom.
- Thank you for your patience, understanding, and support; for standing by me through all the tough lessons it took to test me by fire, so I may sometime become a well-forged link in the Next Level chain of minds.

Ti and Do:

If I have learned anything, it is because you have taught us by and through your example – one that sets standards for us to reach for in all areas of behavior. I respect and admire you, Ti and Do, and pledge my undying allegiance to the Next Level. I stand in awe before you, knowing who you are, totally committed to not only following you to the ends of the Earth, but into the far regions of space.

Religions Are Humans' #1 Killers of Souls

Couriers from a higher biological Kingdom Level expose catastrophic information in a desperate attempt to salvage souls for the Kingdom of God.

Urgent Warning: The lawless, the criminals, the major corrupters of the inhabitants of this world, from the Kingdom of God's point of view, are human-equivalent space aliens who have been deliberately deceiving – victimizing – your most prominent religious leaders. These technologically advanced alien species have succeeded in having these leaders look to them as “Almighty God.” They also increasingly exploit the biological resources of this planet. It seems that they not only abduct unwilling victims in order to extract human DNA for genetic hybridization, but they also deliberately engineer “misinformation viruses” designed to contaminate human perception.

Sadly, it has become quite evident that all of Earth's religions are a product of extensive psychological manipulation and tampering by these space-alien races – and research indicates that some of the members of your governments have reportedly been informed of this. Understandably, however, they didn't know how to tell you. The governments, regretfully, have been equally victimized. Because in reality, religion and governments are linked very closely – religions serve as the foundation for the beliefs upon which societies are built, and governments legislate the morality of the people in accordance with dominant religious ideology. Their laws tell you what's right and what's wrong, what you can and cannot do. Unfortunately, however, every one of the major religious efforts has been systematically corrupted and thereby used as a dominant force against humans discovering the truth. These religions and their leaders are directly, although unknowingly, responsible for literally killing the very souls that they so passionately attempt to save.

The concepts given to you by these space alien races appear to have successfully indoctrinated the human kingdom globally in such a way as to prevent your evolutionary potentials from being able to continue. They use a technique that literally bombards the atmosphere with radio-wave thought transmissions designed to promote their own agenda/propaganda – degrading the human civilization to a point where it seems they are so drunk with misinformation, that they are no longer able to ward off these relentless attacks. Ironically, most space aliens have no idea that they are doing anything but good. It seems apparent that as a result, the current civilization has deteriorated to the point where the usefulness of this garden has been destroyed beyond repair. But there is one last hope for the many “seeking souls” – that is, the presence of the “Next Level” rescue team.

As envoys from the most advanced species in the literal heavens, the Evolutionary Level Above Human, we represent the true, real, factual Kingdom of God. It was this advanced Kingdom Level that created your world. They actually engineered the physical structure of the planet itself, including the intricacies of its environment, designed the living creatures, and even wrote the program mapping out the circuitry for the spectrum of human choices. Imagine that a part of this design was to use this planet much as a womb to nurture potential offspring (through non-mammalian germination) for birth into an extraordinary world that exists outside of time as you know it, and beyond the imagination of the human “computer.” The Kingdom of Heaven is not an etheric or spiritual place, but a many-membered physical Kingdom that exists in deep space. As part of their plan, members of that Kingdom permitted these other, less advanced space races, with self-serving agendas, to infiltrate and corrupt this planet in stages, according to the permissiveness of its inhabitants, in order to be the actual instruments of some of the numerous choices factored into the original “schematics.” In spite of the efforts of the space aliens, up until now the current civilization continued to serve as an extremely challenging training ground for souls attempting to move up a notch in the evolutionary chain.

Periodically, members of the Kingdom Level Above Human were sent in to upgrade the concepts and behavior of the developing souls. And, incredible as it may sound, members of that Next Level – the literal Kingdom of God – are here now to offer to their potential offspring, “life” and membership in their Kingdom. Historically, however, every time there is a major visitation, and most especially after the departure, the opposition – these advanced, human-equivalent, space aliens – twist the contents of these visits and create your religions in order to attempt to control the population.

The one who was Jesus was a member of this Kingdom who was sent to take you out of your ignorance – a man from the only real, potential future, not some religious, mythical icon. The next step in the evolutionary future for those in forward motion involves leaving planet Earth and going to another world where there resides an evolutionary level beyond the human kingdom. Members of this Next Level (from which Jesus was sent) do not co-exist with humans. Therefore, He came to teach and demonstrate to those who recognized who He was and what He had to offer, the requirements for entrance as beginners into that Next (physical) Level. The human kingdom was designed specifically to serve as an evolutionary stepping stone – a gestation environment for the Next Kingdom's advanced level of life.

The space-alien races prey upon the human kingdom much as parasites. With no capacity to create souls on their own, we believe they increase the ranks of their respective species by robbing souls created by the Next Level. And since religions are the root behind the morality of present-day society, they have strategically become the foremost target of the space-alien efforts, and have become the primary transmitters of their lies. With honorable intentions, they turn the eyes of the lost sheep and unknowingly lead them down the path of ultimate death (that is, separation from the Truth and from its source), though it is only the Next Level that can in finality, at a time and under conditions of their own choosing, literally “exterminate” a soul.

Another irony is that these religions have in reality become their own dreaded anti-Christ. Although it's true that those who love their form of humanity could justifiably call us anti-Christians, that is, anti what the aliens have influenced the Christians to become. We certainly don't single out Christianity, however, as the sole purveyors of alien misinformation. All organized religion, including that of the Jews, Muslims, Hindus, and Buddhists, etc., but most particularly the charismatic Christian movement, are used to promote the various practices that advancing souls should be weaning themselves of, primarily reproductive mammalian behavior and consciousness. And as a reward for their efforts, they are “blessed” with worldly riches and/or prominence, for the most part in direct measure to their service by their counterfeit “gods.”

It seems as though the opposition cunningly devised a calculated strategy in advance of our arrival, labeling as a cult, or of the “occult,” anyone who believed in extraterrestrial spacecrafts (UFOs) or space aliens. They did this in spite of the increased physical evidence to the contrary (that is, evidence in support of this belief in extraterrestrial spacecrafts) and despite their own alien presence here, which they skillfully hid behind-the-scenes except for a few in the know. They were well aware that in our honesty, the mention of UFOs as extraterrestrial spacecrafts would need to be a part of our M.O., so they set the stage to shoot us down. They also knew that the Next Level never aggressively pushes their position, since it must be sought after by any soul worthy of consideration, and they designed their counter accordingly. But let's examine a few of the fallacies in their position – the one they sell to humans as solid, sound “religion.”

Just who are the real occultists? Where are there more meaningless rituals performed than in the church, e.g., baptism, burial ceremonies, marriage ceremonies, genuflection, crossing oneself, kissing the Father's ring, ...? And who, in reality, are the number one promoters of idolatry? Who is it that condones (and even retranslates the definition of) fornication and sensual pleasure under the guise of holy matrimony as they elevate their doctrine of morally correct family values (simply reproductive mammalian values)? And then, if their plan for you should begin to fail, you are encouraged to pray to some “god” or mythical concept of Jesus to heal your ailing marriage. (Note: the space aliens seem to need replacement bodies as well as needing souls. Therefore, addicting the human population to the “joys” of prolific procreation ensures them a strong and varied genetic pool to use in their genetic manipulation). And what could be more occult than the “laying on of hands” on a pile of papers from people needing miracles (prayer requests). Sadly, in many cases, the agenda of many of the religious leaders evolves to one of self-glorification, though most are unable to acknowledge it even to themselves.

So, before we return, all we can do is make a final attempt to inform those who have been victimized. Probably all individuals with “deposits” from the real heavens have gone to religion at one time or another because something within them desires a closeness with their Creator. A deposit is a “chip” of sorts, or set of programs, part of which contains a soul, which is activated when it comes into contact with a Next Level member who has the task of offering “Next Level” information. That soul, once activated, begins to germinate and has within it the potential to become a new creature, no longer needing to experience the perennial cycle of death. “Birth” into the Evolutionary Level Above Human – the only true Kingdom of God – can be accomplished only if the soul remains loyal to the Kingdom Above Human (determined by the will and degree of thirst of the soul/individual making those choices) and is taken “to term” through a metamorphic process carefully nurtured and monitored by members of the Next Level. (A more detailed explanation on this subject is available in the '95 Statement by an E.T. Presently Incarnate.)

These young souls, as they seek out further nurturing, are thus attracted to the little bit of Next Level information that religions have to offer, but for the most part, they only get “corrupted files” and distorted data. Some of the wise see through the church's corruption and drop away. In many cases, in order for a church to survive, they resort to bringing in pop music, showmanship, and teach how to have financial gain, in order to keep parishioners coming, happy, and contributing. Country club, or socially based, religion is at its peak. Many of these teach that if you don't have material worth, then you're not right with God. Others teach that once you have sense enough to tithe towards their efforts, that you will have riches, glory, and a wonderful family! Then what? The notion that by following these rules, you will die and go to some “spiritual” heaven and live forever with Jesus, is unfortunately, not reality. The so-called heaven you will end up in will not be what you expect – it is not a heaven where you will find God or any members of His Kingdom. Those space aliens – creators of religions – and their victimized evangelists and religious leaders who lead their flocks down this path are committing a major crime from the Next Level's point of view.

When the Next Level sends someone along to lead the deserving souls out of here – out of the cycle of death to potentially eternal life, all the forces of opposition dive in to discredit that. We feel that the Buddha task could possibly have been a project of the Next Level, since it centered on total renunciation of this world, and it seemed to be able to proceed a bit more undercover or less interfered with at first. Though as time passed, its corruption seems to have succeeded as well. Buddhism today doesn't include total renunciation of the world anymore than today's Christianity does.

When Jesus came, the opposition dove in and tried to make an example of Him, tried to have humans fear the consequences of this kind of committal to God and pulling away from the world. The Next Level, however, turned it around, taking advantage of the negative (His execution) and turning it into a positive (sparking the spread of His teachings). He taught renunciation (separating from mammalian behavior) – not anything resembling today's “Christian Family Values.” Then the lower forces dove in and corrupted the meaning of His presence and His teachings with what Christianity has become today (in essence, clearly promoting a lie). Why is it that they say they love Jesus, and some even claim to translate and adhere to the Bible literally, but when it comes to the most important things He taught, the requirements Jesus made known to those who were His faithful flock, they skip right over it? And where was Jesus' wife, where were His offspring, and where were His material riches?

And then we have the New Age. For those who see through the shallowness of organized religion, the opposition has their bases covered. Many of the New Agers believe in spacecrafts, ascended masters, and so on. So, the space aliens lead them to believe that they have discovered some major metaphysical secret. These same space aliens promote the “cosmic consciousness” – encouraging New Agers to keep up with their tarot cards, their crystals, and their mantras – though these games are no more significantly evil than those of any other religious practices. Some New Agers or metaphysicians believe that if they remain faithful students, someday in the future they will find themselves in the Himalayas with an “elite” group of people – esoteric aesthetics calling themselves everything from avatars to bodhisattvas – but they will still be bound to Earth and its atmosphere. This is a space-alien “counterfeit” concept and nothing more than an artificial separation from the world. They attempt to find what they are looking for on the surface of this planet, thus creating another Earth-bound religion, by becoming a part of some Himalayan enclave. Unfortunately, no Himalayan/ascended master would be permitted to set foot in the Next Level, even as a beginner. No Member of the Next Level would consider himself a “master,” but continually seeks to be a better servant to the Next Level through his Older Member. And you can be sure that any religious movement that has you desiring peace on Earth or some approaching “heaven on Earth” – that has you desiring to stay on the Earth or in the human kingdom on any level, even in a monastic situation – contains a “misinformation virus,” that is, a corrupted version of Next Level information. The Next Level wouldn't co-exist in the human kingdom any more than a human would choose to live in the restrictions of the horse world or that of the dog.

And now as we prepare to leave your world, having been on the surface somewhat “undercover” for over 20 years Earth time (approximately 30 minutes Next Level time), we have nearly completed our primary task. That is, two members of the Evolutionary Level Above Human have been nurturing their students/offspring through the last phases of a gestation period, picking up where we left off some 2000 Earth years ago. Before we go, however, we have been asked to fill a position that might be best described as the “last chance rescue team” – a Next Level attempt to salvage deserving souls.

The assignment of the entire crew, new members included, for the remainder of our time here is to attempt to expose the lies promoted by the opposition and to reveal the major contributors to the great misinformation – that is, the Luciferian space aliens and their primary spokesmen. We could list many prominent religious leaders – these space aliens’ main victims – who unknowingly assist in opposing the Truth. We’ve listened to many of them extensively and the teachings they attribute to Jesus or other Representatives of the Kingdom of God, regarding life, death, “Christian” behavior, and the way to get into the Kingdom of Heaven, which are not at all consistent with what genuine “Reps” (as was Jesus) actually taught. These religious leaders, although victims themselves, must still share in the responsibility for misleading the souls that could be entering into the true Kingdom of Heaven at this time. Their redemption, however, is still possible if they attempt to rectify their destructive efforts.

We know that the lower forces have targeted, focused their attack, on those with “deposits” – specifically souls with a deep-seated love for Jesus and His Father – who say they are awaiting His return. So, it follows that these space-alien misinformants seek out the ones who “talk Jesus,” and then they immediately dive in to focus on so-called Christian principles that have nothing to do with what Jesus brought. They train them to preach their brand of misinformation. These manipulators have been increasingly successful in their corruption of this new wave of contemporary Christianity, although a certain percentage of souls see through it (to some degree) and end up having little or no respect for what they find in the churches. So, they turn elsewhere for the answers, some even going so far as to become agnostics or atheists. But any who, in reality, ever truly knew the Father or the Son, will recognize us – will recognize the sameness in what we say and what we do, and the truth that is with us. However, it is still only those who possess this deposit that even have a chance to engage that recognition, and it still must be sought after.

For those who have been led astray as followers of these religious efforts – that is, those who’ve been naively manipulated and deceived – we offer a rare window of opportunity for rescue. You are witness to an extremely significant space in time for all inhabitants of Earth, as well as for any others who relate to this creative planet (the human-equivalent space aliens) – a time when a member of the true Kingdom of God is physically present “on the surface” of this globe occupying a human flesh container, or body. He is working closely with His Father, who resides in the literal heavens, to bring this civilization to a close. A part of that task includes not only exposing the great deception of the religions, clearing the “family name” of the lies spread in His absence, but salvaging any souls worthy of further nurturing, that is, sorting out which souls will be spared the imminent recycling/annihilation – the plowing under of this garden. He is here for any souls who wish to be literally “saved” and thereby aligned with the possibility of a “future.” Therefore, we recommend that any who feel they may be a “potential offspring” of the true Kingdom of God, and suspect they have been “victimized” by the opposition, access www.heavensgate.com and reserve their judgment until after thorough examination.

Help is available if you direct your asking with all of your heart, all of your soul, and all of your mind to the highest source you can imagine. And as a safeguard to the many counterfeits, we recommend that you project your thoughts outside not only the atmosphere of this planet, but beyond the nearby heavens, that is, outside the realm in which the human-equivalent space aliens are permitted to circulate. And as it has been given, “as ye ask, ye shall receive.” Just be sure you direct your asking to the right source – to the One responsible for creating you – the One responsible for the nurturing of this planet and all that exists upon it. Good luck – the ones against such effort are extremely cunning!

Evolutionary “Rights” for “Victims”

This paper assumes that you are already familiar with our material, and is an attempt to present a few personal thoughts on Ti and Do’s task here that may prove helpful to any who are ready to leave everything to go “home.” I feel very lucky to have been allowed the honor of accompanying two Older Members of the Level Above Human on the toughest assignment there is (their words, not mine). I also feel that I’ve learned lessons here that probably could not have been learned anywhere else. I have enjoyed this task, although at times it sure seemed tough.

I could be wrong but think that the two main purposes of our task were: (1) to individually work on overcoming the human characteristics of the vehicles and discarnate influences assigned to us (thus gaining strength, and hopefully qualifying for a Next Level vehicle upon task completion), and (2) to set the record straight, i.e., provide assistance to the human level, which we feel is being victimized by the space aliens. It has become apparent that the purpose of this garden is to serve as a stepping stone, a “school” to learn lessons in, and from which to graduate to the Evolutionary Level Above Human. For this school to work best as a kind of “womb” for the germination of new members who are non-mammalian, genderless, and selfless, it seems that any civilized society should honor the following “rights,” in order to minimize space-alien interference in the evolution of souls here.

- The right to qualify my thoughts – saying, for example, “I could be wrong,” or “I don’t know, what do you think?” – without people assuming that I am indecisive

We’ve learned that it is Next Level way, and a sign of maturity and wisdom, to not answer off the top of the head, but to think, act, and talk with no confidence. From experience, I have realized that this vehicle’s objectivity is not “worth a toot” and that trusting its judgment, opinion, or memory doesn’t work (isn’t accurate). My Older Members taught me everything worth knowing, including how to remain open and flexible. I am totally dependent on them for everything and am better off because of it. I am lost without them, and only someone who doesn’t know them would see this dependency as a sign of weakness. To me, trying to do anything on your own is silly when Representatives are sent from the Next Level to show you a better way. There are still facts that we don’t know much about, since the Next Level (through Ti and Do) feeds us our “nourishment” (Next Level mind/information) one step at a time, as needed. But one thing I have learned, thank goodness, is how ignorant I am, so it is very important for me to qualify what I think and say.

- The right to stop being so victimized – to “sober up” from the “drunken” state induced by engaging in sensuality, drugs, and various family and religious activities that keep humans so preoccupied with concerns of the world that they seem unable to recognize facts that contradict everything they have been taught

No one was ever more skeptical, stubborn, and “independent” than this silly vehicle (my body), which believed it had freedom, intelligence, and uniqueness. The truth of the matter was that this vehicle, like all others on this planet, was a slave to its programming and a victim of the “radio signals” promoting addictive behavior beamed at it by the space aliens. It was only superficially different from other slaves, and only “free” to choose which addictions it preferred. It is the way of the Next Level to give everyone a free-will choice, and not sell their ways or recruit new members.

As far as we can tell, all human vehicles currently have destructive genetic programming. They have become the unknowing victims of misinformation and degradation, and are kept “blinded” and ignorant purposely by the space aliens in order to carry out their own agenda. My classmates and I have occupied human vehicles for over 20 years and know well what the programming is here. Humans don’t realize how the aliens use religions, the media, the government, the education system, and so on, to program them to accept their bondage. And although we know that humans are innocent victims, in a sense, not having asked to be bombarded with misinformation, they are no less in bondage. Part of our assigned task is to try to present the facts as we see them in hopes of liberating them.

- The right to true religious freedom – the right to go counter to the standard religious programming – the right to join a non-mainstream group, no matter how different their belief – as long as I don’t hurt others, without being viewed in a negative light

To me religious freedom means the right to go through a metamorphosis undisturbed, to try to evolve by renouncing the world and choosing to leave this level behind. It also means having the right to at least try to be “brainwashed” (wash my vehicle’s brain of all corrupt programming and replace it with Next Level programming) in an effort to become a new creature that can circulate in a new world. We have found that it is not easy to be brainwashed, even when trying our best, and I feel my best chance of getting the facts (Truth) straight is to be free of human programming. What would really interfere is to be “deprogrammed for my own good” by someone wanting to “save me from myself.” Deprogrammers and cult-awareness people must be naive or ignorant of the space aliens’ tricks; they do not realize how they are being used to confuse the facts. They wouldn’t be doing what they are doing if they realized the facts: that misinformation is so common and real information so rare on this planet, any group having a glimpse of it would be labeled a “cult” by the mainstream, who make the rules and define the terms. Those who support the status quo unknowingly “throw out the baby with the bath water;” i.e., debunking all unusual groups automatically means attacking any real Representatives of the Kingdom of Heaven. Ironically, they find fault with the very things that prove we are from the true Heavens, sent here to free them.

- The right to believe that my Teachers are the return of the same mind (Do) that was in Jesus and His Father (Ti), and Do is the only Next Level Rep currently on this planet, and the right to share this information to help others

I know this is hard to believe because our vehicles’ brains have all been carefully programmed to reject it. But I also know from experience, and from the information they bear, that this is true, and I cannot deny what I have come to know. Based on 20 years of developing a “personal relationship” with my Teachers, I am committed to them and know I knew them previous to awakening here, although I also feel the Next Level carefully prevents my remembering any of the details (for obvious reasons). I’ve come to know them and to know that they are not just some advanced human equivalent (space alien) using a human body, but are from the Level Above Human. They seem to have no human ego, no desire to be leaders, nor to be recognized as something special. They are humble, direct, and have proven many times that their only desire is to be selfless instruments of their Older Members. They are gentle and modest, yet no one is stronger willed or more disciplined, and their example has kept me going through some pretty rough times. I have lived in the same quarters with them for periods of times, and know first hand what they do and how they act 24 hours a day. I know they consistently live what they teach. In addition, I wish I could convey how great their sense of humor is, and how much fun they are to be around.

The bottom line is that I know they are from the only true Owners, Authority, and Law here, and I’ve come to trust that they know what is best for all of us. Because of all that is happening in the world, it may be clear to many that recycle time is here, but you may not know that the only way we know to survive the “farmer’s plow” is to begin learning from the current Next Level Rep how to become non-mammalian. If I’m not mistaken, Do has had the task of playing the “Savior” role twice to a world that doesn’t seem to want to be “saved,” at least not if it means drastically changing and upgrading their human-level behavior.

- The right to investigate such esoteric subjects as astrology, karma, spirits, UFO’s, etc. without being judged as “satanic” or into the “dreaded occult”

For example, astrology can be used as merely a game to help with understanding the Kingdom of Heaven’s system of directing energies (fertilizer) at the garden. It might also be used to gain insights into the programming of one’s “plant” (body) to have an idea of what to work against, as opposed to using it to increase humanness. A knowledge of spirits can help one recognize, label, and abort discarnate “influences,” as opposed to using it to call in more spirit “helpers,” thus getting more hooked on the world. We would never deliberately “channel” spirits (discarnates), and we believe that those who do mistakenly think they are filled with the “holy ghost,” or some “ascended master.” But the content of their messages (their “fruit”) makes it clear to us that they are really just being used as a mouthpiece by aliens.

- The right to be told the truth about all Biblical research and discoveries, such as the Dead Sea Scrolls, and not be “protected” from any data that might contradict the accepted dogma and threaten the church’s authority

For example, from what I’ve read, if the Dead Sea Scrolls are accurate, it seems that the Essenes were very radical in their beliefs, indistinguishable from the Zealots and Sicarri, who today would likely be labeled “patriot terrorists.” Their lives were committed to following the “Law” (of God) at all costs, rather than compromising with the worldly philosophies and religions that dominated the area at that time.

- The right to expose that, as far as we can tell, Paul was the real “founder” of Christianity and, ironically, was Satan’s best agent in “deep cover” used to corrupt Jesus’ message

According to a number of findings of recent scholars, Paul started out persecuting the early followers of Jesus. Later, after a vision and supposed conversion, he joined the young church (infiltrated the “cult”?), and some suspect that he may really have been an “intelligence agent” of the Roman Empire (the “New World Order” of the time). The true followers of Jesus (those who had a personal relationship with him, who lived with him, asked him questions, were corrected by him, and knew from personal daily experience how he thought and approached circumstances), realized that Paul, well-meaningly or purposely, as part of a conspiracy or not, was compromising everything that Jesus taught. Some scholars now believe that James, brother of Jesus, and Peter, knew they were under attack by the “opposition,” and therefore recalled Paul to Jerusalem and censored him. It seems that they tried at “Damascus” (possibly a code name for Qumran, a main “militia” base of the time), to help save Jesus’ message by “deprogramming” Paul (and his followers) from misinformation (teaching him how to correctly interpret Jesus’ overcoming formula). Then, when all else failed, new evidence seems to suggest that the more radical-minded Zealots vowed to kill Paul, and the high priest of the Sanhedrin, as “traitors” to the true “Church,” but Rome intervened with troops, protected him, relocated him to Rome, and put him in the Empire’s “witness protection” program. If this information is accurate, what are the ramifications regarding “Christianity,” the religion?

- The right to expose what seems to be one of Paul’s main “blasphemies,” i.e., that no one needs to change significantly in order to meet the “entry requirements,” but can be saved and enter Heaven by “faith alone”

In my experience, unfortunately, it seems that most fundamentalist Christians judge negatively any group whom they see as following “unscriptural doctrines and ethics” or whose “beliefs are distinctly opposed to historical, orthodox Christianity.” But whom do they quote as the basis of this judgment? Paul! Yet it seems that Paul compromised the overcoming formula that Jesus brought, repackaging it to create a new, more palatable, more marketable “concoction” that allowed people to stay in the world and still call themselves followers of Jesus.

The Luciferians (space aliens) seem to have concentrated their main attack on the Judeo-Christian heritage, since that was where, as far as we know, the Next Level has done the most work. The Next Level taught the Israelites simple rules to live by for every occasion, thus reprogramming them with very basic Next Level information. Yet, the Bible and other history books indicate that despite these efforts, last time around the Rep (Jesus) finally gave up going to the Jewish religious (the natural recipients) with His message, since they rejected it, and today it’s the same when we try to go to the Judeo-Christian religious. In our view, neither the Jewish vehicles (bodies) of today, nor those of the Christians, as groups, seem to be the “chosen people,” because the real chosen are souls, not vehicles. (Perhaps you could say that today’s Christians are a main focus of corruption. They have bought Paul’s misinformation so completely that they are living a 4000-year-old morality. And by denying the overcoming formula that Jesus brought, without realizing it, they have become propagators of totally contrary information, i.e., the “Anti-Christ.”) Amazingly, to me, they accepted nothing substantial of what the Son brought, but use His name, and thus can be mistaken by those with deposits as having an update, when in fact they are a counterfeit and their gospel is a dead-end street. It seems to us that the true “Israelites” are those souls chosen by the Next Level to be given a deposit, either previously or currently, in preparation for the coming of the Rep. Therefore, they are referred to as “born again,” and they have a chance to respond to this information and its bearer, opting to receive or reject the nourishment that only an Older Member can give.

- The right to see that no human belief system, religious or secular, can be based on factual information, unless it comes directly from the current Rep

Please note, however, that the Next Level reads peoples' hearts and monitors their actions, which speak louder than words. They do not care if you have been an atheist, an agnostic, a pagan, a criminal, an addict, or the most devout born-again Christian on the planet. All that really counts is your response to the Rep here and now. It is interesting to us that today it appears that the Muslim and Buddhist cultures, for example, sometimes demonstrate more Next Level characteristics, such as modesty, restraint, and a greater attempt at renunciation of the addictions and ways of this world. Buddha may also have been a Rep, perhaps performing a different "experiment" for the Next Level. (Any message of renunciation of this world would seem to have originated with the Next Level, because why would Lucifer work against himself?) As far as we can tell, by demonstrating his hatred and denial of this world, Buddha updated Hinduism (which had been corrupted) in much the same way that Jesus updated the corrupted Jewish religion. But Buddha's message has now also been distorted to the point where it is mainly ritual and myth that keeps people sidetracked, hooked on the "drug" of spirituality.

To me, the situation regarding religions today is like having all computer program files (all original Next Level messages) corrupted by a space alien computer virus that only the Next Level Rep can restore to readability. And the only reality is to connect with the Reps from the only real potential future, while they visit in the present, and go out on their coattails, while the door is open. It's that simple!

- The right to expose the "Prosperity Gospel" as off track – a corruption of Next Level information

The charismatic Christian evangelists serve as the primary mediums for the forces in opposition to the messianic message, when they say, "If you really had a relationship with the Lord, as I do, He would bless you with wealth, for He wants you to have a full life with wife, kids, grandkids, and even a rich sex life." If this were true, where were Jesus' wife, kids, and wealth in this world? Wouldn't it be only a counterfeit god that would reward prayer by giving things that increase humanness and bind people more to the world? To me, it seems that these evangelists are well meaning, but are being used to pass on lies. If they and their followers don't wake up to what's really going on, we fear that they are assured of death, because their urgency to change is effectively all but destroyed. It seems evident that the aliens use preachers to try to con humans into believing that they can have all the inducements of this level, guilt free. But humanness is not allowed in the Next Level, and to get there you must attempt to drop all human/mammalian ways while in the human kingdom.

- The right to become a Eunuch for the sake of the Kingdom of God – to be non-mammalian, genderless, and celibate (mentally and physically abstaining from all sensuality), and not be seen as "unnatural" or as "missing out on something"

I don't remember the details, but I think I volunteered to be stationed for training in this "Hell." I think I asked to go on a mission under the toughest possible conditions in hopes of gaining strength and proving my loyalty (proving that nothing of the "other side" can any longer tempt me to fall away, as Lucifer and his followers fell). The vehicle I was assigned to was heavily into the world (sex, romance, music, drugs, and gluttony; i.e., indulging in anything to give it a "buzz"). I've had to work like crazy to block memories of the vehicle's desires and the suffering that goes with the futile attempt to satisfy them. Now it's pleasant to sustain self-restraint and to be of service, and I get great satisfaction from pleasing my Older Member. It seems that the degree of control of my vehicle's replicating machinery (reproductive plumbing) is one good measure of closeness to the Next Level, which finds any sensuality offensive.

We feel that everyone should also have the right to actually do something, if necessary, in order to not have to occupy a gender-oriented "plant" (body) preoccupied with reproductive activity, including: 1) Control the vehicle's thoughts and eliminate any gender-role-playing characteristics to help "sober up" from hormones that keep the body intoxicated, stupid, empty-headed, and "blind." 2) To find a physician who will prescribe medication designed to stop the body's production of reproductive hormones. 3) Have the vehicle neutered to stop the production of these hormones permanently.

To the best of my knowledge, using "sex magic," "black magic," Tantric or Taoist techniques to "raise the kundalini," to "raise consciousness," "open chakras," or to awaken the "spiritual eye" are backward distortions. My experience is that all you ever raise is Cain, and all you open is Pandora's box. To me, trying to overcome a reproductive level by using reproductive plumbing is about on a par with "fighting for peace."

- The right to research/uncover/know the facts behind conspiracies, cover-ups, and disinformation, without being labeled a terrorist or traitor

I believe that the Next Level created all that is, including their opposition, so that a real alternative, a real choice, would be presented to humans. Written records seem to show that Jesus eventually went to the sinners and the misfits (some of whom were patriots and rebels disillusioned with both the religious leaders and the government). And today, those who hate this world and its corrupt systems, religions, morality, and laws are in a real sense our allies (although, of course, we may not agree with them on specific points). It seems that we have a common "enemy" – the space-alien with their "alleged" conspiracies designed to prepare (program) the whole planet to accept a "New World Order," a "New World Religion" that would destroy the ability of this world to function as a Next Level garden.

However, it also seems that aliens have deluded "patriots" as well, sidetracking some into thinking their Lord would have them re-establish the original "perfect republic," or strive for "Aryan purity," restore family values (including female submission to being second-class citizens), etc. In all honesty, my understanding is that these are not ways of the Next Level. The only Christ that would preach racism, human family values, or any version of Heaven on Earth is the Anti-Christ, and any patriots who want to be closer to their Creator would be better off putting all their energies into finding the Reps, and attempting to go to the only place where they can really be free, the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

From some of the materials that we’ve examined (materials available to the public), it seems that many of the conspiracy theories are based in fact, although the opposition does its best to twist the truth. More and more facts are coming to the surface, and they seem to indicate that the aliens, through their puppets, make up a secret government (labeled variously as the Illuminati, Globalists, Bilderbergers, International Bankers, Trilateralists, CFR, Council of 300, MJ-12, etc.), which manipulates citizens into surrendering their God-given rights in exchange for the illusion of equality, law and order, security, and most important, peace. Yet, it seems that world peace can be enforced only by use of military force. How can this lead to anything but stagnation, with everyone having to act and think as the world government dictates (slavery) or face custody, punishment, or even death (of the vehicle)? They seem to control almost all sources of information (programming). It is becoming harder and harder to function outside their system, and at the same time, their laws (legislated morality) seem to drift further from God’s Law all the time. It has come to the point where it’s hard to see any real difference between government and religions, since both feel they know best what is “right conduct” and what is “wrong conduct.”

We believe that the Next Level owns everything, and that they provided more than enough to go around, if shared. Don’t forget, it seems that the Next Level’s original suggestions for running an economy, based on the Old Testament, included such things as periodically forgiving all debts and freeing all slaves (e.g., Jubilee Year), providing for widows and orphans, and forbidding the charging of interest. Didn’t Jesus and His disciples pool all their resources, and didn’t they drive the money lenders out of the temple?

- The right to be “gender-blind” and “color-blind,” not identifying myself or others as their vehicle’s gender, sexual orientation, race, or ethnic background, without being seen as a naive “idealist”

Since Next Level bodies are genderless, doesn’t it make sense that a potential member needs to overcome gender consciousness? I’m not talking only about anatomical differences, but also the genetic history (as it involves how the vehicle (body) has been programmed to think and respond) and the circulating hormones that contribute to how male or female its identity is. Being “gay” or “straight” is the vehicle’s programmed sexual “addiction” based on its genetic history, hormonal balance, and the gender consciousness that the discarnates it is hosting identify with. From the Next Level’s point of view, being sexual at all is primitive, and eventually must be outgrown by anyone hoping to move up. Therefore, neither heterosexual nor homosexual is acceptable. In fact, the original meaning of “fornication” seems to have been “any sexual activity,” but the aliens have reprogrammed people to interpret it as only “any sexual activity outside of ‘holy matrimony.’”

The aliens also seem to have people focused on their vehicle’s racial “roots,” celebrating and fighting for the right to be different yet equal. History shows that fighting for racial or ethnic civil rights tends to increase the consciousness of separateness, leading inevitably to more misunderstandings, stereotyping, discrimination, and conflict. To me, no one is more knowledgeable than my Teachers about how rude and crude this level can be, but they always approached everyone the same, “thinking the highest,” expecting them to act decently. Only if someone responded otherwise, did they act accordingly. Heavenly days, to enter Heaven we want to eliminate things that are different about us – and separate us from our Older Members – we want to all be as much as possible of the same mind.

- The right to identify as the mind, not the vehicle, knowing that if I should lose the vehicle, it would not be me that would die, because “I” am the spirit or soul, not the body, and “I” continue on My understanding is that the soul is actually freed from the discomfort of an old “suit of clothes” when the vehicle is dropped. It doesn’t make any sense to me that the driver “dies” when his “car” (body) stops “running.” To me, the body is just a “leaf” of the “tree,” and the genetic strain (family tree) doesn’t end when the leaf’s function becomes impaired. When it is becoming a burden on me and others, and whenever my choices are so restricted that growth is impossible, or ridiculously difficult, it is part of the design to evacuate it like a tree sheds a leaf. In contrast, human suicide (identifying as the body and trying to “end it all” for the purpose of avoiding the growth pains of lessons) gets you nowhere. It seems clear that longevity, physical beauty, and sex appeal are all Luciferian concepts based on identifying as only the body and its desires. After all, what’s the point of extending a life that’s meaningless? All what’s important to me is how much can I change to be like those who are already members of the Kingdom of Heaven, because I want to be a match for my new Next Level vehicle.

- The right to live in a “cloistered” environment without people assuming I am being “held against my will”

“I” am not this vehicle. I am a young member of the Level Above Human, and I (the soul filled with mind) know I didn’t even come from this world, but probably our crew came here in a spacecraft. Therefore, I identify with my classmates as my family, and my Older Members as my “parents.” And as long as they will have me, I will do my best to live by their ways (to me, the most evolved “family values” in existence). I no longer associate with being part of a human family, now that I know who I really am, what I’m here for, and what I’m a part of.

The Next Level cares for all who look to it for nurturing. And, if I remember correctly, many of my classmates were not only “allowed” to leave our class whenever they chose to, but were assisted financially, given cars, and helped to find housing and work back in the world if they chose to leave. Many of those who left voluntarily later realized what they had thrown away, “re-applied” for membership in the “class,” and some were “re-admitted.” They are very glad to be back, and of course were welcomed back by all of us with open arms. Some students were even asked to leave by our Teachers, when it had become apparent that the classroom wasn’t working for them. Some who left in this manner, learned certain lessons needed outside the class, then also returned to complete their schooling.

- The right to a nomadic lifestyle, a “mobile status” (not living or working in one place very long, and not having to commit to leases, and unreasonable deposits, etc.), without people assuming I’m not trustworthy or dependable or that I have something to hide

No human really knows their future, despite their committing to long leases or long-term jobs. They never know for sure when some accident, disease, or family situation will change their plans, making them “undependable.” The difference is that we try to be more honest and objective, not wanting to promise a commitment we may not be able to keep. But humans, more and more, tend to expect what seems to us unrealistic longer and longer commitments. The question is, how can I put down "roots" and still stay available for immediate service to the Next Level? How can I keep my first priority and commitment to the Next Level and stay ready to go where "the spirit leads" (where the Next Level instructs) if I make a long-term commitment? I can't! It seems then that one of the main ways the opposition binds humans is with obligations. So, to be free, you need to be free of contracts and commitments.

If Biblical history is accurate, the Lord related to the Israelites most closely while they were nomadic in the wilderness. All that time, the Next Level provided proof of their existence and concern by providing a cloud of light (UFO) to accompany them, and they took care of them. But the people grew bored with manna and wanted meat. Then they wanted to settle down, depending not on the Next Level anymore, but on their family connections and human skills. With this choice came obligations, and the Israelites soon lost everything and reaped the results of rejecting the Lord's protection.

I've been given enough "smelling salts" to realize that for me this place is a death trap where the "dead bury their dead," and none of us, least of all my Teachers, has anything to gain personally by trying to awaken you. But we remember the pain of our own ignorance and are glad to help in any way we can. The opposition will tell any lies, total nonsense, to destroy our credibility, but what they don't understand is that the last thing we want is credibility in this world. The true Rep and His "children" are the "anti-Anti-Christ," and those who refuse to face the facts seem to always hate those who demonstrate that they live the facts. All through this task I've looked to my Older Members, and they always had unbelievable patience with my growth pains. They took care of my needs and much more, and I guarantee that they will take care of all your needs too, if you turn to them as I have. I hope these thoughts help you understand your "right" to do so.

Deposits

For thousands of years, humanity thought of itself as the creation of either a supreme being, or a group of superior beings. Then, suddenly, there emerged the idea that humanity was the latest update in what had begun as a mindless, but enormous cosmic accident. Almost overnight, the cult of Science catapulted an unruly, adolescent public, eager to be free of unreasonable constraints, out “into the streets” to wander aimlessly. What, one is forced to wonder, could have been the basis of such a monumental shift in consciousness? Seemingly, according to some versions given in the history books, it was nothing more than professorial observations and deliberations upon the fact that some lizards which, having been isolated on the Galapagos Islands for thousands of years, developed certain traits which differed slightly from those of lizards existing on the mainland.

Although Darwin’s Theory of Evolution quickly gained widespread acceptance throughout Western civilization, we can’t help but continue to wonder – if a person examined thoroughly, from a truly unbiased point of view, all the facts available at this time, might it become apparent that the real impetus behind mankind’s “evolving” psyche has actually come from space aliens (technologically advanced human-equivalents) who, desiring total control over humanity, have been subliminally programming their unknowing servants here on Earth (an intellectual and financial “elite”) this theory of evolution along with most other religions, philosophies, and scientific breakthroughs – all as “next steps” in their programming agenda?

We are aware that this will strike many as sounding even more far-fetched than the first possible explanation, but if this theory of evolution were actually correct, and if the reasoning were accurate, why then such constant and pervasive pronouncements from “prestigious” members of the scientific community (not to mention professional UFO debunkers) that, despite the ease (and speed) with which the evolution of species occurred here on Earth, there existed no chance for similar organic compounds to have happened to clump, accidentally, together in intelligent-life-producing fashion somewhere “out there”?

Mankind is at best only a “child” – the creation of a Kingdom Level of existence far more evolved, advanced, mature, and complete than anything humans are capable of imagining. The human kingdom was set in motion, as were the kingdom levels beneath human, according to a specific and carefully crafted design – and with a specific purpose in mind. In the beginning of a civilization, the Level Above Human plants all the life forms (including humans) in a neutral condition so that they have the chance to choose the direction of their growth. Every person is constantly faced with circumstances which present options, and thus, they constantly make choices according to desires that are more often subliminal than conscious. No matter what the circumstances might be, everyone has the free will to choose how to respond – and those responses will lead that person either in the direction of being less of a slave, or to become more enmeshed in those circumstances.

Whatever choices human beings make as individuals, or as societies, ultimately do not interfere with the Next Level’s design or purpose. The space aliens (remnants of civilizations created long ago by the Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, but who got off track) do their best to promote their own agenda, but whatever they do, they only serve the grand design (unknowingly) by providing further options. They provide the negative; the necessary catalyst for the growth of souls which are introduced into this “womb-like” environment. Souls are “placed in the balance” by the Next Level to choose, under the guidance of incarnate Members of that Kingdom Level Above Human, either the ways of the Level Above Human, which lead to selflessness, humility, reality, and life – or the self-serving ways of the Luciferian Space Aliens who oppose it, which are based upon misinformation and lead to greater illusion and death.

Thus, the purpose of this creation is to produce new members for the Level Above Human. Though members of that Level have physical bodies, the bodies have no gender. (Replication based on gender was designed for the plant and animal kingdoms.) New members of the Kingdom of Heaven are born through a metamorphic process which begins when the Level Above Human, or Next Level, “plants seeds,” – places deposits or “chips” of Next Level mind (mind that comes from the Creator, the Chief of Chiefs, or Most High God – the term you use is not important) into human “plants” during times when they relate very closely to the garden-planet, and during “follow-up” visits that occur at roughly 2000-year intervals after the initial planting. A deposit is potentially the gift of life for it contains the programming necessary to begin the metamorphic process which can lead to entry into the real Evolutionary Level Above Human, where there is no death.

When the Next Level checks out the human population and finds individuals that seem to have potential, they know it’s time to “plant” seeds or give them deposits. Whatever criteria the Next Level has for planting the “seeds” where they do, would probably not be obvious to human perception. The person may or may not appear to be religious. An atheist may have a greater desire for the facts than a preacher who believes he is serving God. Humans cannot judge, only the Level Above Human can judge. The person with this new deposit cannot even judge. The first reaction to the deposit may be, “What is happening? Goodness, none of this has any meaning for me anymore. Is there something, somewhere that has some meaning? I’ve got to find something, I don’t even know what, but there must be something that can take me farther than where I am.”

These seed-like deposits can also be compared to tiny computer chips programmed with a sort of “homing device” to seek nourishment which can come only from a member of the Level Above Human who visits Earth and incarnates into a human body. For a soul to be “fertilized” and begin to grow, the deposit must make contact with that Representative of the Level Above Human. This germination can happen even through just hearing about the Representative, or coming into contact with some of the information brought by the Representative, because information and mind are the same thing.

Mind is invisible to the human eye. When the deposit makes contact with the Representative, it is an actual physical contact between the mind of the deposit and the mind or information brought by that member of the Next Level – called by humans “the Kingdom of Heaven.” While Jesus was able to perform His task, 2000 years ago, with His Father in a spacecraft in the nearby Heavens, His followers needed Him to be in a human vehicle (body) at close range so they could pull in the nourishment/information/mind they needed to graft to the “vine” of His Mind (which was – and is – grafted to the mind of His Father, and on up the vine to the mind of the Chief). Also, it is always necessary for a Member of the Next Level to physically leave the Kingdom of Heaven, come to Earth, and incarnate into a human body because Next Level Mind must be “stepped down” significantly for the “fertilization or germination” of new souls and the nourishment of young souls to be possible. For a young soul to be able to bond or graft to the vine of mind of the Next Level, there must be a point at which the frequency of each can connect.

A human being is a spirit contained within a physical body during a lifetime and released into the spirit world when that physical body becomes too damaged or worn out to be usable. A soul, on the other hand, grows from a deposit of Next Level Mind, as described above, and becomes a container for more and more Next Level Mind. It can continue to grow wiser and stronger (larger and more dense), so long as it seeks the nourishment provided by its Father (or Older Member) – that Member of the Level Above Human who has been assigned the task of visiting the garden to “midwife” candidates for new membership. If the soul continues to choose to look to and draw nourishment from the Older Member, then at the end of its “lifetime” (at the time of death of the body it has been using), it is taken into the keeping of the Level Above Human, “placed on ice” in the sense that it is removed from the human environment (does not go into the spirit world), though it may not yet be able to participate in Next Level activities. It is set aside, so to speak, until the next cyclical visit of a Next Level Representative to the garden.

Metamorphosis is not ordinarily accomplishable or completed during only one period of visitation from the Level Above Human. Therefore, at the cyclical visitations, a second type of deposit (or one with different ingredients) is placed in human vehicles for the ones returning, in addition to any new deposits being made for new souls. This type of deposit contains a program that will set aside or “tag” a vehicle until the appropriate time for a young soul to incarnate into it. Again, the programming still includes the desire to seek nourishment from the Older Member, but it also contains information to help the young soul pick up where it left off; work on the lessons it still needs to learn and benefit from areas where it has grown strong. At this stage, as at any other, the soul can choose to drop its program of Next Level study. It has free will and can always choose to become interested in the misinformation that is aggressively preached by the Luciferian Space Aliens. If it should make that choice, it may later attempt to get back on track after seeing through the illusion of the misinformation, or it may become too attached to the feeling of pride and ego and taking credit for things, and ultimately find itself growing in the direction of the space aliens – though ones in this situation would not likely recognize this to be the case themselves.

There is still another type of deposit. Whenever a Member of the Kingdom Level Above Human visits a garden such as Earth, a human vehicle (body) must be “tagged” and set aside for that Representative’s use. The programming in such a deposit would differ greatly from the programs meant for either a beginning soul or a young soul returning to continue its growth.

Not all humans have souls. On this garden there are human “plants” who have not received deposits, those with deposits/souls who are receiving nourishment from the present Representatives toward completing their metamorphosis, and those with deposits/souls who are not in a direct relationship with Representatives due to either not yet having come in contact with the Representatives, or having lost their choice to pursue the nourishment of the Level Above Human. Humans with deposits containing souls can likely be identified at this time as some of those who are rapidly losing respect for this world or its “system.” From the system’s point of view, they are often irresponsible citizens, whether their symptoms take the form of being “homeless,” prisoners, other social dropouts (doing drugs, alcohol, losing respect for the family and career norms), or religious or political radicals. At this point in time – the end of this civilization – all the souls who were deposited since the beginning of the civilization (about 6000 years ago), whether they have been faithfully trying to do their best to learn Next Level ways or have “fallen away,” have been brought back. The Next Level is more than fair, and before closing the door of the Kingdom of Heaven to any soul, gives more than ample time for each to make a decision and either stick with it or lose it.

Religions have attempted to describe man’s relationship to his Creator, but they have all been tools of the space aliens. Although all religions contain seeds of truth which were planted by the Evolutionary Level Above Human, space aliens have twisted those truths so that souls might be blinded to the intended meaning and more easily influenced to do the opposite of what would be in their own best interest.

Life, truth, the facts, reality, Next Level Mind – all are the synonymous, and that which they refer to doesn’t “stand still.” It comes from the Chief of Chiefs. It cannot be contained in dogma or ritual. If you are one who wants ultimately to become something of value, you have to grow with it, change constantly, seek and accept higher understandings each day – drop old concepts. What comprises reality or “the facts” for one soul cannot be exactly the same as reality for any other soul. The facts for one soul one day, cannot remain the facts, or the soul will begin to go retrograde. Eternal life comes from eternally choosing to seek nourishment from your Older Member, drawing Next Level Mind into your soul – putting into practice the behavior and thinking (information) that make up that mind, and “fluffing off” out-dated mind – letting go of old concepts, forgetting the past.

Humanity is not the apex of evolution. The Chief of Chiefs is, and He is continually growing and improving. A state of perfection can never be reached, for that would be Death. The Evolutionary Level Above Human, the Kingdom of Heaven, where the Chief resides, is a level of existence wherein the many members do not experience death or decay. They are able to circulate throughout the Heavens, they know themselves to be souls (containers for mind), and they are able to “wear” different bodies, as different tasks are assigned them, as easily as humans (who have come to think of themselves as nothing more than bodies) wear different suits of clothes.

The human kingdom was created to be the starting point of a wondrous adventure which can lead to Eternal Life for those who have received a deposit and continue to have unquenchable thirst for the truth. It is through the metamorphosis of such souls that newborns of the Kingdom of Heaven come into being if they continue to receive Next Level nourishment and continue to accept and overcome every challenge placed in their way by the aggressive influence of the opposing forces – the Luciferian space aliens. Still, every individual has free will – and may always choose from a variety of other options that were all provided by the Next Level; for The Next Level wants only those individuals who have proven their mettle.

A young soul may be confused at first by the allure of the “holographic creation” we call Earth or humanity, and although the deposit provides the ability to see through the illusion, the person must still exert serious effort in order to find, connect with, and bond or graft to the Representative who was sent to be the “midwife.” The Representative might seem anti-human or blasphemous from the point of view of the space aliens’ programming, but the deposit gives the ability to recognize the simple honesty and goodness which is characteristic of all Members of the Next Level. The deposit can help make it very clear how Next Level information contrasts greatly from the options that space aliens aggressively preach from the pulpits, expound from the universities, and enforce from the halls of so-called justice – and which lead to a complete dead end.

In the design of the garden, the Luciferians unknowingly serve the Level Above Human by being the catalyst for growth. They labor to keep humans with soul deposits programmed to continue to function at the animal level so they will not be able to recognize the Next Level when it comes. They preach that God wants us to remain on Earth as humans indulging in the sensuality of a gender-based society in a vain attempt to secure their continued existence. They are for the most part aware that with the cyclical spading-under of the garden, which is imminent as this is the end of the Age, their ranks are scheduled to be recycled as well.

This gift of life, this deposit, the Next Level gives freely, for They have no need of new or additional members. It is simply Their pleasure to offer Life to human plants who otherwise have no future. Thank God for sending Representatives and for depositing souls so that some may become a part of Their Kingdom.

The World's Most Successful Con Game

Anyone who's been the victim of a con artist is probably like me and hates to admit that he's been taken. I really wanted to believe and even thought the deal, like most good cons, was almost too good to be true, since the person who sold me on it fully believed in it himself. When the con artist is himself being conned and has the stature and image of authority, it's twice as tough to see through the "something for nothing" smoke screen. What is even more pitiful is the fact that more than 95% of the Western world's population believe this "con," which gives it mass respectability because, as we're led to believe, "Might makes right."

When the con man is finally caught and his game exposed, you would think that he'd be arrested, charged, and jailed. What makes it even more outrageous is that this "con," which extorts more money than the Mafia could ever dream of, is legal and has the blessing of all the Western world "establishments." In fact, they not only fully endorse it, but it is the false foundation they use to justify imposing their laws of morality on the world, that increasingly enslave its citizens.

Who are these con men and what is the game they sell so convincingly? The con is religion – and the carnival midway hucksters are most of the Christian TV Evangelists. They are the most wicked thieves on Earth for they not only prey on your hopes and dreams and take your money, but by far the bigger crime is that they rob the souls of those who look to them for the way out of the human level and into the Heavenly Kingdom. Instead of freedom from slavery, what they cleverly package in the name of Jesus and market to eager buyers, are actually "tighter shackles" that more securely bind a human to this corrupt world.

A simple fact: A con man is a liar to the facts which he often knows, but purposely hides. When he has himself been conned into thoroughly believing the lie to be true, he is, without a doubt, its most productive flock-gathering and fund-raising salesman. Such is the legal fleecing of the gullible by many an evangelist. By his slick distortion of the facts, he makes the True God's hard-to-get prize, appear easily won without any effort. When his game is exposed and you can clearly see how he was stealing your life-long dream of attaining God's Kingdom, your anger is justified because what you believed would happen, won't, and never will happen his way. Since you're not dead yet, maybe there's still time for you to connect with the Representative from God's Kingdom who is here now and knows from experience the steps to free you from being a slave to this world.

In Las Vegas, before you roll the dice or pull the slots handle, you know the odds might be 7 to 5 against your winning, or maybe 3 to 2, but sometimes you get lucky, beat the odds, and win. The odds of you becoming a member of God's Kingdom by following the evangelists' teachings of "you don't have to do anything but believe, for He did it all for you," are no less than 100% against. When training for admission into the Heavenly Kingdom, luck doesn't apply, and coming close doesn't get any payoff either. Winning is all that counts. There are no silver or bronze awards, only gold.

Making it through Heaven's Gate is what every evangelist, minister, priest, pope, and rabbi say they want for themselves and preach about daily to their congregations, yet most avoid telling the hard-core facts about the basic entry requirements. Either they don't know them, or if they do, they purposely hide them. Either way, you are kept in the dark and are the victim. If they did tell the bottom line, they would soon lose their congregations, income, and job, because those who want in God's House more than anything else, would quickly leave them and everything else of this world behind. You now know the evangelist lied when he said you could have God's Kingdom without any effort. After reading the facts below, do you still want the Kingdom of God, and if you do, are you willing to do what ever it takes to attain it?

1. Evangelist: "I know the way to the Kingdom of Heaven."

Fact: Impossible, because the evangelist is a human who has never been there and is not a Member. Only Members of God's Kingdom know what it's like and are qualified to teach how to get from Earth to Heaven because they have, in a past civilization, previously been through the experience of attaining it. It is impossible for one human to teach another how to do the difficult task of getting out of this world simply because they've never done it. A caterpillar knows nothing about the world of the butterfly until he becomes a butterfly.

2. Evangelist: "Paul says that Jesus said so and so."

Fact: Being a disciple (personal student) of the Instructor is a basic requirement for membership in the Level Above Human. Paul was never a disciple. He was a human who never knew the Instructor nor was he His student. Paul was the first Christian evangelist who was used as a "misinformation pawn" to start the con game that today's preachers know so well. Some of the disciples who personally knew their Instructor and learned the facts from their classroom experience with Him, hated Paul for distorting the "facts," the formula that Jesus taught.

3. Evangelist: "Jesus wants you to be rich and prosperous."

Fact: Wealth and possessions ensure slavery to the world's "system" and do not exist in God's House. One of the first steps toward freedom is to leave it all behind and break those "ownership" and "this is mine" selfish attitudes that keep that addictive noose securely around your neck. The evangelist is a captive in the human-created Christian religion (that God despises), which is a government-controlled, multi-million-dollar, big-business enterprise, with bureaucratic obligations that prevent him from telling the "leave it all behind" facts, even if he wanted to tell them.

4. Evangelist: "Jesus wants you to have a close-knit, loving family."

Fact: This is one of the most vicious lies the evangelist uses to keep you tightly shackled here. He is a loyal slave to this world and promotes the family unit because its income is the life-blood of his church, and its credit and buying power keep the "system's" economic wheels in motion. By selling "family values," the evangelist encourages marriage, sex, children, and a responsible career, all of which are more ties to this world that must be broken. In the Kingdom Above Human there is no money, no sex, no wife, no husband, no children, no males, and no females. If another family member chooses to also try, fine, but you can't take anyone with you. Entry is an individual effort, and as a basic first step, separation from all family and other humans must be done.

5. Evangelist: "When He died on the cross and shed His blood for you, He took away your sins, and all you have to do is believe on Him."

Fact: This fallacy is at the very root of the "something for nothing" con game. If you play it by the evangelist's rules, and stay where you are, and continue to love your wife and kids, play golf on Wednesday, coach little league on Saturday, and go to church on Sunday, the death of your soul is guaranteed. Jesus brought life and was the disciples' only source for it. He repeatedly told them that in order to be with Him and His Father in the Heavenly Kingdom, they must separate from this world, leave it all behind, follow Him, bond to Him, carry their own cross, do as He instructed and did Himself, and overcome this world as He did. Do you now see why the odds are 100% against the "do nothing" believers.

6. Evangelist: "Praise Jesus. Just ask for it in His name, and He will give it to you."

Fact: Praising Jesus is only lip service unless you also DO as He did. You can pray for things of this world like a good sex life, happy marriage, children, more money, better job, and you may get them, but they didn't come from Jesus or His Father in the Heavens. The lower forces' ruler of this world will gladly provide them, for the more hooks he has in you, the tighter is his control over you.

7. Evangelist: "Jesus is coming soon."

Fact: Jesus was a very common name back then and was the label given to the body that housed the Mind of a Member of God's Kingdom. He used that body for His short Earthly task (about 3-½ years) and discarded it when the task was completed. He kept identifying, not with His borrowed human body, but only with the Mind of His Father, saying that's all He was, that He and His Father were of the same Mind, and that He did only what His Father instructed. He told His disciples that the instructions He gave them were not His, but flowed through Him from the Father. Who He was, then, was only Mind from God's Kingdom. He was the information, the knowledge and the formula on how to get from Earth to Heaven. So, who's returning at this "Second Coming," the body? No. It will be the same mind, containing the same knowledge, and teaching some of the same students how to complete their lessons and graduate out of this world. Will His Mind and Soul be using a borrowed human body for the task? Yes, of course. He is here and has been for more than 23 years now. Since society says that everyone "needs" a name, He is called "Do," and His Father is called "Ti" (pronounced Tee). The name of His body is unimportant, but the mind from His Father that He brought is all that matters, for it is the only source of knowledge present at the end of this civilization on how to make the transition from this world to the next one. His task here has been much longer than last time, but His returning students had much to learn and have required a lot of nurturing and training in order to be prepared for beginning Membership in His Father's Heavenly Kingdom.

Fact: I am a witness to the facts presented here. I can testify to their accuracy and know them, from actual experience, to be true. I am one of His students now as I also was before. He is my Teacher and my Father. I am also a witness to His Father (my Grandfather), who was also my Teacher here for many years. The Mind that my Father has received from His Father, He has given to me and it is mine to keep. It is who I am. I have used it to the best of my ability to change the human ways of this borrowed body, to conquer this world, and to become a viable new creature acceptable in His Father's Kingdom. I have tried to follow His instruction, please Him, and be as He is in everything I do, but the many times that I have fallen down, He has always been there to pick me up, correct my ignorance, and show me, by example, how His Father in the Heavens would do the task. I do not take His help for granted, but it is by my constant asking to be closer to Him that He offers me new lessons, and then it is up to me to do the homework and apply them. I have learned by my mistakes and the practical, "hands-on" experience of doing. Without His and His Father's personal help and guidance, I would be a lost sheep. But with it I have been able to separate from this world, change, and defeat its influences to the degree that is, hopefully, acceptable in His and His Father's eyes. As I grow daily by using the new Mind (knowledge) updates He receives from His Father, I am a new individual today, and not who I was yesterday, or last week, or last year. My all-consuming desire, total commitment, and effort exerted all these years is for one purpose – to please Him and be His son in the real world above this one.

Incarnating and Discarnating

When a man asked Jesus, “What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life”? Jesus said, “You know the commandments,” and named several. The man said he had observed them from youth. Jesus then told him he lacked one thing: “Sell what you have, give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven, and come take up the cross and follow me.” The man didn’t feel that he could do that. The point is that Jesus, as a Representative of the Kingdom of God, did not say, “After you die, you will go to Heaven, if you believe on Me.” Jesus knew that wasn’t true because He brought the formula for getting into the Kingdom of Heaven, which He told this man. Jesus also knew of the presence of discarnate spirits, for He cast out many. So, if a human does not go to Heaven after death, and there are discarnate spirits that circulate on the planet, then what is the missing piece to the puzzle? Perhaps this discussion will help fill in the gap.

We feel that planet Earth is a garden. The Kingdom of God designed and created it, and planted it with a variety of life forms, including human, and tends it as the Gardeners. The only harvest that is of any significance to that Kingdom is the harvest of souls. Human bodies are just containers designed for those souls. Those containers also serve as the lesson ground for those souls. We also feel that the human condition was intended only as a transitional training ground – a proving ground for potential new members of the Kingdom of Heaven. The creatures (the bodies and their spirits) on the planet were created with all the free-will options of: a) going awry, separating from God, amounting to nothing, and being recycled; b) overcoming the human condition and leaving it by becoming members in God’s Kingdom; or c) becoming part of the opposition and fulfilling that part of the design.

The “Kingdom of God,” the “Evolutionary Level Above Human,” the “Next Level,” and the “Kingdom of Heaven” are all synonymous terms for the same advanced level of existence above the human kingdom. This Next Level – the Kingdom of God – is a many-membered Kingdom, a physical level of existence in deepest space (outside of man’s concept of time) beyond this human level – advanced physically, technologically, behaviorally, ethically, genetically, and in the wisdom and knowledge of service in the Creator’s world. When we refer to the “opposition,” we speak of groups of space aliens (historically referred to as Satan and his angels, whom we call “Luciferians” – slightly advanced, human-equivalent races). They reside in the near heavens, and use and abuse Earth and its inhabitants for their own ends (biological and mineral resources, genetic manipulation, and winning souls to their side). One major difference between the Next Level members and the Luciferians is that members of the Evolutionary Level Above Human are genderless.

Entry into the Kingdom of God or the Next Level does not automatically occur at death of the body (vehicle), regardless of the seeming “goodness” of that individual’s life. The Next Level increases their membership (in the Kingdom of Heaven) through a metamorphic process, by periodically offering to humans who “catch their eye,” an opportunity to become containers – be the “wombs” – for new creatures of the Next Level (potential new members in their world). A soul must enter that Kingdom consciously, only after a classroom period of learning the ways and behavior of the Level Above Human, and dropping human ways and behavior, while in the physical presence and tutorship of a Representative(s) sent from that Kingdom. The point is that souls who can make that transition have to consciously know the truth (the facts) about where they are going, what they had to leave behind, and who they are following (that Representative) through the transition into that Kingdom. This is the only “future” (life) that is available to humans, for periodically, the garden is “spaded under” in preparation for another “cycle” of a human civilization. At that time all those who have not been “set aside” by the Kingdom of God will be part of the recycling or “spading under.”

What is LIFE and what is DEATH? Who gives life and who takes it? The inhabitants of this garden, including humans, are considered “plants” in the eyes of the Kingdom of God. The human body (which we often refer to as the “plant”) is a perennial offshoot of a living strain, a “container,” and is really of no consequence to the Next Level as far as life or death is concerned. The Representative who came 2000 years ago said, “And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; but rather be afraid of Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.”

We define life and death as it relates to the body, the spirit, the soul, and the mind in somewhat different terms than are commonly used. One premise is that every human creature (“plant”) has a body, and that body has its own spirit/mind.

The Body

The body (the flesh and bones) is the temporary “suit of clothes,” a container, a “vehicle” for the “spirit.” If we make the analogy to a computer, then the body is the hard drive or hardware, and the spirit is the software – the informational mind. Another good analogy is to see the body/vehicle as a car and the spirit as the driver. The car’s design and capabilities are specific to the kind of car it is. But it still takes the “mind” behind the wheel to make the car function as it was designed. Most humans identify with the physical vehicle (body), while members of Our Father’s Kingdom identify with or as the soul. What you see in the mirror (the body) – is not “you.” The spirit is the real “you” and continues to live in the spirit world after the body dies, with your memories, programming, habits, and addictions.

There is a very real, physical, genetic, ancestral strain that is like a vine, with each vehicle (body) like the leaves. When a body “dies,” the family “vine” is not seriously affected, any more than a botanical plant is that affected when one of its leaves falls. Like the perennial cycle of the plant, which in its season grows, blossoms, goes to seed, then withers and dies, the human cycle is much the same. Being perennial, the rootstock is not affected by the “death” of an individual plant, or more accurately, a part of the plant, at the end of its season.

Each human vehicle has in its genes what amounts to the sum of the genetic information that has accumulated and been passed down from its ancestors since the beginning of that strain – all their positive and negative characteristics, weaknesses, potential diseases, strengths, addictions, talents, ways of thinking, as well as physical traits of appearance, coloring, etc. The genes are like computer chips that store information. This genetic programming amounts to the body’s programming – giving it “a mind of its own.” It has its own desires – kind of like a living computer that doesn’t ever quite shut down, even when it’s in a sleep state. It has desires that manifest in ways of wanting certain foods, certain experiences, or certain habits or pleasures that it has been subjected to by its own inherited genetic programming, the environment around it or time-share spirits (which will be discussed next). Inherited genetic characteristics or programming unfold in a time-capsule progression as the body matures from infant to old age. What any individual does, affects their genetic strain, and is physically passed on if they have offspring or if they influence another's actions or thinking. Repetitive behavior is stamped or recorded on the genes and that preference is passed down to offspring. The saving grace is that also through repetition the genes can be "reprogrammed" and addictive behavior and negative characteristics can be turned around – that is, can be licked and thereby not passed down, or is passed on as "controlled."

One additional point: A child does not "belong" to the parent(s), any more than the apple belongs to the tree. A parent cannot say, "You are my child – you have to take care of me when I get old," any more than the tree can say to the farmer, "That is my apple," when the farmer comes along to pick it.

The Spirit

It could be said that a spirit is born each time a vehicle (body) is born, and progresses in its development, knowledge, programming, and identity along with the vehicle (body). In other words, the spirit grows in exact parallel to the vehicle's growth, and as the vehicle's consciousness is affected by genetic characteristics and its environment, the spirit takes on that information, that "software." The spirit normally leaves the vehicle at its termination and continues to live in the spirit world. The only exception to this is when a soul leaves the human environment and goes to the real world of the Next Level, with a Representative of that Level. If a young child-body dies, a young child-spirit is born into the "discarnate world" – a spirit is nothing more, nothing less than the intelligent programming sum content of the mind (both conscious and subconscious) of the biological container (body) before its demise. So, where the individual's consciousness is – where his trust and beliefs are – at the termination of his body, that is where his consciousness will be when he enters the spirit world.

As spirits from the discarnate world move into a vehicle, they are "incarnating," – an "invading" spirit moves in of its own accord, either to time-share or in an attempt to take over and claim the vehicle as its own. When these spirits move out of a body they are "discarnating." The spirit finds itself without or outside of a body as a result of death or incapacitation of the body (such as a coma), or when, as a "time-share" discarnate, it moves out of a body. Discarnates do not incarnate or move into a host body at the birth of the body. They only come in when what they are interested in can be accomplished by the functional capabilities of the plant. Therefore, reincarnation at birth, in the sense that many religions believe, is a completely inaccurate concept. A spirit is born with the body – any reincarnation or incarnation would be done by "invading" spirits who would attempt to use the body for their own satisfaction or purposes.

Without a vehicle, the spirit is not able to experience sensation – a vehicle (with its sense of taste, touch, feeling, pleasure, smell, etc.) is required. Because the spirit is left with the same consciousness it had while in a vehicle, then the addictions it had are also still active. In order to satisfy those desires, the spirit finds it must enter a vehicle and talk the body into, or con the body into, carrying out its wishes. Since it appears that each time a vehicle is born, a new spirit is born, and when the vehicle is terminated, a new spirit enters the discarnate, this means that for every vehicle (body) that has been born since the beginning of this civilization, that same number of spirits are presently in the discarnate or spirit world. At this point in the civilization, most humans tolerate, if not depend on, several unseen occupants, in a "time-share" arrangement, in addition to their own rightful spirit – the mind emanation of the body. Many of these discarnates are deceased family members who remain close to the family strain. Some spirits become bitter after losing their vehicle, because the spirit world is not up to their expectations. Others, who expect to "go to Heaven" see the spirit world as "heaven," and other spirits as angels. These spirits will sometimes act in a guardian-angel role.

For the most part, these time-share discarnates could be seen as helpful – some assisting with career, others with romance, or sports, or homemaking, and so on. "Inspiration" (in-spirit-ation) is nothing more than ideas given by discarnates. The more prominent a person is, the greater the number of discarnates and the stronger their presence is. In that sense, the "plant" or the host body becomes more of a "medium" for discarnates with ambitious agendas. What, in general, is accepted as the "personality" of an individual is made up of the combined characteristics of the participating discarnates along with the host's own spirit/software. Most, if not all, humans host multiple time-share discarnates, but it is when these discarnates are inharmonious or dissimilar that they are more easily recognized and seen as problematic. When this occurs, the individuals are often spoken of as having "multiple personalities" or "schizophrenia," in human clinical circles. "Past-life readings" might reveal the story-telling of time-share discarnates, but in reality, the concept of "past lives" is not at all reliable. If past-life readings were accurate, how do you explain the thousands of people who have claimed to be "King Tut," Cleopatra, Jesus, John the Baptist, etc.? One of the dangers we see with past-life readings is that the questions posed by the past-life reader open the door to old discarnates who you might have previously risen above or run away. Opening those doors pulls those discarnates back, and the possibility exists that you might have to deal with those serious problems or hurdles again.

If the vehicle/spirit is permissive and it adopts the behavior of the "time-share" spirit as something it wants to continue with and chooses to repeat, that behavior becomes a part of its own programming or "software package." In other words, the behavior and desires of the time-share spirit are added to the program/consciousness of the spirit that belongs to the vehicle. The invading human-level spirit cannot learn lessons from its influence on, or use of a vehicle, though the vehicle/spirit can learn and change. An "invading" spirit(s), because of its strength, can dominate the behavior of the vehicle. However, any vehicle/spirit that is strong enough can choose to resist the "influence" of any potential time-share spirit.

An interesting observation is that as an individual's body grows older and becomes less exciting to the invading or time-share spirits, those spirits leave and move into other younger vehicles, taking with them the influence of their interests and talents. The personality of the aging individual then appears to wane and lose incentive. In a similar way, if someone has been imprisoned (for a violent act, for example), the pleasures most spirits would enjoy would not be available in prison, but the animal, more base situation of the prison would invite other spirits to cohabit in that vehicle. The irony is that for death-row inmates, for example, you can kill the body of the person who committed the crime, but you're doing nothing but shoving those violent, time-share spirits that influenced that human to commit the crime, into a condition of taking over another plant (body). In other words, you haven't solved the problem at all – the spirit has made a fool of you. You may have only hastened the spirit's activities by freeing it from its imprisoned body, enabling it to go outside the prison and find a free, willing body in order to murder again. Killing the bodies only frees the spirits.

How many life forms move into the discarnate? It is very possible that every living creature on the planet has a spirit. A spirit is as physical as the wind or as breath – when it is still you don't notice it, but when it begins to move you notice it. For example, the spirits of the herds of buffalo or dinosaurs that roamed the land continue to roam, with the consciousness of the mass (weight) of the vehicle they wore. They can come together, en masse, and stampede as a strong wind. The winds that roar through at times could likely be those spirits acting according to their “programming” to migrate. On the other hand, the spirits of insects can still be pesky to humans, and lower life form spirits (plant and insect) may have varying degrees of negative, destructive influence on humans, as parasitic spirits causing diseases.

The Mind

We define mind as “collective information.” Many humans define mind as the brain, which is confusing and inaccurate. All “mind,” or information, comes from two sources (though it certainly would not be recognized as such): a) the Next Level – the Kingdom of God, or b) the opposition – the Lower Forces – Lucifer, Satan, or the Luciferians and their naive servants. Hence, the concept of truth vs. falsehood, genuine vs. counterfeit. That “collective information,” or mind, is what fills the “container” and eventually determines whose side you are on or which “world” or evolutionary level you are a part of – one leads to a real Heaven, the other leads nowhere or to eventual annihilation. Only Next Level mind has life-giving nourishment (potentially everlasting). All information other than that which comes from the Kingdom of God has no life or life-giving qualities (has no opportunity for an actual future). You can build on Next Level “mind” in like manner to building on computer software.

When speaking of the Trinity – the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – the “Holy Spirit,” or “Holy Ghost,” refers to the mind, the information, the Truth or facts from the Next Level (which includes instructions and procedures appropriate to the Kingdom of Heaven). The word “Holy” designates the Next Level quality of information that is in that mind. Another term indicating the source as being from the Level Above Human is “Divine.” These are appropriate usages by humans when referring to the Next Level. However, when today's so-called Christians say they are “filled with the Holy Ghost,” it is almost blasphemous, from our point of view – it usually means nothing more than a visit from disembodied Earth-bound spirits (showmen, at that).

The Soul

What is Life? Life is something that is sustainable, has a future, can go on. If you have life that is sustainable, you therefore potentially have eternal life. But, if you have information that leads to your end – if from your perspective you can see the end, then you have “bought” a “death software package.” All software packages other than that of the Kingdom of God – the Next Level – leads to your end. There is no “sustainable future” to be found in this world, it is found only in the Next Level. The human vehicle/spirit is a plant – a very temporal plant. Just because the human plant has movement, noise, and activity does not mean it has sustainable life; any more than a robot, just because it has energy – whether solar or electric – and temporary activity, has life. Life is an ingredient that is missing in a garden, except when an individual of the Next Level brings it in, plants it, and nourishes it. And that ingredient always has potential sustainability – even unlimited.

The Kingdom of God, being a genderless Kingdom, “reproduces” or adds to its Kingdom membership through the use of a metamorphic process. The metamorphic “birth” into the Level Above Human occurs as follows: In any given civilization on a fertile planet such as Earth (and Earth has had many periodic/cyclical civilizations), the Level Above Human plants new life forms (including humans) for that civilization in a neutral condition so that they have a limited option to choose the direction of their growth. (Though at times the Next Level permits some space-alien groups to do some planting as well.) The Level Above Human directly (hands on) relates significantly to the civilization at its beginning stage, and subsequently (with few exceptions) at approximately 2000-year intervals (approximately 48 hours from a Next Level perspective) until that civilization's final “Age” or “harvest.”

Each time the Next Level relates directly to any portion of that civilization, “deposits” containing “souls” (the “seed” or “chip” with a program of metamorphic possibilities) are placed in many human plants. This deposit is potentially the “gift of life” into the physical and real Evolutionary Level Above Human. These deposits are given or deposited only when members of the Next Level are assigned to directly relate to (be incarnate in) the civilization. Only these Representatives can “nurture” those soul deposits with Next Level thinking, behavior, and all the information required to effectively “fluff off” all human/mammalian ways. If a “seed” (deposit) has not been planted in the vehicle/spirit, then the vehicle/spirit is simply a temporary container. A human being is significant for the first time, from the Kingdom of God's point of view, when a new creature of the Next Level begins – when germination has begun – the “deposit” being the seed and the information (mind) from the Next Level being what germinates the seed.

As we mentioned earlier, the human vehicle/spirit, for the most part, is connected to the family vine of its ancestors (that vine is its root system) and draws a significant amount of its sustenance from that vine. When a human vehicle/spirit is given a soul deposit, an actual new creature has its beginning. In order to survive, this new creature must draw its sustenance (nourishment) from the Next Level – meaning it must break its ties to the vehicular family vine and literally “graft” to the family vine of the Next Level. That new creature has to desire to learn and willfully has to “draw” or “feed” (be nourished with information) from the Next Level in order to sustain its life.

This “soul program” has the potential to become an “encasement” for Next Level mind or information that can develop into a physical body more “subtle” or less dense (from a human physics perspective) than the human body. The more Next Level mind the soul brings in, while it simultaneously aborts from the vehicle all mind that is not of the Next Level, the stronger, the larger, the less subtle that body, or membrane encasement, becomes. When it starts to grow, it becomes physical (though not easily discernible by human analysis) – a new inner body. If the individual continues in his growth, becoming viable and a match for a vehicle (body) of that Next Kingdom, then when the human flesh body is “dropped,” that soul or “inner body” will have a chance to move into a Next Level body (vehicle or suit of clothes) that has been prepared specifically for it. It might be possible that when the soul is “ripe” or “viable” with sufficient Next Level mind, it has become what could be called a Next Level body without its outer shell or suit of clothes. (A spirit that has not been given a “soul deposit” or the potential for this encasement is of a different quality altogether and has not begun to grow a Next Level body.) If a soul finds favor with the Kingdom of Heaven, it is put “on ice” to be replanted in a garden like Earth at a specific future time in the civilization’s development. At that time, a vehicle would be given a deposit and set aside for that soul’s use. That chip or deposit would be different for the “returnee” – a different program and different capacity – than was given as a “first time” deposit. (See also point number 10 in the ‘95 Statement by an E.T. Presently Incarnate, Section 1, Page 5.)

That “soul program” makes advancement beyond the human kingdom possible, and includes a “separate-from-the-world” program. It also allows the soul to go places, survive in certain extensions of the “corral” (nearby space) that spirits without souls are not allowed to go. So, the space aliens seek out souls with deposits, particularly those who have been in this classroom. If a soul turns the other way when it comes in contact with Next Level information or the Representative, then the germination of the Next Level body does not occur, and the soul, for all intents and purposes, is of no worth to the Next Level, and is “dead.” It has made its choice not to be of service (usually because of the reluctance or slowness to relinquish human characteristics and ties), and the Next Level has no use or place for it. But to the space aliens, it’s a good product – it is a “wise” product because it is not interested in the Next Level’s information and is advanced beyond the naive human world. This means that every space alien had once received a deposit and was once a student or potential student of the Next Level, but chose to go against them, or away from them at the least.

So, the only proper application of the term “death” is the termination of the soul, and only the Kingdom of God can kill the soul. Therefore, the human body does not experience “death” – it can be terminated or “dropped.” Dying gets you nowhere (in terms of a Heaven). The Next Level even controls the time a vehicle spends on the planet, and when that end time comes, something in the vehicle breaks down which is labeled “heart disease,” “cancer,” etc. It is out of ignorance that humans would say someone “died” instead of “they dropped their vehicle.” The concepts of the spirit world and dropping the body are not well accepted in the Christian U.S., though many so-called “less-civilized” cultures know it as fact.

Recently, Dr. Kevorkian stood trial for helping terminally ill individuals “drop their vehicles.” At the trial it was never brought up that the individual – the spirit – cannot be killed by other humans (or even space aliens). Those terminally ill individuals, whom Kevorkian helped, had faith that they would continue on, with relief from the pain and breakdown of the vehicle they were wearing. It certainly is their right to do so. It seems obvious that no one really believes that they are the spirit/soul, or euthanasia wouldn’t be an issue. We stand for a liberal euthanasia program – if someone wants to drop their vehicle, they should have a right to do so. Why is it honorable to die for your country, serving whatever regime is in power, but not for other or higher reasons? And why should governments have the power to sentence humans to “death” as if their authority is equal to or above God’s? Or, why is it right to “kill” a “plant” in the womb? There is “plant” life in the male and in the female, and when they come together it is still “plant” life. There was “life” before the womb – it does not just begin at conception or birth.

Jesus was not a religious man. He was a man from the only real potential future – in another world, an evolutionarily advanced level of existence – the Next Level. He incarnated into a human vehicle (down an evolutionary notch – the equivalent of a human soul incarnating into a dog’s vehicle). He had overcome the human level at a distantly previous time. “Jesus” did not incarnate into the body of a newborn babe. The vehicle was simply tagged for His use at a later time when it had grown and developed enough for His advanced mind to be able to use it. He left his vehicle in the Level Above Human and incarnated into the vehicle that was named “Jesus” around the time of his baptism by John the Baptist (depicted as when the spirit fell upon him as a dove from Heaven). Likewise, Ti and Do incarnated into vehicles that had been picked and prepped for them, when those vehicles were in their 40’s. These vehicles had been set aside for them since their birth.

The Bible says, “There is nothing new under the sun.” The most advanced achievements of humans to date in space exploration, genetics, computer science (artificial intelligence), medicine, music, arts, entertainment, weaponry, etc. are grade-school level in comparison to what the Next Level has to offer, and there is evidence that this level of advancement had been reached by other previous civilizations on the planet. The Next Level created this garden and everything on it. Humans can do nothing more than “reverse engineer” what “God has wrought.” And humans will be allowed to advance only so far. This advancement has occurred, in particular since Ti and Do came into this atmosphere. When we go, that Next Level presence will leave also.

Christians hope for a “personal relationship” with Jesus, but that can be accomplished only when there is a physical presence of those Representatives from the Kingdom of Heaven on the planet. The members of this class have a personal relationship with the present incarnate Representatives, Ti and Do. Unfortunately, outside of this class, all one has is the illusion of that relationship. Our anger is with the space aliens and with the humans who have been their best puppets – including Paul and today’s religious leaders. These space aliens have insulted and belittled the Next Level, their Creators, from day one when the serpent (Luciferians) convinced Adam and Eve that by eating the fruit from the forbidden “tree of life” they “would not die...but would be as gods knowing good and evil.” Understand that these space aliens are in jail, they have been confined to this garden and its nearby space “neighborhood” because of past “crimes” against the Kingdom of God. Some of the space aliens are not cognizant of their misdeeds; they believe they are doing the right thing and are being helpful to humans. Others know exactly what they are doing. They will be recycled along with the rest of the life forms on the planet, though possibly on a different time table. They know their death is approaching, so they are doing all they can to work against the Next Level. The Bible says, “a wicked and adulterous generation looks for miraculous things, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.” We have seen that sign, because we have done it, we have been through that “hourglass” in the transition from human to the Kingdom of God. If you had done what I have done then you would know what I know. I have been with Ti and Do, I have been their child, I have served the Next Level through them and with them. I am witness to who they are. I am extremely thankful to have been given the opportunity to be a part of this classroom, and their student, a potential new member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

Appendix B:

RELEVANT QUOTES FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

We hope you won't misunderstand our use of these Bible quotes. Though most people think of these records as religious, they are for the most part, in spite of their many inaccuracies, the only historical record we have of periods when the Next Level was relating to man. A great percentage of the materials have been corrupted by mistranslations and councils of so-called scholars. It seems miraculous that the formula for transition from the human kingdom to the Level Above Human has been preserved in Jesus' requirements for discipleship. We are including a number of these examples. We chose to use The Amplified Bible (translation), with a few exceptions, for its clarity.

The following are explanatory excerpts taken from the "Preface" and the "Introduction" to The Amplified Bible: the purpose of The Amplified Bible is to reveal...any other clarifying meanings that may be concealed by the traditional translation method. The use of amplification merely helps the reader comprehend what the Hebrew and Greek listener instinctively understood (as a matter of course).

Parentheses () signify additional phases of meaning included in the original word, phrase, or clause of the original language.

Brackets [] contain justified clarified words or comments not actually expressed in the immediate original text.

Breaking Away from the World (Discipleship)

- Matthew 10:34-39 Do not think that I have come to bring peace upon the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to part asunder a man from his father, and a daughter from her mother, and a newly married wife from her mother-in-law – And a man's foes will be they of his own household. He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me; And he who does not take up his cross and follow Me [cleave steadfastly to Me, conforming wholly to My example in living and, if need be, in dying also] is not worthy of Me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life on My account will find it.
- Matthew 19:29 And anyone and everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for My name's sake will receive many times more and will inherit eternal life.
- Mark 3:33-35 And He replied, Who are My mother and My brothers? And looking around on those who sat in a circle about Him, He said, See! Here are My mother and My brothers; For whoever does the things God wills is My brother and sister and mother!
- Mark 12:30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. (King James)
- Mark 8:34-37 And Jesus called the throng with His disciples and said to them, If anyone intends to come after Me, let him deny himself [forget, ignore, disown, and lose sight of himself and his own interests] and take up his cross, and follow with Me. For whoever wants to save his life, will lose it; and whoever gives up his life for My sake and the Gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? For what can a man give as an exchange (a compensation, a ransom, in return) for his life?
- Luke 9:23-25 And He said to all, If any person wills to come after Me let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me [cleave steadfastly to Me, conform wholly to My example in living and, if need be in dying also]. For whoever would preserve his life and save it will lose and destroy it, but whoever loses his life for My sake, he will preserve and save it.
- Luke 9:59-62 And He said to another, Become My disciple, side with My party, and accompany Me! But he replied, Lord, permit me first to go and bury (await the death of) my father. But Jesus said to him, Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and publish abroad throughout all regions the kingdom of God. Another also said, I will follow You, Lord, and become Your disciple and side with Your party; but let me first say good-bye to those at my home. Jesus said to him, No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.
- Luke 12:49-53 I have come to cast fire upon the earth, and how I wish that it were already kindled! I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and how greatly and sorely I am urged on (impelled, constrained) until it is accomplished! Do you suppose that I have come to give peace upon earth? No, I say to you, but rather division; For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three. They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
- Luke 14:26-27 If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and his wife and children and brothers and sisters – and even his own life also – he cannot be My disciple. Whoever does not persevere and carry his own cross and come after (follow) Me cannot be My disciple.
- Luke 14:33 So then, any of you who does not forsake (renounce, surrender claim to, give up, say good-bye to) all that he has cannot be My disciple.
- Luke 16:15 But He said to them, You are the ones who declare yourselves just and upright before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted and highly thought of among men is detestable and abhorrent (an abomination) in the sight of God.
- John 12:25-26 Anyone who loves his life loses it, but anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it to life eternal. [Whoever has no love for, no concern for, no regard for his life here on earth, but despises it, preserves his life forever and ever.] If anyone serves Me, he must continue to follow Me [to cleave steadfastly to Me, conform wholly to My example in living and, if need be, in dying] and wherever I am, there will My servant be also. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

Recognizing, Believing, & Following the Representative from the Kingdom of Heaven

- Matthew 10:24-26 A disciple is not above his teacher, nor is a servant or slave above his master. It is sufficient for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant or slave like his master. If they have called the Master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they speak evil of those of His Household. So have no fear of them; for nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, or kept secret that will not become known.
- Luke 16:13 No servant is able to serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stand by and be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (riches, or anything in which you trust and on which you rely).

- John 5:19-20 So Jesus answered them by saying, I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, the Son is able to do nothing of Himself (of His own accord); but he is able to do only what He sees the Father doing, for whatever the Father does is what the Son does in the same way. The Father dearly loves the Son and discloses to (shows) Him everything that He Himself does. And He will disclose to Him (let Him see) greater things yet than these, so that you may marvel and be full of wonder and astonishment.
- John 6:39-40 And this is the will of Him Who sent Me, that I should not lose any of all that He has given Me, but that I should give new life and raise [them all] up at the last day. For this is My Father's will and His purpose, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in and cleaves to and trusts in and relies on Him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.
- John 6:44-47 No one is able to come to Me unless the Father Who sent Me attracts and draws him and gives him the desire to come to Me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the Prophets, And they shall all be taught of God [have Him in person for their Teacher]. Everyone who has listened to and learned from the Father comes to Me. Which does not imply that anyone has seen the Father except He Who comes from God; He has seen the Father. I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, he who believes in Me [who adheres to, trusts in, relies on, and has faith in Me] has (now possesses) eternal life.
- John 6:51 I am this Living Bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread, he will live forever; and also the Bread that I shall give for the life of the world is My flesh (body).
- John 6:63 It is the Spirit Who gives life [He is the Life-giver]; the flesh conveys no benefit whatever. The words (truths) that I have been speaking to you are spirit and life.
- John 6:65 And He said, This is why I told you that no one can come to Me unless it is granted him [unless he is enabled to do so] by the Father.
- John 7:28-29 Whereupon Jesus called out as He taught in the temple, Do you know Me, and do you know where I am from? I have not come on My own authority and of My own accord and as self-appointed, but the One Who sent Me is true (real, genuine, steadfast); and Him you do not know! I know Him because I come from His presence, and it was He Who sent Me.
- John 8:21-24 Therefore He said again to them, I am going away, and you will be looking for Me, and you will die in (under the curse of) your sin. Where I am going, it is not possible for you to come. At this the Jews began to ask among themselves, Will He kill Himself? Is that why He says, Where I am going, it is not possible for you to come? He said to them, You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world (of this earthly order); I am not of this world. That is why I told you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins.
- John 8:31-47 So Jesus said to those Jews who had believed in Him, If you abide in My word [hold fast to My teachings and live in accordance with them], you are truly My disciples. And you will know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free. They answered Him, We are Abraham's offspring (descendants) and have never been in bondage to anybody. What do You mean by saying, You will be set free? Jesus answered them, I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, Whoever commits and practices sin is the slave of sin. Now a slave does not remain in a household permanently (forever); the son does remain forever. So if the Son liberates you, then you are really and unquestionably free. I know that you are Abraham's offspring; yet you plan to kill Me, because My word has no entrance (makes no progress, does not find any place) in you. I tell the things which I have seen and learned at My Father's side, and your actions also reflect what you have heard and learned from your father. They retorted, Abraham is our father. Jesus said, If you were Abraham's children, then you would do the works of Abraham. But now you are wanting and seeking to kill Me, a Man Who has told you the truth which I heard from God. This is not the way Abraham acted. You are doing the works of your father. They said to Him, We are not illegitimate children and born out of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, you would love Me and respect Me and welcome me gladly, for I proceeded (came forth) from God. I did not even come on My own authority or of My own accord (as self-appointed); but He sent me. Why do you misunderstand what I say? It is because you are unable to hear what I am saying. You are of your father, the devil, and it is your will to practice the lusts and gratify the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a falsehood, he speaks what is natural to him, for he is a liar and the father of lies and of all that is false. But because I speak the truth you do not believe Me. Who of you convicts Me of wrongdoing or finds Me guilty of sin? Then if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me? Whoever is of God listens to God. This is the reason that you do not listen: because you do not belong to God and are not of God or in harmony with Him.
- John 8:50-55 However, I am not in search of honor for Myself. There is One Who seeks, and He is the Judge. I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, if anyone observes My teaching, he will by no means ever see and experience death. The Jews said to Him, Now we know that You are under the power of a demon (insane). Abraham died, and also the prophets, yet You say, If a man keeps My word, he will never taste of death into all eternity. Are You greater than our father Abraham? He died, and all the prophets died! Who do You make Yourself out to be? Jesus answered, If I were to glorify Myself (magnify, praise, and honor Myself), I would have no real glory, for My glory would be nothing and worthless. It is My Father Who glorifies Me, of Whom you say that He is your God. Yet you do not know Him or recognize Him and are not acquainted with Him, but I know Him. If I should say that I do not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I know Him and keep His word.

- John 10:4-18 When he has brought his own sheep outside, he walks on before them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will never follow a stranger, but will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers or recognize their call. Jesus used this parable (illustration) with them, but they did not understand what He was talking about. So Jesus said again, I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, that I Myself am the Door for the sheep. All others who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to and obey them. I am the Door; anyone who enters in through Me will be saved (will live). He will come in and he will go out, and will find pasture. The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows). I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd risks and lays down His life for the sheep. But the hired servant (he who merely serves for wages) who is neither the shepherd nor the owner of the sheep, when he sees the wolf coming, deserts the flock and runs away. And the wolf chases and snatches them and scatters [the flock]. Now the hireling flees because he merely serves for wages and is not himself concerned about the sheep. I am the Good Shepherd; and I know and recognize My own, and My own know and recognize Me – Even as the Father knows Me and I also know the Father – and I am giving My life and laying it down on behalf of the sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold, I must bring and impel those also; and they will listen to My voice and heed My call, and so there will be one flock under one Shepherd. For this [reason] the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life – to take it back again. No one takes it away from Me. On the contrary, I lay it down voluntarily. I am authorized and have power to lay it down (to resign it) and I am authorized and have power to take it back again. These are the instructions (orders) which I have received from My Father.
- John 10:25-30 Jesus answered them, I have told you so, yet you do not believe Me. The very works that I do by the power of My Father and in My Father's name bear witness concerning Me. But you do not believe and trust and rely on Me because you do not belong to My fold [you are no sheep of Mine]. The sheep that are My own hear and are listening to My voice; and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never lose it or perish throughout the ages. And no one is able to snatch them out of My hand. My Father, Who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all; and no one is able to snatch [them] out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are One.
- John 10:36-38 Do you say of the One Whom the Father consecrated and dedicated and set apart for Himself and sent into the world, You are blaspheming, because I said, I am the Son of God? If I am not doing the works of My Father, then do not believe Me. But if I do them, even though you do not believe Me or have faith in Me, believe the works and have faith in what I do, in order that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father.
- John 12:44-50 But Jesus loudly declared, The one who believes in Me does not believe in and trust in and rely on Me, but in Him Who sent Me. And whoever sees Me sees Him Who sent Me. I have come as a Light into the world, so that whoever believes in Me may not continue to live in darkness. If anyone hears My teachings and fails to observe them, it is not I who judges him. For I have not come to judge and to condemn and to pass sentence and to inflict penalty on the world, but to save the world. Anyone who rejects Me and persistently sets Me at naught, refusing to accept My teachings, has his judge; for the message that I have spoken will itself judge and convict him at the last day. This is because I have never spoken on My own authority or of My own accord or as self-appointed, but the Father Who sent Me has Himself given Me orders what to say and what to tell. And I know that His commandment is (means) eternal life. So whatever I speak, I am saying what My Father has told Me to say and in accordance with His instructions.
- John 14:6 Jesus said to him, I am the Way and the Truth and the Life; no one comes to the Father except by (through) Me.
- John 15:1,4-6 I am the True Vine, and My Father is the Vinedresser. Dwell in Me, and I will dwell in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit of itself without abiding in (being vitally united to) the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you abide in Me. I am the Vine; you are the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him bears much (abundant) fruit. However, apart from Me you can do nothing. If a person does not dwell in Me, he is thrown out like a branch, and withers; such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, and they are burned.
- John 15:16-19 You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and I have appointed you [I have planted you], that you might go and bear fruit and keep on bearing, and that your fruit may be lasting, so that whatever you ask the Father in My Name, He may give it to you. This is what I command you: that you love one another. If the world hates you, know that it hated Me before it hated you. If you belonged to the world, the world would treat you with affection and would love you as its own. But because you are not of the world, but I have chosen (selected) you out of the world, the world hates (detests) you.
- John 15:22-25 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. Whoever hates Me also hates My Father. If I had not done (accomplished) among them the works which no one else ever did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have both seen and have hated both Me and My Father. But that the word written in their Law might be fulfilled, They hated Me without a cause.

Separating from Human-Mammalian Characteristics

- Matthew 19:9-12 I say to you; whoever dismisses (repudiates, divorces) his wife, except for unchastity, and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. The disciples said to Him, If the case of a man with his wife is like this, it is neither profitable nor advisable to marry. But He said to them, Not all men can accept this saying, but it is for those whom it has been given. For there are eunuchs who have been born incapable of marriage; and there are eunuchs who have been made so by men; and there are eunuchs who have made themselves incapable of marriage for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let him who is able to accept this accept it.

- Mark 12:25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven. (King James)
- Mark 13:17-19 And Alas for those who are pregnant and for those who have nursing babies in those days! Pray that it may not occur in winter. For at that time there will be such affliction (oppression and tribulation) as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until this particular time – and positively never will be.
- Luke 20:34-36 And Jesus said to them, The people of this world and present age marry and are given in marriage; But those who are considered worthy to gain that other world and that future age and to attain to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage; For they cannot die again, but they are angel-like and equal to angels. And being sons of and sharers in the resurrection, they are sons of God.
- Luke 21:23 Alas for those who are pregnant and for those who have babies which they are nursing in those days! For great misery and anguish and distress shall be upon the land and indignation and punishment and retribution upon this people.

These Last Days

- Matthew 15:7-9 Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. (King James)
- Luke 21:8-19 And He said, Be on your guard and be careful that you are not led astray; for many will come in My name, saying, I am He! and, The time is at hand! Do not go out after them. And when you hear of wars and insurrections (disturbances, disorder, and confusion), do not become alarmed and panic-stricken and terrified; for all this must take place first, but the end will not [come] immediately. Then He told them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be mighty and violent earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences (plagues; malignant and contagious or infectious epidemic diseases which are deadly and devastating); and there will be sights of terror and great signs from heaven. But previous to all this, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, turning you over to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be led away before kings and governors for My name's sake. This will be a time (an opportunity) for you to bear testimony. Resolve and settle it in your minds not to meditate and prepare beforehand how you are to make your defense and how you will answer. For I will give you a mouth and such utterance and wisdom that all of your foes combined will be unable to stand against or refute. You will be delivered up and betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and [some] of you they will put to death. And you will be hated (despised) by everyone because [you bear] My name and for its sake. But not a hair of your head shall perish. By your steadfastness and patient endurance you shall win the true life of your souls.

Avoid Being Judgmental

- Matthew 7:1-2 Do not judge and criticize and condemn others, so that you may not be judged and criticized and condemned yourselves. For just as you judge and criticize and condemn others, you will be judged and criticized and condemned, and in accordance with the measure you deal out to others, it will be dealt out again to you.
- John 7:24 Be honest in your judgment and do not decide at a glance (superficially and by appearances); but judge fairly and righteously.
- John 8:14-19 Jesus answered, Even if I do testify on My own behalf, My testimony is true and reliable and valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going. You judge according to the flesh (by what you see). I do not judge or condemn or sentence anyone. Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father, Who sent Me. In your Law it is written that the testimony (evidence) of two persons is reliable and valid. I am One bearing testimony concerning Myself; and My Father, Who sent Me, He also testifies about Me. Then they said to Him, Where is this Father of Yours? Jesus answered, You know My Father as little as you know Me. If you knew Me, you would know My Father also.

Soul vs. Flesh Body

- Matthew 10:28 And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; but rather be afraid of Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.
- Luke 12:4-5 I tell you, My friends, do not dread and be afraid of those who kill the body and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom you should fear; fear Him Who, after killing, has power to hurl into hell; yes, I say to you fear Him!

- Psalms 103:13-18 As a father loves and pities his children, so the Lord loves and pities those who fear Him [with reverence, worship, and awe]. For He knows our frame, He remembers and imprints that we are dust. As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourishes. For the wind passes over it and it is gone, and its place shall know it no more. But the mercy and loving-kindness of the Lord are from everlasting to everlasting upon those who reverently and worshipfully fear Him, and His righteousness is to children's children. To such as keep His covenant [hearing, receiving, loving, and obeying it] and to those who remember His commandments to do them.
- Isaiah 40:6-8 A voice says, Cry [prophecy]! And I said, What shall I cry? [The voice answered, Proclaim:] All flesh is as frail as grass, and all that makes it attractive [its kindness, its goodwill, its mercy from God, its glory and comeliness, however good] is transitory, like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely [all] the people are like grass. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever.

Last Chance to Evacuate Earth - Before It's Recycled

Edited Transcript of Videotape - September 29, 1996:

This is the 29th of September, 1996. I'm "Do." "Do" probably doesn't mean anything to many of you. To those who have heard of "Do," I might relate "Do" to "Ti and Do," of the "UFO Two," or of what the media dubbed the "UFO cult" that made some splash in the news in 1975 and disappeared from the scene shortly after that. And some of you might have heard of some efforts that we have made to try to share a little bit of what we have learned with the public, periodically, between 1975 and now. We put out a statement called '88 Update, and we did a videotape series a little while after that, I think it was 1992, 1991- 1992, called "Beyond Human." Now, today we have quite a different urgency. It's urgent to me, and it's urgent to the students that sit before me. Our reason for speaking to you is because we feel to warn you of what is just around the corner.

I'll try to just put it as briefly as I can and as clearly as I can. This planet is about to be recycled, refurbished, started over. That doesn't mean it's going to be destroyed, it doesn't mean it's the end of the world. But it does mean that it is going to be spaded under. Now, you can say, "Well, who are you to say that?" And I'll tell you who I am. As to whether or not you believe who I am is up to you. And whether or not you believe that this civilization is going to be recycled or refurbished is up to you. Now, the purpose of this tape is to warn you that this is about to happen, and that it's going to happen very soon.

If I would title this tape, it would be "Last Chance to Evacuate Planet Earth Before It Is Recycled" - last chance to evacuate Earth before it is recycled. If you've read any of our teachings - the information that we have - you know that our discipline is strict, that we teach "overcoming human ways," overcoming human addictions. The purpose of that is not for religious reasons, or for morality, or in order to become "righteous." The purpose of that is to go to the heavens. Humans have some idea, because of what the negative forces have let them believe, or have led them to believe - humans have the idea that through religion, if I live a good life, then I get to go to Heaven when I die. And they don't know what Heaven is, but they think that Heaven is where God is, and Heaven is where whoever the leader of their religion is, and they'll get to go be with them if they've lived a good life by whatever standard their religion teaches.

The fact is, that there is only one Kingdom Level - a Kingdom Level, just like there's a human kingdom - there's only one Kingdom Level above the human kingdom, and that Kingdom Level made the human kingdom, and designed the planet, designed all of its resources, designed all of its life forms, designed humans, and even designed humans with the potential of leaving the human kingdom in order to go to the Kingdom Level Above Human.

Now, the startling thing to many is that the Kingdom Level Above Human is physical. There's some idea that the Kingdom Above Human is spiritual, as if it is limited to being spiritual. It is spiritual in the sense that, if you think of "mind" as synonymous with "spirit," and you become something that identifies with your mind instead of the "suit of clothes" you wear, then it is spiritual, because that mind/spirit becomes your identity. Even in the human world - if humans identify with the mind that they have, or the spirit that they have (remember, those two are synonymous) - if they identify with that mind, then they don't think that they die when the body they are wearing drops. They think that they move into another world. When they move out of the body, whether they do, in fact, move into another world depends upon whether they're connected or not, or what their information is, or what they are capable of knowing or doing, what they've been willing to learn.

You know, the Next Level, or the Evolutionary Level Above Human - oops, I said that bad word: Evolutionary Level. Because religious people think, "Oh, 'evolution', does this mean that you don't believe in creation?" That's the most ridiculous thing that someone could think - that evolution is not a part of creation. That Kingdom Level created everything that is, or made everything that is, and among those things it made, it made a number of things that advance in an evolutionary progression. So to speak of that Level Above Human, we shouldn't be afraid to use the word "Evolutionary" Level Above. It's not really an Evolutionary Level Above Human, in that creatures here can, on their own, advance into that Kingdom Level, because they can't. That sounds strange. Well, they can advance, but they can't do it - on their own.

The same Evolutionary Level that created the human kingdom has to physically incarnate into the human kingdom to offer life to them - to offer information to them - while incarnate in a human body. If a recipient is thirsty enough for that mind, that recipient recognizes that he has literally connected with a source from that Next Level (that incarnate Representative) who is in their physical presence. Don't forget, the Next Level is not a spiritual Kingdom. Its members identify as the mind or spirit/soul, but wear physical bodies. Do you look at the heavens at night? Why do you see physical bodies in the heavens? If it was a spiritual heaven, you wouldn't see any of those bodies. They would all be etheric. But you see those Heavenly bodies. You see only a tiny, tiny fraction of those physical bodies in the Kingdom of Heaven. There are also many physical Heavenly bodies that cannot be seen by the human eye.

That doesn't mean that our Heavenly Father's Kingdom, or the Kingdom of God, or the Evolutionary Level Above Human, is anything less because it has physical characteristics. It has all characteristics - everything that you can talk about came from them - including "evil" - including the design of everything that can lead you to go astray if you listen to the wrong sources. You could say, "That couldn't possibly be true." There is nothing that is that was not created by the Kingdom Level Above Human. And the reason they created everything that there is, including negative options, is so that you could become exactly what you choose to become when you have the opportunity to become it.

Now, the only time we have an opportunity to leave the human kingdom and go to the Kingdom Level Above Human, is when there is a Member from that Kingdom Level, incarnate in human form, saying to you, "I'll tell you about a Kingdom Level beyond here, and if you want to go there then you have to follow me, because I am the guy who's got the key at the moment." Whatever Representative is sent from that Kingdom Level and comes into the human kingdom, then that's the Representative who has that key to that Kingdom, for that period of time. And it requires, if you move into that Evolutionary Kingdom, that you leave behind everything of human ways - human behavior, human ignorance, human misinformation.

A long time ago, long before this civilization began (and I don't know how many subsequent times this occurred), that Kingdom Level had a Representative in a human civilization, and members of a classroom who were in the process of overcoming their human characteristics. Some of those members who began to serve in elementary ways for that Kingdom Level Above Human decided that they didn't want to listen to that Representative any more, that they could do the things they wanted to do, and they weren't sure they wanted to get rid of human ways. And so they began to find fault in the Representative who was offering them a way out of the human kingdom. Well, you know the story from there - fallen angels, Lucifer, Satan, a third of the Heavens following a renegade who decided, "This world is not for me. I can be my own 'god.' I don't need that Kingdom Level. I resent that I cannot be my own individual - that I can't lead my own flock."

Well, that Kingdom Level Above Human let that individual and his following lead their flock - let them do what they wanted to do - and used it for means that could serve a purpose in the design of the Next Level progression. And that very evil presence is thick on this planet because it's the End of an Age. It's so thick that it would have you not believe a word I say, and have you not accept anything that I tell you so that you will not be a recipient of the Kingdom they left (that they got booted out of and want no one else to go there). They are resentful - and are in opposition to the real Kingdom Level Above Human. don't forget, the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now, the End of the Age, the End of the civilization, is the worst time for presences of that renegade level (those who were students of that Level and went renegade). When you read in historical data that there was also a Hell (and there is a Hell) and the Hell is where those evil forces are - you can imagine that part of that Hell is planet Earth. When those "evil" individuals (those followers of Lucifer, of Satan) chose to go awry, they were then booted out of the Kingdom Level Above Human. They were confined to not only planet Earth, but any other planet with this type of gravity or environment that could serve as a natural environment for a human level. They need a human civilization. They use bodies from human civilizations. They make hybrid bodies because they have to continue to live.

Don't forget, they had learned what "spirit" was. They had learned to separate their mind - their spirit - from a human body, and knew that their identity was not lost if they lost a body. They learned to move out of that body without losing their consciousness, and even invade and take over another body that was "prepared" for them. They could sustain the life of it. For the most part, they are taking advantage of the human "plants" - the creatures of this civilization - using them for their own means. Those aliens - I call them aliens because one way you could speak of them is as "space aliens," evil space aliens - but they aren't really "space aliens" because they can only circulate in a very limited part of space. They are confined to environments (such as this Earth civilization) where there are mammalian human- equivalent or human civilizations existing. So they are not really "broad" space aliens. But the common term is "space alien." And I don't mind calling them space aliens.

When the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, the Evolutionary Level Above Human, is in close, assisting us, because of our presence here, they certainly wouldn't be called "aliens" because this is their garden. They made it. We are their experiments, we are their creatures, we are their cre-ations. They made us - everything that we are.

Now, I've got to go back to the beginning of this tape, because I don't want you to listen to my philosophy, my ideology, the knowledge that I have. I want you to be aware that the focus is on the fact that this is the End of the Age. At the End of the Age the planet is wiped clean - refurbished - rejuvenated. The mess that the humans have made of it during this civilization is cleaned up. It is healed. It is probably done on "fast forward." It probably wouldn't take very long to do it by standards of human time. But even if it took a thousand years to do it, that's a very brief time according to Next Level time. We don't know how long it's going to take to do it. We can't estimate that because we're talking two different times anyhow. I mean, I'm trying to relate to you in human time and yet I am more at home in relating to the time of the Next Level.

If this planet is about to be recycled - spaded under - refurbished - the only ones that get to leave it are the ones who want to leave. The only ones who survive the recycling are the ones who want to leave - have found a teacher, someone who can give them the information they need to leave, or give them the information that will eventually lead them to leaving. Now, what I mean by that is that information is available only during the time that we're here. And here I am, I'm Do, Do of Ti and Do, of the little religious "UFO cult," (because that's what the media dubbed us). And yet Ti, who is my Father, who is my "Older Member," who gave me birth in the Kingdom of Heaven long before this civilization began, Ti was here with me on this particular mission.

Now, let me describe this mission for a moment. Ti left, in Earth time, 1985, because Ti had assisted enough that it was time to turn responsibility over to Do, and for me then to begin a more serious communication with my Older Member, and to be dependent upon it and reliant upon it. When Ti and I were awakening, we entered this environment (to any significant degree) in the early '70's. You're looking at the body I'm wearing, and you're saying, "You entered in the early '70's? You're certainly more than 20 something years old." The body I'm wearing is, wow!, 65 years old. "I" (the mind/soul of the Next Level) entered at the same time my Older Member entered, which was in the early '70's. You could think, "Well, that doesn't make any sense." If you're "new age" - or whatever your belief is regarding reincarnation - you could think, "Well, I don't understand, I thought reincarnation occurs at the beginning of an infant's life." No, I'm sorry to say, that's not accurate. A mind begins when that infant is born, and that infant's genetic package begins to express itself as that mind develops. And it is a mind, it is a spirit. But then a spirit or a mind that had previously occupied another human plant, but has gone into the spirit world (or is outside of a body because it lost its body from death or whatever, but is still in the environment), can move in and take over that vehicle and be stronger than the mind that is the mind of that vehicle. In other words, it can invade that vehicle. It can take it over. It can pretty much keep the mind of that vehicle quiet and do what it wants to do with that vehicle.

Now, the lower forces know this. They teach spirits to do this after they leave their bodies. They let them know that they're capable of doing that. You can say, "You mean that you and Ti came into bodies in '72, so you're 'body snatchers,' in a sense." Well, the Level Above Human made this garden and its design, made the human plants for their purposes, and my Grandfather (Ti's Father) sent us into this environment with a crew that had work to do. Now, we did come in and prep the "vehicles." We actually set aside this "plant" that I'm wearing (this "vehicle" that I'm wearing) and the plants of the crew (the classroom), and the plant that Ti chose to wear. A "deposit" of a little bit of information was put in those plants that set them aside for the time when the mind was to significantly come in. And therefore, the mind that is now in my vehicle (body) cannot relate to that plant's history, prior to the time that my mind came in significantly. So, who the plant was that I'm now wearing, prior to the early '70's is just a fuzzy, dismal memory, because it is just like putting on a suit of clothes that had a history to it. And if I tried, I could invade some of that history and dredge it up, but it is so unattractive to me and it's such a low vibration to me (if I can use that word without sounding "new age" to some) - it's repulsive to me because it's certainly very human. This vehicle certainly indulged in human behavior, human addictions, human ways, as every other human does.

When Ti and I were brought into this environment in the early '70's, a spacecraft brought us in - remember, it's a physical world. And actually we came in earlier and made deposits, or little "information deposits," in our vehicles when they were infants. So, that means we had to come in during the late '20's and early '30's. We also had to come in and make deposits in the vehicles of all the classroom that are sitting here in front of me at the various times when those vehicles were infants.

Now, it's difficult to accept the information that I am telling you. If you knew how to interpret some of the religious documents that have been left for you, you would interpret them exactly as I am telling you. But it's not popular to do that - the lower forces would have you interpret that information, those documents, entirely differently. Because the lower forces (Satan, Lucifer, the fallen angels - all of those who are against the real Kingdom of God) would have you not reach that Kingdom. They are delighted to serve as your "god." They will give you the things that will make you happy in this world. If you want to, you can praise their name and ask for riches, or ask for anything that you want. They will give you the things that you want and make you feel good about it. It's even so popular today in religions to preach that, "God wants you to live an abundant life, so ask Him for what your needs are. He doesn't want you to be raggedy and poor." And of course, that's true, He doesn't. But that doesn't justify seeking a kingdom here, instead of seeking His Kingdom. You don't seek His Kingdom unless you seek to get out of this kingdom. You can't have both. His Kingdom is never going to coexist with the human kingdom. That's impossible. That would be like the humans getting down on their all-fours and existing with the dog kingdom, staying restricted to dog houses, and restricted to dog food, and restricted to dog behavior. It doesn't make any sense. Why would the Kingdom that made the human kingdom find fulfillment in the human kingdom?

Now, a remarkable thing exists - the most remarkable thing that you can possibly imagine, and that is - their design enabled them to make small "mental deposits" in human plants. We'll call those "deposits," for sake of understanding, the "soul." And those deposits are really like a small bit of Next Level "hardware" with capacity for Next Level information. That deposit/soul is not only a storehouse but a separator for information. And that deposit/soul comes with an initial bit of Next Level mind. And wherever the Next Level makes those deposits of souls in human plants, they contain a little bit of information that permits the recipient to actually recognize the kind of information that I am passing on to you. It even has the capacity to recognize the bearer (the Representative) of Next Level mind or information.

Even as you listen to me you might recognize me and that information, but the lower forces and your genetic programming says, "Oh, don't listen to that. Don't listen to that. That's horrible. That's the Anti-Christ. That's not God as I know it. That's something altogether different." I'm afraid that what you have been listening to - I'm not blaming you for listening to it, you hardly stood a chance - are the lower forces. These lower forces are so strong, that they have brainwashed and kept humans totally intoxicated at every level around the globe, so much so that they are totally preoccupied with: make money, put it in the bank, have more children, have more grandchildren, send them to college, leave plenty of "security" so that they can have a future, and their children can have a future. What does that yield? - extending the human kingdom, and extending the human kingdom, and extending the human kingdom, with no idea of the possibilities that exist beyond that. You say, "Oh yes, we go to church once in a while and we talk about Heaven, talk about the Kingdom of Heaven." But most people don't even want to touch the topic of the Kingdom of Heaven, because they don't really know what it is. They just have to have the faith that, "that's what I go to if I've been good, and I just have to trust that that's where I go." That doesn't make any sense. Well, you can say, "Why are you telling me it doesn't make any sense? That's where my trust is. That's where my faith is." I know that it is. It's not your fault. I know that's where your trust is, I know that's where your faith is. And I am desperate to give you help so that you can leave this place.

Now, three kinds of individuals can have a possible future with the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven. Oh, a few minutes ago I started to tell you about this remarkable design, and I've got to go back to it. This remarkable design is what a soul can become, and how a soul can be deposited in a human vehicle. Those deposits are made just prior to a Representative of the Kingdom Level Above Human coming into the human kingdom, taking a human body, and telling the truth about what the human kingdom really is, what the Kingdom Level Above Human really is, and giving that information a chance to build in those souls. Now, if a human plant has a soul, then that human plant has to find and connect with someone who is from that Kingdom Level. And since that Representative is here to try to help those get the information that can lead them out of the human kingdom, that individual is going to say, "I'm from the Kingdom of Heaven." Oh my goodness, how blasphemous can someone be to say, "I am from the Kingdom of Heaven." How else can a Representative offer anything if He doesn't identify who He is? He's saying, "Do you want to go to Heaven? I'm here! I was sent here for the express purpose of helping you get to the Kingdom of Heaven."

Now, the remarkable little process that happens - if an individual who has that little deposit of soul hears that voice that says, "I'm from the Kingdom of Heaven, I can help you go to the Kingdom of Heaven," - then that individual experiences severe pain, and begins to break away from the world, and begins to go to, physically go to and be with that Representative from that Kingdom of Heaven. Knowing quite well that they are questioning all the time, "Is this really someone from the Kingdom of Heaven or from the Level Above Human? Because if it isn't, you know, I don't want to get caught up in some 'cult.' I don't want to listen to somebody who could lead me astray. But if it is somebody from the Kingdom of Heaven, and if I've got that little bit of information in my head, then I'm going to have some awareness that there could be some truth in what that individual is saying, who says He is from the Kingdom of Heaven."

Don't forget, a couple of thousand years ago, there was a Representative from the Kingdom of Heaven or the Evolutionary Level Above Human, present, and He said, 'I am from the Kingdom of Heaven. Go and tell the Good News.' He told His followers, 'Go tell the Good News that the Kingdom of Heaven is here.' Meaning, 'This is your chance, I'm here. I can take you out of here. I can lead you into that Kingdom Level Above Human.' But He also said, 'That can't happen unless you leave the human world that you are in and come and follow Me. Come and follow Me.' That didn't mean on Sundays, it didn't mean part-time. It meant totally - 'Leave everything and come and follow Me.' And you can say, "Well, my information says that's terrible." Well, check it out. Go read your New Testament. Go read the red letters in the New Testament. See what that Representative actually said, 'Unless you leave everything and follow Me, unless you hate everything of this world and come and follow Me, you will not know My Father nor His Kingdom.' Go read it. It's long. It's thorough. It's remarkable that it's still there. I'm sure that the Level Above Human had to intercede because I'm sure that the lower forces would have, long ago, had that eliminated from documents that people would call religious documents or religious literature.

Every religion is less than the "Truth." It becomes a religion when it is less than the Truth. Now, every religion can prepare an individual to be more prepared for the time when a Representative from the Level Above Human comes in. So it's not like the Level Above Human is available only to whites, or blacks, or Jews, or Christians, or Muslims, or whatever the case might be. It's open to anyone who, when a Representative is present, chooses to leave all behind, follow that Representative, and "graft" to that Representative; and that graft grows as they take in more mind. Now, they're not really taking in the mind of the Representative, because the mind that is in the Representative is not His mind. The mind that comes through me is not my mind, it is the mind of my Older Member - we're in bad shape if it's my mind. It is mine because it was given to me by my Older Member, and by the Kingdom Level Above me - but it is not of me. I do not care for glory. I know that is the last thing that anyone would give to me on this planet, and I do not care for it. But I do care to glorify the Level Above Human. I care to glorify my Father who gave me life. It is hard for me to speak of that without weakening, as you can observe.

Okay, here's an individual who says, "I will break away from the world." Now breaking away from the world is not easy. It's difficult. It's tough. And breaking away doesn't mean that, I'm going to go live in some place with this little cult, and I'll spend time on weekends or at least on holidays with the family that I left, because they're my family. No, it means that you leave that world behind. You even become another individual. It means that even the "mind" that you had as a human is "aborted," and the soul that was given to you is filled with Next Level information - Next Level mind - and a new creature is born, one that is not human. Now, the mind that is filling that soul came from the Kingdom Level Above Human - the Kingdom of God. So that means that even what fills that soul came from that Kingdom. And therefore that new creature becomes something that is of, or even from, that Kingdom. It's the most interesting way that a creature comes into being. It's like how babies are made in the Kingdom Level Above Human - certainly not in mammalian ways, certainly not in acts that are abhorrent to them.

Now, that doesn't mean that it's "evil" to have an act of reproduction in the human kingdom - it's "evil" if I'm leaving the human kingdom, certainly. It is "evil" because it's barbaric, it's primitive, it's beneath me. The members in the Kingdom Level Above Human are not mammals - there are no males, there are no females. They don't need to consume things that require fangs or teeth. They can receive nourishment from a pill or a simple wave or vibration that they would walk through. The environment that they are in determines what the vehicle (or "suit of clothes") they are wearing for that task requires. Now don't forget, they identify as the mind - synonymous with spirit - they are not the "suit of clothes." But they wear physical "suits of clothes," and those physical suits of clothes look very much like - well I started to say like "extraterrestrials." However, most renditions by human artists of extraterrestrials are the most grotesque things that you can possibly imagine. They make them look like some praying mantis or some insect that has some crazy shape or form. And that's ridiculous. Next Level bodies are perfectly beautiful "suits of clothes." They are perfectly beautiful bodies - neither male nor female. They don't have hair that needs to be cut, they don't need to have curlers. They don't need to use makeup. It's a body that exists for the most part, in a non-destructive environment, except when it has to go to a place like planet Earth. So, it's potentially an eternal body - an everlasting body.

Now, I don't like to use terms like "everlasting," because, bingo, it sounds like I'm talking spiritual talk, or religious talk. Don't forget, religion is less than Truth. Spiritual talk is less than Truth. It is an abuse of Truth - it is a replacement for Truth that the lower forces have brought in. The more religious you are, the more you become dependent upon artificial information that would lead you away from the Truth. It's just like the rituals, and the prayers, and the trappings that go with religion - they can be so addictive, they can be so soothing, they can be so calming that they feel so wonderful. And to drop those things for a reality that is a Kingdom Level Above Human, that does not need those things, is a difficult thing to do. It is as difficult to drop religious trappings as it is to drop attachments that the plant that you are wearing had - those attachments to offspring or to spouse or to the parents of those plants.

The funny thing is, that in reality, those human parents do not possess the offspring they have. It is a very "evil" thing for them to think that their offspring are theirs, that they are products of theirs, property of theirs. Rather than wanting for that spirit, that mind (that is in that body that they supplied for that mind or spirit) to become what it wants to become, the humans are programmed by the alien forces, or the space aliens, or the negative creatures, to have you believe that children owe their parents or that parents possess their children. That is not true. It is cruel to even think that way. The more Next Level way of thinking is to want that individual to have their life, and not to be selfish and say, "Well, I brought you into this world. I want to cling to you. You owe me." That doesn't hold up. They didn't ask you to bring them in to the world. Is there some document that says that child owes its parent? Now the parent is responsible for the child, because the parent made the choice of creating (reproducing or replicating) another plant. And since they made that choice, or they took an action - oh, yes, we get down to that don't we - reproduction, human reproduction.

Boy, the worst thing you can imagine is for humans to be taught by these space aliens - even using their religions and their government morality to teach them - that the act of reproduction is a God-given, wonderful thing. It's God-given in the sense that dogs and horses came from God. Everything came from the Kingdom of Heaven, including humans and human reproductive systems. But what the Kingdom Above Human, the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven wants is to offer you their Kingdom, which they very systematically do, periodically. But it requires that when they do, you listen to them, and that you do what they require if you want to get out of the human kingdom. And to get out of the human kingdom requires that you leave the human kingdom, and go and follow someone who can lead you to the Kingdom Level Above Human.

Now, I told you a little while ago, that there are pretty much three types of individuals that can avoid the spading under at the end of an Age. One would, of course, be those souls that were deposited, and those souls were awakened, and those souls received nourishment, and left everything behind, and became attached to - grafted to - a Representative from the Level Above Human, and separated from everything. Now, I've got a bunch of these individuals sitting in front of me who, I may be mistaken, but I don't believe that any of them had the beginning of their Next Level life in this time period - in this generation. I know that every one of them were in the keeping of the Kingdom Level Above Human before they came into this time period. This time period was a chance for them to learn a lot of things that they didn't learn very well, or didn't get a chance to complete, or needed to work on more, as far as separating from the human kingdom. They are having an opportunity to develop that more, so that they don't have to be planted back in a human garden in another time - so that they can move into the Kingdom Level Above Human, take on costumes, or suits of clothes, or bodies that belong to that Kingdom, and serve and do their work in that Kingdom Level Above Human.

You know, I can hear some of those humans who are watching this tape now saying, "Oh my goodness, if I did what you would do, I would not even be a humanitarian. I would be forsaking my responsibility to the human kingdom." You have to forsake the human kingdom if you expect to ever know service in the Kingdom Level Above Human. You can't do both. You can't say, you know, "12 hours a day I'll work for the human kingdom, and the other 12 hours I'll work for the Kingdom Level Above Human." No, to leave the human kingdom requires everything you have.

A second type is one who recognizes the Representative, recognizes the information of the Next Level that is coming through the Representative, knows it is true, and has not yet had the strength to complete it. This type still trusts the Next Level, still believes that that is the only Truth, and whatever faith they have and trust they have, that's where it is. And they will be kept in the keeping of the Kingdom Level Above Human, and replanted at another time, and given another chance.

However, even though that Kingdom Level is fair, just because someone with a deposit of soul comes to them, is no guarantee they will get to the Kingdom Level Above Human. When they come, they can apply their effort toward change to the best of their (big question mark on this next word) ability or capability. It takes a lot of effort. And even your effort cannot get you there. You have to please your Older Member. I also had to, and have to, please my Older Member. When I first took my birth into that Kingdom Level, it was because I pleased my Teacher - my Older Member - the one who gave me birth into that Kingdom. No matter how hard I work, that work is of no value if it doesn't please my Older Member, the one who took me into that Kingdom. That is still true. In other words, this classroom here not only has to please me, they have to please my Older Member. So, just because they're sitting here, having left their world behind, does not mean that they will receive a body or suit of clothes belonging to that Next Level.

Okay, let's say they try to the best of their ability, and according to the Next Level's judgment they're not quite ready for a body of service, belonging to that Kingdom Level. If they did the best that they could, and they still pleased their teacher and pleased their teacher's Teacher, then they will have a future. They'll be replanted, have another time for a Representative to come into the human kingdom, and have that nourishment. Now that's the second type. So one is the type of soul that becomes a new creature, is ready to go into the Kingdom Level Above Human, receive a body, begin service. Two, is one who is in the process of that but doesn't quite make "quartermaster" - not quite ready to have a body because of more work that needs to happen as far as separating from human. We'll talk later about some of the work that is required in separating.

There is a side issue to the Next Level's presence that is a very interesting phenomena. During the time that the Next Level is close to a planet because they have a Representative there, and they are communicating continually with that Representative, then there is mind of the Next Level present that even the lower forces can tap and take advantage of, and increase a broad scope of their knowledge and their technical advancement, etc. Now, how long has the Next Level been here with me and my Older Member? Since the early '20's. Well, think of the advancement that has taken place on the planet, as far as technical advancement and scientific development since the early '20's, because that presence was here that all creatures could draw upon and use, including lower creatures who are here who don't believe that they want to go to my Father's Kingdom at all. They want to remain human.

Okay, back to the three types: One, those ready for quartermaster; two, those not quite ready, and the third type: those who recognize the information of the Next Level and are attempting, even without knowing of the Representative's presence, to break away in their own way. Now, when they attempt to break away in their own way, not even aware that I'm here or that my Older Member has been here at this particular time, they somehow or another find themselves drawn to others who are breaking away. They are also finding themselves surrounded with an opposite type of people who say, "What's wrong with you guys? Are you crazy? You're leaving your career? You're not paying attention to your children?" This is happening a lot. Many people are going into what the mainstream likes to call "cults" - they are breaking away. People who love their God so, in their own way, that they end up like what happened with Randy Weaver at Ruby Ridge, what happened at Waco, what happens in nations that, even in their government, want to honor God - listen to God - entirely, instead of taking man's laws, man's requirements, man's rules. They are breaking away. They are conscious that there is some presence of God here and are saying, "I want to go in that direction. I'll even put my life on the line in order to get closer to God at this time."

I am not qualified to specifically tell you who all these various types are. But I've given you some illustrations. It's like even in patriot movements, or in militia movements, or in "cults," or in this type of religious radical or another who know that this world is rotten, they are saying, "I would rather die in service to my interpretation of what God is than stay here." Those young souls, those young spirits, those minds will be saved. They will be set aside - "put on ice," so to speak - and have a future, have another planting in the next civilization for further nourishment.

What does this add up to? This adds up to that the ones who love this world and love the human kingdom, say to me and all those like me (or all those I just discussed - all those various categories) that, "They're nuts, they're crazy. They're radicals. They're against the world. They are not human - they're inhumane. They're tyrannical or their terrorists." Now, don't misunderstand me. I'm not advocating violence. I'm not advocating going out and trying to create some war. The war that is a natural phenomenon that comes with the End of an Age, is forced upon those who want to leave this place. It's not anything that we have to do or we have to create. And some, aware that that will happen - even some who want to get to the Kingdom Level Above Human - mistakenly feel responsible for creating those wars. They don't have all the pieces right. But if they are doing it for the right reasons, not me, but my Father and my Father's Father, and the Kingdom Level Above Human says, "They love me more than they love the world. And they love me more than they love the world during the time that I have a Representative present. And I will honor that. I will extract them. I will put them aside. I will give them a planting at another time."

Well, you know, one of the things that disturbs me the most is that those who are very religious, by whatever name, are usually those who had been recipients of souls, recipients of a little bit of Next Level information, a little deposit from the Kingdom Level Above Human. And the lower forces were aware of that. And so the lower forces do everything they can to keep those individuals from ever knowing the Kingdom of God. So they come in and offer those recipients their version of the "Kingdom of God" through their religion, but it's totally counterfeit. It's totally false. It's concerned with healing your cancer, healing this that's wrong, fixing your pocketbook, or making your business right, or doing all the things to extend your life here - and above all, tend to that family, tend to that "future," tend to all the things that will leave a future for our children. If that's your preoccupation, you cannot know the Kingdom of Heaven and you will have no future. If you love the Kingdom of Heaven, or the Kingdom of God, or the Level Above Human, by whatever terms are in your head, and you hate this world and want to leave it, you will have a future with and in the very Kingdom Level that created you.

Don't forget we are at a very unusual time - we're at the End of an Age. You can say, "Boy, you're really trying to fill me with fear, aren't you?" If it would work, I would. I would do anything that I could to wake you up, if you have that potential to know that Kingdom, to be saved from this spading under, from this recycling. I mean, I don't care for any of the fame or glory of the human world. It's absolutely worthless to me. I can't wait to get out of here. There's nothing this planet, or this civilization, or this kingdom level has to offer me. I am away from my Father to be here. Anything that I could sacrifice in this world is no sacrifice at all compared to what I sacrificed in leaving there to come here, to try to help those who were given to me as a task. I apologize for being so emotional but that happens to be the Truth. I want to leave here. Now, I'm in a vehicle that is already falling apart on me, and I'm desperate to try to help you have a last chance to go.

Let's go back to title of tape. Title of tape is "Last Chance to Evacuate Planet Earth"- to get out of the human kingdom, get off of the planet, leave it literally. Now, "leave it literally" means - well, what is literal - that leaving requires that you start identifying with the mind that can connect with this information, and not identify with the body that you are wearing. And that you take advantage of everything that you can to learn more of this information, become more connected with it, and to follow it like sheep would follow a shepherd, in an attempt to leave this place.

So, I hate the lower forces who have taken the very Truths that were initially the Truths, and have reduced them to "religion," and they made the religions more attractive and more human, so that those who had deposits and were seeking the presence of a Representative of the Kingdom Level Above Human, would, when He came, be looking for the wrong one - the one who would bring "peace on Earth." Here we are at the End of the Age, and you've got a whole world full of many, many types who say, "We're coming to the End of an Age, we're coming to the Second Coming, we're coming to the time that Jesus is coming back, or that the Kingdom of Heaven is coming - and His Son is going to set up His Kingdom here on Earth, and Earth will then be Heaven." This will never happen. You wouldn't have it even if it happened. Once you knew what it was, you couldn't stand it. You cannot cling to being a mammal, connected with other mammals, and expect to get into a level of life that is beyond mammal. Now, you can search the documents of your religions right now and they clearly tell you that in Heaven there are - there will be - no males and no females (it is genderless). It is not a mammalian existence, it is not a human existence. And those documents also clearly tell you that you have to leave everything of the human world in order to know that Next World or ever see that Kingdom of Heaven.

Well, once more, the awful thing that happens, from your perspective, when the Level Above Human comes into the human kingdom and incarnates into a human body, is that the Representative whom they send has to say - in order to find followers - "I'm here. I'm from the Kingdom Level Above Human." What does that yield? That yields, immediately, that the vast majority say, "cult, some religious radical, some blasphemous individual that wants to take advantage of people - you know, has some big bank account somewhere that they're taking whatever possessions that followers might bring with them or have access to." I wish you'd show me where that bank account is so that we could use it to get this information out.

I don't mean to make fun of this. I am desperate - for your sakes. Within the past 24 hours I have been clearly informed by my Older Member of how short the remaining time is; how clearly we cannot concentrate on anything except the perspective that says: the end of this civilization is very close. The end of a civilization is accompanied by spading under, refurbishing the planet in preparation for another civilization. And the only ones who can survive that experience have to be those who are taken into the keeping of the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

Now, there are some strange possibilities that could happen that I have not touched upon. How is this end of civilization going to occur? Well, I don't know all the particulars. Talk to the people who talk about earthquakes, and talk about weather phenomena, and talk about ozone layers. And talk to environmental people and they'll say, "Well, the planet is in trouble in that area." Talk about the way that people no longer are restrained nor do they have respect for their neighbors. They're so unrestrained that if you just say something that makes them unhappy, they start throwing rocks at you, and the next thing you know you've got a neighborhood war, you've got a little ethnic war in this nation or that. And there's so little restraint that these little groups, these little ethnic groups, these little religious groups, these little governments that are in conflict - they seem to be doing a significant amount of the spading under themselves. They seem to, by choice, be so quick to condemn others. Well, what is it that's in the history books about the Truth? It says: be careful not to condemn someone else or you will be condemned. That doesn't mean anything anymore - everyone is quick to condemn. I mean they don't even "look-see" anymore. They just see a tiny little aspect of someone else and they quickly determine that they are so brilliant that they can judge it as being not what they are looking for - worthless, some radical movement, some movement that certainly is beneath them. Well, that is making hasty judgments - that kind of quick-to-condemn-others attitude, that kind of violence that wants to destroy others.

You know, the world and its majority have created laws that try to keep individuals like us non-existent, because we threaten the system that the major systems exist on. You could say, "What if everybody in the world left their families and came and followed Do?" Well, you don't have to worry about that - that's not going to happen. You know, only a tiny, tiny little fraction of the plants that are on the planet would ever be able to make that transition from the human kingdom to the Kingdom of Heaven. It's the same in regard to giving up human ways. You could say, "Well, what if everyone gave up their human and mammalian reproductive activity - there wouldn't be any humans left." Oh, then you don't believe that the Kingdom Level Above Human is capable of producing individuals? That they can't create or make them? That they are dependent upon the human reproductive activity? You sure don't give them credit for much. They made the very first ones here. They even designed them with a capacity to reproduce. If humans didn't reproduce, the Next Level could make as many as they want to. They always have been able to do that. They're not dependent upon humans for anything.

Well, I know this could sound strange, but I wish you could believe me. Why do I wish that you could believe me? Because if you really believed me, you would look at what we have to say. You know, this little classroom of students who are about to move into the Level Above Human, following me out of here - and we're going to leave quickly - are doing everything they can do to be non-human. That doesn't mean that they are uncaring. They are more sensitive than you can imagine. They are more caring than you can imagine. The qualities that they have exceed anything of your imagination - because they have listened to and taken in information of the Next Level enough that they believe it and it has become a part of them. And it means everything to them. They know that by separating from the world that the vehicles that they are wearing - the plants that they are wearing - caused grief for individuals. There's another aspect to that: the Kingdom Level Above Human also sees to it that none of those lives that were touched by that separation were damaged. They may be temporarily hurt. That doesn't mean they are damaged. A lot of times - or all of the time - that kind of hurt can lead to a greater positive for the individual who experiences the pain of that separation.

Well, I started to tell you a minute or two ago, that we created recently a website on Internet - one called "Heavensgate." We have put into Heavensgate just about everything we have to say, as far as we are capable. The time I'm sitting with you is a tiny little fragment of time. I couldn't tell you all the things I know if we sat for days and days and days. But if you want to know more about us, if you can believe what I am telling you and you want to know more about it, you can go to Heavensgate on the Internet. You can pull down all kinds of stuff that we have written, things that we have done, things about our history. We even have a book that is available to you - I'm not going to spend time now trying to sell you some book. But there is a book available that you can find on the Heavensgate website.

I don't want to take away from the seriousness of the moment, because I am concerned that time is short. Again, the topic of this tape is: Last chance to evacuate the human kingdom - planet Earth - to get out of this space so that this garden can be recycled. I hope for your sake that you have a degree of curiosity about what I have said on this tape, so that you will look a little deeper. If you condemn me thoroughly and call me the Anti- Christ or whatever you want to call me, it's not going to hurt me. It's going to hurt you. If you condemn us, you will be condemned. Nothing can hurt us. The thing that we could experience here that would be the most horrible thing, from your point of view, would serve to help us get back to the Kingdom Level Above Human more quickly, and that's what we desire to do.

I know that the presentation of this little tape is not what I would call skilled or polished. It doesn't have the things that humans like to see in their presentations. But I know that it has the Truth. And that any of you who have a fragment of Truth in you can connect with that Truth. And if you pursue that Truth, you don't have to worry about what is going to happen, for you will have a future. You will be in the keeping of the Kingdom Level Above Human. This I desperately, for your sake, hope you take advantage of. And what happens to those who respond to us - one way or the other - is all a part of the spading under, even what may happen to us as a result of this little tape, or whatever subsequent things that we do in relationship to you between now and our departure.

I hope that you take advantage of this. I hope that I have been a servant of the Next Level, and that you might somehow come to know the Next Level through this meager effort.

Planet About To Be Recycled -Your Only Chance To Survive - Leave With Us

Edited Transcript of Videotape - October 5, 1996:

This is a very exciting time for us. Who is us? I'm "Do" (pronounced "Doe") for starters, and I have in front of me a number of students, or my classroom, or in old language of a couple of thousand years ago, my disciples - those who are trying to prepare themselves for entry into the Evolutionary Level Above Human, synonymous with the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven. We're going to talk to you about the most urgent thing that is on our mind, and what we suspect is the most urgent thing on the minds of those who will connect with us.

We'll title this tape, "Planet Earth About to be Recycled - Your Only Chance to Evacuate is to Leave With Us." Planet Earth about to be recycled - Your only chance to survive or evacuate is to leave with us. Now, that's a pretty drastic statement - pretty bold - in terms of religion, in terms of anybody's intelligent thinking. To most people who would consider themselves intelligent beings, they'd say, "Well, that's absurd. What's all this doomsday stuff? What's all this prophetic, apocalyptic talk?" You know, intelligent human beings should realize that all things have their own cycle. They have their season. They have their beginning, they have their end. We're not saying that planet Earth is coming to an end. We're saying that planet Earth is about to be refurbished, spaded under, and have another chance to serve as a garden for a future human civilization.

Now, the reason this is such an interesting time is not only because we're on the threshold of the end of this civilization (because it's about to be recycled), but because of where that finds us, and where that finds you - where that finds those who would judge us - how we would speak of them, and how they would speak of us. Now, you might say, "You keep saying 'us'? Who do you think you are?" Well, I, in all honesty, to address that must first acknowledge who my Father is. My Father is not a human father. My Father is a member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human - the Kingdom of God - the Kingdom of Heaven. My Father - long before this civilization began - gave me birth into that Kingdom Level Above Human, that Kingdom of Heaven, that Kingdom of God.

Now, you can say, "I can't believe that!" Well, it's up to you whether you believe that or not. That's not important to me, even though I wish that you could believe it for your sake. For those who do believe it stand a possibility of having a future beyond this recycling time. Now, you say, "According to religious literature, I thought there was someone else who was going to come and be our 'Savior' here at these last days - that that was going to be Christ's return?" Well, the name "Christ" or the name "Jesus" might be a little confusing. Because the name "Jesus," of course, was merely the name given to the body that that mind (that was indeed from the Kingdom of Heaven) incarnated into. That mind was here 2000 years ago, and that mind came for the express purpose of teaching humans how they could be "saved" - how they would not be plowed under at the End of the Age. Well, we're now at the End of the Age. So that mind that was in Jesus - What? That mind, that spirit, that soul is me, and in this body called "Do" that you're looking at? You'll have to decide that for yourself. I must admit that I am here again. That I'm here saying exactly the same thing that I said then, trying to say it in today's language, trying to hope that, for your sakes, you can see what we have to offer you. For the Next Level, through my Father and through me, is offering you LIFE for the first time - and we're not talking about human life.

Now, the planet is about to be recycled, and we say we see the planet as a steppingstone - planet Earth as a steppingstone. Just as with a civilization, that civilization can evolve upwards - each segment within that civilization has the option to become more civilized, less barbaric. It would be better for them if they took more civilized options. Not that they necessarily do. Sometimes they seem to appear to be more civilized when, in fact, they have become more barbaric, more quick to condemn the rest of the world, more quick to kill the rest of the world that does not think as they think.

Well, I know what I said a few moments ago. I said that I am the return of the Son of my Father. I'll tell you something that's even more remarkable: my Father came with me this time. He came in the early '70's, took on a human form - an adult female human form. He helped me "get into" an adult human form, in the early '70's. And we together helped those who came with us (our students, who were also here 2000 years ago as disciples) get in the bodies that they are presently wearing - so that they could rid themselves of human behavior, human activity, human thinking - so that they could be ready at this time to move into the Kingdom of Heaven or the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

These that are sitting before me have been students of Ti and Do - Ti, my Father - and they are still students of Ti and Do, even though Ti returned to the Heavens in 1985. Ti is my Heavenly Father and is the One who gave me birth into that Kingdom before this civilization began. Now, I'm not here to sell you on that, or who I am or who these are. I'm here to offer you, as these are, an opportunity to know the Truth, so that if you can connect with it, at any level, then you might survive the re-spading or the recycling that is about to occur.

We made a tape just shortly ago, and in that tape we said that there are three types of individuals who will survive the recycling. One type is those individuals who have overcome their humanness enough that when the End of this Age is complete, when the war is over (the spading complete, there is nothing left here except for recycling), when the end of that occurs, that first type will have reached a condition of having overcome human behavior, human thinking, human desires - desiring only to be in the Kingdom of Heaven, in the Evolutionary Level Above Human, being of service in that Kingdom. When they have done that overcoming to that degree, at that point they are a match for a physical body belonging to that Kingdom.

Humans think that this is a flesh body world, and it is. But, more importantly, it is a human flesh body world. The Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, the Evolutionary Level Above Human also has bodies. I wouldn't say flesh bodies because they have different characteristics. But it is a physical body, a biological body, and in a sense, it is equivalent to a human body for that next Evolutionary Level. It doesn't need the kind of fuel that humans need, for it's not a mammalian body. It doesn't reproduce. It's not male nor female. It probably would look like what you might consider a very attractive "extraterrestrial." Most of the illustrations of extraterrestrials these days have been grotesque - looked like giant insects, or slimy reptilians, or have eyes so big that you could fall into them. An extraterrestrial that we would consider a genuine extraterrestrial is not a "fallen angel," is not a "space alien."

We see fallen angels and space aliens as synonymous - fallen angels and space aliens are synonymous. And the Next Level - the only real extraterrestrials - have a body similar to the human body. The human body was made from the same basic design, the same general form, except the human body is more animal than that Next Level form. The human body has hair, needs teeth, has physical characteristics that are appropriate to this environment. When you go into an environment that does not require eating things that you have to pull off the bone, or crack the shells off the nut, then certainly teeth are not needed. A Next Level body in a non-earthly environment also needs no hair. That Next Level body is a creature that looks very attractive, has two eyes, some remnant of a nose, some remnant of ears - what you would call remnants - even though they function very well as nose, as ears. They have a voice box, but don't really need to use it, for they can communicate by thought - communicate with their minds. And that's an extraterrestrial - that is the "body" belonging to a member of the Evolutionary Level Above Human, the Kingdom of Heaven, the Kingdom of God. It's true, they could seem unattractive to you if you're really "into" human flesh bodies and see them as beautiful.

You know, there are sayings that there is seed of flesh, or there are things that are born of flesh, and there are things that are born of spirit. Also, born of water is synonymous with being born of flesh. If people really understood the more accurate of the religious literature, and could read it as it was intended to be read, they would know it clarifies that seed of flesh (human) was and is, literally, seed of the negative, the opposition, the space aliens, the fallen angels. Therefore, to the Next Level, human flesh has become a product of the lower forces, and is of the kingdom level beneath the Kingdom of God - that kingdom level that rightfully should be only a steppingstone leading to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now, this understanding isn't meant to put you down or to say that an individual is necessarily "evil" just because they're wearing a human vehicle. I'm wearing a human vehicle, because I have to wear one for this task. I don't like it. It doesn't match me. And those who sit in front of me don't like their human vehicles that they have to wear for this task. But they have to wear them, because the task of overcoming the human kingdom requires that they overcome human flesh - the genetic vibrations, the lust of the flesh, the desire to reproduce, the desire to cling to offspring, or spouse, or parents, or house, or money, or fame, or job, or, or - that could go on and on - overcoming the human flesh and its desires - even its religious desires. There is not a religion on the face of the globe that is of God, as it is today. All of those ideologies that are called religions use corrupted records and corrupted interpretations of man's relationship with someone from the Kingdom of God, the Evolutionary Level Above Human.

In other words, it's like the religious literature (the Bible, the Torah, the Koran, etc.) are written as time manuals. So that ancient religious literature, with its laws and rules, was appropriate to the time that it was written in and to that phase of civilization. Less ancient literature, with its laws, was appropriate to its own particular age. What did the "Lord" God - the one who was here long before the Messiah came - say to His people? Through His prophets, He said, 'I will send a Savior, a Messiah to help you get out of the human kingdom,' knowing that some humans should certainly reach a condition where they would be ready to move up into His Kingdom by that period in time when His Representative - the Messiah - would be sent. When the One He sent came as the "Messiah," truly some in the civilization at that time were prepared for the information - the steps, the requirements - that that Messiah had to offer to those who would seek His Father's Kingdom.

Well, that Savior came, that Messiah came. And after a brief teaching period with those He picked - those who were His disciples/students - He said, 'I will come again.' And His Father sent Him again. And for me to say that I was and am He, is to most, utter blasphemy. In other words, what I say to you now is a direct, present, current transmission - information from the Kingdom Level of My Father, the Level Above Human, the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven.

Today's Christians say they are Christians and think they are Christians. And yet they seldom quote the most important things that Jesus said. Jesus said, 'If you want to know My Father, if you want to move into My Father's Kingdom, then shed everything of this world - leave everything behind - and come and follow Me. And unless you hate everything of this world, your sister, your mother, your brother - everything of this world - you will not know the Kingdom of Heaven. You have to graft to Me, you have to cling to Me, if I am to literally take you into My Father's house.' Most Christians, world over, mostly frequently quote Paul - who never sat with that Representative (Jesus), nor was Paul ever a student of that Representative. Christians say, "Oh, I love Jesus. He's in my heart. I'm filled with Jesus. Jesus wants me to live an abundant human life. He wants me to have riches. He wants me to have more children so that I can bring them up with Christian family values." I don't remember Jesus ever saying that, "What I want you to do is to go get married, have families, have children, and together bring all of them and I will take them into the Kingdom of Heaven." He only spoke to individuals - and said, 'The only way out of here is for you to know that as an individual this human world is not for you - that tie that binds you to the human kingdom is not for you. If you know it is not for you, then come to Me - and My Father will feed Me information that can nourish you - and help you overcome this world - and we'll leave this world, and we'll go to My Father's Kingdom.'

Remember, we're not talking about a spiritual kingdom - no clouds, no harps - even though we are talking about in the heavens. But the Heavens are no more spiritual than when you go out at night and look at the Heavenly bodies and see them. They are literally there. They are physical. My Father's Kingdom also moves or travels in spacecrafts (some of which are even organic). You could say, "Oh, my goodness, that's outrageous." Well, you don't like the illustrations of chariots of fire or wheel within a wheel? You don't like the illustrations that are in your religious literature that tell of spacecrafts of my Father's Kingdom? "Clouds of light" - at that time they didn't know what else to call them. Even when they saw angels that they said had wings - how else could they have described that they fly? That didn't necessarily mean they had feathers on their backs (though that possibility exists as well). Certainly some of these illustrations mean that they came to Earth in a flying object and they left aboard that flying object. And when they saw Jesus ascend, they said, "He went up into that cloud of light."

Now, I'm not trying to make a big deal over the means of transportation issue. For a spacecraft - belonging to the Level Above Human - is much more than a piece of transportation. It is a very valuable work station. It is commonly a place of service to the Level Above Human. These students that are leaving this kingdom level to go with me to my Father's Kingdom, to my Father's house, these will not go into houses on some planet like Earth, and reproduce, and have families and sit and watch television and make scrambled eggs. They're going to be genderless individuals, in service - full time - for whatever need the Level Above Human, the Kingdom of Heaven has for them. And the tools they use, the workstations that they use are spacecrafts - all sizes. Spacecrafts that are so small that a very small crew could fit into them because that small spacecraft is best suited for that given task. Spacecrafts that are so large you can't even see the outer extremities of them. They could look like something larger than a planet to the observers, because that size craft is best suited for whatever laboratory work or experimentation is going on. All sizes are used for a variety of purposes.

How can these students be effective servants in that Kingdom if they're worried about their children, or their dogs, or their horses, or their cats, or how much time they have to put in at the Rotary, or such things as that. As individuals they serve one or two individuals - older Representatives of that Next Kingdom - who are their instructors for their assigned tasks. Just as in the task that we're in now with this classroom - these look to me as their Older Member, their instructor, for everything. I look to my Older Member for everything - to fill me in on what these students' needs are and how I might be used to instruct them. I'm not just talking about their physical needs, but their mental/spirit/soul needs - how they can most effectively make their change from human into the Kingdom Level Above Human.

Now, this is not to say that we know that there is a guarantee that we will all go on board a craft together, in order to leave before this spading under occurs. We will definitely go on board a craft to leave before the "spading under" occurs. You could say, "Well, what's the difference?" Well, the difference is that we don't yet know if we are going to take these flesh bodies on board that craft or if we will leave these flesh bodies behind before we board. We don't believe that Our Father's Kingdom has much need for these flesh bodies. But, it's possible that a spacecraft will come down, and we'll walk on board that craft, and they'll take these bodies from us, and issue us the ones that belong to that Level so that we might begin our service. It is also possible that part of our test of faith is our hating this world, even our flesh body, to the extent to be willing to leave it without any proof of the Next Level's existence, other than what we have come to know: that we have nothing to fear; that we are in Good keeping; that we can leave the body that we're in and Be that soul, that identity, which totally survives that separation - whether it is by martyrdom, because someone went crazy over our "righteous blasphemy," or whatever event that might separate us from that human body that we are wearing. Our faith is primarily based upon our trust in our Older Members. We do know one thing - we don't care to cling to the life of this body until it naturally "gives up." We don't care to be aborted by the body that we're wearing. We care more to abort it in proof to our Heavenly Father that we trust Him and are ready to leave this place. We're ready to go into His Kingdom. And they, these students, have to say to my Father, "We trust your Son. We trust the One You sent for our sakes. Even so much that we have no hesitation to leave this place - to leave the body that we are wearing. We know that whatever happens to us after we leave this body is a step forward from what we were, and that we don't care to be here any longer."

Earlier in this tape I spoke to you of three types of individuals who can be salvaged from this re-spading. One type that I mentioned was those who have overcome enough that they will get an issue of a physical body belonging to the Next Level, and go into service, as a crew member, working for the Next Level. A second type of individual that can be salvaged from this planet at this time are those who don't quite reach that point of overcoming by the time it is time to leave. But they are still faithful to the best of their ability in their effort of breaking away, leaving their humanity, and looking to us - looking to me, looking to my Father, looking to the Next Level - to give them the strength and the understanding of how they can break away more quickly. So wherever they are, to the best of their capability, at the time of our exit, even if they are not ready for issue of a Next Level body - they may have to experience a time in a civilization that is yet to come and do more overcoming of the human kingdom. But they will be in the keeping of the Kingdom Level Above Human, just as these have been in the keeping of the Kingdom Level Above Human - not just here at this time, in this generation, with me and with Ti.

"Ti" isn't Ti's name, by the way. "Do" isn't Do's name. I'm not even given to tell you what my name or Ti's name is. The Next Level wouldn't have humans know what our real names are. I had to put that in for the record, so that you would understand.

Back to the previous subject, the second type of individual who can go into the Kingdom of Heaven is one who, at the time we leave, has not completed their human overcoming to the satisfaction of the Next Level, and therefore the Next Level will bring them back when a civilization is at its development point to be a "match" - at the point where those individuals might pick up where they left off. Then they will reach "issue time" for a Next Level body by or before the end of the next civilization.

The third type of soul or individual who can go to the Kingdom of Heaven now, with us, and be in the keeping of that Kingdom, are those who either hear our voice right at the end of our task, or have received this information and don't know where it's coming from. In other words, some might hear our voice and might know where it is coming from, might know that I exist in physical form here, about to leave. Others might not make contact, but something tells them, "I've got to break away, I can't stand to stay here. I've got to put my life on the line for the Kingdom of Heaven."

The lower forces' whole effort is to have potential members of the Next Level not succeed in remaining faithful to the end so that they might prevent them from coming into the keeping of the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven.

So, here we are. We're going public with this information once again, right before we leave. This is like putting ourselves right out on the chopping block where the lower forces will have a chance to try to demean us, have the world turn against us, and try to do us in. It will challenge all those who are religious minded to look at us and say, "Hmmm, how could that possibly be the Truth, is this not the Anti-Christ or the spurious Messiah?" "Spurious Messiah" is the term that some prominent television/satellite ministries use in describing the Anti-Christ, who, they say, is to arrive on the scene before Christ returns. So, in their eyes, since the Anti-Christ has not yet arrived, then Christ's return must be at a later time.

Well, I hate to tell you, but the Anti-Christ - the spurious Messiah - has been on the scene ever since my Father and I left 2000 years ago. And he and his helpers have worked as hard as they could through religions, through governments, through "acceptable" morality, through "responsibility as a human," to brainwash humans to expect "Heaven on Earth." Those lower forces have "programmed" humans, especially Christians, to see our arrival "on the scene" as the Anti-Christ. Those fallen angels - those humanoid space aliens - would have humans not look to or expect to go to a Kingdom of Heaven, but to look for a Heaven on Earth - where they might reign as your Christ - to work toward the future - to be preoccupied with replicating or reproducing children - and laying aside enough money to take care of those children so that they will have a future, and they will have a future, and they will have a future. A future in what? - the human kingdom? What an abomination! To the Next Level the human kingdom is, at its best, nothing more than a potential steppingstone. It's clear that anyone who wants to stay in the human kingdom - and make it some sort of divinity - is looking to some "spurious Messiah," an anti-Christ indeed.

Now, I know that those who are expecting the arrival of the "spurious Messiah" - "the anti-Christ" - if they become aware of this tape and of Do sitting here saying what I'm saying now, they'll say, "That's the one. Because I warned you that the spurious Messiah would say, 'I'll take you out of here. I'll rapture you into my father's kingdom.'" And that's what I'm saying. I'm saying that, "If you can believe my Father's information, if you can believe the Truth that we share with you, and if you believe it enough that you can put your trust in me - and that could be a "big dose" for some - you will soon find yourself in the safekeeping of the Kingdom of Heaven." These students in front of me know me well. If you have some of my Father's mind in you, you can have recognition as well, even with only this brief viewing, though I'll remind you that the lower forces will do everything they can to have you lose or doubt that recognition.

We have a website now, you know, it's the popular thing - everybody has to have a website. Our website on the Internet is called Heavensgate. Heavensgate - oh, of course, .com. Everything is .com. We're not .org, we're .com. So if you want to, you can learn more about who we are, what we have to say, what I have to say, what my Older Member can share with you through what we have said, and know of our history. We have nothing to hide. Even though to some, we might be a dangerous cult. We understand that. Why dangerous? Because we threaten the family, we threaten the established norm of family values. If you knew Jesus 2000 years ago, you would know that exactly the same thing occurred. And that the reason for getting rid of Him was because if people really began to follow Him to any significant degree, it would threaten the political, and certainly the religious norm. His teachings were clearly against what the mainstream was teaching, what the norm was in the governments or the family, and certainly against the religion of that time.

Religion today is an interesting thing. Remember how we said a moment ago that the religious literature like the Bible, the Koran, the Torah, are time manuals. In the time that something was written, as the Lord or as God related to man, it was appropriate for them at that time. And yet we have the bulk (if not the vast majority) of humans on the planet today who are very religious living exactly as they were trying to live some 5000 years ago, or some 4000 years ago. They never made it to 2000 years ago. But 2000 years ago, a chance to get out of here, was available to those who listened to what the Next Level's Representative had to say. A chance to get out of here - out of the human kingdom - whenever it is offered, requires everything of you - that you, as an individual, go join some cult - that you leave everything behind - that you ignore the members of your family - that you ignore the responsibility to your community - that you ignore your career - and that hearts will be broken.

I don't mean to make light of that, "that hearts will be broken." I know that hearts are broken. I also know that anyone who leaves to go to my Father's Kingdom, that any heart that is broken in the process of that transition, can easily be more than healed, if that heart looks to my Father for healing, and looks to my Father for understanding. That soul does not need to see this as a terrible experience. Many times, the worst things in the human kingdom that can happen to us, end up being the best things that could happen to us. Because we learn "in depth" lessons as a result of those difficult times. Every life that was touched by these who are sitting in front of me - every life that was hurt or experienced pain by their leaving and becoming students of mine and of my Father's - was hurt, severely hurt. Some of them still hurt. They could actually say, "Thank you, God, for the lesson that is mine to learn in this experience. And as far as that individual that I used to call my son or daughter, or my husband or wife, I put them in Your trust. I cannot tell them what they must do with their life. That is their decision."

We cannot judge each other. I cannot judge you. I don't care to judge you. You will judge yourselves by how you respond to what we have to say, by what you can accept and what you can't. In some cases, it's almost better that you never see me, or hear what we say, for that will put you to the test of whether or not you will condemn me, whether or not you will judge me. You cannot hurt me. You cannot hurt these. We can only be hurt if we displease our Heavenly Father.

It's funny that the world - the mainstream human world - is so quick to condemn and judge (those who are not like them) as if they were God Almighty. They would also judge those who would follow us, determining the worthlessness of any that would join some cult, assuming that that is the worst thing that anyone could possibly do, for they are being brainwashed and led down the wrong track into some occult camp, and they're going to the devil. What is the devil like? Know your literature. What do the fallen angels like? They like the pleasures of the human flesh - the aspirations of this world.

What is told to you in all religious literature - that you will find if you ever reach the Kingdom of Heaven? There, there will be no males, no females, no children, no families other than your relationship with God - your Lord. Your Lord is whichever Member of His Kingdom He has given to you, assigned to you as your Helper, your Instructor, your Teacher. This is so simple that it sounds unreal-unspiritual. This information would be easier to accept if it were more spiritual, if it were more complicated, if it had more ritual with it, or more trappings of religion. In my Father's house, no incense is required, no flowing robes, no tinkling bells, no genuflecting, no sitting in the lotus position, no things of "spirituality," even though our Father's Kingdom requires cleansing of the spirit/the mind. It requires ridding ourselves of the mind of the human kingdom - ridding ourselves of the lusts of the human world, and of the binds to the human level.

"Being filled with spirit" is an interesting thing for you to think about. What happened when the illustration was made that Jesus was with John the Baptist, and was being baptized, and a dove descended and He was "filled with the Holy Spirit"? "Filled with the Holy Spirit" meant that the major portion of Jesus' mind, His Next Level identity, was entering the body that He was wearing to the degree that the vehicle's human mind was no longer affecting Him - He had aborted that mind of the human kingdom. He was "filled" with the mind of His Father. The mind of His Father is "Holy Spirit." Any mind of the Level Above Human is pure Spirit - is Holy Spirit. To think of "being filled with the Holy Spirit" as something that comes- and- knocks- you- down- and- makes- you- fall- on- the- floor- because- somebody- is- trying- to- heal- your- broken- knee, is an abomination. It is anything but the "Holy Spirit" that you're being "filled with." Likewise, to "babble" in some indiscernible "mumbo-jumbo" and call it "speaking in tongues" or "being filled with the Holy Spirit" is also an outrage. It might be an experience of being "filled with the spirit," but it certainly is not the Holy Spirit.

You know, a soul is another very interesting thing, because my Father's Kingdom plants souls. And souls become the great separator as they are planted. My Father's Kingdom plants souls in many humans each time a Representative of the Kingdom Level Above Human is to be incarnate on planet Earth - plants many souls in many human plants. Now, even though they're planted in the flesh, because the flesh is what has to be overcome, they are really planted in the spirit of that flesh. The spirit being the mind or the intelligence of that flesh. And you can say, "Well, does that mean that everybody doesn't have a soul?" Yes, that's exactly what it means. But it also means that anybody can have a soul that can believe in my Father - the reality of my Father, the reality of His Son, and the reality of His Kingdom.

In other words, those who are given the responsibility and the task of planting those souls, plant them in all of the human plants who have a potential of making that step - using that steppingstone - and getting out of the human kingdom and into that Next Kingdom Level. That soul, as the separator, helps the individual, in their mind (in their spirit), abort human thinking, human evaluation, human behavior, and replace it with the mind that they get from the Representatives - the mind of the Next Level - fill it up, fill it up, fill it up. When it is so filled and enough aborting of human mind has occurred - then that individual has come into viability - has come into bloom enough that that individual is ready to go to "quartermaster" when they leave this planet, and be issued a body, of service, belonging to the Kingdom of my Father.

Now, let me say this: all human plants - even in their genetic structure - have a little bit of Heavenly mind, or mind of the Kingdom of God, mind of the Evolutionary Level Above Human (I have to say all of those each time I say it, just to remind you I'm talking about the same thing). Each human plant has a little bit of that Next Level mind in it. So theoretically, and this is true, that if there is a human listening to me who, in fact, may not at this moment have a soul, but that plant listens to me, and says, "Could it be true, what Do is saying? It sounds crazy, but I wonder if that's true?" Even that degree of curiosity would attract the attention of the Next Level crew which is assigned to planting souls. That crew will be sure that a separator (a soul) is immediately made available to that individual. So that deposit of a soul could happen very, very quickly. They're not going to let it happen, that any potential recipients of their Kingdom not have the needed receptacle of Next Level spirit coming into full blossom as pure spirit, pure mind, of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Now, let's go back to the topic of urgency. I don't know if you are aware that a great deal of literature used by many scholars today, says that the calendar that humans use is off by 4 years. And that Jesus was born in 4 B.C. Now, if Jesus was born in 4 B.C., and this is '96 A.D., could this be the year 2000 - the millenium, the beginning of the end? That's why we're talking. For us to surface with who we are and the information that we are surfacing with, we know, could challenge you to want to squelch us. It's interesting that we see the world - we see the world - as the anti-Truth, the anti-Christ, the spurious Messiah. The world - those who want to stay in the world - will see us as anti-Truth, anti-Christ, spurious Messiah. We're prepared for that. We know that that is inevitable at this time. That was inevitable 2000 years ago - that is what found Jesus sentenced to die on a cross.

Remember, we said that the third type of person who can actually be salvaged at the end, can be taken into the keeping of the Next Level, simply because they believe in what we say. That simple belief is what occurred in the mind of the thief who was on the cross next to Jesus. When Jesus recognized his belief, He told him that, 'this day he would, upon their departure, be with Him in paradise.' He knew that he seriously believed. And He knew that is all that it took - is for him to believe who He was. Even believing Him in a condition when He was being killed as a heretic - against the Church, against the system. The Church today certainly will see us as against the Church. The Church of today is not of God. Though once the true followers - the Church - were of God. The only true Church of today are those who are connected with the present existence of the Next Level, the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven - and the Representative from that Kingdom.

This time is so exciting to us, even though we know that it is close to our end, and that is why it is exciting to us. We don't expect to or want to build a Church on this planet. We don't want any gothic Cathedral. We don't want any membership roll. We don't want to help you reproduce so that we have more children to put on the Sunday school roll in our Church. We are a group of believers in the Kingdom Level Above Human, who want to leave and enter that Kingdom, and become of significant service to that Kingdom.

This does not mean that when in the human kingdom, that a strong humanitarian drive is not a healthy thing. Because really a strong humanitarian drive is motivated to improve. But if you could only see that a human condition is a temporary condition, a steppingstone, an opportunity to get out of this kingdom, then you could accept this Truth. This is as scientific - this is as true as true could be - but you have to know me, you have to trust me, you have to believe me. Some can know me now. Some can even know me for the first time when they see this tape and say, "I don't know what there is, but there's something in my head that makes me know that fellow, and makes me know that what he's saying is true. And I may be wrong, but I'm going to try to find more out and see if that's what I need to be a part of. Because I know that this Earth has become something that is not where I belong."

It's funny - not funny - it's really sad that a segment of my Father's Kingdom, in particular my personal Heavenly Father, related to a community that is today considered the early Jewish community, and worked with them preparing them for my presence here 2000 years ago and now. And yet, the Jewish community of then and now, would certainly see me as anything but a Representative of God. The Muslims, who are considered by some to be the enemy of the Judeo-Christians, many of them have sustained a more real connection with God - with some higher standards of behavior, and with more restraint. You know, one of my students reminded me just today that they came in contact with a Muslim who said, "Look, you know you people of the West have a wrong idea of what we are. We don't praise Mohammed. We don't worship Mohammed. We consider Mohammed a prophet of many prophets. Many of the books of our literature are about Jesus. And I say, 'Great is God' more than 50 times a day, because God means so much to me." God means so much to many of them that they are more modest in the clothing that they wear. Many are more on guard against sensuality and "worldly" things. God means so much to many of them that they are willing to die for God and justify that frame of mind more quickly than they would a willingness to die for nation, or die for world. I'm not saying that Muslims are the ones who are going to inherit God's Kingdom any more than anyone else. In the eyes of the Kingdom of Heaven, there's no such thing as race or color or religious background. It doesn't matter - none of it matters. If the extent of your religious background was Star Trek - that in itself could be the best background you could have, if you could accept this as Truth, if you could accept this as reality.

This is a test time. You could easily say, "Here's a little bitty classroom, with some old fellow with a prune face sitting here, calling himself Do, saying, 'I'm a Representative of the Kingdom of God.' How can I believe that?" If you have some of my Father's mind in you, you will have some recognition of us and this information. Even though once you recognize me, the forces of this world will dive in with all their might to have you lose that recognition, to have you not trust me, to have you come to your senses, and come back into the service of this world.

I hope this tape session with you will be the beginning of our relationship. If this tape session is used to validate your seeing us as anti-God, the Anti-Christ, so be it. That's part of what we expect. That's part of the necessity of what comes at this time. It's the common thing for us to see each other as opposites of what we believe we are.

I'm so happy, because my time is short here. If you come with us, your time here can be shortened. When Jesus left 2000 years ago - or the one who was in Jesus, or when I left 2000 years ago - only a very short time after that, Truth was significantly corrupted. So that no matter who tried to use the name of "Jesus," or of "Christ," or His information - seeing it as true, seeing it as real, referring to what had been said of what it takes to come into my Kingdom - that fell apart, that deteriorated, that became unimportant. It's a miracle that His Teachings can still be found in the gospels - they're still there - you'd be amazed, you should read them again. Likewise this time, after I'm gone, when we leave, when we enter into my Father's spacecraft in order to go into service in His Kingdom, the Truth will deteriorate as fast as we depart. It will leave this atmosphere within a very short time.

I hope for your sake that you will, at least, ponder this - don't ask your neighbors, your friends, what they think of this. Instead, go into the privacy of your "closet" and see if you can connect with the purest, highest source that you might consider "God," and ask: "What about this? Is this information for real? Is this for me? If it is, then please give me the strength I need to pursue it." As soon as you tell anyone else, they will likely be used by the lower forces as their instruments to have you not believe, to have you stay in this world and wait for the "Heaven on Earth."

We hope to be of some service to you in this short time before our departure. We believe it to be a very short time. So our thoughts will be of you. We hope that your thoughts will be of our Father's Kingdom.

EARTH EXIT STATEMENTS BY STUDENTS

The following pages were added to the original book. These pages were the last statements written by Do and students prior to their leaving. They asked to have these statements placed on their web site, and we could be wrong, but felt they would also want them to be included in this book. The pages that follow contain their actual statements. Only formatting changes were made. No language has been changed, removed, or added to the these statements.

Why We Must Leave at This Time

It may be easier to understand if a few points were made clear why we feel that individuals have become much too accepting of what the established norms are. They have become complacent to the gradual, and to us, alarming changes that increasingly infringe upon the real freedom to grow as an acceptable servant to the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

1. To us, the most obvious infringement is upon the freedoms of the individual by the governments of the world. The strongest government and the one that acts the most righteous is the USA. Governments seem to feel that they are the only true "religion" of the people. Individuals under their "jurisdiction" are subject to their laws and not the laws of God. How a "Nation under God" follows almost none of the "Kingdom of God's" principles is an example of how they call themselves one thing but are exactly the opposite.

2. The second most infringing entity this world has created to separate man from even knowing his Creator are the religious systems themselves. Religions were started with the good intention of helping individuals get closer to their Heavenly Father, but unfortunately, the forces against the Level Above Human (Next Level) came in very quickly to distort any truth or reality of what the Kingdom of God is -- so much so that when His Representatives (Ti & Do) came, they were ignored and mocked. They simply restated the same information brought 2000 years ago -- that all aspects of human mammalian behavior must be overcome and replaced with the ways of the Kingdom of Heaven. The Creator does not need humans or those in service to him to use primitive techniques to create vehicles for the mind. That is what is meant by there is no marriage or giving in marriage in the Kingdom of Heaven. There is no gender and no need to reproduce because new members are those who graduate from the human kingdom into the Next Level. So, logically, an individual needs to drop reproductive desires and replace them with desires to be of service to their Heavenly Father. In the Bible, it quite aptly explains how when two individuals marry, their concerns must be on pleasing their mate and taking care of their offspring instead of completing any personal change necessary for membership into the Kingdom Heaven. I know I don't understand all the reasons why so many humans have felt to ignore the signs and warnings of what is about to occur, but I know that when they awaken from their sleep to the reality of the Next Level, it will probably come as a very harsh awakening.

3. Both types of "control" systems that man has come up with -- governments and religions -- seem to be designed for the benefit of a few. Their blatant distortion of the truth relies on the logic of the "end justifies the means." Conspiracy buffs can supply plenty of ammunition in this area and, unfortunately, they know more of what is real than most of the general population. Even their worst scenarios are not that far from the truth when it comes to the degree of corruption at this time, even to the point where the very government that most actively reprimands people and other governments for drug trafficking is itself also heavily involved in the same activity. Those who are actually in control are deliberately and carefully hiding behind the scenes. Most of the populace just doesn't realize how much control is exerted over our political and religious leaders. In fact, a one-world government is a reality, though not yet in name.

4. Humans have accepted such a fairy tale, that most have no idea of the reality of the Next Level. Their sleepy state will have them misinterpret what is happening as some sort of alien invasion when, in fact, it could be the return of the God they chose not to understand. Even the exposure of the Luciferians (the true space aliens) and how much they control this planet is also refuted. We held meetings, went up on satellite, wrote a book, put a website on Internet (Heavensgate.com), and tried the best we could to help some realize we knew what we were talking about. Some who listened were shocked to find what we said made a lot of sense to them, but others quickly dismissed us as "loony tunes," especially those who had fallen for the religious misinformation. There is so much we wished we could do, but in reality it is the Next Level's choice as to whom they will awaken. And it was up to those who heard the truth Ti & Do brought to make the choice of applying the effort to understand more. Now we have several clear indications that our work is done and it is time for us to return to the Next Level.

5. The monetary system provides the major way for the "control systems" to be put in place. The freedom to barter without each purchase and transaction being tracked is now almost impossible. This means that even the most innocent transaction can fall into broad categories where the individual is put under scrutiny. The "powers that be" justify these restrictions by saying they are necessary to combat drug traffickers and militia groups. No religious or political group has the right to place their morality on others. This type of environment is suffocating and intolerable.

6. Terrorists and militia groups are also a phenomenon of these end times. Again, they would not even exist if their freedoms were not being taken away. But everyone must now be searched at airports and borders if they pay in cash or book a flight the day of departure. This is just another symptom of the backward way humans handle things.

7. Anything in opposition to the accepted norm is labeled "radical" and "cultish." This has become such a judgmental society that it tries hard to limit the options of the individual. "Judge not lest you be judged" was given so that individuals would be more aware that their way of evaluating any circumstance is fallible. The programming of their biological computers (brains) can be so totally different from someone else's that it requires each individual to become, more understanding and tolerant. The main guideline, though, would be that individuals' choices would not infringe upon others.

Why I Want To Leave at This Time

These are my personal reasons, as an individual, for making this choice.

1. The main reason is that I know who Ti & Do are. They are members of the Kingdom of Heaven and I know it. I knew the day I met them. I can't explain the reason for my recognition unless I knew them in a previous life. If the idea of reincarnation, or living before in another body, is unbelievable, then you are accepting that you are a body and not a mind. By this I mean that if individuals think they are the body (vehicle), then they don't believe the most basic beliefs of most religions -- that the spirit is a gift from their Creator and He has the ability to give that spirit another body. Most individuals have not fully put together the reality that the soul is separate from the body, and when the body dies the spirit continues on. This memory is blocked by the body and it is up to each individual to take the steps to awaken that memory. The Kingdom of Heaven has designed it so that one or two of their Representatives will take human form and help awaken those who are ready.

2. It is hard for some to believe that I would choose to follow my Teachers in this transition and that's because they incorrectly identify me with the vehicle (body). Some may try to find something in the vehicle's past to explain this so-called "bizarre" (really quite natural) behavior. But there is nothing there to find. This vehicle had good parents and the vehicle's life was happy and "normal" by any standards. I know I was very lucky that the Next Level thought I would follow my heart and go with my instincts and try to gain membership into their Kingdom, and take this vehicle with me. We know it was hard for some of the relatives to accept the choice we made, but this is not any fault of ours. The pain they feel is rooted in ignorance of who the Heavenly Father is and His right to call those souls ready to return to His House. There is only one real family and it is not determined by the flesh but by the mind that occupies the soul. It could have been seen as an honor to the family tree that one of its members could house a soul that would choose to make this final transition. But unfortunately, there was so much distortion and confusion that it caused needless suffering. Many times I wished those who one knew the vehicle could share in my joy, but their misunderstanding blocked them from taking advantage of the growth that was also offered them.

3. Another very important reason for my desire to be part of my Creator's Kingdom is it is exactly the opposite of this human world. The most positive emotions are valued in totally different ways. These ways are ones I have tried to make my own over the years and deeply long to be in the Kingdom where these principles are part of everyone's behavior. Following are just a few examples of how differently humans think compared to Members of the Next Level.

A. LOVE: In the human kingdom it is a literally a four-letter word between two individuals doing an act they would be embarrassed to do in front of their Heavenly Father. Also, it is one that means you are my possession -- a child, mate, parent, or friend becomes someone who must earn your love by doing what pleases your way of thinking. In the Next Level, this is the desire to please the Heavenly Father(s) or Older Members, which is like a linking chain of mind leading all the way to the "Chief of Chiefs," or the Creator. The Next Level is a many-membered Kingdom where all treat each other with the utmost respect and consideration. Real love is giving of yourself in service to help others. B. KINDNESS: In the human kingdom, it means that you help someone become more human and shield them from unpleasantness. In the Next Level, kindness is helping others understand in a careful way where they could have done something better and more like a Member of the Next Level. C. ANGER: This is a very negative emotion in the human kingdom. It represents revenge and doing some violent act out of malice and ill feelings -- just letting emotion rule all reason. Yet in the Next Level, the "Lord" has displayed his anger or discontent with humans several times in our human history. This anger was more of a cleansing of vehicles that had been so mis-programmed that the spirits needed to be removed and some given another chance to find a better vehicle. When the Next Level feels that humans have been given enough chances to improve, but the vehicles have become too corrupt with misinformation, it then is more merciful to give them a new start in different vehicle. Anger as humans know it is getting out of control, but in the Next Level they maintain control in order to have greater freedom to make better choices. D. FREEDOM: In the human world freedom is any activity that somehow stimulates their vehicles regardless of how it might interfere with or hurt others or themselves. In the Next Level, freedom is the control over the vehicle so that it does not interfere with one's judgment. Selfish desires are replaced with a desire to please others and especially your Older Member(s) who are your connection to all that gives you joy. E. JOY or HAPPINESS: In the human kingdom, this is another emotion that can totally revolve around selfish desires. In the Next Level, there is so much joy in being part of the chain of mind that works together as a crew, assisting others in getting closer to the Kingdom of Heaven.

There is so much more I can say that would illustrate the feelings of great joy I will have upon returning to the Kingdom of Heaven. I realize that each individual has some version what they think the Kingdom of Heaven should be. For the most part, they are just selfish and foolish fantasies. The funny thing is that each individual will get to go their "Heaven," but there will be a bitter pill of reality at the end of their false rainbow. For me, I know that I have found the true Kingdom. No, I can't prove anything, and actually our exit will probably make many feel that we were wrong in thinking the Next Level was a physical place. In reality, we will just have made our transition to a more advanced Next Level vehicle (more physical and real than this body) much easier. You see, it is very much like the caterpillar making the transition towards becoming a butterfly -- discarding the old shell so the new one inside can emerge.

I have been so lucky to have had Ti & Do as my Teachers and Older Members, and I thank the Next Level many times for sending them to help me. They have been so patient and caring. They have shown me through their high standards what an orderly and wonderful place the Next Level will be to be a part of. The most exciting thing is that the wait is almost over.

With great joy,

Chkody

Earth Exit Statement

By Glnody - a student

Why We Must Leave at This Time

We do not identify ourselves as the body, as almost all humans mistakenly do, but rather as the soul that occupies the body it is temporarily using as a "vehicle" or "suit of clothes." Furthermore, as Members of the Next Level, we do not think or act as humans think and act. However, because we are occupying human vehicles for the duration of this task, the inhabitants of this planet insist upon identifying us as what they see -- human vehicles -- and therefore demand that we conform to their standard of thinking and acting as the "vehicles" and not as who we truly are. If we do not conform, then friction and potential conflict occurs. This is one reason we choose to stick to ourselves and live a cloistered lifestyle. We have, through Do (our Older Member), a very active and current means of communication with the Next Level, through Ti (Do's Older Member). Ti occupied a human vehicle for the first 10 years of this task but is currently in a Next Level vehicle overseeing this task from a Next Level spacecraft. Thus, we receive continual instructions from Ti, which we must be free to follow from moment to moment. It is therefore imperative that we live as nomads, free to go wherever we are led on short notice. Many humans assume that if you live privately and do not put down roots, then you must have something to hide -- like a drug dealer or other criminal, or might be, at the very least, a part of a "dangerous cult."

Factors that force people to become a part of the "system" are increasing at an alarming rate. Computer technology enables everyone from Madison Avenue executives to Government agencies to keep a record of your every move, and "flags" are thrown up any time you don't fit their pre-conceived mold of what a good citizen should be. Our right to travel and remain nomadic is rapidly being restricted. We often travel light on spur-of-the-moment instructions, however we can no longer take an airline flight on short notice without harassment. Anyone who purchases a ticket with cash without advance reservations and does not have a load of baggage to check will likely be subjected to baggage searches, interrogation, and suspicion. Even when they can find nothing whatsoever that is questionable, authorities have at times reluctantly let our members proceed, convinced that they are indeed guilty of some crime but too clever to be caught. Police presence at border crossings have increased to the point that you feel you are in a war zone.

The dominant governments of the world, especially that of the United States, have become totally corrupt. If a citizen even tries to keep informed about this corruption, let alone speak out or take a stand against it, he opens himself up, at the very least, to scrutiny and invasion of privacy, such as phone taps and surveillance. Anything is permitted when the very ones who are the most responsible for perpetuating the corruption declare someone to be a threat to the "National Security."

In the human world, individuality and lightning-quick judgment is highly valued. We come from a world where everyone is dependent upon their Older Member and a "chain of command" that leads to the Creator of all things. Any actions taken that haven't come down from above are considered renegade and disruptive to the forward motion of the tasks at hand. It is a very crew-minded, task-oriented world. In our classroom, we strive to keep individuality in check and operate as an efficient unit. We have grown to realize the value of not trusting our own individual judgment and rely upon the higher judgment that comes when we approach a situation together as partners with teams looking to a senior member. Some humans assume that we must be weak-minded or incapable of individual thought since we do not make snap decisions, when in reality we are each stronger than any single human could ever be because of our looking beyond ourselves for answers.

We value our Next Level family over any human family these vehicles might have issued from. This is seen as a cardinal sin by this human civilization, for the FAMILY unit is considered holy in today's world. Everything from zoning regulations to home-owners' associations work to ensure that only single-family units have an acceptable place in neighborhoods that have tolerable living conditions. We have been forced to be less than up-front as to how many of us will be living in houses and apartments we might occupy from time to time and to sign leases that are designed to prevent us from being able to go elsewhere at a moment's notice. We have had to compromise our Next Level principles at every turn. We feel the current world economic systems are against all guidelines given to the humans by the Next Level at the beginning of and throughout this civilization. Although currency systems were not given to humans by the Next Level, we prefer to pay cash to using credit cards or purchase plans. The world is rapidly moving towards a cashless society, to the point that even now those who make any significant purchase with cash are regarded with suspicion, as possible drug dealers or criminals. Banks are definitely tools of the "Luciferian" forces in opposition to the Next Level, and we would prefer not to make banking transactions. It is rare to receive cash for any funds due to us, such as pay checks and store refunds, so we are forced to open bank accounts to be able to cash those checks. We must obtain mailing addresses in order to handle bills we owe and to receive items that we need, which, again, goes against our principle to not put down roots. It also jeopardizes our need for privacy. Not that we have anything to hide, for we have always lived within the law and have been careful not to take actions that would be questionable or warrant criticism. It is just that there are very real space-alien forces in opposition to us who can use such things as bank accounts and mailing addresses against us.

These "lower forces" have succeeded in totally addicting humans to mammalian behavior. Everything from ads for toothpaste to clothing elevates human sexuality. Being from a genderless world, this behavior is extremely hideous to us. Even if we go on an outing as harmless as visiting the zoo, the tour guides lace their commentary with sexual innuendoes, even when the group they are addressing is full of small children. Even the medical profession promotes sexuality. Procedures such as liposuction, breast enlargements, and even sex-change operations are considered perfectly acceptable, but ask a physician to neuter your vehicle for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven and you will more than likely be referred to a psychologist who will help you "get in touch with your true sexual desires." It is inconceivable to most humans that you could make such a request and be of sound mind.

We seriously considered moving out of this country, but there seemed to be no place on the globe that would allow us to live as we would like. We examined relocating to other areas, such as Europe, Australia, and New Zealand, but all of these nations are Christian-oriented, and the same difficulties we have encountered here exist in these other nations as well. Ironically, Christians have been the quickest to condemn us even though we are the return they say they are anxiously awaiting. Many righteous Christians feel it is their divine duty to cleanse the world of those who do not share their views. It is clear they do not know who Jesus was or what He came here to teach, which was -- how to reject everything of this world in order to become an acceptable newborn into His Father's Kingdom. No human has the ability, much less the right, to judge another human.

We examined the Muslim nations. We liked the fact that they put allegiance to God as all-important, but they are so restrictive in some ways to those who are not Islamic. In addition, many of these countries would not allow our female classmates to dress according to our guidelines or to do some of the tasks they like to do. We examined India, Thailand, and the Buddhist world in general but know that we could not have gone there and lived openly as who we are without attracting followers. Our classroom is over, and followers would have been a distraction to our next step -- Earth Exit. We almost moved to Mexico, but by this time we realized that a move to another country would no longer be right for us, for the time was too short. We have already put our information out world-wide several times. The Next Level saw to it that any who were deserving of being saved from recycling were made aware of our presence here, at which time they made their choice between what our Older Members had to offer, which they knew deep in their souls to be true, and the worldly addictions of their vehicles. This may not sound logical or possible to you, but we know the reality of the Next Level's efforts and abilities and how closely they have guided everything we have done.

So there is no place for us here. It is time for us to go home -- to God's Kingdom, to the Next Level. There is no place for us to go but up.

Why I Want To Leave at This Time

I know who my Older Members, Ti and Do, are. I believe in, cleave to, trust in, and rely totally upon them. I know my Older Member, Do, is going to his Older Member, Ti, at this time. Once He is gone, there is nothing left here on the face of the Earth for me, no reason to stay a moment longer. Furthermore, I know that my graft to Them would be jeopardized if I linger here once They have departed. I know my classmates/siblings feel the same as I do and will be choosing to go when Do goes. I want to stay with my Next Level family. Choosing to exit this borrowed human vehicle or body and go home to the Next Level is an opportunity for me to demonstrate my loyalty, commitment, love, trust, and faith in Ti and Do and the Next Level. It is my chance to prove to the Next Level that there is nothing here in this world that I want and that I clearly know that I am the soul and the Next Level Mind which occupies it and not this biological outer garment that I am currently occupying. It is my chance to go to God, to prove that I love His World. How could I honestly say I love Him more than anything if I cling to this world at all costs and only leave here when I am forced to go when this vehicle ceases to function?

I know that there are probably many things you would tell me if you could sit with me now, knowing what is immediately ahead for me. First let me explain that our Older Members have upon numerous occasions given us each the task of carefully examining and deciding if we are absolutely sure that Ti and Do are indeed from the Next Level and that we want to continue on in this classroom. The door out of this classroom has always been wide open. Those who have decided to leave have never been asked to reconsider or coerced to stay in any way. We never expressed animosity at their leaving but instead sent them off with hugs and best wishes, wanting only the best for them. So I am not afraid to hear your arguments. They have all been thoroughly examined in my silent meditations and long ago been proven in my estimation to be false. You would ask me, "What if Ti and Do aren't from the Kingdom of Heaven?" Well, if they aren't then no one is. We have exhaustively examined all other paths. None of them make sense to us. There are so many gaps, holes, and inconsistencies in each of them, while this is complete and each of the pieces fits perfectly. Besides, we have been witness too many times to the incredible substance of Mind and wisdom that comes through Ti and Do and have repeatedly observed the reality of their connection to the Next Level. No human could have designed the course this classroom has taken.

You would ask me, "What if God wants you to live your life out." I can't imagine that this is the case. That is logic based upon the "Luciferian" definition of "life" -- that "I" am this vehicle. There is no life here in the human world. This planet has become the planet of the walking dead. The human plants walk, talk, take careers, procreate, and so forth, but there is no life in them. It is all just a counterfeit illusion crafted by the forces in opposition to the Next Level. This has become the planet of pain -- deep inside there is no joy in the humans, although they superficially convince themselves they are happy. I have been given this rare and golden opportunity to leave this world and return to life, to become a newborn in the Evolutionary Level Above Human. Suicide would be to turn away from this incredible opportunity I've been given, to turn my back on the Next Level and the life they are offering after all the care and nurturing I've been given. However, if I am wrong and this action is not the Next Level's desire for me, I can't imagine that the Members of the Kingdom of Heaven wouldn't feel very, very good about my demonstration of love for them and quickly overlook my taking this action out of innocently misunderstanding their plan for me.

Some of you would undoubtedly ask me, "What if there is no God and this life is all you get?" First off, I can't understand how someone could take a serious look at the universe and all of its complexity and believe that it all came into existence by happenstance. But for the sake of argument, let's say there is no God, no Kingdom of Heaven, nothing beyond this brief existence. All I can say is this vehicle has had a far more wonderful life in this classroom than it ever would have had otherwise. I have had the experiences of at least a dozen beautiful lifetimes in these past 21 Earth-years. Nowhere else could I have found any friend as precious as each one of my dear, dear classmates. If I had not been a part of this classroom, I would have lived but one dreary lifetime. I can't believe there is no God, but even if I knew that to be the case I would still choose this path if I had it to do over again. The controversy surrounding Doctor Kevorkian is whether or not it is acceptable to willingly exit the vehicle due to physical pain and suffering. We feel that the mental suffering of remaining in a world where you know you do not belong is certainly as severe. The human world is a hideous hell due to all of the poor choices humans have made since the beginning of this civilization. If this is all there is with nothing to look forward to beyond this, then why choose to extend your time in this hell?

You no doubt would have other "words of wisdom" you'd like to have told us. Believe me, we have heard them all many times over and have determined them to be words of lies. If we are not afraid to play out all of your scenarios, are you willing to play out just one of ours? What if your judgment and logic are faulty and Ti and Do are from the Kingdom of Heaven? Are you willing to consider that, even hypothetically?

Earth Exit Statement

By Srrody - a student

Why We Must Leave at This Time

Have you tried to cross the border into Mexico or take even an intrastate plane trip on short notice with only carry-on luggage lately? Have you tried to cash a check without "proper id" or an existing account, or buy a car and pay cash for it? Probably not. Most people use credit cards, aren't cautious in giving personal information to government or authority figures, and live according to a "normal" pattern of behavior. How did these things become "normal?!"

Not that long ago, banking institutions were suspect, individual privacy was expected, government was a tool of the populace, and God was sought after and looked to, not institutions. Now, to step outside the routine is to become a deviant, a suspected drug dealer, or even a terrorist -- someone to be kept under scrutiny. You have unlimited "freedom" if you use your credit card, if you pay a percentage to the government, if you aren't too religious, if you, if you.... We live in a world of platitudes and shallow lives. If you search your soul, if you have a soul, you know you are miserable, overburdened, unsatisfied, leading a purposeless life -- waiting to die. Either that, or you are just playing out a routine, living for the next indulgence, seeking a greater buzz or stimulus that will further mute whatever conscience or understanding you might once have had. You have accepted being trapped with no hope of escape and either rationalized that existence or become numbed to it -- living out some fantasy. Either you never knew life or you have already died.

Some are fighting the more obvious shackles, having "seen through" this or that conspiracy or global plot -- whether it be government or corporate experimentation on their own citizens (e.g., reports of DDT testing in the '50s, Tuskegee syphilis in the '70s, genetics on inner city babies in the '90s, etc.) or misdirected blame to cover mistakes or hidden agendas as voiced by various patriot/militia groups, but they are still only seeing the most obvious deceptions. They, too, still cling to values and lies that were instilled by the enemies of their Creator long ago (family, sexuality, independence, ...) -- the details of which can be found in our record, Heaven's Gate, for those who seek truth and its full realization: Life.

Why must we leave now? We can no longer live and function here by the standards of our Father's house. You have forgotten your true Creator. You either identify with your temporal flesh rather than see it as just a container that could be filled with His Mind or Spirit, or choose to draw in the mind of His enemy and proclaim yourselves gods or part of a "cosmic consciousness" rather than tackle the difficult birth pangs of literal overcoming of the human condition. Even the so-called Christians and Jews choose to follow ritual, "country club" religion, or some fantasy "savior" that would enrich their current human existence by "just believing on him" rather than face up to the literal overcoming that is necessary for transition. I'm afraid that even those "born-again" aren't bearing the mind that we would identify as of our Father's House -- you turn a blind eye to why you were created in the first place. This is not to put you down, but a reminder of what you could become and become a part of. Your permissiveness of His enemy has made our continued existence here impossible, for to stay here we would have to become more as you (human plants) rather than better prepared to dwell in His Kingdom - we would have to choose death rather than Life.

Why I Want To Leave at This Time

A number of less personal reasons can be found in "why we must leave at this time." My more intimate reasons for wanting to leave at this time come not from any sense of hopelessness or despair, as one might suspect. Quite the contrary, it is a profoundly joyous time for me -- the fulfillment of everything I have always hoped for -- to dwell in the Creator's house and be called by Him, a son.

My Father, you all know of. The last time we were here nearly 2000 years ago, He astounded you with knowledge of the reality of His Father's house and what it took to be born into it. You didn't understand, and the task was too difficult for most, so you turned it into a religion -- Christianity. I don't know how I was so fortunate, maybe I was less into the world than some others, or just happened to be in the right place at the right time and knew a good thing when I saw it. I don't even know when that first encounter was. It doesn't matter. But I grew to love this individual, His Father, and His Family with all that I am. All I wanted to do was be close to Them, to be a part of Them.

Some of you will have enough sense to recognize Them as Members of the Kingdom of God, bearing the same message they have always brought -- translated at whatever level you could apply it -- spoon feeding those of us who could take the nourishment they had to offer. This visit, both my Father and Grandfather came, working closely with us in an extended classroom for over 20 years. When my Grandfather's vehicle finally gave out, it was a real wake-up call for me -- the realization that my teachers may not be able to teach me all I needed to know and apply before their vehicles gave out from the intolerable conditions here. The nearly 12 years since that event have been very accelerated ones, not only for us, but for the planet as well -- as more and more of the facade of this place is stripped away, as lies are laid bare, and the truth comes to light. Many times, Do (the name my Father goes by this time around) would struggle to keep His vehicle going, just to give us more time, just to give more of you more time. You have no idea how badly He just wanted to return Home to the heavens, to His Older Member's House -- how hard it was for Him to find any motivation to stay even one more day -- much less 11-¾ more years. It would have been perfectly okay with Ti (the name of my Grandfather) for Him to go -- the heavens know how much effort He has exerted for your sakes and how poorly you responded -- how quickly you dismissed what you only superficially knew.

Well, His efforts more than paid off as far as I am concerned. And as the comet Hale-Bopp brings closure to this visitation, perhaps even this civilization, I am so filled with joy -- not only for myself and my classmates, but with the pride that only a son can have for His Father, who has pulled off a Next Level miracle that any of us made it out of this world alive. These last few days, we have been touring areas that were significant to Ti and Do's awakening and allowing individuals in the class to re-examine if there's anything that might hold any attraction for any individual. What we found was that things that hold the interest of humans and which once even did the same for our vehicles, now seem such a waste of time. Everything of this world has been offered us, and I can honestly say, "Thanks, but no thanks." My Lord is sufficient by Himself (though He would point to His Father, and so on up the line).

There may be some of you who will read this and not just judge by appearance but recognize the possibility that what we have done is true just as we have expressed it. Some could even be accelerated by our exit, even as we were accelerated by Ti's, and use this opportunity to join us. If so, we will be watching and waiting to assist for as long as we can. Good luck.

Addendum Appendix B:

EXIT

PRESS RELEASE

The following pages were added to the original book. These pages were the last statements written by Do and students prior to their leaving. They asked to have these statements placed on their web site, and we could be wrong, but felt they would also want them to be included in this book. The pages that follow contain their actual statements. Only formatting changes were made. No language has been changed, removed, or added to the these statements.

Press release to be issued to the News Media 3/22/97

By the time you read this, we suspect that the human bodies we were wearing have been found and that a flurry of fragmented reports have begun to hit the wire services. For those who want to know the facts, the following statement has been issued.

HEAVEN'S GATE "Away Team" Returns to Level Above Human in Distant Space

RANCHO SANTO FE, CA -- By the time you receive this, we'll be gone -- several dozen of us. We came from the Level Above Human in distant space and we have now exited the bodies that we were wearing for our earthly task, to return to the world from whence we came -- task completed. The distant space we refer to is what your religious literature would call the Kingdom of Heaven or the Kingdom of God.

We came for the purpose of offering a doorway to the Kingdom of God at the end of this civilization, the end of this age, the end of this millenium. We came from that Level, that time, that space, and entered this one. And in so doing, we had to enter human bodies -- which we did, for the most part, in the mid-seventies. Now it was time for us to leave those bodies (vehicles) -- bodies that we borrowed for the time we were here (by previous arrangement) for this specific task. The task was not only to bring in information about that Evolutionary Kingdom Level Above Human, but to give us the experience of working against the forces of what the human evolutionary level, at this time, has become. And while it was a good learning experience for us, it also gave all who ever received knowledge from that Kingdom an opportunity to recognize us and this information, and to even move out of the human level and into the Next Level or the Next Evolutionary Level, the "Kingdom of Heaven," the Kingdom of God.

The Kingdom of God, the Level Above Human, is a physical world, where they inhabit physical bodies. However, those bodies are merely containers, suits of clothes -- the true identity (of the individual) is the soul or mind/spirit residing in that "vehicle." The body is merely a tool for that individual's use -- when it wears out, he is issued a new one.

No one can enter the Kingdom of Heaven by trying to live a good life in this world, and then, thinking that when this world's life takes your body, you get to "go to heaven." The only time that Next Kingdom can be entered is when there is a Member or Members of that Kingdom who have come into the human kingdom, incarnated as we have, offering clarification of that information. To get into a discarnate condition just by disconnecting from your body doesn't mean that you are going to go anywhere, whether that loss of body is "premature" or not. When we step out of our "vehicle," we have to know where and who our "tour guide" (our Shepherd) is -- for what's next. We have to know we can connect with a Shepherd whom we trust, and that we have decided, "If that Shepherd will have me, I want to continue to be a sheep -- and I will do everything I can to please that Shepherd."

Periodically, that Next Level sends in a Representative -- a Shepherd -- and offers a graduation class, offers life, out of this evolutionary level into that Next Evolutionary Level, and we are at the end of one of those times. TI and DO were the names used by the Representatives of that Next Level, the Kingdom of God, sent to the "surface" of this planet to serve as our Teachers/"Midwives" at this time.

During a brief window of time, some may wish to follow us. If they do, it will not be easy. The requirement is to not only believe who the Representatives are, but, to do as they and we did. You must leave everything of your humanness behind. This includes the ultimate sacrifice and demonstration of faith -- that is, the shedding of your human body. If you should choose to do this, logistically it is preferred that you make this exit somewhere in the area of the West or Southwest of the United States -- but if this is not possible -- it is not required. You must call on the name of TI and DO to assist you. In so doing, you will engage a communication of sorts, alerting a spacecraft to your location where you will be picked up after shedding your vehicle, and taken to another world -- by members of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Only a Member of the Next Level can give you Life -- can take you out of "Death" -- but it requires that you disconnect, separate, from the last element holding you to the human kingdom.

We know what we're saying -- we know it requires a "leap of faith." But it's deliberate -- designed for those who would rather take that leap than stay in this world.

We suggest that anyone serious about considering this go into their most quiet place and ask, scream, with all of their being, directing their asking to the Highest Source they can imagine (beyond Earth's atmosphere), to give them guidance. Only those "chosen" by that Next Kingdom will know that this is right for them, and will be given the courage required to act.
